Army Air Force Offers Chance

Youths 17 Years of Age May Take Test

Captain John J. Patterson, member of the U. S. Army Air Force Examining Board, will give the qualifying mental test for the U. S. Army Air Corps on Thursday, July 27, at 12:30 p. m. in the lobby of the Peoples State Building, Pontiac, Mich.

Accompanying him will be Lt. Jos. F. Senta, A. C., who recently returned from the Italian Theatre where he successfully completed his required missions as a pilot of a B-17 and wears the Purple Heart. He has much of interest to talk about to the young men of our community.

All youths 17 years of age who have perfect vision and hearing may take this test. If possible bring your birth certificate with you.

Candidates who pass will be furnished free transportation to Detroit to take the physical examination. Taking these tests does not obligate the candidate in any way to go further. Accepted candidates will be sworn into the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve and will be called into active duty after their 18th birthday. If you are in school on your 18th birthday you will be allowed to complete your current semester, provided you can do so within 6 months.

Captain Patterson would like every young man to know that passing these qualifying tests is the only way to get into the U. S. Army Air Force.

The U. S. Armed Forces Recruiting Information Center is open from 10 to 5 daily except Saturday afternoon and Sunday. For further information, stop in or phone 4-1932.

Wild Berry Crop Looks Favorable

Largest wild berry crop in several years is ripening on sand plains of many northern Michigan counties and only lack of sufficient rainfall can prevent its full maturing.

Except in Alpena and Montmorency counties, where frost hit blossoms and reduced crop prospects by two-thirds, the crop in the upper half of the southern peninsula should be well above average. Frost also hit blossoms in Mackinac county in the northern peninsula but elsewhere above the Straits an exceptional yield is indicated if there is sufficient rainfall to keep berries from drying up.

Wild blueberries and blackberries, especially the first-named, provide substantial income in a number of northern counties. First point-free blueberries to reach northern markets last season brought 70 cents a quart. Lack of pickers is expected to limit returns this summer.

Quick-freezing of berries is expected to be an after-the-war development.

July 11, 1944
Tuesday

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stamp:

I have just set aside last week's edition of the Clarkston News, in which I have read every line twice. Each edition seems to be more and more interesting. As one fellow once said "I'd rather read one hometown paper than a 100 Esquires".

The news up to this point has been somewhat of a drop, that is, all except my beloved sarge and I. The other day, the sarge was looking for some men for detail. It seems one of the boys in our barracks overheard this and came rushing in yelling at the top of his lungs "the sarge is on the warpath—he wants 12 men for extra detail work—run for your lives." Before the last few words had reached our ears there was a loud stamper for the back door. During the great excitement, three of the fellows were knocked down, two with cuts about the face, and one just about dead. It took less than a second to clear the barracks (faster than any fire alarm). Once outside, we hid in everything and anything we could find. Old ash cans, behind trees, on top of the barracks roof, one soldier even climbed a passing truck and rode around the base.

In the meantime, the sarge came storming into the barracks with fire in his eyes. As he saw it was cleared out, he hurriedly raced back to the orderly room and rounded up his blood-thirsty crew of men to track down the escaped convicts. After waiting for what we thought was a long enough period of time, we climbed out of our hiding places and brushed the dirt off of our clothing. As we returned to our barracks, we heard a loud thunder of hoofs, and as we looked up there was the sarge and his jailbirds rounding the corner with eyes of fire. "Here we go again!" I shouted as we turned tail and ran for the open field. It was a race of life or death. Once I looked back, and I could see the sarge's eyes straight on me. My heart sank to my toes as I thought of the many tortures he had lined up for me, for he knew who I was.

Straight ahead of us was an old hangar that was once used for repairing Bombers. We headed straight for that and went in and right out the back door. The sarge must have been pretty dumb (hope he doesn't read this) for he thought we'd hid in the hangar. He then walked like a "Dick Tracy" into the hangar. A little ways from the hangar stood an old barracks, and from the windows we watched the sarge and his men carefully guarding every possible escape. Pretty soon the sarge reappeared on the scene pulling his hair. He motioned his men to gather around, and after giving the boys a little of the Army cussing, walked back to his hangout.

Back at the old barracks behind the hangar, a loud roar of laughter could be heard. Pretty soon the doors opened, and barracks 1320, the winners, walked off to the show.

It looks like wedding bells are ringing in the little town of Clarkston. I want to extend my fullest congratulations to two of my old schoolmates—Bill and Norma. I knew my pal was up to something. Good deal there Bill! Also my congratulations extend further on to Howard Boys and Carmen Clark.

I see by the Rotary News that Dad has been named secretary for this year. That's a good job Dad—you always did like to write, and it wasn't letters either! Remember one thing, a good secretary always knows her (as you were, "his") shorthand, typing, filing, etc. I can just see you when President Groven asks you to type a letter—the old "hunt and peck" system, huh Dad?

