Dr. W. R. Hill Shows Movies

Last Thursday, seventy members of the Men's Club of Clarkston, enjoyed something special in the way of entertainment. Dr. W. R. Hill, physician from Toledo, Ohio, came to Clarkston for the evening to show colored movies of his canoe trip taken this past summer at the Lake of the Woods country, Western Ontario Canada. There was over an hour of fun for the men as they watched "fish story" sized pike belted. Excellent action shots of the wild life of the region were also included in the film.

A delicious turkey dinner was prepared by Mrs. Ralph Kreger, chairman. Mrs. Ray Ainsley was chairman of the dining-room. Others, helping with the meal, were Mrs. Wallace Ridgley, Mrs. Ralph Thayer, Mrs. John Fink, Mrs. Robert Waters, Mrs. Floyd Lawrence, Mrs. William Sharpe, Mrs. Jack Mogg, Mrs. Russell Colston, Ada Scrace, Ruth Sharpe and Caroline Ridgley.

The Board of Directors of the Rotary Anns will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert L. Jones on Friday afternoon, Nov. 26, at three o'clock.

Instructions Given Monday Night

A school of instruction for Joseph C. Bird Chapter, O. E. S., will be held at the Clarkston Masonic Temple on Monday evening, Nov. 29th, at 8 o'clock. The Grand Marshal will be the instructor.

Stamp Collectors Get Trout Stamps

Stamp collectors in all sections of the United States and Canada are purchasers of the dollar "trout stamps" that are the Michigan conservation department's new method of collecting license fees from trout fishermen.

The 1949 stamps which show a rainbow trout, printed in red, now are being shipped to license dealers.

The department sold more than 400 stamps of the 1948 issue—the first year the new license-collecting method was used—to out-state collectors and it is believed that Michigan philatelists bought several times as many.

The 1949 issue is printed in numbered sheets of 20 stamps. As of October 31, license dealers had reported sales of 161,342 stamps of the 1948 issue.

Dr. W. S. Ross To Leave Clarkston

Reverend William S. Ross's two years of ministry will conclude on November 28. Dr. Ross assumed the Clarkston pastorate two years ago, following six years in the pulpit of the Hough Ave. Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio. Previous pastorates were with the First Baptist Church of Big Rapids, the South Baptist Church of Lansing and the Parr Memorial Church of Petoskey.

During his last year as pastor of the Hough Ave. Church Mr. Ross was honored by Wheaton College with the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Pastor Ross's ministry at Clarkston has been marked by 77 additions to the membership of the Church; the receipt of funds amounting to $19,436, which included a new Hammond organ, the purchase of a second bus, the roofing of part of the house of worship, the installation of a new water system of the church and parsonage and the assumption of partial support of Miss Louise Marqueling, missionary to China.

Farmers' Week Starts January 24

Michigan's biggest winter agricultural event -- Farmers' Week -- is set for January 24 to 28 on the Michigan State College campus in East Lansing. Record crowds are expected again this year.

Committees appointed by the dean of agriculture, E. L. Anthony, are now engaged in scheduling the week's programs. Demonstrations, feature speakers, exhibits, and displays are being arranged. Many farm organizations choose Farmers' Week for meetings.

The general outline of programs will follow previous years. Monday, January 24, will be "Dairy Day". The annual farm building conference will also begin then. Wednesday evening is again set aside for banquets by a number of organizations.

MUSIC NOTES

The instrumental music program is gradually getting under way in Clarkston. We should like to tell you something about the band and its possibilities. The Seniors who take part in the music this year are: David Leak, Don Healey, David Yoh, Lewis Masters and Richard Allen.

The drum section is a beginning section this year. The members are Bob and Ed Olsen, John Curry and Howard Wilkinson.

A beginning band group meet in the afternoons. The members of this group are: Ann Barrows, saxophone; Carolyn Yoder, sousaphone; Bob Beattie, trombone; Emery Bennett, trombone; Shirley Baker, clarinet; and Arlene Ulrich, French horn.

