Richard C. Ganther Killed in Action

Those in this district who knew Richard Ganther of 10412 Andersonville Road were sorry to learn of his being killed in action in the southwest Pacific. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ganther, were notified in a telegram from the navy department on Tuesday. Sergeant Ganther, who was 21 years old, graduated from the Clarkston High School in the class of '39. He enlisted in the Marines on May 14, 1941. He graduated from the Naval Air School at Jacksonville, Fla., as an aviation mechanic on December 6, 1941.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother, Earl, 14, at home.

Eldred X. Clore Gets Promotion

Eldred X. Clore, RFD No. 1, Clarkston, Michigan, has been promoted to the rank of corporal in the Classification Section at Fort Custer. His promotion was made upon the recommendation of his company commander in view of his demonstrated interest, initiative and ability in the work assigned him.

Cpl. Clore now ranks in the fifth pay scale of the Army enlisted men under the recently revised promotion system. The seven pay scales are: Grade 1—master sergeant; Grade 2—first or technical sergeant; Grade 3—staff sergeant; Grade 4—sergeant; Grade 5—corporal; Grade 6—private first class; and Grade 7—private.

On Wednesday night Mrs. William Mansfield, Miss Louise Gulick and Mrs. George Pass were hostesses at a pink and blue shower at the Mansfield home honoring Mrs. Orlo Willoughby. The ladies of the Methodist Church were guests.

Social Security Board Advises Wage Earners

Many persons seeking to learn the amount of wages earned during 1942 for the purpose of filing income tax returns are urged not to request such information from the Social Security Board.

"It is impossible for the Board to give a wage earner a statement showing the total wages he has earned during the calendar year 1942," Albert W. Boehringer, manager of the Pontiac field office, explained today. "This is due to the delay in filing of the social security tax returns of employers and the length of time required to process and post the earnings of millions of workers. Consequently, our records do not show wages earned after June 30, 1942."

Mr. Boehringer pointed out that most employers upon request will furnish their workers with a statement showing total wages paid for the entire year.

Our Boys and Girls In The Service

Great Lakes, Ill.—A recent enrollee in the Navy Service School for Machinist's Mates, Charles Raymond Beach, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, RFD 2, Clarkston, Michigan, is studying to be a specialist in the Navy, and a chance to earn a petty officer's rating. The school is located at the U. S. Naval Training Station here at Great Lakes.

He was selected for this training on the basis of results from a series of aptitude tests given him while in recruit training. Upon graduating from school, he will be assigned to active duty with the U. S. Fleet, or at a naval shore station.

This letter was written by Donald Steiner to his parents:

Dear Folks:
Well, we arrived here alright. Am well and feeling fine. But it is hot here and what a beautiful country. I wish you were here to enjoy it with me. I almost feel like jumping ship and staying here. There are a lot of mountains with green grass all over them and houses on the mountain side, and coconut and palm trees all over. Boy! you can't imagine just how pretty it is here.

We arrived at our first port, un-loaded, and then came here away. I don't know how long we're going to stay, but don't worry about me as I'm feeling better than ever before, but I'm homesick as the dickens!

This is a swell ship. All the crew treat you really nice. We have good food and better quarters and the ship has a new paint job. No subs bothered us coming down.

I got some souvenirs and will send them later.

They have no food down here, just eat rice. Not many clothes and no cigarettes. I sold some of mine for 50 and 75 a pack. The civilians don't have any at all only what they get off of the sailors.

You see a lot of old ladies 70 or 80 years old begging for money and little kids bumming cigarettes.

I swiped some coconuts. I climbed up and pulled them off the trees and went back to the ship and ate them. I must close as I have to wash my whites so I can go ashore tomorrow.

Love,
Don.

Aviation Cadet Russell Morgan of Fletcher Field, N. C., is spending a short furlough with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Goulet.

2nd Lt. Bettieann Comstock of Battle Creek spent the weekend here with her parents.

Last week Howard Boyns was promoted from corporal to the rank of sergeant.

George Lueckeman, who has been attending school and receiving his air cadet training at Foster Field, Texas, will graduate and receive his "Wings" on Tuesday, February 16th. George is known to many in this district having graduated from the Clarkston High School.

Burton Steiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner of Orion Rd., graduated this week from the Navy service school in Chicago as a Machinist Mate 3c. He spent a few hours last weekend at his home here.

