Charles Harris of Roscommon. Friday she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. William Poland, back to her home in Detroit for a few days visit.

Mrs. Isabelle Pratt of Detroit was a Sunday guest of the Henry Mehlbergs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mansfield and family of the Andersonville Road moved to Keego Harbor this week.

Plans are well under way for the observance of Book Week, November 12-19th. The Community Library is sponsoring a program to be held in Community Activities building Wednesday evening, November 13, at 7:30. The public is invited to attend this program and there is no admission charge.

Last Friday evening 35 MOMS and their guests enjoyed a dinner held in the Waterford Community Church. The tables were decorated in the Halloween motif with Mrs. Murdo McDonald in charge of the decorations. A large cake covered with little flags was baked by Mrs. McDonald and the flags were given as favors to the guests. The Reverend Wright Van Plew gave the invocation. Mrs. Henry Mehlberg led the group singing with Mrs. Helen Coventry at the piano. Other features of the program included several vocal selections by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lindquist and two readings by Mrs. James Sutton. A report on the State Convention of MOMS held in Lansing last week was given by Mrs. Robert Van Marter. The main speaker for the evening was Chief Howard of the submarine recruiting office in Pontiac who talked on the work of the submariners. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Charles Maxwell, chaplain of the MOMS.

The MOMS' Experience Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. James Saylor on November 8th at 2 o'clock. Members are to take the money they have been earning for the last 3 months and each one will tell how they earned it.

The Adult Bible Class of the Waterford Community Church will meet at the church on Tuesday, November 7th. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mehlberg will be in charge of the meeting.

The Gospel Fellowship Class met at the home of Ruth Thomas recently and the following officers were elected for the year — president, Erwin Hillman; vice president, Peggy Smith; corresponding secretary, Nancy Brown; treasurer, Ruth Thomas; recording secretary, Kline Powell.

A shipment of youth clothing is being prepared to go to the Meland Home in Kentucky. Anyone having clothing is asked to leave it at the home of Mrs. Arthur Davis.

Reverend Jack Lloyd, missionary to the Aborigines Indians in Australia, was guest speaker at the Community Church last Sunday.

Twenty-five youth from Christ Lutheran Church enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Daniel Carter Sunday evening. Typical Halloween games and stunts along with refreshments kept the group busy the entire evening.

Ghosts, goblins, and witches roamed the basement of the Community Activities Building when the girl scouts of troops two and eight held their Halloween party there Friday night. A committee of three selected Myrtle Brotherton for having the prettiest costume, Nancy Lambertson the funniest. Games, stunts and square dancing made up the evening's program. The grand prizes were awarded to Sandra Williams, Nancy Dickman and Barbara Kenieck for accumulating the most points during the evening. The evening's activities were completed when refreshments were served. Inasmuch as the week of October 28th is girl scout week, several girls from troops two and eight attended services at Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Kenneth Valentine gave a very interesting report on Mortimore Smith's book "And Madly Teach" at Thursday's meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association at the village school. This was a book strongly criticizing the school system of today. The Rev. Arvid E. Anderson of Christ Lutheran Church gave the invocation. Mrs. Ina Kent, principal, gave a report on the last two meetings of the P. T. A. presidents, principals and Superintendent of the township schools. She reported that a special election will be held some time this year in the township as regards to accepting the Webster school in this school system. She also stated that there will be no school in the township on November 10th because of the first teacher workshop for this school year, falling on that day. Mrs. Harold Panker announced that the Mothers' Club is sponsoring a "Crazy Hat Party" at the Community Activities Building on November ninth with the proceeds going for the benefit of the Community Library located in that building. There will be a breakfast at 10:00 to be followed by card playing. The public is invited. It will be impossible to have a baby sitter at the party. Mrs. O. L. Siegman, chairman of the Community Library, invited the group to meet at the library on November 15th at which time book week will be observed. William G. Robinson of the University will speak on "Books and Recreation". Mr. Robinson is working with the township recreation planning group. Supt. William Shunck explained the reason and plans so far of the recreation committee. Mrs. Eugene Cleland, P. T. A. president, announced that there will be no sale of hot dogs and hamburgers until next semester because of the lack of room now. Supt. Shunck told that according to the way the work is progressing on the new high school, it should be ready for use by the second semester. The seventh and eighth grades now in the village school will be at the new building and the sixth grade which is now attending school at Sashabaw Plains will return to this school.

