Clarkston Rotary Club Sponsors Public Meet'g

Col. Sidney D. Waldon to Speak at Methodist Church

The Rotary Club of Clarkston cordially invites the public to a meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the Methodist Church at which motion picture and slides will be shown by Col. Sidney D. Waldon, Trustee, and Mr. Fred L. Shaw, Director of the Detroit-Huron-Clinton Parkway Playground Proposal. This proposal will come up for the vote of the people in the counties in which the Parkway will be located. The proposal is therefore of great interest now since the vote will be taken on November the 5th.

The civic importance of this plan can only be appreciated by those who will acquaint themselves with it at this meeting Monday night, October 14th.

On Monday evening the Clarkston Rotary Club was addressed by Miss Susan Averill who related her experiences in traveling through Norway and Sweden. The talk was interesting as well as educational. She was introduced by her father, George Averill, publisher of the Birmingham Eclectic.

Governor Luren Dickinson will be the speaker at the Harvest Dinner sponsored by the Oakland County Republican organizations under the supervision of the Young Republicans of the 17th district, in the Elks Temple in Pontiac on Monday, October 28th. B. J. Meiorow is general chairman of the event.

HOLLY THEATRE

Hollywood and Radio are now permanently allied in bringing entertainment seekers the best each have to offer. There was a time when both these powers were at each other's throats, and it appeared as recently as a few years ago that neither would capitulate. However, with the success of such air shows as Hollywood Playhouse, Cecil B. de Mille's Theatre of the Air and at least a half dozen other top flight programs featuring the cream of the cinema, an interchange of personalities began taking place until today the two outstanding fields of entertainment have become permanent partners.

Paramount, first to take advantage of the popularity of radio favorites in casting its pictures, continued the policy, after seven films with ether stars prominently cast, by placing four radio favorites in "Rhythm on the River", the new Bing Crosby comedy which comes to the Holly Theatre for two days starting Sunday.

With Bing in this new film are his own air show orchestra leader, John Scott Trotter; Oscar Levant, one of the fairy permanent experts on "Information Please"; and lovely Lillian Cornell, recently a star on a national sustaining radio show. Two other "names" are to be seen together with Crosby, one from the stage and the other a veteran film star. They are Mary (My Heart Belongs to Daddy) Martin, from the Broadway musical comedy stage, and Basil Rathbone.

Paramount started recruiting from the airways when they cast Jack Benny in "Man About Town". Jack brought along his maestro, Phil Harris, and that notable gentleman of color, "Rochester".

Bob Hope followed, and with him came Jerry (Yahoodi) Colonna, in "The Road to Singapore", with Bing and Dorothy Lamour.

Jack Benny topped all of this by including Rochester, Harris, Dennis Day, his tenor, and Andy Devine in "Buck Benny Rides Again". Miss Cornell made her screen debut in this film.

For its production "What a Life", Paramount took the famous Aldrich Family of the air lanes, and the results justified the move so well that a second Aldrich Family film, "Life With Henry", was made.

The studio then purchased the radio show title, "I Want a Divorce", and cast Dick Powell, radio star, for the lead. Following this, and before "Rhythm on the River" went into production, Paramount made "Comin' Round the Mountain", starring Bob Burns and six prominent radio personalities including Uncle Ezra, Jerry Colonna, Mayor Gildersleeve and the Old Timer of the Fibber McGee program, "Slaphappy Granpappy" and "Mirandy".

Everyone will be pleased to know that Rudy Schwarze is able to be in his store for a few hours each day after an absence of almost a week. Mr. Schwarze was suffering with a sore ankle the result of a cut from an ice-skate last winter. On Thursday of last week he went to the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac where he had an operation on his ankle. After being confined to his bed at his home for a few days he is now able to get around and use his ankle for a few hours each day.

Mutual Understanding

If I could draw into my hand
The folks who clasp me by the hand—
And look me straight into the eyes,
And make me truly realize
That they mean every word they say,
In just a simple, truthful way—
It seems my joy would be complete
Each time my hand and I would meet.
We'd be a group with little care—
For fear would never harbor there.
We'd understand each other's ways
And brilliant sights would hold our gaze,
And we would never backward turn.
We'd seek new truths that we could learn—
But would this kind of life be fair,
When there's so many who could share

This understanding in our band?
If we'd reach out and grasp their hand
And whisper words into their ears—
To chase away their cares and fears,
And join with them that we might tread
The pathway of our loving God.

Sternberg-Goodwin Rites Read Saturday

Miss Mary Louise Sternberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sternberg, of South Street, Ortonville, became the bride of Burton L. Goodwin, of Ortonville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodwin, of Lapeer, at a ceremony performed at the Ortonville Baptist church on Saturday at 4:00. The Rev. Andrew Pratt read the ceremony beneath ropes of twisted cedar. The vows were exchanged before an altar draped with green damask and centered with a huge basket of white mums, flanked on either side by white tapers in silver holders. Large baskets of yellow, white and rose mums surrounded the bridal party.

