Vows Spoken At Candlelight Service

Marriage vows were spoken last Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock by Nancy Jane Kittredge, daughter of L. H. Kittredge of S. Main Street, Clarkston and the late Mrs. Kittredge and Duane D. Richardson, son of Mrs. Agnes Richardson of Pontiac, at a candlelight service in the First Baptist Church in Clarkston. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. William Spurgeon Ross before an altar banked with palms, large baskets of white carnations, white gladioli and white stock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of ice blue satin made colonial style with a basque waist and a full skirt with tiny ruffles down the back forming a full fan train. Her fingertip veil fell from a shirred tulle bonnet. A rhinestone necklace with matching earrings were her only jewelry. She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis and bouvardia centered with an orchid and tied with satin streamers matching the gown.

Betty Richardson of Pontiac, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. Her gown was of shell pink chiffon with full bishop sleeves, low round neck, basque waistline and full skirt. Her matching shoulder veil was held in place by a bandeau of the same material. The color of her colonial bouquet matched her gown.

Katherine LaPlante and Barbara Lindahl of Clarkston were bridesmaids. Their gowns of heavenly blue chiffon and their matching headpieces were fashioned the same as those of the maid of honor. They carried colonial bouquets.

Patricia Hoyt of Clarkston, sang "Always" and "Because". Mrs. Howard Lord presided at the organ.

Assisting Mr. Richardson as the best man was Frank Richardson and Harold Horn of Drayton Plains and William Wyckoff of Waterford seated the guests.

Mrs. Richardson, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at the Kittredge home.

For traveling the bride chose a two piece suit of navy blue, a brown fur coat and brown accessories. On her fur coat was the orchid from the center of the bridal bouquet. After a trip to New York they will be at home at 6140 S. Main Street.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the bride's aunt, Mrs. Claude Kittredge of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Paul Stokley of Jackson. Others were from Pontiac, Waterford, Drayton Plains, Williams Lake and Royal Oak.

Methodist Choir Feted at Dinner

On Tuesday evening the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church honored the church choir and guests at a dinner. Mrs. H. W. Huttenlocher and Mrs. William Dunston were responsible for a very attractive dining-room. They used the Valentine motif by arranging the tables in a V, putting a strip of red paper down the center of each table, marking each place with a Valentine and by placing at the bottom of the V a beautiful bouquet of white snapdragons and red sweetpeas. Lighted, tall, white tapers were on each table.

About forty enjoyed the baked ham dinner. The menu was well planned and tastefully prepared and served. Mrs. Lloyd Sibley was in charge of the dinner and was assisted by Mrs. Harold Kennedy, Mrs. Paul Henry, Mrs. Glenn Boner and Mrs. T. S. Boyns.

W. Alchin, his assistant, presented the artificial breeding program to the group. Following the meeting, about 10 farmers signed up for the service, bringing to a total of about 250 cows signed up for the service in this area.

Interesting Notes From "1926 Oracle"

With much attention being given to the work of the annual yearbook, "The Hilltopper", we same across the "Oracle of 1926". We thought we could refresh many good memories by writing a brief article on it. The "Oracle" was the school's yearbook.

At this time George Walter was president of the school board. William Dunston was one of the Seniors who participated in many sports. In fact, he was captain of the baseball team. All his school chums called him Bill. Even then, his hobby was working in a meat market. Looks as though Bill followed his vocation pretty well.

Another well-known citizen of Clarkston, Manley Walter, graduated with the class. He played basketball, baseball and was the corresponding secretary of the Athletic Association. He also helped with gittatory and was Joke Editor of the "Oracle". His nickname was "Leeman" and his hobby was listening in.

Elizabeth Andrews, better known in those days as "Libby", was very active. She wrote the class history, Alumni Editor of the "Oracle", belonged to the Lit. Club and also played basketball. Her hobby was working in the Post Office.

"Dud" Porritt (Edward Lee Porritt) was treasurer of the Lit. Club, wrote the Class Will, and also played football. His hobby was getting married. His famous quotation was "good morning" and I guess, with the dairy business, he still gets to make great use of it.

