Books — A Happy Future

Book Week, November 11-17, is a reminder that the right kind of reading plays a very great part in the right kind of growing up. The children who read all sorts of books gather knowledge that will enrich their entire life.

Reading makes children better students too. Making friends with book folk helps them to learn to get along with other people successfully and skillfully.

Here in Clarkston the elementary library, with Mrs. Thomas H. Wilson as secretary, has invited many mothers to participate in helping the children select their weekly reading materials. On each Wednesday these mothers go to the elementary library and act as librarians under the supervision and direction of Miss Ruth Sharpe, principal of the elementary school, and Mrs. Floyd Hammond, library staff director. Mrs. Richard Lowrie, Mrs. R. W. Bullard, Mrs. R. E. Spohn, Mrs. Virgil Campbell, Mrs. Edward Thomson, Mrs. Fred Hancock, Mrs. Jack Jylen, Mrs. Michael Hart, Mrs. Fred Turek, Mrs. Arnold Mann, Mrs. Walter Barrows, Mrs. F. L. Spooner, Mrs. Howard Huttenlocher, Mrs. James Glennie, Mrs. Harold Bauer and Mrs. Don Beach ably make up the library staff.

The Board of Education voted money last spring to buy new books to add to the library, helping to meet the needs and demands of the increasing enrollment of the school. These new carefully chosen books are now on order and will soon be on the elementary library shelves. It is planned that these new books will be on display on November 15th when parents meet at the school for a cup of tea and "Book Magic" in recognition of National Book Week.

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Sunny South

MRS. CHARLES GALBRAITH

Vases of white chrysanthemums and white gladioli decorated the altar in Our Lady of the Lakes Church on Saturday, October 6, when Marie Ellen McDonald and Charles Galbraith spoke their marriage vows to the Reverend F. J. Delaney at 12 o'clock noon.

The bride is the niece of Mrs. Marie Muma of Buffalo Street, Clarkston, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Galbraith of 504 Second Street, Pontiac.

Marie was charming in white slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, a nylon net yoke edged with lace formed a panel down the front to the hemline and the full skirt fell into a cathedral train. A sweetheart hat of satin trimmed with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion. She wore long mitts to match her gown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Louis Budrow of Flint as matron of honor was gowned in blue taffeta styled with a fitted bodice, a full skirt and cap sleeves. Her long mitts and picture hat of net matched her gown and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Roderick Muma of Clarkston, as bridesmaid, chose a gown of champagne taffeta. It was styled with fitted bodice with net yoke and an overskirt of net. She also wore mitts and a net picture hat to match her gown. Her colonial bouquet was of dubonnet carnations and ivy.

Grant Galbraith of Pontiac assisted his brother as best man and seating the guests were Louis Budrow of Flint, Howard Peters of Hazel Park and Robert Peterson of Pontiac.

For her niece's wedding Mrs. Muma chose a plum colored dress with black velvet trim, a small black hat and black accessories. Mrs. Galbraith was in navy with pink trim, a navy hat and navy accessories. Both mothers wore tea roses.

Immediately following the rites a reception was held in the parish hall.

The table was centered with a five tiered wedding cake flanked with low bowls of white carnations and snapdragons and lighted white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Robert Hardy, cousin of the bride from Fruitport, Mich., served the cake. The bride's two aunts, Mrs. Marie Muma of Clarkston and Mrs. Lloyd McKay of East Tawas presided at the silver services. Mrs. Stanley Swackhamer of Pontiac, sister of the bridegroom, served the punch and Miss Jean Gix of Pontiac, the bridegroom's cousins, registered the guests.

When the newlyweds left for Florida the bride was wearing a gray gingham suit with gold accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. They will reside at Williams Lake.

Mr. Galbraith is well known in Clarkston as he has been the telephone trouble man in this area for a number of years.

The Clarkston Rotary Anns will meet on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, at the home of Mrs. Robert M. Atkins. Mrs. Garnet Poulton will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. Robert L. Jones will be the program chairman for the evening. Members are urged to be present promptly at 8 o'clock.

The local Girl Scout troop is growing. More handbooks and uniforms are needed. If you have any that you could loan, sell or donate kindly get in touch with one of the leaders.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Plans are in progress for a turkey dinner to be served on November 10th. Further details will be announced later.

Mothers and Sons Dined Last Friday

Many mothers and sons attended the dinner and program at the Clarkston Methodist Church last Friday evening.

The banquet tables were attractive with fall flowers and lighted candles.

Mrs. R. M. Atkins gave the invocation. The group then enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner prepared by Mrs. Percy Lowery and her committee and served by Mrs. Gerald O'Dell and a committee of teen-age girls.

