For Homemakers

Keeping up morale at home is a strict "must" in war time. Home economics extension workers at Michigan State College are showing the value of training in rural home projects.
Fixing up worn furniture, either by a complete job of re-upholstering or occasionally just a tying of springs is the tonic needed to make cushions ride an even keel once more. Slip covers add beauty and interest to a room and when well made may transform a drab victorian into a glamorous furniture piece with 1942 written all over it.
Under the direction of specialists Ruth Peck and Jessie Marion at the college, home agents are helping extension members to put new beauty in their homes—and being patriotic too since the repairs cost little.
"Make good use of what you have" says Miss Peck. "There is too much furniture rather than too little in many homes, both for comfortable living and convenience in cleaning or moving about."
A series of meetings were held recently in Wayne county rural homes called "Bring Your Home Up-To-Date." In some homes all the living room furniture was placed in the center of the room before the group arrived. The radio was placed with a convenient chair nearby, there was a place for the children's toys, books and games, mother's sewing box was placed near a good light. A "junk pile" or the discards cause much good natured merriment as the pile of knick-knacks, dust catchers, souvenirs, and other relics were banished from the new arrangements.
As a test of their knowledge of what is good design in a real home, these women declared it taught them much they never knew before.

In England it has been noted that young trees, like 15-year old tamarack, are unharmed by bomb blasts, even when at the lip of the crater. "Blast" bombs sometimes blow down big trees and strip off their bark without apparently damaging the timber, but trees struck by thick-walled high-explosive type bombs are said to be fit only for an iron foundry.

Farmers to View Fertilizer Projects

Several local farmers, Earl Barrett, Andrew Mathews and James S. Mitchell, have made heavy applications of commercial phosphate and potash fertilizers to half field plantings of oats seeded to alfalfa this spring. Last spring a similar half-field test was made to benefit the hay which will soon be harvested. A field meeting will be held to judge both years results on hay and small grain on Tuesday, June 2, from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. Neighbors are invited to help judge the results of these heavy fertilizer applications—half of each field received a very liberal fertilizer application which the other half did not receive.

W. A. Dexter, teacher of vocational agriculture at Holly will be in charge of the meeting assisted by county agricultural agent Karl D. Bailey and representatives from Michigan State College.

The meetings will be held at the Barrett farm, Clyde, from 3:30 to 4:30 at the Mathews farm, Clyde, from 4:30 to 5 and the Mitchell farm, Holly, 5:30 to 6 p. m.

HOLLY THEATRE

Once again that symbol of escape from city pavements and man-made laws, "Tarzan", makes his appearance on the Holly screen in "Tarzan's Secret Treasure", on Sunday, with Johnny Weissmuller and Maureen O'Sullivan again cast as Tarzan and his bride of the jungle.

The new picture presents a fascinating panorama of wild life in the jungle, with the exploits of its King, as much at home in the tree-tops as the monkeys and as facile in the water as the crocodiles, threaded into a story which comes as a welcome relief from the realities of the more matter-of-fact world of today.

In "Tarzan's Secret Treasure", Tarzan comes into contact with civilization in the form of a safari of explorers. When two of them discover gold in Tarzan's jungle paradise, they plot to get it, which leads into an attempt to kill Tarzan, the abduction of his mate and their adopted son, and the capture of all by a band of murderous savages. Cheeta, the faithful ape, finds Tarzan, who has cheated his assailant's bullet, and leading his elephant army, the lord of the wilderness comes to the rescue.

Weissmuller again presents a magnificent physique as Tarzan. Miss O'Sullivan has become so established in her role of Jane that is inconceivable to imagine any other actress playing the colorful role.

Effective supporting portrayals are offered by Reginald Owen, Tom Conway and Philip Dorn, with a comedy role played by that delightful Irish actor, Barry Fitzgerald.

The Barry Bluegill Festival, celebrating the opening of the pan fish season on Barry county's 225 lakes, will be held at Hastings June 25-27.

