Local Teacher Speaks Vows

A very pretty wedding took place in the St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Trenton, Mich., at 7 o'clock last Saturday when Margaret Kloock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Kloock of Trenton, and Orville Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Berg of Clarkston, spoke their vows at a double ring, candlelight service.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was gowned in ivory satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, an all around peplum, long sleeves ending in points over the wrists and a skirt with a slight train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls.

Mrs. Frederick Rawsphorne was her sister's only attendant. Her gown of peach marquisette was styled the same as the bride's except that it had capped sleeves.

Walter Henry of Clarkston assisted Mr. Berg as best man and the bride's brother, Arthur Kloock, Jr., and her brother-in-law, Fred Rawsphorne, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kloock chose a pink crepe dress with black accessories and a small black hat. Mrs. Berg wore powder blue with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white gladioli and Johanna Hill roses.

A reception in the parish house followed the ceremony. The refreshment table was covered with a Madiera cloth, and was centered with a three tiered wedding cake flanked by pretty arrangements of white and pink roses and blue forget-me-nots.

Following the reception the young couple left on a short honeymoon into Ohio. For traveling the new Mrs. Berg wore a grey print dress, a grey coat, a grey and navy hat and grey and navy accessories. On her coat she wore the gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

Guests who attended the wedding from Clarkston, were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Habermas, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Regina Krell, Miss Patricia Niblack and Charles Beach.

For a while Mr. and Mrs. Berg will reside at 9811 Dixie Highway and they hope to locate in Clarkston before fall.

Mrs. Berg has been a member of the high school faculty for the past three years, as teacher of Home Economics. She expects to resume her school duties in September.

School Head Leaves Clarkston

After heading the local schools since July 1944, Carl Brablec has resigned to accept the superintendency of Roseville, Mich., public schools. Mr. Brablec's letter of resignation read, in part, as follows: "A community now numbering about 14,000 persons has asked that I administer its school system for the next three years. The professional advancement involved, as well as other considerations which attend a larger job, necessitates the step I am now taking. I need not explain that the separation from this school and community is effected with great reluctance both on the part of Mrs. Brablec and myself. It is not easy to leave the friendliest people it has been our fortune to know."

During his three year stay at Clarkston, Mr. Brablec has witnessed the growth of both the student membership and teaching staff. Student numbers have increased from 450 to 512, this latter figure representing about capacity attendance with the rooms now available. The staff has grown from 16 to 20 and this has made for some expansion of curriculum and departmentalization.

The Board of Education has cleared all site bonds, made material reductions in the debt service and set the school's operating funds in an enviable position in contrast to the great number of public schools now resorting to deficit financing.

A noteworthy study was made by a lay committee, in cooperation with the Board, Mr. Brablec and Mr. Ridgely during the past year on the matter of re-organizing the school district in order to secure the benefits of additional revenues from the state and state-paid transportation. This report was well received by county and state authorities. It will undoubtedly be a matter for further local study because the potential returns, both from the outlook of instruction and management, are too good to ignore. The Board of Education and school administration cannot determine this re-organization because its fruition rests with the qualified electors of the school districts involved.

When asked about the Clarkston teaching staff for next year, Mr. Brablec commented that it was very nearly made up. "This is a vital matter," he said, "because next to the children themselves, there is no single factor so dominant in importance as the classroom teacher. The loyalty, energy and resulting teaching tone which comes of properly-supported and adequately-paid teachers are about as near to being the true core of a progressive school as anything you can mention."

The Brablecs will move to Roseville at the earliest opportunity, but have not located a residence as yet. July first marks the date for assumption of new duties there.

Taylor-Nunham Rites Read

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church at Clarkston, Barbara Lou Taylor and Ernest L. Nunham spoke their nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor of Clarkston and Mr. Nunham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nunham of Rattalee Lake Rd., Davidsburg. The Reverend William S. Ross of Clarkston read the double ring rites by candlelight before 200 guests.

The church altar was banked with palms, and baskets of white garden flowers, peonies and carnations. Lighted cathedral candles added to the setting. Mrs. Howard Lord played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Orlo J. Willoughby who sang "At Dawning" and "Because".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in wedding ring satin, fashioned with fitted basque bodice and sweeping train. Pearl embroidered chantilla lace formed the yoke of the gown, and long fitted sleeves formed points over the wrists. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pearl beaded tiara and was banded on the bottom with chantilla lace. The bridal bouquet was of pink carnations and sweetpeas, with long white satin streamers.

