There isn't always room for one more

Triplets are an expensive addition to any family. There isn't always room for another in the buggy—or in the budget! And there isn't always room for the extra lamp or appliance you want to have—if your wiring is inadequate. An inadequate wiring system means frequent blown fuses, resetting of circuit breakers and a loss of electricity which you pay for in both money and benefit. Having that recreation room you've always wanted may be a grand idea—that is, until you discover that you can't have lights without a network of "drop cords." And your plan to get Junior's electric train from underfoot by putting it in the attic won't be thwarted if you've modernized your wiring system to meet such needs. Adequate wiring means even distribution of outlets on each circuit, that does away with "overloading" and frequent blown fuses. It means the "full light" of satisfaction in your home.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in the interest of the electrical contractors in your area to insure adequate wiring for every home. When you build or remodel, be sure your home is properly wired.

The Detroit United Presbyterian Bible Institute started last Monday night for a six-week term at the Southfield Church. All young people and Christian workers are urged to attend. Cars leave the local church at 7:00 for any who wish to go. The Victory Clothing Drive will take place during the week Jan 14 through the 21st. Collection center for this area will be the School and the hours are from 8:00 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Donors are urged to write short notes or letters of good will and pin them in the pockets of their gifts. 21 members of the Young People's Fellowship Group were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Barber on Thursday evening, Jan. 10 at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss LeEtta Wilson and Gus Criswell who will be married on Saturday, January 26, at 2:30 in the United Presbyterian church. Games were played and prizes were won by Lucille Hagggee, Betty Wilson, Isabelle Mitchell, and James Sutton. Refreshments were served the latter part of the evening. Sgt. Kenneth Milleur is home on furlough and expects to be discharged Tuesday at Fort Sheridan, Ill. Mrs. Novella Reed Pendergast has been discharged from the Waves and is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reed and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler of 3443 Sherwood drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn, to Donald Langdon of 3130 Warren Drive. Langdon was recently discharged after serving 3 1/2 years in the U. S.

Community Party of Finance committee at 8:30 Friday evening. Don't forget the clothing drive for the needy in Europe. Contributions may be left in containers at east door of club house until January 27. Clothing for all ages is needed. Be generous. Mrs. O. L. Siegman is asking for volunteers to work in the library between 7:00 and 9:00 Monday evenings. Sixteen persons enjoyed 500 on Monday evening. Pinochle will be played next Monday. At the meeting of Community Activities, Inc., permission was granted the youth to decorate the lavatories of the club house and on Monday evening several young people, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Sanford and Donald Weaver, were really doing their part. Twenty two Boy Scouts gathered at the Club House last Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. Carl Putman is still the leader although he has moved to the Commerce Road. The Rotary Club have had new lights put in the front room of the Club House and it is a great improvement. The same group is having new shades put in the room also. Sugar Beet Day, originally scheduled to be held during Farmers' Week at Michigan State College, is to be at Bay City this year on January 24 in the Masonic Temple. The change in location and time was made necessary by the cancellation of Farmers' Week for 1946. Sugar Beet Day each year brings together several hundred sugar beet growers and processors from the beet areas of the state. They gather to exchange ideas and discuss problems of the industry. The meeting is sponsored by Michigan State college and the sugar beet industry. This year's program will feature information on sheared seed research and use, new uses of fertilizer, the labor situation, rotation managements, and new progress in mechanization. Chairmen of the morning and afternoon sessions will be Richard W. Bell and R. E. Decker, of the farm crops department at the college. Speakers will be Bell, R. L. Cook, of the college soil science department; A. B. Love, state supervisor of the emergency farm labor program; J. A. Silpher, extension soil conservationist of Ohio State University, Columbus;

M. C. Henderson, executive secretary of the Beet Growers' Committee Inc.; and P. B. Smith, manager of the Beet Sugar Development Foundation, Fort Collins, Colorado.

Ruth Naomi Hayes, the plaintiff, that the whereabouts of Joseph Ciena Hayes, the defendant, is unknown and it cannot be ascertained in what State or County he resides. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that he appear and answer this bill of complaint filed in this cause within three months from the date of this order, or said bill of complaint will be taken as confessed, and that this order be published as required by law in The Clarkston News, or a copy served upon the defendant in person, or by Registered Mail in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided. IS PUBLIC EDUCATION COLLAPSING?