Tech. Sgt. Basil Tucker who is stationed at Ellington Field, Texas, spent a few days in Clarkston last week with relatives and friends. He received a fifteen day furlough to attend the funeral of his mother in Pontiac on February 1.

Inequality

The wind that howls outside my door,
And carries the snow in its wake,
Is something millions have prayed for,

A record heat wave it should break.
As I sit in my easy chair,
And watch the drifts piling high,
I think of the men over there
On the desert so hot, and dry.

It isn't hard for man to believe
That nature could temper the air,
And suffering man could relieve,
Over here, and then over there,
If she saw fit that such be done,
It wouldn't be much of a feat
To give us here a little sun,
And take away part of their heat.

This isn't a part of nature's plan
To soften the shocks on our path
She doesn't believe in sheltering man,
From feeling-effects of her wrath
It will be hard for man to give
The same rights to all on the earth,

And assure him a chance to live,
Without a regard of his worth.

The local Methodist minister, W. Harold Pailthorp, attended the Conference on Summer Youth Activities in Chicago as the Conference Chairman of the Institutes and the Dean of the Flint District Institute which meets at Lake Copneconic, the last week in August.

This Conference was in the nature of a training school for the Institute Leaders. The three divisions were: a Recreational Seminar, Senior High Institute Program and a Junior High Camp Program.

Owing to the religious and Christian type of work done in these church groups, the government recognizes their need by allowing them to operate when secular camps are closed.

Farmers to Get Soils, Meat Ideas

For farmers wondering how to get greater crop production without soil reclamation and for other farmers who want labor shortcuts combined with livestock feed-saving ideas, the specialist teams from Michigan State College will offer soils and animal husbandry wartime tips in a series of meetings in Oakland County on February 18.

To serve in a neighborhood style, the meetings have been scheduled by Karl D. Bailey, County Agricultural Agent, and one in Clarkston will be held at the Township Hall at 1:30 p. m.

Livestock farmers will get information on what weights hogs ought to take on before marketing, how to use the low cost government wheat, how to use self-feeders to save labor. For those with beef cattle the discussion leaders will indicate efficient feeding methods, how to treat cattle grubs, use pasture and feed to heavier weights. Sheep men will be told of their advantage in being able to increase the size of flocks without adding equipment or labor.

The soils speaker of the teams coming into the county will indicate how to adapt the soil to an adapted crop, how to overcome the problem of decreased fertilizer supplies and what to do about testing soil for acidity and applying lime when necessary.

With figures showing that 20 cows daily produce liquid and solid manure containing $1.45 worth of fertilizing elements, the value of proper use of such material in helping the land produce the crops will be discussed in each of the meetings in the county.

THE COW THAT DIDN'T GET MILKED

She was a Holstein. There are many like her on our farms.
 But this cow was not on an American farm. She was grazing in a little pasture in Holland, native country of the Holstein, when hell broke loose. A new kind of horrible hell called a blitz.
 She went crazy. She ran until her tongue hung out. She wasn't milked that morning, or that night, or the next day, or the next. Her beautiful udder spoiled.
 But maybe it is just as well—Hitler and his men take all the milk. They take everything from enslaved Holland.
 Remember this story as you milk your good herd. Keep on remembering it—and buy U. S. War Bonds—every dollar's worth that you possibly can.
 Buying Bonds will help with the war right now—and be one of the best investments you ever made. They never sell for less than you pay for them. They increase in value every year. If held for ten years, they return $4 for every $3 invested. And they can be cashed any time after sixty days if you need the money. Buy Bonds—for yourself and for your country—at your bank or post office.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Here's a piece, Judge, that says that in spite of more cars and faster speeds, the first six years of repeal showed 12% less deaths from automobile accidents than during the last six years of prohibition."
 "Now doesn't that just go to show you, Henry, you've got to be on pretty solid ground as far as your facts go before you make an out-and-out prediction. Why, back in the days just before repeal quite a few folks around the country made pretty powerful predictions about how automobile accidents were going to jump up if we got legal liquor back.

 "About the only thing along that line you're ever safe in predicting, Henry, is this. No community or county or nation, for that matter, ever became or ever will become dry just because it voted that way. All that the votin' decides is whether you have legal or bootleg liquor. We had nearly 14 years of experience on that, didn't we?"

ART CLASS

This week we are finishing up our unit of work on water color painting. We have found this is not just child's play, but a very fascinating and difficult unit of art work. After many days of practice and work with the color wheel and mixing of colors, some of us have done some very interesting and lovely pieces of work.

