Clarkston Seniors Receive Diplomas

Dr. George Carruthers of University of Michigan Was the Speaker

As usual a very large crowd filled the school auditorium last Thursday to join with the senior class in the joys of commencement night. William J. Radoye, one of the graduates, directed the High School Band while the rest of the class marched into the auditorium and took their places on the platform back of large baskets of peonies and mock orange blossoms. At the back of the platform was a large basket of red roses, the class flower.

To open the program William J. Radoye, class president, gave a short address of welcome. Alice M. Wethington sang two pretty numbers, "The Spirit Flower" and "My Lover is a Fisherman". Anne Zander, salutatorian, spoke on "Citizens—Today and Tomorrow" and Wilbur Adams, valedictorian, talked on "What About the Future". Their speeches were well prepared and exceptionally well given. In both talks there was much fine advice for the students as well as for the parents and friends. Edward Rockwell played two lovely piano numbers, "Crescendo" by Lasson and "Moonlight Sonata"—first movement by Beethoven.

William Radoye, acting as Master of Ceremonies, introduced the speaker, Dr. George Carruthers, who has been in the accrediting department at the University of Michigan for many years. His subject was "Education for the Tasks Ahead". His talk was full of encouragement for the young people leaving high school and facing a future which to many at the present time looks very drab. He spoke of the times, many years ago, when young men and women decided that all inventions had been made, patents were done and there was nothing left for them to do that would be worth while. He then related how many new discoveries had been made after those years and how science had gone ahead as though it was only the beginning. Dr. Carruthers really gave the graduates something to think about and something that will bolster them as they go into the tomorrow.

The Senior Girls Chorus directed by Doris Kleinhessel, sang the Navy Hymn. Phyllis Tremper played the piano accompaniment. The chorus was composed of — Betty Cobell, Eudell Milbur, Zola Blain, Charlotte Maybore, Nadene Correll, Hene Ainsley, Shirley Bunyan, Anne Zander, Alice Wethington, Evelyn Day, Lorraine Wegman and Bettie Kennedy. Mr. Robert C. Beattie, President of the Board of Education, then presented the members of the class with their diplomas. In doing so he congratulated them and thanked all who had cooperated, teachers, parents and friends, throughout the years, to make this 1944 commencement night possible. In behalf of the graduates he presented the scholarship trophy to the 1945 Senior Class. Each year the name of the valedictorian will be inscribed on the side of the trophy. Wilbur O. Adams was inscribed on it this year.

The band played a stirring number while the graduates formed a reception line in the auditorium to greet their friends.

Our Boys and Girls In The Service

Pvt. William Wilson is home on a short furlough. He is feeling fine again after being quite ill with malaria.

Sgt Charles Chamberlin is enjoying a few days at his home on Ortonville Road. He will return to Ft. Knox, Ky., next week.

Sgt William (Bill) Rexford has been enjoying a furlough at home after being out of the country with the Marines for over three years. He left for his station in N. Carolina on Thursday.

Gordon Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones, has returned to the Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill., after enjoying a short furlough with his wife in Pontiac and his parents on Ortonville Road.

James R. Burns, who was among the graduates at the Clarkston High School last week, has reported for service in the Marines and is now stationed at San Diego, Calif. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burns of 7701 Eston Road.

The friends of Pvt William (Bill) Skinner, who is stationed at Sheppard Field, Texas, will be sorry to learn that he had the misfortune to fall and break his arm while on maneuvers. Perhaps some of you would like to write Bill a letter while he is laid up. His address is: Pvt Wm. R. Skinner, 36981666, Sec. T, 3706 AAF, Base Unit, Sheppard Field, Texas.

Somewhere in New Guinea
June 3-44

Dear Mr. Stamp—
I have been trying to find time to write to you. I want most of all to let you know that I am receiving the Clarkston News and appreciate it very much, as the other hometown boys do. I am sure.

I have one good buddy here from the hometown anyway, Bud Denton. We see each other quite often and have a little pow-wow. Bud is in the artillery and I am in the infantry.

I am happy to have a feeling that I may get to see Bill Lovejoy sometime soon for he is not far from where I am. Also Mr. Stamp I would like to have Hawley Skarritt's address. Maybe by a great chance I could locate him for I saw by the News that he is in New Guinea. Although New Guinea is a large island and I might have a little difficulty finding him, yet it is worth a try to find a hometown friend.

