Rotary Club News

The speaker at the Rotary Clubmeeting on Monday night was T. Luther Purdom of the University of Michigan, Bureau of Appointments and Occupational Informaton. Scheduled as an informal talk his address dealt with the class of calls the University receives for graduates to enter employment with the larger corporations and how the students are chosen to fill these requests. The talk could be labeled "How To Succeed". While his talk covered everything pertaining to the subject from Dale Carnegie's "How To Make Friends" to good publicity (a ten dollar word for advertising) we fail to see how one who followed his suggestions could fail to suc-

Guests present included Joe Sutton and David Saxman from the High School, Bob McCall of the Ortonville Rotary Club, H. W. Huttenlocher from the Pontiac Rotary Caub, Jack Wignall and George Kimball of the Waterford-Drayton Club and Chester Goddard, a guest of Don Stackable. Added to this list as specially invited guests were the following members of the Village Administration: President Robert Waters, Clerk, Russell Colison, and Trustees: Edward O'Roark, Roderick Muma, E. Butters, and Charles Rockwell.

The dinner committee was in charge of Mrs. T. S. Boyns, assisted by Mrs. Roy Spencer, Mrs. F. Stauter, Mrs. E. Butters and Mrs. William Mansfield.

The state pays for the food, heat and light and the personnel. The Ladies' Auxiliaries are responsible for the furnishings, clothes, fresh fruits and canned goods.

The children at the billet are from all over the state. They are from homes where there have been unfortunate circumstances — sickness, unemployment, marital trouble etc. These children are at the billet from-6 months to not more than two years. They are sent back to their home towns as wards of the county and then placed in homes. Sometimes they return to their families but this is not true in most cases.

Of the 108 children that are now at the billet 30 are from Oakland County, 68 are under 6 years of age and of this group 45 are under 4 years old: There are a few who are 12 years old but that is the age limit.

At Christmastime the Royal Oak nerchants donated $1,380 worth of new toys. Without these and the help from the Auxiliaries these children would have been forgott-

Alchin Returns As County Agent

Edmond W. Alchin, former assistant agricultural agent in Oakland County, returned as county agripultural agent on April 1.

Since leaving Oakland county in December 1947, Alchin has been county agent in Cheybogan county where he accomplished a great deal for the farm people through his extension program.

A native of Webberville, Mich. iyan, Alchin attended Michigan State College and was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1939. He then taught vocational agriculture at Chesaning for three years. From 1943 to 1946 he served in the U.S. Navy and held the rank of lieutenant j. g.

Following discharge from the Navy, Alchin accepted the position as assistant county agent.

Fur Breeders

More than 100 fur breeders from many parts of Michigan will participate in the annual Fur Breeders' Conference to be held April Miller & Beardslee 22 and 23 at Michigan State Col Roy's Standard

During the two-day meeting participants will discuss with D. Heller leading authorities such subjects as 'Nutrition of Fox and Mink,' "Grading and Marketing of Pelts," and "Breeding." Dr. Lloyd B. Sholl, associate profesor in animal pathology at MSC, will give post mortum demonstration and lecture on disease. According to Russell J. Kleis, head of special courses and conferences at the college, two nationally known men, John Staudt, of Lampson, Fraser, Heath company, New York, and Herbert Graham Construction Mezger, of the New York Option Kar-Nuts company, have been scheduled to Flint Tool & Die speak at the conference.

Patricia Stites Organizes Club

In February Patricia Stites, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stites of Waterford, organized the University of Michigan Democratic Socialist Olub, at Ann Arbor. The group now numbers about 40 students with Miss Stites as Pres-

The group has been very active on campus, has held several discussion meetings and lectures. On last Wednesday and Thursday the group brought the noted socialist leader, Norman Thomas, to the campus of the University of Michigan where he was enthusiastically received by the students and the faculty alike.

On Wednesday evening he was honored at a dinner after which Thomas delivered a lecture to an overflow audience in Architecture Auditorium.

Following the lecture a reception was held for Mr. Thomas at Lane Hall.

On Thursday he spoke in several classes and also delivered radio talk over station WPAG. Late in the afternoon James Stites drove to Ann Arbor, picked up Mr. Thomas and brought him back to the Stites residence in Waterford where he spent the evening and the following day.

Mr. Thomas enjoyed his short stay in Michigan and admired especially the area around Clarkston and Waterford. He was surprised at the number and great beauty of the lakes in the district. Coming from a man who has spent a great deal of his life travelling this was really a great compliment for this community.

