By The Way

People love to be fooled. They enjoy watching a magician fool them. They do, I believe, enjoy watching politicians fool them. Personally the one trick most used is getting threadbare. This is the one called "State Aid" for schools. Of course we know who furnishes State Aid—you and I. But why do we keep fooling ourselves that it is the other fellow who pays? The gasoline tax was to build good roads—not State Aid. The sales tax was to get Michigan out of debt—not State Aid. We want good schools. We should want well paid teachers. We should want a school tax to help on this and we would save money to have such a tax and to quit fooling ourselves call it a school tax. Instead of this we are fooling ourselves and keeping a large gasoline tax, a large sales tax, and we may soon have another tax, and when we try to kill off or cut one of these taxes we find that a small part goes to State Aid for schools and we must keep on paying. If the above means anything to you think it over before you vote on Amendment Number 2, at the coming election.

Next week the Clarkston News goes "on the beam" with the modern of the modern—plastic type. Advertising agencies have found that the new type is light enough to mail inexpensively, saves on metal and can be thrown away after using. It's a great world—if you can keep up with it.

While I doubt if my activities will ever include building a bowling alley, I did invest a half hour this week watching the builders install the alleys for Howe's Lanes. Incidentally Les has quit biting his finger nails and is looking for pin boys. The yellow sign on the home is not advertising some contagious fever but is, in compliance with the federal law, a notice that we have the right to build. The time is approaching for humans and birds to start south for the winter. Personally I could take some of that Florida sunshine myself and perhaps I could go if I could build a nest in the trees like the birds and save traveling expenses by flying on wings. To most of us this is a grand time to be in Michigan.

And to the pheasant hunters the best time of the year is here. Quite a few birds have been shot by hunters in this section. Charles Beach is busy installing a grease rack so he can grease autos at his station at M-15 and the Dixie. Right or wrong, according to how you vote, the OPA says we can have meat, if we have the money. But we really believe that after a brief period the price will be about what the public can or will pay. Death and taxes are certain and the worst of it is that the taxes come first.

Food Parcels For Europe's Needy Reduced in Price

In order to speed delivery of food packages to the undernourished people of Europe, Lt. General William N. Haskell, executive director of CARE, Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc., today announced a price reduction of one-third in the sale of these former Army 10-in-1 rations for consumption abroad.

Effective October 1st, the price will drop from $15 to $10 for the purchase of a food parcel containing 40,000 calories, or enough food to supplement for two weeks the present rations of a European family of four.

Recently returned from a food inspection visit to Europe, General Haskell said that widespread malnutrition in most countries, resulting from years of war and hunger, makes added food help from America a continuing necessity for some time to come.

"And," he added, "it is to make it possible for more Americans to send personal food packages to their friends and relatives and other needy people in Europe, that we have lowered the price of the CARE packages by one-third."

Best Buy for Your Dollar Today is Payment of Debts

Your best buy for a dollar today is payment of debt.

That's the conclusion reached by Clare Becker, farm management specialist at Michigan State College, after studying how the Michigan farmer should make his best investment.

He arrives at his conclusions in this way.

Back in 1932 it took 303 bushels of corn to pay off $100 in debts. From 1935 to 1939 it took 145 bushels, on the average, to pay that amount. In 1945, only 87 bushels of corn would bring $100. In July, 1946, it took but 52 bushels of corn to pay $100 in debts.

In other words, Becker declares, a dollar does not go far in buying things today. But in paying debts, a dollar is still a dollar.

As another comparison, it took 2.5 beef cattle weighing 1,000 lbs. to pay off a $100 debt in 1932. In the period from 1935 to 1939, it took only 1.5 cattle of the same weight. But in July of 1946 the $100 debt could be paid with 6 of one beef animal.

Rehabilitation Work for the Handicapped Is Project Feature

A rehabilitation project for the blind and other physically handicapped of the county will be held in Pontiac Oct. 21-25, Hope G. Scott, executive secretary of the Oakland County Chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children, announced today.

Joining with the Oakland County chapter in sponsoring the undertaking, is the Pontiac League of the Blind, Miss Hettie Taylor, Bureau of Social Aid, special worker for the blind, is assisting with the arrangements.

Object of the five-day sessions is to help all physically handicapped persons of the county become more self-sustaining by direct consultations with them about the type of work or occupation for which they are best suited. The Society will then try to place these persons in that field or provide them with necessary equipment, such as looms, tools, etc.

Janet Patterson, occupational therapist from the Michigan Society for Crippled Children, Mrs. Stella Manner, supervisor of home industry, Michigan State Dept. of Social Welfare, Divisional Service for the Blind, Lansing, and other instructors will be on hand during the week to consult each day with the handicapped. Sessions will begin at 9 o'clock.

