Funeral for Captain Charles M. Roehm Was Held on Tuesday Afternoon

Early last Saturday morning, March 8, death claimed Charles M. Donald Roehm of 6551 Maple Drive, Waterford, at the Marine Hospital in Detroit where he had been a patient for seven months.

Mr. Roehm was born April 4, 1884, in Calumet, Michigan and attended schools there. He attended the Orchard Lake Military Academy and the Michigan College of Mines. On October 15, 1920, he married Ione Cutler of Ionia. They have lived in Oakland County for fifteen years coming here from Lansing.

Mr. Roehm was graduated from the first officers training school at Fort Sheridan as a first lieutenant and later was promoted to the rank of captain. He spent nine months overseas during the World War in the 337th Infantry, 85th division. He was a member of the American Legion Post No. 63 of Clarkston.

Mr. Roehm was an admirer of the finer things. He enjoyed good reading, appreciated fine paintings and loved music. He played the piano and there was nothing he enjoyed more than an evening with a group assembled around the piano singing all of the old familiar songs. He had a kind and generous disposition and made many warm friends. He loved the out-of-doors and looked forward to his trip north every fall with a number of friends who enjoyed the hunting season with him.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Katherine, Barbara and Marian at home; his mother, two brothers and three sisters.

The funeral service was held at the Ogden Funeral Home in Clarkston on Tuesday afternoon with Rev. I. C. Johnson, rector of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit, officiating. Beside a prayer at the graveside by Rev. Johnson a small detachment of U. S. service men from Selfridge Field performed the military honors and Richard Shaughnessy of Clarkston sounded "Taps".

Honorary pallbearers were H. G. Kellogg and Azel Lewellen of Detroit and George Rosenquist of Rochester. Those who carried Mr. Roehm to his final resting place in Lake View cemetery were Henri Buck, Henry Mehlberg, Howard Burt and Lyman Girst, all of Waterford, and Ray Clark and William H. Stamp of Clarkston.

A large group of legionnaires of Post No. 63 formed a guard of honor at the Funeral Home and also at the graveside.

Among those from away who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Reeder of Iron River, Hiram Roehm of Calumet, Mrs. Florence Greve of Gary, Ind., Mrs. Ralph Cooper of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bartley of Mt. Clemens, Mrs. A. A. Nichol of Ionia, Mrs. Earle Huber of Plymouth, Mrs. Downing Dukes of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. George Rosenquist of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillam of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Young of Lakeview, Mich., and Mrs. H. D. Cutler, Mrs. Tom Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kellogg, Azel Lewellen and Mrs. Ray Hoyt, all of Detroit.

In Memory of Charles Roehm

A craze had taken us by storm
To see our men in uniform—
And glory stalked with marching men,

Even way back there and then,
Some millions of our finest youth
Took up their arms as final proof—
That foreign countries, they'd defy,
That freedom never more should die.

We waved our flags and drums were beat—
As these brave men marched down
the street
We heard sweethearts and mothers
wail,

As transport ships set out to sail,
Sweaters and mufflers women knit
To keep the boys in France real fit—
We wrote to them most every night,
Encouraging the men to fight.

The men came home, the war was won,
And we detested sword and gun—
But as we watched these heroes pass
We noticed signs of shock and gas;
But busy folks forgot the plight
Of crippled men who won our fight,
And few take time today to mourn
The plight of men in uniform.

Robert C. Beattie.

Rotary Hears Detroit Speaker

Monday's meeting of the Clarkston Rotary Club was addressed by Vincent Bergmann, of the research department of Campbell-Ewald Co., one of the larger and older advertising agencies in Detroit.

Mr. Bergmann first directed attention to advertising trends and slogans of the past, much to the amusement of those present. He then gave an example of how a new product was placed on the market, following the steps, from giving the account to the agency until the customer started asking for the product from their dealers.

It was a pleasant, entertaining and instructive evening.

Next meeting will be at Devon Gables next Monday evening and will be ladies' night.

Mr. Robert C. Beattie, the local poet, made a very splendid toastmaster. The program participants were greatly appreciated as was evidenced by the loud applause that followed each number. Mr. Archie Leonard was the guest speaker. He is well known to most of the grown-ups in this vicinity and after his very fine talk the younger folk feel that they know him quite well too.

Gifts were presented to Frank Perrin, the father with the most sons present, to Walter Whitfield, the oldest father present, and to Irvin Lee Yoder, the youngest son present.

BASKETBALL NEWS

Clarkston's season of Basketball wound up Friday, when the tournament game was played. Clarkston played against Holly and lost by a score of 44 to 23. The Clarkston team arrived at Farmington at 4:30 P. M. to play the game at 5:30. The baskets were different and the boys didn't seem to run up the points like they have in some of the other games.

The line-up was as follows: Appleton, F.; E. Ross, F.; Perrin, C.; Shaughnessy, G.; E. Ross, G. Subs were Wilcox, Meyers, Miller and Baynes. Perrin was high point man for Clarkston with 8 points. Shaughnessy and Ross with 4 apiece. Shaughnessy's points were made at the last few minutes of the game.

The team was given a supper at the Pontiac Cafeteria after the game, and the drivers were supplied with gas for the trip. Altogether it was a lot of fun.

Bread for the workers of Michigan

Modern methods and constant improvements of seed result in the high yield of wheat on Michigan farms. Among the new varieties introduced by Michigan State College is Bald Rock, a hardy, red, beardless wheat, well adapted to the climate.

YEAR after year some 900,000 of Michigan's fertile acres are sown to the great staple food crop — wheat. And most of it is winter wheat. Good farming methods, an intelligent State Government and an alert Michigan State College, have steadily increased the yield per acre. In 1940 it was 45% above the national average.

Swift, low-cost communication helps the Michigan farmer make a profit on his wheat. By telephone he can get advice from his County Agent, order seed and fertilizer, arrange for harvesting and threshing crews, and sell his grain and straw to advantage.

Bread is the food of industry — a vital factor in national emergencies. Your Bell Telephone Company serves the nation's defense by bringing increased efficiency to the growing, storing, milling and marketing of wheat.

Wheat by the trainload for Michigan-made bread and breakfast cereals. Agriculture and industry are closely linked in this state, and the telephone serves them both.