We need instruments for the band. Anyone who has an instrument should get in contact with the superintendent's office at the school.

The grade school children are learning Thanksgiving songs.

The Board of Education has purchased some very fine Victor records to help us to listen to the best music in the world. We do enjoy the records very much.

The high school chorus is working on selections for the annual Christmas program this year. At present we are studying the famous chorale, "Rejoice and Sing" by Bach.

We have organized a theory class this year. The class meets one day a week. The class is required for beginning band students and any others who wish to study with us. The theory of music teaches us to beat rhythm, to learn to read music and to listen to harmony.

FOURTH GRADE

Those receiving an excellent grade in spelling last week were: Douglas Alexander, Janice Parker, Daniel Carter, Janet Brewer, Sandra Corliss, Raymond Dawley, Betty Lou Gardner, Nadine Gleason, Evelyn Hopson, George Lange, Betty Laws, David Lisener, Irene Mogg, Onalee Morgan, Stuelen O'Dell, Patience Thayer, Douglas Turek, Linn Weston, and Janet Sue Willoughby.

Shadow boxes depicting some scenes from a library book were made by several children in our room. They were on display at the P. T. A. Book Tea. Poems and paragraphs written by the children were also exhibited.

Explorer Post Names Officers

The Explorer Post of Scout Troop No. 49 of Clarkston met at the home of Otto Iyonen recently and selected their new officers as follows: Post Guide, Roy Johnson; Assistant Post Guide, John Adams; Keeper of the Log, Spence Butters; Chairman of Social Activities, Richard Allen; Co-chairmen of Out-door Activities, Lewis Masters and Bill Ludwig; Chairman of Indoor Activities, David Leak.

Mr. Iyonen, who has been the Post Advisor ever since he was instrumental in organizing the Post about four years ago, resigned regretfully and explained that he and Mrs. Iyonen would soon be leaving to make their home near Traverse City.

Leigh Bonner, who has been Assistant Advisor for the past two years, was made Advisor and it is very likely that an assistant will be named soon.

Mrs. W. Robbins To Entertain Club

Mrs. Ward Robbins will be hostess to the Clarkston Home Extension Club on Tuesday, Nov. 30, for an all day meeting beginning at 10:00 a.m. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon. Each person is to provide her own table service and the beverage will be furnished.

The lesson in charge of Mrs. George Perry and Mrs. William Edgar will be on "Legal Phases of Home Management". Anyone interested is invited to attend.

FRENCH BUILT TINY FORT AT 800 IN 1751

Competition for the white man's share in the Upper Peninsula Indian fur trade caused establishment of a French fort at Sault Ste. Marie in 1751.

The fort was built by one of two Frenchmen to whom had been granted 214,000 acres of land in that region, including the spot where Sault Ste. Marie is now, according to Dr. F. Cleverly, assistant director of the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan.

The two men were Louis le Gardeur de Repentigny and Captain Louis De Bonne. The fort was built and maintained under the direction of De Repentigny as De Bonne never visited his holdings. During Repentigny's frequent absences in lower Canada his tenant, Jean Baptiste Cadotte, was in charge.

The French government had granted the land to the men with the request that they build and maintain the fort. Thus the government obtained, at no charge, another foothold in the vast new world of untold riches which later was to become Canada and the United States.

Strategically located at the carrying-places around the rapids between Lakes Superior and Huron, the 110-foot square fort dominated the principal trade route between the upper and lower country. Its convenience soon drew valuable furs from the British trading posts further away.

Construction of the diminutive stockade which contained four buildings marked the second time the French had occupied the immediate area. Eighty years earlier on June 14 a French officer standing at the Sault before some 2,000 amazed Indians formally had claimed the entire western country for France.

A French mission also was begun there in 1668. But it had been abandoned in 1689 because the Chippewa Indians, with whom the priests had been most concerned, had practically deserted the area.

The fort was occupied in 1762 by a group of British troops from Mackinac following the capitulation of the French governor of Canada to the British in 1760.

There is a Canadian legend that Cadotte defended the fort against the British detachment until fatally wounded, he wrapped the French flag around him and heroically expired.

