Sixth Annual Football Banquet Monday Night

Monday night, December 3, the Clarkston Rotary Club will fete the High School football team at the sixth annual banquet in the school auditorium. Each year the affair seems bigger and better, and this year promises to be one of the best. The P. T. A. will be responsible for the dinner, which means that everyone will get a good meal with service deluxe. The serving will start promptly at 7 o'clock and everyone is asked to remember this fact because the program is rather lengthy.

JOHN S. PINGEL

Major John Pingel, backfield coach at Michigan State College, will be guest speaker. Major Pingel, who was an All American in 1923, was one of the great backfield stars turned out at Michigan State College. At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he continued on in football playing with both professional and service teams. In 1939 he starred in the backfield for the Detroit Lions and in 1942 played on that great Army all-star team which was defeated by only the Chicago Bears. In September of this year he received his discharge from the Army after having served nearly 5 years, two of which were in Europe. During his army career he rose to the rank of major. Upon his discharge he returned to his first love, football, and accepted the position of backfield coach at Michigan State College.

His presence as guest speaker at this banquet is doubly interesting in that not only is he an excellent talker, but played his high school football at Mt. Clemens. He has announced that after his talk he will show the pictures of one of this year's Michigan State College football games.

The tickets for the banquet have been limited but there are still about 50 available at the O'Dell Drug Store. Get yours today.

Local Couple Hurt Thanksgiving Night

When Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Garter were returning to their home in Clarkston on Thanksgiving night after spending the day with friends near Redford they were injured in a three car collision at Telegraph and Fourteen Mile Rds. Mr. and Mrs. Garter were taken to the Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital at 8071 West Outer Drive, where it was found that she had a badly lacerated face, a broken right arm and suffered from shock. Mr. Garter suffered a broken hip, a broken leg and a bad bump on his head. Both are getting along as well as can be expected.

Allowance For Vets Idle Due To Strike

1. General — Title 5, chapters 7, 8 and 9 of the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944"—GI Bill of Rights, provides readjustment allowances (unemployment compensation) at a maximum of $20.00 per week for a maximum of 52 weeks, under certain conditions.

a. One of the disqualifying provisions is quoted: "the (veteran) leaves suitable work voluntarily, without cause."

b. However the Act states "that this sub-section shall not apply if it is shown that he (the veteran) is not participating in or directly interested in the labor dispute that causes the stoppage of work."

2. Michigan Unemployment Compensation Interpretation:

a. The M. U. C. C. has interpreted that any World War II veteran who is away from his job because of strike against General Motors Corporation is "directly interested" because his wages are affected. Therefore, according to the Executive Director of the M. U. C. C., the Commission will not allow claims.

3. Right of appeal: A veteran has the right to appeal the decision of the M. U. C. C. There are three stages as follows: First—to the referee of the M. U. C. C. Second—to the Readjustment Allowance Agent, who is a veteran's administration representative located in the M. U. C. C. office. Third—the Veteran's Administration.

Veterans are advised to file their claims at once.

Herbert T. Baynes, Veteran's Counselor.

On Tuesday night, December 11, at 7 o'clock, the local American Legion post and Auxiliary will have their annual family dinner in the Rotary rooms.

Native of Clarkston Dies Suddenly

Late on Wednesday afternoon of last week James O'Roark, aged 88 years, died suddenly at his home on East Washington street. He was born February 28, 1857, on a farm about a mile north of Clarkston. He was married to Anna Shay who passed away in 1900.

Mr. O'Roark in his younger days operated a farm. For the past 23 years he had made his home with his son, Edward, and family. Everyone in town, old and young, knew Mr. O'Roark because there were very few days went by, either winter or summer, that he was not seen walking along Main street. He was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church in Pontiac and belonged to the Modern Woodmen of America. For several terms he served as highway commissioner.

Surviving are a son, Edward, of Clarkston, and two grandchildren. A rosary service was held at the residence last Friday night. The funeral service was held at the St. Michael church on Saturday morning at 9 a. m. Burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Waterford-Drayton Rotary News

At the meeting of the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club on Tuesday in the Community Activities building, Norman Roth introduced Joe Haas, who outlined the proposed recreational project that will be developed in Oakland County. Mr. Haas is from Holly and is an authority on not only the history but the geography of Oakland County.

