CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1946

By The Way

The mighty hunters are returning with their kill—providing they have been good enough hunters and according to those who returned empty handed—if they have been lucky. . . . The little community papers generally go their own sweet way without aping the nearby city papers, but once a year most of the little boys go on a spree and then the city boys take cover. For example, in the city you can frequently buy tomorrow's paper late this afternoon. When the Thanksgiving holiday comes around, however, you can get the average country paper issued on Fridays, by Tuesday. Yes sir! The country boys do not mess around with a few hours, they work with days. . . . While bingo parties are still being held, the two big days for Clarkston are over. This year lucky winners went home with white turkeys. It is with some regret that we say they looked very pretty as the others took them home. . . . You are invited to attend the annual Rotary sponsored football dinner for the Clarkston High School. Tickets are now on sale at O'Dell's Drug Store. . . . The coal shortage and the subsequent cancelling of train reservations forced Mr. and Mrs. George King to fly to Florida. . . . Recently pranksters tore down two cardboard signs and tied them to the rear bumper of the car of two newlyweds, writing on them the usual "Just Married". One sign, tied loosely, turned over as the car turned onto Main Street and the printed war-time reminder "Careless Talk Caused This".

Ministers Mobilize To Fight Paganism And Communism

Six thousand ministers in 19 church denominations, nationwide, have banded together in a crusade known as Spiritual Mobilization to combat the peril of spiritual freedom because of communist infiltrations and due to a rising pagan level toward a mortal God state, according to announcement made yesterday by Dr. James W. Fifield Jr., founder and director of the organization. The movement is locally represented by Rev. Walter C. B. Saxman.

This crusade for freedom, which recognizes man as a child of God and as such master (not slave) of the state, sponsors the return to the American way of life with its democratic process and constitutional government. Its advisory committee is headed by such notables as Dr. Donald J. Cowling, former president of Carleton College; Roger W. Babson, the statistician; Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed, Bible scholar and author; Dr. Rufus B. von Kleinsmid, chancellor of the University of Southern California; Alfred Noyes, poet; Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California; Dr. Robert A. Millikan, president of the California Institute of Technology; Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, clergyman; Hon. Albert W. Hawkes, United States Senator; and others.

WAIVER OF DISABILITY PENSIONS NOT BINDING

Veterans who signed statements at time of discharge that they were in "good health" and did not desire to file a disability claim did not "sign away their rights". They can file a claim for service-incurred wounds or disabilities any time after their discharge. This point is covered by Sec. 105 of the GI Bill which reads:

"No person in the armed forces shall be required to sign a statement of any nature relating to the origin, incurrence, or aggravation of any disease or injury he may have, and any such statement against his own interest signed at any time, shall be null and void and of no force and effect".

Everyone is invited to see these books and so have some idea of what the money from the waste paper drives is used for and also to see what a wonderful choice of books is being made for the use of the children in our school.

Wood-Porter Rites Read Sunday Eve

A very pretty candlelight service was performed on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Christ Lutheran Church on Williams Lake Road when Audrey Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood of Williams Lake and Ralph Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Porter of Drayton Plains spoke their marriage vows at a double ring ceremony performed by the Reverend Philip A. Jordan before about one hundred and fifty guests. Palms, white chrysanthemums, lighted tapers on the altar and lighted candelabra formed the setting for the service.

Edgar Wood of Lansing played the piano accompaniment for Mrs. Roy Olson who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". He also played the wedding music.

The bride, who was presented in marriage by her father, was lovely in white brocaded satin with court train and a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried white roses tied with white satin with white satin streamers. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from her bridegroom.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Ruth Wood. She was gowned in yellow taffeta and wore on her head a coronet with a shoulder veil of matching color. Her arm bouquet was of Garcia chrysanthemums, gladioli and bronze chrysanthemums tied with gold colored ribbon with long streamers.

Patricia Wood, sister of the bride and Marjorie Porter, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaids and wore identical gowns of aqua taffeta and matching shoulder veils. Their bouquets were the same as the honor maids'.

