Two More Dances This Season

There is no doubt that warm weather will be here one of these days and then the dances at the school will be over until fall. However you have time to get your tickets for the Junior-Senior dance tonight and for the Poppy Day and Homecoming dance on May 24th.

Any member of the Legion Post or Auxiliary has tickets to sell for the May 24th dance. The decorating committee is planning something novel and the refreshment committee will see that there is a snack for everyone.

Remember these dates and plan to have a good time. The orchestras for both dances are well known and very popular.

Top Honor Students Named This Week

The administration of Clarkston High School announced the valedictorian and salutatorian for 1947. Katherine LaPlante, with an all "A" record, has been named valedictorian, while Kenneth Hempstead is salutatorian.

Katherine LaPlante came to Clarkston in the second grade, from Minnesota. Grade teachers remember Katie for her curly hair, her winning smile and the excellent grades she made. Katie's record at Clarkston has been unmarked by even one "B" since the ninth grade. She is one of the few Michigan high school graduates with an enviable "4" point average. Last year Katie was a very active Secretary and Girls' Commissioner of Activities on the Student Council. She entertained the audience as a belligerent housewife in last year's junior play, "Everybody's Crazy". Katie has been a constant contributor to the "Hilltopper" and "Chatterbox" and culminated her journalistic bent this year as editor-in-chief of the annual, "The Hilltopper". Katie's trombone in band and alto voices in chorus have been helpful in making music successful in Clarkston High. Katie worked hard for the social success of her class as co-chairman of the senior prom and chairman of the decorating committee of the junior-senior banquet. She plans to enter Cleary College where she will prepare for commercial work.

Kenneth Hempstead, 1947 salutatorian, also came to Clarkston in the second grade. Ken's recent portrayal of Ben Stevens in the junior play, "Snafu", was particularly well done since he had less than a week in which to learn the role. His experience as Horkey in this year's "Seven Sisters" and Herbert Stanley in last year's "Everybody's Crazy" perhaps gave him the practice necessary for playing the part. Ken has held various offices throughout his last four years - senior class president, junior treasurer and photography chairman for the 1946 Hilltopper. Ken was on the debate squad and represented Clarkston in extempore speaking this year. His hobbies are numerous - radio (he's made sets of his own from spare parts), photography, hunting and automobiles. Ken plans to spend the summer at the Hempstead cottage in the Upper Peninsula and to enter Wheaton College where he will begin his preparatory work in law next fall.

The Clarkston P. T. A. was well represented at the State convention in Detroit this week. Among those attending were Mrs. Russell Coulton, Mrs. K. L. Johnson, Mrs. James Glennie, Mrs. Donald Harris, Mrs. A. F. Heineman, Mrs. Howard Johnson, Wallace Ridgley, Rev. Walter C. B. Saxman, Mrs. Paul Henry and Mrs. William Johnston. The meetings were held in the Masonic Temple and the banquet was at the Statler.

P. T. A. Silver Tea Wednesday, May 28

The Clarkston P. T. A. meeting which was to have been held on May 21st has been postponed to May 28th. This change was necessary because some of the girls taking part in the program are seniors and they will be away on their annual trip.

A very good program is being planned for the meeting the 28th when the home ec. girls will present a style show and Mr. Lamb will favor the group with special musical numbers by the girls' sextet. The proceeds from the Silver Tea will be for the elementary library. The meeting will be in the afternoon. Remember the date, May 28th.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seeterlin and son, Richard John, of South Bend, Ind., spent several days of the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Seeterlin of Middle Lake Drive. Most important of the musical programs in Michigan's celebration of Music Week is the annual May Festival of the University of Michigan Musical Society at Ann Arbor, which started Thursday at Hill Auditorium.

On Friday night the University Choral Union will be assisted by four grand opera stars in Beethoven's Missa Solemnis. Soloists will be Regina Resnik, soprano; Anna Kaskas, contralto; Frederick Jagel, tenor, and John Gurney, bass.

