Oak Hill P. T. A. Has Splendid Meeting

The Oak Hill Parent-Teachers organization held their regular business meeting and a special program last Friday night. There was a very large attendance. In fact there was such a crowd that reports are that the schoolhouse was packed to the rafters. The proceeds are to be used to purchase chairs.

The variety program which was presented was one of the best ever given in the vicinity. There was nothing long and tiresome on the program but every number was short and snappy and kept the attention of the smallest and youngest in the audience. The program included a speaker; music of all kinds, piano selections, harmonica solos, vocals, etc.; tap dancing and impersonations. One special feature was the music by the rhythm band under the direction of the school teacher, Mrs. Helen Sanford. This band is made up of the little children in the school and their conductor is due plenty of credit. They certainly make a fine presentation. Not only the pupils but the parents were proud of this little band and its leader, Mrs. Sanford, who is looked upon by the residents of the Oak Hill District as the most efficient teacher in Oakland County.

Those responsible for this successful affair were: Mrs. Sheldon, program; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckman, refreshments and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lowery, publicity. The next meeting will be held on Friday, March 29th. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perry will have charge of the program; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Inman, refreshments and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whipple will be in charge of publicity.

The officers of this very active P. T. A. are: president, Alex Solley; vice president, Harold Wright; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. June Denton. While Mrs. Denton is recovering from burns and shock suffered in a recent fire, Mrs. Helen Sanford is acting as secretary for the organization.

Remember the date of the next meeting, March 29th, and plan to attend.

Leap Year Party A Grand Success

The Epworth League Leap Year Party held at the Clarkston Methodist Church was a success and everyone had a grand time. The boys of the League furnished the most beautiful boxes which were auctioned off by Mr. Pailthorp to the girls of the League at high prices.

The evening was spent in Folk Dancing, a leader coming from Flint to direct the dancing.

Public Invited To Attend Dinner

On Saturday evening, March 2nd the local O. E. S. Chapter will serve a public dinner at the Temple starting at 5:30 o'clock. A very fine menu has been planned as follows:

- tomato juice
- Roast pork dressing
- mashed potatoes gravy
- peas and carrots
- pickles jelly
- molded salad
- rolls
- apple pie and cheese coffee

Plan to attend. Mrs. Hazel Jones of Williams Lake is in charge.

Attention Voters

Saturday is the day for the Republican and Democratic Caucuses. Township officers for the ensuing year will be nominated at these meetings.

Large Crowd Attends Senior Prom Friday

Last Friday night the Clarkston School Seniors held their Prom. The school gym was the scene of one of the loveliest affairs held there for some time. The room had been converted into a cozy but spacious club-room. There was a false ceiling of balloons and red, white and blue streamers. Around the room were comfortable chairs and floor lamps. Everything possible was done for the comfort of the guests. The music by Boeberitz orchestra was all to be desired. The refreshments consisted of Punch, cookies and striped stick candy. Everyone had such a good time that they are already looking forward to the next dance that they hope will be held before this active senior class leaves the High School.

The working committees are to be congratulated.

Veterinarian Devotes Full Time To Private Practice

Ashton Emery, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, is now devoting his full time to his private practice. He operates a modern Small Animal Hospital at 5540 Dixie Highway and is ready now to answer farm calls at any hour. He does request that farm calls be made as soon as possible after the need for a veterinarian is evidenced. His telephone number is Pontiac 31-1222.

Rudy's Grocery Opens Saturday

With a complete and newly equipped store, Rudy's Market will open Saturday across from the Beattie Bros. Motor Sales.

Rudy has installed new shelves, new counters, new ice box and meat counter.

It will be remembered that following the fire, which destroyed his store last August, he has been operating in the town hall.

Your attention is called to his full page adv on the last page of this paper.