Livestock Can Be Made to Pay Now

With Pasture Available, This Is the Season to Reap Profits

It's the little things that count, and with livestock the summer care designed to put on flesh or extra production can be obtained with some of the lowest cost factors of drinking water, salt and shade.

Those are the pointers gathered by Karl D. Bailey, agricultural agent in Oakland county, from the livestock specialists at Michigan State College. Along with pasture and attention to any necessary grain and mineral supplements, the summer period usually offers a chance to make the lowest cost gains with the least labor and outlay of cash.

Beef cattle in the summer need good pasture or they may even lose weight. The recommendation includes grain feeding and protein supplement to balance the grain. On some pastures it would help to offer cattle equal parts of salt and steamed bone meal.

The sheep flock needs abundant pasture of alfalfa-brome if it is available or other good forage. An early lamb market usually pays best. The lambs should be drenched monthly. Shade is essential as well as fresh, clean water and common salt.

An acre of pasture for pigs may offer as much as $30 return in a season. Full feeding of grain for pigs or sows with full litters is usually profitable, including around 10 per cent soy bean oil meal or tankage. The supplement needs to be increased if pastures turn brown in midsummer.

Pigs infested with lice should be oiled at 10 to 14 day intervals. For round worms the phenothiazine, oil of American worm seed and castor oil or other dependable capsules should be used and the pigs changed to new pasture ground. Immunization against cholera is considered good insurance against losing high value pork. Services of a veterinarian are recommended in case of any suspicion of disease in hogs or other classes of livestock.

Michigan Providing Much War Foods

Volumes of war foods are rolling out of Michigan, according to a summary received by Michigan State College members of the state War Board from the Detroit offices of the Agricultural Marketing Administration.

Beans alone total about 2 million pounds daily in the federal purchases headed for lend-lease shipments, summer camps for youths, school lunch use, and relief distribution. In a 10-day period ending April 10, the special purchases reached a volume of 207,296 hundred-pound bags of navy or white pea beans.

Other purchases within a 10-day period included 861,290 pounds of dry skim milk; 135,000 cases of evaporated milk, 35,000 pounds of cheese, 84,000 pounds of lard; 96,000 pounds of pork. Other Michigan products were purchased for the same purpose after they had reached terminal markets such as Chicago.

The so-called "killer instinct" of the common weasel is not without its worth to the landowner. Weasels feed chiefly upon wild mice, which when uncontrolled often "bark" trees and shrubs so that they die.

HOW TO USE YOUR TELEPHONE IN WARTIME

1. Answer your telephone promptly. Operators are busy with war calls these days. Every second counts for Victory.
2. Avoid the "peak" hours for your calls. The best times to call are before 10 A. M., 12 to 2 P. M., 4 to 7 P. M., and after 9 P. M.
3. Be sure you have the right number. Consult the directory. Please don't call Information needlessly.
4. Be brief. Know what you want to say, and keep paper and pencil handy so that you won't have to hunt for them.
5. Speak distinctly, with your lips about half an inch from the mouthpiece, so that you won't have to repeat.
6. Don't telephone during or just after an air raid alarm or blackout, except in emergency. Keep lines clear for war calls.

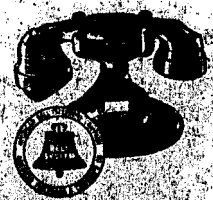

TELEPHONE lines today are carrying a bigger load than ever before, and they must be used efficiently to give maximum service to the war effort.

For the nation's Armed Forces, the Federal Government, the Civilian Defense agencies and the war production industries have first call on telephone facilities. Above are shown six ways you can help.

In so far as war restrictions and material shortages permit, we shall continue to furnish you with the best service possible. And we look forward to the day when we again can give the kind of service wanted, "when and where wanted." But now, and for the duration, war needs come first.

