UNITED FUND CAMPAIGN STARTS ON MONDAY

The Independence Township United Fund Campaign with a quota of $3,700 is under way. On Tuesday the committee met and chose Floyd Andrews, chairman; Mrs. R. E. Spohn, secretary and R. L. Jones, treasurer.

Storers were chosen for about five districts and they and whoever they choose to help them are to meet at the Township Hall on Monday at 7:30 to receive their supplies. On Tuesday they will start the solicitation of funds to meet the Township's quota.

This year a percentage of the amount raised will be placed in a community chest to take care of needs in this community. Occasions arise where local help is needed and it is desirable that this be met by funds from our own chest.

With rising cost of living the cost of maintaining charities has risen and it is desirable that you give as much or a little more than last year to fulfill your obligation to those who are less fortunate. It is to be remembered that this is the only time this year you will be asked to give and the committee hopes that you will do your best. Independence Township has a reputation for meeting its obligations and this year should be no exception.

The committee wishes that the campaign can be finished in the week. With your cooperation this can be done.

Local Men Form Partnership

Schools To Observe Book Week

With the approach of Book Week, November 11-18, Clarkston Community folk are turning their thoughts especially to the significance of books in the lives of the children of the community, the state, the United States and the world. In interviews with many of the public spirited citizens of the community, Mrs. C. J. Murton, chairman of the Elementary School Library, obtained their special comments and because of the content and fine inspiration they are presented here:

"Children who read books in their earlier years, find that books do not overwhelm them as they grow into maturity. The wisdom of the ages is not in the newspapers and magazines. The wisdom of the wisest men is in books.

Children who learn to read books will be the adults who read books in the years to come."

R. M. Atkins
Clarkston Methodist Church

"One of the most important gifts parents can give a child is a love of good books. For to do this a child should be introduced to books early. Every child under two can enjoy picture books and very simple stories about familiar activities. By the time he is two he is ready for more varied stories, though he does not enjoy books that are too far afield from his own environment until he is six or seven. The best way to help the little child to find pleasure in books is by supplying him with many suitable picture books and also by reading aloud to him whenever possible. One of the happiest hours in many a child's day is when he is curled up in his father's or mother's lap for his bedtime story, a pleasant experience which may well start him on the road to a lifetime enjoyment of good literature.

Mrs. A. L. Rose, Jr.
Director Deer Lake Farm Nursery School

Clarkston Local

Last Friday Mrs. Herbert Beach, Mrs. Raymond Jarvis and Mrs. Charles Beach attended a school of instruction in Holly for officers, committee chairmen, and interested members of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. M. D. Cohen, president of the 17th district conducted the school. She gave many helpful suggestions. A delicious luncheon was served.

"The slogan for Book Week this year is 'New Horizons With Books.' This is very fitting because as children read, their horizons are ever widening, going on and on into the unexplored.

Reading can increase a child's life in life, nourish his hope and courage and illuminate his ideas of the future.

Our library, which is most attractive with the lovely plants, colorful bulletin board and library table, helps to fulfill the real purpose of Book Week which is to stimulate year around reading by making every week Book Week."

Ruth Sharpe
Clarkston Community Elementary School Principal

Girls Have Fun At Halloween Party

Last Friday evening Carol Ann Collins who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Beach on Robertson Ct., entertained 12 girls at a Halloween party. The girls were in costume. Some of the costumes were original and amusing.

During the evening the girls played appropriate games and enjoyed refreshments from a table attractively decorated with the Halloween motif.

Reminder

November 8th — Dessert Card Party at Clarkston School sponsored by the P. T. A. This will be a benefit party to purchase kitchen equipment. There will be door prizes donated by the local merchants, also table prizes. Mrs. Roderick Muma is the general chairman. Watch for further details.

Our Lady of the Lakes parish is having their Annual Fall Turkey dinner on Sunday, November 11th. Serving will start at 1 P. M.

Paul And Bob At Waterford Church

Enthusiastically received last year in their first campaign at the Waterford Community Church, Paul and Bob will begin their second series of Gospel meetings next Tuesday evening, November 6.

The duo, composed of Paul Levins and Bob Findley won the hearts of many with their sweet singing and cheerful Christian testimony. Vocal duets, accompanied by guitar and mandolin, solos by Bob and dynamic preaching by Paul combine to make the services interesting and enjoyable to all.