Saturday afternoon's concert will present the Festival Youth Chorus under Marguerite Hood in a Song Cycle from the Masters. Alexander Hilsberg will conduct the orchestra in the Mendelssohn Fourth Symphony and the Brahms Violin Concerto with Isaac Stern as soloist.

Ezio Pinza will be the soloist Saturday night in arias from Mozart and Moussorgsky opera. Ormandy will conduct Paul Creston's Second Symphony and the suite from Stravinsky's "The Fire Bird".

Robert Casadesu will perform the Beethoven "Emperor" concerto on Sunday afternoon. Ormandy will direct performance of the Bach Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor, and the Brahms Second Symphony.

The Festival will end Sunday night with Ferruccio Tagliavini as tenor soloist in two groups of operatic arias. Hilsberg will direct the overture to Glinka's "Russian and Ludmilla"; the Water Music Suite of Handel - Ormandy, and Ravel's "Rapsodie Espagnole".

The Choral Union will be heard in Verdi's "Te Deum".

SORRY!

The P. T. A. regrets that the name of The Clarkston Dairy Bar was omitted from the list of those mentioned in the card of appreciation last week. Many thanks go to this business concern for their generous cooperation at the recent dance.

Waste Paper Drive Wednesday, May 14

Next Wednesday afternoon the Men's Club of the Methodist Church will be in charge of a waste paper drive for the benefit of the elementary library at the school. In helping with this project by giving all of your waste paper you know that you are making it possible for every school child in this district to have good reading. Every child has access to the school library. When the library is open there is an adult librarian there to help the children and to suggest what books are best for their needs.

Have the bundles of waste paper tied and at the curb by noon. Let's make this the biggest drive ever sponsored here. Just a small bundle from every home in the community would help.

The boy scouts of troop No. 49, opened their meeting, Monday evening, May 5, at 7 o'clock with Scoutmaster H. O. Waggener and assistant Scoutmaster Herb Rose. We talked about the things we did on our overnight hike last Saturday, May 3. We have three patrols and three new leaders for the patrol.

There were six new members at the meeting who are soon going to join. Herb Rose asked if we would like to go on a hike this Saturday, May 10 out to his house to pass the things that are needed to get badges. It will not be an overnight hike. We found out how many scouts are going to go to the Court of Honor and Court of Review at Drayton Plains Thursday night, May 8th. Near the end of our meeting, Mr. Ivonen passed out pamphlets about Scout Camp and he talked to us about it.

We closed our meeting by having the Scout Master's Benediction.

Leader Outlines Scout Program

Oakland Circle District of the Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, now has 28 Cub packs, Scout troops and Sr. Units, totaling more than six hundred boys, and nearly two hundred volunteers. Mr. Arno Hulet is the chairman of the District Committee and Mr. Kenneth Sanderson is District Commissioner. These two men and the leaders working with them, have made outstanding progress toward a better program in this district which includes most of Oakland County, but not Pontiac.

Accomplishments to date include Boards of Review, Courts of Honor and Leaders Roundtables which are now available on a neighborhood basis. Names selected for these neighborhoods of the district are as follows: Southern Neighborhood includes South Lyon, Farmington and Walnut Lake; West Lakes Neighborhood taking in Walled Lake, Milford, Highland, and east to the edge of Pontiac; Dixie Neighborhood made up of towns near Dixie Highway and including Holly; Agawam Neighborhood is Gingeiville, Lake Orion and Oxford; Avon Neighborhood is Avon township. The public is always invited to local Courts of Honor, and any other Scout or Cub functions.

New units are being organized in many parts of the county and steps are being taken to strengthen spots where the program has been weak. The most recent new units are troops at Rochester, Ortonville, Novi and a Cub pack at Farmington.

All Scouts are now looking forward to the Council Camp-O-Ree, a three competitive camp event to be held at Avon Park in Rochester on June 20, 21 and 22; Pontiac district and Macomb County district will also participate.

The summer camping season at Camp Agawam on Tommys Lake near Lake Orion opens on June 29.