Fifteen adults joined Christ Lutheran Church on Sunday. Some joined by letter from other churches and some by adult confirmation. All persons in this vicinity not having a church home are cordially invited to worship here.

Mrs. Emory Beedle entertained Saturday evening at a pink and blue shower for her daughter, Mrs. Donald Chamberlain. Fifteen persons took pleasure in presenting the honoree with dainty packages with a pink and blue color scheme. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Waterford Township
The seniors of the township high school have their annual festival set for November 11th with a western rodeo, as their theme. The school will be decorated like a ranch and has been named the "Bar Roundup". Some of the different booths will be a chuck wagon, taxi dance, and cake walk promenade. The crowning of the "King" and "Queen" will also be a big event. The affair begins at 7:00 and there will be no admission fee. Chairmen for the different events are Carol Grace for king and queen; Beverly Bugg, booths; Barbara Lesar, publicity; Richard Campbell, solicitations; Nancy Upham, ideas; William Vaughn, properties; Esther Mendez, decorations; and Thelma Lewis, tickets.

RATE INCREASE GRANT SET ASIDE
Judge Louis E. Coash, of the Ingham Circuit Court, has denied the petition of the attorney-general to set aside the June order of the State Public Service Commission granting the Michigan Bell Telephone Company a rate increase.

The court's decision related to a petition directed against the company under the court's general equity powers. Judge Coash ruled that his jurisdiction was limited to the regular statutory appeal against the Commission and its order. Such appeals have been filed and are pending in the same court.

STOP WASTE!

VOTE FOR HARRY F. KELLY For Governor
Republican

He saved your state money during his previous two terms as World War II Governor
Vote Republican - Stop Waste

This advertisement is paid for by Independence Township friends.

Why Vote For This Man

(1) The tax experts of Michigan entrusted to him, four Bills to amend the tax laws so the tax machinery would work. He introduced and procured the passage of these four Bills. No longer must our Tax Allocation Board work in the dark. These Bills did not increase your taxes but they really streamlined the taxing machinery. Fred Beardsley procured the passage of these laws.

FRED G. BEARDSLEY

(2) The census regulation giving credit for college students to the Cities where the colleges were located cost Oakland County Citizens much money. A resolution was offered to the Legislature, passed and forwarded to Washington protesting this regulation as being unfair to Non-college localities. Fred Beardsley offered the resolution and secured its passage.

Why would the important tax bills be entrusted to him? Well 13 years as a supervisor made him familiar with the taxing machinery. He knew what was wrong and how to correct it.

Why did he offer the resolution on the census? The answer to that is that he is alert to the interests of his constituents. Why was it possible for him to procure the passage of these and the other pieces of legislation described last week? The answer is that he enjoys the respect and confidence of every member of the Legislature.

There is no substitute for experience.

Let's keep this man in the Legislature. Vote Republican on November 7th.

MSC Seeks Antique Farm Tools

The sheep pictured above isn't in a barber chair—it's an old-time sheep shearing device unearthed to take its place in the new agricultural museum at Michigan State College.

J. W. Stack, (left) director of the MSC museum, is getting some pointers on use of the antique farm tool from George Brown, retired head of the MSC animal husbandry department.

Stack has made an appeal to rural and city people, extension staff, and college alumni to be on the lookout for old farming and homemaking implements. Some of the items already contributed include a dog treadmill used to churn butter, a spinning wheel, grain cradles, and old lumbering and maple syrup making equipment.

The museum director hopes that old farm and home tools, gathering dust in the attic or barn, will be contributed to the new museum project.

Persons with items to contribute may contact their county agricultural agent, located at the county seat, or may write to the Michigan State College museum, East Lansing.