Bob Findley who was born blind has become an accomplished musician, and knows over six hundred songs by memory. He has traveled with Paul for many years in all parts of the United States. The two have made many recordings of their songs as well as a sound motion picture.

Services will begin at the church which is located on Andersonville Road near U. S. 10, at 7:30 P. M. each evening, Tuesday through Sunday.

Rev. Wright VanPlew, pastor of the church, joins with the entire congregation in inviting all in the community to attend and enjoy these special services.

Ladies Auxiliary Meets Tuesday

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Campbell-Richmond Post, American Legion, will meet on Tuesday evening, Nov. 6th, at the home of Mrs. Herbert Baynes, 9076 Reese Road. Those attending are asked to equip themselves with needle and thread to sew cancer pads. All members are requested to be present.

New Restaurant To open on Dixie

It is expected that the "Les Hutchinson Restaurant Cafeteria at 4541 Dixie Highway will open next Monday according to Gene Shaw the manager.

This will be in a new building built especially for it and will cater to banquets and parties as well as serving the public.

The interior has been trimmed two walls in bubonnet and two walls in dove gray forming a beautiful, restful contrast. Everything about the place is shining new and inspiring to the comfort of the diner.

Clarkston Local

Last Friday Mrs. Herbert Beach, Mrs. Raymond Jarvis and Mrs. Charles Beach attended a school of instruction in Holly for officers, committee chairmen, and interested members of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. M. D. Cohen, president of the 17th district conducted the school. She gave many helpful suggestions. A delicious luncheon was served.

Armistice Dance November 10th

You are reminded that you have a date for Saturday night, Nov. 10th. You are to meet your friends and neighbors at the Township Community Center in Clarkston for the Armistice Dance being sponsored by the local Legion Post and its Auxiliary. There will be modern and old time dancing starting at 9 o'clock.

The proceeds from this dance will be used to help the disabled veterans at Christmas time. Get your tickets at the Firestone Store in Clarkston or from any Legion or Auxiliary member.

Girl Scout News

This is Juliet Low week in Girl Scouting. The local troop will perform a community service on Saturday when they go from door to door, between 10 and 12 a.m., to collect clean, white material for cancer pads. Every housewife is asked to have the material ready in order that the girls can make the rounds of the community before noon.

On Sunday the Girl Scouts, in uniform, will attend the church of their choice.

Coming Events

The Clarkston Service Mothers Club is holding an important meeting at the Township Community Center on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 1:30 P.M. Every member is urged to attend.

The local O. E. S. chapter will hold their annual bazaar and public dinner at the Masonic Temple in Clarkston on Friday, Nov. 9th. At the bazaar you will find home baked goods, aprons, fancy work, white elephants and many gift suggestions.

Nov. 30 — The Saturday Night Dance Club will hold a Holiday Fair at the Township Hall in Clarkston. By this date you will be thinking of your Christmas shopping. This Fair will help you solve many of your gift problems as it will feature aprons, miscellaneous gifts, home made baked goods, jams and jellies.

Turkey Dinner At Sashabaw School

Set aside Saturday, November 10th, to have your evening meal at the Sashabaw School. Turkey with all the "fixins" will be served with the women of the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church. There will also be home made pies. There is no charge but a free will offering will be taken. Come and enjoy this good home cooking. Serving will start at 5:30 P. M.

The west rear door of the School will be the only one in use for access to the dining room on that evening.

Club To Hear C. J. Alberte

The Clarkston Farm and Garden Club will meet on Monday, Nov. 5th, at the home of Mrs. H. W. Huttenlocher. A dessert will be served at one o'clock. The guest speaker will be C. J. Alberte, landscape architect for the Pontiac Nursery. His subject will be: "Flowering Trees and Shrubs, the Backbone of the Garden."

Brownie News

When Troop 200 met on Monday afternoon there were 21 present. We met at the home of our leader, Mrs. Cushman. Instead of working on a project we had a story because it was so close to Halloween. We had cider and doughnuts. Diane Hursfall, Scribe

Rotary Club News

Last Monday evening, following a dinner served by the Dorcas Circle of the Methodist Church, the members of the Clarkston Rotary Club, were hosts to a number of members of the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club at a hockey game in Detroit between the Red Wings and Montreal. The game was a tie so the members and their guests consider they saw a very good game. Clarkston was host because they lost an attendance contest with the other club.

