HELP! HELP!

The cry of our wounded and dying men on the battlefields, on the ships and in the air is HELP. If you have never answered this cry before then you have never realized what a satisfied feeling wells in your heart when you know that you have done what you could to help a person in distress. This cry for help is being poured into the ears of every true American. The people on the home front must answer the call.

Blood donors are needed badly to save thousands of lives of those who are sacrificing everything for you. Perhaps you have given blood several times and could give just a little more. Perhaps you were not able to donate blood before because of the condition of your health but since that time your condition has improved and a blood donation would have no ill effects. Be a blood donor if you possibly can on Friday, September 22nd at the Drayton Plains Community Church from 2:45 until 7:00 p. m. Register at the O'Dell Drug Store in Clarkston or call Mrs. John Shaughnessy, phone Clarkston 4721. Transportation will be furnished if needed.

The boys in battle are crying HELP! HELP! Will you answer the cry?

Clarkston Locals

Miss Patricia Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson, was honored on her fourteenth birthday, on Thursday of last week, by Miss Mary Lee Volberding who entertained at a one o'clock luncheon at Hack's Diner on the Dixie Highway. Besides Patricia there were six who enjoyed the happy occasion and the lovely luncheon.

The Clarkston Royal Neighbors met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Louella Leighton at Williams Lake. A lovely pot-luck luncheon was served at noon. In the afternoon the regular business meeting was held. There were 22 present. The group is giving a beautiful quilt to the Service Mothers to help raise funds for the Christmas boxes.

Coming Events

Sept. 16th—Saturday night at the Brandon Grange Hall in Ortonville Dr. Lewis F. Wolfanger of Michigan State College will speak on "Zoning". This subject should be interesting to all property holders, so a large crowd is expected.

Sept. 18th—Monday night—the Ortonville and the Joseph C. Bird Chapters, O.E.S. and the County Association Officers will meet at the Temple in Clarkston. Initiation will take place and refreshments will follow.

Sept. 23rd—Saturday—waste paper and rags will be picked up in Clarkston. Have the bundles at the curb. More and more paper is needed to pack the very necessary war material. Do your part. Save all waste paper and rags and be ready for the pick-up a week from Saturday.

Sept. 23rd — Saturday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock the Joseph C. Bird Chapter, O.E.S. will hold a bazaar at the Temple. The booths will include aprons and novelties, baked goods, fruit, canned goods, Christmas cards, stuffed animal toys for children and a white elephant table.

Sept. 27th—Wednesday evening—a banquet and reception for the Clarkston School faculty will be held at the school starting at 7 o'clock. All parents and those interested in the school are invited to attend. Information about the banquet reservations will be given next week.

Pfc Eugene McGill left on Thursday of last week to report at Ft. Benning, Ga., after spending a short furlough with his folks in Ortonville. Mrs. McGill returned with him and will remain in Ortonville for the present.

Everyone in Clarkston and vicinity will be delighted to know that William (Bill) Radoye has been made Drum Major of the Western Michigan Navy Band at Kalamazoo. Bill made his first public appearance at a football game last Saturday.

William Parker who is with the Coast Guard in Erie, Pa., has been promoted to petty officer first class. He has just returned to his duty after enjoying a short furlough in Clarkston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parker and other relatives. Mrs. Parker returned to Clarkston with him and will remain here for a while.

August 27-44

Dear Folks:

Well, I have a chance to write today so I will try and drop everybody a line that I can. I guess it is all right if I tell you where I am at now. Of course you probably have an idea that we're in France and that's it. I thought England was nice, that is, the pretty part of it, but France has it beat in a lot of ways and I like the people a lot better even if I can't talk to them. Everybody I hear from says it is awful hot there. Boy! you should get some of this French sunshine. You could really get a good tan here. My arms are just about black and my face has been peeling for the last two weeks—that's a lot different than England.