The Michigan State College department of landscape architecture and urban planning ranks first in the nation in enrollment, according to survey finding released by the American Society of Landscape Architects. The department, organized in 1922, now has 130 students enrolled in landscape courses, said Harold Lautner, campus landscape architect

By the Way...

The news arrived on Wednesday evening of the death, in the late afternoon, of the gentleman who did much to reduce my theories of printing to practical efforts—Fred Patterson, a co-publisher with his son of The Holly Advertiser. When we met him about 16 years ago he was about 64 years of age, but despite his age it was nothing for until nine, ten or even later at night. A good newspaper man, he was even more interested in his custom printing, taking the craftsman's pride in turning out beautiful work. Fred was a lifelong Mason and politically a staunch Democrat. Being a Republican, we differed on candidates, but always on a friendly basis -- but he did know his politics. We will always remember him for his great interest in all fields of athletic endeavor. Hockey, football, golf, and especially the Detroit Tigers could keep him at the radio by the hour. With the presses running son (D) 1,848, Rudolph F. Boss full blast his radio was a little louder. the community printing business. Well, elections are out of the way for a while and we can get back to our other duties. In our opinion T. Luther Purdom gave a wonderful talk at Rotary and holding it is one of life's problems. Mr. Purdom's work is to place men and women graduates from the University of Michigan in good jobs and he acted as though he was successful at his work. It may be that we like listening to those we like, but it happened that before the meeting we had quite a talk with him and found out that we had quite a few mutual friends, and this in itself, created a friendly feeling. It is our understanding that next Thursday the Clarkston High baseball team will play the team from the Waterford Pownship High School We are trying to keep out of the argument but Mary J. Beattie who joins The News force on Thursdays is shouting for Clarkston while one of our pressmen, Harvey Craft, plays shortstop for Waterford ... School will soon be drawing to a close and we cannot resist this story: Junior came home from school and explained to his father: "Dad, you're a lucky man. You won't ave to buy me any school books this year. I have been left in the same class".

Good Friday. FARM SHOP IS

EASY TO START

How can I get a farm shop? This question comes to many far-

many repairs and adjustments right on the farm. Carl F. Albrecht, agricultural engineer at Michigan State College, says that practically every farm has the hand tools necessary to form the core of a good farm shop. Organization is the answer to starting the shop.

He advises farmers to gather all their tools together in one place. A storage cabinet or two should be built to hold them. Adding a work-bench and a good light makes the foundation of the farm shop. Larger pieces of equipment such as power saws and welders can be added as the need arises on the farm.

Houses at Honfleur, by Camille oven for about 30 minutes or until Corot-French

It has been said that Corot was the first French artist of consequence to look at nature with a photographic eye; because of the directness of his approach he was undoubtedly one of the precursors of Impressionism. In the OWNERS WARNED ABOUT works of his earlier years, of which this is a good example, the lyric quality of his vision lifts his performance entirely above that of other painters of this kind; but in his later pictures a certain manner of painting fluffy foilage in the gray tonality of photographs now appears to have jeen artistically a mistake. His rejection of the picturesqueclassical tradition of his period and his insistence upon the honesty and simplicity of his own vision, did much to paye the way for Auntie Grumble Suellen O'Dell the Realistic movement of the middle 19th century. Today his earlier landscapes and the admirable studies of the figure which he produced at various periods are considered to be his finest work.

Perhaps it was from the researches of the Impressionists that Cezanne discovered the imporlandscape, more often than not through countless lovely variations. The surface of the water has been treated not for its lightreflecting qualities or for its limpidity, but as a solid floor of opaque color which forms one of the most essential parts of the architecture of the picture. As in all of Cezanne's painting a fine balance song. The audience was so quiet has been kept between the reand the building of a spatial harmony as sturdy and enduring as work of engineering.

SEED DEALERS AND HOME GRASS SEED

Seed dealers and home owners are cautioned that state seed inspection reveals that to date there is an unusual volume of Grade "D" grass seed being shipped in and offered for sale on the Michigan market, reports Charles A. Stahl, State Seed Analyst, Michigan Department of Agriculture, According to the Michigan grading system, Grade "D" is not recommended for lawns, and therefore should never be purchased by the discriminating buyer. Preliminary tests indicate that a large percentage of this Grade "D" seed is misbranded and does not meet legal requirements; therefore, i will be removed from sale.

The state recommends only Grade "A" seed for the discriminating home owner, and Grade "B" when Grade "A" is not available. These two top grades of lawn seed are based on the use of such desirable grasses as Kentucky tance of blue as the key to all Bluegrass and Red Fescue, Blueoutdoor color. At any rate, blue grass makes a nice turf on the runs through all his paintings of better soil but requires considerable maintenance in the way of a blue of unusually warm quiet fertilizer and watering. DESTROYING ITSELF?