All handicapped of the county whether or not they are members of the Society or the Pontiac League of the Blind, are urged to take advantage of this opportunity. There is no fee of any kind.

Articles made by the handicapped will be displayed in a sales room recently opened to the public at 152 W. Lawrence St.

Nutrition Expert To Appear in Pontiac

Mrs. L. L. Northrup, Birmingham, nutrition chairman of the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, announces that Miss Jeanette Goldthorpe, nutrition field representative from the Midwestern Area office at St. Louis will spend three days next week conferring with chapter and public health officials regarding nutrition needs in Oakland County.

The American Red Cross, through its local chapters extends nutrition service to local communities. Because of the importance of diet to health and well being, the American Red Cross has developed a program in nutrition education to present some of the ill health caused by malnutrition. Every survey of diets in the past ten years has shown that the diets of individuals in the United States do not contain enough of the essential elements. Many diets are inadequate in amounts, but many more are inadequate in specific food nutrients essential to good health. During Miss Goldthorpe's visit a special meeting will be held with Dr. R. G. Tuck, director of Royal Oak district Oakland County Health Department, and representatives of the Visiting Nurse Association, to discuss special nutrition needs in Southern Oakland County.

Scientist Church Dedicated at Oxford

Dedication services were held in First Church of Christ, Scientist of Oxford, Michigan on Sunday, October 13 at 10:30 in the morning and at 3:30 in the afternoon.

The following historical sketch of the church was read:

Christian Science was brought to Oxford in 1887. During the years that followed, there were a number of healings, which led to the informal reading of the lesson in the home of a student.

In May, 1901 a Christian Science Society was formed, and regular services were held in the Wertz Building and in Loyal Guard Hall.

Under the auspices of this Society the first lecture was given Sunday afternoon, July 27, 1902, in the Opera House, where the mayor of Oxford introduced the lecturer.

On June 3, 1903, a group of 14 Christian Scientists, living in Oxford, Ortonville, Hunter's Creek, Thomas and Metamora, met to organize First Church of Christ, Scientist of Oxford, Michigan which was incorporated under the laws of our state in the same year. At that time services were held in the Christian Church on West Burdick Street; later rooms in the Green Building served for both church services and Reading Room, until 1910.

After buying a lot on South Washington in June 1909, with a view to building, the members decided to purchase the adjoining house and lot. The house was remodeled; and less than three months after the acquisition of the property, on October 23, 1910 the little church was dedicated.

In 1931 the members voted to build a new church at the same location. The house was moved, and the present edifice was begun. At 6 o'clock on the morning of May 7, 1931 the cornerstone was laid, and on the second Sunday of the following August, a morning and an evening service were held to mark the completion of the new building.

Reconversion—Cheese to Bacon

Disposition was made recently of a total of 8,140 pounds of Italian cheese seized by dairy inspectors, says Director Charles Figg. It was sold to the Kalamazoo State Hospital farm unit where it will be used to be mixed with other ingredients and fed to the swine herd which at this institution totals 588 pigs of various ages.

The cheese was ordered seized by the Justice Court because it was unfit for human food. Inspection reports and tests disclosed it was manufactured from dirty milk, in a dirty plant with dirty equipment, and was then placed in unsanitary storage. Other lots of cheese from this same plant were seized by the Federal Food and Drug Administration after it had passed in inter-state commerce.

The Bravo Cheese Company located in Allegan County and manufacturers of the seized cheese, has been closed by the department inspectors and is now out of business, says Figg.

VETS IN SCHOOL MUST FOLLOW REGULATIONS

Veterans attending educational institutions under provisions of the G. I. Bill must comply with the regularly prescribed standards and practices of the institutions during their period of enrollment, was the advice of VA officials at the Columbus Branch Office for Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky.

Government-paid tuition to an educational institution does not place a veteran in a "special privilege" status, nor does it constitute a ticket on the so-called " gravy train", VA officials said. Student veterans must abide by all of the rules and regulations, and of course, maintain satisfactory academic marks. Willful misconduct or unsatisfactory progress are grounds for withdrawal of subsistence and tuition payments.

State Has Pheasants For 30 Years Now

Thirty years ago this October the public domain commissioner, predecessor of the conservation department, took the decisive step that led to establishing the pheasant in Michigan. On the advice of E. A. Quarles and Harry T. Rogers, experts from New York, the commission on October 26, 1916, authorized purchase and equipping of a state game farm near Mason.

Prophetically, Quarles and Rogers declared the country they had seen while inspecting proposed game farm sites in Michigan was "almost without exception splendidly adapted to the ringneck pheasant." Private releases had been made sporadically in Michigan since 1895, but not until the game farm got into consistent quantity production was the pheasant established in all suitable covers in numbers sufficient to provide good shooting.