I quit drinking beer, because they don't have it here — but they sure have lots of cider and cognac, that's the darnedest stuff I ever drank—a couple of shots of that and you go about crazy. They do have some wine, but the Germans got most of that. They drink cider like we drink coffee. They take it to work in the fields and also drink it at the table. I just made a good deal with a kid. He had some eggs, tomatoes and cider. I gave him a pack of cigarettes and some candy for them and he is very happy.

By the way, I saw a fellow who had seen Ed, so he must be over here also. I have been looking for his outfit but as yet I haven't seen it. He was at a town and Ed had just been there about a half hour before that, but we travel all over the place, so I think I'll run into him sometime. So Don thinks he would like paper hanging. Well, just look how far that one paper hanger got in the world. I just got a letter from Charles saying he got kicked by a horse.

Will you send me some heavy work socks. It is impossible to get them here and it is hard to keep clean ones and also very hard to keep our feet comfortable.

Well I can't think of any more that I can say, only that I'll try to write more often than I have been. I still like to hear from you all, so keep the good work up.

Lots of love

Ellis

P.S. Remember to send those heavy socks like we used to wear. Here is 50 francs—French money.

El.

The above letter was received from Ellis Boice by his parents after not hearing from him since D-Day.

Waterford

Mrs. Fred Thompson and daughters, Barbara and Beverly, of Ft. Knox, Ky., were guests over the weekend of Mrs. Fred Thompson Sr.

Those leaving for Northwestern Bible School at Minneapolis, Minn., on Thursday were Doris Bunker and Nora Pratt, for their sophomore year; and Lois Burt of Walled Lake and June Callaghan entering as freshmen.

Miss Isabella Elliott of Seattle, Wash., arrived Saturday to spend some time as guest at the H. B. Mehlberg home.

Jack Craven, AS, who has completed his boot training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Ill., is spending a 10 day leave with his family here.

A surprise party and personal shower was held on Friday evening in the C. A. Club house honoring June Callaghan who left Thursday for Northwestern Bible College at Minneapolis, Minn. About 30 young people attended. Singing and games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends in Clarkston for the lovely gifts, flowers, fruit, cards and phone calls while I was in the hospital at Ann Arbor and since I came home last Monday.

Send Your Boy His Favorite Cake

To women who are packing boxes for their men in service, comes a suggestion from the County Home Extension Agent's office in Pontiac. Mrs. Louise Carpenter, War Food Assistant, says that it is possible to send his favorite cake to any man in the service anywhere in the world.

This may be done by making the cake batter, filling a greased, new, number 2 tin can, two thirds or one half full (depending on how much the cake rises), with the batter and baking at the same temperature as your recipe calls for. When it is baked and cooled, seal on the cover, and process for 10 minutes at 10 pounds in a pressure cooker. Some of you who would like to do this may not have a tin can sealer, but there is usually one to be found in every community and arrangements may undoubtedly be made with the owner to seal the cans. Perhaps a group might buy the cans in a quantity from your hardware dealer, or individually from someone who uses tin cans for home canning.

Especially good for this packaging are apple sauce, banana, chocolate, or spice cakes. Salted nuts may be prepared in the same way by lining the cans with parchment paper, filling with the nuts, putting parchment over the top of the nuts and sealing on cover and then processing at 10 pounds for 10 minutes.

Miss Mary J. E. Woodward, Home Extension Agent, offers to seal any cans of cake or nuts which you may wish to bring to her office at 15 1/2 W. Huron Street, Pontiac. Please call to make an appointment before bringing in the cans. Her phone number is 4-3911.

County Government Told in Manual

Oakland County Officials Are Contributors

Seven Oakland County officials have helped write the first complete and authoritative handbook on county government in Michigan.

It is a 275-page "Manual of County Administrative Organization", and was published last week by the Bureau of Government of the University of Michigan. The officials are E. J. Lederer, county superintendent of schools; Charles A. Sparks, county treasurer; Earl L. Clark, drain commissioner; Karl D. Bailey, county agricultural agent; Arthur E. Moore, judge of probate; Florence Doty, probate register; Lola M. Parkins, deputy of the register of deeds. Each was asked to check on the section dealing with his own phase of government.