Donna Marie Thatcher of Imlay City, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was gowned in bridal blue taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. The back of the gown was trimmed with tiny covered buttons from the neckline to hemline. With this she wore lace mitts of pastel pink to match the band of flowers on her head. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and sweetpeas. Junior bridesmaids were Lorraine Allen and Mrs. Marvin Downing of Waterford. They wore identically fashioned gowns of pastel blue and pink taffeta, and carried colonial bouquets of carnations and sweetpeas.

Shirley Nunham, sister of the bridegroom, was gowned in yellow net and carried a nosegay of yellow and white daisies. She wore white accessories. The best man was Donald Hudson of Holly and the ushers were Leon and Raymond MacDiarmid of Clarkston; while the brother of the bride, Douglas Taylor, was junior usher.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, wore a street length gown of grey sheer with pink accessories and her flowers were pink carnations and roses. Mrs. Nunham, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in egg shell crepe with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations and roses.

Following the wedding, a reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake on a mirror with a bowl of white flowers, and lighted white tapers in crystal holders gracing either end.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of coral with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. After a wedding trip, the bridal couple will be at home at 3100 Seymour Lake Rd.

The bride is a graduate of Clarkston High school, class of '47, and Mr. Nunham attended the Holly High school before entering service with the U. S. Navy during the war.

Ted Nesmith, Clarkston's pitcher, allowed only 5 hits and 2 runs. Both runs coming in the second inning as a result of Cecil's single and Meyer's ground-rule home run. G. Kelley again led the Clarkston batters with a triple and 2 singles and crossed the plate 6 times. Hauer, Secord, Walters and Nesmith each collected 2 hits.

Rotarians Organize At Ortonville

About 165 Rotarians from this district attended the Charter night at Ortonville Wednesday evening, at which time the newly organized Ortonville Rotary Club received its charter. This club was sponsored by the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club.

While the guests were arriving and registering music was furnished by the Ortonville High School band under the direction of Betty Marble. Following registration, dinner was served to the group in three dining rooms.

After dinner and a short period of visiting, a program was presented on the lot east of the Town Hall. This was opened with group singing led by Robert L. Jones.

Dr. W. H. Cohoon, Governor's Special Representative, introduced the program participants, starting with William Shunk, president of the Waterford-Drayton Club, who gave the address of welcome.

James Y. Vandarsal, accompanied by L. Salathiel, gave a violin solo and encore. This was followed by two piano solos by Mr. Salathiel, and again Mr. Vandarsal obliged with his violin playing.

The address of the evening was given by George H. Kimball, Jr., of Waterford, who spoke feelingly of the duties of a good citizen. His comparison of a good citizen and a good Rotarian left no doubt in the minds of his listeners that a good Rotarian is a good citizen.

Following the address it started to rain and the meeting was adjourned to the Town Hall, where presentations were made. The Amherstburg Club of Ontario, presented the Canadian flag.

Other gifts included an American flag, books, badges, a gong and gavel and about everything needed to start the new club.

Joseph V. Brady, District Governor was introduced and in a few words congratulated the new club. In closing his remarks he read a poem by Robert C. Beattie, stating that Bob had given a very good description of a Rotarian.

Robert McCall, president of the new club, accepted the charter and expressed thanks for the gifts presented.

Extended Age

We read each day on printed page. How science gives man greater age.

How years ago at sixty-five Scarcely any man dared be alive, How grandpa then at fifty-two Had figured his best days were through.

And girls unwed at twenty-four Had led romance get past their door.

So science with its worthy aims Thinks there is truth in all its claims.

Thinks vitamins and hormone pills Have helped correct our aging ills. Have kept the oldsters blythe and spry.

With youthful twinkle in the eye, And great-grandpa at eighty-eight Is hunting up another date.

Now let's give credit where it's due And recognize these cures new, But haven't you heard people say That time just simply slips away?

That everything is done so fast Each year is shorter than the last. And man is young at eighty-nine Because of shortening of time.

USE SPECIAL TRICKS WHEN YOU SEW JERSEY

Rayon jersey is a favorite for summer dresses and blouses because it's cool and doesn't wrinkle easily. If you're going to sew on rayon jersey, however, you should know the tricks of handling it. Jersey can be gathered and draped beautifully, but you have to place the gathers evenly. Florence Rann, clothing specialist at Michigan State college, says that gathers put in one place will be heavy and cause sagging.