VETERANS' BANQUET TONIGHT IN PONTIAC

Cy Miller, of Rochester, Michigan, Commander of the Oakland County Council of Veterans, is happy to announce that BONIFACE R. MAILE, of Detroit, Michigan, NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS, will attend the 3rd Annual Past Commanders' Banquet to be held on November 2nd, at the Roosevelt Hotel, in Pontiac, Michigan.

Also in attendance will be State Representatives from each of the veteran organizations. "Uncle Joe" Cloves, of Pontiac, the only Civil War Veteran in Michigan, and Honorary Past Commander of the council will also be in attendance. Uncle Joe will reach his 107th birthday on January 30th.

Harry F. Kelly, former Governor of Michigan will be the principal speaker, and the welcome address, will be given by Mayor

John Ridgeway, of Pontiac. All veterans in Oakland County are invited to attend this banquet, and reservations can be made through the Veterans' Service Office, in Pontiac.

DAIRYING VITAL TO 80% OF FARMS

Investment in dairy farming in Michigan amounts to more than two and a third billion dollars, Dr. Earl Weaver, head of the Michigan State College dairy department reported this week. This, he cited, was greater than many of the large auto manufacturing corporations in the state.

In pointing to the size of the dairy industry, Weaver said 80 percent of Michigan's farmers depend on dairying for a part of their income. He added that one out of every 6 persons in the state depends on dairying for a part or all of his income when equipment manufacturing, dairy plants, distributors and others are included.

Sheriff Hubbell Makes Statement

Entering police work in 1921, Hubbell joined the sheriff's department in 1925 and was elected to head the department in 1947. He was born in Owosso, coming here in 1912. Hubbell 47, is married and lives with his wife and three children in the sheriff's apartment at the county jail.

His statement: "Two years of operating within the department budget, creation of traffic and juvenile divisions and an increased civil division have all been accomplishments of my administration."

"I also was instrumental in getting the townships to pay the salaries of eight new deputies in order to enlarge the department."

"Citizens who are unable to come to the county jail during the daytime to obtain their driving licenses may do so now at night. More and better service will be given the public as time and money permit."

"The sheriff's department is big business and its operation requires experience in police administration."

"Last year more than 90,000 meals were served at the jail and more than 4,000 prisoners were booked."

"The county jail has received an 'excellent' rating from the state department of corrections every year since I became sheriff. I believe city residents also are entitled to the department's services and I have worked towards that goal, particularly in the civil field."

Nation Observes National Flower Week

The color, form and beauty of fresh flowers have an instinctive appeal for all children... toddlers to teens... and whether the flowers are carried into the house in grubby fists or in florists' boxes, they add warmth to the home environment. It's a wise mother who encourages her children in their natural appreciation for flowers by keeping a supply of flower containers handy. Storybook figurines are especially attractive to children, and just a few pink roses, pompons and marigolds can be artistically grouped into a lovely arrangement, proudly displayed as your child's handiwork. For the 6th successive year, the Society of American Florists is observing National Flower Week, and the period from October 29 through November 5 will once more be devoted to a nationwide educational program about flower lore.

Mrs. Ralph Watson who was to have returned to her home from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was unable to do so. Although Bill Carte has to go to the doctor's twice a week to have his hand dressed it is healing nicely. Emery Carte of Clarridge Road has to report for his army physical examination next Monday. Mrs. Don Smith entertained at her home last Monday morning. The Cub Scouts of Den 4 had their Halloween party last Friday evening. Gary and Kay Eichenbreche won books as prizes for the best costumes. They enjoyed playing the orange game. Each winning side received a balloon. They had fun ducking for apples. Johnny Black won a bag of peanuts for being the first boy to roll his peanut across the floor with his nose. Each cub invited a guest. The mothers served the lunch. They practiced their Oldsmobile and Lighthouse pantomime as their entertainment for the next Pack meeting.

