Clothing Drive Nets 2000 Garments

The people in this district responded generously to the call for clothing for the needy in the far away countries. 2000 garments, including shoes, rubbers and galoshes, were packed and shipped the light of this week. It was a big job but one that was well worth while. The local O. E. S. narter spon o.e. the drive here n, they are very grateful to those who donated and those who helped do the collecting and the packing. Mrs. George Perry was the teneral chairman and she says the cooperation she received was wonderful.

These who helped with the collecting included Wirs Robert Jones, Mrs. Howard Johnson, Mrs. Glenn Boner, Mrs. Perry and Carl Brablec. Some of the high school boys were kind enough to take the articles collected at the school to the Masonic Temple where the packing was done. L. C. (Slin) Megee aided with a few of the mailing details.

On Monday a group gathered at the temple and packed the boxes Many of the articles had little friendly notes attached to them. Ronald Walter and Earl Terry provided the large boxes. Those who packed were Mrs. Elmer Go-ing, Mrs. Robert Jones, Ars Howard Johnson, Mrs. Glem Boner, Mrs. George Perry, Mrs. Sam Carson, Mrs. Otto Kern and Mrs. Kate Craft. Trucks came out from Pontiac and transported the load to Detroit for shipment to the coast. Ray C. Ainsley acted as chairman of the loading committee and was able to get the help of Arnold Mann, Lou Terry Stan Radoye and S. C. Guernee.

Rotary Club News

At the Clarkston Rotary Club meeting on Monday night Frank F. Rand of Pontiac was the guest speaker. Mr. Rand made his talk interesting by showing colored slides. He described prospecting for precious metals in the Labrador district. He told of the customs of the people and the wonderful work done by Dr. Grenfell in that northern peninsula. Mr. Rand had with him the snow shoes he used when in Labrador, the high boots made by the natives, and several sealskins. His very fine talk, the beautiful pictures and the interesting exhibits made a grand evening for the Rotarians.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club, George H. Kimball, Jr., introduced Neal Averill, publisher of The Birmingham Eccentric, who talked on the subject "What talked on the subject the Community Club Makes the Community Club Click." Mr. Averill pointed out and increased urban living, both adults and teen-agers about whom everyone seems concerned right now, find fewer and fewer opportunities for physical and emotional expression and security. According to Mr. Averill, the Community Club of Birmingham which was started in 1922, has grown and progressed so successfully that they are now able to employ a paid supervisor and furnish to the community all kinds of social and welfare services and by the installation of a rustic soda bar have been able to bring the teen agers off the streets to enjoy more wholesome recreation in their owr club rooms. Mr. Averill concluded his talk by telling about the Thursday evening family dinners which are so popular that they are able to care for only those who make appointments. He complimented the women and others for the great progress the Community Activities had made in so short

Among the guests were James Covert and Everett Russell, Pontiac Rotarians, Rev. Philip A. Jordan, Ray Pendergrass, U. Navy, and Hardy L. Terrien and Robert Beattie, Clarkston Rotar-

During the third quarter Clarkston nut on a drive which netted them 18 points and gave them a 10 point lead at the end of the quarter. In the fourth quarter Clarkston became negligent and repeatedly lost the ball to Keego. Keego capitalized on these opson, sister of the bride, was portunities to score 12 points and gowned in baby blue. Her dress holding Clarkston scoreless. This game apparently should have been won by Clarkston. Failure to keep possesion of the ball in the last quarter lost the game.

The Clarkston reserves were defeated 49 to 26. Although badly outscored, they were not badly outplayed. Keego used a couple of giants to stand under the basket to keep shooting until the ball would finally fall in Our boys had no chance of taking the ball away from these better than sixfooters.

This Friday Clarkston travels to Walled Lake to play a team which is tied for the League championship.

SHORT CALLS HELP EVERYONE GET

BETTER RURAL LINE

IF YOU'LL remember to keep every call short these days, you'll enable your rural party line telephone neighbors to get their calls through, too.

When you have finished talking, please hang up the receiver carefully. One receiver off the hook can tie up a whole line. And please avoid listening in or interrupting when the line is in use.

helps everybody to get better service, especially now when most rural lines are serving more telephones.

This kind of friendly co-operation

More lines and more switching equipment will be added as fast as conditions permit. This will enable us to care for those who are waiting for telephones, and reduce the number of telephones per line.

Introducing

Edwin Lamberton-the new manager of our quick service department. Ed is well known to many people in this vicinity having lived here for many years. Before the war Ed worked on final repair and inspection at the Yellow Cab. During the early days of the war, he doubled his efforts working part time at our garage in Clarkston in addition to his regular duties.

Then Ed enlisted in the Seabees and saw duty in the invasion of Ie Shima. Ed worked in the Motor Pool the major part of his stay in the armed forces. Ed is experienced and capable of giving your car the service it deserves. Working with him in this department are Emanuel St., Pontiac, Mich Geiger, former Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps-the man who shot down the last German plane of the war; Harold Whipple, who has been in this department since 1941 and Avery Stoltenberg, a resident of Waterford.