Real Fish Stories

Anglers on Hubbard Lake have something new to angle for this summer: big walleyed pike.

The lake is popularly believed to contain no walleyes, but on a single lift of the nets of commercial fisherman, Elmer McCoy of Black River, witnessed by Conservation Officer Donald Gillies, there were 15 walleyed pike ranging from 8 to 20 pounds, along with a ton of suckers that weighed one to two pounds each.

The rough fish removal program on Hubbard lake is similar to that on Burt, Mullet and Carp lakes, with all game fish taken in the nets returned unharmed to the water.

Best fishing story of the season so far is the one about the rainbow trout that caught the violator.

Conservation Officers Art Lietz, Verne Dockham, Bill Copeland and Bert MacGregor, on patrol along the East Branch of the Au Gres, spotted jacklights and closed in on the illegal spears. All three were young men. Two made a half-hearted attempt to escape, but their companion was anchored in the stream -- by a rope knotted to his waist that had six big speared rainbows on the lower end of it.

Fish and gear were confiscated and the three youths, all from Hule, were ordered to appear in justice court in East Tawas.

Housewives buying smelt at the peak of the dipping season when the price is good and the supply abundant can find recipes for a dozen different ways of preparing the fish, and for eight different sauces to go with them, in a new free folder.

Smelt may be used for those bite-and-a-half sized canapes and fried, broiled, baked or pickled they make a tasty dish when prepared according to these recipes tested by the foods and nutrition section of Michigan State College's agricultural experiment station.

Research and distribution of the fish recipe folders, of which this one smelt is the fifth, is being done in cooperation with the Michigan department of conservation.

Men's Club To Hear Dan DeForge

This coming Thursday the Men's Club will meet at the Methodist Church for 6:30 dinner. The program which is in charge of Wallace Ridgley and Ward Robbins will feature Mr. Danny De Forge of Detroit.

Mr. DeForge is well known in Detroit for his aid to underprivileged children. Each year he has taken 100 boys one month and 100 girls another month into Canada for a free vacation. These children have received through him for the most part their first help and aid in community rehabilitation. Another hobby of Danny DeForge is the presentation of free moving pictures on the ceilings of some 70 crippled and bed-ridden people each month.

His story is one of great service to the children and the aged and forgotten.

Mother Earth

Amid the bustle and the strife Of modern days, we scarcely note From whence comes every form of life Of which the ancient poets wrote.

We take for granted, meadows green, And hillsides dotted o'er with trees That in the sun produce a scene Unmatched, as they wave in the breeze.

We're apt to think that man-made goods Are products made alone by man, That cabinets ne'er came from woods, And question earth's part in the plan.

'Tis well the world is large of girth, So those who choose in cities live, Have little contact with the earth, Thus know not how the farmers live.

Yet, it is sad some do not know, From things of earth, all is created, Our food and clothing from it grow, But seldom is appreciated.

The earth's the mother of us all, She heals our wounds whenever we fall, We feed upon her flowing breast; The rich and poor, alike, are blessed.

She takes her children's wild abuse, And covers up the best she can, Producing ever for our use, Necessities for life of man.

Cover Keeps Rain Out of Salt Dope

Phenothiazine, the only known drug that will eliminate the nodular worm and control all other types of round worms in sheep, can increase the rate of sheep growth and save the salt containing the phenothiazine is kept dry. When the salt mixture is placed in open salt boxes, the rains dissolve away salt, leaving a concentrated solution of the phenothiazine which the animals refuse to eat.

Prof. G. A. Brown, animal husbandry specialist at Michigan State College, and farm labor specialist of the MSC extension service agree that a mixture of one part phenothiazine to 10 to 14 parts of salt should be placed in a covered box for effective use on the range.

The boxes should be high enough to the eaves (36 inches) so the sheep will not tip them over when rubbing their necks. With a two by six base 34 inches long the boxes will not be blown over by the wind.