The bridegroom's brother, Jack Porter, was best man and seating the guests were Harold Wood, the bride's brother, and Dee C. Garbette.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wood chose to wear black velvet with matching accessories and Mrs. Porter wore dark blue velvet. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Friendship Hall in the Community Activities Building. The refreshment table was spread with a white linen cloth. In the center of the table over the linen cloth was a lace cloth recently brought from Prague, Czechoslovakia, by the bride's brother, Harold Wood, and on this cloth was a three tiered wedding cake flanked by lighted white tapers in silver holders and bouquets of chrysanthemums in a variety of colors. Wyoma McEvers and Henrietta Watson poured and Maybelle Watson assisted with the refreshments.

The young couple left on a short honeymoon in the eastern states. The bride chose as her going away outfit a brown gabardine suit and gold colored blouse with brown accessories. On their return they will make their home on Cottage Street in Pontiac.

4-H Clubs Name Delegate to Attend Chicago Congress

William Porritt, Oakland County 4-H Club member, has just been named as official state delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, December 1-15, according to Lynn Lewis, 4-H Club agent.

Oakland County was able to accept the invitation to send this delegate because of the assistance provided by the Pontiac Kiwanis Club, which agreed to pay one-half of the delegate's expenses. The Oakland County 4-H Service Club has raised the other half of the expense money.

William well deserved the honor he has won, as his 4-H Club record will show that he has completed ten years of Dairy Club work, and ten years of Potato Club work. He has been a member of the dairy judging team for four years, was selected County 4-H Premium Potato Grower in a contest sponsored by Pontiac Kiwanis Club in 1945, and was named as one of the state winners in the Dairy Production contest in 1945.

William was selected to become a member of the State 4-H Service Club at the annual Club Week at Michigan State College in 1946 and was promptly elected president of that organization. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Porritt, Route 1, Pontiac.

The Michigan delegation will go by train, leaving Saturday, Nov. 30. Miss Mary Woodward, Oakland County Home Demonstration Agent has been selected along with four other county extension workers to be in charge of the trip, and will accompany the delegates.

The Michigan group will be housed at the Harrison Hotel in Chicago.

Thanksgiving

O God in heaven let us pray in most sincerity today— We thank You for our knowledge of This endless world blest with Your love.

We thank You for the usual things. That harvest time with labor brings The food and shelter for our needs; And joy on which our spirit feeds.

We thank You for a world whose aims Are set upon more peaceful gains; Whose plannings are away from war, And all the things it holds in store.

We thank You that assembled here Are most the nations of our sphere; Intent that warlike actions cease, And all the world be bathed in peace.

We're heartened by the basic facts, That nations by their simple acts Of meeting in a common cause Are adhering to Your laws.

We thank You.

Early Farrow of Pigs Means More Profit

Early farrowing of spring pigs will return the hog producer a greater profit in 1947.
 With normal marketing procedures returning, Harry Moxley and Graydon Blank, extension specialists at Michigan State College, believe you should arrange for the spring pig crop early.
 The specialists explain that under ceiling price regulations, the top price for market swine remained the same throughout most of the marketing season. With supply and demand again governing prices, the outlook indicates that the safest plan is to breed sows during late November and early December. This will give early farrowed pigs.
 By using electric pig brooders and carefully prepared farrowing houses, March and April farrowings are possible. These pigs can then make a maximum use of pasture and be ready for fattening by the time of the 1947 small grain harvest. With good management practices, they will be ready to sell on the market before heavy fall marketing begins.
 Prices, on the average, slump when heavy fall marketing begins. If the market animals beat the big supply to market, they will bring higher prices.
 The selection of well-developed gilts from large litters, mated to quick maturing boars with good length of body, a wide loin and a deep ham and side will result in better litters, the specialists claim.
 Producers who cannot possibly arrange housing and equipment for early spring farrowing must exert particular attention to the feeding and management program to offset the lower prices usually received for pigs marketed late in the year.

Watch Soft Corn When Storing Away

Although weather this fall in most parts of Michigan has been more favorable for preparing corn for storage, farmers should be certain they do not crib with excess moisture content.
 Farm crops specialists at Michigan State College contend that ear corn carrying moisture in excess of 25 per cent in the grain is not safe for storage. Such grain may heat on warm days if piled deep in cribs and may spoil next spring.
 Shelled corn should not be cribbed with more than 15 per cent moisture, crops specialists say.
 Farmers should seek the cooperation of local elevators to test the moisture content of their corn before storage.
 Success in drying corn by forced ventilation without heat has not proved too successful. Ventilators, however, may be installed in a crib to increase the air movement through the corn. These reduce the thickness of layers of corn through which the air has to move.