The weather here is very rainy and hot, but we do have cool nights for sleeping and plenty of mosquitoes to sing us to sleep.

We have 3 shows a week that we can go to and boxing matches, so we have quite a lot of amusement.

Well Mr. Stamp, tell all "hello" and I hope we can all be home soon.

Sincerely
Pfc Marvin Powell

Honor Stieckney went to Stag Island in the St. Clair river just below Sarnia to enjoy a weekend house party.

The Farm Bureau Discussion group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malloy Stieckney on Wednesday night, June 28th at 8 o'clock.

Drayton Plains

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lennox of Crockett Lake have bought the Emiel Koop home on Sashabaw Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Koop have bought a small farm near Walters Lake and both parties have moved into their new homes.

S2c Clarence Appleton of Camp Endicott, R.I. is home on a few days furlough visiting his wife and son, Larry, of Ortonville, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Appleton, on Dixie Highway.

The Women's Missionary Society met in the church parlors on last Thursday evening for their regular meeting. Mrs. Walter Aderholdt was the program chairman. Mrs. Katherine Cable gave a book review and the Pearl Sutton Missionary Society were guests. Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Adult Bible School Class was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stevens, Sashabaw Plains, last Friday night. A ball game was played by the men the early part of the evening after which Mr. Stevens built a big fire and everyone roasted wieners. Later Mrs. Stevens brought out a big pan full of her home made fried cakes, hot coffee and tea. About fifty were present.

We are glad to see Carl Davis able to be out after having a major operation in General Hospital recently.

Twenty-three members of the Harold Detweiler and Roy Dancy Sabbath School classes enjoyed a trip to Bob-lo last Friday night.

Davison-O'Roark Rites Read June 8th

Ceremony Is Performed in Little Rock, Ark.

On Thursday evening, June 8th, at 6:30 a very pretty wedding took place in the Scott Methodist Church in Little Rock, Ark., when Norma Jean Davison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davison of Clarkston and Pfc William O'Roark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Roark, also of Clarkston, spoke their marriage vows. The Rev. McCormack officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a white street dress with white hat and white accessories, a double strand of pearls at the neck and matching earrings and bracelet. Her flowers were white roses and pink sweetpeas. The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Joseph Becker of Pittsburgh, Pa., who was dressed in a white street dress with black accessories.

Sergeant Joseph Becker assisted the bridegroom as best man. During the ceremony the church organist played "Liebestraum" very softly.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at Miller's Chop House to the bridal party and several of the bridegroom's buddies and their wives.

Pfc and Mrs. O'Roark both graduated from the Clarkston High School in the class of '43. Mrs. O'Roark returned to Clarkston on June 15th while he left for service out of the country.

Demands of War Delay New Telephone Orders

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company recently announced a waiting list of more than 75,000 orders for telephone service that it cannot fill because of the demands of war for communication facilities.

W. B. Fauser, manager for the Company, said the backlog of unfilled orders is increasing at the rate of nearly 7,000 a month, with no prospect that the situation will improve for some time. He pointed out that Western Electric Company, manufacturing unit of the Bell System, has confined virtually its entire output since November 1942 to military and war-production needs. Western Electric is making more than a third of all communication facilities manufactured in this country for war.

The announcement said that there are 65 delayed orders in the Clarkston exchange area.

The Western Electric Company, manufacturing unit of the Bell System, making more than a third of all communication facilities manufactured in this country for war, has confined virtually its entire output since November, 1942, to military and war-production needs.

The situation is so critical that service can be granted only if it is essential to the war, public health, or the public security, as defined by the regulations of the War Production Board. If spare facilities are available after meeting that priority, orders are then filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Mr. Fauser said, "Telephone instruments do not comprise the only shortage, more than half the delayed orders being held up because of lack of wire, cable, and central office facilities. Two years of war have used up practically all of the reserve supply."

Recent announcement by the Western Electric Company that it has been authorized to resume the limited manufacture of telephone sets for civilian use, beginning next fall, will have no appreciable effect on the shortage situation for some time, according to Fauser.