One by 12 lumber for the cover, or metal as pictured, and an 8 x 24 inch trough are convenient to use. Building the trough right on the base gives more strength and enough room to get a pall between the trough and roof to empty salt.

Most pastures, and in some cases even the bedding under the sheep, may be a source of parasitic infestation which the phenothiazine and salt mixture, if kept continuously available, will effectively prevent and control. If phenothiazine is not used, or if the rains are allowed to wash it away, the parasites cause decreased milking ability on the part of ewes, less growth by lambs, reduced mortality in the flock, and in many cases severe death losses.

thurs Armstead. Each member is to bring a handkerchief to sell. The building on the lot is growing right along. Men, having time, after work and on Saturdays are urged to contact president, A. L. Adams and a suitable job will be assigned. A lot of help can be used.

Don't forget that donation of good books for the library. Donations may be taken to Jacobson's Market, Tom's Market, Lambertson Service Station and the Drayton Soda Grill. Books may be borrowed by calling Mrs. O. L. Siegman.

Vet Dental Care Available Now

Misconceptions regarding the veteran's right to dental care are widespread, Dr. Clarence R. Jacobson, regional head of the dental division of the Veterans Administration, Detroit declared.

The Government does not assume an obligation for dental defects noted at the time of entrance into the service, he said.

Dr. Jacobson listed three types of defects for which the veteran is entitled to care by dentists connected with the VA. They are: Defects directly traceable to service in the armed forces as verified by service records.

Defects whose treatment would benefit service-connected disabilities, such as gastric ulcers.

Defects of vocational students receiving training for a service-connected disability under Public Law No. 16.

Many discharged veterans were told they could receive dental treatment from the VA regardless of the circumstances, Dr. Jacobson said, and this misconception led to many complaints.

"We didn't have adequate facilities," he added. "But now, in Michigan, we have 2000 dentists working for the Administration."

Veterans' applications for treatment in Michigan are being received at the rate of 4000 a month.

Defects that develop within a year after discharge are considered service-connected.

ly in the upper peninsula. About 8,000 acres have been grown with an average yield of 8.3 bushels per acre during the past 10 years.

Flax grows best in sections with cool spring weather and fertile and well-drained clay or silt loam soils. Sandy soils are not recommended.

The crop is generally seeded at the rate of about 3 pecks (42 lbs.) to the acre. It should be seeded early in the spring on a firm, clean seed bed and should not be planted over an inch deep. Weeds should be kept to a minimum since they can easily ruin a good stand of flax.

Wilt resistant strains have conquered the flax wilt disease that previously reduced stands. The Bison variety is the leading commercial strain and good seed should sell at 9 to 12 dollars per bushel.

Flax is generally a contract crop and growers should have an outlet for their production before planting.

Snafu

The junior class play, Snafu, directed by Mrs. Monzelle Clark, last Friday and Saturday in the school auditorium was a great success.

Martin Wager, as a sixteen year old sergeant, returned home from the war to parental problems. Fran Daily portrayed his excitable mother and Ken Hempstead, who acquired the role half a week before opening curtain, played Martin's harassed father. Joyce Fostick's characterization of Aunt Emily was very convincing. Wayne Longair, as one of the sergeant's boys, was realistically noisy, informal and perturbed by civilian ways. Marilyn Kennedy, the family's Mexican servant, was a master of innuendo. Raymond Day was the stuffy school principal. Mary Jo Pettengill portrayed the sweet young friend who waited for the sergeant's return home. The rest of the cast was Laura, Mary Secan; the senator, Bill Ludwig; Mrs. Garrett, Sally Curry; the detective, Dean Anderson; the colonel, Dick Doyle; Martha, Marianne Marshall; Gardner, Jack Selberg; Le-gionnaires, Ronald Pearsall, Jerry Kidder and Jack Roy.

The junior class presented gifts at the last curtain call Friday night to Mrs. Clark for her directing of the play; Miss Kloock, class adviser, for her work "behind the scenes"; Dave Lochlin, a Pontiac senior, for supervising the set; Shirley Crosby for her work as student director and Ken Hempstead for his contribution to the play.

