Coal Promised Chick Brooders

Farmers, commercial poultrymen and baby chick hatchery operators who need anthracite coal to keep necessary heat in chick quarters have been promised supplies of hard coal through effort of the federal fuel administrator, Harold L. Ickes, according to Donald S. Leonard, director of the Michigan Civilian Defense.
Users must certify such hard coal will be used only for poultry hatcheries or brooding, the order asserts. In Michigan the average chick hatchery needs an estimated 10 tons of anthracite for a season. A suggestion from the office of Director Leonard points out that dealers, to handle a car of coal should use the pooled orders of several users.
To add to these preparations for taking care of the 1944 crop of potential pullets and broilers, the value of getting ready before the chicks arrive is suggested by C. G. Card, head of the Michigan State College poultry husbandry department.

Thorough cleaning of brooder houses rates a practical position on the list of things to do. Brooders should be moved to new locations to avoid disease possibilities. In the new location the chicks should have access to fresh ground for their spring and summer range.
Soap and water and lots of elbow grease are recommended after the houses are thoroughly swept out.

If a litter shortage faces a poultryman, some may use sand to cover floors of brooder house, the college says. Until the chicks learn properly how to eat, the sand should be covered with newspapers. Otherwise the chicks may pick up so much sand instead of feed that a costly mortality might result.

CLARKSTON FEELS THEIR WAY TO VICTORY!
Friday night Clarkston finished their regular basketball season in an impressive way, winning from Holly 31 to 20 on the home court. Clarkston made the first basket and never relinquished the lead, being ahead at the half 20-7. High point man for this game was Wilbur Adams with 11 points. Eldon Rouse was next with 9 points and his handling of the ball off the backboard was a big help in Clarkston's success. These two boys along with Bill Clement and Carl Freeman played their last game at home as they will be gone in June.
The second team came through with a win 22-13.
This was not Clarkston's last game however, as they go to the tournaments at Romeo March 2, 3, 4.

Waste Paper Broomstick High Equals 100 lbs.

(N. Y. Times—Kaskel Karplus Photos)
Housewife above shows simple method for measuring the waste paper she is saving to help solve the critical shortage in this all-important war material. Bundles piled as high as a broomstick handle weigh about 100 lbs. And 100 lbs. of waste paper will make 200 containers for blood plasma, 650 cartons for U. S. Army K rations. Inset shows how your waste paper goes to war. Life-sustaining supplies are being landed on invaded enemy shore under protection of gun-toting patrol. Start saving waste paper now. It may mean the life of one of our boys!

Personal Booklets for Telephone Numbers

FOR your convenience in telephoning, and to help reduce wasteful calls to "Information", we have reprinted "Telephone Numbers", a booklet for listing names, and addresses, and telephone numbers that are frequently called.
You can have copies free for the asking!
There are two handy sizes, one for pocket or handbag and one for home or office use. They are alphabetically tabbed and indexed for quick reference.
More than a thousand operating hours are wasted each day by calls to "Information" for numbers that are listed in the Telephone Directory. Here is how you can help eliminate that waste of switchboard and operators' time:
1. Call "Information" for a number only when it is not listed.
2. If you must call "Information", write the number down in your personal directory so you will have it next time.
To obtain copies of the booklet, call, write or visit the Telephone Business Office.

SENIOR BOYS PREPARE FOR SERVICE

The first of the month three seniors, Bill Radoye, Eldon Rouse, and Jack Baughman spent 2½ days in Detroit taking the Navy V-5 (Naval Aviation) mental and physical examinations. All three boys successfully passed the exams. Bill Radoye was sworn in at that time while Jack and Eldon expect to be sworn in the 4th of March. The three boys said it was a very interesting exam and whether they had passed it or not they would have felt that the time and effort spent in preparing for and taking the exam was very worthwhile.

The boys will remain on inactive duty until they receive their orders to active duty which will be about the 1st of July.

Two weeks ago Bob Clark, Ralph Hagen, Walter Henry and Carl Freeman, also members of the senior class, went to Pontiac and took the mental examination for the Army Air Corps which was given at Pontiac High. All four passed their mental exams and were given orders to report to Detroit for physical examinations the following week. Ralph Hagen and Carl Freeman passed and will be sworn in in the near future. The other two boys were temporarily rejected but will go back later for a re-examination at which time the senior class wishes them the best of luck.