An exhaustive study by Allen Shoenfield of The Detroit News staff reveals an alarming situation in Michigan. Teachers are leaving, buildings are deteriorating. From one-room schoolhouse to state university, education is being starved by neglect, lack of funds and political scheming. Education is at a crisis. What are you going to do about it? First, read the Shoenfield articles. Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, says: "I think this is the best popular exposition of the school problem I have ever seen in print."

WHY Michigan Bell Goes to Court Again

A year ago, Michigan Bell asked the Ingham Circuit Court for relief from an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission directing us to refund $3,500,000 from 1944 revenues. That court declared the order illegal on the grounds that the Commission has no authority to make a retroactive rate reduction. The issue has been taken to the Michigan Supreme Court on appeal.

On December 13, 1945, the Commission issued another order directing us to refund $7,000,000 from 1944 and 1945 revenues and to reduce rates for 1946 by an amount estimated by the Commission to be $3,500,000. Michigan Bell has now asked the Ingham Circuit Court to restrain the Commission from enforcing this present order.

We went to court BEFORE because of our obligation to protect the service we render the public. For the same reason, we must go to court AGAIN.

We can afford no such reduction in our revenues, and the same conditions apply to the refund provisions of the new order as in the 1944 order, previously held illegal.

Each utility, the same as each different business, has its own individual problems. During the war, we gained a large number of telephones, although restrictions prevented expansion of facilities to meet ordinary civilian needs. We still are far behind the demand for service.

We are shy $50,000,000 of investment in facilities needed to serve today's business the way it should be served. This plant already would have been built had it not been for the war. Now it must be built. But as we add these new investment dollars, with no additional revenues from the increased investment, our rate of earnings will go even lower than the inadequate level to which it already has fallen.

Michigan Bell's earnings today are a lot lower than those of most industries. Our wartime earnings were the lowest in history except during the depression. Now and in the future, savings from lower taxes will be more than offset by the increased costs of doing business. Our basic wage rates, for example, are up more than 10 per cent since a year ago and the national pattern of further wage increases is still a matter of debate. Other costs are climbing higher every day.

Unless conditions not now foreseeable improve the situation, the Commission's order would reduce our earnings to the point of impaired credit, which, if continued too long, would result in insolvency.

When the financial standing of a public service institution is impaired, rate increases are necessary or the service slips. Earnings must be fair over the years or good telephone service cannot be maintained.

If refunds and a rate reduction cut our earnings further, it will tend to discourage folks from investing their money in the telephone business. And we'll be needing more investment money from now on to expand and improve telephone service in keeping with the high standards you want.

Michigan Bell's objective is to furnish the best possible service at the lowest possible cost. Since 1936, the last time the Company challenged a reduction in exchange rates, there have been numerous rate cuts, representing a total savings of some $7,700,000 a year on the basis of present usage.

Looking toward the widest possible use of the service, we expect and want our rates to come down as rapidly as technical improvements will permit. Such improvements in the past have kept telephone rates down in the face of rising costs. But today, increased costs are coming so rapidly that improvements in the telephone art cannot keep pace in offsetting them. We simply cannot afford another rate cut at this time.

What it all adds up to is this — Michigan Bell is not in court seeking increased rates or large profits. The Company is in court AGAIN to contest an order which is contrary to present economic conditions and which cannot be carried out at this time without jeopardizing the future quality of your telephone service.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

ART: "Saw you at the movies last night, Judge. That was quite a weekend that alcoholic went through, wasn't it?"
OLD JUDGE: "Sure was, but I'm afraid most people won't really understand it."
ART: "What do you mean, Judge?"
OLD JUDGE: "Simply this. That poor chap was really a sick man...not just a drunk. Studies by famous psychiatrists and the medical profession show that alcoholism is not caused by a craving for alcohol...it is usually the result of some deep-rooted social, physical or emotional condition. If that fellow had not turned to alcohol for escape, he would have turned to something else."
ART: "Are there many that get in that condition, Judge?"
OLD JUDGE: "Fortunately not. As scientists at a great university have stated that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% are immoderate at times. In that 5% is the small number known as alcoholics. And the beverage distilling industry which does not want a single person to use its product immoderately, is cooperating fully in the solution of this problem."