The set, perhaps the most beautiful ever erected for a play here, was the interior of a California home with an effective patio in one corner.

Girls' Softball

Clarkston vs. Log Cabin there April 30. The game started at 3:30. Starting lineup was: Pat A. Watson, 1st, Dawn Coleman, S.S.; Marilyn Kennedy, 3rd; Margie Jones, C; Lois Baynes, R. F.; Mary Nell Brooks, L. F.; Donna McDermott, C. F.; Doris VanWaggoner, P.; Ellen Rockwell, 2nd.

In the fourth inning the following girls substituted: Charlotte Bentley, S. S.; Joyce Moore, 3rd; Shirley Crosby, C.; Janet Keelean L. F.; Barbara Tarleton, C. F.; Mary Jo Pettengill, 2nd.

Final score Clarkston 45; Log Cabin 14.

Rifle Club

Five eighth grade boys are getting instructions in firearms safety and marksmanship with Mr. Brable instructing each Monday from 4 to 5 p.m. It is hoped that another group of boys in the same grade may be started as soon as the first class is far enough along to take care of itself on the range. The teams would eventually compete and a Clarkston High School match team would be selected for inter-scholastic shoots.

The first purpose of the course is to emphasize the safety rules to be observed with the common, though surprisingly powerful rifle, known as the .22 bore. So far the boys have learned to observe the correct positions in prone and offhand shooting. Before school closes Mr. Brable expects to reach at least 25 boys with the initial instructions.

Clarkston Beats Log Cabin

Davison hurls no hitter to beat Log Cabin 2-1.

Last Friday Clarkston beat Log Cabin on the Wolves home field. The Wolves jumped to a one run lead when Kidder singled to drive in the first run.

Cabin scored their run when Davison walked a man, who then stole second and advanced to third when the ball got away from Greathouse. He scored on Davison's wild pitch. It looked as if the game would go into extra innings but Clarkston scored their last run in the last half of the seventh Kidder coming through again with

Sergeant with Jerry McSafely

Jerry McSafely To Come Here Thursday, May 29th

Jerry McSafely, the toothy, grinning, quick-witted ventriloquist dummy and his master, Sgt. Fernelius, of the Detroit Police Safety Department, arrives here May 29th to present his safety talk to the children of the Clarkston school. After his performance there he will make a public appearance at the Beattie Motor Sales in Waterford.

Jerry and Sgt. Fernelius have been making these safety talks before school audiences since Sept., 1938. Future plans indicate that the pair will tour the entire country as part of a program to teach safety to America's children.

Jerry's fame has been growing by leaps and bounds since his birth in 1938. With his engaging grin, rolling eyes, wiggling ears and a line of witty patter and songs, "Patrolman" McSafely has been "laying his audiences in the aisles". He attracts the children like the modern counterpart of Pied Piper. When his safety lecture is over, the children beg for more. He is besieged for his autograph and followed by crowds of eager fans as he makes his exit.

The credit for this startling hero is Sgt. Fernelius, who decided in his first year as a safety lecturer with the Detroit Police Department, that he could get more attention and make a more lasting impression if he could make his talks entertaining as well as informative. So, Jerry was created, and dressed in a junior size regulation police uniform complete with shield, handcuff and revolver. Sgt. Fernelius designed his safety talk into a fast-moving dialogue in which he modestly gives the dummy all the best lines.

A city-wide contest was held in Detroit, and the child who submitted the name "Jerry McSafely" won a cash prize. Since that time Jerry has become famous not only with the children but in adult circles. He has appeared regularly before school audiences and to adult groups at lodges, churches and other civic and social clubs, and has made a number of radio broadcasts. During the war, Jerry and Sgt. Fernelius joined a USO group and toured 20,000 miles to entertain the troops throughout Europe. On the return trip to this country Jerry made a midnight performance for a plane load of convalescent troops thousands of feet above the dark, swirling waters of the Atlantic.

a single to drive in the winning run. Kidder was the star at bat, getting two for three at the plate and driving in both Clarkston runs.

