Mrs. Carl Enden and small daughter, Margaret Rose, returned to their home near Ortonville on Saturday after spending over a week at the home of Mrs. Enden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Giddings.

 The Gospel Fellowship Class of the Waterford Community Sunday School met for their Christmas party at the parsonage with 14 present to enjoy a chicken supper. Games and an exchange of gifts comprised the evening's entertainment. No date has been set for the January meeting but the group plans to gather at the parsonage on Dec. 20 to fill the boxes for the Christmas treat for the Sunday School. The time and place of the January meeting will be announced later.

 Following the Sunday evening service at the Community Church the pastor and his wife were pleasantly surprised when about 60 people arrived at the parsonage for a singalong. An informal program of songs was enjoyed. The occasion honored Rev. and Mrs. VanPlew on their wedding anniversary. Cake and coffee were served, with cocoa for the young people.

Mrs. Frank Minton reported that the P. T. A. now has 203 members. The group voted to give each room money to be used at Christmas time as the respective teachers saw the need. The chairman of the magazine subscription sale, Mrs. Alfred Beebe, gave the report that about $150 was cleared on that project. Mrs. William Pelton was named budget chairman for the year. An announcement of the dancing lessons sponsored by the P. T. A. for the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades will be from 6:30 to 7:30. The 7th, 8th and 9th grades will have the hour from 7:30 to 8:30. Mrs. Ada Campbell's 8th grade room won the parent attendance plaque. There was a panel discussion on "Our Township Schools Next Year and the Year After". Superintendent William Shunck pointed out that we will have about 600 more pupils in the now over-crowded school this next year. Refreshments were served by the Windiate Park group.
 In spite of the bad weather the attendance at the Community Sunday School last Sunday was 190.
 On Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, the sound film "The Missing Christian" will be shown at the Waterford Community Church at 7:30. Set this date aside to see this interesting picture. Everyone is welcome.
 The Ladies' Guild of Christ Lutheran Church had their meeting for December at the home of Mrs. Anna Gesch on Wednesday. There were 24 members and two guests present. Mrs. Stanley Hawkins was in charge of the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Albert Dryden. The devotions were conducted by the Rev. Philip Jordan. Plans were made to start making altar linens as soon as the proper materials can be purchased. Mrs. Emery Beedle is chairman of this work. From a collection taken for charity $10 will be sent to the Cooperative American Relief to Europe organization. The rest of the collection will be used to assist some family in this vicinity. The Guild will serve dinner to the teachers of the Waterford school and their guests on Dec. 11th. Mrs. Hawkins is in charge of the dinner. The pastor made the announcement that the annual Christmas program that the Sunday School has arranged will be at the Williams Lake school at 4 p. m. on Dec. 21st. The choir has planned a program to be given at 11 o'clock on Christmas Eve at the same place. The next meeting, Jan. 7, will be at the home of Mrs. August Jacober with Mrs. Joseph Helman and Mrs. Louis Rizzolo as assisting hostesses. Mrs. Flora Wager played the family organ leading in Christmas songs. A sketch comprised of conversation between "Luke and Mother Mary" was given by Mrs. Ivan Bahm and Mrs. James Allen. Mrs. William Rough-ton read the introduction before the sketch was given. Gifts were brought for the church nursery. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Albert Mertens and Mrs. Walter Schumck.

 The Williams Lake ladies had a real good time on Wednesday morning when they had a surprise "Go as you are breakfast". The door bell rang and one of the ladies from the P.T.A. was ready to escort you to the breakfast. The merriment was great when one appeared in bathrobe and curlers. The proceeds from this is to be used for playground equipment.
 The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Community Church held the December meeting at the church with 17 present to enjoy the dinner and lunch at 12:30. A business meeting was held as the members were gathered around the table. Mrs. H. B. Mehlberg, president, conducted the meeting. Christmas work for the needy is one of the group's projects. Mrs. Arthur Davis has invited the ladies to her home for a cooperative luncheon.