Homemade Bread Is Easy to Bake

Most housewives would like to greet their families with the tantalizing odor of baking bread but decide that it is too much work.
 Mary J. E. Woodward, home demonstration agent, believes that baking bread can be a simple process. Don't think you have to make as many loaves as grandmother used to. Use a small recipe, or one which you can keep in the refrigerator to bake as needed.
 You can plan to fit bread baking around other household tasks—the whole process takes several hours. There are only three steps in bread making.
 First, make the dough and knead it thoroughly. Then let it rise. Second, knead it again, shape into loaves, and place in baking pans. Let it rise again. Third, bake it.
 Refrigerator bread dough can be kept for about a week. After this kind of dough has risen the first time, knead it well. Cover tightly all dough not used immediately and store in refrigerator. As you want to use the dough, remove from refrigerator, and mold into loaves or rolls. Place in pan, let rise and bake.

Block Construction Becoming Popular

With a shortage of other building materials, concrete block construction has become quite popular in Michigan. To aid farmers and others in their construction, Michigan State College has published an informative bulletin on "Concrete Block Construction".
 The publication was prepared by the engineers of the agricultural extension service. It gives information about the types of aggregate used, a comparison of commercial and hand-made blocks, insulation requirements and surface treatments.
 Extension bulletin 277 may be obtained from your county extension office or by writing The Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing.
 Of the 1,725,000 tons of major warships lost by the Japanese in the last war, American carrier-based aircraft accounted for most with 680,000 tons sunk. Submarines destroyed 507,000 tons and surface ships 257,000 tons. Land-based aircraft accounted for only 62,500 tons.

MSC President Serves on Board

Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State College, has been named as a member of a ten-man national committee to study cooperative extension policies and programs. The study is being made in view of expanding educational services in agriculture and home economics.
 The appointment was announced by Clinton P. Anderson, secretary of agriculture and Dean Thomas P. Cooper, president of the association of land-grant colleges and universities.
 The committee consists of college presidents, deans of agriculture, members of the department of agriculture and officials of private industry interested in farm programs. Also named on the committee from Michigan was David Meeker, manager of education of Harry Ferguson, Inc., Detroit.
 For 32 years, cooperative extension work has been carried on by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and land-grant colleges like Michigan State College. Programs dealing with educational activities in agriculture, home economics and 4-H club work are now being carried on in all agricultural counties in the United States.
 There has been no broad study of the program, with a view of making changes for improvement of the service, since 1928.

Grayling Becomes Winter Sports Haven

If the weatherman cooperates, there will be skating, skiing and tobogganing at the conservation department's winter sports area at Grayling for vacationers in the Christmas holidays.
 Arrangements have been made for the city of Grayling to care for transportation and housing of winter sports fans while the conservation department's parks and recreation division will operate the facilities and concession at the winter sports area for an eight-week season beginning late in December. Snow trains are expected again, since the wartime travel load has diminished, and there is hope that some sleeping cars may be kept on sidings here to supplement local accommodations.
 Two ski tows will be operated and the toboggan conveyor will be speeded up to return toboggans to the top of the hill faster. The skating rink this season will be near the warming house where heavy equipment may be used to maintain it, rather than on the pond. There will be a play hill for youngsters and beginners.

 Each of the eight weeks of the season will feature a different Michigan city, with special events for winter sports fans and the "snow queen" from that community.

WHY MILK TESTS VARY

Milk tests, showing the amount of butterfat, frequently show large variations. Michigan State College dairy specialists have found that this is caused by conditions on the farm rather than incorrect testing.
 A recent extension bulletin on "Why Milk Tests Vary" points out 17 different items that will cause the butterfat content of milk to vary. The bulletin was prepared by Dr. Earl Weaver, head of the dairy department at MSC and Dr. G. M. Trout of the department.
 Copies of extension bulletin 96 are available without charge from county extension offices or from the Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

DO you know anyone who isn't faded gold damask living room draperies which had been salvaged by changing their color. A warm wine shade was chosen to blend with the figured rug of many colors.
 And because of the uncertainty of the fabric (that is, whether it was silk and rayon or rayon and cotton) all purpose dye was used because it will produce an all-over even color no matter what the mixture of fibers.
 A solid fabric is most effective for chairs of this type. However, those that have separate center backs are cushion covered with the same material. Fabric for the rest of the chair may be dyed a solid color to accent one of the colors in the print.
 One point to watch when covering chairs is dirt or greasy marks that might stain the new fabric. Cotton batting or muslin can be placed to prevent their coming through.
 Patterns are available for most types of chairs, or they can be cut from old covers or to the measurements of the piece of furniture. The sky is the limit in the color department. Fabrics have wide range, too, but they should be heavy enough to stand wear and of close weave to keep dirt from filtering in.

