CROP Milk Reaches Children Overseas

Thousands of refugee children, such as this one being fed by Sister Clara, Lutheran nurse in the Lobe Haus Children's home in Munich, have been supplied with milk through the contributions of American farmers to the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP), according to John D. Metzler, national chairman. In the year ending June 1, CROP handled 75,668,581 pounds of farm commodities, valued at $8,576,000. Included in this amount were 4,470,000 pounds of milk. Shipments were made to 23 foreign countries. "Since milk is desperately needed, we shall strive to obtain a larger quantity of it in the 1949 CROP campaign," Metzler said. "In many areas children over nine months still get no milk at all. Younger ones get one-fourth pint a day." CROP is sponsored nationally by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service, and Lutheran World Relief job. Just wash them, stack them in the sink, rinse with very hot water, cover with a towel and you're all set for the next meal. If you like, you may set the table for the next meal directly from your stack and never put the dishes away at all.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
For The Ladies: A Diet That Really Works
 We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk! I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?" "Mother," I says, "the only diet I would ever recommend to anyone is simply moderation. I wouldn't trust any of those get-thin-quick diets. Simply cut down on desserts, bread, butter, sweets and fats—but when you do, even do your cutting down moderately." From where I sit, moderation is the watchword. Moderation with food, with smoking or with the enjoyment of a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. Actually, moderation adds to the enjoyment of just about anything. Joe Marsh

POULTRY GOOD BUY NOW FOR EATING OR FREEZING
 One of the best buys at the meat counter these days is poultry which has the advantage of being adaptable to summer meals and cooking either indoors or out-of-doors. Cook it in a variety of ways and serve it hot or cold—it will please your family suggests Roberta Hershey, extension foods specialist at Michigan State College. If you have a home freezer or locker storage you will want to consider freezing some while broilers, roasters and fryers are plentiful. Only high quality birds should be used because storage does not improve quality. Proper killing and bleeding are essential in obtaining the best possible appearance. Dry pick or "slack soiled" (125 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit—bird immersed 20 to 60 seconds) the birds to remove the feathers. Remove pin feathers and singe to remove hair-like feathers. Cool, if possible, overnight at 32 to 34 degrees. If chilling room is not available, draw immediately and rinse in water at room temperature to remove blood and wash in ice water. Under most conditions of storage for home use the halving of the bird, or cutting up in pieces for frying, is more desirable since less space is required for storage. This simplifies the drawing procedure. Remove the head and neck, oil sac and shanks. Cut from the neck to the rear along the backbone. Remove entrails. Broilers may be halved by cutting along the keel.

Chicken for frying should be disjointed after final washing. When packing halves of chicken, one half is placed skin down on the table. Two pieces of water-proof paper are placed on the half and the other half placed on top. Wrap and freeze as for other meats. Sun is best and commercial bleaches are never a substitute for good laundering methods says Jane Werden, Michigan State College home economist. Bleaching is necessary only in rare cases such as removing stains which ordinary washing does not affect. Never bleach colors. Use manufacturer's directions for bleaching and mix bleach with water before adding clothes. Hot weather housekeeping rules from Ruth Whitehouse, Michigan State College home economist, suggest you simplify your dish-washing by omitting the drying

BIG AIR FAIR
AUGUST 6-7

Everything the Navy's air arm could hurl today against a potential enemy will be thrown into the air Saturday and Sunday, August 6 and 7, before tens of thousands of Detroiters at the Second International Air Fair at Willow Run Airport.

On orders of Dan Kimball, undersecretary of the Navy, the sea-searching branch of America's military machine is sending more than 70 first-line fighters, bombers and torpedo planes to Willow Run for the biggest air show ever staged in Detroit.

Topping the show, in size at least, will be a return engagement of the 180-passenger Lockheed Constitution, the world's largest military transport plane, which had thousands gaping three weeks ago when it visited Grosse Ile Naval Air Station for a day and a half.

The Constitution will be open for public inspection throughout the two-day show, from cockpit to galley, bedrooms to spiral staircase linking the upper and lower decks.

Once each day, the Constitution will roar off the flight deck in a cloud of white smoke from its JATO (jet assisted take-off) units mounted on either side of the fuselage, in the first JATO demonstration ever staged at a commercial airport in this area.

Compactly parked, with wings folded up or behind, depending upon the type of aircraft, the combat planes will taxi out to the take-off point, drop wings into place, and roar into the air after a minimum run of only a few feet, simulating the conditions found at sea in wartime.

An equally spectacular display is being arranged by the Air Force, and a half-dozen civilian acts will round out the show.

In addition to the aerial phase of its show, the Navy also will join others participating in the Aero Club's air fair in presenting ground exhibits for close-at-hand inspection before and after the flight demonstrations.