Preceding the ceremony, Leon Burt sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly". He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Kathleen Saunders, who also played the wedding march. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, which fell into a long train. The model was accented with a draped neck and a beaded flower design. The long sleeves extended in points over her hands. Her veil, of tulle, fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a shouwer bouquet of large white mums and pom-poms. Mrs. Harold Fuchs, of Clarkston, sister of the bride, assisted her as matron of honor and looked lovely in a gown of cornflower blue satin. The lines were simple with a square neck and a full skirt, which fell from a raised embroidered bodice. She wore a small hat with a large ruffle of matching tulle. Her bouquet was of yellow and rose mums tied with a large blue ribbon.

Other members of the bridal party included Misses Denah Stine and Elva Jean Saunders and Mrs. Russell Troutman. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor, only in pink. Their headresses were the same. They carried arm bouquets of mums. Russell Troutman, of Ortonville, assisted the groom as best man. Ushers were Michael Kruchko, Frank Sherman and Harold Fuchs.

Margaret and Ruth Pratt were flower girl and train bearer, respectively. They were dressed in floor length gowns of yellow satin trimmed in orchid bows. Margaret carried a white basket of rose petals. Todd Troutman carried the ring on a white satin pillow trimmed with hand made lace. He wore a yellow gabardine suit and a white silk blouse.

Mrs. Sternberg chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon dress of brown wool crepe with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of tea roses.

Mrs. Goodwin wore a powder blue dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for 75 guests was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal pair. White tapers flanked the cake on either side. A bowl of fall flowers was also used as decorations. The guests were served by Mrs. B. L. Hamilton, Mrs. Leon Burt, Mrs. Harold Mann, of Ortonville and Misses Jane Rathbun and Marjorie Stack, of Holly.

The couple will reside on Church street, in Ortonville.

Guests were present at the ceremony from Detroit, South Lyon, Orton, Holly, Lapeer, Clarkston, Rochester, Waterford, Oxford, Goodrich and Ortonville.

Many Attend Church Homecoming

The third annual Homecoming of the Waterford Community Church was very well attended. The program and the arrangements were in charge of Rev. Howard Jewell, Mr. H. T. Burt, Mrs. H. B. Mehler and Rev. Charles Shock. The day was truly a day of inspiration and the program worked like clockwork. There was a splendid attendance at the Sunday School session at 10:15. Maurice Hinkley, a former Bible teacher in the Church, taught the combined adult classes. At the morning service at 11:15 Miss Mary Buck played the piano prelude. The special music and the message "The Great Homecoming" by Rev. Jewell were greatly enjoyed. New members welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Lois Burt and Helen Loree. Following the morning service at 12:30 a Fellowship Dinner provided a fine social hour and made everyone feel at home. Singing was led by Mr. H. T. Burt and testimonies were led by Rev. Charles Shock. The oldest members present were Mrs. Ida Hayden, Mrs. Elizabeth Britton and Mrs. Emaline Hurd. At the afternoon service at 2:30 everyone appreciated the music by the Drayton Plains choir and also the selections by the Waterford girls' trio, Mary Buck, Helen Loree and Eleanor Mehler. They were accompanied by Vivian Wormnest. The message "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them" by Rev. R. M. Traver gave everyone something to think about. At the Young People's Rally at 6:00 p. m. Miss Betty Walter of Clarkston was the speaker and the young people were all interested in the worthwhile things that Miss Walter had to tell them. The rest of the program was composed of the piano prelude by Vivian Wormnest; a hymn; prayer by Robert Mehler; offertory, Mrs. Robert Lougheed; an instrumental number and the benediction. Music added greatly to every service and it was plentiful. In the evening the Davidsburg choir rendered several numbers, as did the firsides quartet of Pontiac. Rev. F. W. McFalls brought the evening message on "Four Anchors". Thus the third annual homecoming was brought to a close with a feeling that the day had not only been a success but an inspiration.

To Gordie

There's an empty desk in the seventh grade room,
Though the books lay unused within.
There's a tear in the eye of each classmate
At a memory time will not dim.

There's a curly-haired girl who is saddened;
There's a family whose heads bow with grief,
Though they know that perhaps this way's better;

He's gone to a blessed relief,
One of our dear fellow scholars
Has crossed the deep river of Jordan.

Often will our fond thoughts linger
On this—the memory of Gordon.
Doris Bunker,
Student in the Waterford School.

2ND ALL SCHOOL PARTY

The students of C. H. S. and other guests witnessed the second successful all school party last Friday nite. There was dancing from 9:00 to 12:00.

Ginger ale and frost bites were served. We expect to see many more successful parties. Don Smith's orchestra furnished the music.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 13.

The Golden Text (Psalms 68:20) is: "He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (James 5:15): "And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.1): "The prayer that reforms the sinner and heals the sick is an absolute faith that all things are possible to God, a spiritual understanding of Him, an unselfed love."