The book, fifteenth in the University's series of Michigan Governmental Studies, is a compressed digest of the powers and duties of county officials and boards, arranged so that officials and citizens can check on every county function and power—ranging from financing to police. It was prepared by Claude R. Tharp, research associate in charge of the Bureau of Government, after three years of study, and will sell for $1.00.

County government in Michigan, explains Tharp, has just grown. The Manual makes no recommendations for improving county government, but merely sorts and arranges the existing threads of administration for the reader.

The 11 main divisions of the Manual completely cover the personnel, powers and duties, compensation and financing, and other factors of the following principal organizations and functions of county government: Board of Supervisors, finance, justice and law, records, education, public health, welfare, public works, agriculture and elections, plus one on miscellaneous agencies. These eleven chapters in turn cover the 59 administrative agencies, 25 boards, 5 commissions, three committees, and 23 offices which a county may have.

Clarkston Locals

Clarkston schools will open Monday, September 18th.

Mrs. Stanley Ash is visiting her sister, Mrs. August Norwich, in Detroit.

Today is the last day to apply for your "A" gasoline coupons. Apply at the Clarkston school.

A new subscriber to the News, this week, is Ward Robbins, who is now living on N. Holcomb St. Mr. Robbins informed us that years ago he purchased the corner, now occupied by Beattie Motor Sales, from the late Frank Yeager and opened the first garage in Clarkston. For years he kept a fleet of trucks working out of Clarkston. He sold the corner to Seertlin Brothers, and they, in turn, sold to Beatties. He is now an employee of the Detroit Edison Co.

Service Mothers Meet Next Thursday

The Service Mothers' Club will hold its regular meeting next Thursday, September 21st at the Masonic Temple. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 12:30 with each one attending furnishing her own table service and one dish to pass.

The business meeting will follow the luncheon and there will be a demonstration of the Household Paper Products. Every member is urged to be present and bring a guest. Anyone interested is asked to attend.

Everyone will be glad to know that Roy Johnson, who had the misfortune to break both of his wrists in a fall a week ago Tuesday, is getting along fine according to x-rays taken at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor. Both arms are in casts almost to the armpits. However Roy is getting around and gradually getting accustomed to doing things the awkward way. He is now at his home in Clarkston.

Waterford Community Activities News

There is to be a bazaar and chicken dinner sponsored by the Women's Club at the Community Activities Building Saturday afternoon and evening. All tickets must be reserved for the dinner but anyone interested may attend the bazaar. There will be booths by the Parent-Teachers Association of the Webster, Donelson, Hudson-Covert, Waterford Center, Lambert, Stringham, Drayton Plains, and the Newberry schools, besides the Oakland County Council of the P.T.A.

The various community organizations having booths will be the Women's Club, Waterford Center Ladies' Aid, Webster Club, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Waterford Checker and Chess Club, Waterford MOMS, Sylvan Shores Civic Club, Newberry Improvement Club, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Dixie Floral, The Dirt Gardeners' Club, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Community Activities, Incorporated.

The booths will have baked goods, needlework, flowers, houseplants, candy, handkerchiefs, pop, cider, wieners, doughnuts, white elephants, second-hand articles, rummage, and miscellaneous.

There will be a side show featuring a monkey, fortune telling, and a fish pond. There will also be dancing.

Anyone interested in joining the orchestra which Mrs. Joseph Gidley has organized may do so by being at the Community Building Monday evening. She hopes to see a good number out.

The Women's Club is serving dinner to the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club each Tuesday noon at the Community Building. This week it fell on Thursday and the District Governor, Harvey H. Lowrey of Dearborn, was present.

