We're Marching Into Battle

There are nearly 200,000 of us here in Michigan . . . 200,000 and our families marching together. Our battle song is the whisper of the wind among the fruit blossoms, the rhythmic patter of rain on new green leaves, the humming of the tractor as its plow turns over the soft brown earth, the clatter of the seed drill . . .

Some of our weapons are new as the modern weapons of war, some old as the hills of Judea. For ours is a war that has no beginning, no end. Ours is the battle of food.

Our sons, like yours, are off to the war of planes and tanks and guns and ships. Many of those who helped our fight now forge the weapons for these valiant sons. To feed them all, our battle must be won.

To feed you here at home is half the task. To feed our fighting men, to aid our allies whose fields are drenched with blood, to make new friends in countries freed from hate . . . that, too, is half our task.

We achieved the impossible last summer. Now we must do it again.

Michigan, the Arsenal of Democracy, might well be called the Cupboard of Democracy, too. No state can match the variety of its foodstuffs, nor outrank it in so many products of the soil.

We bow in grateful tribute to the food retailers in your own community who have matched our efforts with their own. From the smallest independent to the largest chain store, they fight their battle, too, against well-nigh hopeless odds.

They bring you our luscious berries, cherries, melons, peaches, pears, plums and apples from our fruit areas . . . sugar from our beets, millions of gallons of health-building milk, cream and other dairy products for your children and war workers, golden honey, top-grade potatoes in abundance, poultry, eggs and meats from our farms . . . fresh vegetables in never-ending streams and much more packed in our canneries . . . peas and beans and tomatoes and body-building, vitamin-enriched root vegetables . . . carrots, turnips, beets . . . all from Michigan farms and orchards and processing plants.

With their cooperation we face this new season. We face it uncomplaining and unafraid . . . with resolute courage and the will to win.

We are marching into battle, we the farmers of Michigan—marching side by side with all who do battle on the home front that Victory on the fighting front may be achieved the sooner.

How Many Farmers Increased Production

Streamline Methods Brought Results That Paid

Reports from 99 Michigan farmers in nine counties indicate a streamline soil conservation system has increased hay and grain production one-third and meat, milk and egg output one-fifth.

Everett C. Sackrider, state head of the Soil Conservation Service, who released the summary, said that farmers had used contouring, terracing, pasture improvement, improved rotations and other features of a complete erosion control and production program for at least 2 years.

Sackrider's men assigned to the 13 soil conservation district offices in the state made the survey. Farmers estimated their corn yields are now 12 bushels per acre higher than they were previously. This was a 26 per cent increase.

Oats and barley yields increased 5 and 13 bushels per acre, respectively. Clover-timothy hay yields per acre increased 23 per cent. Total milk production on the survey farms increased 13.4 per cent.

Extra feed resulting from the soil conservation system enabled the farmers to keep 11 per cent more brood sows than they formerly did and raise 50 per cent more pigs.

More than half of the survey farmers increased their yearling beef cattle numbers 38 per cent, while half increased the number of calves raised 29 per cent. The farmers also increased their egg production 22 per cent and their farm flocks 50 per cent.

Eighty-eight of the 99 said that the conservation practices they had applied to their farms with the assistance of technicians of soil conservation districts or their fore-runners, the demonstration projects and CCC camps, had increased production per acre. County agricultural agents and the Michigan State College staff cooperated.

Seventy-two said they had been responsible for 505 of their neighbors turning to soil conservation practices while 34 said they had personally helped neighbors start contouring or other conservation practices. Fifty-eight said their soil-saving programs had cut their annual labor and machinery use costs from $20 to $500.

Can You Picture
MICHIGAN
without its War Activities?

War is a long way from Michigan — but in so many ways it's mighty close to us. Our men are fighting all over the world — our factories and farms are producing an endless stream of supplies our troops depend upon. But even that isn't all — it wouldn't be enough!

We have so much more to do right here in Michigan — jobs that are up to all of us, jobs that must be well done. In the 4th War Bond Drive, for instance, we in Michigan bought $585,000,000 worth—33% above our quota — but we're keeping right on buying more and more! We've gladly given our money and more than 374,000 donations of our blood to the Red Cross — and hundreds of thousands of hours of our time to making surgical dressings and kits for our men overseas.

We've supported and worked for the U.S.O. and various war relief groups.

Grayhound Terminal—O'Dell's Drug Store
Phone 2511

We've built and maintained an efficient Civilian Defense organization. We've collected scrap and rubber, tin and fats. Whatever has been asked, Michigan has done — and then some!

The men and women of the Greyhound Lines, like their fellow-citizens of Michigan, have shared in all of these activities. They've also shared in the vital job of moving wartime manpower — in uniform or in work clothes. Greyhound buses — by making near neighbors and good neighbors of all the communities they serve in this State — by linking cities, war plants, farm centers, and military camps and bases — are helping to keep Michigan's war efforts rolling toward Victory!

WARTIME HINTS
for a lady who wants to save
electricity and appliances!

SAVING ELECTRICITY A cardinal rule today is this: "Use only what electricity you need, and don't waste it." There are many practical ways of saving electricity in your home—in your cooking, lighting, the use of appliances. And not one of them involves any sacrifices in the use of your helpful electrical servants. It simply means knowing the most economical way to use them, with greatest efficiency. A few of these suggestions are listed below.

YOUR HOME LIGHTING Dust steals light—robbing you of as much as one fourth the light you pay for. This is pure waste. Keep lamps and fixtures clean. Wipe bulbs and reflector bowls frequently. Dust shades inside and out. Use the right-size bulbs in your lamps and fixtures, and select shades with a white lining.

