CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1950

CLARKSTON ROTARY PARADE MONDAY, SEPT. 4

Starting promptly at 10:00 a. m., Monday morning, at Miller Road and North Main, those taking part in the Annual Pet and Costume Parade, sponsored by the Clarkston Rotary Club, will swing in to Main Street and march down town, led by the Drum and Bugle Corps of the Campbell-Richmond Post of the American Legion.

The parade this year is under the supervision of George Lang of the Clarkston Motor Sales and promises to be even bigger and better than any of the parades of former years.

In addition to more entrants of the younger years, this year it is hoped that more of the adults will participate in the doing and appear in costumes of their own choosing. There will be floats and the local businessmen are especially asked to doll up that business truck and add to the length and enjoyment of this annual affair.

If you have the desire to outdo William Sharpe in his clever impersonation of a woman which was such a big hit in last year's parade you are invited to do so. It will be remembered that Bill did such a good job last that even his closest friends did not know him. This is your home town, all local talent, enterprise to make fun for all and you are invited to literally take your hair down, forget your inhibitions, and for the day be a kid again. Your psychiatrist will tell you that the surprising thing is you will enjoy yourself even more than your audience.

Of course there will be prizes for the winners and at the end of the line of march there will be refreshments.

We understand that President Charles Robinson has secured prizes this year that the contestants will enjoy keeping which will make participation even more worth while.

So plan to attend, either as a contestant or just as an audience, what promises to be a super-colossal, breath taking, interesting and instructive Labor Day event which will officially close the summer season for this year.

Ice Cream Social To Be Held

The True Experiences Of A Local Firefighter

Last Thursday evening, August 24th, I had just finished eating my supper and had sat down in a nice easy chair with the paper and was going to spend a nice quiet evening at my cozy little home. At about 6 P. M. the fire whistle blew and I was rudely interrupted from the paper and I was out in the car before the whistle got to its peak. I followed the engine out Waldon road to Sashabaw road and south on Sashabaw. We got nearing Maybee road and on the right hand side of the road was a school bus and it read "Huron Valley Schools". We slowed down and we noticed and I believe it was the Milford Band. Some of the young people were lying on the ground on the left side of the road and some on the right side and on the inside of the bus. They looked to me as though they were pretty sick. We continued down to Maybee road and stopped and was talking to Fire Chief Beach and he told us he would take a couple of men

OUT IN FEED COSTS UPS DAIRY PROFITS

Dairy farmers looking for ways to increase profits through cost reduction might well start with their feeding programs, says Tim Hodge, Michigan State College research agricultural economist.

Feed, the largest expense item in dairying, makes up nearly half of the total cost per cow. Research at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station has produced a number of suggestions for cutting these costs. Here are three checks on feeding management listed by Hodge:

1—Good quality hay and silage grown on the farm offer nutrients at the lowest possible price. In general, feed as much good hay as a cow wants.

2—Supplement roughages with a grain ration suited to individual cows which will return maximum profits.

3—Watch seasonal feed price changes. Buy home grown feed after harvest an soybean oil meal in March. Soybean oil meal is usually the cheapest source of protein supplement. Corn gluten feed is usually an economical buy for dairy production in the summer.

Hodge says two important factors in establishing grain feeding rates are often neglected—the price of feed in relation to milk prices and the producing ability of individual cows.

American Legion Band Performs In Pontiac Ceremony

Pontiac's 107th Ordinance Company of the Michigan National Guard boarded a special train in Pontiac at noon Tuesday. The company is on its way to Ft. Lewis, Washington, for extensive training.

Clarkston's American Legion Post No. 63 Drum and Bugle Corp was on hand to escort the 107th from the Armory in Pontiac to the Sanderson street railroad siding.

Lieut. Allen C. Cunningham of the 107th, and Dr. M. E. Siple of the Veterans Administration extended the gratitude of both the 107th and the Veteran's Administration, to the Drum and Bugle corp, for taking time out from their work to come down and give the boys a snappy send-off.

After the boys of the 107th had arrived at the station, Dr. Siple of the V. A. took the Drum and Bugle corp over to the Elks for a very delicious dinner.

The American Legion Drum and Bugle corp feels very honored that a city as large as Pontiac called upon us to furnish the escort for the National Guard.

The next regular meeting of the Campbell-Richmond Post will be held Tuesday, September 5th, 1950 at the Town Hall at 8 P. M.

All people and Legionnaires who have tickets to sell Labor Day, please turn in all unsold tickets, stubs and money, Saturday night September 2, to Frank D. Green, Hugh C. Cheeseman, Adjutant

When the milk price is low relative to feed—for example when 100 pounds of milk will buy only 120 pounds of grain—a dairyman can't afford to feed as much grain as when 100 pounds of milk would buy 150 pounds of grain.