Mrs. James Sutton, president of the local P.T.A., called a meeting at the Club House last Friday evening at which time Supt. J. C. Covert explained the need and plans for a new eight grade school to lighten the overload at the Waterford Center, Waterford Village, and Drayton Plains schools. School electors of the township will have an opportunity to vote on this important subject next Monday in the various precincts. The new building would be erected at the Airport and Hatcher roads and would be a ten room building on a seven and one-half acre plot of ground. Electors will also vote on a two room addition to the Lambert school.

Anyone interested in joining a Dramatic Club is asked to contact Mrs. Louise Davis at 4251 Windiate Drive, Clarkston, Michigan.

There will be no dance for the Youth this Friday because of polio.

The Women's Club will meet with Mrs. Dale McClelland, Mrs. Bea Herbst, Mrs. Edna Robertson, and Mrs. Ernest Stevens next Thursday evening at 8:00 in the Club House.

As many men as can possibly meet at the Club house on Tuesday evenings to work are urged to do so as there is very much work to be done. Many of the men meet there more than once a week in an attempt to get the West Wing ready to be used as class rooms for the Webster School, as soon as possible.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Community Activities had the first regular monthly meeting at the Club House last Thursday evening with Mrs. Ralph Vogel in charge. The standing committees named by Mrs. Vogel include Mrs. George Kimball as Parliamentarian and Chaplain; Mrs. Edward Reiner, historian; Mrs. John Myers and Mrs. George King as hospitality; Mrs. J. H. Helman and Mrs. Charles Callahan for publicity; Mrs. Will Brandon, Mrs. Lillian Wilcox, and Mrs. Earl Wilton for Benefit planning; Mrs. Leona McCaffrey, membership chairman; and Mrs. James Simmons to get lunches for the dances held at the Club House. The next meeting will be October fifth.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 17.

The Golden Text (Proverbs 23:5) is: "Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Matthew 6:24): "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Lewis Masters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Masters, has returned to his home after enjoying the past ten days with relatives in Pioneer, Ohio.

Mrs. E. S. Waterbury and son, Maurice, left on Wednesday for a three weeks' visit with relatives in the Finger Lakes region in New York State.

School Children Face Danger

Michigan's more than nine hundred thousand returning school children face greater traffic dangers than in many years, it was warned by Ernest P. Davis, director of the Safety and Traffic Division of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

The warning went to school authorities reorganizing the 2217 school safety patrols throughout the state, equipped and instructed by the club, in the nearly twenty years the safety groups have been operating.

"Unless we redouble our alertness this school year," said Davis, "we shall never duplicate the great record of safety these patrols achieved last year. Here are a few reasons for the greater danger this year:

"1. Fewer police officers.

"2. War-deteriorated traffic signals.

"3. Worn-down tires that prevent quick stopping of cars.

"4. Deteriorated safety equipment on our more-than-seven-year-old automobiles.

"5. War-jangled nerves of parents, children, and drivers that bring less cautious driving than ordinarily.

"6. Hastening drivers moving to war jobs and returning home fatigued and irritable at the end of the day."

Davis urged operating of school patrols from the first day of school, careful checking of traffic signs and signals near school, and, above all, increased caution by drivers in approaching school zones. He offered the safety services of his organization to any schools now unable to acquire workable safety devices or to help install safety patrols where needed.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear son, Pvt. Charles VanHeel, who completed his earth work September 15th, 1943. I wish to dedicate this verse:

Our years of sunshine can't be taken away,

Though today's skies are cloudy and grey.

God gave you to me, and though now we're apart,

Your radiance, my darling, still shines in my heart.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Bettye Wells

4-H Clubbers Get State Show Awards

Oakland county 4-H club members who took part in the annual State 4-H Club Show at Michigan State college last (September 5 to 8), came home with a sizeable share of honors in the various fields of competition.

First place blue ribbon awards were won by Jack Emery and John Adams. The delegation from Clarkston won a number of red and white ribbon awards for excellency of exhibits.

The Clarkston Canning Club was given first placing in 1st and 2nd year canning.