LINE EXTENSIONS for electric service

Because of the urgent need for copper in war industries, restrictions have been placed on the building of extensions to existing electric lines.

These restrictions prevent us from making extensions to our lines, except as follows:

As of March 26, 1942, no extension in excess of 250 feet may be made without specific authorization in advance from the Director of Industry Operations, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

Priority preference to build does not include this line extension. That must be applied for separately, and we are glad to aid you in the preparation of forms, submitting your request for the extension to the War Production Board. Defense Plants, Defense Housing and other projects directly related to war industries are given first consideration by them.

Before making plans to build a house, home builders will save themselves much delay and maybe even disappointment if they will make these applications as early as possible. Any Detroit Edison Office can give further information.

THE JUNIOR AND SENIOR BANQUET

By Stanley Perrin

Last Friday marked the biggest event of the 1942 year. The Junior and Senior Banquet was held in the High School Auditorium. All but a few Jrs. and Seniors were there. The faculty turned out fairly well with a few exceptions. Some of the former teachers were also present.

The Dinner was served about 7:00. The home-economics class served and the Junior mothers prepared the food. The food was of the best and there was plenty of it. Songs were sung between the courses. Novelties were introduced when the students sang for the teachers to parade. All the faculty got up and had a walk around the dinner tables. The teachers and their friends followed by calling for a Junior and then a Senior parade. All which was done in good spirit, on by the students and stood up to Each teacher individually was called be recognized. The doings ended with the baseball team marching around the tables.

The program started right after dessert. Margaret Ann Beattie, the Jr. president, welcomed the Seniors and the teachers. Each speaker was given a short but witty introduction. Virginia Tondou gave the Senior Class will. Now the Juniors know what to look forward to, because many unexpected traits and abilities were given to them.

This was followed by two songs presented by the Senior High Chorus. The selections were "Driftin'" and "The Bells of St. Mary's". Gray Berg, a Jr., gave a skit called "My Sister's Fellers". It was very good, and proved worthy of many laughs.

The Senior Prophecy, which was written and given by Stan Perrin, was next. Each Senior was told his whereabouts in years to come. Some were told of their fate or fortune, and what their work would be in a few years.

Next on the program was a Spanish Dance by Inez Miller. The dance was done with a shawl and castenets. The dance proved very good, and an encore had to be given to satisfy the appreciative audience.

Mr. Thayer then gave his address to the Juniors and Seniors. Some very clever jokes were told about both classes, and many words of wisdom were also included in the speech. The talk as a whole proved very entertaining.

Mr. Winn then introduced the different faculty members who were to present the awards to the Seniors. Mr. Thayer presented Stewart Baynes and Paul Sutton with the Athletic Medals. Mrs. Hileman presented Virginia Tondou the Medal for Dramatic ability. Mr. Willoughby presented Betty Ash the Music Medal. Alice Rose and Malvina Smith received the awards for Scholarship, and were the valedictorian and salutatorian. These were presented by Mr. Winn.

The citizenship medal was present-

WARTIME NEEDS

CHANGE GREYHOUND SCHEDULES

EFFECTIVE WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3RD...

Greyhound buses will operate on new war-time schedules. This change in service is being made in order to cooperate to the fullest extent with the war-time plans of the Office of Defense Transportation. The purpose is to make every bus work full time — keeping vital traffic on the move.

America's war program has the right way! The great majority of the people Greyhound is carrying today and intends to carry efficiently are selectees traveling to examination centers, fighting men on leave or furlough, war workers moving to their jobs, businessmen traveling on essential work. The trips they take are necessary to keep the war program rolling.

With increased service demanded for war production areas—and little increase in buses available—it is necessary to divert equipment to routes where it is most needed.

Many peace-time features are discontinued. Operating speeds are somewhat reduced. Express and Limited Schedules are eliminated entirely. Second sections of regular schedules are being eliminated unless the buses carry a sufficient number of passengers. Greyhound schedules will be combined with those of other bus companies, when necessary.

