The Spirit of Christmas

The Spirit of Christmas, let's push to the limit, Let's put our whole minds and our bodies right in it, Let's show this old world no piker lives here Who'd stand in the way of our spreading good cheer. Each house in the village must ring out in laughter The night before Christmas and each day thereafter, The Rotary of Clarkston, with these thoughts in view, Are pleased in extending their service to you.

The pleasure is ours, we think it just dandy To bring to each child a sack full of candy, The eyes of a child, a rare sight to see Outshines all the bulbs on a gay Christmas tree. They come here for miles from mansion and shanty And what a grand sight, the arrival of Santy. Praise be to God, there is such a Spirit So good for our souls, we don't need to fear it.

The clatter of hoofs, the ringing of bells, The arrival of Santy to everyone tells, This jolly old fellow, this bundle of cheer, The night before Christmas is sure to appear. Let's all join our forces, get into the Spirit, The cause is so grand, you don't need fear it, Your soul will feel better, your Spirit will lighten Dull care from your doorway, I'm sure he will frighten.

Let loose of yourself, your spirit unshackle, And join with a gang, who are willing to tackle The task that's at hand of bringing good cheer To brighten the lives of our children each year, And once that we have it, it would be a pity To let this great Spirit get out of our city, The Spirit of Christmas, if good for a day, Is worth while our keeping among us always.

GRADES PRESENT CANTATA

On Monday evening, December 22, at 8 o'clock, in the local high school gymnasium, the pupils of grades 1-6 will present "The Love Stamp", a Christmas Cantata. The theme of the operetta is: "Put more love into Christmas giving and less thought to the cost of the gift." There are several solo parts:

Santa Claus—David Yoh
Mistletoe—Delores Barrett
Tinsel—Barbara Rioux
Holly—Donna Mae Havener
Candy Cane—Raymond Day
Christmas Herald—Jimmy Huttenlocher

Happiness—Mary Lou Althouse
STUDENTS HONOR
"BILL OF RIGHTS" DAY

On Monday, December 15, our high school students honored the one-hundred-fiftieth anniversary of the ratification of the Bill of Rights. The program took the form of a history lesson, taught by Margaret Anne Beattie. Helen Hodges presented a thoughtful and informative paper on "The Formation of the Constitution", and Kenneth Beard delivered a report on "Our American Bill of Rights". Bob Berg told us the most important rules to remember in regard to our Flag, and he and Don Perrin demonstrated the correct manner of folding the Flag. Miss Beattie proved a most charming and forgiving teacher, and made us wish we could be pupils in her school. The eighth graders each contributed one freedom guaranteed to us in the Bill of Rights.

Mr. Winn closed the assembly with a talk on what high school students can do to help America in the present crisis.

Note: Mrs. Wallace, who had charge of the assembly, wishes to thank the student body for their very commendable conduct during the assembly; particularly commendable since they could not hear the speakers.

NOVEMBER "DRIVING CLUB" PRIZES AWARDED

Last week, Wednesday, the Clarkston Rotary Club awarded prizes to the student drivers for the month of November. Don Smith, Ralph Kennedy and Bill Miller received awards in that order. The cash prizes were presented by Mr. Gerald O'Dell, a member of the Rotary. Mr. O'Dell prefaced the presentation with a few timely remarks, in which he begged the students to help America by making our streets safe for the little folks. The candidates for prizes were chosen by a committee of the Drivers' Class. The committee considers improvement in driving, as well as consistently good driving, in making its selections.

At the same assembly, the Greyhound Bus Company showed its movie, "Amazing America". The students liked it immensely.