This year's 4-H show was pronounced by officials in charge as the most impressive to date. More boys and girls participated with a larger number of exhibits than ever before. Quality as a whole was improved over other years.

Many parents and interested visitors were attracted to the Michigan State college campus to view the work of the farm youth. An estimated 4,000 attended the feature event of the 4-day show, The Thursday night program, which included the citizenship ceremony, style revue and the parade of livestock.

Governor Harry F. Kelly in presenting the citizenship charge to 80 boys and girls about to reach their majority, told them that one of the privileges and sacred obligations of any citizen is the exercise of the power of franchise in an honest and diligent fashion. "Democratic government," he said, "will improve only as the individual improves, and individuals without ideals are doomed to unhappiness."

J. A. Hannah, president of Michigan State college, in an address Thursday night urged 4-H youth to "get all the education you can, but think seriously before you step outside the field of agriculture, for there is no field of endeavor in which there are greater opportunities."

Among the highlights of the show were the selection of the four achievement winners, who are considered the leading 4-H boys and girls of the state; the naming of the grand champion steer; the crowning of the style revue queen; and the livestock auction sales.

Bernard Suplanoski's Hereford steer walked away with grand champion honors and was sold for $320. The owner is from Quincy, Branch county. Miss Carol Warwick, Calhoun county, was named the best dressed girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Powell announce the birth of a 6 lb. son, Jerry Edward, on Thursday, September 7th, at the Pontiac General Hospital.

Caught Up With Dreaming

It hasn't been the same back home, since Bob and Mary went away. We seemed so strangely all alone. And things were very dull and grey.

We've thought sometimes we'd like to rest.

Without the usual youthful noise. That comes to parents who are blessed.

With normal, healthy girls and boys. We've dreamed of time when they'd be grown.

When we'd be shed of all their cares; When all our time would be our own, To sit and doze off in our chairs.

We hid them by and wished them well.

Reluctantly we saw them leave; Now they've been gone for just a spell.

And we've experienced our reprieve.

But we've not rested as we planned; Nor have we dozed in easy chair.

For something we can't understand. Just kept us longing for that pair.

But everything is better now, Back from the farm, and full of screams,

Where they learned how to milk a cow—

And we are all caught up with dreams.

Victory depends on everyone, every day. Lost time puts a brake on America's final drive for Victory. Whether you're working at GMC or on some other war job, stay on it every minute you can. Under war conditions this is tough—but war is never easy. Reduce absenteeism, make time work for us — not our enemies.

EVERY MINUTE COUNTS

This telegram from the chief of the Detroit Ordnance District drives home the importance of GMC military trucks on the battle front, and the need to build thousands more at GMC factories on the home front. These big six-wheel-drive vehicles have played a vital role in Allied invasions everywhere. Now, thousands more are urgently needed to carry out the tremendous task of supplying our fighting forces as they move nearer and nearer to Berlin and Tokio. The GMC amphibian truck, the "Duck," is also a most important vehicle at the front. Carrying supplies from ships at sea to inland dumps, it saves valuable time in the transportation of war materiel. No job could be of more importance to the war effort today, than a position at GMC. Come in immediately, we need you now.

Many types of jobs are available for men at GMC. Regardless of whether you have had any previous factory experience or not, GMC needs you. Apply directly at the GMC Employment Office, 661 South Boulevard. Open from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M. Monday through Saturday.

DETROIT EDISON LINES

Timely items concerning your electric service, suggestions about cooking, lighting and appliances, and many other things of interest and value will appear from time to time in "Edison Lines." Make "Edison Lines" a reading habit!

BANISHING JITTERBUGS... Jitterbugs may claim the center of attention on the dance floor, but an Edison power house is no place for large, heavy equipment to start doing a jig. When a huge fan mounted a hundred feet above the ground, or a turbo-generator weighing 500 tons, turns jitterbug, something has to be done about it. Excessive vibration may cause damage to the equipment or the building and cause interruptions to service. So one of our engineers goes to work with a remarkable vibration-meter, locates the source of the trouble and measures the amount of vibration. Then he corrects the condition by balancing the equipment or isolating it from the building structure by suitable means.