Didn't know it was so late, but after seeing the sarge's mouth watering it must be close to 5 o'clock. So for now, until next time, I'll just say, thanks a lot for sending the paper.

Sincerely,
Byron T. Miller

Farm Safety Week Begins July 23

Object Is to Reduce Big Accident Record of 1943

The week of July 23-29 will be observed throughout the nation as National Farm Safety Week.

The National Safety Council and all agencies concerned with agriculture and farm life are uniting in this effort to prevent accidents that in 1943 alone killed 17,200 farm residents and injured 1,225,000 others, many of them permanently.

President Roosevelt officially has designated the week as a period in which the attention of the nation may be called to the need for year-round care in preventing accidents on the farm and to farm people.

"Loss of life and limb among our farming population already has reached an appalling figure," said the President, "and the risks have lately been increased by longer hours of work and consequent fatigue. It is essential to our war effort that this waste of vital farm power be minimized in every possible way.

"I therefore request all persons and organizations concerned with agriculture and farm life to unite in an effort, during this National Farm Safety Week, to stimulate among farmers a full realization of the need for constant attention to the old and familiar precautions against the hazards of their calling, and also to awaken in them a sense of responsibility for the proper instruction in rules of safety of the many young and inexperienced persons now being employed on farms in all parts of the country."

Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, War Food Administrator Marvin H. Jones and other national farm leaders also have endorsed the farm safety week as a means of emphasizing the need for preventing accidents that waste farm manpower and production vital to victory.

Waterford-Drayton Rotary News

On Tuesday night of last week the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club held their first ladies' night. There were about fifty present. The Clarkston Club was represented by its president, Fred Groven, and Robert C. Beattie, past president and several members and their wives.

After the dinner a lovely program was enjoyed. James Vandersall played a violin solo. He was accompanied by Mrs. Vandersall at the piano. Two Drayton Plains school boys, students of Mr. Vandersall, favored the group with two lovely trumpet numbers. Halvor Barrows, past president of the Highland Park Club, ably assisted by his daughter, Doris, entertained with interesting lantern slides of an Alaskan trip and a deer hunting trip.

The Rotarians' wives enjoyed the occasion very much and were pleased to be included in the worthy Rotary effort.

The speaker on Tuesday was a representative from the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority who gave the purpose and plans of the commission. The talk proved interesting and very instructive.

The Golden Text (Psalms 86:15) is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isaiah 25:1): "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (11): "Prayer cannot change the unalterable Truth, nor can prayer alone give us an understanding of Truth; but prayer, coupled with a fervent habitual desire to know and do the will of God, will bring us into all Truth."

Checks to Dairymen Will Be Mailed

The Dairy Feed Payments for the months of May and June 1944 will be handled by mail, Walter R. Cook, Chairman of the Oakland County Triple-A Committee, announced today.

Producers will be receiving in the mail shortly after the 15th of July an application for payment which they should fill out and sign and return to the county office, together with their weight receipts from the creamery. This applies to both fluid milk sales and butterfat sales. Where butter is sold the producer should set up a certification of the number of pounds sold.

The payments for May and June will be 35c per hundred weight for fluid milk, 6c per pound for butterfat, and 80% of butterfat prices for butter.

Any producers who have not collected this payment in the past should apply at the county office for application for payment. These, however, will be eligible for only May and June payments.
No checks will be issued other than by mail. This is being done to save the producer the inconvenience of driving to the county office or waiting in line at appointed places where payments have been made in the past.

The Drifter

The fisherman rows out from shore, A-bucking gentle breezes,
The fishing grounds he might explore,
And anchors where he pleases.
He casts his bait into the deep,
With inard satisfaction;
He neither moves or makes a peep
For he's all set for action.
But things don't happen quite so fast
And tiresome's the waiting—
The minutes-long are dragging past
And he pulls up for baiting.
Still no bites and still no fish,
The waters now he's lashing;
If he could only have his wish,
He'd give those fish a thrashing.
Exhausted now he moves his boat,
In hopes to find them striking—
Determined, he will sit and float
Thru channels of his liking.
Behold! the spot where he has been
And left a bit downhearted,
Has now attracted other men
Who get their fishing started.
Their luck is good, the time is right,
Their hooks are proper baited,
The first man would have changed his plight
If he'd just sat and waited.

DETROIT EDISON LINES

 Timely items concerning your electric service, suggestions about cooking, lighting and appliances, and many other things of interest and value will appear from time to time in "Edison Lines." Make "Edison Lines" a reading habit!
NEARLY EVERY DAY one reads of some new device to make living easier and pleasanter in the postwar home. Automatic dishwashers, quick-freeze cabinets, automatic home laundries, garbage disposal units, television sets, fluorescent lighting, air conditioning . . . the list is endless and varied. But all have one thing in common: They all operate by ELECTRICITY. Which raises a question: Will your house wiring be able to carry this postwar burden? If you are building a new home after the war, plan to provide proper wiring. More than ever in the home of tomorrow, electricity will play a major role.
TODAY'S TASTE TEMPTER . . . Here's a tiptop summer recipe from our Home Service Department:
Curried Shrimp in Green Peppers
 2 cups medium white sauce 1 cup shrimp
 2 tablespoons pimiento 1/2 teaspoon curry
 Combine all the ingredients and fill green peppers. Place in tightly covered skillet with 1/2 cup water and let steam 45 minutes.