* Things dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfa drugs and penicillin are examples.

Less dramatic, but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal; swamp clearance; water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these triumphs.

The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Brice to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labors incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence."

The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician. The accurate filling of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

Novel Dinner Rolls

Next time you make dinner rolls, duplicate these tricky-looking butterhorn and S-shaped buns, for the shaping is easy to learn and do.

When you serve hot rolls, your simple stew, meat loaf, or frankters and kraut, will taste extra good. After you have made raised a few times, you can turn out a number of variations with ease.

Use a standard roll recipe or a hot roll mix to make butterhorn and S-shaped rolls. For butterhorns, cut a circular sheet of dough into pie-shaped pieces and roll up, starting at the wide end. Go a step farther, if you like, and curve into crescents on the baking sheet.

Although intricate looking, S-shaped rolls are simple. Roll both sides of a rectangular sheet of dough to the center, cut in inch slices and twist each piece in the middle. After rolls are shaped, brush a little melted butter or margarine over the top to keep a crust from forming during the second rising. Rolls baked quickly until a medium brown are moist and fluffy inside, crusty-crisp outside. A moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) is best for achieving this color and quality. Leftover rolls can be re-heated for serving at another meal. Put them into a paper bag, sprinkle lightly with water, fold the end of the bag to close it, and heat in a hot oven for five minutes before serving.

In addition to providing variety in the menu at low cost, dinner rolls contribute six-way nourishment: protein, iron, food energy, and three B-vitamins. DINNER ROLLS

compressed or 4 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
4 cup shortening
1 cgg, beaten
6 cups silted enriched flour (about) I package yeast, compressed or dry granular 1 cup lukewarm water 1 cup milk

Soften yeast in lukewarm water, melted butter or margarine. Cut melted butter or margarine. Cut into pie-shaped pieces. Roll up, starting at wide end.
For S-shaped rolls: Roll dough out to rectangle eight inches wide and one-fourth inch thick. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Roll each side toward center as if making twin jelly-roll. Cut into one-inch slices. Twist each piece in center to form S-shaped roll. Place rolls on greased baking sheets. Let rise until doubled (about one hour). Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes.

Dublin School.

Sundays after the 8:15 Mass.

Now that the weather is clear-ing, and we're seeing the first signs of warm weather ahead, it is enjoyable to drive out, of town to watch for birds, first hints of flowers and the budding trees. Everyone enjoys getting out in the Springtime — and so you can expect to find more and more automobiles on Michigan highways daily.

That's why it is so important to be doubly careful in driving . . . to check your auto to make sure it is safe to drive. You must watch out, too — for the other fellow who may be taking chances or whose auto may not be in good running condition.

Speed too, takes a big toll on the highways — so hear in mind this highways — so bear in mind this extra traffic and drive at a safe extra trainc and drive at a sate rate of speed. There are always more traffic deaths in the country than in the city. In one recent year there were 33,700 deaths from traf-fic accidents. Of that number, 12,-500 were city deaths; 21,200 were rural. Look at those figures. Rural accidents accounted for almost twice as many deaths as city accidents.

Remember those figures when you are driving on the highways. Drive with extra care at all times -drive with the constant resolve that you will not be the means of losing a life!

FARM RECORDS SHOW SQUEEZE crop yields in 1947. The price IS ON PROFITS drops caused that. Dairy, beef Any farmer who kept farm acand poultry operations paid slight-counts in 1947 and 1948 will tell you that the profit squeeze is now on. According to John Doneth, sheep projects returned less gross Michigan State College farm management extension specialist, the squeeze comes when farming costs keep going up and farm income drops or remains steady.

That's why Doneth thinks profits are going to be harder to get in 1949 and that better management is gong to spell the difference between profits and just wages for labor spent.

As a basis for this belief, Doneth points to a survey of more than 100 farms, averaging 200 acres in size, located in good farming areas in three southern Michigan coun-

Springtime is safety-time! It is time to check your car to make sure it is in good running condition — and time, too, to take stock of yourself and your driving habits.

Look out for the "hidden dangers" on the highways — the curves and hills that obscure your vision and demand slow, careful driving. Did you know that it is a traffic violation to pass another car on a hill tion to pass another car on a hill or curve when you do not have a completely clear view ahead? You must stay on the right side of the highway when your view ahead is blocked. Failure to obey this traffic law may result in a head-on collision . . . it may result in death or permanent injury for yourself or a member of your family.