Guests at the meeting were E. C. Russell of the Pontiac Rotary, Charles Wilcox, Yic and Earl Wilcox, Henry VanderVelde and Bob Morris, recently discharged from the service, and Charles Robinson of the Clarkston Rotary Club, who extended an invitation to the club to attend the football banquet at the Clarkston High school on Monday night.

The Hilltopper FOOTBALL BANQUET PLANS COMPLETED

Monday evening, Dec. 3rd is expected to witness an unusually enthusiastic banquet at the Clarkston school. The football team and coach will be honored at that time. John Pingel of Michigan State fame will be the principal speaker. He will also show a film of one of the best games to challenge the Spartans.

Rotarians are sponsoring the dinner with Carl Brablec in charge of general arrangements. Gerald O'Dell and Slip Megee, with the assistance of Mr. Huttenlocher, secured the speaker. Ron Walter and Bob Jones are in charge of the program; Bill Burns, advance ticket sale; Ralph Marshall, dinner; and Mr. Lamb, school music director, has consented to assist in any capacity needed. The occasion will be open to the general public to the extent that space allows.

Coach Thayer carried about 24 players during the season, approximately two-thirds of whom will qualify for letters. The team's spirit was high all through the season, and with the exception of a single tie, Clarkston won every contest.

STUDENTS TOLD ABOUT CUSTOMS OF CHINA

A noted speaker on China, William Wolf, made a very enjoyable talk at Clarkston High School last Wednesday morning, Nov. 21. We all feel that we were very fortunate in getting Mr. Wolf to come to Clarkston.

He spoke of many Chinese customs such as having two meals a day, breakfast and supper; and eating these meals with chopsticks which they have been using for the last 3,000 years. Mr. Wolf said, "The only other country to use chopsticks is Japan, who adopted the custom from China." He demonstrated how they used the chopsticks and explained that all their food is cut up into small pieces before it is cooked, so it is easy to pick up with chopsticks.

Mr. Wolf demonstrated many different types of gongs and their sounds. He made some gongs sound like church bells. He explained that during the Chinese army could summon more troops by the use of the gong, instead of the bugle. Chinese invented gongs over 2,000 years ago.

Mr. Wolf who has traveled through 34 foreign countries told how the Chinese dress. "The men never wear ties because their jackets have such high collars," he said, "Chinese women are the best dressed women in the Orient." Their favorite drink is tea,

Opportunities For Vets' Children

Five colleges in the state of Michigan have been named as eligible educational institutions, where children not under 16 and not over 22 years of age, can obtain free education benefits.

Any child, within the stated age bracket, who has a parent in the armed forces killed in action, or died from any other cause during the war, or has since died, or is totally disabled, is entitled to attend one of the designated colleges.

Michigan law allows any eligible child to attend a state educational institution or training school of a secondary or college grade without payment of matriculation fee, athletic fee or tuition. No provision, however, is made for payment of subsistence or text books.

The schools eligible to accept sons and daughters of veterans under the provisions of law are Central Michigan College of Education, Western Michigan College of Education, Northern Michigan College of Education, Michigan State Normal College, and Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

All counselors of Councils of Veterans' Affairs have sample application forms and will assist in executing them.

The State Board of Education has been given the responsibility of making the determination as to eligibility.

Rotary Club News

"Slip" Megee took the club on a trip through the offices of Rotary International in Chicago and then read a very interesting article on "The Value of the Atomic Bomb in Industrial Life." Guests at the meeting were Kenneth Oakes and Cliff Schoenhals of the Waterford-Drayton Club.

Wage War On Tuberculosis

Oakland County Tuberculosis Association advises that in the next four years tuberculosis will kill, needlessly, about as many men, women and children here at home as the past three years of war claimed in American soldier, sailor and marine lives.

This year the 39th seal sale will be conducted and of the funds collected locally, 84 percent will remain in Oakland County.

which both the children and their parents drink.

 The new Pontiac, which is now here and on display, continues to be a style pacemaker, a quality leader. Even better than prewar models, it is the finest of the famous "Silver Streaks." You are cordially invited to come in and see the sparkling new Pontiac.

Want Fewer Parties on Your Rural Telephone Line?