MEAT-POINT STRETCHER... Our Home Service Department offers this modern version of an old Scotch recipe. It is easy on the ration book:

- Supper Pie
- 4 tbsp. minced onion
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 1 tbsp. butter
 - 1/2 tsp. pepper
 - 1 lb. ground beef
 - 1 can condensed tomato soup
- Pie pastry for two-crust pie

Cook onions in butter until soft. Add ground beef and cook until barely brown; then add condensed tomato soup. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and mix well; line a 9-inch pie plate with short pastry, rolled 1/8-inch thick. Moisten edges of crust with cold water. Fill pie shell with meat mixture. Prick top crust and place over pie, brush with melted butter and bake in moderate oven, 375 F., for one hour, or bake in a hot oven, 450 F., for 15 minutes, and then decrease heat to 350 F. and bake 15 minutes longer. Serves six.

SLIP COVERS FOR LAMP SHADES... If you have a soiled lamp shade and cannot obtain a new shade, try making a "slip cover" using patterned paper of a light color, or cotton cloth (gingham, percale, chambray). Lay the material on the lamp shade, and mark the shape to be cut out. Then sew or paste the edges together and finish with a simple edging or trimming. Slip the new shade over the old shade.

DUST STEALS LIGHT... Dust and dirt collecting on lamp bulbs, reflector bowls and fixtures will often absorb as much as 50 per cent of the light. To get all the light you pay for, clean lamp bulbs and fixtures frequently, also floor and table lamps. Wipe lamp bulbs and bowls with a damp cloth, and be sure lamp bulbs are dry before screwing back in socket. A soft brush can be used for dusting lamp shades.

Company to Appeal Commission's Ruling

Because the same ten million dollars of war taxes is being claimed in three places at once, Detroit Edison must get court direction as to where to pay it, Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Edison board, stated today in connection with an appeal filed by the company from the Michigan Public Service Commission's order to reduce the company's revenue by customer refunds.

"Under present income tax laws, this ten million dollars is due the Federal Government. Two attempts have been made by the City of Detroit to divert the so-called 'excess profits taxes' of the Detroit Edison—one by a rate reduction and the other by an excise tax. These two attempts have now collided with each other."

"The Commission's recent order establishes the company's rate of return at only 4.68 per cent on electric property alone—too low to be safe and lower for a utility company than any ever approved in Michigan or by the United States Supreme Court. We do not agree with the Commission's findings as to the value of the property used in the business and a rate of return of 4.68 per cent is not enough to attract money to an electric company," Mr. Brown said.

"Neither can we understand why the order for a refund should ignore the effect of the unsettled excise tax of the City of Detroit and other communities. We do not believe the tax is valid but the courts haven't decided."

"This order goes pretty far. In principle," Mr. Brown continued, "both these local actions deny the Federal Government the right to recapture through excess profits taxes any of its war expenditures. This excess profits tax legislation, written while I was in Congress, was in order to take, in taxes, the excess over pre-war business to help pay for the war and it was the intent of the Congress," Mr. Brown said, "that companies retain one-seventh of their increased war earnings to renew facilities used up by the war production effort. We need this money in the business, but the refund order and the proposed excise tax together would take nearly three and one-half million dollars in 1944 and another two million dollars in 1945—more than the Federal war tax alone.

"These six-cipher figures may give the impression that the company has a lot of money but it must be remembered that this is a large concern serving more than half the people of Michigan. We have 800,000 customers, 7,000 employees, some 37,000 owners, and our service area is 7,500 square miles.

"Our residence and commercial rates have not been raised. In fact our residence customers pay only one-half as much per unit as in the last war. Everyone's costs have increased—ours included—but we believe in low rates because we know while helping the customer they also help us to grow."