PONY EXPRESS RIDER

James Hack carries the mail. He is our school's "pony express", riding his bike instead of a Mustang, to be sure, but every day at 10 a. m. sharp finds him on this mission. The day's mail accumulates in the office. James takes that to the government outpost downtown. On his way James crosses the treacherous south fork of the Clinton River and you may be sure that he keeps a sharp lookout for any lurking redskins along the faint trail named Church Road.

The garrison post office loads James down with every class of mail which Galligan's stage coach can bring in. There are first class letters, C.O.D.'s, sales of gazettes, and packages.

UNIVERSITY ACCREDITATION

The University of Michigan Bureau of Cooperation with Educational Institutions has notified Mr. Brablec that the local school has been accredited for a three-year term. This action was taken by the University Committee on Relations with Secondary Schools and the three-year designation represents the highest rating accorded to Michigan schools.

Schools may be accredited for one, two or three-year periods.

Some of the criteria for accrediting schools are as follows: Preparation and assignment of teachers, pupil-teacher ratio, size of staff, school term, educational tone of the school, program of studies, buildings and playgrounds, laboratories, the library, permanence of teaching staff, study-habit formation, health program, extra-curricular program, counseling, and allocation of time for administration and supervision.

Requirements for the three-year rating read, "Secondary schools on the two-year list which submit evidence that pupils' needs are being met in an unusually effective manner may be considered for accrediting for a term of three years. The school should be of sufficient size to enable the board of education to provide a curriculum which meets the needs of different groups of pupils, teachers should have more than the minimum preparation in each subject taught, the teaching should be good throughout the school, and school citizenship should be especially commendable.

Superintendent Brablec stated, "The greatest share of credit for this pleasing news must go to the classroom teachers, because their efforts in instruction represent the chief factor being judged. Still, in a broad sense, the support and interest manifested by the children, board of education, the community and custodians are all reflected in a favorable report following the University's examination."

with the Michigan Department of Conservation, says the trapping season on mink and muskrat opened November 1 in the upper peninsula, known as Zone 1. In Zone 2, the upper half of the lower peninsula, the season opened on November 15. In the lower half of the lower peninsula, Zone 3, the season will not open until December 1.

Haugen says racoon trapping season is the same as for muskrats except that the upper peninsula racoon season is limited to Delta and Menominee Counties, where they may be trapped from November 1 to 14. In the lower peninsula the season runs from November 1 to December 15.

Throughout the state, trapping of badger and skunk opened November 1. Mink may be hunted in the upper peninsula from November 1 to December 31 and in the lower peninsula one month longer.

State Muskrat Crop Hit Hard by Drought

Michigan's million-dollar muskrat crop has also suffered from the long-lasting drought in southern Michigan.

Arnold O. Haugen, game extension specialist at Michigan State College, says that because of the drought a poor trapping season may be ahead in southern Michigan. That's where the greatest share of the state's million-dollar muskrat crop is taken annually.

Brightening the picture, reports Haugen, is the removal of ceiling prices on the raw furs.

Glowing Warmth

WHERE YOU WANT IT—WHEN YOU WANT IT

Chilly corners can be warm as toast these cold fall mornings. A modern electric heater gives you instant warmth from your nearest outlet. Easy to carry, easy to operate. There is no cleaner more convenient type of heat. These new, low-priced heaters are ideal for warming baby's bath area, your dressing room, bathroom, or grandmother's favorite corner.

And It Costs Only A Few Pennies An Hour . . .

but unlimited use can cause high electric bills. For example, a thousand watt heater at residence rates costs only 17½¢ a week when used one hour daily for seven days. This same unit, however, when used 8 hours a day costs $1.40 a week and will add $10.20 to your two months' bill. Consult a reputable electric dealer who can recommend a heater of sufficient wattage to fit your particular needs. He can also tell you just how much it will cost to operate.

