Just what can one say about the weather? Little or no snow! worst of winters. All of which leads up to the fact that Monday night about six-thirty as I was driving between Howell and Brighton, I passed - at three miles an hour on sleety ice - between a trailer-truck, parked angle-wise in the highway and a four door sedan lying in the ditch. It looked as though the end of the truck just tapped the car and sent it right into the ditch - and as though someone must have been injured. We drove the rest of the way, on ice, and oh so slowly. How Would You Like to Live in the "Good Old Days"?

* Back in grandfather's time, during the final quarter of the last century, things were quite different. There were no movies, no airplanes, no automobiles, few bathrooms, practically no efficient electrical appliances. If you contracted diabetes or pernicious anemia, your days were numbered. Your blood just "changed to sugar" in the former, "to water" in he latter.

There was little protection against virulent epidemics. Smallpox vaccine was the only biological on the market. When diphtheria or typhoid ravaged a community, there was nothing to do but wait it out in hope and dread.

Yes, a return to the "good old days" would mean, among other things, the sacrifice of the major portion of the contribution of medicine and pharmacy to your health and well-being.

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Baleville last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should-of been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good. system. Everyone has a right to his opinions-but others have a right to theirs, too-whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider.