ANNUAL REPORT OF WATERFORD TOWNSHIP FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Waterford Township Fire Department reports 143 alarms for Waterford township, and east part of White Lake township, and a total of fire loss amounting to $74,640.00 with the valuation of threatened property of $420,700.00 for Waterford township and part of White Lake Township, or a percentage of approximately 20 percent loss for the year.

Six of the alarms were false; 55 residences; 11 business places, 9 car and truck; 3 house trailers; 7 garages and 52 grass fires.

The department gave assistance to outside departments 3 times during the year, and since the purchase of an inhalator in December, and has made one call with it.

Truck No. 1 made 140 of the alarms, and the tankers responded to 28 including 3 separate runs, with the average distance in mileage to a fire of 4 miles per run.

The department laid 2700 feet of 2 1/2 inch hose, 3300 feet of 1 1/2 inch hose, used booster lines on 34 fires, extinguished small fires 59 times with water extinguishers.

The largest loss in the year occurred at Blain Island, to the summer home of Dr. Alex Blain, which was destroyed at a loss of approximately $16,000.

The other large loss occurred in November when 2 semi-trailers burned at the viaduct on Telegraph road, with a loss of $14,000 and one man seriously injured at

Conservation News

Nine trapper instructors in both the lower and the upper peninsula have demonstrated the best methods of eliminating redators before 24,469 persons in recent months.

Persons instructed, sometimes with aid of conservation department's trappers, have accounted for 726 predatory animals and birds in the five-month period, July through November.

The department reports that general reaction to its expanded predator control program has been favorable. Six additional instructors, three in the upper peninsula and three in northern counties of the lower peninsula, were assigned last July when $45,000 was made available by the 1945 legislature to finance such activity for a year. Instructors investigated 363 damage complaints and demonstrated effective methods of predator control at fairs and sportsmen's exhibits.

Specialized Farm Carries More Risk

Whether to diversify or specialize is a question troubling many Michigan farmers during the early months of reconversion. Wartime farm prices and conditions have caused shifts in farm enterprises that are in many cases calling for readjustment.

John C. Doneth, extension specialist in farm management at Michigan State college, has something to say both in favor and against specialization. At any rate, he sees every farm as an individual problem with any decision resting upon circumstances surrounding that farm.

With many a farmer the deciding factor may be whether he has the capital to withstand a heavy financial setback. It is generally agreed that financial risks are greater on a specialized farm. For example, a farmer may decide to set aside most of his farming enterprises in favor of poultry. He may do well for several years, then a disease may strike or market conditions become unfavorable. Chances are great that a large economic loss will be suffered.

Specialization has advantages on many farms where one enterprise can be carried on at a much wider margin of profit because of favorable conditions, such as nearness of a good market, or peculiar soil or weather. A farmer may live in an area where he can sell dairy or poultry products to a market at some premium. Or because of certain soil conditions, one crop may bring excess yields as compared to others.

But for most farms, the chances for steadier and perhaps a little higher returns year after year come from a variety of enterprises. In general farming areas of Michigan, a diversified business, with at least four or five sources of income, provides a financial cushion over a period of years. As a general rule a diversified farm can be managed to more easily preserve soil fertility and spread labor out over a full year.

Experiments prove that meat, if roasted in an uncovered roaster at a low temperature, about 260 degrees, F., is juicier, more tender and shows much less shrinkage than when higher temperatures are used. Roasts should be cleaned with a damp cloth and placed on a rack in the roaster, fat side up. If the piece can rest on the bone ends, a rack is not needed. No water should be added. Very lean meat should have a strip of fat placed over the top. Roasts brown better if unsalted, and since salt does not penetrate far into the roast, there is little advantage in salting before the meat is sliced.

Steaks should be placed in a sizzling hot frying pan, seared quickly on both sides and then cooked more slowly. Pork and veal chops should be browned and then covered and cooked slowly. Bacon should be placed in a cold pan and turned frequently.

Michigan has 11,000 lakes, 5,000 miles of rivers, and 2,000 miles of Great Lakes coastlines.