One of the outstanding scholastic students of 1926 was Grace Petty. She won second highest honors, being Salutatorian. She was Editor-in-Chief of the "Oracle" and treasurer of the class. Her nickname was "Shorty". Her ambition was to be an office girl. You could always tell Grace by her "Oh gosh".

Now is a good time to get rid of all waste paper. The young people of the Methodist Church are sponsoring a paper drive on Saturday, Feb. 15, at 10:00 a. m.

Anyone who stopped in at the local postoffice on Wednesday morning at about ten o'clock was amused to see twenty-five of the first graders from the Clarkston school mailing Valentines. Their teacher, Miss Martin and the Postmaster, Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk and postal clerk, Mrs. Clarence Drake, exhibited a great deal of patience as well as interest as they helped the little folks prepare their valentines for the mail and then explained what had to be done before their valentines would be in the hands of the addressees.

Clarkston Rotary Club News

The Clarkston Rotary Club had the privilege of being the first organization in the United States to hear a talk on the new National Defense campaign which officially begins Feb. 12, 1947. Incidentally this address was Captain Cy Miller's first one he had ever made, as he mentioned he had instructed classes at Fort Knox in Tank combat training, but had never given a formal address. His talk was so interesting and inspiring that all the club members mentioned that they could have listened all evening. One of the important points he stressed, was that he was taken from the rank and file of civilian life like you or I, put through the induction center, Camp Custer, then through tough combat Tank training. He went all through the African campaign, invasion of Normandy, battle of the "Bulge", and was later one of the few men to be returned to Fort Knox to take up officer training, which he passed as one of the highest in the class. His conclusion was this: Let's have a relative short training period for our boys to acquaint them how to handle the latest fighting equipment, so that in the event war does come, it would be only a matter of a refresher course in order to be in first class condition. Don't be taken unprepared again.

There were no visiting Rotarians, which is very rare. Ladies who served the dinner were Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Lee Clark, Mrs. Wallace Ridgley and Mrs. Ward Robbins.

Valentines

To those of you who've reached the age
Of thinning hair and thoughts more sage,
I'd like to take a little trip
With you, back on our memory ship.

Let's go back to the country school,
Where we were taught by rod and rule
The basic things a child must know
That into manhood he might grow.

Those youthful days were full of thrills
For country Jacks and county Jills,
Who trudged upon that day's long trails
With overalls and long pigtails.

Store Valentines, then things unknown;
So each one had to make their own.

And artists young, and dreadful shy
Created cards they could not buy.

Wallpaper, cut in heartlike shapes,
Adorned with orange or purple drapes,
With sentiments most crude but tender
Won bashful glances for the sender.

The older children found some lace,
And stuck thereon a pretty face,
Sometimes there too they placed a dove
To bear their messages of love.

Today, down at the five and dime,
The young folks buy another's rhyme,
Selecting it with little care
To pass on to their ladies fair.

Mrs. W. K. Ryan entertained with a double birthday party at her home in honor of her sons Dick and Dale who were celebrating their eighth and tenth birthdays. The twenty-four boys enjoyed games with prizes and refreshments. There were two tables set with a birthday cake on each table. Each boy had his own group at his table.

Mrs. O. L. Siegman, chairman of the Community Library committee, is very anxious to have all State Library books turned in so that they may be returned to the State Library on February 19th. The books may be left at Jacober's Market, Tom's Market, Lambertson's Service Station and the Drayton Soda Grill.

About twenty boy scouts and cubs attended the services of the Christ Lutheran Church last Sunday morning, twenty the services at the Community church, and four the Catholic services at Drayton Plains. The boys are invited to return to these churches each Sunday.

The Girl Scout Leaders Association will meet at the Waterford village school at 8:00 Tuesday evening. The Drayton Plains leaders will present a program on handicraft and there will be a panel discussion on "badge work". All leaders having girl scout material or books for the Girl Scout Book shop are asked to bring it Tuesday evening. All leaders, assistant leaders, and committee women are urged to attend the meeting.

The Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lillian Wilcox, 292 N. Saginaw (in Pontiac), at 8:00 Thursday evening. Mrs. Carrie Bennett will assist Mrs. Wilcox.

LOG-CABIN - CLARKSTON

The Clarkston Wolves lost their third game (second in the league) to Log Cabin last Friday in the Clarkston gym. The final score was 29-27.

Clarkston's game was marked by rugged individualism which enabled Log Cabin to play basketball around them. The team and substitutes for the game consisted of: Davison, Ludwig, Greathouse, McGee, Longair, Dubats, Adams, Anderson. Log Cabin led all through the game—1st quarter 11-8, second 19-12, third 23-17 and the game 29-27. The wolves in the last four minutes of the game tried to make a comeback and threatened to tie the score but the bell ending the game found them still trailing by two points.

Farmers Get Help

In 1916 the Emergency Farm Labor program of the Oakland County Extension Service again met and solved many problems of securing labor for farmers. As a result, a bumper crop of small grains, an average crop of apples and other fruits and vegetables were harvested successfully. Harold Abbott, Oakland County Farm Labor Assistant, declared today. In its recruitment program the Farm Labor staff used 333 men and youth to satisfy work orders for 195 farmers. Included in this placement were 87 Jamaicans, 76 day hauls, 58 other seasonal workers (boys who live with farmer for summer season) and 112 men on yearly jobs. Approximately 600 youth were recognized for giving of their time and service to produce food by being presented with a diploma of National Service and insignia.

The Emergency Farm Labor office distributed 300 pamphlets and bulletins. They gave information on easier methods of picking various crops.

Some equipment was obtained by farmers to have adequate housing. The equipment included tents, cots, mattresses, mattress covers and comforters. The equipment that was obtained through the War Assets Administration was later turned over to the farmer at cost.

The Southern Michigan Cooperative Growers Association, Inc., organized in 1944, function throughout the year. Its duties are procuring and assisting farmers in securing labor on farms of Oakland County and portions of Wayne and Washtenaw Counties to harvest fruit, potatoes and grains.

The following farmers were serviced with yearly placements in 1946:

C. H. Bliven, Oscar Virgin, Fred Beckman and Lakeland Farm, Clarkston; Samuel Halsey and Earl Voorhees of Davison; John Lessiter of Lake Orion; George W. J. Linton and Cliff Lippert of Ortonville.

Extended Education Offered Marines

A Marine Corps Extension Station has been officially opened in the Post Office Building, Room 4, Pontiac, Michigan, to operate from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Monday through Saturday.

The following item may be of interest to ex-marines:

By Act of Congress, benefits of the G. I. Bill of rights, including college education are open to every qualified young man who has served 90 days in the Marine corps, one day of which was served between September 16, 1940 and the official declaration of the termination of war.

In the past, hundreds of thousands of intelligent young men finishing high school each year have been unable to afford a higher education. Today enlistment in the Regular Marine Corps makes that opportunity available to every high school senior who has the necessary mental and physical qualifications.

Enlistments are open to men aged 17 to 29, and may be for 3 or 4 years. At the end of his enlistment the honorable discharged Marine is entitled, under the G. I. Bill of Rights, to a period of education or training at Government expense. This is based on the length of his service, up to a maximum of 48 months. He is entitled to the 12 months education available to all men who have served as mentioned. In addition, he is eligible for one month of education for every month he has served prior to such official declaration. This training may be taken at any college or university, trade or business school for which he can qualify.

The Government will pay his tuition, up to $500 per ordinary school year plus $65 monthly allowance for living expense—$90 if he is married.

What made Greyhound Grow?

...giving the people
good transportation...at low cost
...and lots of it!

From puppyhood, Greyhound grew on one good idea: to build a new, "American-style" travel system for THE PEOPLE.

Not mail...not freight...but PEOPLE.

The thing Greyhound knows best is how to get people to the places they want to go...at the times they want to go...at prices they can afford.

And Greyhound does this for more cities, towns, villages and corners than any other transportation system.