The air fair will be open from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. both August 6 and 7, with flying acts scheduled to start at 1:30 p. m. each day. Tickets are on sale at all Shell Oil Co., gas stations, Olympia, air line ticket offices, and all Michigan Airports. Parking will be free.

GET YOUR ENTRIES IN NOW FOR MICHIGAN STATE FAIR

Michigan Farmers and their wives and other interested persons were told today that now is the time to make their entries in the Centennial Michigan State Fair to be held in Detroit, September 2 through 11.

Premium books, announcing $120,000 in prizes and other information, are now being mailed. Sixty thousand books are automatically going to those who were on the mailing list last year and those who exhibited last year.

Others who want a premium book should write to the Michigan State Fair, Detroit 3, Michigan. There is no charge.

A greater emphasis on women's activities is being made this year. The sweepstakes prizes, totalling $5,000, will be the highest premiums ever offered during any Fair in the country.

"We want greater participation on the part of the ladies this year," General Manager James D. Friel said as he announced 350 prizes for women in 20 classes consisting of exhibits, in needle work, flower arrangements, foods, ceramics and family heirlooms.

In addition, Michigan housewives will have a chance to compete for the National Needlecraft Bureau cash awards totalling $2,500 if they are entered in the Home Arts Department competition.

Mrs. Polly Luers is in charge of the Home Arts Department this year.

One of the new features this year will be articles that are 100 years or older which will be displayed in the Family Heirloom section. Great-grandfather's and grandma's daguerreotype or the old time "sampler" dating back to 1849 or earlier will be part of the antique exhibit.

Entries in Home Arts close August 15 while most livestock and other entries close August 19. The premium book explains these details.

CAN USE NEWCASTLE

To combat Newcastle disease of poultry, two types of vaccine—killed-virus and live-virus—are being authorized by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which supervises the manufacture and sale of veterinary biological products.

H. J. Stafseth, head of the department of bacteriology and public health at Michigan State College, says a practical use for vaccination with the killed-virus is to protect broiler flocks when Newcastle is prevalent in the locality and the expense of vaccination is warranted. The immune period should carry them to market age.

When buying sheets check them for excess sizing by rubbing a corner of the sheet between your fingers. If it feels harsh and a white powder comes off, it is too heavily sized and will become sleazy after the first wash advises Jane Werden, Michigan State College home economist.

ALTES LAGER BEER!

Yes, again we say—"and now try ABC Altes." Just try one glass and taste the difference.

ABC Altes Lager will give you more downright enjoyment because it is the only beer with aged-in, sealed-in flavor... and it's made exclusively in sealed vats.

Just try ABC Altes Lager. Perhaps it's exactly what you have been looking for in a glass of beer. You can tell Altes by the new green and gold label. Remember "Always say Altes—the best beer always."

Air is out... Better flavor in... Closed vats do it!

Now... Chrysler Offers

1—Safer Driving! Through the years, the greatest advances in safety come to you first from Chrysler. Now there's a new advance in steering... Chrysler's "center control" steering! You're steering a wheel over. There's greater road stability, easier handling, less road shock. Even the leather covered foam rubber Safety-Cushion dash, and the new "Bulls-Eye" headlight lenses are designed to give you extra protection.

2—Safer Design! Now the engineers who pioneered the first all-steel car bodies have developed a still safer body and frame design—23% more rigid. You have full control of your automatic gear shifting car. With Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission, the Safety Clutch enables you to take over in emergencies, select the gear you need.

3—Safer Vision! When Chrysler engineers introduced the first 4-wheel hydraulic brakes 25 years ago—they brought to the automobile industry a new idea. It is the idea of car design that begins with safety, then builds beauty, comfort, performance! You can't possibly appreciate the difference until you drive this car. Find out how much more confident you feel in this Chrysler with its mighty High Compression Splitfire engine.

STATE RANKS HIGH IN COMPLETION OF 4-H CLUB PROJECTS

With more than 88 percent of Michigan's 53,830 4-H Club members carrying projects through to completion in 1948 the state ranked highest of any in the north central section of the United States. In the nation, only two states ranked higher and both of these, Maryland and Rhode Island, have less than 5,000 4-H Club members enrolled.

A. G. Kettunen of Michigan State college, state leader for the 4-H club program, cites local leaders of the 5,261 clubs for this record of achievement. "Michigan has 2,000 more 4-H Clubs than any other state in the nation and that means more leaders," Kettunen remarked. "We owe a great deal to these men and women who give of their time to help the rural youth of our state in this fine program."

Although a few states have more 4-H Club members than Michigan the state has by far the largest number of clubs.

And folks should be — about how their car behaves. A lot of little things count.

For instance, we're always aware of the fact that we call ours a service station.

This service includes Water, Air, and checking the Battery. And all this helps the car to behave.

Next time your car needs gas and oil, come in and check our kind of service thoughtfulness.