Pheasant production at the state game farm reached a peak of 42,300 eggs and 3,800 birds in 1919. Production was continued on a reduced scale when pheasants were well established, mostly for its educational value among sportsmen's and junior sportsmen's clubs, and as a reserve supply source for restocking depleted areas hard hit by such calamities as the cold wet weather of the 1945 nesting season.

Production is up this year again, and may total as much as 10,000 eggs and 10,000 birds, with Michigan State Prison cooperating in rearing them.

Pheasant hunting has been legal in Michigan since 1925, and so popular has the bird become with hunters in the southern—and most heavily populated—third of the state that a season like 1945's, when only a million birds are bagged, is now considered "poor".

Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club News

At Tuesday's meeting of the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club Bob Beattie and Norman Roth gave a short report on the recent meeting held at Dearborn Inn for the Rotary International Past Presidents. Bill Jacober gave a brief sketch of deer hunting conditions in the north. President William Shuck explained proposal No. 2 to be voted on in the November election.

Among the guests were J. Harry Strang, Harold L. Howe, Ronald Walter and Robert Gaff Jr.

Personal Counseling Becoming Important

Personal counseling is more than a schoolroom technique, and in Michigan it is being increasingly used by industry, organized labor, church and state, Harlan C. Koch, professor of education at the University of Michigan, has declared.

"The field of personal guidance is rapidly growing, and its usefulness is being recognized in industry as well as in education," Prof. Koch explains. "Personal counseling to solve human problems makes better workers, better citizens, better church members."

Prof. Koch cited the work of veterans organizations and declared that "Michigan leads the states in being organized to aid the returning veterans". Similarly, the schools employ "visiting teachers" who help work out home problems which may make school attendance difficult or impossible for some children.

"Industry has awakened to the fact that man is more than a machine, and that social engineering may be as important as technical progress", Prof. Koch asserted. "Likewise the labor unions have started training counselors to work with individual members, though this has nothing to do with the normal grievance machinery of the unions."

Although it is evident on every hand that the need for counselors has grown, trained personnel is still scarce, the Michigan professor says. Counselors need more than "school training", he added; they need actual work experience in industry or labor.

Clarkston P.T.A. Meets at School

The regular monthly meeting of the Clarkston Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school auditorium on Wednesday night with about fifty in attendance. Mrs. Russell Colston, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Willard Wells was elected as secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. D. B. Mortimore. Mrs. Howard Johnson read the minutes of the previous meeting. Wallace Ridgley read the budget for the year which was later accepted by the group. After other items of business were discussed, Carl Brable, school superintendent, spoke briefly about the tax diversion amendment which will be on the ballot at the election on Nov. 5. He also said a few words about visual education.

Howard Wolfe, special representative for Bell and Howell Co., educational dealers for the Jam Handy organization, exhibited a slide film projector which used a 35 mm. project film or a 2x2 slide. He showed several films which could be used in the classrooms and explained that films on most any subject could be obtained.

Following the showing of the slide films a couple of movies were shown, one very appropriate for this season showed the hunter and his dogs roaming through the woods and really getting the pheasants. Of course the pictures were taken in South Dakota and therefore didn't discourage any of the Michigan hunters who happened to be in the audience.

To vary the program David Leak was called upon to play a couple of piano solos which he did very capably. Square dancing and refreshments closed a very pleasant evening. The refreshment table decorations were rather unique with large honeysuckle branches in a copper container, eight lighted candles in a candle mold, apples and Hallowe'en table napkins. Mrs. Gray Robertson and Mrs. Gerald O'Dell poured.

Thanks for the Trees

The trees that line our village street

Are flower pots of mammoth size, Each traveler, they seem to greet With beauty, for his tired eyes.

We who live so close to these, Don't know the blessings that are ours. We take for granted sturdy trees, Arrayed in fall, like giant flowers.

The folks, who on a desert live, Without the blessings of our trees, Vast portions of their wealth would give

To see our multi-colored leaves. One's blessings oft-times are so near,

We pass them by with little heed, And take for granted they are here As just a part of lives we lead.

How thankful we should be, we're blessed With nature's beauty all around. In gorgeous raiment trees are dressed, That line the street in our home town.

182 ATTEND RALLY DAY SERVICES

One hundred eighty two attended the Rally Day service of the Community Sunday school last Sunday. The program included contributions from each class of the Sunday School. David Mehlberg led the singing.

The church services which followed the Rally Day service were well attended and much enjoyed. The Rev. P. H. Kadey of Flint gave the morning address. Ninety-five persons enjoyed the fellowship dinner at noon. The Rev. Walter Ballagh gave the afternoon talk and there was special music by Nelson Kring and Helen Lougheed. The Rev. R. M. Traver gave the afternoon prayer and a short greeting. Letters were read from several former pastors and workers of the church who were unable to attend. There was a Friendship Tea at 5:00. A fine program of gospel music was presented by the choir, under the direction of Rev. VanPlew with Mrs. Cameron Coventry at the piano, at 7:00. The Rev. Nelson Kring gave the Scripture reading.