Designs in printed jersey are usually large, floral figures, colorful affairs or wide stripes. Draping will bring the designs closer together and break their boldness. Don't make a dress of jersey too close fitting because it will stretch and look "baggy". Since jersey does not hold a press, you cannot use pressed pleats. All edges which tend to stretch, such as the waistline, neckline and arm hole, should be stitched right after cutting to prevent stretching. Sew seams from the bottom up and set your machine for a longer stitch and looser tension than for other materials.

Every jersey dress needs extra strength at the waistline to prevent stretching. Stitch seam binding or pre-shrunk cotton twilled tape under the waistline seam.

Collars, cuffs and front edges may need a lightweight piece of cotton between the layers of jersey to make it more firm.

FOOD BARGAINS FOR YOU EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

SAVE MONEY—SAVE TIME WITH A ROOMY HOME-FREEZER

Strawberries picked this week for breakfast next December! That's how a home-freezer makes your meals so tasteful. It's the economy angle, though, that makes such a hit with farm wives. You save money—with fewer trips to market—fewer purchases of out-of-season foods. You save time—with less marketing—less canning and preserving.

Summer-fresh food the year round means greater variety in meals—plus higher vitamin content than is found in meats and vegetables preserved by other methods. The Home Service Advisor at your nearest Edison office will be glad to give you the details, and advise you about the home-freezer best suited to your needs. Or see your local appliance dealer.

Now's the Time TO INVEST IN A HOME-FREEZER
The pick of the berry crop is ready for freezing now. And it's only a matter of weeks before late-summer fruits and vegetables will be ripe 'n' ready.

DEATH

RIDES WITH THE RECKLESS

One-fourth of all fatal accidents on the highways of our country and in the streets of our cities and towns are caused by speed. Reckless drivers—disregarding all the laws of traffic safety and common sense, urging onward automobiles catapulted by the power of a hundred horses—these were the prime killers in 1946.

Last year 33,500 persons—drivers, riders and pedestrians—died in automobile accidents. That's about one death every fifteen minutes. More than a million were injured, many of them maimed or crippled for life. This year the toll will be even greater, approaching an all-time high of 40,000 deaths—unless you, Mr. and Mrs. Driver, call off this daily rendezvous with Death.

You can do your part to help stop this highway slaughter by personally striving for an accident-free record. Drive carefully at all times. Be considerate of other drivers and pedestrians. Gauge your speed to highway conditions and traffic requirements.

Don't let Death hang over your shoulder and point the way to the morgue. Drive safely—and live!

This advertisement is presented in the public interest by the President's Highway Safety Conference and the daily and weekly newspapers of the nation through their Press and Publisher Associations.

Commercial Cars On Display Today

Featuring the cab that breathes, the new Advance-Design line of Chevrolet commercial cars and trucks is on display today at the Sesterlin Bros., Inc., showroom in Clarkston.

"Chevrolet is the largest producer of trucks in the world," Joe Sesterlin declared, "and its new line is undoubtedly the finest in the history of the company. We cordially invite truck owners, fleet operators and others interested in trucks to view the exhibit in our showrooms."

Produced in a wide variety of models to accommodate practically every hauling job, the Advance-Design line of vehicles is manufactured in nine wheelbases with gross vehicle weights (combined weight of the chassis, body and load) ranging from 4,000 to 16,000 pounds.

"Each model in the diversified line has been precision engineered for a specific load rating, with all component parts designed for the work load and to provide the utmost in safe, comfortable, low-cost transportation."

Re-styled, the Advance-Design series are unusually attractive in appearance and provide more room, more comfortable seats and other improvements for the comfort and convenience of the "man behind the wheel."

Chief of these is the cab that "breathes", in which a new ventilating system circulates fresh air in the cab and keeps windshield and windows free of fog.

Completely welded, instead of bolted, the new cab is much stronger, and its doors have an inner and outer seal. Increased driver comfort is also accomplished through the new three-point type of cab mounting—two tension and shear mountings in the front, and one shackle mounting in the rear center.

"Windshield and side and rear windows in the cab provide greater vision. Instrument controls are re-styled and rearranged for improved driver convenience," Joe said, "A new dome light is another cab feature."

Ten Vacation Commandments

By William DeKleine, M. D., Commissioner for Michigan Department of Health.