The number authorized to be made and released is a mere "drop in the bucket" in comparison with the number of delayed orders, he pointed out, and even that limited supply will not be available for some months in the future.

"As a matter of fact," he declared, "the first telephone sets to be made are destined by governmental order for the Pacific Coast."

"Every effort has been and will be made to spread our overtaxed facilities so as to serve the greatest possible number of applicants with the least possible delays. But there can be no delays in meeting the communications needs of war industry and of our armed forces. They cannot be put on any waiting list," Fauser concluded.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
Meetings every Sunday in Holly at 10:45 a. m., at 114 1/2 South Saginaw street, up stairs.

"Christian Science" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches through-out the world on Sunday, June 25.

The Golden Text (Isaiah 2:5) is: "O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord." Among the Bible citations is this passage (John 14:12): "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p.146): "Divine Science derives its sanction from the Bible, and the divine origin of Science is demonstrated through the holy influence of Truth in healing sickness and sin."

HOLLY THEATRE

In what promises to be one of the most spectacular films of the year, Dennis Morgan and Irene Manning are starred in Warner Bros' musical production "The Desert Song" which has its premiere at the Holly Theatre on Sunday.

Produced in brilliant Technicolor, the production is a completely modernized version of the famed musical stage success of the same name.

Told against the exotic background of North Africa just before Germany and France went to war, the story treats of a young American musician who takes it upon himself to protect the Riff slave labor from Nazi aggression. Working through Caid Yousseff (Victor Francen), a rich Arab, who is in league with them, the Germans persuade France to build a railroad from the interior of North Africa to Dakar. The Caid employs Riff slave labor to drive the railroad through over impassable terrain, and the Riffs die like flies. Paul Hudson, played by Dennis Morgan, is incensed by this treatment of the Riffs and becomes their friend and champion.

Hiding his identity under the name of El Khobar, he uses every spare moment in attempts to free the Riffs from the German-inspired French, and soon becomes a one-man scourge of the desert.

When the French authorities become aware of the real identity of El Khobar, they stage a surprise raid, and El Khobar escapes only through the efforts of his friend Johnny Walsh (Lynne Overman), a newspaper reporter. In time Paul acquaints Col. Fontaine (Bruce Cabot), a French officer, with the true facts of the case, and he is instrumental in freeing the Riffs.

More Pasture from Changed Methods

"Before 1940 I was renting pasture land for my cattle, but now I have not only enough, but more pasture than I can use," Lloyd A. Salmon of Tyrone Township reported this week.

Since 1940 he has retired steep land to alfalfa and smooth brome grass and has plowed and seeded his marsh land to canary grass. He has nearly doubled his former herd of 12 cows and young cattle.

Salmon said that five years ago with the assistance of the Fenton Soil Conservation District he replanned his farm to control erosion. He is using two diversion ditches and strip cropping on the less steep slopes and has actually increased his grain and hay yields to the point that it is not necessary to farm as many acres as formerly. In this way he has helped solve his labor problem.

In addition to increasing his pasture, grain and hay on his farm, Salmon has planted eight acres of poor and eroded slopes to trees and is now protecting twelve acres of older woodland that was necessary for him to pasture before establishing his alfalfa and smooth brome grass and reed canary grass fields. He supplements these practices with the use of lime, fertilizer and both barn and green manure.

Waterford

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray

Monroe on Dixie Highway on Sunday at 4:30 when their daughter, Gertrude Ray, became the bride of Harold James Wiel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wiel of Airport Rd., in a double ring service performed by Rev. Rufus Traver, who had also united the groom's parents many years ago.

Mrs. Emory Clark Jr. of Pontiac, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Gerald Monroe acted as best man.

The bride wore a blue floor-length gown with an orchid and carried a mixed bouquet. The matron of honor wore a pink, floor-length gown and an orchid.

For the wedding both mothers chose rose silk jersey dresses and each wore an orchid.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. William Mansfield of Clarkston sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". She was accompanied by Miss Helen Bixby of Pontiac.

As this was also the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe they held open house for about seventy guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiel will reside at the home of the groom's parents.

Mary Louise Logie

Mrs. Mary Louise Logie, 74, of Keego Harbor died Saturday, June 17, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Helena Pammenter, Waterford, after an illness of a year. She was born in Germany Sept. 18, 1869, and was married to William August Logie 51 years ago. Mrs. Logie had lived in this county 52 years coming here from Utica.