Mrs. Mahlon France recently returned home from the hospital where she was having eye trouble corrected.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlutow are spending a few days at Saginaw with relatives and are doing a little bird hunting.

Mrs. J. W. Jacobus is assistant dean of women at the Philadelphia School of the Bible. Her address is 1721 Spring Garden St., Philadelphia 30, Pa.

Over 300 persons attended the dance last Saturday evening. . . . Come over this week and join in the good time.

Don't forget the second anniversary service of Christ Lutheran Church on Sunday. Refreshments will be served by the Guild after the evening service.

There are just forty loans yet to be paid. The group voted to sponsor a bowling team to bowl at the new Howe's Alleys on M-10 near the M-15 intersection.

Twenty choir members of Christ Lutheran Church attended the monthly business meeting at the Community Activities Building Thursday evening after rehearsal. Plans were made to have a program by the choir just before the Christmas Eve candle-

HUNTING

Last Tuesday quite a number of ninnies were missing from school. For the past two weeks Mr. Bonner, Mr. Thayer and Mr. Brablec have been coaching them on what to do and what not to do with a gun while out in quest for game. Protected by this instruction many would-be deer-slayers took advantage of the school ruling that if your work is made up you may be excused to stalk game. Carrying their guns correctly and observing safety precautions in the woods, they have gone to bag their quota.

ESSAYS

Monday, October 28, will be a red letter day in Clarkston High School. On that day essays on the subject "The Value of Credit" will be judged. This contest is sponsored by the local Rotary Club which will award $50 in prizes to students in the four highest English classes. The grand prize of $10 will be presented to the person who writes the best essay. Besides this a first prize of $5 and a second prize of $2.50 will be given to each of the four classes.

Last Monday the four classes met in the gym to see a movie entitled "The History of Credit" to give them a background for their stories. Mr. Brablec explained the rules of the contest at this time.

ASSEMBLY

He'll pull rabbits out of a hat! He'll saw a woman in half! He'll make things disappear! You won't be safe from rope tricks for weeks afterward. The news has leaked out that Tuesday, October 22, Stanley the Magician will entertain the Clarkston School.

DANCE

The Girls' Athletic Association is sponsoring the dance at school tonight and with their usual pep and vigor have tackled the problem at its source. The dance is to be a Sadie Hawkins affair. To all unsuspecting males who don't follow the lead of Abner in the funnies, Sadie Hawkins Day is the time when any boy caught by a girl must dance with her. With the Community House Band supplying the music, the G.A.A. expects to have square dancing as well as regular ballroom style. The dance is tonight at nine. Marilyn Kennedy is in charge with the help, of course, of Miss Margaret Beck, the G. A. A. sponsor.

4-H

The County 4-H Clubs will hold an Achievement Day at Clarkston in the gym of the school Wednesday, October 30. With Miss Mary J. E. Woodward in charge of the girls' exhibits and Mr. Lyn Lewis supervising the boys' displays, the 4-H'ers will show what they have done during the past year.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

A week ago Clarkston teachers participated in the regional teachers' institute quite actively. Mrs. Ruth Vliet presented "Spelling in the Elementary Program" to the elementary group in the auditorium of the WWJ studio in Detroit. Miss Mary Campbell led a discussion of problems in teaching Latin at the Latin section meeting and was elected chairman of the Classical Section for 1948.

FOOTBALL

Today the Clarkston Wolves journeyed up to Fraser to meet that undefeated team on its home grounds. This is the first time Clarkston has played Fraser, since we were now in a new league. No predictions were made by members of the team on the outcome of the game.

PAPER PICK UP

Paper will be picked up Wednesday, October 23 at 3 p. m. instead of the 19th as announced earlier. It was impossible to secure adequate help on the first Saturday in the hunting season. Rotarians will assist in the paper drive. Have your paper ready on Wednesday.

HALLOWEEN

With financial support from the Rotary Club, the student council is planning a bang-up Halloween entertainment for the school. The party will be held Thursday, October 31. More details will be forthcoming.

CRAFTSMAN'S GUILD RENEWS MODEL CONTEST

A chance to win cash awards and university scholarships is being offered again this year by the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild to boys who build the best model automobiles or model Napoleonic coaches.

To be eligible a boy must be not less than 12 years old as of Sept. 1, 1946, nor more than 19 years old as of the same date. Boys from 12 through 15 will compete in the junior division while the seniors will be composed of boys from 16 through 19.

