Armistice Dance To Be Held Nov. 10

Plans Are Formulated at Tuesday's Meeting

Tuesday evening the Campbell-Richmond Post of the American Legion held its monthly meeting at the Miles Hotel in Ortonville, with a fine attendance.

Plans were considered at this meeting for the annual Armistice dance to be held in the Clarkston High School Auditorium, Friday, November 10th. Although there was some question about the conditions abroad changing the title to "Peace" or "Remembrance" dance it was decided that inasmuch as the United States did not "hate" anyone and was not at war with anyone, and the United States was enjoying the peace which our armistice stood for that we would keep the present name of "Armistice" dance.

More details will be given about the dance at a later time.

The Clarkston Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Urch on Tuesday afternoon. Roll Call was answered with current events by 22 members. There were two guests present.

After a short business session Mrs. A. E. Walter gave a very interesting paper on "The Highlights of 1939" and Mrs. Harold Pailthorp favored the Club with a very lovely piano solo. Plans were made for a visit to the Oxford Club on Monday, Oct. 23rd.

The next meeting will be "Pioneer Day" with Mrs. H. L. Garter.

Last Friday 36 members and friends of the Literary Club visited Greenfield Village. They left Clarkston by bus at 9:00 o'clock and although the weather was anything but favorable yet when they reached their destination the rain had stopped and everyone enjoyed the afternoon. The museum was the first place visited and here the time was much too short to view and study everything of interest. Although the tour was conducted and there were about 60 in the entire group yet each one took advantage of every minute and there was not very much that was missed. Only a few of the Clarkston group saw the glass-blowers. When the tour had ended the Clarkston crowd boarded their bus and drove to Dearborn where they visited the stores and some visited the library. Not until they were returning home did storm clouds gather again and by the time they reached the main four corners of town it was raining quite heavily. However the group was delighted with their exceptionally interesting trip and some have decided to return to Greenfield Village again.

Are You in Need?

Big men dress up in hunting togs, And load the car with guns and dogs,

And go to hunt the timid game, To me it seems to be a shame— To think big men so much enjoy The things I did when just a boy.

Before I came to realize It mattered not the type or size, Each living thing has spirit too, Much like the one inside of you. And though the body lifeless be, If only men had eyes to see

The spirit of the bird they killed, Just traveled on where'er it willed, The chances are it stood close by, And saw its earthly body die.

And saw the hunter come to claim The body of the helpless game, If only men on this agreed— They'd only kill when they're in need. They'd find it wasn't any thrill, To go out hunting just to kill, And they could have a lot of fun— If camera took the place of gun.

HOLLY THEATRE

Thrilling story of those little-known days of the World War when U-boats attacked Atlantic Coast shipping and improvised subchasers with untrained men went out to meet the menace, "Thunder Afloat" brings Wallace Beery to the screen of the Holly Theatre next Sunday in one of his best two-fisted roles.

As a tugboat captain who tries to fight the war single-handed after a submarine has sunk his beloved craft, Beery is supported by Chester Morris, who appears as his bitter tugboat rival and later his commanding officer in the navy, and by Virginia Grey, seen as his daughter.
 Among the thrilling action sequences are scenes showing the raiding and sinking of Beery's tugboat and string of barges by a U-boat, the torpedoing of a lightship, the disabling of a subchaser and Beery's near-death when he goes under water to cut a fouled rudder cable, a U-boat opening fire on and sinking a Gloucester schooner when the schooner tries to ram her, and the crippling of the sub by depth bombs as the sub-chaser fleet closes in.

Action shots at sea were filmed off the Atlantic Coast with the remnant of the chaser fleet of World War days, and off the Coronado Islands on the West Coast with the U. S. S. Sturgeon, one of the newest of the navy's submarines.
 As Jon Thorson, untidy captain of a tugboat in a small New England seaport, who joins the United States navy and wants to fight the war single-handed after a U-boat has sunk his beloved craft, Beery revels again in the comedy and heart-tugs of such pictures as "Min and Bill" and "Tugboat Annie", in the fighting qualities of "The Champ" and the breath-taking thrills of "Hell Divers". Himself a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Naval Air Force Reserve, he puts into "Thunder Afloat" all the whole-hearted effort of his complete realism for the part.

SPORTSMEN WILL EAT AND LISTEN

County Association Plans Banquet at Pontiac

Miles D. Pirnie, Doctor of Ornithology and Director of the W. K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary near Battle Creek, and noted waterfowl authority, will be the speaker at the Outdoor Sportsman's Association banquet to be held November 6 at the Elks Club in Pontiac.
 Dr. Pirnie is the author of the book, "Michigan Waterfowl Management", published by the Department of Conservation in Michigan in 1935, a book widely used by refuge managers and students. In 1938 and 1939, during the month of August, Dr. Pirnie conducted waterfowl investigations at the Delta Marshes at Manitoba, Canada. He has been Director of the W. K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary at Gull Lake and Wintergreen Lake since July, 1931; is also Associate Professor of Zoology and teaching special and graduate students in Ornithology and Wildlife management.

He served as Ornithologist for the Michigan Conservation Department in 1928 to July, 1931, and is chairman of the Wilson Ornithological Club, Wildlife Conservation Committee, and a Vice President of the Michigan Audubon Society. Dr. Pirnie graduated from Cornell University in 1923, receiving his doctor's degree there in 1928. He did graduate research on waterfowl under Professor Arthur A. Allen at Cornell University and instructed in Ornithology from 1923 to 1928. Dr. Pirnie is an engaging, interesting, competent and worth-while speaker.
 Tickets for the banquet are in the hands of directors and officers of the association.
