JUNIOR PLAY

The Juniors have found a rip-roaring farce comedy entitled "Peck's Bad Boy" which will please all "children" from eight to eighty. This is the side-splitting story of Henry Peck, Jr. and his pal. Jimmy Duffy, and his girl friend, Minnie, and all the tricks they play on Mr. Peck and in good condition, antique chest of his newly, acquired wife. Howard drawers in solid walnut. Inquire Smith, the Junior class red-read, will Mrs. C. B. Crossman, 57 Church play the role of Henry Peck, Jr. and his partners in crime will be Russell Dommer and Grace Gilchrist. Jack Cubley is the harassed husband and Dilma Giers is really the domineering wife. These four roles are not the only comedy parts. We can't forget Glen Batten playing the part of the Clarkston Past Matron's Club From one man's pay, was forced to the irate German grocer nor Bernard Chamberlain, the tired business man, who has forgotten the art of proposing. Lizzie, the maid, or Marion Chamberlain and the colored cook played by Virginia Orrado their bit to complicate the Peck's family life. Into the Peck household come three old flames of Mr. Peck, Dora, Flora, Lora played by Alita Boice, Betty Taylor, Dorothy Reese. For a few tender moments they keep the "ball of fun" rolling.