Boys who enroll in the 1947 Craftsman's Guild competition will compete for eight university scholarships and 1,176 cash awards aggregating $85,000. They may design and build a model car, or construct a miniature Napoleonic coach. In the car competition there are 588 cash awards and four scholarships, two being $4,000 each and two $2,000 ones. For the coach builders there will be 588 cash awards and four scholarships, two being $5,000 each and two of $3,000 each.

In all cases the scholarships will be awarded to any university the winners may select. In any case where the son of a General Motors employe is judged to be a winner, a duplicate award will be made.

In the 1946 competition which ended last summer, nine university scholarships were given because two of the model cars entered were so nearly equal in beautiful design and construction that duplicate awards were made. To enroll in the competitions write to Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, General Motors Bldg., Detroit 2, Michigan.

Incorrect Address Slows Up VA Checks

Veterans, their dependents and beneficiaries who are in receipt of monetary benefits from the Veterans Administration must notify VA immediately upon changing their legal mailing address, it was emphasized at the VA's office.

Failure to provide VA with notice of change of address may result in an indefinite delay in the delivery of checks for subsistence allowances, insurance benefits and disability and death compensation. In recent weeks approximately 1200 checks could not be delivered in Michigan, the result of incorrect addresses.

VA said it is powerless to assure prompt delivery of checks when changes of address are not reported. Under the law, federal checks cannot be forwarded from an old address to a new address. Forms for "Request for Change of Address" are available at all VA offices. Notification of change of residence also may be made directly in writing to the Veterans Administration office in the area in which the beneficiary resides.

cows may be obtained and by Nov. 1 it is expected that service will be available for Guernsey cattle. About 275 Holstein and 70 Guernsey cattle are contracted for service at present.

Heshlip of Northville was chosen president and delegate to the central association at Michigan State College, George Campbell of Walled Lake, vice president; Mrs. H. L. EASY ON THE EYES...

MODERN schoolroom lighting is carefully planned to provide the best possible aid to study. Every effort is made to keep that lighting at top efficiency, because educators know that good marks and good eyesight depend on it.

But lighting at home is not always so easy on young eyes. A light may glare because the bulb is too large or because it's improperly shaded. Your child may not complain, because he's grown accustomed to it—but that deceptive glare can tire his eyes and brain, give him B's where he should get A's. It may even cause headaches or harmful eyestrain.

There's no difference between the electricity in your son's school and that in his home. No difference in the quantity used. As far as the quality of lighting goes—well, that's up to you. And the safest way to really know that your youngster's homework is easy on the eyes is to arrange for an Edison Home Service Advisor to call on you and check your lamps and fixtures. She can do this in a very few minutes . . . if necessary, show how you can bring your lighting up to schoolroom standards. There's no charge for her visit—no obligation to you. And it's a real "ounce of protection" for your family's eyesight!

FOUR WAYS TO GET THE MOST FROM YOUR LIGHTS

1 Dust steals light. Keep bulbs, shades and reflector bowls clean.

2 Replace dark-colored shades with light shades with white lining. Flaring sides are better than straight-sided ones.

3 Use correct-sized lamp bulbs and shades. Too large a size may cause fatiguing glare. An Edison Lamp Exchange Serviceman will be glad to replace your burned-out bulbs.

4 Have your lamps and fixtures scientifically tested for quantity and quality of illumination. Your Home Service Advisor does this with a light-meter.

State Officials To Travel by Plane

Officials who take over the State government on Jan. 1 will have modern means of transportation at their disposal. The State Board of Aeronautics this week announced the purchase of a $65,000 six-place Beechcraft airplane for $26,000 from War Assets Administration.

The plane, now being reconditioned, will be delivered in 60 days, State Budget Director Fred C. Striffler said.

State officials and members of commissions and boards will use the plane to meet anywhere in the state with a minimum loss of time, Striffler said.

"It's really inexpensive to travel by air," he said. "We find that if a five or six-man commission decides to meet in the Upper Peninsula, it costs less if they travel by air."

The minimum cost of using the plane by state officials will be $18, although a rate schedule has not yet been set up. Present state-owned planes cost department heads and other officials from 6 to 20 cents a mile for travel.

the 1943 acreage and a third more than the 78,000 acres harvested last year. In 1942 there were 112,000 acres harvested.

Fear of labor shortage was primarily responsible for the acreage drop during the war years. The development of "single-germ" seed and the invention of new planting and harvesting machinery all resulted in a decrease of hand labor. This helped bring about increased acreage.

Bell says that considering the relatively dry growing season in sugar beet growing areas, the acreage yields are expected to exceed those of recent years. The average may exceed nine tons to the acre for which the farmer receives approximately $14.50 per ton for 16 percent sugar content beets. The total returns to farmers from the 1946 crop may equal $14,000,000.