Conservation of rubber is all-important—and Greyhound is taking every possible step to increase the big savings already effected. Today buses use only a fraction as much rubber as private cars per passenger, per mile—and they average more than 40,000 miles per tire.

We hope that these war-time changes will not cause you inconvenience, crowding or delay. But if you don't find travel as comfortable and easy as in normal times, please make allowances! The war effort comes first with Greyhound as it does with you!

You Can Help

by getting information about the new schedules before you travel — taking as little baggage as possible — traveling before or after the mid-summer rush period — taking your trip on mid-week days, leaving seats on week-ends for soldiers and war workers.

Rules for Visitors At Fort Custer

What Is Necessary to See Your Boy in Uniform

New regulations concerning passes and admission to Fort Custer have been published by the Commanding Officer and will go into effect about June 20. Meanwhile persons desiring to visit friends at the Fort will experience little difficulty if they state their name and business to the Military Police at the gates. Normal visiting hours have been set at 1:00 and 7:00 P. M. Under the new regulations, visitors will be supplied with cards for their windshields. The cards will authorize them to go to one of the twelve visiting areas: Post Headquarters, Division Headquarters, Post Exchange Office, Post Prison Office, Quartermaster Office, Recruit Reception Center, Station Hospital, Service Club No. 1, Service Club No. 2, Field House, Cemetery, or Organization Guardhouses.

No driving will be permitted about the Post except to the parking lots in the areas mentioned. Dickman Highway will be the only road used by visitors unless otherwise authorized. Visitors desiring to call on soldiers will make advance arrangements with their friends to meet them at the parking areas. Military Police at the outposts will take the name, address, and car license number of any visitor issued a permit. Cards will be collected at the outposts when the cars leave the Reservation. Failure to return the visitor's card will bar a person from driving on the Post in the future.

The mischievous ghost of Bible Hill, Nova Scotia's playful spook rocks chairs, throws knives and forks, picks up flatirons and tears down partitions—with practically the whole town enjoying the show. Clarkston Locals

John Ronk, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk, was taken to Goodrich Hospital and underwent an appendectomy on Wednesday night. As we go to press no report has been received as to his condition.

The News received a few lines this week from Clinton Russell who is stationed at an air base in Texas. Clinton expressed his thanks for the hometown paper. He says he hopes Clarkston doesn't change too much before he arrives home on leave this summer.

On Wednesday night of this week, Rev. W. Harold Pailthorp of the Methodist Church spoke at a Church Night gathering for High School graduates at Durand, Michigan which he formerly held as a pastorate. On Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Pailthorp attended a dinner at the Rochester Methodist Church at which Mr. Pailthorp spoke.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 31.

The Golden Text (Zechariah 10:2) is: "The idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (James 4:7,8,10): "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh unto God, and he will draw nigh unto you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.29): "Christians must take up arms against error at home and abroad. They must grapple with sin in themselves and in others, and continue this warfare until they have finished their course. If they keep the faith, they will have the crown of rejoicing."

Wartime Restrictions Change Bus Schedules

Conditions imposed by wartime restrictions on vital materials will affect the schedules of all Great Lakes Greyhound Lines buses June 3, P. L. Radcliffe, general traffic manager of the company declared today.

In co-operation with the Office of Defense Transportation, Mr. Radcliffe said that a speed limit of 40 miles an hour would be in effect and it will be necessary to curtail service where there is the least demand for it to release buses for heavily travelled lines since additional buses cannot be purchased.

He added that second sections of regular schedules will not be operated unless there is a sufficient number of passengers to justify it, and charter coaches are available only for movements authorized by the war department. Unless on business or in an emergency people are asked to travel on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Mr. Radcliffe also expressed the hope that passengers will remember that wartime travel cannot be "travel as usual", and that they would make allowances if inconvenienced, crowded or delayed.