 Mrs. Glenn Bingel of Andersonville Road was hostess to a group of ladies at a ten o'clock breakfast and brush demonstration at her home on Thursday.
 The MOMS held their December meeting on the first Wednesday instead of the second Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Clinton Armstrong. Eleven of the ladies went at 10:00 a. m. and took a dinner and lunch. They spent the time completing some sewing for two hospitals that the National Hospital Chairman asked the Waterford group to take care of, the Batavia hospital in New York and the Brecksville General hospital in Ohio. The boxes packed for these hospitals contained slippers, scrapbooks, wash cloths, chair cushions, fracture pillows, and paste. Boxes were also packed for Percy Jones and Dearborn hospitals. Mrs. C. Armstrong and Mrs. Elmer Going were the committee for the Michigan hospitals. Special recognition is to be given to the pupils of Mrs. John Watchpocket's and Mrs. James Sutton's classrooms for the articles for the scrapbooks. The January meeting will be on the second Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Maude O'Connor. There will be a planned luncheon at 12:30. Each person will provide her own table service. ADMINISTRATION NEWS

The entire high school was entertained with a two-hour lecture about Finland and Russia given by a foreign war correspondent, John D. Shirraef, last Wednesday. Mr. Shirraef is of Finnish birth and has worked for the United States government and now is employed by the Detroit Times as a writer. Mr. Shirraef told the students what he saw in Finland and Russia and made a comment at the beginning of the lecture that he would try to keep it from his own personal views. The lecture was very well received by the students and their interest was shown by the numerous questions that poured in from all sides during the question period.

WOLVES TAKE EXCITING GAME FRIDAY

In a very closely contested game, the Wolves defeated the Orion Dragons last Friday night at Lake Orion. In two overtime periods, Bill Ludwig, calm in a pitch, succeeded in sinking three baskets to win the game for Clarkston. Johnny Leonard, the Dragon's big gun, started the scoring with a goal two minutes after the start, but Donald Dubats promptly erased that lead by sinking two free shots after being hacked by Leonard. Big Johnny then raised the Orion score two more points, and Hugill added a 3-2 lead. Before the end of the first quarter Gene Greathouse dumped in four points and Leonard added a foul shot to give Lake Orion a 7-6, first quarter edge.

Orion's Hugill dropped two more free shots to start the second quarter, and Schmidt, Dragon guard, added a goal to raise the score to 11-6 in favor of the home squad. After Hugill had sunk his fifth free shot, Wayne Longair shot a lengthy basket to raise the Wolves to within four points of the leading Dragons. Taylor of Lake Orion and Greathouse sank goals in the remainder of the first half, and Wells and Fell of the Wolves and Leonard of the Dragons put more points on the scoreboard via the free shot route. The score at the half stood - Lake Orion 15, Clarkston 13.

The third quarter saw fifteen personal fouls committed, but the margin of two points remained with a score of 20-18. Leonard racked up two points to start the last quarter, but then left the game on fouls. Hugill gave Orion a six point lead at the automatic time out. Gene Greathouse caught fire then to sink two baskets and Dubats helped the cause with another 30 that at the end of the playing time, the score was knotted at 24 points.

In the first three minute overtime, Bill Ludwig put the Wolves in the lead for the first time with a mid-floor shot, but Taylor added two to that and as the time-keeper made ready to sound the end, Bill Ludwig again tied the score for Clarkston. With the tension at its height, Ludwig roared in to drop a dog in the sudden death period to give Clarkston a hard fought 30-28 victory.

The game was a rough one, with 51 fouls being called.

Line score by quarters:
Clarkston 6 7 5 4 2 30
L. Orion 7 8 5 4 4 0 28
This Friday the Wolves tangle with Big Beaver at Clarkston. Two games were scheduled, but Log Cabin has made other plans and Coach Thayer is attempting to find an opponent for the reserve squad.

SENIOR NEWS

The whole school is raving about the marvelous game our boys played Friday night. Nice shooting, fellas!