Science Club News

About 30 young people from the Flint and Pontiac Domestic Science Clubs assembled at the home of Martha Johnson on Dixie Highway Sunday noon before leaving for Pontiac where they were the afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Youngblood and daughter Connie, at their home on north Perry St. A delectable roast beef dinner was served from a table embellished with pumpkin decorations. Following dinner the members enjoyed movies and then participated in several games.

There is no doubt that October dominates the other months when it comes to members' birthdays. Twelve members were honored at a party in the home of Mrs. Allen Brandau in Pontiac on Monday evening. The evening was spent playing canasta, after which refreshments consisting of sandwiches, birthday cake, ice cream, potato chips and pop were served. The following were the recipients of gifts: Marlene Nelson, Judy O'Hara, Mae Sevald, Irene Schott, Patricia Ryan, Rita Garfield, Mae Jarvis, Margaret Brownstein, Jean McDonald, Ann White, Elva Peterson and Shirley Simpson.

A business meeting at which time plans for the annual Christmas program were outlined was held in the home of Mrs. Brandau on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Martin Archambeault and daughter, Ida, entertained the group at a "hard times" party in their home on Cherokee Rd., Pontiac.

Saturday evening the group will go to Saginaw to join with that Club for a hay ride to be followed by square dancing. Those going are asked to wear bluejeans and plaid flannel shirts.

Members are asked to bring sandwiches and a dish of food to pass for the pot-luck dinner in the home of Ruth Cromesons on M-15 on Sunday at 12:30 P.M. At this time parts of two 20 minute skits written by one of the members will be distributed among the members to give ample time for preparation for the Christmas program. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent playing games.

Get Ready For P. T. A. Party

Mrs. Roderick Muma and her committee are hoping that you have your tables planned for the Dessert Card Party at the school next Thursday evening, Nov. 8, at 8 o'clock. This big affair is being sponsored by the P. T. A. There will be table and door prizes and a good time.

In order to allow parents with small children to attend the party the tenth graders will act as baby sitters in the kindergarten room at a very nominal cost.

Sashabaw News

The Women's organization of the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church will hold an all-day meeting on Wednesday, November 7 at the home of Mrs. Ward Poole, on Clintonville Road.

The members are asked to be there not later than 10:00 A. M. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon and further plans will be made for the turkey dinner to be served on Saturday, November 10th, at Sashabaw School.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kimmey of Maple Drive have had weekend guests from Ohio and guests for the week from Melbourne, Florida.

The young people of New Hope Bible Church had a Halloween party Monday night in a barn near White Lake. They had lots of cider, doughnuts, candy, and pop corn balls and fun.

The primary classes of New Hope Bible Church had a Halloween party at the church Tuesday evening. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Don't forget our P. T. A. membership drive. Join now. Be a leaf on our growing family tree.

We had a very nice time at our Square Dance, Saturday night. Prizes were given to Jerry Strassburg for originality and to Erick Bahrke, Fred Strassburg, Barney Weber, and Chester Peterson.

We hope to see a larger crowd at the next dance. Our thanks to the ladies who contributed baked goods.

An Absurd Comedy To Be presented

The Master Players will open Pontiac's theatre season this year with an absurd comedy, "The Dover Road" on the stage of the Orpheum Theatre — November 8, 9, and 10.

"The Dover Road" is brimming with laughs as playwright A. A. Milne's characters contrive to amuse themselves in one ridiculous situation after another. It is the story of run-away couples taking the road to Dover in order to elope across the English Channel to Europe. On the Dover Road lives an eccentric millionaire, a Mr. Latimer, whose hobby it is to intercept these eloping couples. He keeps them prisoner in his mansion and forces them into a series of their affections before permitting them to continue their escapade.

The plot of "The Dover Road" is built around a typical week in Mr. Latimer's house. A nice little English lady is flattered by the attentions of young, naive Nicholas and being all but carried away by the adventure they decide to take the Dover Road. They wind up of course as "guests" of Mr. Latimer.

Into the arena steps the poor, but titled Leonard and a young inexperienced but wealthy miss, named Ann. The meeting of the two couples and the hilarious intrigue that Mr. Latimer and his fantastic corps of servants invent for them furnishes the spice and rank absurdity that makes "The Dover Road" one of the funniest stage comedies ever seen on any stage.

Director Merrill F. Walls has selected an exceptionally competent and well balanced cast.