MEMORIAL TREE FOR WORLD WAR II HEROES

A memorial tree planting on M-99 at Litchfield in Hillsdale county to commemorate the men of that county who gave their lives in the armed forces of the nation during World War II, was accepted September 8 by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler in behalf of the State Highway Department. The planting was arranged and carried out by the Litchfield Garden Club. Mrs. Jessie Bowersox is president and was the prime mover in the work. The memorial will be maintained by the Highway Department and will become a part of the trunk-line system.

Schools and Colleges Get First Choice of Surplus Equipment

Schools and colleges of Michigan are to be given first call at bargain prices on all surplus machine tools and laboratory and classroom equipment for use in training veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights, according to a joint announcement by the War Assets Administration and the Bureau of Community Facilities of the Federal Works Agency.

WAA, acting under a directive from the Civilian Production Administration, will slash through the priority system to award eligible institutions access to instructional equipment over all other buyers, except holders of CPA urgency or housing expeditor certificates.

Recognizing the emergency problems arising from the unprecedented enrollment of veteran students in schools throughout the nation, WAA will sell this equipment to eligible buyers at a fraction of original cost—five percent of the fair value plus shipping charges.

This is the largest nominal pricing venture WAA has entered to date. The following broad categories of equipment are to be sold under this program: electrical machinery and apparatus; wood-working machinery and equipment; metal working machinery; business education equipment; heating equipment; communication equipment and electronic devices; furniture for office, school, auditorium and factory; optical instruments and apparatus; indicating, recording and controlling instruments and accessories; professional and scientific instruments; engineering instruments and apparatus.

While all the property listed will be made available promptly to educational institutions, WAA officials pointed out that in some categories such as scientific instruments, laboratory ware and business education machines surplus inventories are so low that there might not be enough to go around.

Schools and other educational institutions interested are being told that they should send their applications to the Federal Works Agency, Bureau of Community Facilities, Room 1506, 20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago 6, Illinois. The Detroit regional office of WAA can accept only those orders which are received through FWA.

DDT SCORES AGAIN

DDT has become an almost universal "bug killer" since its release by the army for civilian use about a year ago. According to Prof. E. I. McDaniel of the department of entomology at Michigan State College, it has proved itself effective on head lice.

A 5 or 10 per cent DDT powder, diluted one-half with bran, oatmeal, talc or some other non-irritating carrier can be applied to the scalp. The head should then be covered for 15 to 30 minutes with a cloth and the powder carefully brushed out of the hair. It may be necessary to repeat in 10 days to get the new crop of lice.

War Assets Administration will sell 13,500,000 square feet of airplane landing mats to farmers for use in building temporary corn storage cribs.

LEARN TO DIAL BY EAR

1. Pick up the receiver and listen before starting to dial.
2. If the dial tone is delayed, wait until you hear that steady hum-m-m.
3. When you hear the dial tone, dial the number carefully.

THAT dial tone is mighty important. It means that the switching equipment in the telephone central office is ready to handle your call. If you dial before you hear it, you'll get a wrong number or no number at all.

Right now there are times when the dial tone is delayed. That's because central office facilities are serving more telephones and handling more calls than ever before... even more than during the busiest war years. And material shortages prevent us adding equipment as fast as we'd like.

But this situation is only temporary. We will restore service to normal as quickly as enough dial equipment can be provided.

Meantime, please remember to listen for the dial tone before you dial.

THE STRAN-STEEL "Quonset 24"

All-steel, quickly erected, low in cost, the "Quonset 24" is a better building investment for your farm. Its amazing flexibility permits a free hand in planning for your particular needs.

The spacious, clear-span "Quonset 24" is 24 feet wide, and as long as you want it, in sections of 12 feet. The front of each section can be independently enclosed, left open, or equipped with a roller door; side panels may be solid, or fitted with walk-doors and windows as required. Scores of variations and combinations are possible—and it's an easy matter to install whatever partitions, insulation, wallboard and accessories are desired. If you need more space later on, extra sections may be added simply and economically.

Built with Stran-Steel, the modern framing material that permits the outside sheet steel covering to be nailed directly to framing members, the "Quonset" is fire-safe and durable, free from sag and rot. No other building combines the accepted advantages of all-steel construction with ready adaptability to scores of uses.

Ask us for further information—we'll be glad to show you how a "Quonset 24" will meet your plans.

"Quonset" buildings are products of Great Lakes Steel Corporation, a unit of National Steel Corporation

Here is a combined implement shed, with the end section enclosed and used as a workshop.

The "Quonset 24" with open front is ideal for vehicle shelter, loading barn or roadside stand.