Seniors are anxiously awaiting their pictures this week. They were to be delivered the second week in December. Look out, relatives! You know now what you are getting for Christmas.

The band and choral concert is scheduled for Tuesday, December 23. The program will be formal and Mary Lee Volberding and Phyllis Weyer are working on plans for specialty numbers.

Miss Campbell has really caused a hub-bub amongst the Juniors and Seniors. The question of the day is - "Do you have your essay written?" It seems that Miss Campbell thinks it wise that we do a bit of constructive writing, so every day each class is assigned an essay of a definite topic. Surprising as it may seem, I think everyone is getting quite a kick out of it and someone just might turn out a masterpiece yet.

CHRISTMAS VACATION AT U-M STARTS DEC. 20

Christmas vacation will begin officially at noon on Saturday, Dec. 20, at the University of Michigan. Classes will be resumed on Monday morning, Jan. 5.

The exodus of students from the campus is expected to be in full swing on Friday afternoon as those who do not have Saturday classes begin to leave. Special trains and busses will handle a large part of the outgoing throng.

The Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day involving Michigan and Southern California will draw some of the students and faculty to the west coast during the holiday season. The vacation schedule permits making the trip without any time from classes.

HUNTERS ASKED TO SEND IN REPORT CARDS

Deer hunters -- and small game hunters who have put their guns away for the season -- are reminded by the conservation department that it is none too soon to send in those game kill report cards.

A game kill-report card is issued to each hunter or trapper as part of the hunting or trapping license. It must be separated from the license along a perforation, filled out and mailed with a one-cent stamp. It must be mailed sometime before February 15, but conservation department men urge early mailing, so an early start may be made analyzing the reports through card punching and sorting machines.

When broken down by counties, the game production figures are of considerable local interest, and the broad trends in the production of pheasants, rabbits, squirrels, deer and so forth are of considerable significance in drawing up the next season's dates and bag limits.

"adequate and efficient railway transportation service for the nation"

FROM THE OFFICIAL REPORT of the Interstate Commerce Commission on awarding a temporary freight rate increase of 10%, we quote:

"The law requires us to give due consideration, among other factors, to the need of revenue sufficient to enable the carriers under honest, economic, and efficient management to provide adequate and efficient railway transportation service for the nation..."

And that threat is real, and it is now. For with increases in the cost of railroad operation piling up one atop another, how can the railroads' multimillion dollar program for desperately needed new equipment be continued? How can improvements in roadbeds, yards, stations, rolling stock, which took a merciless beating in the war years of peak traffic, be carried through?

They can't... UNLESS -

Unless the railroads are granted freight rates adequate to meet the wage and materials cost increases, and at the same time keep hundreds of American industries busy with new machinery and equipment orders.

Government requires that the railroads maintain a high standard of efficiency because You demand it, Industry depends on it, and the Nation must have it.

We are asking a permanent freight rate increase of the absolute minimum to meet our need - which is in every sense your need.

Our request should be granted.

service in the European Theater were warned today by T/Sgt Lunde, recruiting chief in this area, that quotas for that Command extend only through December under current directives. He explained, further, that the European Theater was closed for 20 months and was opened last August for a five month period. Under this plan veterans of any service could be enlisted for direct assignment to Europe, provided they were not above the grade of S/Sgt. Many veterans have taken advantage of this offer but many more are waiting with the intention of enlisting after the holiday period. Men in the latter category are strongly urged to contact their local recruiting station at 53 1/2 W. Huron St., Pontiac, as soon as possible.

In connection with the coming campaign, Mr. Cross, Mr. Smith and Miss Ruth Kimball, executive secretary of the chapter, attended a Fund meeting in Chicago last week where they were in conference with Red Cross officials of the midwest area office in St. Louis, Mo.