An attractive and talented newcomer to the Master Players, Kathie Elliott, will be seen in the leading role as Ann. Her erstwhile lover, Leonard, will be played by William L. Fogle who is well remembered for his aged character bit as the detective in "Angel Street" the last Master Players opus.

Betty Sharpe, after appearing as the insane Mrs. Manningham in "Angel Street", will display her amazing versatility by her comedy interpretation of Eustasia. Playing opposite her as Nicholas will be Per H. Person who has last seen as the unforgettable Rev. Duke in "Outward Bound".

Mr. Latimer will be characterized by Merrill F. Walls who so aptly carried the role of Mr. Manningham, the criminal maniac in "Angel Street". Milton Stephenson will appear as Dominic, Mr. Latimer's ingenious butler.

Others in the cast are Shirley Jacobson, Alice Derdarian, Jonas Person, and Lewis Covert.

Of special interest to all ladies will be the gowns which were conceived and created especially for "The Dover Road" by the Master Players' own designer, Richard Londick. The modern, flamboyant settings were planned by Kay Walls whose tasteful interiors have always excited much comment from Master Players' audiences.

All profits from "The Dover Road" will be used for Pontiac Boys' Club activities who the Master Players feel are doing a fine job in promoting creative activities for young people in the Pontiac Area.

Tickets for "The Dover Road" are now available from the Boys' Club, or any Master Player. Any one desiring preferred seating, or organizations planning to attend as a group may make reservations at once at Calbi Music Store, 119 North Saginaw Street in Pontiac.

Obituaries

HENRY L. ROUSH

Henry Luther Roush, 85, passed away Saturday at his home, 4983 Dixie Highway, after a long illness. He was born in Iowa March 11, 1866, the son of Phillip and Della Roush. In 1900 he was wed to Sarah Elizabeth Jolliffe. He had made his home in Waterford for the past 24 years.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. P. L. McLaughlin of Waterford, Mrs. Herbert Strong of Fowlerville and Mrs. Marvin O'Neil of Lake Oakland; two stepsons, Ray Miller of California, and Glen Miller of Dunell, Minn.; 9 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren; one brother, George Roush of Plover, Iowa and one sister, Mrs. Estelle Mansell of Omaha, Neb.

The funeral service was held at the Sharp Funeral Home in Clarkston on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Reverend Arvid Anderson, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, officiating. Interment was in Ferry Mount Park cemetery in Pontiac.

GUY W. SCOTT

Guy W. Scott, 48, of 8612 Rose-lawn, Clarkston, passed away in Pontiac General Hospital last Thursday.

Mr. Scott was born in Oakley. He married Frances Miller in 1927 and had resided in Clarkston for 23 years. He was a tool designer for General Motors Corporation for 16 years.

Besides his widow he leaves one brother, Neal of Pontiac; five sisters, Mrs. Clara Logan of Pontiac, Mrs. James Cook of Berkeley, Mrs. Frank Dunston of Orion, Mrs. Harvey Demond of Clarkston and Mrs. Robert Crowden of Maceday, Lake.

The funeral service was held at the Elks Temple in Pontiac on Monday afternoon at 2:30. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery, Clarkston.

Clarkston Locals

Everyone is invited to the annual chicken dinner at Seymour Lake on Thursday, November 8. Serving will start at 5:30.

The Room Mothers Club of the Clarkston Community Schools will meet on Monday evening, Nov. 5, at 7:30 o'clock in the high school gym. All room mothers are urgently requested to attend.

Accord

Please God: I'd not walk this long pathway alone
To stumble and fall on each splinter and stone
I'd seek some companions who vibrate with me
Alike in our pleasures and things that we see
It don't matter much, the prestige or fame,
There are souls on this earth who vibrate the same.
When gathered together in single accord
They bring a great blessing to work of the Lord.
Peace comes to men, like the love of a brother,
When the spirit of one blends well with the other,
Then harmony reigns and all understand
The loves and desires that make up a man.
There's no chance for discord with others and me
As long as we're tuned in all the same key.
If you find each day is beset with much strife
And grave irritations encumber your life
Perhaps you are walking the road all alone
Without help of vibrations that blend with your own.

Plans are being completed for the fall festival sponsored by the Ladies' Guild of Christ Lutheran Church, to be held in the church parlors on November 7th. Due to the lack of space there will be just 100 tickets sold for the supper and these may be ordered from Mrs. Anna Gesch, OR 3-1716. The ladies will have aprons and other handwork for sale for Christmas gifts. The public is invited to attend.