Surviving are three sons and three daughters, Mrs. Edna Curtis, Mrs. Dorothy Mays and Roy W. of Pontiac, Mrs. Pammenter, William of Keego Harbor, and Edward E. of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; three sisters including Mrs. Christina Peters and Mrs. Rega Shields of Pontiac and 10 grandchildren.

Service was held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Pursley funeral home with burial in White Chapel Memorial park.

Beach Workers Take a Holiday

The folks who have been helping with the work of cleaning up the bathing beach have decided to rest for a week. There will be no work done until Wednesday, July 5th. By that time the squad hopes to have the posts ready to put in the ground. If you have a post hole digger it could be used advantageously on that day anytime from 4 o'clock on. A few post hole diggers would save much hard work and time.

Be ready to help at the beach a week from Wednesday.

The weekly meeting time has been changed to Tuesday noon and the meeting place will be the Old Mill Tavern.

Last week's program was in charge of Ed. Biddinger. Several of the members were called upon to give a short sketch of their lives. Some of the life histories were very amusing and all were interesting.

The Club is functioning wonderfully well and has full programs lined up for future meetings. The classified and limited membership plan of Rotary produces an active club, highly sensitive to the requirements of the community and capable of developing the individual business and professional men as leaders in service.

A Full House

The school is out the cleaning's done and see the kids are having fun. With no more dread of morning bell they're turned outside to whoop and yell.

There's not a care to mar their day. Just concentration on their play.

This is the time of year for kids. With swimmin' holes and slippery skids.

Days when they perhaps will dream of fairy lands beside a stream, Or better yet their carcass hake. With glaring sun from boiling lake.

But mother with her duties tired. With summer days is not inspired. For weeks she'd tried her house to clean.

And planned to sandwich it between. Her other work both night and day. To not disrupt her children's play.

Then gosh, when kids come home from school. They brought their books and slate and rule.

Enough of this to load a jeep. And everything they had to keep. All dumped into the easy chairs. And left for Ma to cart upstairs.

Now that was bad as I recall. But far from being worst of all. For others early got the bug. To clean their homes and make them snug.

Found many books and coats and shoes. They thought our kids might someday use.

The school is clean, all emptied out. All tidied up around about. And other houses I've been in. Are spick and span all neat and trim. But 'twon't be long the way it's going.

Until our house is overflowing. Robert C. Beattie

Donald C. Noggle In Race For Prosecuting Attorney

Donald C. Noggle, Republican incumbent Prosecuting Attorney, has recently announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of Prosecuting Attorney for Oakland County.

On February 15, 1944, Donald C. Noggle was appointed Prosecuting Attorney of Oakland County by the three Circuit Judges to fill out the unexpired term of his deceased predecessor. In announcing his candidacy for the office of Prosecutor, Mr. Noggle stresses his five years of experience in the Prosecutor's office as chief assistant prosecutor. Since taking over the office, Mr. Noggle has announced that his policies as Prosecutor will be that of strict, efficient law enforcement, based on fair, impartial and judicious handling of the problems that come to his office. Mr. Noggle pledges to the public that he will continue in office under obligation to no group or individual and will be free from any type of pressure from any quarter. He believes

Why a Farmer Should Buy and Keep War Bonds
by J. I. Falconer
Rural Economics Dept.
Ohio State University

THE main business of the country today is fighting the war; all of us have an interest in having the war brought to a satisfactory conclusion as soon as possible. At the present time one-half the productive energy of the country is employed either in the military service or in producing the necessary supplies. To pay for these services and supplies requires a total amount of money equal to one-half the total income of the country. As Americans we prize freedom. Too often, however, we forget that freedom implies responsibility. Freedom and responsibility are closely associated. Right now it is a responsibility of every freedom loving individual to buy War Bonds to the end that the war may be ended as soon as possible. War Bonds are a good investment. They are also a safe investment, which is another way of saying that the chances of loss are small. It is a good place to put the money which one wants to lay away for later use. This later use may be a source of income in old age, it may be the making of some improvement around the farm or in the home, it may be providing an education for the children or any one of a hundred different uses.

