By The Way

After all the hunters had gone to the northland, some deer were seen walking across M-15 in front of the Crosby home. . . The "Fowl Party" of the American Legion will be held in the Rotary Club rooms on Saturday night. If you did not get that deer you can at least try again for something for Thanksgiving dinner at this party.

Incidentally, to all of the veterans of this district, this item should be very interesting. December 7 (ever heard of such a date) has been set, tentatively, for a venison dinner for members and other veterans of this community, by the Campbell-Richmond Post. Bear this date in mind. You will hear more about it later.

The question of the Negro's place in white communities was presented very well at the P.T.A. meeting, by a Negro minister. We doubt if he changed many opinions of the audience, but at least one left the meeting with the feeling that he had received something to think about. . . It is peculiar that when organized society gets too complicated for the average person he begins to embrace the Communist ideas. Having followed the Republican ideas since the civil war till it seemed more could be done for the Negro by the Democratic party, he is now bending an attentive ear to the beauties (if any) of the Communist party. Why do we mention this? Because while the speaker was against Communism, enough Negroes have consulted him about the subject to give it enough importance for him to honor the question by mentioning it.

(From a menu card put out by Honiss' Oyster House, Hartford, Conn.)

Honiss' opened in 1845, when women wore hoop skirts, frilled cotton drawers, did cleaning, washing, ironing, raised big families, went to church Sundays, and were too busy to be sick.

Men wore whiskers, chopped wood, bathed once a week, drank 10-cent whiskey, and a 5-cent beer, worked 12 hours a day and lived to a ripe old age.

Stores burned coal oil lamps, carried everything from a needle to a plow, trusted everybody, never took inventory, placed orders for goods a year in advance, and always made money.

Now women wear an ounce of underwear, smoke, paint, powder, drink cocktails, have pet dogs and go in for politics. Men have high blood pressure, little hair, bathe twice a day, are misunderstood at home, play the stock market, drink poison, work five hours a day, and die young.

Stores have electric lights, cash registers, elevators, never have what the customer wants, trust nobody, take inventory daily, never buy in advance, have overhead, mark-up, markdown, stock control, dollar day, founder's day, rummage sales, economy day—and never make any money.

Troth Plighted Saturday Night

Last Saturday night at eight o'clock Mary Phillips, daughter of Mrs. Clarence K. Phillips of Clarkston and the late Mr. Phillips, and Lloyd J. Ingamells, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ingamells of Pontiac, spoke their marriage vows in the presence of one hundred guests at the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church. Dr. Leslie A. Bechtel of Detroit read the rites before an altar decorated with a beautiful arrangement of African violets, white carnations and potted yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Charles Poole of Davisburg, was smart in light blue wool jersey and a corsage of pink roses and gardenias. Her only attendant was Emma Rowe of Clarkston who wore navy blue with silver nail head trim and a corsage of pink roses and carnations.

Mr. Ingamells was assisted by Lawrence J. Rowe of Clarkston as best man and Warren Brown of Drayton Plains, Bruce Longmire of Pontiac and Kenneth and Milton Poole of Davisburg seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Phillips wore blue silk. Mrs. Ingamells chose brown silk crepe. Both mothers wore gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Over the bride's table, which seated eighteen guests, hung a large white wedding bell and centering the table was a three tiered wedding cake.

For the present the newlyweds will make their home with the bride's mother.

Guests were present from Falls Church, Va., Mt. Morris, Hadley, Orion, Columbiaville, Milford, Pontiac and Detroit.

Of special interest to the folks in this community is the fact that this is the first marriage ceremony to be performed in this church, which was erected in 1856.

Delay Is Expected In Making Payment Of Veterans Bonus

"Hold everything!" This is the advice from the Michigan Office of Veterans' Affairs to veterans desiring to apply for the newly authorized state bonus.

The O.V.A. explains it this way: Before a bonus can be paid, the cash must be raised. Before the cash can be raised, bonds have to be sold to the investing public. Before bonds can be sold, they have to be printed. Before they can be printed, the legislature must specifically authorize the state treasurer to have this done. All of which adds up to the conclusion that it is going to be quite a while before Michigan World War II veterans will get the cash.