Fin Hakkon Magnus arrived in America with only $200. Today he is many times a millionaire. When asked his success secret, his magic fortune formula, he says, "I saw an opportunity". PFC Junior Ridgeway has received the neighborhood letter and he hopes that all will write a note later. Mrs. Raymond Baur of Bridge Lake Road is on the sick list this week. Edward Ross of Davisburg Road has returned to his work after his accident.

Conservation News

Persons who shoot hen pheasants not only are earning the disrespect of real "sportsmen" but the game law violators are paying court fines as high as $107.80. The conservation department reports 18 arrests for hen shooting in nine counties so far. With rabbits abundant and offering excellent hunting especially when tracking snow arrives, the conservation department cautions hunters against any undue alarm over tularemia. "Actually, a few cases of the disease are recorded each year," says Dr. S. C. Whitlock, department game research head. Dr. F. S. Leeder, in charge of the disease control division of the state health department, reports, "So far this season, at least, everything is favorable. We have had no reports of tularemia." Whitlock notes that a cottontail may be shot which has white spots on the liver, usually an indication of the presence of a harmless parasite. He says such a rabbit is safe for human consumption. Whitlock adds one other note of assurance to allay fears of the much publicized tularemia. He says some of the newer drugs have proven highly effective in the treatment of the relatively few cases reported. The conservation department reports another bid for the title of "the oldest licensed fisherman in the state." George S. Pierson, 97-year-old retired engineer of Kalamazoo, states he has fished Boardman, Manistee, Maple and Pere Marquette rivers for more than 70 years. He claims he has caught grayling with flies on the Boardman. Pierson says he makes all his fishing equipment too, including tackle, rods and flies. In making his bid for the title of the oldest active angler, Pierson points out that he was born near Seth Greens' famous ponds at Caledonia, New York in 1853. Pierson says he watched the fish in the ponds over 90 years ago, while his father had his wheat ground. A 92-year-old Buchanan resident, James A. Glover, is the second oldest fisherman recorded by the conservation department so far.

PMA CHAIRMAN ANNOUNCES COMMITTEE ELECTIONS

PMA farmer-committee nomination meetings will be held in each of Oakland county's farm communities November 1st to November 15th, Walter Cook, chairman of the county PMA Committee announced today. Nomination meetings will be held in each community to select candidates for the positions of chairman, vice chairman, member of the community committee, and two alternates. Ballots listing the nominees will be mailed to approximately 1500 farmers in Oakland County. Voting will be by mail and ballots will be received in the county PMA office from November 24th to December 21st. Any farmer is eligible to vote who is an owner, operator, tenant or sharecropper on a farm that is participating in any program administered during the current calendar year by the county and community PMA committees. Farmers in every community will also elect a delegate to county convention where a county committee will be elected to serve during 1951. The ballots will be counted by an impartial election board in the county PMA office on December 22nd. "This provision in farm legislation which gives farmers an opportunity to elect their fellow farmers to administer farm programs is one of the most progressive steps in agricultural development in our times," declares Mr. Cook. "Farmers of Oakland county can demonstrate their support of this democratic way of administration by attending the nomination meetings, help select the candidates and by voting for the farmers of their choice." Listed below is the schedule of the community nomination meetings to be held in Oakland county: Independence, 8 P. M. - November 3rd, Independence Township Hall, Clarkston. Springfield, 8 P. M. - November 6th, Town Hall at Davisburg. Groveland, 8 P. M. - November 14th, Groveland Township Hall, Corner Wildwood and Grange Hall Roads.