Another reason why everyone should buy War Bonds is that it is one of the best ways of controlling inflation. Many of the goods and services which we would like to buy are not now available or are only available in limited quantities. Rather than spending the money in ways that will divert resources from the war effort, it would be much better to put the money where it can be used for the main purpose of the day, namely fighting the war.

Lamp Fire Shield
FIRES don't start themselves; there's always a reason for their origin, though it's hard to place the blame in many cases. Simple, easy measures of protection often will prevent a disastrous fire. One such effective precaution is illustrated below.

Many farmers place their lamps in the barn on rickety boxes, stools, or on barn floors, where if they are tipped over they may break and flood the floor with burning oil. Where it is probable that a farmer will need a light at night in the barn, it is a well-thought-out precaution to provide asbestos cement board shields on the ceiling and then place hooks in the center of the shields from which lamps can be hung.

that the office of Prosecutor should be devoted to a conscientious, careful law enforcement program and to that end he is prepared to do his duty. Mr. Noggle further stated that the office of Prosecutor should be open to returning veterans who need counsel and legal advice on problems affecting the law enforcement program of the County and he assures the public that he will do all within his power as Prosecutor to facilitate the re-assimilation of returned veterans into normal civilian life. "During my five years as chief assistant prosecutor," said Mr. Noggle, "I have been disturbed by an increase in the number of juvenile crimes. While under the law, the office of Prosecutor is somewhat limited in the handling of juvenile matters, nevertheless I believe that an intelligent understanding and study of youth problems is an essential part of my duty. I propose that during the next two years, if I am retained, to instruct my staff to study carefully the social and economic problems which give rise to juvenile delinquency and to do all in our power to co-operate with juvenile authorities toward bringing about a rehabilitation of youth rather than an ill-considered prosecution. The public may be sure that if I am retained in this important office that Oakland County will never be a haven for gamblers and other criminals and that the prosecution of law-breakers will be relentless and conclusive." Mr. Noggle is 42 years of age and resides at 564 W. Iroquois Road, Pontiac, Michigan, and is married and has one three-year-old son. He received his education in the public schools of Pontiac, is a graduate of Pontiac Junior College and the Detroit College of Law. While attending law school, he worked as a clerk in the Pontiac Municipal Court. After receiving his Bachelor of Law degree, Mr. Noggle has successively been an Oakland County Circuit Court Clerk, a general practitioner of law, a special legal advisor to the Oakland County Treasurer and the last five years he has spent in the Oakland County Prosecutor's office as chief assistant. The fact that Mr. Noggle was chosen by the unanimous vote of the Circuit Judges of this County to fill the vacancy due to the death of his predecessor speaks well of his qualifications. He is a member of the All Saints Episcopal Church of Pontiac, the B.P.O.E., the Eagles, the Moose and the Pontiac Exchange Club. Mr. Noggle promises the continuation in office of his well-qualified staff of assistants and promises the public courteous, aggressive and impartial handling of their problems.

How Service Man May Vote

As the News is sent to several hundred Clarkston men in the service, we are printing below a blank form which they may fill out if they are eligible to vote next November and wish to exercise that privilege.

All the serviceman will have to do is jot down the required information and mail the form back to his township or city clerk (it isn't necessary to know his name), and he is a qualified voter. Whether he is registered or not in his local municipality, the information contained on the card will make him a registered voter provided he reaches the age of 21 by November 7, 1944.

Election officials have pointed out that almost everyone who mails back one of these filled-out forms in sufficient time will get a full ballot. The only way he can fail to get a ballot will come about if he is transferred, about the time he should be getting his ballot, from one remote post to another or from one battle zone to another, in which case his mail would probably be delayed. Under such circumstances, if his ballot does not catch up with him in time, there is still a chance that he will receive a federal ballot which will allow him to vote for president and congressmen.

Clark of the City or Township of _____ Michigan:

Being in the armed forces of the United States and desiring to vote in the coming election, I hereby apply for an official war ballot.

My home address is _____ in the city, town or village of _____ in the county of _____ Michigan.

I desire that the ballot be sent to me at the following address: _____

(Signed) _____

NOTE: Whether you are registered or not you are eligible to receive a ballot and vote if you attain the age of 21 on or before November 7th, 1944.