Veterans who had planned on spending their bonus money for Christmas presents better plan on using it for a new Easter wardrobe, the O.V.A. says. Or maybe to finance a vacation trip in the summer—and maybe late summer at that.

Another thing, the Office of Veterans' Affairs explained, is the matter of handling the work involved. By the terms of the referendum, the legislature must designate the agency to do the job and must provide what will be a sizeable appropriation for dozens of clerks, typists and other workers and for the printing of three-quarters of a million application blanks, envelopes, postage and the like. If a special session were called now, it might complicate matters, capitol observers say, since as much as $1,500,000 may be needed for administration alone, and, in view of the approval by the voters of the sales tax diversion measure, as large an appropriation as this must be reconciled with appropriations for other state activities and not hurriedly passed by a lame duck legislature. This probably means that no official action leading to the printing and sale of the bonds and the designation of an agency to do the work will take place before January, when the new legislature arrives in Lansing for its regular session.

"The money will be forthcoming sooner or later. Don't spend it now—just take it easy in the meantime," is the way the Office of Veterans' Affairs sums it up.

P.T.A. Hears Talk By Rev. Wm. Molbon At Monthly Meeting

On Wednesday night the Clarkston P.T.A. held the regular monthly meeting at the school. Mrs. R. Colton presided. Mrs. James Glennie was elected mother vice president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Virgil Campbell.

The Methodist Church choir under the direction of Orlo J. Willoughby sang several numbers—"Holy, Holy, Holy" by the entire group; "Oh, Dear What Can the Matter Be?" by the women; "Old King Cole" and "Lift Thine Eyes" by the entire choir. Adele Thomas played the piano accompaniment. These songs were exceptionally well rendered and put the listeners in a fine frame of mind.

Mrs. Colton introduced the guest speaker, Reverend William H. Molbon, pastor of the St. John's Presbyterian Church in Detroit. Mr. Molbon, a Negro, spoke on "International Peace and Tolerance" and touched lightly on Detroit's race problems. His speaking voice and his manner of talking kept the attention of even the children who were present.

At the close of the meeting the fifth grade mothers served refreshments from a table covered with a lace cloth and made attractive with small branches of Michigan holly and lighted ivory tapers in crystal holders.

A Thanksgiving Service will be held at 10:30 a. m., Thursday, November 28, 1946, in First Church of Christ, Scientist, Oxford. The public is cordially invited.

Dear Sir

Dear Sir: For days and weeks I've pondered long About the things I'd like to say. And how I'd make the phrasing strong If you ever passed my way.

Deep down inside I've kept alert Appreciation of your deeds, When other people had been hurt— And you administered their needs.

Dear Sir: For months and years my plans were made Expressing thoughts I've had in mind, Thus all the ground work has been laid To thank you for your acts so kind.

These things to you, I cannot tell At given time or given place, For lives that run in parallel Don't meet at crossings face to face.

Dear Sir: As long as plans won't have us meet, Please let me in these

There will be Thanksgiving services at 7:30 Thursday morning (Thanksgiving) at the Community Church and at 10:00 at the Christ

Lutheran Church located in the Community Activities Bldg. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Giddings and family will be in charge of a breakfast to follow the services at the Community Church. The public is invited to either, or both, services. Thanksgiving was started to thank God for his blessings many years ago by people who had much less to be thankful for than we have.

The Waterford village school will be the scene of high carnival spirit Friday, Nov. 22, starting at 5 p. m. A hearty supper of baked beans, scalloped potatoes, hot dogs, salad and rolls will be ready to serve as soon as the doors open. Then around to the ice cream, candy, or cider-and-donut booths for dessert, and a quick look at the variety of gift and novelty booths before the first Junior class show begins at 5 p. m. Park the children at the five-cent movies while you play a five or ten cent bingo, or dance downstairs to the music of Don Kratt and his seven piece school band, which starts at 6:30. After every three dances the promenade will take place in the same room.

