Building Started On New Factory

The Hawk Tool and Engineering Co., has taken possession of the former Ford factory on West Washington and is well underway on the construction of a building to be used for manufacturing. The building will be 50 feet wide and extend in length for 200 feet. This will be a one story building for about half of its length and two stories, for the rest of the building.

It is expected that the walls will be up in about two weeks, while completion of the whole building will probably be two months.

The present factory will be used for an office and experimental building. This building will also house the heating plant. It is expected that some of the water power will be used to generate some of the necessary heating.

Some trees have been planted along Washington to beautify the grounds.

As fast as possible everything is being done to allow the company to start manufacturing operations here.

The services will begin at 10:30 a. m., and the worship service will be followed by a pot-luck luncheon.

Reverend I. Wesley Parrish is the minister at this church and is one of those friendly, warm-hearted souls that you will enjoy shaking hands with. Plan to attend the homecoming on October 30.

Weather permitting, the girl scouts will have their annual Penny Line on Saturday, Oct. 15th. A scout will be stationed at intervals along the line. The money obtained will be used for girl scout camping.

On Saturday, Oct. 22, the girl scouts will again be busy helping with a worth-while project. They are going to collect white materials for cancer pads.

Rotary Club News

The speaker at the club on Monday was Arthur W. Dickey, a patent attorney of Detroit. His talk covered the history of patents, what could and could not be patented, and how they were capitalized upon after a patent had been secured. The talk was interesting and well received.

Guests included Lee Johnson and Clark Morgan of the high school; Ed. Lambertson of the Waterford Club and Rotarians Krug and Hamilton of the Ortonville Club.

The dinner committee was in charge of Bob Parker assisted by two black faced helpers, Gerald O'Dell and William Sharpe, and two others, Earl Terry and Keith Lowery. It should be mentioned that the colored boys also doubled on the host and fellowship committee by meeting all at the door and greeting them with a well greased hand shake that left the member or guest slightly embarrassed and wondering how to dispose of the grease.

The menu consisted of sausage and pancakes really dealt off the arm. Orders for cakes were filled by tossing the number asked for across the table on to the member's plate. Drinking water calls were filled by slightly spilling some on the person, having nerve enough to call the order. Cap pistols were in evidence for those who ate too many cakes. Waiters let their trays fall and they themselves even fell on the floor. It was not a quiet orderly dinner but the fact that 172 cakes were eaten showed that everybody must have enjoyed the dinner. Certainly the novelty was so interesting that the committee can feel their evening "went over with a bang". The dinner was an hilarious affair, to say the least—it was different.

Strange But True

This past week Mrs. Clare Rasmussen and son, Eric, of Sacramento, Calif., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry and other relatives in Clarkston and Oakland County. Everyone was quite amused and very interested in the alertness of little three year old Eric in naming automobiles that pass along the highway. Very seldom does the new fellow have to look at a car the second time to tell the make of the car. Whether it is an old, worn model or an up-to-the-minute '49 car he can tell whether it is a Pontiac, Ford, Chevrolet, Chrysler, etc. This is quite unusual for a three year old, so of course his grandmother, Mrs. George Perry, was quite proud of his ability.

Mrs. Rasmussen and son have gone to West Virginia to visit her mother.

Turkey Supply Good For Locker Buying

If you have frozen food locker or home freezer you may want to take this tip on your holiday turkey supply from Howard C. Zindel, Michigan State College poultry extension specialist. Zindel thinks now is the time to get the "bird in the hand" and then into the freezer.

There's no fear of a turkey shortage this season, but Zindel thinks prices are lower now than they may be when the holiday demand picks up.

Some producers started birds earlier this year and the supply of turkeys of most sizes is adequate. Properly dressed and frozen, the turkeys will keep in frozen food storage for many months.

In selecting diffusing bowls for your lamps remember that they will cut off some of the light but they also will prevent glare. Select a thin blown glass bowl in preference to a plastic or heavy pressed glass reflector bowl, suggests Jessie Marion, home furnishings specialist at Michigan State College.