There's good news for farmers and other rural residents in Michigan Bell's 5-year $13,500,000 rural expansion and improvement program. Here are some of the ways this program will give better service to more people:

- 1 Construction of more lines will mean fewer parties per line for many customers. That will make service better, faster and more pleasing for all concerned.
- 2 Important new devices and new construction methods will make telephone service available to more rural families than ever before.
- 3 Michigan Bell also plans to install dial telephone systems in many more rural sections — another big step toward increasing the speed and accuracy of rural telephone service!
- 4 In accordance with the plan worked out with the Michigan Rural Communications Committee, a group of agricultural leaders, we will continue to provide a liberal amount of free line-construction, with small monthly payments in cases where construction charges are involved. This will mean more farm families with telephones — more people you can reach from your telephone!

Drayton Plains

Mr. and Mrs. Emiel Koop, of Drayton Plains, Clarkston, entertained a group of friends and relatives on Sunday in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. At 6:30 a chicken supper was served at a table attractive with a center arrangement of snapdragons and chrysanthemums. A four tier wedding cake was served after the dinner. Jeanette Lois Thornton, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell

Thornton of Pontiac, niece of Mrs. Koop, sang a pretty number, entitled "Some Sunday Morning." The group spent the evening singing and visiting. Several of the guests had attended the wedding 25 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Koop have two sons, Winfield of Clarkston and Petty Officer Claude Koop stationed at Chicago, Ill., and one grandson, Robert Lee Koop. Mrs. Claude Koop arrived from Lakeview, Oregon for the party. For the present she will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Emiel Koop. The honored couple received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Grace Barnhart went to Lapeer last Friday and visited with Ollie Barnhart. He accompanied them to Flint where they did some shopping.

Roy Tewilliger of Birmingham was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Martha Tewilliger, the first of the week.

The Home Demonstration group met with Mrs. Roy Dancy last Wednesday for an all day meeting. A cooperative dinner was served at noon. Mrs. Fred Appleton and Mrs. Maurice Young were in charge of the lesson on making purses.

WEATHER PROOFING WILL SAVE FUEL

Proper weatherproofing of the home will save much scarce and high-priced fuel this winter. The logical place to start, says Karl D. Bailey, county agricultural agent, is where the saving in heat is greatest for each dollar invested.

As a rule, storm windows and weatherstripping bring the most saving for the money. Storm windows, properly fitted, will reduce the loss of heat through window areas by nearly one-half. Condensation on windows is also reduced.

Clarkston Agent for MICHIGAN MUTUAL LIABILITY CO-PROFIT SHARING AUTOMOBILE, FIRE and Workman's Compensation INSURANCE ROBERT C. BEATTIE Phones: 4381 and 2611

Weatherstripping will provide insulation. Felt stripping is temporary and will have to be replaced frequently, but it is relatively inexpensive. Metal stripping is more permanent, but it is more difficult to install, generally requiring the services of a skilled mechanic.

Insulation of the attic is the next logical step in weatherproofing. If the attic floor is unfinished, this is a very simple task. Several forms of insulation are available that may be placed between the floor joists. If the attic floor is finished and the space is to be used for any purpose, the insulation can be applied between studs and rafters of the unfinished walls and roof.

Of less value, and much more expensive to install, is side-wall insulation. However, if wall spaces are open from sill to plate, insulating material can be forced in without great difficulty. But if braces or fire stops are in place, it is necessary to remove strips of siding at the plate and just below each obstruction to fill the spaces.

COTTONTAIL REPELLENT

The Michigan State college departments of horticulture and zoology have devoted much research to testing coatings that might be applied to trees to repel cottontails. The material so far found to be the simplest to make, easiest to apply and most positive in effect, is a varnish made as follows:

Dissolve a pound of powdered wood resin in 2 1/2 pint of high grade radiator ethyl alcohol. Tightly seal the container to prevent evaporation, place in a moderately warm room, shake the mixture occasionally until resin is dissolved. It is then ready to be applied. One coating applied in a hand sprayer or with a brush is sufficient for the winter. This material is sold in quart and gallon containers by a number of supply houses.

To use with best results, both heads and leaves should be bright green and crisp and parts of the stalk that are hard and tough should be cut off. Wash under running water, drain, and slice lengthwise with slices about one-eighth inch thick. Drop into boiling salted water and let boil gently until tender, 15 to 20 minutes, in an uncovered pan.

The simplest way to serve this vegetable is buttered, but it is excellent covered with Hollandaise sauce or in a casserole with cheese and buttered crumbs. Because of its delicate flavor and color, it may take the place of spinach in cream soup.

Italians, who have eaten broccoli for years, cook it, allow it to cool, and eat it as a salad with French dressing made of olive oil and lemon juice.

Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper week by week.