At seven o'clock activities are in full swing, with the first magician show, the first cake-walk, and the second Junior show. From then on, "you pays your money and takes your choice". There will be something doing on all three floors as long as there are people to enjoy it. It would be a good plan, though, to come early to get the pick of the gifts and prizes and to enjoy the booths in all their original beauty. Prizes of $3.00, $2.00, and $1.00 will be awarded to the three most attractive booths. Judges in this contest are Mrs. William Stamp, editor of the Clarkston News; Henry Reibling, president of the Drayton Men's Club, and Harry Harrup, president of Community Activities, Inc.

The merchants and town-folk of Waterford and the surrounding communities have been most generous with donations and other help, even though not directly connected with the school or P.T.A. The Waterford Community Church is loaning its tables for the many booths that evening.

Proceeds of the carnival will be divided between the Scout organizations, the class rooms and home rooms for needed athletic equipment, books, pictures, and rainy day games, and the P.T.A.

If you have any news which you think should be in the paper call Mrs. Joseph Helman, 31-1749 by Tuesday noon.

The C.A.I. meeting was conducted last Thursday evening by Harry Harrup. Ten names were drawn to have their loans paid. Mr. Harrup announced that the Wednesday evening Youth Group is donating a mirror for the mens' wash room, an electric clock, and two card tables to Community Activities, Inc.

It was thought that it should be announced often at the dances on Saturday evenings that liquor is prohibited in the building or on the grounds.

If you want a good book, come to our library. It really is beautiful now that it is decorated. If you want to work, come over Wednesday afternoon as there are still a lot of books which need to be made ready for the new shelves. If you have a good book which you would like to put in circulation, donate it to our library and it will be greatly appreciated by all who read it.

If you like to dance, come over on Saturday evening and enjoy both modern and old time dancing. The Boy Scouts are urged to come each Tuesday evening between 7:15 and 9 and enjoy a meeting in the basement club room.

The Senior Girl Scouts meet here after school on Thursday afternoons.

Infra-Red Heat May Be Answer To Frost Damage

Radiant infrared heat may be the answer to economical frost damage prevention on small acreages of high value crops. An oil burning heater, operating at a cost of 75 cents per hour, has been successfully developed and tested at Michigan State College.

V. R. Gardner, director of the MSC agricultural experiment station, announced today that tests showed the machine would be valuable for protection of crops when temperatures are as low as eight degrees below freezing.

The machine was designed and perfected by Arthur W. Farrell, head of the section of agricultural engineering, assisted by W. H. Sheldon and Clarence Hansen of the staff. In this development the station had the cooperation of the Detroit Edison Company and the research committee of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

The test unit held plant temperatures to 37 degrees, while outside the test area the thermometer dropped to 29 degrees. A series of special type aluminum reflectors directed the heat down against the crop being protected.

No figures are available on the cost of this device—whether the parts are assembled and built by the farmer himself or constructed in large numbers by a manufacturer. Costs will depend upon whether it is a small unit for the garden or one intended to cover two or three acres.

The test apparatus, which was mounted on wheels and had other features needed to obtain experimental data, actually cost $250. It is believed that practical farm units large enough to cover an acre can be built at about one-third to one-half of that price. It would be mounted on skids and without special features.

Initial tests were made last spring of an electrically generated infra-red heater. In one test, temperatures outside the test area dropped to 23.5 degrees, but inside the area the infra-red rays kept plants at 32 degrees and prevented frost.

Initial investment and power costs for electrically operated equipment proved high as a great transformer capacity was needed. Except for very high dollar-per-acre crops, the electrical method would possibly prove too expensive.

Tests, however, convinced Farrell and his associates, that infra-red radiation was the answer to frost protection. They then sought a cheaper method of producing the energy needed.

This brought about the kerosene heated machine, tested for the first time this fall.

Late spring and early fall frosts cost farmers millions of dollars annually. In a few hours a single frost may wipe out a $500-per-acre berry, fruit, mint, truck, flower or other high value crop.

Such damage is usually caused by temperatures slightly below freezing that occur one or two nights at the beginning or near the end of a crop season. For example, a two-hour frost early on the morning of September 2, this fall, killed many tomatoes and melons in Michigan. The next killing frost did not occur until October 1. Had such equipment been available, some farmers could have saved crops and had another month for them to mature and produce high yields and larger returns.