PONTIAC

FINEST OF THE FAMOUS "SILVER STREAKS"

The production of Pontiacs has fallen far below expectations because of conditions beyond our control. Now, the outlook is encouraging. The number of cars being built—while still below pre-war levels—is steadily increasing. Which means that more of the people who simply won't have anything but a Pontiac will be satisfied sooner.

If, in the meantime, you are ever tempted to take delivery of a more quickly available car, consider this: The things that made you want a Pontiac in the first place are still EXCLUSIVE TO PONTIAC! Nowhere else at any price can you get the same time-worn reputation for dependability, long life and over-all economy. No other car offers the ever-fashionable "Silver Streak" beauty that lifts Pontiac out of and above the rest. None handles so sweetly—rides so comfortably. And none can parallel Pontiac's basic value—for no other car offers so much of everything you want for every dollar you invest.

You've been patient and loyal to Pontiac for some time now. So why not wait a little longer and get a great deal more? You'll be glad you waited.

Preventive Service Pays Off Every Time!
Just because you HOPE to get a new car soon, don't let your present car get into a dangerous state of disrepair. Having your car properly serviced pays off—not only in assuring you the safe, economical, dependable transportation you need, but also in protecting the used car allowance you will ultimately receive.

A new $475,000 agricultural engineering building is now under construction on the Michigan State college campus at East Lansing. The new building, located southwest of the dairy barn across the Red Cedar river from the main campus, will have 65,000 feet of floor space. In addition to adequate laboratory facilities, the structure will house the extension, experimental and teaching staffs of the agricultural engineering department.

Special Red Cross certificates of merit were presented to Dr. Harold A. Furlong, Byron B. Webb, C. G. Rudderham and H. The certificates were presented in honor of service as chapter chairmen during the war period. The meeting was attended by directors, service chairmen and volunteers. V. A. Phillips, Red Cross State Relations officer was the speaker of the evening.

Ceiling Boost Asked For GI Subsistence

The Veterans Administration will recommend to the 80th Congress that the ceilings governing subsistence payments to veterans engaged in on-the-job training be increased by approximately $100 over present levels, the Army and Navy Bulletin states. Sources close to General Bradley on the whole subject of training say that VA Administrator has made up his mind that the present ban on payments of subsistence to trainees earning $200 a month or more has worked a hardship in a sufficient number of cases to justify new legislation. According to information reaching the Bulletin from sources usually reliable, the new ceiling figure to be requested will be $300 a month instead of the $200 now in force.

INCREASE OF DEER HERD PRODUCES ROAD HAZARDS

The statewide increase in deer numbers has brought a north-country road hazard to the southern counties, as Moe Carter, who lives on Highway M-78 near Rose Lake wildlife experiment station learned when a big buck with a fine rack of antlers scratched up his car as he was bringing it home fresh from the paint shop. The buck jumped a road fence at Stoll and Peacock roads on wildlife station lands, smashed into Carter's car, was gone before Carter could get out to view the damage.

Unceasing War on a World of Killers

★ Leeuwenhoek, in 1683, was the first to disturb the privacy of the teeming bustle of the unseen world. The "wretched wee beasties" cavorting innocently under his lens were later indicted and convicted by Koch and Pasteur. Unbeknown to Leeuwenhoek, he had discovered a vicious and unseen world of killers, now known as bacteria, or germs.
The span of time between Leeuwenhoek and Pasteur was almost 200 years. Only an average lifetime has passed since Pasteur's experiments, during which practically all we know about disease and its treatment has been discovered. Our knowledge is expanding at an ever-increasing rate. The pharmacist works with the physician in bringing newer and better medication into the sickroom.

Proper Cooking Produces Tender Delicious Turkey
 Crisp and brown on the outside, tender and juicy on the inside—is that the way you want your Thanksgiving turkey?
 Some tips on the selection and