Mrs. Leland E. Masters was the program chairman and she was happy to introduce the following program participants: Mrs. H. W. Huttenlocher gave the toast to the sons and Richard Huttenlocher replied with an appropriate toast to the mothers; the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kregler, Tom and Jim, sang "In The Garden" and "America The Beautiful" with their mother playing the accompaniment.

Mrs. Masters then presented M. D. Hill, vice-president of the Dearborn Motors, who told the story of his boyhood days in Clarkston. He reminded the group that when he was a boy he acted as janitor of the Methodist Church here. He said he felt like he was coming home when he came to Clarkston to talk at a banquet in the Methodist church parlors. Mr. Hill then showed two pictures, both extremely interesting. One was the movie taken last August at the Paul Terry farm on Big Lake Road. This was especially interesting to Lee Perry because his calves were in the picture. The other movie was "The River of No Return."

The mothers and sons appreciated the presence of Mr. Hill, his talk and the movies and they decided that the evening was worthwhile. They disbanded with the hope that a mother and son banquet would be an event of next fall.

Mrs. Ruggles class chose the name "Sunshine" patrol. Mary Lynn Muma is the patrol leader; Mary Lou Prevost, scribe and Barbara Rockwell, treasurer.

In Miss Myers' class Carol Jantz is patrol leader. In Mrs. Snover's class the tenderfoots are learning the Girl Scout requirements.

Miss Hamilton's group of leaders as officers as follows: Suellen O'Dell, patrol leader; Patience Thayer, assistant patrol leader; Janet Sue Willoughby, scribe. All of us are working on our first class badges and we plan to work on a glass badge as a group.

The girl scouts would like to remind everyone that they will soon come around for white material for cancer pads.

"His concert will include works from the compositions of Bach, Franck, Gossens, Kuhlén, Sibelius and Kasemets."

County Agricultural Agent

IS AMERICA GOING SOCIALIST?

This is a question that will be discussed at a Michigan State College Public Policy meeting at the Waterford Community Activities Building, Tuesday, October 23, from 1:30 to 4:00 p. m. Far fetched from agriculture? Not in the least. It is a problem that faces not only agriculture but all segments of the American people.

Oakland County folks are cordially invited to attend this very worthwhile meeting on the above date and place. Some questions that will be posed are the following: Is big business bad? Is our government growing too big? Can we distribute our national income more equitably? Morals, ethics and free enterprise.

Wood Varner, who has been heard by a great many of you folks will be the main speaker, along with Dale Butz, who does an equally good job. I know you won't want to miss this particular meeting, so, again, it is to be held at the Waterford Community Activities Building, located one mile west of Dixie Highway (or U. S. 10), on Williams Lake Road.

I hope to see a good number of you folks there, whether you be farmers or not, at this meeting. You will have an opportunity to participate in a panel discussion during the afternoon.

Let's Trade For A Dove

In a small navy camp from home far away
A sailor stands watch at the end of the day,
He's lonesome and longs for a life that is free
As he paces and hears the roar of the sea.

Business as usual has sure passed him by
As he seeks for his comfort the stars in the sky,
His plans for the future are vague at their best
For he's waiting to move at the Captain's request.

At home there is panic and no one quite knows
Where all the tax money we pay really goes,
The men holding office each day are accused
Of grafting with power that they have abused.

Each day it grows harder to pay grocery bills
And figure a reason for all the eatins fills,
Each day it is harder to draw up a plan
To have your son follow when he comes a man.

So man spends his life and is peeled to the core
Financing the world to a glorified war,
There's a challenge to all to broadcast their love
And trade off an eagle for peace and a dove.

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

On Wednesday we visited the Fire Station. We were happy to have Girl Scouts; Ann Lowrie, Lynne Terry, Mary Lynn Muma, and Sally Bauer with us for 75 of us went. Mrs. Murton and Miss Sharpe planned the trip and when we arrived Mr. Glen Kerton, a fireman, with his fireman's hat on, met us at the station door. We saw the two fire trucks and also the first truck owned by Clarkston which was bought when Mrs. Murton's grandfather, Ben DeLisle, was on the village council. Mr. Kerton let us get on the trucks and told us about the fire alarm and siren and the Fire Chief was Mr. Don Beach. We saw the Fire Chief's hat, rubber coat, and boots.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE (Main Building)

Sandra and Patty Asher are new pupils in our room. We are working on a Halloween mural to decorate our room. Gary Eichbrecht was voted to be the chairman.

We have been writing the six-weeks test this week.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Review work and six weeks exams have been in the limelight of seventh grade activities the past week.

Jean Forbes had the misfortune to contract polio two weeks ago. To her go our wishes for a speedy recovery.

Joanne Garnett has joined the ranks of the seventh grade giving us a total of sixty-eight students.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

Almost all of the eighth grade attended the football game at East Lansing between Michigan State and Marquette. Michigan State was the winner with a score of 20-14.