Set jars from the canner right side up to cool, on a rack of thick cloth or paper, away from drafts. The next day tilt jars to test for leaks advises Roberta Hershey, foods specialist at Michigan State College.

Scratches on dark woods may be colored by rubbing them with one of the following: commercial scratch remover, oil stain, or rottenstone and linseed oil, advise extension specialists at Michigan State College.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

But Curly "Knows What The Score Is!"

Was over at Doc Sherman's drug store listening to the World Series on the radio. Curly Lawson wanders in and says: "How about a chocolate malted, Doc?"

"Sorry, Curly," says Doc, "can't make you a malted for a while yet." "What's the idea?" Curly asks. "Well," says Doc, "most of the folks want to hear the game and the mixer makes too much noise." Curly thinks a moment and says, "Okay with me, Doc—I'll take a chocolate soda!"

This shows how tolerant folks can be. Doc showed his respect for how the majority felt; Curly was big enough not to insist on his malted even though he doesn't happen to be fond of baseball.

From where I sit, willingness to respect the other people's feelings is important in a Democracy. If we're tolerant of a person's like for baseball or a glass of temperate beer, we've come a long way on the right road . . . the road to a better America, that is!

The Hilltopper
HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Department, under the supervision of Miss Etzler and with the co-operation of the Home Economics II girls, is undergoing a renovation. Daintiness has been forgotten and blue jeans furnish the ensemble while the girls merrily but craftily splash paint on the bookshelves and cupboards. The color scheme is sunbony yellow and green.

Curtains also have taxed the patience and ability of the girls but they've come through with beautiful yellow and gray curtains with floral print. Seat covers for the sofa are of the same design. And just to keep the girls busy two and one half dozen place mats were constructed. Aprons off to the Home Economics II girls.

BAND TRIP

An anxious group of band and football members journeyed to East Lansing last Saturday to see Michigan State turn back the University of Maryland 14-7. It was the first football game for many and judging from the noise over and back it was a most enjoyable Saturday afternoon.

ASSEMBLY

The cheerleaders, plus a few recruits, put on a mock football game for a pep assembly last Friday morning. Our football team gained nothing new, however, for we were again subdued, this time by Waterford, 14-6.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

Halloween is just around the corner so start making plans now. The sophomores are sponsoring the "Harvest Moon Hop", Friday, October 28th. Music is to be furnished by Don Kraft and his orchestra with dancing from 8:30 until 12:00. This is our first school dance. Let's make it a success.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS
by Larry Tripp

Soil Conservation Planner The Soil Conservation District directors held their October meeting at the Highland High School, Monday night, Oct. 3. They met with representatives of two groups of farmers who applied for soil conservation planning help. Ray Wheeler and Garrett Dirkse represented the north White Lake group.

The directors agreed to co-sponsor the 4-H club Contour Plowing Contest to be held next spring.

In order to further the 4-H Club Soil Conservation activities, each director will organize a 4-H Club Soil Conservation Group. The district directors agreed to supply prizes for the winners.

A report was made on the Good-year Banquet held September 27 in Frankenmuth. Frank Ruggles attended this banquet along with representatives of the outstanding soil conservation farms this last year. Some very good speeches were given and it served to remind us that the soils in good farms as well as on worn out ones were not generally being improved. Fertilizers and good crop growing methods tend to blind us to the true facts. Crop yields are still too low considering all the many improvements made in crop production methods. The difference is in the soils themselves, and soil decline continues to wipe out the service given us by other technical progress.

4-H CLUB NOTES
By John Trocke
4-H Club Agent

The week of October 9-15 will be Oakland County's 4-H membership drive week. Today there is a greater challenge than ever before to give every rural boy and girl the opportunity of 4-H experience.

The most important product of the United States is its young people. Any boy or girl who carries out a 4-H club project as it should be done will be greatly benefited by the experience. The purpose of 4-H Club work is to give boys and girls an opportunity for improvement through group training and personal experiences. The association with other members at 4-H Club meetings; the growing of livestock, canning foods, making handicraft articles, clothing, etc. which are their own personal property and the responsibility of keeping accurate, business-like records of feed costs, gains and profits all assist in laying the foundation for successful lives. Almost any interest a youngster has can be found in a 4-H project. There are nearly 100 different projects.