The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a card party on Friday evening, Nov. 9th, at the C. A. I. building. They also will have a display of Christmas cards and wrappings for sale. The proceeds from this party will go toward the new American Legion Home. Everyone interested is invited to attend and help with this worthy project.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING

For those who are interested in the Red Cross Nursing and Civil Defense courses now being offered free of charge at the C. A. I. building the following information is offered. These classes consist of six 2 hour classes in home nursing and one two hour class in civil defense.

The course follows the patient from early morning care throughout the day, with temperatures, treatments and giving of medications, keeping charts, serving trays, the bed bath, moving the patient in bed, getting the patient up, improvised equipment and evening care being demonstrated and taught.

The classes consist of not less than ten and not more than fifteen members so that individual attention is received by each member. A house dress and large apron are preferable to wear. It is optional whether or not a Red Cross Home Nursing book be purchased. Nursing pins can be purchased for a few cents to show the member has received the course. Certificates are given to each member completing the course. It is required that members miss not more than one class, which has to be made up, to receive the certificate.

To enroll call the C. A. I., OR3-9102 and leave your name and address and when you can attend. The hours are 1:30 to 3:30 and from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. on Tuesdays. Mrs. Floyd R. Fullerton is the instructor.

There is no written examination at the completion of the course. If enough people are interested a class will be formed on Thursdays also.

YOU DON'T KNOW HOW GOOD YOU CAN FEEL

A quick return to "family" breakfasts was urged by State Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis.

"Far too many Michigan grown-ups are eating poor breakfasts or no breakfasts at all; far too many Michigan school children are starting their day underfed," the Commissioner said, and added:

"If your family is used to slighting its breakfast, you don't know how good and happy you can feel, until you regularly sit down together to steaming bowls of cereal topped with fresh fruit and milk, a plate of piping buttered toast and possibly a platter of scrambled eggs edged with crisp bacon.

"It may mean getting up 20 minutes earlier; it may mean setting the table, getting out the skillet and box of cereal the night before, but it's well worth it. You'll feel better all day; you'll be happier, you'll get more done and you'll be less susceptible to accident or illness.

"Teachers know that the child who eats a better breakfast has a better day; is more attentive, more alert and less irritable.

"Industrial studies have shown that the worker who eats a better breakfast is a better worker, gets more done early and keeps up good production, makes fewer mistakes and is less apt to have an accident. The same thing applies to office help and to the wife in the home.

"With winter coming on, when you spend more time indoors, working longer hours, come in contact with more people, chances of exposure to illness greatly increase. Bodily resistance must be kept high. One of the chief ways to build resistance to illness is to be properly nourished, and you can't be properly nourished without a good breakfast."

Is there any hope for the sinner who dies in his sins? - is answered in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" which will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, November 4, 1951.
The Golden Text is from Lamentations (3:39,40): "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Gal. 6:7): "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Error excludes itself from harmony." (p. 537)

BAND NEWS
The first meeting of the Honors Group was held last Friday noon. This is the group of students in the band who have earned approximately 400 points or over. (The requirement for an A in Band the first six weeks.) Jon Bennett was elected chairman of the group, with Glenna Webster as secretary. The other members of the group are: Hubert Allen, Ann Barrows, Bill Sutton, and Paul Wilmot.

Each six weeks period, new members will be added or old ones dropped, depending upon the points earned and maintained. Right now the main objective of this group and the band is to find ways to earn money for uniforms. We are planning several things but of course we will need cooperation from the townspeople as well as the rest of the student body.

TEACHERS' PARTY

The first teachers' party of the year was held last Thursday night in the high school gym. After a fine buffet supper prepared by the Room Mothers of the Clarkston P. T. A., the group of fifty-four persons engaged in group singing, led by Mr. Janton and accompanied by Miss Ruth Sproul. After supper they played an interesting matching game using the teachers' names. Following the game, Miss Ruth Sharpe, chairman of the entertainment committee announced that arrangements had been made so that members of the group could either square dance, play cards, or play ping pong. Those attending enjoyed these games much and all had a very enjoyable evening.