ELECTRIC COOKING Use the thrift cooker of your electric range often. Plan complete meals that can be cooked in the oven at one time. Finish surface cooking on "low" or stored heat whenever possible. Use flat-bottomed utensils just big enough to cover heating unit. Cook with little water, and cover utensils with a tight lid.

YOUR REFRIGERATOR Don't overcrowd your refrigerator. Unless the motor is hermetically sealed, have it oiled and inspected regularly. Be sure there is adequate air circulation all around the refrigerator. Defrost regularly. Never use a knife or sharp tool for defrosting. Clean inside of refrigerator with lukewarm water and mild soap.

YOUR ELECTRIC WASHER Drain washer and rinse tub thoroughly after each washing. Remove agitator or suction cups and rinse. Wipe dry with a soft cloth. Don't force thick, bulky objects through your wringer—or hard objects like belt buckles, etc. Release pressure on rolls when not in use, and dry wringer thoroughly. Don't overload your washer.

SMALL APPLIANCES Don't jerk cord from socket when finished using. Disconnect by grasping plug. Don't clean wires of heating element, toaster, grill, etc. with fork or sharp tool. Never dip appliances in water. Let appliance cool before storing away. Always clean grids on waffle iron after using. Don't let electric iron overheat.

Mrs. C. J. Sutton followed in prayer. Mrs. L.

G. Rowley sang three groups of songs accompanied by Miss Esther McCory at the piano. Mrs. Wesley Stevens introduced the speaker of the morning, Mrs. Mary Kenworthy, 17th district spiritual director of Detroit. Her subject was, "Liquor Around the World".

The Teen-age Girls Mission Circle met at the home of Louise Grahl last Monday night, May 15th, with eight members present with their mothers as guests. The mothers were honored with lovely corsages. Mrs. Russell Maybee and Mrs. C. J. Sutton were also present. Mrs. Maybee, president of the Women's Missionary society, installed the officers. Mrs. Sutton gave a talk. Three candles were lighted as she told of the work of the W.G.M.S. The year books that the girls made were on display. Helen Cleveland was program leader and Matilda Neilson devotional leader. The next meeting will be held with Marjorie Voelker, June 5th. All girls are asked to bring used clothing to pack a box for missions. Lovely refreshments were served with Louise Grahl and Edna Ream as hostesses. The P.T.A. held its meeting in the school last Tuesday evening. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Waldron Keasey, president. Reports were read and a round table discussion by Mrs. James Boaz, Mrs. Vern Terry, Mrs.

Frank Sutherland and Mrs. Robert Morgan on the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers held in Grand Rapids on May 9-10-11th was interesting. The Mother's Singers sang the five convention songs. Installations of the new officers for the coming year was conducted by Mrs. C. H. O'Dell of Pontiac. The officers are: Mrs. James Boaz, president; Mrs. Vern Terry, vice-president; Miss Lois Mills, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Morgan, treasurer. Rev. H. H. Savage will give a picture talk of his four months travel in the camps on Sabbath night, May 21st. The public is invited to come and hear the true conditions of the boys in the Army camps. THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Guess we're pretty lucky in our town, Judge, that we don't have the youth problem you read about in other places."
"Don't know as you can call it lucky, Harold... we saw it coming with the war and we did something about it before it hit us. We gave our 'teen age youngsters the recreational facilities they needed and really wanted. Those familiar with this wartime problem know that young folks go to places they shouldn't only when the proper places are not provided for them. Young people always want to be with others of their own age... want their own type of entertainment. Town after town has found out that once these simple wants are met, the problem is well on its way to being licked."

"Guess I didn't really know how farsighted our town really is, Judge. If we hadn't looked ahead we wouldn't have had anybody or anything to blame but ourselves, would we?"

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
Meetings every Sunday in Holly at 10:45 a. m., at 114½ South Saginaw street, up stairs.
"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 21.
The Golden Text (Philippians 3:20, 21) is: "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 73:26): "My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.302): "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is eternal and eternal."
The serious waste paper situation discussed at a meeting of the committee in Lansing, when Kenneth M. Burns, Chairman, pointed out that seven Michigan mills which require 8,000 tons of salvage a week have been able to run only five and six days instead of the regular seven.

Eight million tons of waste paper — 33 per cent more than was used in 1942 — will be needed in the country this year to meet requirements of the military forces and essential civilian demands, Burns said. A recent national poll showed that only 50 per cent of the people are saving paper.
The Citizens Defense Corps is the protective service of OCD. While the members are not required to participate in civilian war services, it is expected that they will respond if called upon to take part in salvage collections.

Waste Paper Supply Is Below Demand

Only 50% Response to Call for Salvage of War Essential

In an effort to increase collections of waste paper at a time when mills are operating on less than 24-hour supplies, members of the State Salvage Committee of the Michigan Office of Civilian Defense have accepted the offer of Capt. Donald S. Leonard, State Director of Civilian Defense, to use members of the U. S. Citizens Defense Corps of Michigan in salvage operations.
Defense corps members are to be utilized only to supplement regular salvage organizations where there is need, or to become the principal organization if none exists. A zone test in the use of air raid wardens in waste paper collections in Detroit proved so highly satisfactory, the tonnage of paper received exceeding estimates by several times, that the plan is to be expanded.

Candor will lose you some friends, but not as many as deceit.—Young.
The ban against retail sale of pork to civilians in New Zealand has been extended to September 30, because of the continued scarcity of pig meats, the New Zealand legation announces. Despite the shortage, New Zealand supplied American forces with seven million, four hundred thirty-two thousand pounds of pork last year under reverse lend-lease.