Births

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Craven a 5 lb. 1 oz. son, Gary Lee, on Friday, February 23rd at the Laura Ash Maternity Home in Clarkston.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. McDaniel of 8204 Rattalee Lake Road, Clarkston, a 7 lb. son, Allen Lawrence, on Monday, Feb. 26, at the Mary Green Hospital in Clarkston.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Anderson of Williams Lake a 6 lb. 14 oz. daughter, Laura Caroline, on Monday, February 26th at the Laura Ash maternity home.

Discussion Group Holds Meeting

Wednesday evening the local discussion group held its February meeting. Wm. P. McGannon explained the Workmen's unemployment act while John Stackpole gave a short talk on the Social Security Act. A discussion and question box followed.

Mrs. Bradley Miller was hostess to her contract club at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. L. K. Bell of Chesaning is spending the week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters went to Monroe to visit his mother, Mrs. Richard Waters, who is in poor health.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk attended a Postmasters' meeting at the Post Office in Detroit on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Brosius of Ortonville were Sunday dinner and evening guests of Mrs. Agnes Beardsley and daughter, Miss Phyllis Beardsley.

Mrs. John DeLind entertained a group of her friends at a luncheon and bridge at her home last Friday afternoon. She will be hostess to another group this afternoon.

The Brandon Center School held a box social at the school on Thursday night of last week. The proceeds went towards the final payment on their piano. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the "Washington Program" presented by the children and then the refreshment hour. Alex Solley acted as auctioneer. Mrs. Davis, the Brandon Center school teacher was in charge of the affair.

Friends Visited On Way Home

Mrs. A. B. Wompole returned to her home here on Sunday after an absence of about seven weeks. During that time Mrs. Wompole was saddened by the death of her father and also by the death of a very dear friend in Phoenix, Arizona. Then again Mrs. Wompole was happy to be with her mother and the other members of her family. She was also happy to see Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant of Hayward, Calif., formerly of Clarkston. The Bryants are happy and contented and have a real pretty place with beautiful flowers. The day Mrs. Wompole was there they were able to cut a lovely bouquet of beautiful Iris. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant wished to be remembered to all of their friends in Clarkston and vicinity.

Mrs. Wompole also spent a day or two in Hollywood and while there she called the Fiskses on the telephone and had a good visit with Mrs. Fiske. Mr. Fiske is employed and they are very happy and sent their regards to their friends here. An interesting incident in Mrs. Wompole's travels was a visit in San Francisco during the Chinese New Year's celebration. On her way home Mrs. Wompole stopped in Phoenix, Arizona, the home of her friend Miss Harriett Sperry, who passed away in January. Miss Sperry was a teacher of voice and phonetics. She made her home with Miss Montgomerie who has visited at the Wompole home in Clarkston many times. Miss Sperry's request that she be cremated was fulfilled and her ashes were strewn over the mountain "Four Peaks", near "Inspiration Point" where the "Lost Dutchman's Mine" is located near Phoenix.

Mrs. Wompole then continued eastward and homeward and stopped a day in Chicago to visit her aunt. Her arrival home on Sunday was welcomed by Mr. Wompole and Mazy, who, we imagine, were getting a little lonesome.

Mr. & Mrs. Jencks Given Farewell Party

On Tuesday night a group of about twenty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jencks, just east of Clarkston, to say "Goodbye" and wish them well in their new home and on their farm on the Ortonville and Oakwood Roads just east of Ortonville where they will be living very shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Jencks have lived in their present home for about twenty-five years and have made many warm friends.

Most of the evening was spent playing cards and visiting and at the close of a very lovely evening dainty refreshments were served.

March 1st—Friday night at 7:30 an "Amateur Program" will be presented at the Clarkston School. The public is invited. You are asked to keep the date in mind.

March 2nd—Saturday afternoon starting at 2:00 o'clock Mrs. Strait's Sunday School Class will hold a sale of baked goods at the Waterbury & Terry Market. The proceeds will be used to buy the new American flag that will be placed in the Methodist Church on Palm Sunday along with the Christian flag.