CONGRESSMAN DONDERO SEEKS RE-ELECTION

Congressman George A. Dondero, who has represented the 17th Michigan District since its creation in 1932, is one of the top-ranking Members of Congress because of his continued service, his outstanding legislative ability, and his chairmanship of one of the most important committees of the United States House of Representatives. This leadership is put one of the many reasons why he should be re-elected on Tuesday, November 7th. As Chairman of the Committee on Public Works in the 80th Congress, he promptly put a stop to wasteful authorizations for unnecessary public works and instituted committee resolution procedures that have resulted in savings to the taxpayers of many thousands of dollars annually. For over fifty years people interested in eliminating public health and endangering wild life, unsuccessfully sought the enactment of legislation to this end. This district's Representative established a splendid record as Chairman of the Committee on Public Works in the 80th Congress and will resume the chairmanship in the event that the Republican Party becomes the majority in the 82nd Congress. In addition to his outstanding committee work, Congressman Dondero has consistently and courageously exposed subversives in the Federal Government. Exposure of George Shaw Wheeler, who renounced the United States and fled behind the Iron Curtain and who now abjectly begs for the restoration of his citizenship, and of Philip Jaffe, who confessed his subversive acts in connection with the Amerasia Case, committed during World War II, was first made by Congressman Dondero. He has always been in the forefront of the battle against the Communists and their all-too-numerous fellow travelers. There should be no question about the re-election of Congressman Dondero by an overwhelming majority.

TEACHERS HAVE PARTY

Thursday evening, October 26, was the date of a teachers party in the home economics room in Clarkston High School. The teachers enjoyed some very delicious food which was prepared by Mrs. Thayer, Margaret White, Mrs. Morse, Anna Gallup and William Ladd. The tables were also decorated in gay Halloween style by the same people. After dinner they "retired to the parlor" — as Mr. Ridgley put it — where the entertainment committee — consisting of Betty Murphy, Pat Stites, Melvyn Staebler, Margery Boyd and Pamela Anderson — had prepared games for the group. They played a game called "Scream". Mr. Ridgley won first prize with Mr. Quick running a close second. "Doc" Thayer seemed to be very happy with his booby prize, a lollipop and a Halloween mask.