NINTH GRADE NEWS

Besides the report cards, the main news is another ninth grade victory in basketball. This time it was the eighth grade that fell to our unbeaten team. The score was approximately 35-25, and the game was held on Thursday noon.

It seems as if our team is invincible! (Where's a piece of wood, Jackson?)

BASKETBALL NEWS

Clarkston basketball squads went to Farmington last Friday night and played a game, but was defeated the last few minutes of play. The score was tied up twice in the last half, the Farmington squad had a lot of reserve strength which helped them very much on their large floor. Clarkston's high point man of the evening was Wilbur Adams who hit the bucket for a total of 14 points. The reserves lost by the score of 27-8. We play Walled Lake this Friday night, Feb. 12, on their floor and we are victory bound.

MUSIC NEWS

The band has laid aside its marching and drilling for a few weeks to work on a concert which will be played at the P. T. A. program to be given in the near future. The concert will be short although it will include one or two overtures and several snappy and patriotic marches.

Also during the evening the string ensemble will play a couple selections which promise to be very entertaining.

A definite program will be printed in a week or so.

DANCE BAND

The Dance Band continues to rehearse at every possible opportunity, trying to increase their "tone" quality and their "tune" quantity. Something new has just been added to the band in the way of 10 new portable music desks. We know that they will add a great deal to the appearance of the band.

The band has two engagements this week. Wednesday night our five piece "band within a band" will play for the Dancing Club, and Saturday night the entire band will play for the Rotary Club dance.

Everybody is invited to attend the dance to hear and see this band and to dance to the fine music.

S. S. Delinquents To Clear Status By February 14

Selective Service delinquents will have until February 14 in which to clear their status with their local boards before prosecutive action by the Department of Justice, it was announced today by State Selective Service Headquarters. Previously February 1 had been set as the deadline.

Delinquents or lost registrants should get in touch immediately with their local boards, Selective Service officials advised. If such cases are not cleared by the end of this week, they will be turned over to the Department of Justice for investigation and prosecution.

Men who have been registered for at least six months were also advised to contact their local boards immediately if they have not yet received or have lost their Selective Service notice of classification. Classification notices, as well as registration certificates, must be carried by all registrants in the military age group of 18 through 45. Eighteen-year-old youths who registered in December will not be required to have classification notices until six months after their registration date.

The current Selective Service delinquency program will be followed up by a national roundup of violators by the Department of Justice. All delinquents will be turned over to U. S. district attorneys for investigation through the F. B. I. Selective Service officials reported 2395 delinquents as of December 31.

Newspapers have been requested to publish names of all delinquents. Selective Service is particularly concerned with locating for compliance or prosecution those men who failed to register as required and those who did register, but whose records have been lost. Other delinquents who may be subject to prosecution include men who have failed to respond to instructions from their local board as well as those known as deliberate violators—currently subject to prosecution.

Women Build Novel Bookcases

Bricks and boards in the hands of Michigan farm women are emerging as bookcases and toy shelves in many homes this year. Besides being inexpensive they are easy to make, for no nails are used and they simply build up as you go.

"Streamline your living for efficiency," says Ruth Peck, Michigan State College specialist in home furnishing. "Put away the dust catchers and catch up on important war work". Miss Peck advises homemakers to provide a place for things as an aid to helping the family.

Members of home economics extension groups are finding materials right at home in the form of unused boards and either white or red brick. The boards often come from the side of an old wooden bed that is beheaded to resemble the modern Hollywood style.

The building of the book shelves is simple. Two bricks on the floor under each end of the first board form the base, the space between the next is determined by the size of books or objects to place on them. Five or six bricks high is usually ample.

A modern touch is easy when either soft or hard wood boards are bleached, sanded satin smooth, waxed and then used with creamy white bricks.

Red bricks add color to make a cheerful corner with gay backs of books and magazines or bits of pottery and trailing green vines. For war time or any time the brick and board building is fun for the family besides providing added space.

Conservation Notes

Irresponsible fishermen who in other years have let their shanties sink in the spring to become hazards to small boat navigation and a nuisance to summer anglers and bathers will find such abandonment costly if House Bill 101 becomes a law.