Community Chest Drive Discussed

Last Monday evening a meeting of the Township Chairman of the Oakland County United Health and Welfare Fund was held at the Waldron Hotel in Pontiac. The meeting was presided over by Verne Spooner, County Chairman and was attended by representatives of most of the townships, including Kenneth Hogg, who was recently elected chairman of the Independence Township Community Chest.

The purpose was to acquaint the local representatives with the overall objective of the drive and to discuss local problems.

To follow up this early start for the Community Chest a kick-off meeting will be held at the Independence Township Hall at 8 o'clock, Tuesday, September 5th. In order to fulfill an objective of having only one fund raising drive during the year it is strongly urged that all organizations who wish to participate send a representative to the meeting.

Anyone who is willing to help solicit or is interested in the success of the drive will be welcome. Organizations that have needs for funds should submit their requirements before September 15th giving the directors ample time to review their requests before the campaign drive in October.

COUNTY 1951 WHEAT ACREAGE ALLOTMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Oakland County's wheat acreage allotment for the 1951 crop has been established by the Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at 10472 acres, according to Walter R. Cook, Chairman of the Oakland County PMA Committee.

This allotment, Mr. Cook said, represents Oakland County's proportionate share of the national allotment of 72,784,000 acres and the State allotment of 1,114,086 acres.

The County allotment will be broken down into individual grower allotments and a notice of allotment will be sent to each grower, Mr. Cook said.

Growers will be under no legal compulsion to plant within their allotments, Mr. Cook emphasized, but those growers who do plant in excess of their assigned allotments will not be eligible for storage loans or purchase agreements on their 1951 wheat crop under the provisions of the price support law.

The chairman said that the Nation is now in a very strong position in regard to wheat supplies because of a carryover of 450 million bushels from the 1949 crop and an estimated 1950 harvest of 957 million bushels.

Based on average yields, the 1951 national wheat acreage allotment, plus the anticipated carry-over on July 1, 1951, will provide a supply of 1 1/2 billion bushels for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1951. This is amply sufficient to provide for our domestic consumption, expected exports, and a reserve of 30 percent.

The wheat allotments were established after the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, Mr. Cook said, and this situation was fully considered in setting up the suggested wheat acreage goal for 1951.

If your cakes fall perhaps you are not using the right sized pan. When pans are too small the cake batter will run over the edges and burn. When the pans are too large the cake tends to be thin and over-baked.

Linen line is best for deep sea fishing since it will not deteriorate in salt water.

By the Way . . .

Whether other affairs are overshadowing the coming election or not, certainly this one of the quietest election campaigns we have seen. We are of the opinion that a primary election is perhaps more important than the real run-off of candidates in November. In the primary, you have your chance to pick the man you believe best fitted to represent the party. In November you merely vote for the chosen candidate and if no interest is shown in the primary, that candidate may be a poor choice. . . . It is a commonly known fact that the southern end of Oakland County is the most heavily populated and it behooves the northern end of the county to work a little harder to get proper representation in county offices. . . . Our friend Joe Harris is back as manager of the Drayton Theater. Personally I believe Joe likes the job of giving out dishes to the ladies who attend the theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. . . . In spite of a shower just as the Harry F. Kelly Caravan was driving into Clarkston last Saturday, the rain cleared away and quite a few of the citizens gathered to hear the republican candidate for nomination as governor. Not to be outdone, even though he has no opposition in the primaries, Governor Williams visited Holly for breakfast Tuesday morning. . . . School will open the 7th of September. . . . Monday being Labor Day, and a holiday plan to enjoy the annual pet and costume parade in Clarkston. . . . You are asked by the Rotary Club to don a comical (or serious) costume and be in the parade for the enjoyment and good time of everyone, old and young. . . . Again, and for the record, small groups of our young men are taking their examinations for induction into the armed services of these United States of America. . . . About the first thing a new family moving to Clarkston does is to subscribe to The Clarkston News. At that it is the easiest way to get into the swing of things around here and is a necessity if one desires to get the most of pleasant living in this community. . . . It was our pleasure to attend the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club and renew friendships on Tuesday of this week. . . . Four new subscriptions this week.

We Can Take It With Us

We lived today and it is gone. Where it shall not return. There'll be another, come the dawn. With problems cold and stern. We're thankful for the day that's past.

The pleasures that we've had. It seems it traveled all too fast. It leaves us kind of sad. We would recall the friends who came.

We'd laugh with them some more. We'd like to live it all the same. Beside this peaceful shore. What we have here we like to share.

With those who feel as we, Who see God's wonders everywhere. And love each hill and tree. We'd ride again the tossing waves With friends within our boat, Who laugh at wind tossed water sprays.

Without discordant note. The day is gone but there remains A memory in each heart. Of hours free from mental strains And sadness as we part. But none can rob the joys we've had.

