The Huron-Clinton Parkway Project

by Valeta Batchelor, rite 7, Pontiac student in Waterford School
(This essay won second place in the essay contest in Oakland County.)

Is there anyone who would be willing to say that they do not need recreation? No. The people in every country, in every nation, need recreation. Too much of our time is spent inside. What we need is recreation out of doors where there is enough space so our actions will not be hindered. Parks answer this need very well.

The question of an outer parkway has been discussed for many years. A survey of the territory showed slow development. This survey led to a conference of representatives from the five counties, Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb. The conference led to the formation of the Detroit-Huron-Clinton Park and Parkway Association.

The need of the project is very great. There is a lack of public recreation grounds and bathing beaches in the Detroit Metropolitan Area. There are three million residents crowded into Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb counties. For all these people there is only one acre of public parkland for every five hundred people. Do you know that the minimum standard in the United States is one acre for every one hundred people? This means that the five counties have only twenty percent of the recreational space they need! And although there are sixty miles of riverfront and waterfront in Detroit and numerous lakes and streams, there are almost no public bathing beaches and scarcely a hundred rods of territory owned by the public. The need of the Parkway Project is extremely great indeed.

Perhaps the question of why the five counties are co-operating in building this parkway has occurred to you. Perhaps you are wondering why each county does not build its own parks. However, if the counties cooperate in building the park, it will cost each county less.

The project itself will not cost very much. On a property valuation of one thousand dollars there will be a tax of only twenty-five cents. It is estimated that only one fifth of the amount authorized by the Act will be required. The actual cost will be met by county and state agencies such as conservation, highway, and other departments. The money needed would not come from additional taxes. It would return to this part of the state which pays the greater part of the taxes the benefits of tax moneys collected here.

The Parkway Playground Project will benefit many people in many ways. It would provide increased employment in this area as the building of the parkway would provide work for many citizens. The operation and maintenance of the facilities would employ more. More tourists would pour into Michigan from every part of the United States, and probably from other countries as this will be the largest and most modern park in the world. Last year in Michigan a sum of three hundred and seventy million dollars was gained from tourists alone. Then, too, land in this area would be worth more as recreational development always augments the worth of nearby lands. Scenic highways and parkways increase value of properties paralleling them as much as four hundred per cent. It will be very beneficial to children, as playing out in the open would make them healthier, and the contact with other children would teach them how to get along with other people. This, indeed, will make them the stronger and wiser adults of tomorrow.

We, the people of today, are building the park, but although it shall be a beautiful and beneficial park, it will be more than this, it will be an everlasting memorial to us who build it that shall pass on from generation to generation in increasing beauty and loveliness.

Their dream of Utopia that turned into a nightmare. Hopefully pictured their island as the promised land, with little work, no worries and easy wealth—but completely disillusioned; they are now yearning for the "Sorry Civilization" they had tried to escape. Mrs. William Watson is spending a few days in Virginia.

The building of the homes on Robertson Court is progressing rapidly. Although the Richard Bullen house is not quite complete they expect to move into it this week. The Byron Nolans will move into the house on Holcomb Street vacated by the Bullens.

Mrs. L. I. Coon and Mrs. Anna Fleming were hostesses to a number of their friends at a bridge-luncheon at the latter's home on Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the afternoon four tables of bridge were in play. The awards went to Mrs. L. F. Walter, Mrs. LeRoy Addis and Mrs. Ronald Walter.

Fire Prevention Thoughts

Remember: High explosive powders are dangerous and explode before one has a chance to take an added precaution as to the direction of throwing or shooting of fireworks. In doing so, this may cause fires which become out of control of the individual and perhaps cause a great deal of damage to people and to property by setting fires to homes, buildings and dry grass before ample fire extinguishers can reach the many places in various parts of the town or city. This not only includes property damage by the misuse of fireworks, but also tetanus infection more commonly known as lockjaw and possibly loss of eyesight and life.

Be Sane—Be Safe: In preventing such fires and personal damage as described above, we suggest that one be old enough to understand the action of these high explosives. If you must enjoy the gaiety of this particular American celebration and do not thoroughly understand the damage it will cause, then try to attend one of the many Fourth of July celebrations which will be in progress and executed by men with years of experience, thus assuring you and everyone of a good time without the loss of one's eyesight and life or damage to properties which may be of regret to those taking part in their individual celebration without the knowledge of what may be in store for the inexperienced fireworks shooter.

Chevrolet Builds Its 900,000th 1940 Car

Here is the 900,000th car of Chevrolet's 1940 model production, as it left the assembly line at Flint, Mich., June 12, less than one month after No. 800,000 was completed. Beside the car are M. E. Coyle, general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division (left), C. E. Wetherald, general manufacturing manager (right), and Arnold Lenz, assistant manufacturing manager, who were present in the plant when the car was produced.

"Chevrolet has built 300,000 cars in less than three months," Mr. Coyle pointed out. "The 600,000th of these models was built on March 21, the 700,000th on April 16, the 800,000th on May 13, and the 900,000th on June 12. This production rate closely parallels the consistently heavy sales volume since the introduction of the 1940 models last October, sales during March, April and May alone totalling 307,345."

Program Completed for Farm Women's Week

Reservations May Be Made at the County Extension Office in Pontiac

Plans for Farm Women's Week, July 21 to 25, are being rapidly completed. Mrs. Lola T. Dudgeon, County Home Extension Agent, urges homemakers interested in attending to send in reservations, at once, to the county extension office, Box 173, Pontiac. The program promises to be unusually interesting.

Outstanding speakers, an opportunity to participate in any of the 17 special study classes, recreation programs, devotionals, a stunt night and a banquet are all scheduled during the week. Friday, July 26, will see many of the women joined by their husbands coming to the campus to take in the annual Farmers' Day informational program out on the farm and on the campus.

Speakers for the women's programs include Dr. H. Y. McClusky of the school of education of the University of Michigan. His subject is "Youth of America". Another is Dr. W. R. Fee of the Michigan State College history department staff and his subject, "World Affairs"; Mary Sweeney of Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit, "Come Around the World with Me"; and Dr. Alonzo Baker, Battle Creek, field secretary of the Race Betterment Foundation, "What's Right with America". Mrs. Warren Brown, Marshall, is to lead devotionals each morning. Mrs. S. E. Bellows, East Lansing, is to give a talk on antiques Tuesday afternoon.

Subjects scheduled for morning classes include history, landscape, literature, nature study, news writing, political science, parliamentary law, recreation, speech, singing, floriculture, clothing, home furnishings, family life, vegetable gardening, quality foods and poultry. Sunday, July 21, is reserved for registration, with an evening vesper service. Stunt night is scheduled for Monday, a tour of the campus on Tuesday, summer school play for Wednesday and a banquet Thursday evening.

Completion of four new camp and picnic ground sites on Michigan state forests will increase to 38 the number of these sites which last season attracted 18,146 registered camping parties. Three are on the new Allegan state forest, recently turned over to the state by the federal government, and the fourth is on Little Wolf lake near Lewiston in the Au Sable state forest.

Stamp It Out!

Don't throw that lighted cigaret out of your car window! Maybe, if you do, another fire will be pegged on the chart at conservation department headquarters. There have been too many fires, already, in 1940! 11,263 acres burned over in 542 fires in the first seven weeks of the forest fire season! If you are careless, you may destroy something which belongs to you. The state forests DO belong to you!