What's more, Greyhound makes this "American-style" travel friendly, easy, convenient...stopping in the heart of big cities...at the drug store across from the city hall...or at Pete Jones' farm, if that's where Pete wants to get off.

Why do the people like Greyhound? There's your answer: good transportation...at low cost...and lots of it.

Farmers Asked to Check Insurance

The buildings on many Michigan farms could not be repaired with the amount of money for which they are insured. Higher costs of labor and material to rebuild make any fire or wind losses greater today than before the war.

N. L. Smith, extension specialist in farm management at Michigan State college, advises farmers to get their insurance policies out and do a little figuring. Preventive measures alone will not eliminate fire or wind and a well planned insurance program will reduce financial loss if disaster should strike.

A recent study of 187 Michigan farms shows that three-fourths of the farm owners have increased the insurance on their buildings since 1939 by about 35 percent. Although the insurance has been increased by 35 percent, building costs have increased 70 percent in the same period. This wide difference in increased building costs and insurance shows the additional risk that most farm owners have.

Smith says the study shows that, on the average, the fire insurance carried at present would pay about 43 percent of the farmer's estimated cost (1946) of replacing the buildings. Wind insurance would cover about 38 percent of the 1946 replacement costs. Farmers in either case would have to bear about 60 percent of the loss themselves.

A careful study of present coverage and a conference with the insurance representative will help farm owners to lessen the risk of great financial loss.

Know Rugs and Room—Then Buy

If you plan to buy floor coverings, the time to start shopping for them is before you ever go to the store. Ruth J. Peck of Michigan State college believes you should be ready to give the sales person the exact size of the room before you buy a carpet or rug. The home furnishings specialist says you must know what colors and types of design will harmonize with the room and what price range you can afford. You should know the exact size because today's trend is to use wall to wall carpeting or a room size rug and you will want to avoid a wide border. Carpeting comes in 27 and 36 inch widths and broadloom (seamless) comes in 9, 12, 15 and 18 foot widths.

Remember that your floor covering is the largest color area in the room. It should repeat the colors in the upholstery and drapery fabrics. Plain rugs require more upkeep than patterned ones. If you already have several bold patterns in the room, another may be too much. Remember that a room needs 3 plain parts to balance 2 patterned parts.

In the new rugs there are many interesting textures which may take the place of a pattern design. Many are made from twisted or nubby yarn and have a pebbly texture. Variations in weave make the carved pile type. Or a shading of color tones may give the effect of a carved pile. The wood and fabrics in the room will give you a clue about texture. Oak calls for medium to rough textures or a hard finish such as linoleum. Walnut and mahogany suggest smooth, fine textures.

Rug quality will be somewhat dependent on the price you will pay. Quality is determined by the compactness of the weave, the thickness of the pile and the materials used. Labels will tell you whether the fiber is all wool, all new wool or part rayon. Look at the back of the rug. Close ridges mean better quality. A stationary knife for cutting seed potatoes leaves both hands free for cutting.

For full utilization of farm help, provide proper training and encourage workers to do the best job possible.

PROTECT YOUR CHILD AGAINST WHOOPING COUGH

★ World-wide in its distribution, whooping cough is endemic in large cities, becoming epidemic on a large scale every two to four years. The seriousness of pertussis, especially in young children, is evidenced by the mortality rate—about 26 percent in infants less than one year old.

Children should be vaccinated during the first year of life. Do not wait for an epidemic. It takes several weeks after vaccination for the body to produce antibodies. Ask your physician now about protection from whooping cough for your baby.

We carry fresh stocks of vaccine under refrigeration at all times.

HE ADDED YEARS TO YOUR LIVING

This man who was born one hundred years ago this week spent most of those years working to make our lives easier. Today, we are apt to take his achievements for granted—to forget the wondrous changes he made in our daily lives. The stenographer little realizes the drudgery of office routine without typewriter or duplicating machine; the saleswoman can hardly imagine a busy day without gummed wrapping tape.