GAY APRONS MAKE POPULAR XMAS GIFTS

Every woman likes to receive a gay new apron for Christmas that is just a little different in design or material because someone has made it for her. You can have lots of fun making aprons for your friends by using simple patterns and choosing different materials and combinations of materials to make them "special". Margaret Hearn, textiles specialist at Michigan State college, suggests you look around the house for materials before you buy any. How about flour sacks? They make good, durable aprons when laundered, bleached and dyed. Discarded men's shirts may contain some very fine material in the backs that is not worn at all. Your "piece bag" will contain some remnants either large enough for a whole apron or at least for the trimmings. There are endless possibilities in washable cotton yard goods if you buy your material. Everything from the sheerest of organdies to heavy denim or sail cloth may be used for different types of aprons. Don't forget to look at curtain and drapery fabrics too. They're usually woven in wider pieces and will cut to better advantage. Glazed chintzes with the permanent finish are attractive and do not soil or wrinkle as easily as some other fabrics. Plastics are interesting to work with and easy to handle if you use a long stitch on the sewing machine and eliminate pinning and basting. Edges may be left raw or bound with a contrasting color. It is possible to buy ready-made ruffling by the yard in matching or contrasting colors as a finish.

Most authorities agree that a 13 or 14 hour day is plenty. More light will be a waste of electricity. Morning lights are best. An automatic switch that turns them on at 4:30 or 5:00 a. m. works well. The lights then can be turned off when daylight arrives. Two 40-watt lamps in a 20 x 20 foot laying house will give enough stimulation for maximum egg production, adds agent Bailey.

POULTRYMEN CAN HELP SAVE GRAIN

For the poultryman who is asking himself, "What can I do to conserve feed?", J. M. Moore, extension poultryman at Michigan State college, has a few answers. The specialist points out that careful culling will help to reduce feed needs. The first 100 eggs a hen lays take 80 pounds of feed; the second 100 only 20 pounds more. Mash feeders are listed as the greatest leak in feed waste. Feeders should not be filled more than two-thirds full to prevent the feed from being billed out. Rat control, too, is an important step to stop useless waste of feed. Laying house mortality in Michigan, Moore states, is about 17 percent. Buying healthy chicks, good sanitation, and disease control can help to cut this figure.

Red Cross News

Marshall E. Smith, Chairman of the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, announces that Milo J. Cross has been appointed Chairman of the 1948 Red Cross Fund, which will begin March 1, 1948. Mr. Cross was chairman of the 1947 Red Cross Fund and has consented to serve that quotas for that Command extend only through December under current directives. He explained, further, that the European Theater was closed for 20 months and was opened last August for a five month period. Under this plan veterans of any service could be enlisted for direct assignment to Europe, provided they were not above the grade of S/Sgt. Many veterans have taken advantage of this offer but many more are waiting with the intention of enlisting after the holiday period. Men in the latter category are strongly urged to contact their local recruiting station at 53 1/2 W. Huron St., Pontiac, as soon as possible.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS STIMULATE EGG LAYING IN COLD MONTHS

Electric lights will stimulate egg-laying during the fall and winter months when production is normally low and when prices generally are high, says county agricultural agent, Karl D. Bailey. While the use of artificial lights may not make your pullets lay more eggs over the period of a year, it will be profitable to "force" pullets to lay in fall and winter instead of being "boarded" until the spring lay-period comes along. Experiments have shown that in lighted pens, hens gave 80 to 70 percent production from October until about February. The same type of hens, not receiving lights, produced about 40 percent production during this time. In the same tests, the hens without lights came into high production about February and during the spring months were laying 65 to 70 percent, while the hens with lights "were down the ladder" at about 45 to 50 percent. The average annual egg production for lighted pens was 204 while unlighted pens averaged 199 eggs yearly.

Most authorities agree that a 13 or 14 hour day is plenty. More light will be a waste of electricity. Morning lights are best. An automatic switch that turns them on at 4:30 or 5:00 a. m. works well. The lights then can be turned off when daylight arrives. Two 40-watt lamps in a 20 x 20 foot laying house will give enough stimulation for maximum egg production, adds agent Bailey.