Clarkston now has two wins and two losses in league standings.

More than one hundred persons attended the Spring Party for parents of pupils in Mrs. James Sutton's fifth grade room at the village school Friday evening. An interesting program was enjoyed, including the flag salute led by Robert Beedle; prayer led by Mrs. Sutton; a welcome by Cecelia Plautz; opening speech by David Eaton; song by the class; piano solos by Barbara Simmons and Charlene Barber and a recitation by Billy Wood. There were piano solos by Robert Beedle, Patricia Lowery, Sherrill Lyon, Mary Lou Oakley and Dale Hoobler; recitations by James Cleland, Bobby Oeschger, Jeannie Shunk, Donald Ziegler and James Attard; cornet solo by Lewis Fitzgerald and an original poem by Jack Mitchell. Leslie Fitzgerald displayed a gun collection and explained guns in relation to U. S. history. Norma and Phillip Smith, in Mexican costumes, commented on their recent trip to Mexico. Dr. and Mrs. Norman Smith presented moving pictures of Mexico. Various classes answered roll call with each pupil making a statement about a particular subject as his or her name was called by the student teacher. Geraldine Haynes acted as arithmetic teacher; Jack Mitchell, history teacher; Jon Medlyn, teacher of the spelling class and Richard Powell, teacher of the geography class.

The fifth grade pupils took great pleasure in presenting their teacher, Mrs. Sutton, with a beautiful corsage. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leslie Fitzgerald, Mrs. Everett Lyons and Mrs. Eugene Cleland, room mothers.

One hundred and twenty-five young people attended the annual Luther League Spring Rally for the East side of the Grand Rapids district held at the Drayton Plains School Sunday afternoon and evening with the League from Christ Lutheran Church as host. The afternoon meeting was opened by singing led by Ronald Shirkey of Flint with Helen Hanson, also of Flint at the piano. Martin Wager, president of the Waterford League, extended a welcome to Leagues from Bay City, Pontiac, Berkeley, East Detroit, two from Flint and three from Detroit. The Rev. Neal Pearson of Berkeley conducted a brief business meeting which was followed by a report by Ray Peterson of Grand Rapids who had recently been the delegate to the Los Angeles Youth Conference. The Leagues from Flint put on a skit "For Better, Not For Worse", which was an example of a poor Luther League meeting and an example of a good meeting.

Between 5 and 5:30 the group enjoyed a period for getting better acquainted with Martin Wager starting games. This period was followed by refreshments served by the hosts, assisted by Mrs. Roy Olson and Mrs. Earl Grahl. The evening session began at 6:30 with more group singing led by Ronald Shirkey. The Rev. Neal Pearson gave the Bible Camp outlook for this summer. The Waterford group plans to attend camp at the Pleasant Hill Lutheran Camp at Gowan, Mich., which is near Grand Rapids, from August 10 through August 15. There were special numbers by the girls' chorus from St. John's Lutheran Church of Pontiac. The Rev. Theodore A. Church of Detroit gave a very pretzlaaff from the Salem Lutheran interesting talk.

Fishermen Want Warmer Weather For Trout

Trout fishermen at the season opening had cold weather, high winds, low water temperatures and light catches, as predicted, but they turned out in fair numbers anyway, also as predicted, the conservation department reports.

Bait fishermen had a fair time of it on some streams, but most fly fishermen were convinced, after a few tries, to wait for better weather. Some large rainbow trout were reported taken.

Conservation officers in plain clothes, concentrated quietly on rainbow trout spawning streams in the week before the opening, brought in more than two dozen violators. Penalties for spearing and snagging trout and for snagging walleyed pike ranged from $10 to $50 and 10 days in jail, and in Lake county the sheriff had to borrow beds to accommodate the unusual surplus of prisoners.

In the week ending with the opening of trout season 71 fires burned 439 acres, more than had burned previously in the three weeks since the first forest fire was reported.