Dairy Production Grows in State

Michigan's cows contribute their efforts in keeping fighting and civilian populations well fed, with a record number of 1,059,000 cows on farms in the state reported for June, national dairy month.

A tribute to the average cow and to the dairyman who feeds and milks her comes from A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at M. S. C. He reminds consumers, as the June flush production eases market restrictions, that milk producing costs for feed have risen 40 per cent in the past six months, although the retail price of milk in Michigan has advanced only 14 per cent in three years.

Under normal times the average family uses 22 cents of each food dollar for milk and dairy products. Leading scientists, medical and dental authorities have agreed that under wartime conditions not less but more, or as much as 30 cents of each food dollar should go for dairy foods. In addition to the 21 per cent increase in dairy population in Michigan, cows have increased in other states. The total cow population in the United States is estimated at 27,607,000 animals, largest number ever kept on American farms.

In 1943 the cows produced a total enough for 820 pounds of milk for every person in the United States, of which about one-eight or 100 pounds went to military needs from each civilian's share.

Red Cross News

Judge H. Russel Holland was named County Chairman of the Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross at a meeting which was held recently at Stevens Hall, Pontiac. Judge Holland succeeds Byron B. Webb who has been chairman for the past three years. Charles G. Rudderham of Bloomfield Hills was elected first Vice-chairman, Arthur F. Bassett of Royal Oak, second Vice-chairman, Leo P. Atkins of West Bloomfield, Treasurer and Mrs. Carleton H. Shafer of Ferndale, Secretary. New Directors elected were: Independence Township, C. W. Robinson, and Springfield Township, Rev. Ralph W. Brown.

Robert Jakoubek, a former member of the Red Cross overseas staff addressed the meeting, relating to Red Cross workers his experiences in supervising the distribution of Red Cross civilian War Relief in unoccupied France. He was held as an enemy alien in Germany for fifteen months and returned last March on the exchange ship Gripsholm.

What news will Gen. Eisenhower get from us?

You know now what we've heard from him.

We've heard that Eisenhower and his Americans have hurled themselves like a thunderbolt against the bristling defenses of Hitler's Wehrmacht!

We've heard that they are smashing at our foe — sparing neither steel nor sweat nor blood in one final, furious assault that marks the supreme military effort of this War!

And what news do Eisenhower and his men expect from us?

Men and women of America — what the Invasion is to our fighting men, the 5th War Loan is to us at home!

For us, as well as for them, this is the crisis — the time for tremendous, overwhelming effort! Make no mistake! The 5th War Loan will undoubtedly be the biggest, most vitally important financial effort of this whole War!

If the 5th War Loan is to succeed, each one of us must do more than ever before — must buy double... yes, triple... the Bonds we bought last time.

Our men expect to hear that we are buying double — that we are matching their sacrifice as best we can — that the American nation, soldiers and civilians together, is making one gigantic effort to win this War!

That's the news our men expect to hear from us. Will you personally see that they get it?

And here are 5 More reasons for buying Extra Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Hugh R. Liddicoat Seeks Office

Declaring that he will ask prominent Oakland County citizens to serve on a sheriff's council, Hugh R. Liddicoat, Republican candidate for sheriff in the July 11 primary, said today that such a council would contribute to the efficiency of the sheriff's office. "Men and women from all sections of the county will be invited to advise the sheriff on conditions throughout the county," he said. "I believe a council of this kind will be of great benefit to all residents, and it certainly will eliminate guesswork as to actual conditions."

While advocating formation of the council to better police the county, Liddicoat also offered a number of recommendations for improvement of the administration of the sheriff's office. Among them were creation of residential patrol, dividing the county into four sections; use of the department's fingerprint facilities, elimination of waste, proper training of members of the staff, a trained juvenile expert, and a general revitalizing of the staff.

Liddicoat is an overseas veteran of World War I, is active in veterans rehabilitation work, and is a member of the Board of Supervisors and the Ferndale City Commission. He has 20 years experience in law enforcement.

—will look like this

YOUR Edison bill will soon begin to come to you in post card form.

SIMPLE, CONVENIENT, PRACTICAL

It will be simpler — easier to read — a convenient size — and more practical in several ways. It will be small enough to slip into your pocket. With all its advantages, it will also help the war effort.