But Cadotte was a practical businessman, not a romantic Gascon—he offered no resistance. However, the British occupation was brief as on the night of Dec 10, 1762 a fire broke out under mysterious circumstances and destroyed all except Cadotte's home, according to Dr. Bald. The British were forced to return to Mackinac.

And so Cadotte was left to himself to carry on his fur trading in the fort's one remaining house which already conveniently belonged to him. But the flames on that December night 186 years ago wrote the final chapter in the history of Sault Ste. Marie's first fort.

Farm Women Plan For Christmas

The Oakland County Farm Bureau women held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Kling on Haggerty Rd., with 22 members present. A pot-luck luncheon was served with a business meeting following.

The project for the month was a Christmas party for the patients at the Contagious hospital, Pontiac, with a gift for everyone, a Christmas tree, ice cream and cake.

Salvage was brought to the meeting for the Walled Lake group who sews for the cancer center twice a month making pads and hospital coats. The Lake Orion group donated $25 for the polo fund.

Mrs. Dewey Stover was elected chairman to take care of ideas for the next year's poster. Ideas are to be brought to the monthly meeting.

A kick-off dinner is planned for a "new membership" drive in January. The men will furnish the meat and the women, the trimmings and work. The dinner is to be held in Waterford.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Howard, 27995 Halsstead Road, Farmington

TURKEY FESTIVAL PROGRAM LISTED

Michigan poultrymen who attend the annual turkey show and festival at Alma on December 7 and 8 are promised an outstanding event.

Extension poultrymen at Michigan State College are cooperating with the Alma Chamber of Commerce in sponsoring the event.

Featured speaker at the turkey show will be Dr. Cliff D. Carpenter, Chicago, president of the American Poultry Industries. He will discuss turkey production and marketing.

A turkey festival program may be secured by writing to the Alma Chamber of Commerce or the Poultry Department, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Mich.

Fred Dewey was one of those from Clarkston who attended the banquet and reception for Bishop and Mrs. Marshall K. Reed in Flint last Friday night. Mr. Dewey has known Bishop Reed and his family since the Bishop was a baby, so he enjoyed hearing him and meeting him once again.

Waste Paper Drive Saturday, Nov. 27

You are reminded of the waste paper drive being held in Clarkston on Saturday, Nov. 27. This drive is in charge of the Clarkston Men's Club for the benefit of the elementary school library. You are asked to have the bundles at the curb at 9:30 a.m. as the men would like to make it a half day job.

The price of waste paper has dropped considerably, so in order to make the drive worth while each home in the district is urged to save more and more paper and try to have several bundles ready.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Guests were invited from Fenton, Pontiac, Drayton Plains, Holly and Clarkston. Those from Clarkston included Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Roark, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mann and Miss Vivian O'Roark.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MOST POPULAR AT MSC

Business administration is the most popular course this year at Michigan State College, according to Registrar Robert S. Linton.

A total of 2,283 students, or more than 14 per cent of the 16,010 enrollment, are majoring in business administration. Next in order are engineering, 1,942; social science, 1,166; agriculture, 1,052; home economics, 648; and forestry, 607 students.

Except for the fact that business administration has replaced engineering as the largest student group, the rankings of the top six curricula are the same as during the past two years.

By the Way . . .