SPEECH EVENTS

On Wednesday, October 24, several students from Clarkston participated in a League Discussion Tournament held at Northville. Five panel discussions were held on the question, "Should All American citizens be drafted for essential service in time of war?" One student from each League school participated in each discussion, and in each room the chairman represented a different school. Clarkston students who participated in the panel were: Mickey Palazzola, Delphine Parrish, Ann Spohn, Ginny Demski, and Joyce McIlrath. Dick Latta acted as chairman of one panel. The speech teachers from the five schools acted as judges of the panel discussions, and each student was given a rating sheet telling the number of points which he had earned. All of Clarkston's participants earned either good or superior ratings.

PRACTICE DEBATES

Ten students from Clarkston participated in a round of practice debates with Pontiac High school students on Tuesday, October 30. The debates were held at the Pontiac High School under the direction of debate coaches, Pat Stites of Clarkston, and Don McMillen of Pontiac. Shirley Devine, Eleanor Allison, Terry Brown, Mickey Palazzola, Ann Spohn and Ginny Demski debated the affirmative side of the proposition, "Resolved That all American citizens should be subject to conscription in time of war", while Joyce McIlrath, Fred Groven, Delphine Parrish and Norman Benke debated negative. The first League competition in debate will be on November 13 when a Debate Tournament will be held at the Clarkston High School.

SEVENTH GRADE

After raiding the library for the past month, the seventh graders started their first book reports this year. Each student gave an oral summary of his book last week. It is evident that some of these reports were very interesting by the way many are searching for certain books to read the novel for himself.

The students in the seventh grade have given vent to their imaginations and have written Halloween stories. Some have been of the type which causes chills up and down the spine, while others have a tinge of humor.

In arithmetic the two classes have been doing problems to improve their speed and accuracy in figuring. Problems involving decimals are included in this week's work.

Russell Lance has been absent the past two weeks as a result of gun shot injuring his eye.

In geography the pupils have started studying Unit III. This unit is titled "The Growth of the American Nations". The students have been finding out the difficulties encountered by the early Americans traveling into the west. Through map questions and the drawing of individual maps every seventh grader has familiarized himself with the Oregon Trail, the Santa Fe Trail, Daniel Boone's route to Kentucky, and the route west from New York State along or on Lake Erie.

The general science course has dealt with the Tidal Theory. This theory is an attempt to explain the formation of the earth. The earth originally was in the gas stage and how it developed mountains, water and atmosphere which made it possible for life are the significant points of the Tidal Theory.

EIGHTH GRADE

On the twenty-third of October the eighth grade class enjoyed a roller skating party at the Lake Orion Rink. We all had a wonderful time.

We are all very busy working on our science dictionaries which consist of the key words in every chapter.

On the twenty-seventh of October a few members of the class tried raking leaves as a project to make money. We wish to thank the following students who gave their time and help: Bill Shanks, Barbara Jones, Della Guigar, Irene Moore, Valerie Hoyt, and Ruth Mahieu.

SENIOR NEWS

The sale of Christmas cards, and gift wrappings by the Seniors is under way. If you would like to buy a box of Christmas cards, be sure to see one of the Seniors. The Seniors have started their work on the year book, under the supervision of Mr. Leigh Bonner. Mary Curry and David Lee were elected to work as co-editors, along with the rest of the staff. A good Annual is assured to all students this year, so let's not forget to buy subscriptions which will be on sale in the near future.

Proofs of the Senior pictures were received on October 22, from Powell's Studio. The Senior play is progressing steadily. By December 6 we will have a well-finished product. So don't forget this date.

WORLD HISTORY FIELD TRIP

On Wednesday, October 24, 75 tenth grade world history students accompanied by their teacher, Miss Stites, and four of the students' mothers, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Jewell and Mrs. Havens, visited the museums of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

One student, Alice Remback, described the tour through one of the museums as follows: "We took our first tour through the museum of Archaeology, where we saw how the ancient Egyptians lived, the kind of utensils they used for cooking their food and the toys which their children played with. Then we went into another room where we saw how they did their writing and what they wrote on. They wrote on paper called papyrus. Their writing was done in pictures called hieroglyphics. We also saw some of their pottery, beads, dish ware, and some ornaments which had been removed from pyramids.

In another room we saw a display showing how a Roman house was furnished. The doors and windows in the display once had actually been in a Roman house. After seeing these things we went to another much larger museum called "The Museum of Natural History".

At this museum the students saw many displays. Here are some comments from different students about these displays. The comments are quoted from themes written by the students describing their trip.