LOCAL STUDENTS HEAR GIOVANNI SPERANDEO

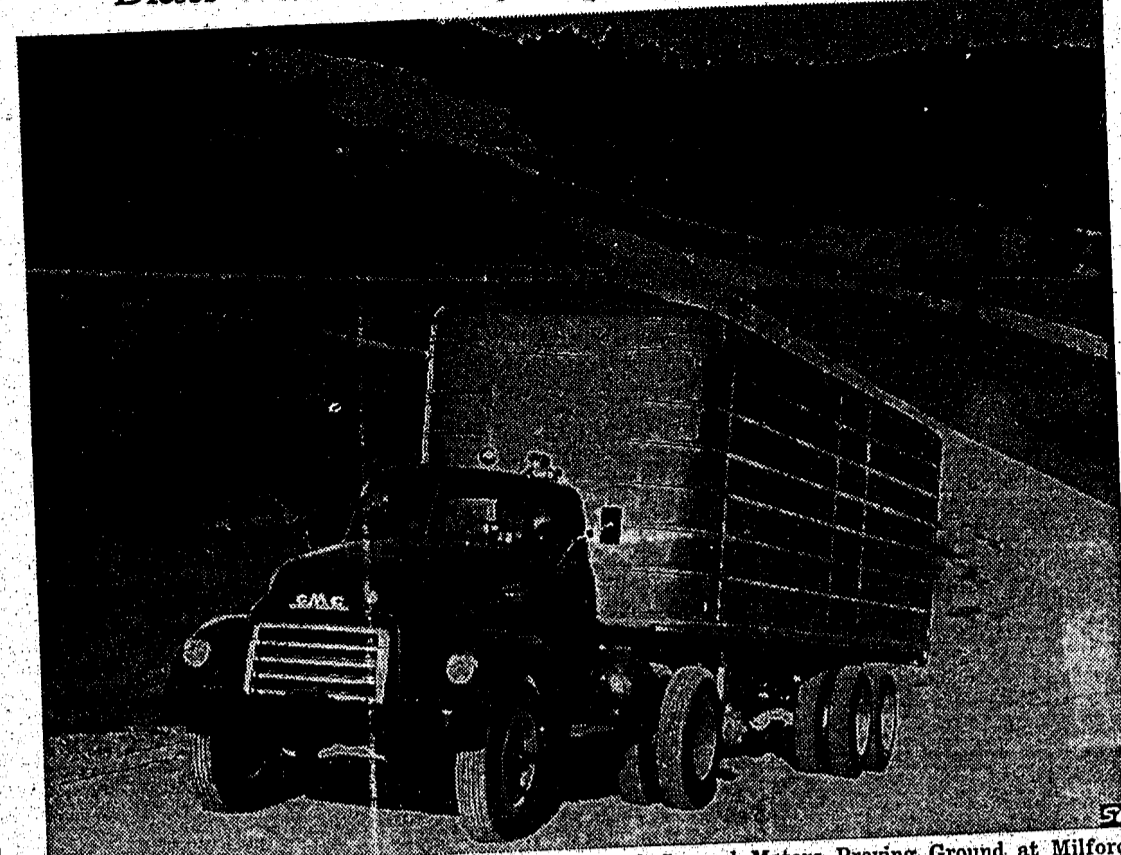

On Thursday of last week, the students in grades 7 through 12 had the privilege of hearing a very unique assembly. Mr. Giovanni Sperandeo, an immigrant from Sicily, appeared in a costume of his native land. He gave a very interesting account of his life and then showed how he overcame his handicaps after losing his left arm and right hand.

When Giovanni was six years old, his father, a Sicilian government employee, died. The mother, accustomed to luxury, was left with nine children. From time to time, various properties were mortgaged until in a few years the family was almost destitute. The mother consented to her oldest son's pleas to go to America — "the land of opportunity".

When Giovanni was fifteen, he and the other members of the family waved a tearful good bye to the friends in beautiful little Lascari and started to join the boys in America.

When he arrived in America, he found employment in a brick yard at $1.50 a day. For four years

Diesel With A Destiny Gets Grueling GMC Tests

Thousands of hours of tortuous travel over the famed General Motors Proving Ground at Milford, Mich., was but one of the soul-searching tests to which the new GMC diesel-powered 650 truck and its running mate the 640 were subjected before being okayed for production. Here, a GMC 650 takes a running mate the 640 — an exclusive GMC feature — pours on the power. The heavy-duty grade with ease as its two-cycle diesel engine — pours on the power. The heavy-duty introduction of this new truck marks the first full-scale diesel invasion of the lighter end of the heavy-duty field by this General Motors division. New economy of operation through long life, low fuel consumption and low maintenance costs are features of this type of power plant, which hauls loads up to 55,000 pounds. The engine is the smaller brother of that used in the giant GM diesel locomotives.

he helped to support the family. When he was nineteen in order to avoid the dust of the country road, he was following the tracks of a railway spur leading from a coal mine. Chatting with his companions about their friends back home, he did not hear the train approaching from the rear. It was there that he lost his left arm at the shoulder and his right hand just below the wrist. Lying in the hospital, he realized he would never again earn a living with his hands, but at the same time realized his brain was not injured.

As soon as he was well, he fashioned, after his own ideas, a leather strap around his wrist and sat down and learned to write. By this time he had picked up a fairly adequate English vocabulary. He entered grammar school where he organized classes among the Italians, teaching them the English language. From this source, he earned enough to clothe himself, to support his mother and to pay for singing lessons. He graduated from Township High School in 1915.

A lover of music, Giovanni entered the department of arts and sciences where he graduated with honors in 1920. That same year he was graduated from Dr. William John Hall's School of Voice.

He then obtained a position in McFerrin School, Martin, Tennessee, as teacher of romance languages and voice, and also continued his concert work. In 1922 he married Miss Elsa Carl, pianist, who had been his accompanist for five years.

He came to Tennessee Military Institute, Sweetwater, as professor of romance languages in 1920. He also conducted a class in voice.

During the first four summers in this section, he attended the University of North Carolina, and was graduated as Master of Arts in romance languages. He left Sweetwater two years ago to take a similar position in Cleveland, Tennessee. He returned here a short time ago, and is now engaged in concert work.

Mr. Sperandeo directs the Apollo concert artists who are presenting "The Rough Diamond", in which he takes the leading role. It is a representation of his life and influence on others, since 1911.