For the sake of the records it can now be said that "yours truly" finally won a chicken at a pre-Thanksgiving party. To make the record crystal clear not only did I win it but I did it the hard way, by drawing a higher card than the other fellow . . . The modern Thanksgiving newspaper really covers the ground -- not only does it come out two or three days early so the good readers can find the bargains for the Thanksgiving Day feast but after the dinner has been enjoyed they can read the advertisements of Christmas merchandise . . . For the benefit of our subscribers who have gone to California or Florida, the weather hasn't been too wintry here, but there has been quite a little snow in the deer country. Incidentally, we have seen quite a few bucks being brought back, but only one black bear, so far. . . . For the benefit of all of our readers: Drive more carefully than usual on the Dixie if you would save that neck of yours, especially if the pavement is wet and you are on the new black-top. Sooner or later, the signs that are so common in the southland, will appear, reminding you that the pavement is slippery when wet. In the last two weeks we have appeared on the scene of four crashes. While we have no desire to use the "Sudden Death" system of reporting, which system, if you remember, tried to scare some sense of fear into motorists, we must report that seeing people wrapped in blankets, and lying in the ditch alongside the road makes one wonder if such speed is necessary. . . . We are sorry to hear that Dr. William S. Ross of the First Baptist Church of Clarkston will leave this charge and retire for some time. We have had the pleasure of hearing him on several occasions and always felt that the time had been very well spent and that we had gained much from his talks. In his dealings with the paper he has always been more than willing to cooperate. . . . We are somewhat pleased that our explanation of what happened nationally on Election Day, was considered good enough to be re-printed in The Michigan Tradesman, published at Grand Rapids. . . . Have a happy holiday and drive safely. . . .

Notice

Most of the business places in Clarkston will be open all day Wednesday and closed all day Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

The hostesses for the day are Mrs. William Granger, Mrs. Charles Maxwell and Mrs. William Hunt.

The Good News Clubs which usually meet on Thursday and Friday will be cancelled because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Many of the club-ers have entered into the work for the year with refreshing enthusiasm. On Oct. 30th four received their first promotion and now rank as "One Star members". They are: Judith Kolar, Delano St. Club; Doris and Peggy Chamberlain of Pontiac Lake Club and Marylynn Girst of Maceday Club. Added to this list the first week of November were: Marsha Cameron, Pontiac Lake and Joanne Parcels, Maceday Club. Running in a close third with their promotion received the second week in November were: Judy Ingamells, Pontiac Lake and Patty Lou Rose of Delano St. Club. Two Clubs are now being held each Tuesday in the Delano St. neighborhood. The first, for the little folks is held from 2:30-3:30 p.m. The second club meets as usual as soon as the children arrive from school. The clubs are both being held in the C. J. Rose home. Within a few weeks they will be moved into the Chester Bowles home right across the street where a new basement will provide more adequate room for the large number of club members. The Airport Road Club, with 50 enrolled and a record breaking attendance of 45 present at a club meeting, and the Delano St. club with 53 enrolled and a peak attendance record of 44 present, are leaders this far this year. Some of the other clubs are not far behind, however. Pontiac Lake Club has had as high as 36 present for a club meeting; Williams Lake Club broke all their previous records recently with 40 present and the Dixie Trail Club has reached the attendance high of 39.

THE HILLTOPPER

2nd GRADE NEWS

We are sorry that Maurice Beardslee has moved. Bonnie Kutchins and Kay Vliet have been ill with the mumps. We have learned how to draw turkeys and Pilgrims. This week we wrote questions using our spelling words.

3rd GRADE NEWS

We enjoyed hearing "Mickey sees the U. S. A." read to us. In art Miss Bachand taught us to draw American flags. We are trying very hard to do neat handwriting working on capital D's and B's this week. The following got E in an Arithmetic test last week: Elaine Crosby, Joanna Springer, Natalie Tersigni, Sandra Walls, Garrett Marks, Rea Watterworth, Barbara Rockwell.

FIFTH GRADE

We enjoyed the portfolio of stories and pictures on "Home and Community Life". On Friday we saw the strip film. We all love seeing the movie after we have studied the stories and pictures. Some of our girls have very willingly repaired the torn dictionary, encyclopedias and most of the library books in our room. Friday we made turkeys, pilgrims and Thanksgiving place cards for art work.

SIXTH GRADE

On Thursday Larry Ruggles fell and broke his arm. On Monday Mr. Farlow showed us movies that he took while he was in Germany and France. We enjoyed them very much. The following students had a perfect spelling lesson last week: Glen Abbott, Mary Jane Beardslee, Clayton Bell, Carole Gagnon, Ariene Gaynor, Bob Jones, Larry Leak, Ann Letson, Jean Porritt, Raymond Powers, Lorraine Rioux, James Roberts, Laura Ruggles, and Mickey Tersigni.