- 1.—Do the things you enjoy most, provided they are safe and sane.
- 2.—Eat sensibly - do not overeat - eat lots of fresh fruits and vegetables.
- 3.—Be sure to choose clean eating places.
- 4.—Exercise moderately out of doors in the sunshine.
- 5.—Get your coat of tan gradually - avoid severe sunburn.
- 6.—Drink only pasteurized milk and only water that you know is safe.
- 7.—Sleep eight hours every night.
- 8.—Bathe at approved beaches. Do not swim alone in deep water or dive in water of unknown depth.
- 9.—Oldsters, act your age! Avoid strenuous exercise.
- 10.—Be moderate in all things—don't argue—take it easy and have some fun.

Observe these commandments and keep them wholly; herein lie physical, mental and spiritual values.

SWIMMERS CAUTIONED

Because of the large number of lakes in Oakland County and the many individuals swimming during the summer months some knowledge of water safety is important to those individuals participating in this form of recreation, according to Mark Smith, chairman of the Red Cross water safety committee of the Oakland County Chapter. Although much has been accomplished in safeguarding the lives of those who bathe in our lakes and a system of rescue has been worked out to aid those who get in difficulty, a knowledge of individual safety in the water is an important safeguard. The following rules, set up by the Water Safety Service of the American Red Cross, if observed, will prevent many serious water accidents; Do not swim in water which is too cold; do not swim less than an hour and a half after eating; if you are a non swimmer do not go out beyond your depth; when swimming a distance, swim parallel to the shore; never swim in deep water alone; do not dive into unknown territory, know what conditions exist under the water; do not over load a boat; carry only its natural capacity of passengers; do not change seats in a boat except at the water's edge; if in a difficult situation guard against panic and exert all intelligence and physical ability in extricating oneself from the predicament; when caught in a current swim diagonally across it; when caught in water weeds or eel grass, attempt to extricate the limbs by slow gentle drawing and shaking movements as quick sharp movements will only tend to wrap the weeds and grass more securely about the legs and arms. Frequent surveys of drownings in Oakland County by the local water safety committee show that the majority are caused by personal carelessness and could be avoided.

COMPENSATION ACT MAY COVER FARM EMPLOYEES

Spring operations in Michigan farms will mean increased hired help and a greater possibility of accidents, warns N. L. Smith, specialist in farm management at Michigan State college.

Possible claims by employees for injuries sustained while working can mean a cash outlay for the farmer-employer. If it is proven that negligence on the employer's part caused the accident, he can be required by the court to compensate the injured employee.

A recent study, conducted by the MSC farm management department, showed that very few farmers carry insurance to financially protect themselves in case of injury to hired help.

Two methods are open to farmers who wish to insure against loss resulting from injury to employees. Farmers carrying workman's compensation insurance on their employees are automatically included under the Workman's Compensation act of 1912. With this type of policy, the farmer, as the employer, is protected since his insurance will pay the benefits. Employees are eligible only for benefits provided by the act and cannot seek further damages. Rates for this insurance at present are about $2.53 per $100 of payroll.

ADVICE ABOUT KEEPING WELL

* "The man who thinks to conserve his health by uselessness and ease does not differ from him who guards his eyes by not seeing, and his voice by not speaking. . . . Least of all is it to be assumed that laziness is healthful, if it destroys what health aims at; and it is not true that inactive people are more healthy."

This excerpt from Plutarch's essay Advice About Keeping Well, written over 2,000 years ago, might have been written yesterday. Had medicine and pharmacy been well developed then as they are today, we are certain would have stressed the value of a periodic physical examination by a qualified physician. By the same reasoning, it is wise to take your prescription to a registered pharmacist for expert compounding. We are prescription specialists.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!
One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize, not the hat.)
"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see he was proud of Sarah.
From where I sit, there's another thing Ed can be proud of: the way he's put up with those hats of Sarah's, with never a criticism; just as she's put up with Ed's pipe and the other little freedoms he enjoys.
They've got that refrigerator home now, stocked with beer; and we're going over tonight to drink a toast—not just to Sarah's hatstak-ing first prize... but to a happily married couple, who've learned to live with one another's differences in tastes—whether it's a taste for hats or beer!

Kroger One in a Million!

In Cincinnati, Ohio, the 1946 Safety Award for grocery truck fleets was won by Kroger drivers with a record of only two minor accidents in two million driving miles.
All Kroger drivers appreciate the importance of safety and courtesy, as well. We believe there are no better drivers on the road today.
