FORD SCHOOL OPEN FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

In order that the voters of the township will have an opportunity to examine the proposed Township Community Center arrangements have been made to have it open for inspection this weekend. It will be open from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. on Saturday and from 2:00 P. M. to 6:00 P. M. on Sunday.

All voters who have not been in this building and all who have questions to ask as to its proposed use by the township are urged to drop in either Saturday or Sunday.

The election for the purchase of this building and the necessary bonding will take place at the Independence Township Hall in Clarkston on Friday, July 21st. (See notice on page 4, col. 5, of this issue.)

It is planned that the first floor of the building will be used by the Clarkston School district for additional classrooms to overcome the existing overcrowded conditions for perhaps a period of two years. The other floors would be used for township offices and community projects.

W. S. C. S. Circles Enjoy Picnics

On Thursday of last week the Mary Circle met at the home of Mrs. August Doebler and Miss Wauna Doebler for their annual picnic. Mrs. Arthur Tondou was the assisting hostess. There were fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. Charles Ryall of Kalamazoo, present.

Following the picnic luncheon a short business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Leland Masters. Mrs. R. C. Ainsley was in charge of the devotions. Mrs. Masters appointed Mrs. Kenneth Johnson chairman of the Rotary dinner in July and Mrs. William Sharpe, chairman of the dinner in August.

Mrs. Charles Beach vice chairman of the Circle, discussed the book "Missions at Grass Roots." The group is looking forward to studying this book during the next few months.

Mrs. Frank Jewell and a committee composed of Mrs. Ralph Kregger, Mrs. Herbert Souby, and Mrs. William Johnston served a lovely luncheon to the Martha Circle when it met at the home of Mrs. Jewell at Walters Lake on Thursday of last week. There were 26 present. A short business meeting followed the luncheon.

Phone Customers Get New Service

Another extension of direct dialing of telephone calls has been inaugurated by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company with the announcement that calls to Repair Service, Information, and Time Service now can be dialed by customers instead of being obtained through the operator.

The new numbers are FE deral 112 for Time Service, FE deral 113 for Information, and FE deral 114 for Repair Service.

This step is a logical extension of the speed and accuracy of dialing which began with the inauguration of direct calling between communities in the Pontiac District Exchange last January, Robert E. Poll, manager said.

Something New In Records

Paul Henry is now serving his sixth year on the school board. His first year he was a trustee. The second year he was president. The next year the office was moved about and he served as trustee. The following year he was president again by election. Last year he was elected president twice in one year, once at the annual election of the school board — the last of the Clarkston School Board — and once by the board of the newly organized rural agricultural school district. Last Monday he was elected president for the coming year. Thus he is serving his sixth year, has been trustee two years and been elected president 5 times.

Weather Affects Honey Bee Work

The complaint that the bees are "working the dandelions and not the fruit blossoms," is heard frequently during the blossom period of the year.

Laymen who watched the habits of bees and flowers in the blossom period just passed, are inclined to blame this kind of bee activity for poor pollination of the fruit blossoms and light sets of fruit.

J. C. Kremer, of the Michigan State College horticulture department, says that weather conditions are more important than bees' individual preference. Both dandelions and fruit blossoms are good honey plants, producing nectar and pollen, and are equally attractive to bees at certain temperatures. As the temperature varies only one or the other may be attractive to bees.

"Growers often lay the blame on the bees, when the blossoms are at fault," Kremer explains.

The dandelion prefers the cooler temperatures of 55 to 70 degrees F., but closes its blossom if higher temperatures prevail. The fruit blossoms prefer the warmer temperatures ranging from 65 to 80 degrees. As the bees visit the blossoms to obtain their food in the form of pollen and nectar, they work the blossoms only when this material is available.

At lower temperatures bees are usually found on dandelions and in warmer weather on fruit trees. When conditions are right, they work both blossoms. This competition for the services of the bee is usually of short duration as the temperature rises. If temperatures rise rapidly, no cause for complaint is heard as the bees devote their time to the fruit blossoms entirely.

Dainty refreshments were served from a table centered with a bride's cake.

Garden flowers were used in profusion about the rooms.

Besides the honoree and her mother, Mrs. D. B. Mortimore, the guests included Mrs. Edward Craft, Joan Booth, Joan Fuller, Mary Porritt, Catherine Garner, Joan Bradley, Carolyn Waterbury, Shirley Allen, Carole Torr, Ruby Powell, Gerry and Jennie Schroeder.

Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club News

The new president of the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club, Erwin Greer, held an informal meeting on Tuesday when he informed the members that continued growth and well formed fellowship depended upon the cooperation of every active member. Much scrutiny is being used in appointing the committees for the year and by the time next Tuesday's meeting rolls around the club will be harassed for another busy year's activities.

The well attended ball game last Thursday evening when the Exchange Club met the Rotarians on the Township diamond in Drayton Plains provided fun and excitement for all.

Giving their life's history at this meeting were Charles Lippincott and Gerald Monroe.

Guests at the meeting were Gerald Lippincott and Russell McVell of

"Learn To Swim" Was Order Of Day

On Tuesday afternoon the Red Cross instructors were at Deek Lake to get the swimming lessons under way. There were approximately 100 there to take advantage of these free swimming classes.

The instructors were "on the job," they wasted no time and in a short time they had the classes organized and were ready to go to work. There were so many beginners and intermediates that each group had to be divided into two classes. There were about a dozen in the junior life saving class and 7 or 8 in the advanced life saving group.

It was interesting, especially to the many mothers who were there, to see the little beginners, many very timid tots, walk right into the water along with the instructor and dip their faces without even hesitating. These little youngsters seemed to enjoy every minute and will be anxiously waiting for next Tuesday's lesson.

Next week isn't too late to join the classes. It would be wise, if you care to receive a certificate at the end of the season, to attend every class.

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 492): "For right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. Missionary To Japan To Speak Sunday

Soon after the American occupation of Japan, General MacArthur made an appeal for Christian missionaries to carry the message of the Gospel to the needy Japanese people.

Responding to this call, but primarily to the Lord's Great Commission to the church to preach the Gospel to every creature, Arthur Chrysler, recently graduated from the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music, will leave about September 15th for Japan. On Sunday morning and evening he will visit the services of the Waterford Community Church to give his testimony and to present the challenge of the great need of the sweet message of salvation in the hearts of the Japanese people.

With him, and assisting in the services of the church will be his brother, James, and Mr. Bill Hoeflinger, both of whom are also students at the Grand Rapids school. James, who expects to graduate next year, is also looking forward to giving his life to the work of preaching Christ in Japan. The trio will also render special music at the Sunday service.

This presentation is under the auspices of the Missionary Board of the church, as part of its program of missionary information and prayer, seeking the leading of the Lord as to the enlargement of the missionary program of the church. An increase in the budget for foreign missions was voted at the last business meeting of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seeterlin and son, Ricky, and daughter, Christina, of South Bend, Indiana, are spending the week with Mr. Seeterlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seeterlin.

The Annual meeting of the Rural School District embracing the Clarkston School District as reorganized last year was held at the school building in Clarkston on Monday, July 10th, with 12 present besides the school board.

The secretary's report of the previous annual meeting was read by Mr. Spooner, and accepted.

Mr. Leak then read the treasurer's report and explained some of the items. This report was accepted. The district is in good financial condition and concerning its bonds outstanding, all bonds that can be paid have been paid. There are some bonds outstanding that the owners desire to cash them in at this time the board will be glad to pay them and is in a position to do so.

An interesting question was raised as to the board furnishing free text-books for use by the pupils. It was explained that the present system of the pupil purchasing a new book then turning it in at the end of the year seemed to be the best idea as better care was taken of the books and the cost to the pupil was sometimes less than having free books then paying for any damage through neglect of the pupil to properly care for them.

As the law demands that the question of salaries of members of the school board be set at the annual meeting a motion was made to pay the president $75 annually with the secretary receiving $175; the treasurer, $250 and the trustees $50 each. It should be noticed that these amounts pay in full for these 12 regular meetings and many special meetings, each one lasting about 3 hours. The decisions of the board for the coming year will involve handling around $150,000.

The superintendent, Wallace Ridgley, explained that a larger group of maintenance men was on the job this summer and that they were repairing the building, painting, putting around the windows and much other needed work was being done on the building. Some new furniture and school equipment has been purchased and all will be in readiness to better serve the pupils the coming year.

An expected larger school attendance was set about an increase of 25.

School depositories for the three funds maintained were named the same as last year, the Clarkston State Bank being the depository for the largest fund which embraces the operating funds.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jacober and sons and Bobby Jacober were Sunday visitors at the August Jacober cabin near Comins.

The Harold Bradleys of Hatchery Road have had as their guests Mr. Bradley's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Bradley and daughter from West Virginia. Mrs. Bradley's sister Mrs. Thelma Daniel and two daughters from Baltimore, Maryland, are now visiting at the Bradley home.