VARSITY DEFEATED BY HOLLY HIGH

RESERVES LOSE CLOSE ONE

Last Friday night Clarkston's Basketball team played host to Holly on their own court. The second team has a lot to be proud of, playing a very hard and well-fought game. The Reserves were ahead at the half: 27-21. At the 3rd quarter we were still ahead but in the fourth quarter the boys from Holly put on a scoring spree and pulled the game out of the bag. Holly winning 36-35. High point man for Clarkston and for the evening was Adams, sinking 8 field goals and 4 gift tosses for a total of 20 points. Cleaver of Holly was second with 17 points, and Rouse of Clarkston had (Continued on page three)

Groom on Furlough From U. S. Army

The second wedding that ever took place in the Seymour Lake Methodist Church was solemnized on Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock when Miss Martha Miller, daughter of Mrs. Iva Miller, became the bride of Stanley White, son of John White of New York City. The Rev. W. Harold Pailthorp, pastor of the Clarkston Methodist and the Seymour Lake Methodist Churches, performed the ceremony before a beautiful arrangement of white mums, palms and candelabra. Besides the lighted candles the only other light was from an illuminated cross high above the back of the altar. Mrs. Clark Miller presided at the new organ which had just been installed.

The bride was charming in a floor length gown of white satin, a fingertip veil held in place by a halo of orange blossoms. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's only attendant was Miss Ruth Walter of Clarkston who was dressed in net over blue taffeta. Her veil was shoulder length and was held in place by a tiara of pearls. She carried yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Mr. White who was in U. S. Army uniform was assisted by Jack White of New York City as best man and the following ushers: Fred Beardsley, Robert Beardsley, Alan Solley, Harry W. Yoh, Charles Smith and Elroy Scott.

Following the ceremony a reception for seventy-five guests was held at the home of the bride's mother. The refreshment table was graced with a beautiful wedding cake of modernistic design. Miss Ellen Beardsley had charge of the reception.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Miller chose a blue dress and hat and wore a corsage of gardenias.

The young couple left for a short trip into the northern part of Michigan and expect to return to Clarkston Saturday and leave on Sunday night for New York City where Mrs. White will make her home while Mr. White, who is a corporal in the U. S. Army, is at Fort Devens, Mass. For travelling Mrs. White wore pastel blue wool with dubonnet hat and coat.

Mrs. White has a wide circle of friends in Clarkston and vicinity having graduated from the local High School. She is also a graduate of the Cleary college. Mr. White is a graduate of the Bryant High School in New York City. He attended the Pace Institute and was employed by a New York City law firm before his enlistment in the army.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Frank Solley, Miss Evelyn Solley and Miss Evelyn White, sister of the groom, all of New York City, and Mrs. Florence Edgar and son, Bruce, and Frank Wille of Pontiac.

Christmas Program At Baptist Church On Sunday Night

Children's Program To Be Presented on Monday Night

On Sunday night at 7:45 a very lovely Christmas program will be presented at the Clarkston Baptist Church. The theme is "The Names of Jesus". The choir and the young people have spent a great deal of time preparing this beautiful story and they expect to give you a real treat.

Children to Present Cantata Monday Night

A very lovely cantata, "The Love Stamp", and one that has required considerable work will be presented by 125 children from grades 1 to 6 of the Clarkston School in the school auditorium on Monday night beginning promptly at 8:00 o'clock. Miss Monda Birkholz is the director. There will be six solo parts as follows:

Santa Claus by David Yoh; Candy Cane, Raymond Day; Happiness, Mary Lou Althouse; Holly, Donna May Havener; Mistletoe, Dolores Barrett; Tinsel, Barbara Rioux. The part of the Christmas Herald will be taken by Jimmy Huttenlocher. There will be 3 large choruses, the girls of 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades as dressmakers; girls of 4th, 5th and 6th grades as milliners and all the boys from the six grades as carpenters. The costumes are being made by 4 of the teachers, Miss Neff, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Beardsley and Mrs. Vliet.

The P. T. A. is asking for jigsaw puzzles, trinkets for girls and airplane kits for boys, also old silk hose or underwear suitable for making rugs, etc. There will be a box in a convenient place in the school on Monday night where you can deposit any of these if you wish to help or if more convenient for you, you may leave them at the home of Mrs. John Brakey or Mrs. R. H. Colton.

Literary Club Has Christmas Meeting

On Tuesday afternoon the Clarkston Literary Club held the Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Lucy King and Mrs. Jessie McIntyre on North Main street.