Bear Runs Amuck In Porcupine Mts.

Bears are a fine attraction for any park, but there is one in the Porcupine mountains who is taking more privileges than even a star attraction is entitled to.

First he broke the windows in the old cabin that serves as living quarters for the carpenter crew building the log shelter at Mirror lake.

Next he clawed and bit a hole in the cabin door.

On his last visit he got inside, smashed the cupboards, moved and opened a 100-pound metal tool box, departed with the supply of meat and butter it contained.

MUSIC LESSONS
 Mr. Lamb, in an attempt to build up the band and chorus at Clarkston, has been giving music lessons second hour and in his free period at the close of the day. Part of the time he has been taking sections of the band. Those blasts during second period haven't been the chem lab exploding but merely Bill Ludwig, Jack Selberg, Spike Masters, Dave Yoh, Dave Leak and others practicing trumpet harmony.
 The grade people have been learning to play instruments, too. It's never too soon to begin, so at three o'clock D. I. Pettengill, George Mann, Don Colson, John Stageman, and others have been visiting the music room with drums and horns. Gerry Anderson is learning to play a trumpet second hour.

In preparation for the band and chorus concert, to be held Thursday, Dec. 19 in the school auditorium, Mr. Lamb has been working with the girls' sextet which he says is very good.
 Since the people Mr. Lamb trains now will be Clarkston's band and chorus in the years to come, we feel that he is doing fine work in building music for tomorrow for the school. Two of his students this year—Emery Bennett and Bob Beattie—are now part of the regular band.

DEBATE
 The Clarkston affirmative debate team, Pat A. Watson and Barbara Rioux, bowed to Royal Oak Little Flower's negative team last Friday afternoon here at Clarkston. Representing Little Flower were Mary Beth Christie and Betty Stalckenpugh. This same team will debate again at Cranbrook sometime next week. Mr. Ridgley is coaching the team. The team will enter a tournament at Flint soon.

LUNCHEON
 Last week the room mothers invited the entire faculty to share their luncheon with them. The room mothers are accustomed to hold their meetings at noon and have a pot-luck luncheon. This month they invited the faculty who thoroughly enjoyed the fine meal.

MOVIES
 Last week the high school enjoyed the film, "Foreign Correspondent", dealing with international intrigue, and "Living Flowers", the story of the butterfly. This week Wednesday we saw a Thanksgiving film. Mr. Thayer operates the projection machine at the school.

REFUNDS
 The sum of $214 was reimbursed Clarkston seniors who live in the Waterford district by the Waterford Township Board of Education. The students had paid this tuition earlier, but the Waterford Township Board of Education adopted a ruling to pay the tuition for seniors only.

"DATE AT EIGHT"
 Tonight is the night! The Juniors present their carnival-dance, "Date at Eight" in the gym.
 Dance music will be furnished by Bill Appenroth and his Jive Five. A free airplane ride will be offered as door prize. For those of you who don't dance there will be ping-pong, ten pins, bean bag throw, ring toss, and a penny toss.
 Entertainment will be provided at intermission. At this time the most popular boy and girl in Clarkston High will be crowned king and queen.
 Refreshments, hot dogs, cokes, potato chips, and a homemade candy kitchen will satisfy your hunger.
 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Bonner, and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Mortimore have been invited to attend as patrons for the dance.
 Don't forget! You have a date to-night, a "Date at Eight!"

 The Rotary Club is planning this year's football banquet for Monday, December 2, at the high school auditorium. Mr. Lawton, late director of football at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker.