We are all glad that Polly Crowley is back in school and that her brother, who has polio, is better.

Corena Frazier was 13 years old on October 11, 1951. Spankings were the order of the day.

Gary Robertson seems to have more fun than anyone else. Wonder if Jackie Wright knows why?

The Colonial newspaper project is nearing completion and there is promise of some interesting specimens. Most of the students are having a little difficulty with the old-fashioned spelling.

There will be an eighth grade roller skating party the 23rd of October. No more parties for us until Christmas.

Mr. Carlson certainly enjoyed that football game, but we have a hunch Mr. Janton wanted to see Marquette win. Mr. Janton is a Michigan Alumnus. Ralph Sofferding is back after a hard week of shocking corn.

10th GRADE WORLD HISTORY

Students in Miss Sittie's World History classes are spending one day a week discussing current events. Each student bought a subscription to a weekly news magazine. On some days students give oral reports on the week's happenings, on others the class discusses the news, on others they read assigned articles and then take written quizzes on them.

The students are looking forward to October 24th when they will travel to Ann Arbor to visit the Museum of Archaeology and the Museum of Natural History at the University of Michigan.

NINTH GRADE NEWS

The ninth grade hayride held on October 12th was a huge success. The cool, clear weather and the beautiful harvest moon made the two hour trip through the countryside very enjoyable. After the ride the group returned to the school where they drank cider and ate donuts and potato chips.

Mrs. McNeive, Mr. and Mrs. Woodcum and class sponsor, Miss Sittie were the chaperones for the affair and enjoyed themselves as thoroughly as did the seventy students who attended it.

Turning to the academic side of things we learn that the ninth graders have been busy taking six-weeks examinations and working on various class projects.

The ninth graders in Miss Croft's English class are letting you in on the "inside scoop". The following tips, suggestions, or opinions were among those included in themes about an ideal girl or boy.

If you want to become ideal, gals—

- Do:
1. Develop a pleasing personality, a sense of humor, and friendliness towards others.
  2. Be interested in sports and school activities. At least be a spectator, if not a participant.
  3. Learn to carry on a conversation, omitting gossip and "cattiness."
  4. Be polite, courteous, considerate, and understanding.
  5. Dress neatly and appropriately.

6. Be clean physically and mentally.
7. Go to church.
8. Act like a lady; exhibit your best manners at all times.
9. Be loyal, trustworthy and honest.
10. Keep a good scholastic average. Act natural with no affectation. Don't:

1. Resemble a cosmetic counter. Save perfume, jewelry, and make-up for special occasions.
2. Primp in public.
3. Appear in school with your hair "done up".
4. Be snobbish or a "show-off".
5. Be a gold-digger!!

As for you boys, Do:

1. Have good sportsmanship.
2. Be polite, well-mannered, and considerate.
3. Maintain high standards and attend church.
4. Be specific when asking for a date. Give the time you'll call, the place you're going, and the time you'll return.
5. Have personality!
6. Be popular and well-liked by others.
7. Be friendly and trustworthy.
8. Be interested in all school activities. Participate in sports if possible or do whatever you can to be helpful.
9. Be clean in appearance and in mind.
10. Be respected by others.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors have the responsibility to sell candy at all home football and basketball games. Lela Jones is chairman of the candy sales. Helping her this week are, Carol Vincent, Vivian Scharf, Carolyn Blackett, Ginny Demski, and Joyce McIlrath.

The class is waiting for the student Council to approve their plan for the Christmas Dance.

Mr. Heimburger, class sponsor, approved of the idea for the bake sales, which will be held regularly throughout the year.

CHORUS NEWS

The chorus elected its officers at the beginning of school. They are as follows: President, Sally Porritt, Vice President, Judy O'Dell; Secretary-Treasurer, Martha Masters; Reporter, Lottie Sawyer.

The chorus this year is conducted by Miss Sproul. There are 31 members, 25 girls and 6 boys. The club is doing a very fine job with the few boys it has. In fact Miss Sproul says it has very fine possibilities of being one of the best Chorus's of Clarkston has ever had. Some of the songs Miss Sproul and the Chorus have chosen are "Make Believe", "Why Do I Love You", "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", "It's a Grand Night For Singing," and many others.

As of today the chorus has only one trio. That consists of Martha Masters, Judy O'Dell and Lottie Sawyer.

HOME ECONOMICS

On Wednesday afternoon, October 10th, the Home Ec. classes enjoyed a cosmetic demonstration by Mrs. Wethington from the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio in Pontiac. She stressed that cleanliness and circulation are necessities for a good complexion. The purpose of make-up is to bring out the natural skin coloring.