A cooperative luncheon was served at one o'clock at a table attractively decorated with Christmas colors and centered with a poinsetta. Christmas decorations were used throughout the house.

At the business meeting plans for Red Cross work after the holidays were discussed. The program which followed consisted of readings appropriate to the season.

The January meeting will be held with Mrs. Ray Clark.

Rotary Activity Survey

The Clarkston Rotary Club, while in existence in the community a little over a year, has carried on a program of community service. In cases of certain emergencies the Club expended "The Goodfellow Funds" to provide care for deserving persons. The Club maintains a special "Crippled Children and Goodfellow" account which is readily available as need arises.

When the Club members turn kids and trim the Christmas tree and sponsor the Christmas program, perhaps Clarkston sees the most obvious work of the Rotarians. Through the year the Club cooperated with the "Good Driver's League" in the High School and sponsored the Goodfellow edition of the Clarkston News last December and will do so again this year.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian-Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, Dec. 21.

The Golden Text (Psalms 62:11) is: "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power becometh unto God."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Genesis 1:27,31): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them... And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.295): "God creates and governs the universe, including man. The universe is filled with spiritual ideas, which He evolves, and they are obedient to the Mind that makes them."

Christmas Program at Hartland Hall

"The Messiah" Will Be Given Sunday Afternoon

The Hartland Area Combined Choirs and High School Chorus together with the Fenton Community Chorus will present Georg Frederick Handel's immortal oratorio "The Messiah" on Sunday afternoon, December 21, at 3:30 p. m., in the Hartland Area Music Hall. This will be the tenth consecutive performance by the H. A. Combined Choirs and marks the second year the two neighboring communities of Hartland and Fenton have united their musical forces in presenting this work. The Fenton performance is to be given on Friday evening December 19, at 8:15 p. m. No doubt there are many people who will want to hear it twice, inasmuch as the two will be a different quartet of soloists at each performance.

The soloists for the Hartland performance are well known artists who have had extensive oratorio experience and will therefore give an authoritative interpretation of the oft heard recitatives and arias.

The soloists are: Miriam Westerman, soprano; Katherine Sarich, contralto; Carleton Eldridge, tenor, and Cyril Wezemael, bass. Both Miss Sarich, Mr. Wezemael and Mr. Eldridge have appeared in previous Messiah performances at the Music Hall and those who heard them before will be glad to know they are to be with us again.

Miss Westerman comes from Ann Arbor. Although having a father whose name is well known in the scientific and musical fields she has achieved an enviable reputation in her own right as a singer of exceptional abilities.

The orchestra will be made up of musicians from Hartland, Fenton and Flint.

In times like these when the world seems to have gone temporarily "warmad" the message of the "Messiah" is especially needed.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Mallory Stiekney and daughters will leave on Friday to spend the Christmas vacation in Florida.

GLIMPSES OF HOLLYWOOD By HELEN RAETHER

An Interview

The slick, sophisticated and necessarily somewhat xitriolic secretary to the "Sheridan Whiteside" of the Coast stage, production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" was Rose Hobart. Her performance crackled and stung, standing out even in competition with such other accomplished performances as Laird Cregar in the title role.

She gave every impression of knowing what she was about; the audience whispered, "There's an actress, that gal", so it behooved your reporter to find out what she was like when she wasn't fending off the verbal-blows of Mr. "Whiteside" Cregar.

First there were two big French poodles. Had they been active rather than quiescent, there wouldn't have been room in the dressing-room for Miss Hobart and me. She had quick-changed into a blue and white housecoat, was perched on the chair with her hands clasped around one knee and looked remarkably more friendly and less chilly than her roles would lead one to believe. Her deep-set blue eyes have a direct, square look and she is deeply tanned.

When asked why she chose the acting profession, she chuckled, "I always wanted to act and my chances to do so were largely a matter of being in the right place at the right time. So many youngsters who come backstage ask me how to get on the stage; and I can't tell them."