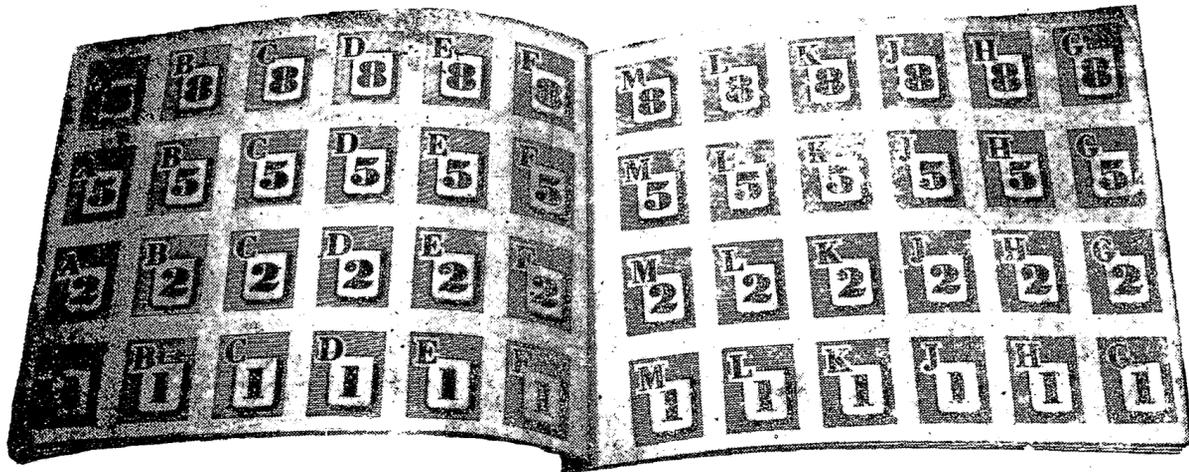

The fish shanty measure is definitely not a licensing law, and it would not require permits. Shanty owners would be required, however, to put their name and address on the outside of the shanty in letters at least two inches high.

Any shanty not removed within 10 days after melting of the ice would be removed by conservation or other peace officers. Cost of the removal, together with imprisonment for not more than 30 days or a fine of not more than $50, would be assessed against the owner.

Sportsmen who have suffered from too intimate contact with poison sumac may get some consolation from the finding of game men at Rose Lake wildlife experiment station that pheasants find the fruit of this shrub entirely palatable, and feed extensively on the white "berries" when deep snows cover weed seeds and other wild foods.

It will be used for a New kind of rationing
... "POINT RATIONING" ...

The numbers show the "POINT VALUE" of each stamp
 The letters show the time period in which the stamps may be used

HOW POINT RATIONING WORKS

- Point Rationing is a method of rationing similar or related foods by groups. Under Point Rationing each item within the group will be given a point value.
- For example, suppose it became necessary to ration canned foods. Let us say that the group included:

Let's suppose, also, that the supply of canned peas was about as plentiful as usual, and at the same time the supply of canned beans was very small.

- Under these circumstances, canned beans might have a "point value" of 8 points per package.

- On the other hand canned peas being plentiful, would have a low point value—perhaps as low as 1 point per package of the same size.

- In such a case you would be able to buy 8 packages of canned peas for the same number of points it would cost you for 1 package of canned beans.

- In other words, with the "Point" system you are free to buy what you choose. You can obtain a larger portion of the rationed foods that are plentiful, or you can use your "points" for the scarce items and receive a smaller share.
- "Point Rationing" means Share and Share alike.

New Sugar Beets To Be Used in '43

Two new sugar beet hybrids markedly resistant to leaf blight or leaf spot disease will be used to plant the major share of Michigan's sugar beet acreage in 1943.

Another plant breeding project in which Michigan State College has played a part enables Michigan's 15,000 beet growers help fight the war of food production. The new beets are known only by their crossing or breeding numbers, 200 X 215 and 215 X 216.

In a medium to poor year when certain combinations of temperature and humidity aid the leaf blight these new hybrids likely will increase beet production two to four tons an acre, says H. C. Rather, head of the college farm crops department. He credits two other agencies with cooperation in developing the new strains. J. G. Lill, stationed at the college by the United States department of agriculture, tested the varieties thoroughly. The Farmers' and Manufacturers' Beet Sugar association aided in variety tests and arranged for the seed increase. Approximately three-fourths of a million pounds of each hybrid is available for planting in 1943.

The strains give high tonnage in the absence of disease, as well. Spraying or dusting beets in Michigan to control leaf spots appears to be unnecessary when either of the new hybrids is used.

Now that Congress is in session, many have occasion to communicate with their Congressman concerning legislation and other Federal matters. Here are some suggestions:

If you live in Oakland county you are a resident of the 17th congressional district. The Congressman for the district is Rep. George A. Dondero and his address is "House Office Building, Washington, D. C." when Congress is in session.