American Legion Helps Stricken Texas City

Funds to help rebuild and rehabilitate the community recently devastated by one of the worst disasters in the nation's history are pouring in on explosion-torn Texas City, Texas.

Members of the American Legion in Michigan were among the first to send aid to the stricken Texans. 20 Legion Posts in Detroit promptly raised $1,300 and many others throughout the state quickly followed suit until the fund was swelled to several thousands.

Cash raised by the Michigan Legionnaires is being sent directly to Dr. Simeon Wall, commander of Post No. 89 at Texas City. It will be used to assist members of the Texas Legion and their families, and the residents of the community at large.

Babe Ruth Coming To Michigan

Babe Ruth is coming to Michigan this summer. One of baseball's immortals, he will help pack Briggs Stadium with fans for the third annual All Star American Legion junior baseball game on Sunday, June 22. The Legion will donate the entire proceeds to the Old Newsboys Goodfellows Fund.

Ruth signed a contract a month ago to serve as consultant for the Legion junior baseball program, which has the financial backing of the Ford Motor Co. Due to uncertain health he may make only a few public appearances this year, but the Briggs Stadium date June 22 is a "must" on his schedule.

In the All Star game a hand-picked squad from the teams in the Detroit junior baseball league will meet one from the Legion's 16th Congressional District teams. The two clubs will be managed by former big league players.

Give Growing Chicks Good Nutrition

Breeding chickens and growing pullets require good nutrition if they are to develop properly. County agricultural agent Karl D. Bailey recommends green pasture to supply needed feed this summer.

When birds are kept on good pasture they consume less mash because they secure proteins and vitamins from the pasture. Good pastures will support 300 to 500 growing chickens on each acre.

Temporary pastures can be provided for late spring and early summer by seeding oats, 4 to 6 bushels per acre, broadcast or drilled both ways. An early seeding of 15 pounds of domestic rye grass plus 2½ pounds of Ladino clover will also provide a good range.

For midsummer pasture, sudan grass seeded 35 to 40 pounds per acre may be used. Sudan should not be sown until all danger of frost is past.

Perennial pastures can be grown by seeding mixtures of clovers and alfalfa. These pastures require less work and are easier to maintain than annual pastures.

Careless use of green feed is not recommended for the laying flock because of the variation in yolk color that the feed causes.

The dramatic story of space -- hurling rockets that provide science with new data about the

IS MEDICINE DESTROYING ITSELF?

★ Things dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfa drugs and penicillin are examples.

Less dramatic, but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal; swamp clearance; water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these triumphs.

The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Brice to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labors incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence."

The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician. The accurate filling of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Where's the Argument?

You should have heard Ed Carey and Spike Miller debating the merits of Guernseys versus Holsteins. Ed's our firechief, and Spike handles hardware—but to hear them argue you'd have thought that they'd been dairying for life.

Finally they put it up to Sam Carter, who breeds dairy cows! Sam hems and haws... and concludes there's a lot to be said for Holsteins, and about as much for Guernseys... take your pick!

Actually, Ed and Spike were like people arguing about—say, beer

Sugar Beets Need Fertilizers

Michigan farmers who are shopping for fertilizers now should remember that Sugar beets need special fertilizers. This timely advice comes from Dr. C. E. Millar, head of the department of soil science at Michigan State college. Sugar beets are particularly sensitive to shortages of available phosphate, and are also large users of potash.

For Sale—3 piece modern bedroom suite complete with mattress and springs, good condition. Reasonable. Call, any time, Clarkston 2508. 36p

On typical dark-colored clay loam soils, about one-half as much potash as phosphoric acid has proved suitable. For the better silt and clay loams that are well supplied with humus 2-16-8 is recommended. Due to the present shortage of fertilizer materials it may be necessary to use 2-12-6 in many localities. Also recommended are 4-16-8 and 4-16-4. On lighter loams more potash is needed and the percentage of phosphoric acid and potash in the fertilizer should be about equal. A 3-12-12 is an excellent grade.