Tally-Ho
 TALLENGER & ROGERS
 US-10 at M-15

cooking of the turkey are offered by Jeanette Lee, assistant to the dean of home economics at Michigan State College.
 Select a young, plump, well-fattened bird for roasting. Buy one which will allow ¾ to 1 pound for each person. This amount is based on the dressed weight, not the drawn weight. A 15-pound dressed turkey makes about 20 generous servings.
 Roast young birds on a rack in a shallow pan without water and without a cover. You can avoid over-cooking the breast by starting the bird with the back up and breast down.
 To cook the whole turkey evenly, turn and baste every half hour. Turn from one side of the breast to the other, then breast up, and repeat. If the bird is large—12 to 20 pounds—turn every hour. To turn the bird, lift it by the head and feet with a cloth or paper towel. If you use a fork, it will break the skin.
 How long you will cook the turkey depends on weight and oven temperature. Heavier birds need longer cooking at lower temperatures. For birds weighing 6 to 9 pounds, roast 2½ to 3 hours at 325 degrees.
 Slightly heavier ones from 10 to 13 pounds should roast 3½ to 4½ hours at 300 degrees. Birds from 14 to 17 pounds can be roasted at 275 degrees but will require 5 to 6 hours.

Tractor Power Lift Can Be Easily Made
 A power lift attachment for tractors, easy-to-build and quick and simple to put on and take off, has been perfected by Michigan State College agricultural engineers.
 The device consists of an automobile wheel with a drum welded to it, according to Karl D. Bailey, county agricultural agent. This is mounted on the frame of the tractor in such a way the tire can be pulled back to contact the belt pulley. A brake is installed on the other side of the tire to hold the load in any desired position.
 Complete drawings for construction and illustrated views of how the lift is attached are shown in Extension Bulletin 282 from Michigan State College. The bulletin, entitled "Belt Pulley Power Lift" is available without charge from the county extension office.

Red Cross Prepares Christmas Boxes For Wounded Vets

The Community Service to Camps and Hospitals committee of the Oakland County chapter of the American Red Cross has accepted a quota of 1,500 Christmas boxes for patients at Percy Jones Hospital, Battle Creek. The committee is hoping through the assistance of individuals and organizations of Oakland County to make this one of the best Christmas seasons for the 5,000 patients at the hospital. Many of the patients have spent months in bed and a number of them will remain in the hospital many more months before returning to civilian life. The committee is anxious to secure Christmas packages by Dec. 5 and suggests that the value should be between three and four dollars.

Contents may be: Pen and pencil sets, cigarette lighters, bill folds, shaving sets, cigarette cases, writing kits, pipes, tobacco, cigarettes, pen knives, brush sets, pipes, tobacco, cigarettes, pen knives, clothing brushes, ties, handkerchiefs, T-shirts, olive drab socks, scarfs, gloves, shoe shining kits, toilet article cases, tobacco pouches, cameras, poker chips, and shaving mirrors.

Items which should be avoided are: Crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, scrap books, perishables, liquor and any second-hand items.

Gifts should be attractively wrapped and labeled with a removable label on the outside specifying the contents. Individuals and organizations are requested to call Mrs. Walter Appel, Pontiac 8689 if they are planning to prepare gifts, in order that notification may be given of where the gifts will be received. Mrs. Appel is chairman of the committee.

Chicago Stock Show Has Big Entry List From Michigan

The nation's greatest livestock show—the International at Chicago—will have Michigan competition in many departments.

This was apparent when a list of Michigan entries in the big event was compiled by Michigan State College. The International Livestock Exposition shows from November 30 to December 7. During the past five war years no exposition was held.

Those who argue that the work horse is no longer of any value may look with surprise on the fact that Michigan is sending 49 draft horses into International competition. Among them is the grand champion of the National Belgian Show, exhibited by Michigan State College. Fourteen different individuals are entering horses.

Eleven exhibitors from Michigan will show beef cattle and ten are listed to show swine in competition. Seven will exhibit sheep and three will show in the fat lamb division. Wool exhibits will be made by three Michigan farms and four men will enter the International Open Steering contest.

Judging teams from Michigan State College will compete. One team will judge fat livestock and another will enter in meats judging competition with other college teams.

VETS TOTALLY DISABLED AFTER TIME OF DISCHARGE MAY RECEIVE PENSION

Veterans of either World War I or World War II who become permanently and totally disabled from disease or injury incurred after discharge from service may be entitled to a pension of $60 a month. The $60 pension automatically increases to $72 for those veterans who have been on the rolls for 10 years or for those who have reached the age of 65. This applies only to veterans whose disability is not service connected.

Total and permanent disability for Veterans Administration pension purposes is defined as inability seems reasonably certain to last the rest of the veteran's life. This pension can be paid veterans so disabled whose income is less than $1,000 a year if single, or $2,500 a year if married or if a widower with minor children.