March 7th—Thursday afternoon the Clarkston Home Extension group will meet at the home of Mrs. John Alander at 1:00 o'clock. The lesson will be on "Homemade Kitchen Conveniences and Storage Space."

March 8th—Friday night—at 8:00 o'clock the annual operetta will be presented at the Clarkston school by the music department. The operetta this year will be "In Grand Old Switzerland."

March 12th—Tuesday the Home Extension group will be host to the Clarkston Literary Club. Mrs. Lola Dudgeon will be in charge of the lesson. The place and hour of meeting will be announced later.

March 13th—Wednesday afternoon the Clarkston Royal Neighbors will hold the regular meeting at the Clarkston Baptist Church.

March 13th—Wednesday evening a Father and Son Banquet will be held at the Clarkston Baptist Church. Plans will be completed soon. Reserve the date.

Watch For Date Of Junior Play

The Junior Class of the Clarkston High School selected their play on Wednesday and in a few days Miss Cohen and the class will be busy selecting a suitable cast of characters. The play will be "Peck's Bad Boy." Everybody will want to see this play so be sure to watch for the date and then you can make your plans.

Beattie Bros. Present Movies and Dixie Eight

Next Friday evening, March 8th, Beattie Bros. will present motion pictures, the Ford Dixie Eight and refreshments, absolutely free to the residents of Clarkston and vicinity. See the adv on page 3.

Music Day Observed By Literary Club

On Tuesday afternoon the Clarkston Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Lee M. Clark. As it was "Music Day" Roll Call was answered with the name of a famous orchestra leader.

Mrs. Lee M. Clark conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Jessie McIntyre was in charge of the program which she opened by playing a piano solo, "Narcissus" by Ethelbert Nevin and then reading a very fine paper on "Music in Life." Four musical contests and quizzes were held and all proved exceptionally interesting. The awards were won by Mrs. John Shaughnessy, Mrs. Ray Clark and Miss Ada Scrace.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Clark on Monday afternoon, March 11th. The annual election of officers will take place.

As Tuesday was Mrs. Lee Clark's birthday some of the members surprised her by serving refreshments after the program.

Mrs. Chas. Rockwell Honored Last Week

Mrs. Charles Rockwell was honored at two "Pink and Blue Showers" last week. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Charles Robinson entertained in her honor and on Saturday evening Mrs. Robert Jones was hostess.

At the home of Mrs. Jones there were twenty-four guests. They played appropriate games and presented Mrs. Rockwell with very lovely gifts. Dainty refreshments were served.

The guests were from Lapeer, Franklin, Pontiac and Clarkston.

Sleighride Enjoyed Last Sunday Night

Last Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Gerald O'Dell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters were hosts to a group of their friends at a sleighride party.

The guests gathered at Maple Row Manor on M-15 north of Clarkston and after bundling into the hay and wrapping themselves in blankets in a nice low sleigh they started out over the snow covered country roads. The moonlight was grand and the air was snappy and after about a two hours jaunt they arrived back at Maple Row Manor to partake of delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Addie Badgero of Mt. Clemens spent a few days this week with Mrs. Judd Skarritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sugar had as their dinner guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laidlaw and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, and son, Robert, of Ashton Blvd., Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beardsley of Ortonville.

Mrs. Lee M. Clark and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Owen, of Auburn Heights were in Detroit on Monday as luncheon guests of Mrs. Milton H. Clark. Other guests were Mrs. Edwin Clark, Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Mrs. John Handberry, all of Detroit.

Although reports from Florida say the weather has been miserably cold and wood has been selling for $16 a cord yet the folks at West Palm Beach are still smiling and having a glorious time. This fact is verified by a snapshot recently received at the News office. The picture shows a happy crowd of Clarkston folk having a reunion. The group is composed of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. King, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Walter, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Waterbury and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jones Celebrate Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 27th Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at the home of Mrs. Pearl Urch on Holcomb street.

The evening was chocked full of entertainment which included a mock wedding, two recitations by Mrs. Bertha Jones and card games. Everyone was kept busy and had a good time from start to finish and at about 10:30 delicious refreshments were served.