MISS BECK
 May we present the junior member of Clarkston's faculty? Miss Margaret Beck is a native of Monroe where she graduated from high school. She started her college work with a scholarship at Central Michigan, Mt. Pleasant. Her next school was Purdue where she studied aeronautical engineering on a Curtiss-Wright scholarship. This scholarship is offered to 100 girls in the U. S. a year. She then spent a year at Columbia, Ohio doing aeronautical drafting for the Curtiss-Wright Co. Miss Beck says she can't fly a plane but she certainly "knows the works" of one.
 Her next move was to Ohio State University where she again studied aeronautical engineering. Miss Beck ended up at Ann Arbor at the University of Michigan where she majored in mathematics and used engineering and French as her minors. Miss Beck, with her wide practical background in math, is teaching junior high arithmetic, algebra and geometry and has taken over the girls' gym class here at Clarkston this year.
 Miss Beck's hobbies are all sorts of sports, knitting, (believe it or not, she's very proficient at it).

 The habitual use of cathartics is dangerous. Such misuse is often followed by chronic ill health. Strong laxatives are particularly dangerous when taken to relieve abdominal distress. The source of the pain should always be accurately determined by your physician. The safe procedure is to consult him. ### Thanksgiving Menu Can Be Varied

If you're looking for different ways to serve the traditional Thanksgiving dinner, Mary J. E. Woodward, county home demonstration agent, suggests a new recipe for you to try. It combines two foods which are plentiful this fall—cranberries and sweet potatoes.

6 large sweet potatoes. Peel them and cut in half lengthwise. Make small indentations in the halves by scooping out some of the potato. Fill the centers of six of the halves with cranberry sauce—about 1 1/2 cups will fill all six. Then place the remaining halves on top of the filled halves, and put in a greased baking dish. Now melt 3 tablespoons of shortening and add to it a third of a cup of brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and a third of a cup of chopped nuts. Spread this mixture over the potatoes. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for 20 to 25 minutes, or until lightly brown.

The potato which has been scooped out can be mashed and put into potato patties or sweet potato waffles. The waffle recipe calls for 1 cup of potato, 1 cup flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup melted fat, 1 cup milk, and 1 egg. Mix all other ingredients together, then add the egg white and yolk which have been beaten separately. Bake in a waffle iron or cook as pancakes on a griddle.

If Isabella had ice cubes...

Christopher Columbus would never have discovered America!

Isabella, Queen of Spain, had caskets full of jewels. She had velvet robes and silken gowns and handsome hand-made shoes. But she had no electric refrigerator! So the jewels were pawned. Three little ships set out against the sea. And Columbus happened on America back in 1492.

Fantastic? Not really. In Isabella's day, they tried to keep food from spoiling by spices brought overland at great expense from India. Columbus believed he could reach the Indies by sailing westward on the unknown Atlantic. The rest is in history books.

Poor Isabella, with all her clumsy luxuries, never dreamed of ice cubes—nor any of the miracles of modern electric living!

Though electricity plays such a great part in today's comforts and conveniences—you're scarcely conscious of electric service. That's because it's always on hand—all you want—at little cost.

Listen to the "NEW ELECTRIC HOUR"—The HOUR OF CHARM. Every Sunday Afternoon 4:30, EST. Station WJR.

Corn Bread Can Be A Good Substitute For Turkey Stuffing

Since we are still trying to save wheat, you might like to try a substitute for bread crumbs in your Thanksgiving turkey stuffing.

Mary J. E. Woodward, home demonstration agent, says that corn bread can be used for half, or for the whole amount, of bread crumbs in your turkey stuffing recipe.

Stuffing for a 12-pound turkey will take about 1 1/2 pounds of corn bread broken into small pieces. To the crumbs add 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and either 1/2 teaspoon each of sage and marjoram or one whole teaspoon of poultry seasoning. Mix well.

Cook 1 1/2 cups of finely chopped celery and 1/2 cup of finely chopped onion in 1/4 cup of butter, or substitute, for about 5 minutes at low heat. Add another 1/4 cup of butter and heat until melted—but do not overheat. One cup of sliced water chestnuts may be added for extra flavor.

Then combine the two mixtures and stir until the bread is well coated with butter. If necessary add more.

Extra stuffing may be made and baked in a greased casserole during the last hour your turkey is cooking. Baste it with juices from the roasting pan.

"Chow Line" Ghost Haunts Ex-GI's

The "chow line" is still a part of the daily life of 1,500 ex-GI's who are attending Michigan State College and living in the "Quonset Village" near the campus.