"I was born in New York City where father was first cellist of the New York Symphony. Mother was a singer. I inherited no musical talent at all. I play the piano, but badly."

"My education was gleaned in boarding schools all over the country, beginning with Mrs. Knox's at Tarrytown, N. Y., and ending with High School in Kingston, N. Y. I decided that was enough; I wanted to go on the stage. I was just 15 when I went to an office and was immediately taken for Chautauqua, doing a part in "Cappy Ricks" in one-night stands for eighteen weeks on the road, finishing at Billings, Montana.

"Back to New York, and I informed my understanding parents that I had the acting bug good and proper now and what should I do next. The only producers with whom they were familiar were the Shuberts, so I went to them. There I was in a sloppy sweater, a plaid skirt and flat-heeled shoes, which approximately constituted my wardrobe at the time. I probably looked younger even than my tender years. I was in the ante-room when a little dark man came to the door. 'You', he said, looking straight at me, 'you go in see Mr. Simon.' I went and Mr. Simon looked up from his desk.

"Can you act?' I confidently answered, 'Yes'.

"Go over to the Shubert Theatre right away" and so came the part in "Liliom", one of the prizes of that or any other season. I turned out, by the way, that the little, dark man was J. J. Shubert, himself. And so it went. I've never had to go job-hunting in my life. Is it any wonder I can't give proper advice to young theatrical aspirants?"

From "Death Takes a Holiday" in which she played with Philip Merivale, Rose Hobart was bro't to Hollywood for the screen version of "Liliom", with Charles Farrell. This was unsuccessful so she returned to New York. She did some radio work—guest-starring and a daily radio serial—and next came to Hollywood two years ago for "Susan and God" with Joan Crawford. She was in "Ziegfeld Girl", "Lady, Be Good", "Nothing but the Truth", and will soon be seen in "No Hands on the Clock" and as the menace—"who turns out to be a very dull girl"—in Mr. and Mrs. North, with Gracie Allen. She is still terrified at pictures, but she loves acting and is still seeking just the right part. She likes to be busy. Miss Hobart has a message for the theatre-going public. "Please tell them not to forget that sound carries both ways! We actors on the stage can hear what the audience says, too. I'll always remember the matinee of a little play I tho't was very lovely. There was a matron in the audience who resonantly misinterpreted in a loud voice to her companion what was taking place on the stage. She nearly broke up the boy and I who were trying to do a love scene up there!"

10. The game was a fast, well played contest with plenty of scoring. The varsity didn't show up so well, losing their 3rd straight encounter. Holly started out, jumping to a big lead; but Clarkston came back, and at the quarter it was 9-7 for Holly. Clarkston put on a rally, to lead at the half 14-13. It was a see-saw battle through the 3rd quarter too. Holly finished the quarter: 19-18. The fourth quarter was all Holly. Clarkston didn't get a point; Holly getting 6, to end the game: 25-18. High-point man for the evening was Stack of Holly, getting 12 points to his credit. Clarkston's scoring was pretty well distributed. Ross getting 5 points.

KINDERGARTEN NEWS
The kindergarten children can hardly wait until Santa comes to town. They have been such good boys and girls! At present they are busy making trimmings for their Christmas tree, which include chains, balls and icicles. They will have their Christmas party Tuesday morning, at which time Santa will pay them a visit. Due to the fact that we wish to help with defense, we shall make the gifts from paper smaller and simpler than in former years.

STUDENT ESSAY
In response to a call for students' essays on what high school students can do in the present emergency, the following was submitted. No attempt has been made to "touch it up" in any way, since we feel that the sentiment and sincerity overbalance certain weaknesses in grammatical construction. We are proud to print this essay by a member of the Hilltopper Staff. A. W. W.