For the poultryman who is asking himself, "What can I do to conserve feed?", J. M. Moore, extension poultryman at Michigan State college, has a few answers. The specialist points out that careful culling will help to reduce feed needs. The first 100 eggs a hen lays take 80 pounds of feed; the second 100 only 20 pounds more. Mash feeders are listed as the greatest leak in feed waste. Feeders should not be filled more than two-thirds full to prevent the feed from being billed out. Rat control, too, is an important step to stop useless waste of feed. Laying house mortality in Michigan, Moore states, is about 17 percent. Buying healthy chicks, good sanitation, and disease control can help to cut this figure.

HORSE EVENTS SET FOR FARMERS' WEEK

The big day of the year for Michigan horsemen is scheduled for Tuesday, January 27, 1948, during the Farmers' Week program at Michigan State college. Outstanding breed representatives of both draft and light horses will be on exhibit during the day. Draft breeds shown will be Belgians, Percherons, and Clydesdales. The light breeds will be American Saddle Horse, American Trotting Horse, Thoroughbred, Walking Horse, Quarter Horse, Arabian, Appaloosa, Palomino, Morgan and ponies. Many of these animals will be champions at state and national shows. The morning program will be spent on draft horse events and horse pulling contests, while the afternoon will be devoted to the light horse program.

Conservation News

Fourteen years ago a man hunted a deer on a small game license and, being a man who wanted to live "a holy and humble life", he never "felt right about it".

In a letter to the conservation department explaining a blank game kill report card he said that this year, he "fold the good Lord if He would help me get a deer I would make it right". He got the deer. Then he "made it right" in the best way he knew how: he bought a second license in his wife's name, and immediately voided the seal by locking it.

Winter Weather Driving Tips

Inadequate traction and limited visibility form a combination that greatly increases hazards of driving in winter. Yet deaths, injuries, property damage and delays can be reduced by taking special precautions, the Michigan State Police advise. Here are some of the recommendations they offer:

Get the "feel" of the road and adjust speed to the road surface and weather conditions. On icy or snowy roads, a car is always near the skidding point and even 20 miles an hour may be too fast.

Remember you must see danger to avoid it — so keep your windshield and windows clear of snow, ice and frost and fog.

Remember it takes 3 to 12 times farther to stop on icy or snowy roads than when they are dry. Avoid quick acceleration or deceleration and sharp turns to prevent skidding. Apply your brakes with a gentle pumping action. If skidding starts, turn the front wheels in the direction the rear end is skidding.

Slow down well in advance of intersections, curves and hills. Expect "icy spots" at shaded locations and on bridges.

Remember you must see danger to avoid it — so keep your windshield and windows clear of snow, ice and frost and fog.

20 PIECE SET $5.95

Every woman likes to receive a gay new apron for Christmas that is just a little different in design or material because someone has made it for her. You can have lots of fun making aprons for your friends by using simple patterns and choosing different materials and combinations of materials to make them "special". Margaret Hearn, textiles specialist at Michigan State college, suggests you look around the house for materials before you buy any. How about flour sacks? They make good, durable aprons when laundered, bleached and dyed. Discarded men's shirts may contain some very fine material in the backs that is not worn at all. Your "piece bag" will contain some remnants either large enough for a whole apron or at least for the trimmings. There are endless possibilities in washable cotton yard goods if you buy your material. Everything from the sheerest of organdies to heavy denim or sail cloth may be used for different types of aprons. Don't forget to look at curtain and drapery fabrics too. They're usually woven in wider pieces and will cut to better advantage. Glazed chintzes with the permanent finish are attractive and do not soil or wrinkle as easily as some other fabrics. Plastics are interesting to work with and easy to handle if you use a long stitch on the sewing machine and eliminate pinning and basting. Edges may be left raw or bound with a contrasting color. It is possible to buy ready-made ruffling by the yard in matching or contrasting colors as a finish.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Turrible, Turrible, Turrible!"