Wilbur Adams and possibly one or two other boys are preparing to take the V-12 (Navy College Training Program) examination which will be given again the 15th of March. The quota for Michigan on this program is very small but we are sure they will make it and we wish them the best of luck also.

All of the seniors mentioned above and many more will enter the armed forces whether in the Air Corps or the regular branches soon after graduation and we want to wish each and everyone of them the best of luck in whatever branch or rank they acquire.

Maple Sugar Makers Will Be Warned

Aid of the weather man has been enlisted to give warning to Michigan's maple sirup makers. When forecasts indicate the sap should start flowing, the warning will be issued to sugarbush operators so that sap buckets can be hung before the first flow begins.

It's that early sap that makes the best sugar and sirup, says P. W. Robbins of the M. S. C. forestry department.

For two years the college has used the forecast system to hang out 500 to 600 buckets 24 hours before the sap starts to drip and to put out an equal number the day the first sap run starts. By taking advantage of these weather forecasts the college sirup makers have produced 30 to 40 more gallons of sirup than in former years when the buckets were not hung until the sap began to flow.

Weather notices are broadcast by the college radio station WKAR during the noon Farm Service Hour.

Perhaps you have noticed show windows in the evening with their lights dimmed or turned off completely. These merchants are cooperating with the Government's program to save coal, transportation, manpower and other critical resources by turning out lights wherever possible.

In many cases, stores with lighted show windows are making worthwhile savings of electricity in other ways—by reduced interior lighting, showcase lighting, etc. YOU can help this program by saving electricity in your own home, store or factory. Even though electricity is not rationed and there is no shortage in this area, SAVE voluntarily wherever you can, as much as you can.

Canners were directed to set aside increased quantities of canned fruits and vegetables from their 1944 production for Government requirements in order to meet expanded military needs, WFA has announced. The increases principally are for canned apples, fruit cocktail, peaches, pears (Bartlett), lima beans, sweet corn, peas, tomatoes and tomato juice.

Use more potatoes in 1944 is the recommendation of WFA following the largest potato crop in history last year. WPB expects a limited number of domestic electric ranges to be available for essential civilian needs during the last half of this year. Because of problems in getting feed, U. S. production of hatchery chicks in January was 20 per cent under January of last year. Boys and girls under 20 who leave home seeking war jobs should carry with them proof of their age, advises the U. S. Department of Labor. Copper may now be used in the manufacture of automobile radiators, gaskets, fuel and oil lines, brake and clutch lining rivets, and other essential parts, according to WPB. "Small business is more important to this nation today than ever before," declared Donald M. Nelson, Chairman of WPB, and should be given top priority when surplus materials of war are released.

Urgent Appeal

If you knew you could save a fighting man's life with your own hands would you do it? Give as many hours as you can each week to the Red Cross and you will be helping to save many lives.

If you knew you had a "life saver" in your kitchen would you rush it to our soldiers? Remember that the surette—the "Angel of Mercy" needle and morphine container every soldier takes into battle with him, requires only two tin cans to make.

If you knew your basement or attic contained something our fliers need to find their targets in Germany and the South Pacific would you give it to them? Your waste paper and old boxes are needed to make bomb flares for the air corps. The covering of the flares our bombers drop on enemy targets is made of old boxes.

Save!—save—and save your fats, tin cans and papers. Take that pound of fat (in a tin can with a cover or paper tied over the top) to your butcher today, your tins cans to your grocer, and your papers to your dealer or organization. ALL this is for our fighting forces—we at home must save, and give some of our busy hours to the Red Cross.

Demand for additional workers this year will be three times as great as the supply, according to a report by the Australian News and Information Bureau, from Melbourne. The report said there have been no direct reserves of manpower in Australia since the middle of 1943. Since last November 12,000 men and 6,000 women have been diverted from Government war factories to other urgent jobs.

Estimated savings of $100,000 a year will accrue to Michigan long distance users as a result of rate revisions effective March 1.

Under the new schedules, night rates begin at 6 p. m. instead of 7 p. m., as at present. Overtime rates on teletypewriter exchange service also are reduced.

The revisions first were authorized for interstate service, in negotiations between the Federal Communications Commission and the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. The Michigan Public Service Commission and Michigan Bell Telephone Company agreed to make rates and practices between points within Michigan conform.

The school children of Bristol, England, gathered 25 million potatoes during 1943, the British Ministry of Agriculture reported recently. This was voluntary work school children did for the food production program. If the rows of potatoes planted and "lifted" by these children were put end to end they would have extended about 1,600 miles.