Our thoughts, they can't destroy. Come winter days with weather bad, We've had this day of joy.

NEW MACHINE THINS BEETS SUCCESSFULLY
Farmers and field men of Michigan sugar beet concerns are determined to eliminate much of the hand labor required to take care of a sugar beet crop. At a recent demonstration a new down-thin-row thinner, designed to thin sugar beets mechanically, was shown.

This machine was developed at Michigan State College by George French, working jointly with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the college and the beet sugar manufacturers.

The machine consisted of counter-driven spike wheels operating from the power take-off. Although not ready for general use, farmers who watched it operate think it has possibilities.

ECLIPSE OF MOON DUE SEPT. 25, U-M ASTRONOMER SAYS
 It was meteors in August but the September feature in the skies will be a total eclipse of the moon.
 Dr. Hazel M. Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan, reports that the moon is scheduled to be blacked out by the earth's shadow on Monday, September 25, with a portion of the eclipse continuing on into the early hours of September 26th.

The moon will start to enter the earth's shadow at 9:32 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, and at 10:54 p. m. will be completely blacked out. This total phase will last for 46 minutes. The moon will not be entirely clear of the earth's shadow until 1:02 a. m., Dr. Losh says.
 "The moon will not vanish from sight during the so-called total phase of the eclipse," she points out. "Even when entirely covered by the earth's shadow, the moon will still be illuminated by the Sun. This sunlight filters through the Earth's atmosphere around the base of the shadow and then is deflected and spread out over the surface of the moon. This will give the moon a dull red or copper color throughout the 46 minutes of total eclipse."
 Dr. Losh recalls that there was a similar total eclipse of the moon on October 6, 1949 but emphasizes that a total eclipse of the moon does not occur at every full moon because the moon's route through space is usually tilted at such a degree that it passes above or below, the shadow of the earth. It is only on occasions that the moon's route during the full phase is such that it is affected by the shadow of the earth cast by the light of the sun.

 The September moon also makes news because it is the Harvest Moon since the sun enters the autumnal equinox at 9:44 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, on September 23rd and begins its long journey south of the equator. The full moon at the time of this equinox differs from the others during the year, according to Dr. Losh, since it rises at almost the same hour for several nights in a row.
 During the month, Jupiter will continue to be a bright object in the southern skies throughout the night. The night of the eclipse also will be an ideal time to locate the Great Square of Pegasus since the moon will be just below this constellation at that time.
 The star marking the left and upper corner of the Square actually is not a part of the constellation of Pegasus but belongs in the star-picture of the constellation Andromeda which presents another beautiful spectacle in the eastern sky during early September evenings.

 A look at any astronomical map will help in locating these constellations, Dr. Losh reports.
 Our modern salads had their origin as early as the fifteenth century but early salad eaters did not have the information about their value in the diet that we have today.

TEAMWORK

With the passing of each year, a great number of facts are added to man's increasing store of knowledge. Not over seventy-five years ago a man of superior intelligence could possess a working knowledge of all of science. Now, however, the realm of the known is so vast that it is necessary for men to specialize, in order to master one small but deep corner of scientific knowledge. Thus we have the physician, who diagnoses disease and prescribes medication and treatment. The pharmacist compounds and dispenses. Both the physician and the pharmacist benefit greatly from the researches of the biologist, the chemist, the physiologist, and the physicist, to name but a few. Through the teamwork of the allied sciences, increasingly better medical service for all is assured.

When your favorite television programs are over, good coffee should always be on tap for family and friends to serve with something "special" as a fitting finale to a perfect evening. Any one of the coffee-flavored desserts featured will be just right for late evening refreshments. Easy to prepare and impressive for any occasion are these desserts that combine modern cooking with old-fashioned goodness.

You can serve one or many with fresh, flavorful coffee in a flash. Just measure one teaspoon of soluble coffee (more or less rounded according to strength desired) in a cup, and add freshly boiling water and stir. To make six cups of good coffee, just pour one quart of boiling water on 6 teaspoons of soluble coffee and stir to assure a brew of even strength.

COFFEE AND CREAM CAKE

Make your favorite plain cake mix recipe and then use:
COFFEE CREAM FILLING
6 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon butter
2 teaspoons soluble coffee
1 cup scalded milk
1 egg yolk

Combine first 4 ingredients in a small pan. Stir in milk. Cook until thickened. Place over hot water, cook about 15 minutes. Beat egg yolk slightly, add a little of the hot mixture and return to pan. Cook 2 minutes. Add butter, cool thoroughly.

COFFEE ICING

1 tablespoon butter
1 egg yolk
1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
2 teaspoons soluble coffee
1 tablespoon milk

Mix butter and egg yolk. Add sifted confectioners' sugar which has been mixed with soluble coffee. Gradually add milk, beating all the while, until a smooth, creamy consistency is reached.