OBSERVE 25th ANNIVERSARY

Misses Jayne and Alyce Hughes and Mrs. E. Monroe Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hughes of the State Fish Hatchery, entertained in honor of their parents' 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday evening.
 Many lovely gifts were presented to the honored couple. An unusual presentation was from their daughters—a memento representing each year of their marriage beginning with a paper silver horn and ending with 25 silver dollars. Another unique remembrance was a live spruce tree loaded with hanging silver coins.
 Singing, games and music preceded a buffet supper. Guests were present from Grand Rapids, Comstock Park, Pontiac, Birmingham, Detroit, Fair Haven and Santa Barbara, Calif.

 Roll call and secretary report was given by Mrs. Charles Williams. Mrs. Glenn Sutton gave the treasurer's report.
 An interesting letter was read by Lucille Hanger on the W.C.T.U. in Grand Rapids. Mrs.

L. G. Rowley gave an interesting report on the national convention held at Minneapolis recently.

The group selected Mrs. John Watkins and Mrs. L. G. Rowley as delegates to attend the state convention to be held at Grand Rapids on Oct. 26-29.
 Mrs. Martha Tewillager was selected as telephone chairman. There were 17 members present at the meeting. A lovely luncheon was served. Hostesses were Mrs. Merty Strong, Mrs. Martha Tewillager and Mrs. L. E. Tarlton.

It Pays to Read Labels on Cans

The Michigan food laws require that all packaged foods bear a label stating the correct weight, measure or numerical count and be identified by the name of the product, says Charles Figy, Director of the State Department of Agriculture.

The presence of artificial color or artificial flavor must also be declared on the label. If articles of food are sold in bulk from displays or refrigerator show cases, a placard must be placed on the products showing the presence of artificial coloring or flavor. Harmless preservatives are permitted by law in Michigan but all articles of food containing such harmless preservatives must declare their presence and the percentage used. Packaged articles must also have the name and address of the manufacturer or distributor responsible for placing the product on the market.

Often one will find on labels a statement that the products are imitations and the ingredients which make them imitations listed or what it is an imitation of. The word "imitation" must be the same size and style of lettering and given equal prominence with the name of the product which it imitates. Imitation products may be wholesome and perfectly proper foods but they may be inferior and cheaper than the genuine article.

Every housewife should learn to read labels on the packaged foods to see that they not only get the correct weight, but also to protect themselves against adulteration and other types of misbranding. The intelligent reading of labels and intelligent use of the information obtained from a label reading in the purchase of foods would save the consumers of the nation millions of dollars per year, says Director Figy, and the cause of truthful labeling of foods would be promoted as could be done in no other way.

money order to the following address: Collections Division, Veterans Administration, Branch No. 6, 52 South Starling St., Columbus 8, Ohio.

2. World War I Vets: Those holding United States Government Life Insurance policies (for World War I Vets) send premiums to Veterans Administration, Collections Division, Washington 25, D.C.

3. Military Personnel: All military personnel on active duty status, including veterans who have reenlisted, may have insurance premiums deducted through Army Finance channels, or mail premiums to Veterans Administration, Collections Division, 346 Broadway, New York 13, New York.

When paying premiums or in submitting inquiries after Nov. 1, it is of utmost importance that the veteran include complete information, specifically: full name, present mailing address, "N" or "V" insurance certificate numbers, service serial numbers, date of discharge from the service, and date of birth. VA officials declared that by co-operating in this manner, veterans will enable the Branch Office to render the service it desires to give to each policy holder.

New Mail Address For GI Insurance

World War II veterans may now mail premium payment on their National Service Life Insurance to Insurance Collections Division, Veterans Administration, Branch Office No. 6, 52 South Starling St., Columbus 8, Ohio, VA officials announced today.

However, due to the volume of work entailed in the transfer of more than 1,700,000 insurance accounts from New York to Columbus, it will be impossible to answer individual inquiries before Nov. 1.

The correct procedure for all veterans to follow in paying their insurance premiums was outlined by VA officials as follows:

1. World War II Vets: Those holding National Service Life Insurance (for World War II Vets) policies use the nearest VA collections office, or mail check or

Braised Celery Makes a Tasty Dish

For a new flavor in a hearty vegetable course for luncheon or dinner, try braised celery. It's a grand way to use Michigan celery according to Mary Woodward, home demonstration agent.

By making use of fat drippings, the recipe conforms to the fat-conservation program. Cook 1 1/2 quarts of cubed celery stalks in three tablespoons of meat drippings until light brown. Add 1/2 cups of cold water; salt and pepper to taste. Cover and cook until tender.

While the celery is cooking, stir 3 tablespoons of flour into a smooth paste with a little cold water. Add to the mixture and cook until thick.

Miss Woodward also suggests an oven dinner of baked celery. To make this casserole, place the cut-up celery in a shallow baking dish. Pour over it the hot gravy made from meat drippings, flour and water. Add seasoning, cover and bake in a moderate oven until the celery is tender. During the last fifteen minutes, take the cover off and let the gravy cook down. Miss Woodward believes you will be enthusiastic about the flavor of the celery combined with the meat drippings in these two dishes.