How We Can Help Our Country
by Mazy Wompole
Now, more than any other time, our country needs all our help and support. We are now in World War II, fighting with Great Britain and her allies against Germany, Japan and Italy, three very powerful and greedy nations. Our nation is and can be made even more powerful by our willingness to sacrifice. We must, of all things, be broadminded enough to realize that Japan and Germany are strong and that we can not win this war by just sitting back and saying with satisfaction, "Our boys are the best in the world; our navy is the biggest; we can surely win." No! This would be pulling the wool over our eyes and blinding ourselves to the true facts, which are: Our enemy is strong and has seemingly unlimited resources. In order to conquer we must put up a fight behind the lines, in our own homes. We must try to get along without some of our so-called necessities of life, which are really luxuries, such as: a lot of make-up, fancy clothes, rare and out-of-season foods, a new car every year, a bicycle for every child in the family, new electrical appliances, silk stockings, new pots and pans when the old ones get a dent, and many other unnecessary things. We must learn to economize.

Most of all we must keep ourselves and our children healthy, so that we will be strong in mind and body, able to withstand and pull through the depression that is certain to follow the end of this horrible war.
HEARD IN OUR HALLS
How much would a public address system cost? Boy, do we need one! Let's earn some money and buy a new flag!
When does the noon recreation program start?
If we won a basketball game, wouldn't it be swell?
Happy days begin with Wednesday, December 24.

"PEP CLUB" GIVES ASSEMBLY
On Friday afternoon, December 5, the "Pep Club", under the leadership of Royal McGill, entertained the students. Jean Wegman directed a "Henry Aldrich" play, starring Pat Flynn, Lorraine Wegman, Barbara Strickland, Barbara Jewell and Mary Jackson.

These students, working with make-shift "props", and with no teacher direction whatever, had done surprisingly well. The audience performed surprisingly badly.
PROCLAMATION
The HILLTOPPER STAFF has decided to dedicate this month of December to the Spirit of Christmas and have set it aside as "Be tolerant" month. Here are some of the things we are going to be broad-minded about:

- Miss Cohen's assignments
- Mrs. Hileman's summer projects
- Mr. Willoughby's shifting schedules
- Miss Hoole's accent (we are not going to let it make us feel provincial)
- Teachers who have hamburgers "with" for lunch
- Mr. Waters' puns
- Mr. Fischer's session-room dignity
- Welly's haircut
- Doc's "duofolds"
- Bruce Thompson's attendance record
- Freddy's heating system
- Mazy Wompole's pigtails
- Dorothy Pacer's "A's"
- Margaret Beattie's chatter (like Tennyson's brook)
- Arnold's snoopiness
- Smitty's laugh
- Kittredge's flirting
- Genemary's "McGill"
- O'Roark's wave
- Anne's sophistication
- McCann's Irish eyes
- Frank Ronk's girl appeal
- Gray Berg's Cupid complex
- The death of assemblies
- Davidson's diet

Horticultural Schools Plan Meetings
Seventeen dates for Horticultural Schools in Michigan in the first four months of 1942 are announced by Paul R. Krone, extension specialist in floriculture at Michigan State College.

The schools are sponsored by the Michigan Horticultural Society and each one-day school will be in charge locally of a regional representative of the society. Mrs. Guy L. Tubbs will have charge of the Oakland County meeting to be held on March 13 at Pontiac in the Y. M. C. A.

Each of the local schools will have the services of college specialists to offer instruction covering soils, plant diseases and insects, selection of plants for gardens and borders and general flower culture.

Defense Workers Must Have Birth Records
Men and women who want jobs on defense work should prepare themselves now with a certified copy of their birth record, says the Michigan Department of Health.

"In order to obtain work in defense industries, a birth record as proof of citizenship must be shown the employer," Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State Health Commissioner, explained. "Without that proof, workers cannot be placed on defense payrolls, even old workers who are transferred within a plant to production for defense."
In the next few weeks and months, thousands of old factory jobs will be abolished and new defense jobs will be created. To avoid delays in defense work and to avoid unemployment, Dr. Moyer said, workers who anticipate a shift to defense jobs should apply now for certified copies of birth records.

Birth records can be obtained from the county clerk of the county where the birth occurred, from the State Health Department at Lansing, and for certain years from full-time city health departments. The fee for a certified birth record from the state is $1.00 in cash or money order. Name, date of birth, place of birth including county and names of parents must be supplied.