After adding a small metal clip to the leather strap, and with the muscles in the wrist he is able to manipulate anything a person with both hands can.

Mr. Sperandeo is still not content to stop learning. The past two summers he has spent in

New York under the direction of Frantz Prochowski, international-known vocalist.

His philosophy in life is to help others.

He has given several hundred programs in high schools, colleges, universities and churches. His charming wife who is an excellent pianist and accompanist, has been a tremendous help and a deep inspiration in all his work. In four years, they have traveled 14,000 miles.

Mr. Sperandeo concluded his performance by giving a philosophy of his life. His philosophy is within the reach of everyone who has that inner burning spark that leads and urges us on to some adequate desired golden goal.

Mr. Sperandeo is a firm believer in the doctrine of self-independence. He says that nothing of permanent value can be achieved in life without a certain degree of effort. In order to succeed, one must have a sincere motive and an earnest purpose in life. "Work Wins", is his favorite motto. To do one's best with whatever talent we possess, spells happiness and real satisfaction. We must have a deep faith in God, in mankind and in ourselves. The deeper the faith we possess, the greater will be our achievements, our usefulness and our joy of living not only for ourselves but for others.

In the following verses we find Sperandeo's creed:
"To live as gentle as I can;
To be no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand;
The record of my brain and hand
And then should failure come to me
Still work and hope for victory."

DAIRYMEN BEWARE

Now is the time to get your cattle in at night. J. G. Hayes, Michigan State College Extension dairyman, says its the time to open up the "Bovine Hotel," for at least the night's lodging. Jim points out that cold, damp ground is a great aid to the ever-present bacteria that causes mastitis, and that a chilled udder is an ideal place for them to develop.

BUY UNFINISHED
PIECES TO SAVE
FURNITURE MONEY

Buying unfinished pieces can be a real help to your furniture budget and very satisfactory for your home if you finish them correctly.

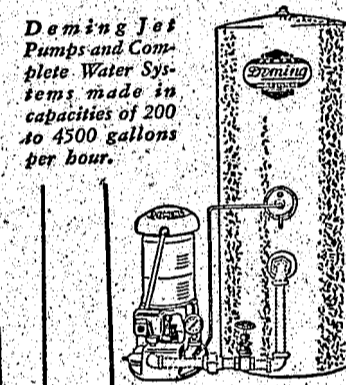

You can paint or stain or leave them in their natural color advises Dorothy Washburn, Michigan State College home economist. First, be sure the furniture is clean and remove any stains or finger marks with No. 00 sandpaper.

Fill in nail hole indentations with plastic wood. Let dry and sand until smooth. In case goods remove the drawers and paint them separately. Do not paint the drawer runners. When painting tables, set them upside down and paint the legs first. Don't paint furniture out-of-doors and avoid wearing clothing that sheds lint.

For a painted finish use one coat of undercoat and two coats of quick drying paint. Sandpaper between each coat. If flat paint is used, finish by waxing. To stain the finish, use any penetrating oil stain. Wipe off surplus stain as you brush it on. Finish with two coats of shellac and a coat of wax. For a natural finish, be sure the surface is clean and all finger marks removed when you sandpaper. Apply varnish and then steel wool it smooth. For a heavier finish apply a second coat of thin varnish and then use the steel wool again. Use wax as a final coat with either method.

Life is Better With Butter
Everyone prefers Butter to a Colored Imitation. Aside from the deceit and fraud which would result from permitting yellow oleomargarine to be sold in this state, every thinking voter wants to:
KEEP MICHIGAN PROSPEROUS
Butter is the foundation on which Michigan's two and one quarter billion dollar dairy industry is built. If the "butterleggers" undermine that foundation—the whole structure is in jeopardy.
Dairying is the state's greatest source of agricultural income and agriculture is Michigan's second largest industry.
Let us not expose that great industry to undermining by selfish out-state interests whose only concern is making more money for themselves. If we allow yellow oleomargarine to invade the butter market it invites cheap imitations of other dairy products to follow suit.
PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST FRAUD—
PROTECT YOUR STATE'S PROSPERITY