Wool Blankets Can be Kept Warm By Proper Washing

Woolen blankets will remain warm if they are kept soft and fluffy. According to Mary Woodward, county home demonstration agent, improper washing tends to shrink, mat and harden woolen fibers and to destroy the warmth-keeping qualities of the blankets.

Since wool is weak when wet, worn spots should be darned with wool yarns and bindings mended or replaced before the blankets are washed.

Miss Woodward suggests that you choose a dry, sunny day to wash blankets. Warm, not hot, water should be used for washing and rinsings. It is important that rinse waters are of the same temperature as the wash water.

Water may need to be softened because soft water is essential. Obtain a rich suds and wash blankets one at a time. Do not leave for more than three minutes in a washing machine. Blankets should be completely covered with water when washing and rinsing. Several rinsings will be necessary to remove all soap.

A breezy, warm place out of the direct sunlight is ideal for drying. When almost dry, a gentle shake or light brushing with a soft brush, will raise the nap if blankets are handled carefully, the home demonstration agent advises.

Foreign Workers Used in Beet Harvest

Mexican and Jamaican beet workers numbering 8,400 are now being used to help harvest Michigan's best crop in four years.

A. B. Love, emergency farm labor supervisor for the extension service of Michigan State College, says an adequate supply of labor has apparently been provided.

Now in use in the beet harvest are 4,600 Texas Mexicans, 2,400 Mexican Nationals and 1,400 Jamaicans.

Some foreign workers have been helping with the apple and potato harvest during this month.

"Regular routine" of Basil Hughes, in charge of Rifle River (Grousehaven) area for the conservation department's fish division, included in the last days of last month: seeing a white deer, seeing three bears, seeing a second, larger white deer, and, in the evening, catching a 22-inch brown trout.

Pre-Shrink Cloth Before You Make New Wool Dress

You can avoid the tragedy of having your new wool dress come back from the cleaners a size too small. The secret is to shrink the cloth before you make it up. According to Florence Rann, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State College, this is necessary precaution when fabrics are scarce and high in price.

Many retail stores sell only wool goods that has been preshrunk, but you should make sure when buying. If the wool has not been shrunk, you can take it to the tailor's or the cleaner's, or you can do it yourself.

Miss Rann says recent tests showed that pressing the entire piece with a steam iron is a satisfactory way to shrink it. Take care to hold and press with the weave, and not to stretch it.

If you do not have a steam iron you can get equally good results with another method. Dampen the wool thoroughly by rolling it in a moistened sheet. To do this, dip a sheet in water, wring it out, then spread it flat. Lay the wool material flat and straight on the sheet. You can then roll the sheet and wool together firmly but not tightly.

Let the material stand overnight. Then press the wool on the wrong side under a dry press cloth.

Evergreen Popular As Shrubs and Trees

Evergreens continue to be among the most popular trees in Michigan, landscape specialists report. With many of them native to the state, there is an increasing demand for their use both as ornamental shrubs and trees and to serve as windbreaks.

Michigan State College recently revised its extension bulletin "Evergreens", which has been extensively used by home owners and professional landscape men throughout the state. The new revised edition gives many hints as to the selection of the proper type and specie of evergreen for different uses.

The bulletin (Extension Bulletin 178) is now available without charge to county extension offices or will be mailed if a request is made to The Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

25,000 Teen-Agers Help State Farmers

Approximately 25,000 Michigan teen-age boys and girls helped relieve the farm labor situation during 1946 as Victory Farm Volunteers. Mrs. Doris Shimkus, Victory Farm Volunteer supervisor at Michigan State College, says these youths filled 41,027 jobs in every county in the state.

Approximately 15,000 of the youths—although now in school—are spending after-school and weekend hours helping with Michigan's big potato harvest during October.

Drift signals—14,433 of them—used by airmen over land and sea in rescue work and for target practice during the war, have been sold by War Assets Administration to a soap company. It was found that chemicals in the signals could be used in the manufacture of washing powder.

Thousands of pairs of skis will soon be available through regular retail outlets for purchase by winter sports enthusiasts. They were sold by War Assets Administration in a national sale.

Windbreaks Will Stop Soil Erosion

A combined effort to use windbreaks to stop soil erosion in northwest Michigan is under way. R. G. Hill, secretary of the state soil conservation committee with headquarters at Michigan State College, says several agencies recognize that wind erosion is a serious problem.

Representatives of the state highway department, MSC forestry department, local road commissioners and the state soil conservation committee met recently to discuss the problem. The area represented included Leelanau, Grand Traverse, Antrim and Otsego counties.

Worked out at the meeting, was a plan to combine the use of windbreaks both to provide protection to adjoining farm land and to reduce snow congestion on the highways.