SAVES PAPER, MANPOWER, TRANSPORTATION

For one thing, the new bill will save paper. Envelopes are eliminated, and this saves 25,544 pounds of paper a year. In addition, the new post card bill will save manpower and transportation.

This is a wartime emergency measure. But we are sure you will like the new bill for its own good features—even without the paper and manpower saving it makes possible. It is a good method that has been tested and proved. People like it.

We believe you will, too.

Here is a telephone "central office" in the South Pacific. The Marine Corps operator is putting through calls between headquarters and advanced posts.

Every move our armed forces make is co-ordinated by countless telephone instruments, miles and miles of wire. As the pace of war increases, the need for this equipment grows greater and greater.

Unfortunately, it is impossible to equip our fighting men, and still meet

Orders for telephones essential to the war effort are filled promptly. Other requests for new service are handled under an authorized and equitable procedure, not subject to exceptions, as present users give up service. But there is a long and growing waiting list.

We regret if you have been seriously inconvenienced. But we appreciate your patience and understanding.

Secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted as read. Several committees were called on to give reports after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Alfred Hutchinson. Mrs. Katherine Cable gave a reading of the story of Martha. The roll call was scriptures from the Bible with fruit or flowers in the verses. Mrs. Ina Hutchinson gave a reading on Frances Willard's love of flowers and folks. Mrs. Fred Appleton gave her reading, "It Blossomed in the Rain", and Mrs. Grace Barnhart's reading was "A Rose Behind the Bars". Mrs. C. J. Sutton closed the meeting with prayer. The next meeting will be held in the church in the form of a picnic with the program being the L.T.L. Speech Contest and Y.T.C. July 18th.

Ferndale Judge Is Candidate For Prosecutor

Municipal Judge Earl N. Nash of Ferndale became a candidate for the Republican nomination for prosecutor by recently filing his petitions.

Nash, a graduate of Valparaiso University, received his degree in law from the Detroit College of Law in 1919.

He served two terms as assistant prosecutor.

He has been municipal judge of the city of Ferndale for 11 years.

His statement regarding the office he seeks follows:

"As prosecuting attorney, I will give my entire energy to the performance of the exacting duties of this office. I will actually work in the preparation and trial of cases and in harmony with my aides.

"I will give to the office of prosecuting attorney and to every mayor, city attorney, peace officer and law enforcement agency throughout Oakland county, every decent measure of cooperation.

"I will perform my duties without prejudice against any person or group of persons. I believe in hard work, constant efforts, and in getting results. I will be a prosecutor, not a persecutor or a policeman.

"I will give to those who are employed, the same consideration and treatment that I will accord to those who employ.

"I hold high hope for the youth of my country. I will give to them and to the solution of their problems, all of my heart and energy. I will combat the cause of and hasten the remedy for juvenile delinquency.

"I will give to my county, and to the quarter of a million people within my county, the experience, judgment and ability that I have acquired in the 25 years of successful legal practice."

YOUR VOTE FOR Liddicoat for SHERIFF

Oakland County Republican voters on July 11 will nominate a candidate for Sheriff. Care should be given in selecting the right man. Mr. Liddicoat's qualifications are unquestioned. His long experience in law enforcement, years of work for veterans of all wars and participation in juvenile activities are well known.

Oakland voters have a right to demand their Sheriff be a man of ability, experience and leadership. Republicans throughout the county believe that Liddicoat is the one man who can function efficiently as Sheriff

WHAT HE WILL DO

SHERIFF'S COUNCIL. Prominent citizens in all sections of the county, will be invited to serve on a Sheriff's Council to keep the sheriff's office informed as to conditions throughout the county. This will eliminate guess work in serving the county.

RESIDENTIAL PATROL. The county will be divided into four sections. The deputies in each will constantly patrol their territories, thus enabling them to answer calls quickly. Cross-county driving and long delays will be eliminated. Some sectors of the county report not having seen a deputy in two years.

Residential officers will assist the communities' own police. Each community served will have a residential deputy under a partial payment salary arrangement, together with office and telephone, if they desire it. Radio equipped cars will be available.

FINGERPRINT USE. The sheriff's office will make use of its fine fingerprint facilities. In eight years, it is said, no case has been presented in court in which use has been made of the department's fingerprint files. The new sheriff will correct this fault.