The list of his achievements is long and varied, but most of us have some special obligation to Thomas A. Edison. Every worker who finds his lunch-time sandwich fresh in its waxed-paper wrapping—every G.I. who crossed an ocean safely with the aid of radar and submarine detection devices—can thank Mr. Edison.

But these specific contributions of the man become small and insignificant alongside his other gifts to all mankind. For every one of us who sends a telegram or rides a street car—everyone who enjoys a radio, a phonograph or a movie—can thank Mr. Edison.

Some of these gifts have made our lives safer. Some have given us more pleasure. Most have made our tasks easier. But all are eclipsed by his gift of electric light. For with that one invention he, in a very real sense, added years to our living. Those years are made up of thousands of evenings . . . and since Mr. Edison's invention of electric light, evenings—with their hours of relaxation, of reading or games or good companionship—have become the best part of our lives.

Evenings have also become a time for study. Men and women today, fired by the example of Thomas A. Edison, are using them to continue his research for even better ways of living.

IN HONOR OF MR. EDISON . . . The Detroit Symphony Orchestra this week inaugurates a new series of popular concerts each Tuesday night at 7:30 over WJL. And don't forget the Edison Institute Museum's special exhibit this week at Greenfield Village. 9 a.m.-4 p.m. daily. Admission 25c. All Edison power plants will also be open this week from 11 and 5-8 p.m. daily, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday. Call RA4ndolph 2100 for details.

If your telephone is mum— hum-mm-m. Don't dial until you hear it "hum-m-m" Sometimes, when you pick up your telephone receiver, you may not hear the dial tone right away. That's because the central office dial switching equipment is momentarily handling all the calls it can. If you start to dial before you hear the steady "hum-m-m," you'll get either a wrong number or no number at all. We're adding more switching equipment just as fast as we can. But, because of material shortages, it will be some time before we have all we need. Meanwhile, you'll get better service if you'll wait until you hear the dial tone before you start to dial your telephone. Several have heard from Mrs. Agnes Flickinger from California and she seems to be having a grand time. She's sure missing a lot of bad weather. Brownie troop number 3 had a Valentine Party at the village school Tuesday afternoon after school. Twenty-four brownies and four guests enjoyed the party.

Mrs. Mildred Hudson, Mrs. Ada Campbell, and Shirley Gesch assisted the leader, Mrs. Louis Hillman. The girls had a pretty Valentine box for an exchange of Valentines. Dainty refreshment were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mehlberg spent Sunday in Wayne. Their little granddaughter, Barbara Tuck, is recovering from bronchitis. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mehlberg took the latter's mother, Mrs. J. C. McMacken to her home in Toledo after having been a guest in the Mehlberg home for a week.

Don't forget the modern and old time dancing at the Mountain View Country Club between 9:00 and 1:00 Saturday night. About one hundred-fifty persons enjoyed it last Saturday evening.

Let's not forget to attend the church of your choice on Sunday. There will be Sunday School at the Williams Lake school at 9:45 Sunday morning by the Christ Lutheran church and at the Community church at 10:00. Lutheran services at the Williams Lake school at 11:30 with the Rev. Philip A. Jordan as pastor and the Community Church at 11:15 with the Rev. Wright VanPlew as pastor.

The young people will meet at the Community church at 6:15 for their weekly meeting and the evening service will follow at 7:30. The Luther League of Christ Lutheran church will meet at the home of Helmut Engler at 7:30 Sunday evening.

Pinocle will be played at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Armstrong at 8:00 Monday evening. Couples interested are invited to attend. The Valentine Tea which was to have been at the home of Mrs. Richard King this Wednesday afternoon was postponed until Tuesday, the eighteenth, because of the condition of the roads this week.

The Guild of Christ Lutheran church is sponsoring the Tea for the benefit of the building fund. Come and bring a friend. Mrs. Ernest Stevens will entertain the Birthday Club at her home at noon next Wednesday.

Michigan farmers ordinarily use about 5 1/2 million pounds of alfalfa seed. Last year's production in the state is estimated at 2 1/2 million pounds. With less than half of the required seed available, Michigan farmers will have to use seed grown elsewhere for more than half of their seedings in 1947.