A farmer who produces 6,550 lbs. of onion, or 769 pounds of chicken or 8,323 pounds of potatoes produces the equivalent of a soldier's food needs for a year.

MID-WINTER MONTHS and MID-WEEK DAYS
are the LEAST CROWDED travel times

You can aid wartime bus service by planning essential trips for February or March—instead of Mid-Summer

Never in history has it been so important to choose with care the time and occasion for travel. Through the years bus travel has always been very heavy in some months, less heavy in others—and this has held true even in wartime when the demands on transportation are naturally increased. That's why Greyhound has long urged everyone to travel during less crowded periods — and February and March are just such times. Essential trips taken when possible, in mid-winter will greatly relieve overcrowding in the mid-summer months ahead.

You can aid wartime transportation still further by choosing the right day — in mid-week — the right schedule — the least crowded one. It's wise to take along as little baggage as possible—and to get information on any trip well in advance.

Town and Farm In Wartime

Rationing of canned, dried, and frozen fruits and vegetables will begin March 1, and retail sales of the more than 200 items to be rationed will be "frozen" on February 20. Beginning Monday, Feb. 22, housewives will register for War Ration Book No. 2, which will allow a total of 48 "points" for each member of the family for the month of March. Stamps will have values of 8, 5, 2, and 1. If a family has more than 5 cans per person on hand, stamps will be removed from the book in proportion to their excess holdings. Official point values will be made public as soon as stocks are "frozen." Registration probably will be held in local school houses and one member may register for the whole family.

Some foods need not be counted. They include: canned olives, canned meat and fish, pickles, relish, jams, preserves, spaghetti, macaroni, noodles, and all home-canned foods.

Farm and mining machinery and equipment producers will hereafter be given more fuel oil for their production. Petroleum distribution order No. 3, which originally imposed a 40 per cent cut on fuel oils for uses than space heating and hot water heating, has been amended to leave out farm and mining machinery.

Every major cotton mill in the country has been urged to produce more cotton fabrics and yarns in 1943. Military requirements come first but there must also be enough cotton fabrics to supply all essential civilian needs. Producers of wool have also been urged to increase production by every means at their command.

To encourage the planting of 725,000 acres of peas, the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture will support the prices of dry peas at $5.50 for U. S. Grade No. 1, and $5.25 for U. S. Grade No. 2, per hundred pounds, in bags, f. o. b. country shipping points. Designated varieties are Scotch Green, Alaska, First and Best, Marrowfat, and White Canada. Effectively immediately, the Food Distribution Administration will buy dry peas of those varieties at the prices announced.

If you want to be a dealer in automobile tires and tubes, and have both experience in this line and a suitable place of business, you can now get a limited stock of passenger car tires and tubes. OPA has found that there is an insufficient number of tire dealers and other establishments to handle the tire inspections required by law, and so is encouraging more dealers.

Holders of "B" and "C" gasoline ration coupons may now renew them by mail instead of appearing personally before local War Price and Rationing Boards. Same rules will apply to non-highway uses of gasoline, such as that for farm machinery and industrial equipment.

FARM FACTS

Cows need vacations, with pay, say extension dairymen at Mich. State College. A cow should have a rest period of about six weeks, but should get two to six pounds of grain daily, and plenty of good hay. She will "milk it all back" to the dairyman when she freshens.

Gardeners who processed foods at home do not have to declare such foods when they receive their new food ration books which limit canned food purchases. Another reason to get out that seed catalogue.

Michigan hens in 1942 laid an estimated 120,100,000 dozen eggs. The estimate for the 48 states indicates total production was 47,959,000,000 eggs or about four billion dozen in 1942.

About three-fourths of all sports equipment now being manufactured goes to members of the armed services and to those receiving pre-induction military training.

American farmers in 1942 produced 20 per cent more food than in 1939, but 13 per cent of it went to the U. S. armed forces and to our allies.

Her husband, James E., died in 1930. She was the last of a family of ten children. She had lived in Davisburg over 50 years, and was a member of the Davisburg Methodist church. HOLLY THEATRE

An assortment of Hollywood's sturdiest, most rugged males comprises the "Flying Tigers" in Republic's drama of that title, scheduled to go into the Holly Theatre for Sunday and Monday.