A complete cafeteria is part of facilities installed for students. Obtained from War Assets Administration, everything in the building from food processing equipment and refrigeration to mess trays, chairs and tables, came from Army camp surplus stocks.

Trained dieticians, chefs and helpers, under the direction of E. G. Foster, manager of dormitories and food services, and Kenneth Foster, cafeteria manager, insure well-balanced nutritious meals for all students at a little more than 40 cents per meal.

Army Career Offers Financial Security Upon Retirement

A meeting between Colonel Walter C. Cole, Commanding Officer of the Michigan Recruiting District, 403 Federal Building, Detroit, and a representative of a large national life insurance company, developed into a long discussion of how much it would cost a man to retire at the ages of 40 and 50 on the basis of the retirement fund set up for enlisted men serving 20 or 30 years of honorable duty in the army.

Using the average enlistment age of 20, these figures were taken from the insurance company's standard rate and data book. The annual premiums shown are the amounts of money a civilian would have to invest each year at 2% compound interest to have the required amount ready in 20 or 30 years.

A staff sergeant serving 20 years of honorable service is entitled upon retirement to $74.75 monthly; an annuity policy to equal that figure would cost $916.71 yearly, or over a 20 year period, $22,719.00. The 30 year retirement fund amount to $129.38 and would cost a civilian $769.50 a year, or a total premium of $31,837.00.

A technical sergeant's retirement fund at 20 years amount to $87.75 monthly, or in private life it would be necessary to save $1,075.93 yearly, or a total premium of $26,670.00, in order to be assured of a monthly income to equal a technical sergeant's retirement pay. Under the 30 year honorable service plan, this man would receive a sum of $151.88 upon retiring at the age of 50. To equal this sum which the government provides free of charge to the enlisted man, it would be necessary to invest 903.53 yearly at 2% compound interest for 30 years, or a total of $37,373.00.

The first graders, Master Sergeant or First Sergeant, are eligible for $107.25 at the end of 20 years of honorable service. A civilian annuity policy to equal this figure has an annual premium of $2,115.50, or a paid up policy value of $52,429.00. The 30 year retirement pay is $185.63 monthly. To insure a monthly life income of this amount at the age of 50, it would be necessary to invest $1,104.32 yearly or the cash to purchase this security at the age of 50 would be $45,690.00. As Colonel Cole pointed out, this is only one of the advantages of joining the new, peacetime Regular Army, and the insurance company's representative agreed that the young man looking for a career today would do well to take advantage of these splendid opportunities.

For further details of the advantages offered, stop in at your local Army Recruiting Station.

Conservation Dept. Asks for Return of Pheasant Bands

"Don't wait until February 15 to send in those pheasant bands; they can be used now," the conservation department is telling bird hunters.

February 15 is the date game-kill reports are due, and in past years many hunters have deferred returning bands from birds they shot until they mailed in their report cards.

Bands were not likely to be overlooked this season, for besides wearing the numbered anklets, the game farm birds were characterized by a bob-tailed appearance. The tail-feather lack was due to cannibalistic pecking at each other in crowded pens and in part to a diet deficiency caused in turn by a scarcity of protein foods on the market.

About 7,000 game farm birds were released this season, and more than 80 bands have been returned to date. There is particular interest in returns from plantings during the season. Hunters may keep the bands for souvenirs if they wish, but in that case a report should be made on a penny postcard of the band number and the location and date of the kill.

GI Bill of Rights Is Still in Effect

Since October 5, 1946, there has been a misunderstanding about the longevity of the GI Bill of Rights. Today, many persons believe that the GI Bill expired October 5.

In a statement to clarify this situation, Colonel Walter C. Cole, Commanding Officer of the Michigan Recruiting District, said: "A year ago, Congress passed the Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945. This law provided that anyone enlisting on or before October 5, 1946, would receive all educational rights, rights to loan guarantees, and rights to readjustment allowances (unemployment compensation) for the full term of their enlistment. Those enlisting after October 5 will receive GI Bill benefits until the war is terminated by Congressional action." Colonel Cole urged that those