Mrs. James Stites of Townsend Blvd. is in Pontiac General Hospital where she underwent a goster operation on Monday.

Mrs. Alton Banfield of Lakeview Drive will entertain the members of the Home Extension Group for a picnic and swim, Tuesday, July 18th, at 11 o'clock. The children of the members are invited.

The Annual Church and Sunday School picnic of the Waterford Community Church will be Saturday, July 15th. It will be held at Pioneer State Park at Anacostea and cars will leave the church at 10:00. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service and a picnic supper.

On July 13, 1950, is church workers night at the Waterford Church. The monthly business meeting of the mission board, Council and Trustees will be held at 8:00 p.m. — 10:00.

The Daily Vacation Bible Class of the Waterford Community Church ended last Thursday with a program showing the work of each department: the nursery Department was headed by Mrs. C. Coventry and the Primary department by Mrs. Wright Van Plew. The junior department in charge of Mrs. Stephen Pnette-place gave a pantomime on "The Christian's Birth and Growth". Mrs. Gerald Monroe took the reading part. Rev. Van Plew headed the Intermediate department and their theme showed the call of God to men in the Bible. Prizes were awarded to the boys and girls for inviting the most young folks to the school. The first prize, a softball, went to Ronald Coventry and Shirley Conkright. Second prizes, a camera, were received by Jimmy Brondize and Sharon Grist. The total attendance for the Bible School was 316, with 220 present on the last day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz entertained the Ladies' Auxiliary and Adult Bible Class of the Waterford Church at their home in Maceday Gardens. A picnic supper was enjoyed by the two groups, followed by a short business meeting. Mrs. Henry Mehlerberg, Mrs. Alton Goll and Mrs. Henry East were cohostesses. Mrs. Murdo MacDonald will entertain the Auxiliary at another picnic on August 3rd. The Bible Class will not meet in August.

Mrs. Tony Egnatuck, dinner chairman, has named Mrs. Gerard Roy to officiate in the dining room for the parish dinner during Our Lady of the Lakes church festival August 4 - 6. Co-workers also were announced at a meeting of the general guild Wednesday night in the parish hall. The festival meal will be served from 1 until 5 p. m. August 6th. Several dolls dressed by the women for the festival were displayed. Mrs. Albert DeConinck reported on the purchase of dishes and silverware for the church kitchen. The meeting closed with prayer and refreshments were served by the Rosary guild of Clarkston.

Party Shortcake

Truly a party pie is this sweet biscuit shortcake cut into wedges, then heaped high with raspberries and glorified with whipped cream cheese piping.

For gala vacation parties during the summer, solve dessert problems with a deluxe shortcake. Fluffy shortcakes made with enriched flour please both eye and palate, and score on good nutrition, too.

Who could resist taking their B-vitamins and iron in the raspberry party shortcake pictured? Allow about five minutes to mix the simple drop biscuit batter which needs only to be spread in a greased nine-inch layer cake pan. The batter looks lumpy as it goes into the hot oven, but it comes out golden brown, fluffy and even-textured in 20 to 25 minutes.

You may want to split the big biscuit in half and fill as well as top with fresh raspberries. To decorate, whip cream cheese fluffy with a little milk and pile into pastry bag. Pipe around each wedge.

Once raspberry shortcake was strictly a summertime treat, but now its refreshing flavor provides a lift all the year around, for frozen or canned raspberries make a delectable topping, too.

RASPBERRY SHORTCAKE

- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 4 tablespoons shortening
- 1/4 to 1 cup milk
- Sweetened raspberries
- Whipped cream

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and sugar. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to make a thick batter, stirring only until flour is well moistened. Spread in ungreased 9-inch layer cake pan. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Cut in pie-shaped wedges. Heap with sweetened raspberries. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes 1 9-inch shortcake.

CORN NEEDS MORE NITROGEN IN JULY

Give your corn a "second helping" of nitrogen if you want good yields, says James Porter, soils specialist at Michigan State College.

For a 60 bushel per acre yield, corn needs 95 pounds of nitrogen per acre, he states. Most of this is needed after July 15th.

Good insurance that there will be enough nitrogen for this large requirement is plowing under of manure or a green manure crop. Ten tons of manure contains about 100 pounds of nitrogen. Sweet clover plowed under supplies large amounts of nitrogen.