For Homemakers
Another art that grandmother prized is being revived in Michigan as the click of knitting needles is taken up by special home economics classes organized in 20 counties in the state. The women are members of projects groups organized by the Michigan State College home economics extension service.

"We aim to teach the women not only how to knit but how to follow and interpret instructions," says Marjorie Eastman, college specialist in clothing. Sweaters and socks, scarves or mittens all come under the instructions. How to "turn the heel," to "toe off" or the intricacies of the spiral "beanie" — a favorite head gear with Miss Teen Age — are no longer a mystery to these extension members.

The fashion for knitted garments as well as needs of the Red Cross have led to the flood of requests that have been received. In Gratiot County the chairman of Red Cross brought samples of garments to the leaders meeting. At least 500 women are enthusiastically learning the knit and purl formula from their leaders in this county alone.

Home demonstration agents and clothing specialists are assisting in directing the project, new to extension, in teaching the fundamentals of knitting and how to put it to a practical use for home or community needs. The district Red Cross supplied members for use of extension members so that right in their own communities the home economics women may learn the correct methods of knitting. The live-at-home or make-it-yourself program on Michigan farms has another boost in this program of home knitted garments.

All matters handled through the Probate Court require a certain amount of legal publication in one of the county papers. Foreclosing a mortgage entails publication of the foreclosure notice in a county paper.

Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper week by week.

the delights of eating fresh ripe strawberries at Christmas dinner or of eating tender-fresh turkey on the 4th of July?

Modern food locker storage makes it possible for your family to eat your favorite fruits and vegetables at any time during the year. And your own delicious sun-ripened foods cost less than canned goods.

Fresh Frozen Food is the modern way of food preservation. Gone are the days when housewives have to stand for hours over a hot stove boiling down preserves or cold-packing vegetables—only to find later some jars may have spoiled. With fast-freezing there is no spoilage! There is no loss in flavor. Your food is placed in your own zero-cold locker where it stays garden-fresh until you are ready to use it. That's the easy, convenient and economical way to put up fruits and vegetables.

Our new refrigerated locker plant is a complete food handling establishment. Farmers and townspeople can have their own meat, fish, poultry, fruit, and vegetables fast frozen and preserved for future use.

Production Credit Meeting Held

Members of the Pontiac Production Credit Association holding their annual meeting at Pontiac Thursday, December 11, unanimously reelected Albert Luchtman of Washington to the organization's board of directors for a three year term to start January 2, 1942. The all day meeting was held at the First Methodist Church.

Guests included S. B. Thomas, county agricultural agent, and W. T. Tate, farm security head, from Livingston county; William Murphy, county agent, and L. E. Trippé, farm security head, of Macomb county; Karl D. Bailey, county agent, Manley Young, farm security, and Walter Cook, AAA chairman, of Oakland county.

C. A. Kellerman, district supervisor for the AAA, addressed members and explained that the AAA is not "encouraging farmers to ruin themselves financially to produce food, but is suggesting improved methods rather than expansion."

At the morning session two movies concerned with the production credit system were shown, and at the afternoon session annual reports were given by the officers, Harry J. Green of Washington, Smith Green, vice president, and Fred J. Beckman, secretary-treasurer. Harry J. Green in his report emphasized the fact that this is a good time for farmers to pay on their debts rather than to expand and increase their obligations.

Drayton Plains

The annual paper sale sponsored by the Drayton Plains Men's Club netted $185.00, well under the $279.00 mark of last year. Feather parties sponsored by the Drayton Softball league will be held in the vacant storeroom beside the Soda Grill on the nights of tonight, Dec. 19-20 and 22. Proceeds to go to the new softball diamond. A movie by the Bell Telephone Co. was shown at the regular meeting of the club last Monday evening.

With Christmas almost here the Drayton students are busy. The program committee, Phyllis Stevens, Gayle Seibert, Irene Gibson, Alice Marie Nystron, Scott Kemper and Robert Becker, have plans under way for the annual Christmas banquet which will take place December 23rd.