Said Shirley Dunbar, "I enjoyed the display showing wild-life in Michigan most. I can now understand what men mean when they talk about hunting wild game." Marion Frey was particularly interested in the displays of stuffed birds as was Ina Mae Buzzel. Eileen Jones wrote "One of the most interesting displays was the one showing the evolution of the horse." Leonard Jewell enjoyed looking at the snakes as did many of the other students. Solvej Peterson said: "While I was looking at a rattlesnake, the guide pushed a button which made the snake

THE RISK OF SELF-MEDICATION

★ The weather and human ailments are favorite topics of everyday conversation. The next-door neighbor is alert to recommend her favorite remedy for any set of symptoms. Another friend holds implicit faith in something else. You are caught in a crossfire of claims and counterclaims.
Artemus Ward observed that, "The trouble with people is they know too many things that ain't so." What seem to be almost identical symptoms in two patients may result from entirely different causes.
Your physician has spent at least eight arduous years in the study of health and disease. He is thoroughly familiar with the techniques of diagnosis and treatment. 90% For! 10% Against Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Time to settle...

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.
More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.
Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.
In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.
What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $34 an hour ($2.74 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.
What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.
What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.
What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.
But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.
The Industry Pattern is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the say Ted Lindsay and Bride-to-be "An all-electric kitchen is our goal," said Red Wing star Ted Lindsay with a smile for his bride-to-be, lovely Pat Snell.

"Yes, and my first choice is an electric range," emphasized the future Mrs. Lindsay. "It's so beautiful! And just look how easy it is to regulate the heat with these controls. Now I know why they say you can cook to perfection with an electric range!"
"They're easy to clean," said Ted. "Look, Pat, how these heating elements lift up out of the way."
"Plenty of storage space, too," Pat put in. "And look at the big oven! Honestly, these new electric ranges are simply out of this world!"
Yes, it's true. Electric appliances... electric ranges... are finer than ever today. Visit your nearby appliance dealer soon.

Bill Moore, salesman, points out the advantages of electric cooking.

saurus and mastodons were so large that I don't see how they got enough to eat." John McIntyre was very interested in the diorama showing the life of the deep sea. Lloyd Rae Collings described the diorama of the cave as follows: "We saw a model of a cave which looked very much like the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky. It contained stalactite and stalagmites, and models of blind white fish which live in pools in the caves. They don't have eyes because they have no need for them." Most of the students mentioned that they enjoyed seeing the huge skeletons of the dinosaurs. Another comment was described by Bud Clement when he wrote, "One display of the mastodon showed its environment. It was made up of models of the animals in a setting of trees, lakes, and the sky. The sky actually changed colors from the first stage of sunset to darkness. It was very realistic." Ron Schebor and many other students also were very interested in the live Gila Monster, the only poisonous lizard in the United States.

A major criticism of the trip was that as Leslie Schmuck said "I don't have enough time to see all that I wanted to look at".

SASHABAW SCHOOL Oh me! Oh my! Report cards this week. Some of these marks need boosting. Let's try a little harder this period. Mrs. Crawford's second grade enjoyed their trip to the Oakland Bakery last Thursday. The Halloween parties last Friday were a great success. There was a huge parade on the school grounds. There were gypsies, witches, clowns, scare crows, cow punchers and lots more. After the parade games were played and treats served in each room. Mrs. Mann decided not to wait for her class to bob apples and proceeded to dunk herself all over. All joking aside Mrs. Mann is a very good sport. Mary Ellen Bates from the first grade was dressed as a gypsy and took first place. Runners-up were Keith Clements, Connie Buzzle, Joan Carpenter, Alice Antilla, Donna Keel, and Norman Kimmey.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP Two movies, "Leaders for Leisure" and "A Chance to Play" highlighted the first meeting of the Waterford Township Recreation Planning Committee when it met Wednesday night at the Community Activities Building. Despite the inclement weather thirty members attended this meeting. This committee is made up of school principals, P. T. A. and Service organizations representatives.

The main purpose of the committee is to keep the different organizations and schools and the Waterford Township Recreation in close contact. Each member of the committee will be able to convey the plans for a recreation program to the organization or school he represents. The Waterford Township Recreation will also know the needs and desires of each organization and school and plan the recreation program accordingly. The committee will also be instrumental in securing volunteers and interested workers.