Where neither manure or legume green manure have been plowed under, corn will usually show a lack of nitrogen by the last cultivation. First symptoms appear on the leaves at the base of the corn stalks — sometimes called "firing." The leaves turn yellow, first at the tips, and the yellowing proceeds toward the stalk. The middle vein of the leaf turns yellow most rapidly.

Treatment to make up this shortage is a sidedressing along the row with 200 pounds of sulphate of ammonia or 125 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre. This will supply about 40 pounds of the element nitrogen. Porter believes this should increase the corn yield from 10 to 25 bushels an acre. These fertilizers can be applied with fertilizer sidedressing equipment.

SAFE HOME CANNED FOODS
Here's some advice on safe home canning issued today by the Michigan Department of Health. Improperly canned food can be poisonous when it neither looks, smells or tastes bad, the Department warned.

Can everything except tomatoes and fruit by the pressure cooker method, if it is at all possible. When non-acid food such as vegetables, meat and poultry are canned by any other method, the contents of each can must be boiled for at least 15 minutes before they are even tasted. Use boiling water bath for fruits and tomatoes only. Cold pack nothing except tomatoes. Never can lima beans or corn in anything larger than a pint jar. Even pressure cooking cannot make these vegetables safe in larger containers.

Never can in the oven. The danger of explosion and burns is too great and then the product canned in the crowded oven may not be safe.

Get the latest government time tables and directions for any type of canning and follow them exactly. Use only those time tables and directions issued since 1947.

Can only fresh foods in the very best condition.

Be sure that all food for canning, hands, towels and all canning equipment including jars and lids, are immaculately clean. Read carefully and observe the manufacturer's instructions for the type of lid you are using.

Keep the pressure cooker's petcock and gauge clean. Have the gauge checked by its manufacturer.

Prepare only one load for the cooker at a time. Work quickly. While one load is processing, prepare another. "Two hours from garden to can" is a good rule to follow. Be sure the pressure is completely down before you open the cooker.

Cool jars quickly, but out of any possible draft. Don't turn jars upside down — this breaks the seal. Tilt them gently to test for leaks. If vacuum seal lids are used, remove the screw cap the following day to be certain that no inadequately sealed jars are stored. Store in a cool, dark, dry place.

Don't try to can the entire crop in one day. Give special care and attention to each step in home canning. Let other work go during canning hours. Pen the small child away from the canning area in the kitchen. Keep a bottle or jar of burn treatment preparation in the kitchen.

canning may save your life, the State Health Department said. Pamphlets containing government recommendations can be obtained from the county agricultural agent's office or from Michigan State College.

TO AID YOUNG DAIRY FARMERS
Encouragement to young farmers building future dairy herds is being given by the Michigan Artificial Breeders' Cooperative, according to Franklin Heim, president, and A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at Michigan State College and secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The new policy calls for one complimentary service on a dairy calf owned by a bona fide 4-H Club member or FFA member.

Conditions required are that the animal, if registered, be registered in the name of the boy or girl owner, or if grade that ownership be in the name of the 4-H Club or FFA member.

Officials of the farmer-owned organization believe that this service will allow well over 2,000 animals to be bred on a complimentary basis, providing local 4-H leaders and district 4-H Club agents countersign requests.

Remember that odor is the best guide in buying melons. Color, plumpness, odor and freedom from bruising should be considered in buying all fruits. Size may affect the price of fruit but does not always affect its eating quality.

Color and flavor of strawberries is easily destroyed by heat. In making preserves it is well to cook them only a short time.

CARE NEEDED IN BARLEY HARVEST

Barley growers who expect to sell their surplus grain on the open market should exercise care in harvesting and threshing, says R. E. Decker, head of the Michigan State College farm crops department. Harvesting should be done when the grain is dry and ripe. Skinned and broken kernels lower quality, Decker advises.

Four points should be followed for improved barley quality. 1. When cut with a binder or wind-rower, straw should be fully yellowed and grain fully mature. 2. When grain is threshed, moisture content should be down to 14 percent. 3. Adjust machine to prevent cracked or skinned kernels. 4. Avoid mixture with other grains in storing.

Easiest way to cut notches when cutting out a garment from a pattern is to cut them out instead of in as the pattern indicates. There is less danger of cutting too deep or starting the fabric to fray out. If you need to let out the seam, the cut notch will not prevent it.

Be sure that your family has two servings of vegetables besides potatoes each day. One large serving of vegetable should be from the green and yellow vegetable group.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

There it Was - Right in The Middle!

Easy Roberts mowed his lawn early last Saturday. Then he sat on the porch, and watched Handy Peterson cutting his grass.

