Rotary Picnic

On Wednesday the Clarkston and the Waterford-Drayton Rotary clubs held a family picnic at the Davisburg park. The weather was ideal and a large crowd attended. During the afternoon about 15 enjoyed golf. However, the less we say about the scores the better everybody will feel.

About 6:30 baskets were unpacked and the group forgot about any scarcity of food and ate so much that many could not participate in the sports that took place afterwards. There was plenty of watermelon and pop provided by the clubs.

An honor guest at the picnic was Harry O. Palmer of Windsor, Ont., Governor of the 153rd district of which these clubs are a

In the evening the children had a good time playing games and being entertained by a magician. A music-box was kept going most of the time. The men had fun playing ball and we'll forget this score too as space will not permit the printing of so many figures-you see there is a paper shortage. Some of the group had a good time playing bingo. In fact all were so busy during most of the time that the evening passed much too quickly.

"Step On It"

Tin can salvage must be doubled here at home if we are to continue our present production of those containers that carry food, life saving drugs, chemicals and weap ons of war to our boys on all fronts-and act as good will ambassadors to our world neighbors of tomorrow. The cans on greeny shelves are allotted to civilians by the Government after war needs are met, to provide the protective packaging needed for essential home front materials. It is not unpatriotic to buy those cans, up to the limit of ration allowances but it is unpatriotic to throw away a can after it has been emptied.

"Step On It" is the slogan. Wash all used cans thoroughly, remove labels, cut around the ends sufficiently to tuck them inside, flatten them out and then see to it that your tin cans reach the salvage depot. Remember, America's only tin mines are in your kitchens!

Every farmer who puts up has h uld have a hay prod thermom ter, says Bell. This is simply a ength of one-half inch electrical onduit with a sharpened plug in ne end and a dairy-type thermomter. To use the device, shove the enduit into the hay, tie a string the thermometer, and then lowr the thermometer into the conlait where a reading is desired. Temperature readings should be nade of several locations in the mow. If any of the temperatures rise to 180 degrees or more, it is ime to call for fire-fighting assist ince and to start removing the hay. It is not wise, however, to open a hot mow unless some means of fighting fire is present, because Mr. and Mrs. Emery Beedle the addition of oxygen caused by moving the hay may cause the hot

Vacation School Closed This Week

The Daily Vacation Church School held at the Methodist 'liet studied "God in the Out of Doors". Each child made an individual flower garden in a glass, as handwork. The children devoted their lesson period to the place of God in nature and the outside world. The primary class under the direction of Mrs. David Stewart and Mrs. Charles Robinson made a study of the home life of the Soil Conservation District Di-children in oriental countries and America. The house, the family lows: Earl Voorhees of Davisburg, and interests of the various groups dren. The junior class studied the Grovesteen, Ortonville, 41; Frank place of the church in the community, with its symbols, stained glass windows, creeds and literature. The young folks of the inermediate each chose a painter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beemer and religious art and made a scrapsons, Stanley and Marion, spent a book of the well known paintings week in northern Michigan and of the particular painter chosen. Another project was a study of lovely time but the fishing was European cathedrals and the music of the church.

Farmers To Get Essential Lumber

Beginning with the third quarter (July - August - September) County AAA Committees will operate on a lumber quota which is designed to furnish farmers with small lots of essential lumber without obtaining War Production Board approval.

Farmers of Oakland County, under a recent War Production every day . . . Researchers of Board ruling, may now construct the American University in Washproval if the cost, including labor trillion-dollar cost of World War and material, deos not exceed II down to comprehension, say, "If $1000 for a farm dwelling or $1000 all money spent on this war since during the calendar year.

It should be generally understood that non-critical materials which are unrationed should be used for constructing any such buildings.

The County AAA Committee may issue lumber certificates to farmers for the following purnoses: 1. Maintenance and repair troop got ready to go to camp at f farm dwellings ($1000 per farm per calendar year.) 2. Maintenance and repair of farm service buildings and equipment. (Unlimited as in the past.) 3. New construction or remodeling farm service buildings. ($1000 limit per farm per calendar year.) 4. New construction up to $5000 for farm buildings lost or destroyed by fire or other disaster. (State Committee approval required.)

If priority assistance for critical lumber is needed and County Committees can not furnish this assistince, due to limited county lumber quotas, applicants may apply to he War Production Board through ounty AAA Committees for aproval and assistance in obtaining naterials. In all cases, except emergency construction made necessary by ire or other disaster, it is neces sary to obtain War Production Board approval for the construction of farm buildings which cost nore than $1000 during the calendar vear.

Most anades of lumber continue n be scarce due to heavy demand for this material for all types of wir work. Therefore, Walter R bek. County Chairman, suggests at only necessary construction and repairs be carried out by farmers of Oakland County during the present period.

Traffic Control

Traffic violation, careless and louble parking complaints have been so numerous that the state, county and village are going to correct it at once and for all times The drivers of automobiles must accept their responsibilities and For hearts filled full to overflowobey the state laws and village ordinances. The police have marked off 150 regulation, parking spaces and each driver must place his car in the center of the space for easy parking and fairness.

To get an even flow of patrons to business places on Main Street no cars are permitted to park over hour. If you know that you will be detained longer than an hour then park on the side street, it is less dangerous and much fairer to the business man and patrons.

For your information, where business places have no rear exit, suppliers are allowed to use the front entrance as they park only about 5 minutes. However this matter is a merchant and police oroblem.

All cars must be off the streets in the business district on Sunday mornings for the regular cleanup.

By The Way

Didn't it seem odd to see the words "mild" and "milder" used in the weather reports over the last weekend. Sometimes those are welcomed words in January and February but you never expect to use them regarding weather in July . . . Although it was cold most of last week the girls and boys who were at scout camps report that they went swimming farm buildings without WPB ap-lington, D. The GMC "Duck"—a most vital invasion vehicle—is destined to play a prominent part in future amphibious assaults against the Japs. Traveling with equal ease on land or water, it is a "natural" for Pacific island warfare. That's why "Duck" production must be increased... and that's why GMC Truck & Coach must have more help immediately! Yes, action in the Pacific calls for plenty of action on the part of many additional men and women in the Pontiac area. If you are not in essential war work, join the thousands of workers who are making a great contribution to the war effort by helping to build the "Duck" at GMC. You'll find a wide variety of well-paid, interesting jobs available. Factory experience is not neccessary. Come in today to do your duty for the duration.