A 4-H Club is a small functional democracy. The boys and girls elect their own officers and carry out their club work in a democratic way. Their adult leaders offer council and help when difficulties are encountered. The things they do in 4-H project work are a valuable addition to their lives. Awards and activities include the Oakland County 4-H Fair, Spring Achievement Day, Summer Camp, trips to Michigan State College and Washington D. C., Chicago; tours and judging schools and competition to mention a few. Many 4-H boys and girls are now attending college on 4-H scholarships won for outstanding work.

Does your boy or girl belong to a 4-H Club? Can you give some of your time to leading a 4-H Club? It is the local volunteer leaders who make it possible for our boys and girls to enjoy the benefits of leadership. They need your help. For further information call your county 4-H Club Agent at Pontiac 42564 or write to the County 4-H Club Agent, 1 Lafayette Street, Pontiac.

When no dew follows a hot day, rain may be expected.

CHECK FOR GOOD HERD ADDITIONS

Farmers who are buying heifers for dairy herd replacements this fall should have an eye out for big growthy, roomy animals that have the ability to produce well.

County agricultural agents and DHIA testers often know where good heifers may be offered for sale.

Many thanks to the South Lyon business folks for their fine cooperation in sponsoring the livestock outlook meeting last Tuesday. Over 125 farmers attended and were served cider and donuts by the Kiwanis Club and business folks in the South Lyon area. Such cooperation means more community spirit and a better, more progressive agriculture.

In light of the fine results obtained there, perhaps other service clubs in the county would care to sponsor such meetings in cooperation with our office. We would be most happy to work with the agriculture committee of any such service club. It is a fine community service to carry on.

WATER

Water is cheap, of course, but we attach a special importance to it when folks drive their car into our station. In all Friendliness, we always check the Radiator, clean the Windshield, ask about the Battery, Tire Pressure, etc.

You'll agree that we actually enjoy giving this kind of service, too.

Next time your car needs gas, drive in and see us.

U. S. Navy Family at Home in Nippon

Two Japanese housegirls are shown serving breakfast to a Navy chief petty officer and his family in Japan. There is no talk about the high cost of living among the more than one hundred Navy families at the Headquarters of the Commander, Fleet Activities, Yokosuka. For twenty-seven dollars a month they occupy from five to seven rooms furnished complete with electric ranges, telephones, refrigerators and Park Housing Area, include schools, a modern department store, a well-stocked commissary and a beauty salon. (Official U.S. Navy Photograph)

BARREL STORAGE OF VEGETABLES

One of the easiest methods for storing vegetables outdoors is by using an ordinary barrel. The barrel can either be set vertically or laid on the ground horizontally. Or, if you wish to place it on a slight incline, a hole should be dug about 12" deep to accommodate the barrel. After the barrel is placed, pack a layer of assorted vegetables in the bottom of the barrel, then a layer of straw and then another layer of vegetables. When you open the barrel during the winter, take out all the vegetables in one layer. The straw below this layer protects the other vegetables from the cold. The barrel should be covered first with a good layer of straw and then with soil. The barrel should be provided with ventilation which can be most easily done by running a piece of down spout or other pipe in to the center of the barrel. The exposed end of the ventilator pipe should be protected from rain, snow and mice and should be plugged during extremely cold spells.

Hardwood makes better coals for a campfire than soft wood.

A Product of General Motors

Here's Where the Best Begins!

Most people look no further after they've had a good look at a 1949 Pontiac—they know that the best begins here!

Here is the best in beauty—with a "Silver Streak" personality all its own. Here is the best in performance—thanks to Pontiac's great engines, straight eight or six. Here is the best in comfort, luxurious detail and appointments.

And here is the best in real economy—a sensible price to begin with and the famous Pontiac record of rolling out miles and miles and miles with only routine servicing.

The best begins right in our showroom—come in and see!

THERE'S MORE COMFORT IN A PONTIAC!
It's so much nicer to ride in a Pontiac—there's loads of head- and leg-room, the doors are wide for easy entrance and exit. Every mile is smooth and comfortable.