The Roberts' property and the Peterson's border each other - with no hedge or fence between them. So, when Easy notices Handy had left about a four-foot strip unmowed along the boundary, he walks over and asks why.

"That's your land," says Handy. "Mine ends here. See, it lines up with that oak tree across the road!" Easy didn't think so, so they went up and down loo!

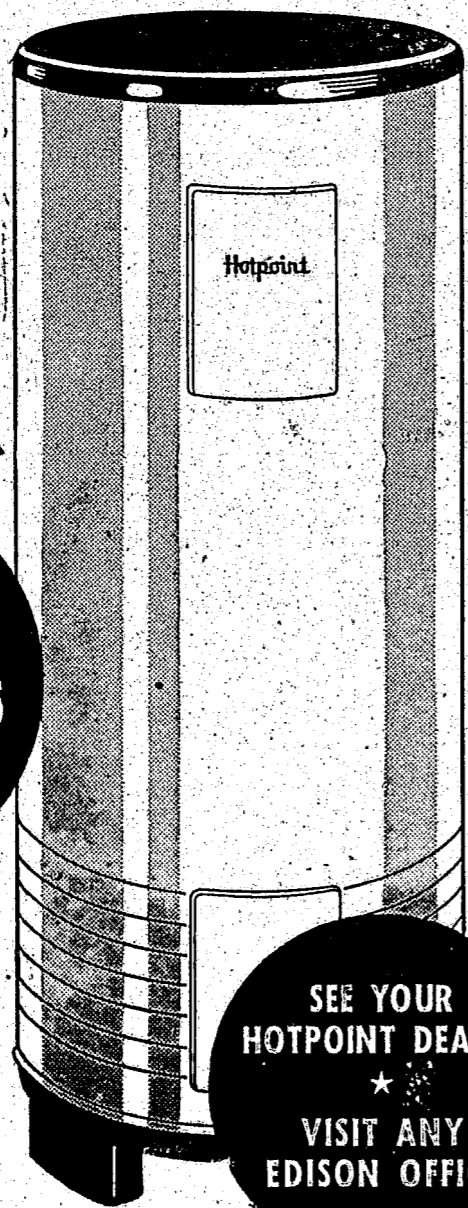

the surveyor's marker. Where did they find it? Right in the middle of their "no man's land!"

Well, they both grin and take turns finishing the job and then retreat to Easy's for a friendly glass of beer together. From where I sit, a little searching around for the truth of the matter often shows that the other fellow is as much right as you are - at which point the whole thing doesn't seem as important anyway.

ADVISES PRESERVING OF CURRENT PEA CROP

Local crops of fresh peas are available now for table use and for preserving for next winter for your family's enjoyment then. You can preserve their fresh flavor by canning or freezing if you use correct modern methods advises Roberta Hershey, extension foods specialist at Michigan State College. If you are canning the peas, cover the shelled and washed peas with boiling water and then bring them to a boil. Pack the hot peas in glass jars but be sure to leave one inch of space at the top of the jar as you cover the peas with boiling water. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pints and one teaspoon salt to quarts. Adjust the jar lids and process in a pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure for 40 minutes for pints or quarts. If three or four pints are to be processed in a pressure saucepan rather than in a pressure canner, they should be processed for 60 minutes at 10 pounds pressure. Pressure saucepans should not be used for canning unless they are equipped with a pressure control device. As soon as you remove jars from canner, complete seals if they are not self-sealing. It is important to use a recommended variety of peas as some may not freeze well. Thomas Laxton, Onieda, and Shasta varieties are suitable for freezing. Avoid over-ripe or immature peas and handle quickly from time of harvest to freezing to preserve quality and flavor. Peas should be blanched before packaging for freezing. Place gallon of boiling water for one and one-half minutes. Cool immediately in running water or in ice water. Pack in moisture-vapor-proof bags leaving space for expansion. Quick freeze immediately.

rich sauces and pastries." That's what Mrs. Alice H. Smith, chief nutritionist of the Michigan Department of Health says in an article "Less Calories for Summer Coolness" in the vacation issue of "Michigan Public Health." The article recommends three well-balanced meals a day in summer as well as in winter, but it contains suggestions for less cooking more raw vegetables more fresh fruits, main dish salads and one warm dish to make the meal more satisfying. A copy of the Vacation issue of "Michigan Public Health" which contains the article, or a year's subscription to the magazine may be obtained without charge by writing to the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.