We have been making charts in Health showing the kinds of foods that help to build strong bodies.

Several of us made scenes from books that we had read.

FUN NIGHT FOR THE SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade enjoyed their first class party of the year on November 19. In spite of the rain the party started off hilariously with a football game, the two teams being made up of members of each section of the class. Don Dubats acted as referee and the girls of the class cheered for the game.

A movie "Lil' Abner" was shown in the auditorium after a wonderful supper and an hour of music and singing.

SENIOR NEWS

The play books arrived last week for the play "Three Days of Grace". The cast was chosen and they are practicing very hard for the play to be given Dec. 8th.

The main characters are: Imogene Potter, Mary Porritt, Janet Keelean, Spence Butters, Pat Doyle, Mary Lee Volberding, Spike Masters and Dave Leak.

The student director is Lois Baynes and the teachers who are directing the play are Miss Bennett and Miss Carey.

Be sure and save this date for the Senior play. Be sure and come to the Home Festival and Bazaar at the High School Tuesday night, November 23rd. Profit is for the Senior trip to Washington, D. C.

Last Saturday Doc Thayer, Mr. Quick and Mr. Bonner and 22 members of the football squad went to see Michigan State play Washington State.

HOMEMAKING III

The Homemaking class has now laid aside their aprons and hairnets to study child care and development. It is the hope of everyone in the class to be able to observe children in the community so the problem can be seen in a real situation. It is also hoped that some of the mothers would come into our class to talk to us.

You will find the Homemaking II girls in the Home Ec. room any time during their free hours. We are all trying to have garments finished on time. The home Ec. classes completed their food units, with a very successful luncheon and are now ready to start our new unit "making the holiday season a gay one". We plan on making stuffed animals, textile painting or knitting besides other festive decorations.

Personality sketches showing how handicaps have become springboards to success for many people. Louise Baker, the unimp best-selling author, and a blind masseuse are among those cited. Read "Your Handicap May Be Your Best Friend" in the American Weekly, the great magazine distributed with SUNDAY'S CHICAGO HERALD-AMERICAN.

"I AIN'T VERY MUCH, BUT..."

★ In the play Green Pastures, the character Noah observed, "I ain't very much, but I see all I got." This is simple but eloquent reasoning. The realization of responsibility to yourself and to others to be cheerful, sympathetic, and helpful is the basis of a sound personality. Ill and disgruntled people are a burden to all. Take good care of yourself. Do not forget that both your family physician and your pharmacist are on your side to help you stay well and happy. All you have to do is ask for their help. When ill, see your physician. We are fully equipped to fill your prescriptions and furnish the needed sickroom supplies.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Television on the Farm

Buck Childs' home has become mighty popular ever since he got that television set—one of the few sets in our town, outside of Andy's Garden Tavern.

Not only do the kids stay home nights, but the neighbors drop in to see whatever's being telecast. And Buck and the missus always make them welcome, with a mellow glass of beer or ale (with cider and cookies for the youngsters).

While I guess everyone admits that television still has far to go, it's not hard to see that it will soon day be as much a part of American home and farm life as the temperate glass of beer that Buck serves, and the hospitality that goes with it.

And from where I sit, anything that adds to gracious living in America—brings folks together for temperate, quiet entertainment—is a boon to this home-loving land of ours. (We're thinking of buying a television set ourselves!)

VENISON CAN BE SAVED IN SPITE OF MILD WEATHER

No venison will spoil this season when meat is scarce and high priced if the conservation department can prevent it.

Hunters can obtain permits from the department's district offices to take their deer to the nearest deepfreeze locker plants in the north and have them cut up, processed and packaged before taking them home. The permits authorize transportation, on or before December 2, of the packaged venison, properly identified, to hunters' homes or other places of storage.

"Many hunters complain that their hunting trips are spoiled if they get deer quickly and have to start home to save their meat after planning to spend two weeks in camp," says Director P. J. Hofmaster.

HOW DO YOU CLEAN LINOLEUM?