The guests included Mrs. Bertha Jones, Mrs. Gladys Porritt, Mrs. Jessie Walter, Russell Walter, Mrs. Carrie Walter and daughters, Ruth and Phyllis, all of Clarkston; from Pontiac came Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Archer, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones; also there were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wills of Pinconning, Mrs. Clarence Howland of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Walter of Fowlerville, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McIntyre and family of Seymour Lake and Mr. and Mrs. William Austin of Clintonville.

Plans Completed For Father & Son Banquet

Plans are now completed for the annual Father and Son Banquet to be held at the Clarkston Methodist Church on Monday night, March 4th, starting at 6:30.

Be sure and get your tickets from Gerald O'Dell or Percy Craven. If you have not a son of your own invite somebody's son to be yours for the evening. A fine program is arranged with Rev. W. Harold Pailthorp as the speaker. Rev. Walter Billag will give the invocation. There will also be music and a movie which will be interesting to all ages. A crowd is expected so it would be wise to make plans early and obtain your tickets.

The menu committee met on Monday afternoon and planned a well balanced meal as follows:

- Baked Ham
- mashed potatoes brown gravy
- buttered peas
- applesauce jelly
- celery, green onions, carrot sticks rolls
- pineapple surprise
- coffee milk

Young Folks Enjoy Afternoon Party

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Forrest Jones entertained ten girls belonging to her Sunday School class at her home on M15 north of town.

About one o'clock the young people enjoyed a delicious dinner and afterwards they had a good time playing the piano and singing and then sliding down the hill which was in good condition for their sleds.

The group included Ruth Davies, Shirley Terry, Doris Boyns, Frances Molter, Judy Bevan, Ida Mae Slieff and Eugenie Vandambos.

Mrs. Hawley Skarritt visited with her parents in Gladwin this week.

OBITUARY

Susan Matilda Leach
Mrs. Susan Matilda Leach, aged 84 years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Jewell, at Lake Pontiac, last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Leach was born in Blenheim, Ontario, Dec. 31, 1855. When she was 19 years old she came to Michigan from Massachusetts with her parents and she had been a resident of Oakland County ever since. On Sept. 22, 1879, she married Charles M. Leach of Oxford in Clarkston.

They lived in Lake Orion until Mr. Leach's death 17 years ago when she went to Lake Pontiac to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Jewell. Mrs. Leach was an active member of the Lake Orion Baptist Church.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Jewell, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Bert Everett of Walled Lake; two sons, C. E. Leach of Oxford and Frank B. Leach of Lake Pontiac; 15 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and one brother, Joseph E. Crosby of Clarkston.

The funeral service was held from the Ogden Funeral Home in Clarkston on Sunday afternoon with Rev. Walter Ballagh, pastor of the Clarkston Baptist Church officiating. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery, Clarkston.

February Birthdays Honored Sunday

Last Sunday proved to be a happy one for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Habermas and their friends from Flint and Detroit who celebrated their birthdays in February. The Habermas home was the scene of activity from two o'clock in the afternoon until the small hours of Monday morning. During the afternoon Mr. Habermas' parents called and extended greetings.

There were thirty-nine guests who made merry and enjoyed the genial hospitality of their hosts. In thinking of a party you immediately think of food and that was one feature that was by no means lacking at this grand big birthday party. The kitchen of the Habermas home was converted into a real cafeteria and the guests had a delightful time serving themselves. There were several cakes but there was one especially for the occasion and there was a candle placed on the cake for each guest.

This happy event will be a pleasant memory to these February birthday celebrants. That each one had a good time was evidenced by the fact that on the following Monday morning each guest called Mrs. Habermas on the telephone and again thanked she and Mr. Habermas for the lovely party.