JUVENILE CARE. A member of the sheriff's staff will be trained in juvenile work. The services of this leader will be available for schools, organizations and parents for counsel and guidance, promoting good citizenship.

ELIMINATE WASTE. The honor system will be instituted for members of the sheriff's staffs. Officers on night duty will fuel their cars for use of the day officer in the territory in which each serves, saving gasoline, time and eliminating driving to and from Pontiac.

CO-OPERATION. The sheriff's office in the future will co-operate with all law enforcement agencies, F. B. I., State Police, courts, local constables and police officers, greatly improving efficiency of the department.

OFFICER TRAINING. Members of the sheriff's force will be trained in proper use of firearms, attend classes, study F. B. I. methods and will conduct themselves as gentlemen.

VETERANS. Oakland County has never elected a war veteran as Sheriff. Mr. Liddicoat is a veteran. Police Chief DeVriendt of Farmington, who will be under sheriff, also is a veteran. Both are active in veterans' rehabilitation work.

REVITALIZE STAFF. Former capable members of the sheriff's force, who resigned because of dissatisfaction with conduct of the office under the present undersheriff, will be invited to join the new administration.

Timely Advice for Early Canning

Does your garden boast a strawberry patch? Strawberries contain more vitamin C than any other Michigan dessert fruit. Strawberry shortcake made with enriched flour and loaded with strawberries is really quite a vitamin cocktail.

They do not make such a perfect canned product as some other berries but taste pretty good in the middle of the winter just the same. Strawberries keep their shape and hold their juices better if they are washed before they are hulled. They are plumper and have a better color if they are brought slowly to the boiling point with the sugar the night before canning and then let stand in the kettle in a cool place until morning. The next day bring to the boiling point, pack hot and process them in the boiling water bath for 5 minutes. This processing makes certain that there will be no mold growth on the surface.

One cup of sugar to a quart of berries makes a very excellent product, but less or none can be used. Sugar does not help preserve canned fruit—it's the heat that makes fruit keep. So don't blame sugar rationing for spoilage.

If half a cup or less of sugar to the finished quart is being used, berries may be heated with the sugar to draw out some juice, boiled gently for 3 or 4 minutes, packed hot and processed for 5 minutes in the boiling water bath. The last step is important since much fruit was lost last year that had been canned by the open kettle method.

Follow the directions of the manufacturer in sealing jars. There are several types on the market and they seal in different ways. In general, one half inch head space should be left in pint jars and one inch head space in quarts. Exceptions to this rule are jars packed with corn or peas in which a full inch or more head space should be left. If the glass top curves downward, an inch head is recommended also for pints. Read all directions carefully and follow them.

Hot pack is recommended nowadays for most all products even fruit.

The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture is again issuing warnings about oven canning and explaining why. Severe accidents have been reported from all parts of the country.

All vegetables should be precooked and packed hot. Peas and snap beans will soon be ready and both should be simmered for five minutes in water to cover, packed hot and a teaspoon of salt per quart added. Peas need more head space than beans and pint jars are better for peas than quarts since they are apt to be mushy from overcooking.

★ Don't wait... invest your savings in it today. Everything can depend on it—your freedom, your happiness and peace of mind. The eyes of the entire world are on you, those of our enemy as well as the men and women who are fighting for us. This is the zero hour, the hour of INVASION. What we do in backing up this invasion by buying more War Bonds than ever before can easily raise the morale of our fighting forces and help to lower the resistance of the enemy. NOW is the time to let the world know in no uncertain terms that we are 100% back of our men, that we intend to preserve our freedom and safeguard the future of our children.

Some people speak of buying bonds as though it meant sacrificing for them to invest in the safest, surest investment in the world, an investment that will not only help to bring peace sooner, but one that will pay them in cold cash four dollars for every three they loan Uncle Sam.

Who among us here, at home can speak of sacrifice who has not crawled in mud; slept under rain-soaked blankets; and been nurtured by raw fish and bird-meat while waiting to be rescued from a life-raft! Our soldiers, sailors, marines and coastguardsmen face that kind of sacrifice every day yet all they are counting on us to do is invest all we can in war bonds... bonds which will equip them to fight this war to a finish—fast!