Ben Ryder is back! After twenty years in Capital City, Ben has retired and come to enjoy life in the family home on Maple Street.

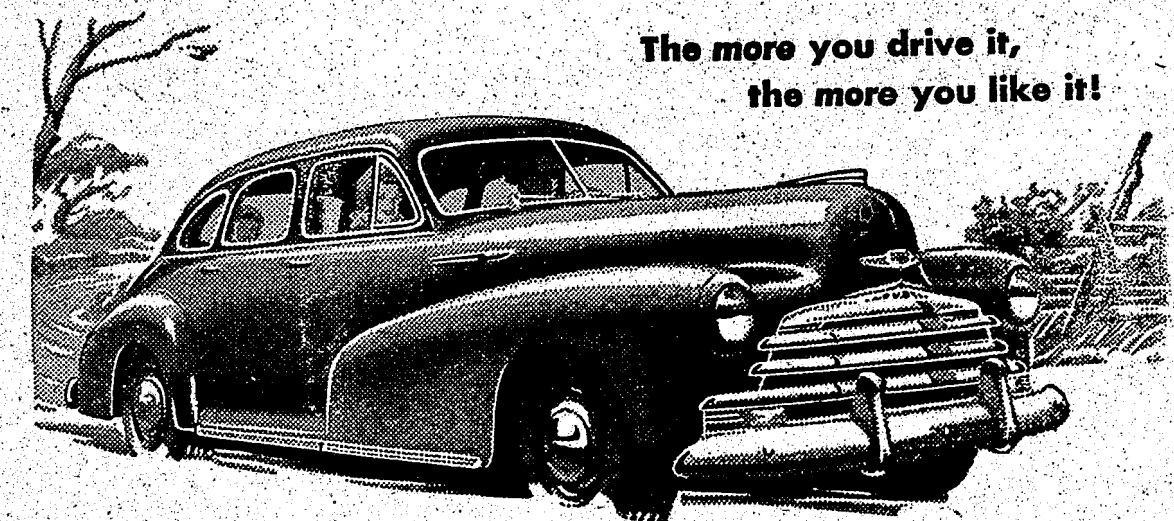

First thing Ben does is write us complaining how Our Town has changed. "Why, there's no mud in the streets to sink up to your ankles in!" he says. "No pistol feuding in the town square! No moonshine liquor or Saturday night brawls! Nothing to do but settle for a temperate glass of beer in a law-abiding tavern!"

Ben takes his tongue out of his cheek and tells us how proud he is of the orderly, law-abiding atmosphere he finds here.

And from where I sit, you can point to that growing preference for a moderate, wholesome glass of beer as one reason folks in Our Town are so temperate, and neighborly and well-behaved.

WHAT IS A DRUG STORE?

★ The drug store is but one unit in a complex pattern of businesses and professions, all of which serve the needs of the community. But it is unique in that pharmacy is both a business and a profession.

A business built on service to the sick cannot be restricted to usual "business hours." The need for medicine and sickroom supplies is usually immediate and urgent. In times of widespread illness the twenty-four-hour day seems all too short. We are ready, day or night, to serve the pharmaceutical needs of the community.

Glowing Warmth

WHERE YOU WANT IT—WHEN YOU WANT IT

Chilly corners can be warm as toast these cold fall mornings. A modern electric heater gives you instant warmth from your nearest outlet. Easy to carry, easy to operate. There is no cleaner more convenient type of heat. These new, low-priced heaters are ideal for warming baby's bath area, your dressing room, bathroom, or grandmother's favorite corner.

And It Costs Only A Few Pennies An Hour...

but unlimited use can cause high electric bills. For example, a thousand watt heater at residence rates costs only 17 1/2¢ a week when used one hour daily for seven days. This same unit, however, when used 8 hours a day costs $1.40 a week and will add $10.20 to your two months' bill. Consult a reputable electric dealer who can recommend a heater of sufficient wattage to fit your particular needs. He can also tell you just how much it will cost to operate.