Last Forum Meeting Held Sunday Night

The final February Forum meeting was held at the Clarkston Methodist Church last Sunday night. There was a fairly good attendance and all were very much interested in the speaker, Mr. Utah Taso, a Chinese student from the University of Michigan. Mr. Taso told of conditions in China for the past few years, especially since the invasion by the Japanese. He mentioned the educational system, the economical conditions and the work of the American missionaries. While he did not make any predictions for his people yet he did explain what is liable to happen in China in the next few years. At the close of his talk many interesting questions were asked.

These forum meetings have been exceptionally interesting from an educational standpoint. In fact the interest shown by the townspeople has been so great that making this an annual event is being considered.

Young Republicans To Have Dinner & Dance

On Monday night, March 4th the Chief Pontiac Young Republican Club will have a dinner and dance at the Pontiac Y. M. C. A. starting at 6:30.

A very fine program has been arranged. Charles Wilson, County Prosecutor, will be the toastmaster. O. L. Smith, prominent attorney in Detroit, will be the principal speaker. After the program dancing will be enjoyed.

Miss Yvonne Kennedy is the general chairman of the affair. Tickets are available from Miss Kennedy in the prosecutor's office in Pontiac. There will be a limited number of tickets sold at the door.

Holy Smokes!

In all the years since I've been born, I've not been one to toot my horn. I've tried hard not to criticize my neighbor's shirts or gaudy ties. I've tried to let him live his life. Taking no side with man or wife, I've had no quarrel with dress designs.

Or freakish hats of various kinds. With young folks' ways I've had no fight.

Enthusiasm I won't blight. If their ideas conflict with mine, I couldn't say they're out of line.

For after all I'm not so great, Although the years upon my pate Have left their mark of toil and care, And robbed me of most-all my hair.

In all these years there's just one thing That from my soul disgust will bring.

And that's a woman—babe in arms, With motherhood and all its charms,

To light herself a cigarette— The darndest thing that I've seen

The first thing baby has to learn Is keep hands down or burny burn!

For Homemakers

There's something friendly and wholesome about a bowl of chowder on cold, crisp days. Long ago, New Englanders discovered how good this hearty dish could be. And now members of the home economics staff of Michigan State College recommend serving chowders as the main part of a luncheon or supper. Chowder is usually thick with fish or vegetables, and some cookbooks call it "super-soup."

Here is typical fish-chowder recipe, which has been worked out by the federal bureau of home economics: 1 1/2 pounds fresh cod, haddock, or any other large fish; 2 cups diced potatoes; 1 cup diced carrots; 1 quart water; 1/4 pound salt pork, diced; 1 onion chopped; 2 tablespoons flour; 1 pint milk; Salt and pepper.

Cut the fish into small pieces and remove the bones and skin. Cook fish, potatoes and carrots in the water for 15 minutes. Fry the salt pork until crisp, remove from the fat, cook the onion in the fat for a few minutes, add the flour, stir until well blended and add the milk. Add this mixture to the fish and vegetables, add the salt and pepper, stir frequently and simmer for 10 minutes longer. Add more seasoning if necessary, and serve over crackers.

For Sniffles and Sneezes — Hot Lemonade

By BETTY BARCLAY

When Grandma prescribed hot lemonade for Grandpa's sniffles and sneezes, it was even then a fashionable remedy. Now it is the "reason why." Today, it is just as effective as ever in treating the common cold and their prescription continues to be the approval of modern medicine. At this time of year when sniffles and "flu" are prevalent, hot lemonade is "tops" on the drink list in many a home. Ever since Wu Lai wrote his "Lemon Hot Water Song" away back in the 13th century when the Yuan-dynasty ruled China, folks have been drinking hot lemonade. But whereas the ancient Chinese boiled their lemon juice with sugar or honey to make what they called "Shan-ple," up-and-coming lemonade mixers today use fresh lemon juice, just as it is expressed from the lemons. For the vitamins which are potent elements in lemon juice lose some of their health value when cooked. Today people know — thanks to research workers — that it is better to pour boiling water on fresh lemon juice to make hot lemonade. The wise housewife chooses clean-washed fruit of the best quality, pickles, rolls, cherry pie and coffee. Program for the evening: Presiding, Floyd Wilson, President of the Class; Invocation, Roy Daney; Community singing was conducted by Oliver Francisco, Miss Edith Sutton at the piano; Introduction of Toastmistress, Remarks, Mrs. Frank Jones; Toast to the Women, Chester Huntley; two lovely Piano Solos by Mrs. J. BASKETBALL