Why does linoleum become so difficult to keep clean after the first few weeks of wear? This question has been asked so often that Josephine Hoke, Home Demonstration Agent, suggests a few tips to housewives whose linoleum cleaning problems are perennial.

Linoleum is a mixture of linseed oil, minerals, resins, wood flour and color pigments pressed on a backing of burlap or felt. Inlaid linoleum becomes difficult to clean when the smooth hard surface has been scrubbed away by use of strong soaps and scouring powders and water.

New linoleum should be cleaned with very mild soap and very little water. Be sure to follow washing with a thin layer of wax. Linoleum can be kept clean without soap and water.

There are many cleaners designed especially for linoleum which do a better job of cleaning than soap and water. They are used occasionally when the linoleum needs a thorough cleaning. Follow any cleaning with wax. Thin layers of wax thoroughly polished with a weighted brush or power waxer will add years of wear to your linoleum.

The sixth grade class, with their teacher, Mrs. Virginia Palmer, enjoyed a roller skating party at the Huron rink on Friday evening. The Burl Morris home on Warrington Drive was opened to the Adult Bible class party and business meeting on Friday night with 24 present. A letter to the class from Inez Sutton was read. Miss Sutton is a missionary teacher from the Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church who is teaching in a school for girls in Cairo, Egypt.

The letter was informing the class of the progress of the student there whose scholarship is being financed by this Bible class. A fine devotional period was led by Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen. Donations of children's used clothing and school supplies were brought to this meeting and a Christmas box was packed for a United Presbyterian Mission school in Ezel, Kentucky. All ladies of the United Presbyterian church are invited to a Christmas party to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the church parlors by the Ladies' Aid. Hostesses, Mrs. Everett Densmore, Mrs. Walter Aderholdt, Mrs. A. A. Solomon and Mrs. Burl Morris have planned a directed pot-luck dinner at noon with a program to follow in charge of Mrs. W. J. Teeuwissen, Jr. Each guest is to bring a gift to exchange and a salad or dessert for the dinner.

Mrs. Gerald Shell of Sashabaw Road was hostess at a joint meeting of the Pearl Sutton Missionary and Anderson Mission Circle on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. William Moore was co-hostess. Devotions were given by Mrs. Gerald Rustem and guest speaker, Mrs. Lester Snyder of Pontiac gave an interesting talk on the Missions Indians.

Rev. and Mrs. William Muir and daughters, Francis and Merrilee of Pitzer, Iowa, were house guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Teeuwissen, Jr., and son, John, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cleveland have returned from the north with their deer.

Russ Caughell and Charles Williams spent last weekend near Mio, deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fraser and family, formerly of Frembes St., are now settled in their new home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Mrs. Arletta Stewart, formerly of the fish hatchery, who has been making her home with her son Howard Stewart and family o-near Springfield, left Sunday, Nov. 21, for Rochester, Indiana, where she will spend the winter with her other son, Russell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth See of Seeley St., accompanied by Mr. See's mother, Mrs. Lena Spencer, left recently for San Diego, Calif. where they will spend a few months.

Rural Tele-news

BARK THAT BITES—To test various types of insulating coatings for telephone wires, Bell Laboratories maintain a dense birch forest in New Jersey. Wires strung through the forest show how different materials resist the rubbing action of tree limbs under actual outdoor conditions.

50,000 GRAINS OF COAL—Did you know there was coal in your telephone? Actually, there are about 50,000 grains of it—behind the diaphragm of the mouthpiece. This is enough to cover a surface about the size of a dime. Coal is used in telephones because it can translate the vibrations of your voice into electric waves on wires. These waves can be sent to another telephone, where they are converted back into your "voice."

HANDY HUNTING GROUND—It's easy to locate a doctor, veterinarian, farm equipment dealer, feed and grain supplier or any of the countless other people you need to call at one time or another. They're listed by trade or profession in the Yellow Pages in the back section of your telephone directory. Make a habit of using the Yellow Pages and see how much time and effort it saves you day-in and day-out all year round.