Mary Dean and Donna Sholtz volunteered for the demonstration. Mrs. Wethington explained that people with a dark complexion should wear a red color make-up and people with a light complexion should wear a creamy color make-up.

CLARKSTON STATION SCHOOL The children have fixed a bulletin board of leaves and acorns to represent the autumn season. We are collecting leaves to press so that we can use them for spatter painting.

How Would You Like to Live in the "Good Old Days"?

★ Back in grandfather's time, during the final quarter of the last century, things were quite different. There were no movies, no airplanes, no automobiles, few bathrooms, practically no efficient electrical appliances. If you contracted diabetes or pernicious anemia, your days were numbered. Your blood just "changed to sugar" in the former, "to water" in the latter. There was little protection against virulent epidemics. Smallpox vaccine was the only biological on the market. When diphtheria or typhoid ravaged a community, there was nothing to do but wait it out in hope and dread. Yes, a return to the "good old days" would mean, among other things, the sacrifice of the major portion of the contribution of medicine and pharmacy to your health and well-being.

APPLE CHEESE PIE SUPREME
"Apple" of Sid's Eye
6 tart apples, peeled and cored 1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup sugar 2 lbsps. flour
1/4 tsp. cinnamon 1/2 cup snappy cheese, finely grated

Pastry
Line pie dish with pastry. Cut apples in eighths. Arrange in pastry-lined pan. Mix the sugar, flour, cinnamon and cream together. Pour mixture over the apples. Sprinkle grated cheese over the apples and bake at 425 degrees for forty minutes.

"My electric range bakes beautifully," says attractive Mrs. Sid Abel. "That even heat... it makes such a world of difference! Sid can tell you and so can the children."
"Even heat is right," put in Sid. "Take steaks, for instance. I have one before each game and our electric range broils them just right every time."
"Electric cooking is so clean, too... and cool... why, my kitchen never gets 'oven hot' like some do. Honestly, there's just nothing to compare with an electric range."
It's true—nothing compares with electric cooking. Try it and you'll praise it no less than the Abel family. Visit your electric range dealer today.

The eighth grade sold pop-corn on Friday at noon. They plan to buy leather supplies for artcraft. Mrs. I. Hedden brought nine watermelons last Wednesday which were graciously consumed by her fifth graders.

The fifth grade sold home made candy on Monday at noon. They are earning money for a class trip at the end of the school year.

Mrs. Gramer Mann was absent from school one day last week because her small son, Leonard, had tonsillitis. We hope he is much better now.

The fifth and sixth grades are having fun "tooting" their song flutes or tonettes. We think Mr. Janton should wear a little cotton, at least in one ear.

We are having a wonderful time learning songs with our new teacher, Miss Sproul.

Wasn't Friday night a "super duper" night for that hayride? Ah! That moon. Oh! those doughnuts and potato chips. Um-ml that cider. Our ninth graders sure enjoyed it. How many were squirted in the eye with cider from that barrel?

A visitor at the school Monday during lunch hour was amazed at the efficiency with which 122 children were served hot lunches in 15 minutes.

Mrs. Garland Wells plans all the meals and is assisted in serving by Mrs. Avalene Dortch and Mrs. Virginia Knisley.

Mr. Barrie said there has been as high as 145 children served at one time with only one accident so far this year — "a broken plate".

The children show very good manners and very little food is left on their plates.

We are enjoying art lessons with Mrs. Gramer Mann this year. This includes the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades.

The true relation of God and man is brought out in the Lesson. Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, October 21st, under the subject "Doctrine of Atonement".

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians (5:17): "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Mic. 6:8): "He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done." (p. 202)

Deer-Colored Glasses?

Even the most anxious bow enthusiast does not get such strong spots before his eyes, although there are certainly plenty of Michigan whitetail targets. Not only are there about a million deer in the state, but the archer also has a longer period to hunt his quarry than does the firearm deer seeker, waterfowl shooter, or the small game hunter. Oct. 1-Nov. 5 (through Dec. 15 in Allegan county) either sex deer are legal in all except most of 11 counties where only bucks may be bagged. Nov. 15-30 only bucks may be stalked by the unsuccessful bowman with a general firearm season license, and Dec. 1-5, either sex in the special western Michigan six-county hunt providing he has a special department permit.

Phone Company Appeals To Hunters

Hunters, please spare those telephone lines!

This was the appeal of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company on the approach of the 1951 hunting season, opening October 15.

Michigan Bell believes that many persons are not familiar with the extent of trouble that can be caused by a bullet or even a BB shot into one of its cables. A pellet need not sever the many wires inside a cable to cause extensive damage, it was pointed out, for even a small hole in a cable's lead sheath would allow water to seep in and short out circuits. Aside from the normal traffic of emergency messages that telephone lines carry regularly, there are more calls being
