STUDENT COUNCIL FORMED

On Wednesday, October 1, we held our Student Council election. Stewart Baynes defeated the nominees for President by conducting a "stickcampaign. More power to you, Stewart. We are glad to see a student at Clarkston with initiative and originality. Paul Sutton, of Drayton Plains, was chosen Business Manager. Royal McGill, a new Junior, is our Boys' Commissioner of Activities, while Margaret Ann Beattie fills the corresponding office for girls. Stanley Perrin and Evelyn McCann were elected Commissioners of Buildings and Grounds. We contacted these electees this week for statements as to what they hope to accomplish. Stewart Baynes, as head of the Council says, "I propose to have more activities in the form of assemblies and all-school parties. I hope to arouse a school spirit to support athletics and liven up the school in general."

Paul Sutton declares, "As Business Manager on the Student Council, I am interested in securing 1/4 .credit for every letter which a student earns in sports. I would like to work up some student enthusiasm for sports.

Royal McGill announces, "As a new member of the student body, and as Boys' Commissioner of Activities, I am very keenly interested in activity in this school. With the cooperation of every student to the best of his ability much can be accomplished. Alone I can do very little; so, come on, fellow students! Help pep up this school and make this year the best yet. I need your help.

Margaret Ann Beattie states, "As Girls' Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds, I think that I shall first call a meeting of all the girls. At this Betty Walter Elected meeting we shall present our ideas and also elect a Secretary and Treasurer. I feel that some form of recreation should be supplied for the girls who stay at the school during noon as ping-pong, checkers, shuffleboard, etc. By finding out some of the girls' viewpoints, I hope to plan some recreation for them."

Stanley Perrin offers, "As Boys' Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds, I will work for many needed improvements in our playgrounds and athletic field, and to maintain the appearance of Clarkston

Evelyn McCann, of Waterford, "I sincerely hope that something can be done to improve the shocking condition of our lavatories. As Girls' Building and Grounds Commissioner, I am calling a meeting of all high- Obituary school girls and women faculty members this week, to discuss a clean-up campaign. With a little cooperation we can dispose of the paper and other debris scattered about the grounds." SCHOOL ELECTIONS COMPLETED

Within the last week all of the grades elected their class officers. The Juniors, by priority right, held their elections first. The Miller family, has the lion's share of the offices, Byron serving as President and Inez as Secretary. Hugo Preston, a new student from Birmingham, is Vice-President, and Helen Hodges is Treasurer. Miss Hoole and Mr. Waters are co-sponsors, by appointment. The other classes elected officers and sponsors as follows:

Last Friday Clarkston's football team took a trip to Linden. The weather was very wet and cold, if you remember. The teams started to play about 3:45 and at this time the sun was out but the ground was very muddy and wet, so that neither team did their best.

Linden made a touchdown every quarter and kicked but one extra point. Clarkston was unable to break through Linden's line and was shut

Very many thanks for sending 'The News" to me while I was in Massachusetts. I was always pleased to receive it and read of the doings in Clarkston. I do not believe I will be there again until December when we move north again. I particularly enjoyed the poem about the Aurora Borcalis as I was out there at the time and saw it.

Sincerely, Stanley White.

The Nation's No. 1 Potato Patch

Digging a big crop of potatoes. The average yield per acre in Michigan is about 100 bushels, and on some farms it has reached 500 bushels per acre.

What state of all the forty-eight has the biggest acreage in white potatoes? It's not Idaho, or Maine, but our own Michigan, with a yearly average of about a quarter-million acres planted to this staple crop. Three other states have a larger total yield. But fried, baked, mashed or boiled, Michigan's annual 22,000,000-bushel crop is a lot of potatoes!

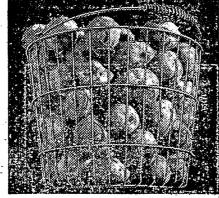

The potato grower usually has to decide whether to sell his potatoes as soon as they are dug, or to hold them in storage, to sell in winter or spring. Weather conditions, the size of the nation's crop and other factors must be followed closely, and the telephone helps many potato farmers keep informed. By telephone, too, the wholesaler sells to retail stores, and the housewife places her weekly order of potatoes. What about some of those new, tender-skinned Michigan spuds for dinner?

Smooth, plump Michigan potatoes by tele phone? Surely! Call your grocer.