AMERICANS ASKED TO TAKE NOTICE

The following resolution was adopted by the Department Executive Committee of the American Legion at a special meeting held in Detroit on Oct. 28th, 1950:
WHEREAS, there is presently in the making a sinister and insidious campaign on the part of subversive forces to defeat the proposed constitutional amendment which would make possible the outlawing of the Communist party in Michigan, and

WHEREAS, it has been learned that the Communist party of Michigan and other subversive organizations plan to flood the state of Michigan and more particularly the City of Detroit with literature calling for the defeat of this amendment within the final few days prior to the election, and

WHEREAS, one questionable group has already carried its efforts to defeat this legislation by attempting to resort to delaying legal tactics in order that voters might not have the opportunity to vote on the proposed amendment, and

WHEREAS, The American Legion in the State of Michigan has steadfastly carried on a continuous fight against Communism and all subversive elements foreign to our ideals in the State of Michigan, and

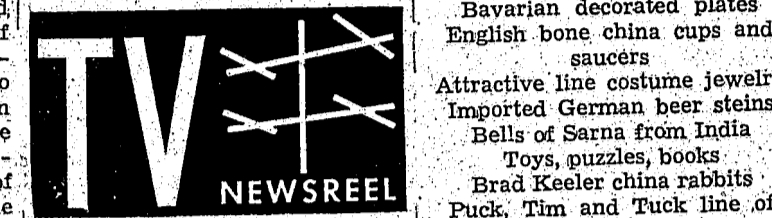

WHEREAS, the proposed constitutional amendment was drafted after serious study and designed to accomplish the outlawing of Communism and other foreign isms, and

There's a lot to be said for television in a lot of ways. But the latest wrinkle makes it a first-rate headache reducer for harassed parents. No rainy-day, under-foot problems now. Just turn on TV... and stash the small fry in front of the screen. This solves your problems... for awhile at least. There are no more homework battles either. Now it's homework first... then television. And it's surprising how fast those themes get written and those chapters get read. Yep... TV is a big home institution.
Tops for education, entertainment. And a first rate job of baby sitting. You just can't beat it for the number of problems it solves.
One of our customers recently said: "I'm getting TV for my four-year old girl. Seems that at five o'clock everyday all the neighborhood kids rushed in to catch up on the latest TV entertainment... and she was left in the cold. I had to break-down and get a set as you can see."
It's becoming mighty important to give your children the advantages of television. And when you choose a set... be sure to select a nationally advertised name to be sure of quality. Be sure that service is top-quality by trained technicians too. It's always wise to insist on the best when you make this major investment in television. PARTNERSHIPS ON FARM WORK WELL
 Father and son farming partnerships are pleasing both parties in the agreement, according to a survey made by H. S. Wilt, Michigan State College agricultural economist.
 Wilt interviewed a large number of those with a family partnership and 96 percent of the cases studied showed both father and son felt that they were doing as well, or better, together as they could operating individually. Both parties agreed that 4-H Club, F. F. A. and M. S. C. short course training contributed materially to the success of the farm partnerships, Wilt explains.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING PAYS OFF
 Russell Maybee reports that he has the first heifer as a result of artificial breeding, in production at the present time. He says that he is very satisfied with this fine, large, high-producing two-year-old, and that he expects great things. Farmers should attempt to see the results of artificial breeding by visiting neighbors' herds where artificial breeding has been used long enough to get heifers to breeding age or in production. It would be a worthwhile effort.
 In China the first course at dinner is the dessert.

Please Have Patience

Last Friday night we had one of those wonderful new Fords sitting on our show-room floor. It was scheduled for delivery at 10:00 A. M. Saturday. Some poor man had a great desire to drive one of these super duper cars and he felt he could not wait for our regular delivery schedule, so he broke the door down and drove the car off at 3:10 A. M.

Now we appreciate how anxious people can get to slide behind the wheel of this great car, but please have patience and let us open the doors so you can drive them away in the dignified manner becoming this great automobile.