John Wayne, tall and commanding, hails from Iowa, but spent his childhood on a ranch near Lancaster, California. After starring for over ten years in westerns, he finally got Hollywood to wake up to his talents as a dramatic actor of Grade A calibre. John Carroll, Wayne's running mate for lead honors, has led a colorful life which has moved him from picturesque New Orleans, his birthplace, to the four corners of the globe. He has been taxi driver, deep sea diver, stepplejack, singer, sailor, ship's cook and student. Like Wayne, he specializes in roles of large scope.

Paul Kelly, an Irishman from Brooklyn, started out on the stage with David Warfield. David Belasco was another Grand Old Man of the Theatre who influenced his early career. Gordon Jones—whose father was a chaplain overseas in the last war, and whose brother is at present with General Stillwell's forces in China—portrays his Flying Tiger role with confidence.

David Bruce—nee Andrew McBroon—went to Northwestern University intending to study law. But roles in college theatrical productions changed his mind, and the Kankakee home town boy made good in the movies.

Bill Shirley, under contract to Republic, was at one time boy vocal wonder of Indianapolis. Growing up, he developed into a first rate baritone and has been featured by Republic in singing parts. "Flying Tigers" is his first straight dramatic picture.

John James, of Texas, ran away from a college career to join a traveling stock company. Now established definitely in Hollywood he is making rapid strides starward.

A product of the Guild Theatre in New York is Tom Neal. Previous to that he was college athlete, winning All-American rating at Northwestern, and matinee idol in summer stock. He played opposite Francis Gifford in "Jungle Girl", widely publicized Republic serial.

Jimmy Dodd is extremely versatile, having been a talented vaudevillian, music composer and musician. He has written several songs that have been used in motion pictures, and has sold some of his numbers to Bing Crosby.

Bud McTaggart and Gregg Barton are both talented graduates of Little Theatre work. McTaggart has appeared in numerous films proving his versatility in sympathetic roles as well as forceful heavies. Barton is a promising newcomer.

Keep the pressure up!

Uncle Sam is fighting the biggest "fire" in world history. Every ounce of pressure we can put behind the war effort is needed now.

If everybody kept right on sprinkling lawns while a big fire was raging, the firemen wouldn't have enough pressure. Just so with the telephone system. Long Distance telephone lines, like water mains, can carry only so much at a time. Much of the capacity of the Long Distance lines is needed now for the messages that speed war production.

Here's how you can help:

Do not make a Long Distance call unless it is really important.

Keep all calls as brief as you can.

Conservation Notes

Half a million small game hunters and 150,000 deer hunters have a small but nevertheless important job to do this weekend: the filing of their game-kill report to the state department of conservation on or before the deadline February 15.

The 500,000 and 150,000 figures are almost the exact differences between the known number of resident license sales and the reports already made by hunters mailing in their game-kill cards early. The cards are a detachable part of the hunting license blank. They require a penny postage when mailed.

So valuable is the information on the success of licensees considered that all hunting license holders are required by law to return the game-kill stub, whether they took plenty of game or "got skunked" every time they went afield. Similar reports are required of trappers also.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my appreciation to all my friends in Clarkston and Waterford and to the Campbell-Richmond Post of the American Legion, the Clarkston Methodist Church, the Joseph C. Bird Chapter of O. E. S., the Cedar Lodge F. & A. M., the Birthday Club and Bridge Club and the members of the Village Council for the kind remembrances I received while in the hospital and since I have been convalescing at my home. Cards, fruits and flowers from friends certainly brighten days that would otherwise be long and dreary.

Percy Craven

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to my many friends and to the Royal Neighbors and the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist Church for the flowers, fruit and cards I received while I was ill and confined to my home.

Registration Notice for Village Election Monday, March 8, 1943

To the qualified electors of the Village of Clarkston, State of Michigan:

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law" I the undersigned Village Clerk, will, upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Village not already registered who may Apply to Me Personally for such registration. Provided, however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the Second Saturday before any regular, special, or official primary election and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby further given that I will be at 119 N. Holcomb from 7:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. daily, except Sundays and legal holidays, including Tuesday, Feb. 16th, 1943, the last day for registrations.

REGISTRATION OF ABSENTEE BY OATH

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Save now to buy later, after the War. That's good common sense because if you spend now, you help to drive prices up for everything you buy. Durable goods are scarce so invest in War Bonds today and do that house remodeling when Victory is won.

If you have not done so, join a Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. If you are not investing at least ten percent in War Bonds, increase your regular deductions on your Payroll Savings Plan. Let's "Top that ten percent." U. S. Treasury Department
