Vows Spoken At Four Towns Church

Last Saturday evening at 8:15 o'clock the Four Towns Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Coralee M. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beauchamp of Four Towns, and spoke their marriage vows by candlelight to the Reverend Charles H. . Wright at a double ring service.

The rites were read before an altar banked with baskets of white snapdragons, stock, gladioli and palms and lighted with Carey told of her experiences when

Mrs. Donald Fuchs of Holly sang "Because" and "At Dawning" She was accompanied by Mrs. Thomas of Commerce who also

Mr. Boice was assisted by his prother, Donald Mears Boice of Clarkston, as best man and another brother, Ellis Boice and the bride's brother, Carl Davis, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a recep tion for 150 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The ace covered refreshment table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom Pretty arrangements of white flowers also graced the table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Davis wore a black dress, a small black hat and black accessories Mrs. Boice chose a navy dress with small navy hat and black accessories. Both mothers wore orchids The newlyweds will reside at 10465 Reese Road, Clarkston. Sixteen members of the immediate families and the wedding party attended the rehearsal dinner at the Herbie Boice home last Friday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Thayer Hostess To Circle

On Tuesday evening the Rotary Anns of Clarkston met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Thayer, Mrs. Wallace Ridgley was the assisting hostess. There was a splendid attendance. Mrs. Paul Henry, president, conducted the business meeting. Reports were given and the Crippled Children's project was discussed At the close of the business meeting Mrs. William Sharpe, program chairman, introduced Miss Helen Carey, a member of the local high school faculty. Miss she made a trip to France in 1946 to study at the University of Paris. Her story began sometime before she sailed and continued on from the time she left home until she boarded the America at New York and spent five or six days at sea. She pictured the sight when they stopped at night at Cobb, Ireland to discharge some passengers and take on new ones. From there they went to Southampton, England. where they remained in the harto LeHayre, France the next day. She had many amusing experiences in France but enjoyed every minute of her time because she knew she might never be in that country again. The people she met were interesting and as she was one of the first to go into France after the war she was confronted with rationing which was much more severe than the rationing in her homeland.

Miss Carey told of the many historic places she visited and showed some pictures and souvenirs. She answered many quesfions and even talked a little in the French language. The Rotary Anns really felt that they had spent a wortwhile evening.

Following the program the hostesses served dainty refreshments at small tables. The buffet table was covered with a white linen cloth and was centered with a beautiful French violet flanked with tall green candles in crystal candelabra.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Garnet Poulton with Mrs. George Perry as co-hostess and Mrs, Earl Terry in | Clair Shores and Mr. and Mrs. Lee charge of the program.

"We're not quitting until this job is done"

Operation Underground

It was about 10 A. M. on a dull, grey morning when the huge steam shovel accidentally hooked onto an underground telephone cable.

Tom, a Michigan Bell splicer, and Ed, his helper, were among the telephone men who arrived on the scene within minutes. The situation was bad. Out of 200 pairs of vital telephone wires inside the cable, 135 were broken. And, to make matters worse, a steady rain had started, threatening to flood the hole where the break occurred.

The first job was to make temporary repairs on the most important wires so that calls could go through. Working swiftly, Tom and Ed completed their part of this job by 2 P. M.

But then more trouble developed. Water from a nearby open-type drain began spilling into the hole where the men were working. If the open cable were submerged, moisture would short circuit the wires.

Pumps were working furiously. Meanwhile, Tom and Ed began building a foundation of planking. Then, with another plank as a lever, they began prying up the cable to keep it above the water level.

Higher and higher the water rose ... above their knees ... up to their waists and beyond. By sheer exertion, they kept lifting the cable break up and up. Sometimes it was only an inch and a half above the rising water. But more pumps were put to work and finally the water began-to go down.

The problem now was to restore service on the remaining wires in the cable. This meant putting in a new section of cable ten feet long and making 400 wire splices at each end of the new piece.

Several times the foreman asked Tom and Ed if they didn't want to be relieved by another splicing crew. But they replied, "Look, this is an important cable. We don't want to quit until the job's done." The foreman agreed.

And that's how the precious threads of communication were restored between the outside world and the vital B-24 Bomber Plant at Willow Run, during the war, • •

This is one of countless stories that show the determination of Michigan Bell workers to keep your telephone calls going through.

The Human Body Is More Complex Than an Automobile

*You wouldn't take your car to a garage and refuse to tell the mechanic what was wrong. The mechanic would have every right to doubt your sanity. Yet people frequently refuse to sell the physician of their ailments. They are anxious to have an "unbiased opinion."

You can save time and expense by being frank with your physician. To do a competent job of diagnosis he needs the history of your symptoms. The human body is for more complex than an automobile. For the best results give him all the facts:

All we need is the physician's prescription: We are competent to compound it exactly as he specifies.

The importance of this fireproof type of construction was demonstrated by the recent fire which destroyed the caretaker's cottage at camp. Fully covered by Insurance, the building will be replaced with a new cinder block cottage for which construction will start immediately.

Other additions and improve ments projected include a new water supply and pumping system, new swimming area and dock, additional boats and canoes, and several Troop Lodges for year ound camping.

Opening dates for the summer camp will be announced in the near future. ***

When small areas of a rug's surface have been crushed by furniture or the shuffling of feet, you can bring the pile back to normal by applying a hot iron on a damp cloth. Brush the pile briskly after this suggests Ruth Peck, extension home, economist at Michigan State college. Rug corners which curl can also be remedied by applying a hot iron on a damp cloth to both sides of the carpet.