GOOD DEED FOR THE DAY . . . Boy Scout Robert Neal, Troop 343, recently performed a public service and did his duty as a Scout by warning people away from electric wires that had fallen in an alley in Detroit. When our line crew arrived to handle the fallen wires, Scout Neal was on the job, keeping passersby away from the live wires. He stayed on the job until all danger was removed. Hats off to Robert Neall!

A JOB TO COME HOME TO . . . More than fifty Edison men in military service already have been mustered out and have returned to their jobs. A training program is now being worked out for other war veterans when they return. Many will have gained new skills and added years of experience. Others may be physically handicapped and will need lighter work. The Company feels that merely holding a place for service men and women isn't enough.

HELP YOUR GAS RANGE TO CARRY ON TREAT IT WITH CARE... KEEP IT IN GOOD REPAIR... IT WILL LAST LONGER

The modern gas range is one of those time and labor savers that is hard to replace today. And because it seldom, if ever, requires repairs it is apt to be overlooked. Here are a few hints on the care of the gas range that will save time, money and disappointment.

SIX WAYS TO LENGTHEN THE LIFE OF YOUR RANGE

1. Clean ports (small holes) of burners with wire or stiff brush. Wipe off burners with damp cloth. If necessary, wash with warm water. Use washing soda only with old type star burners.
2. Care should be taken to dry the burners thoroughly before putting them back on the range.
3. Do not clog oven flue outlet. It causes inefficient oven operation.
4. Don't bang oven doors or load them with heavy utensils.
5. Wipe off spilled foods. Keep all parts clean. Wash broiler pan and grill after each use.
6. If anything goes seriously wrong, call your dealer.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I don't blame the fellows overseas for gettin' all het up over it, Judge. For the likes of me I can't see what's all the hurry about holdin' these local prohibition elections while they're away."
"I agree with you, Steve. Time after time... in their letters, in articles, in polls taken to get the views of our fighting men... they have indicated in unmistakable terms that they don't want any action taken on prohibition, either local or national, until they get back."

"Too bad there isn't a law or somethin' to be sure their wishes are carried out, Judge."
"There is in one state I know of, Steve. Just recently it passed a law prohibiting the calling of any prohibition election until a year after the peace is declared."
"That really makes sense to me, Judge."

Female More Deadly Than the Male

Victims of mosquitoes may derive some degree of comfort in knowing that of the 20 to 25 different species in Michigan, only the females of a few species attack human beings. According to E. I. McDaniel, M. S. C. entomologist, the males do not have piercing mouthparts and are limited in their feeding to the nectar of flowers and plant juices.

This matter of species is important in organizing control measures on a large scale, although the backyard gardener or householder need not worry whether he is being bitten by "Culex pipens" or by "Aedes vexans". What he wants to know is what he can do about the pests.

Here are some suggestions:

1. All containers holding water should be emptied at least every

- third day. Dumps or ditches containing pockets of quiet water should be sprayed with oil or dusted with paris green to kill mosquito larvae which may be present. A systematic effort should be made to check all possible places where water may collect around the premises.
2. If one lives near a swamp or a pond, a satisfactory method of killing mosquito larvae is to dust the surface of the water with paris green. By using only 1/2 pound to an acre of water, there is no health menace and vegetation is not harmed. A knapsack type duster may be used to apply the dust which should be diluted with 10 to 15 parts talc or other neutral carrier to facilitate distribution. A film of oil on the surface will also kill the larvae but may injure fish, waterfowl, or vegetation and may be unsightly. A cupful of medicinal oil in a cistern will kill mosquito larvae without affecting the water for household purposes.
3. Adult mosquitoes may be killed on lawns and in gardens by spraying with nicotine sulfate. This application if properly made should provide protection for at least two or three weeks, says Professor McDaniel. A bulletin on the subject may be obtained from M. S. C., East Lansing.

ATTENTION! ALL HOME CANNERS!

Before you begin your 1944 canning, Good Housekeeping Magazine advises you: use the boiling-water bath method for tomatoes and fruit, only. Can all vegetables except tomatoes by the correct use of a pressure cooker to be sure of killing botulinus germs. In the last few years, cases of botulinus food poisoning have cropped up in widely different parts of the country. Buy, borrow, share a pressure cooker—but don't can low-acid vegetables any other way. If you want further information, write Good Housekeeping Magazine, 959 Eighth Avenue, New York 19, N.Y.