Clarkston was defeated in the last game of the season by Farmington 23 to 52. Although Clarkston lost all but one game this year the boys showed that they could take some good beatings and keep on trying. Of the starting line-up Russell is the only Senior so the rest of the boys will be back next year, and we hope to make a better showing.

This was Hubbard's first game, and on the second team Lowrie also is a senior and will play no more.

The line up was:
F Minton
F Weston
C Russell
G Smith
G Shaughnessy

Subs: Hubbard, Bennett, Edwin Ross and Edward Ross.

ASSEMBLY NEWS

The seventh grade, directed by Mr. Willoughby, presented two short patriotic plays in honor of George Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. The Character of George Washington was portrayed very nicely by Earl Garneau. There were also two tap dances, one by Sarah Collins and one by Ruth Bird. Mary Drake honored us with a recitation, "Washington's surprise party". There was also a corn husking bee, typical of Washington's time. The program was fittingly ended with the cast singing with the audience "God Bless America".

MUSIC NEWS!!

"In Grand Old Switzerland" has taken preference over all other musical organizations this week at the High School. The Chorus prepares to finish all the memory work of the Operetta to be given next Friday, March 8. Tickets will be on sale in a few days for the program which should surpass "Miss Cherryblossom" and "Gypsy Rover" of the two preceding years.

CLASS ROOM NEWS

Mr. Thayer:
Mr. Thayer is starting practice in the Gym for the 7th and 8th graders so they will have more experience for basketball when they are in a higher grade and will be eligible to play basketball for the School. And we hope that more boys will come out for such sports when they are able to play for the High School of Clarkston.

Mrs. Walter:
The Sophomore World History Class has completed its study of the French Revolution and is now enjoying its study of the Napoleonic period in European History.

JUNIOR PLAY NEWS

The Junior Play Committee has had many a wrangle over what play and what type of play they are going to put on this year. Finally they have decided to put on a hilarious farce comedy, one that will keep the audience in "stitches" all evening. The committee has narrowed the selection to the following royalty plays:

- a) "Tree Points Inn"
- b) "Spring Fever"
- c) "Felix Incorporated"
- d) "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn"
- e) "Peck's Bad Boy"
- f) "Enter the Hero"

The final decision will be made in a few days.

FEATURES!!!

Attention Girls!! Chuck Beach can really dance!!!

Did anyone notice who was with Anne Russell at the Prom?

How do you account for Stewart Baynes' being at the Prom without that certain Freshman girl?

What certain twin of C. H. S. went to the Senior Prom with a Senior Girl?

Who was that fellow with Mary Edgar at the Senior Prom?

We hear the Clarkston Girls defeated the Drayton Plains girls in Basketball by a rather large score!!! I guess uniforms aren't everything...

We hear Mrs. Walter gets a headache when she watches the C. H. S. girls play basketball because a certain freshman girl stamps her foot on the floor.

We wonder if Spearepoint Morgan noticed who was with Betty Smithson at the Senior Prom . . . You better watch your step, Morgan???

Does anyone know how it feels to be put to sleep? Just ask Bob Bennett.

How come George L. is planning way ahead for dates with this Keego Harbor girl he brought to the Prom? You must have it bad, George.....

Freddie Stewart has been wondering who requested this dance for him at the Prom . . . Could anybody enlighten him on the subject?

What's this we hear about certain Senior girls going to the Prom "stag"? You must be slipping, girls!

What girl had the influence over Jim Young to make him come in and dance at the Prom? We think you've got something there!