Details of the tentative plans were thoroughly discussed. It was recommended that letters be sent to all groups in the Township in regard to the travel series which will begin January 16, 1952. It was also recommended that the Mens' Basketball League be limited to the Township. Several prospective sponsors for basketball teams were discussed. Mark A. Orlick, owner of the Family Beach, is going to sponsor a team. It was decided that the Grade School Fun Night (grades 3-6) should be held in the afternoon instead of at night so parents could provide transportation. The committee was in favor of the Saturday morning gym class for boys. Suggestions were made to bring in other teams and have competition in basketball and other sports. Success of the newly formed Camera Guild was commented on. Some discussion was held on winter ice rinks but no definite plans were made.

The recommendations made by the committee will be submitted to the Waterford Township Recreation Board for final approval. The committee meetings will be the fourth Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be held November 28, at 8:00 p. m. in the Community Activities Building.

FRUIT AND GARDEN NOTES by Willard E. Bosserman "400 Bushel Club" The winner of the Oakland County 400 Bushel Club is David Mendham of Milford. His yield was 497.2 bushels of U. S. No. 1 potatoes per acre. His closest competition was 372.5 bushels of U. S. No. 1 obtained by Keith Middleton of Lake Orion. All of the yields checked were over 300 bushels per acre.

Yield Increased The average yield of all potatoes in Michigan has nearly doubled in the last 5 years. This shows that farmers are doing much more efficient job of growing potatoes than they did 5 years ago. The question may be raised, is it desirable to increase yields in face of surpluses. I think it is always wise if you can grow on one acre what has taken 2 acres before, if the cost of production doesn't double along with it.

APPLES The best eating apple at this time of year is the McIntosh. They are mellow and at their best now. Jonathan, Delicious and Steel's Red come into their prime later in the order listed. Jonathan and Delicious reach their prime in November, Northern Spy in December and Steel's Red in January. You can obtain a booklet from the Agricultural Extension Office which gives many good apple recipes. It is available by dropping a card to 1260 West Blvd., Pontiac or calling TE 4-2564.

by Ed Zolbin
County Agricultural Agent

October has been a very busy month and at least the first part of November looks like it's going to carry over. Some of the events coming up in November are the Oxford Rotary Farmers' Banquet on November 6, and the 4-H Leaders' Banquet November 7, to be held at Commerce Masonic Hall.

Al Phillips, Conservation Forester at Lapeer, warns farmers to be on the look out for unscrupulous timber buyers who are recommending wholesale slaughter of timber lots because of disease. Mr. Phillips says that such diseases as Oak Wilt and Dutch Elm Disease are being used as an excuse by some buyers for recommending complete slaughtering of timber lands. He says these diseases are so scattered that such techniques should be ignored by timber buyers, and he would appreciate getting reports about people attempting this method of purchase.

FRUIT AND GARDEN NOTES

by Willard E. Bosserman
Assistant County Agr'l Agent

RATS

It's a little hard to estimate the loss due to rats in dollars and cents. Estimates run all the way from $10 to $80 per farm per year. The disease menace is higher still. In the 14th century, for instance, 25 million people died in Europe of the "black death" which was spread a great deal by rats. Typhus fever, another disease carried by the rat louse, has time and again destroyed huge numbers of lives.

PRACTICAL CONTROL

Like fly control, chemicals alone cannot give good control of rats. First of all, get rid of rat shelters, such as trash piles, poorly piled lumber. Secondly, plug up holes in buildings where rats can gain entrance. Breaks in walls, loosely fitting doors, broken windows and screens are main highways for rats. Thirdly, keep rats from getting food. Store feeds in rat tight metal containers or build rat proof bins. Fourth, prevent rats from obtaining water as much as possible.

POISONS

An old standby has been "Red Squill" which is the safest poison to use, however, if a rat recovers from Red Squill poisoning it will never taste food again which contains Red Squill.

A newer poison is "Warfarin" which must be taken in small successive amounts to cause death.

ROSES

Bush roses, especially the Hybrid Teas and other tender kinds, need winter protection. A mound of soil 6 to 15 inches or more in height around each plant is usually sufficient. Mounding should be done just before freezing weather occurs. After the ground is frozen the whole bed may be mulched with 2 to 4 inches of manure, straw, peat, leaf mold or similar material.

Climbers may be protected either by wrapping the canes in burlap or heavy waterproof paper or by laying the canes on the ground and covering them with soil, leaves, straw or similar material. Mulching of all roses is best done after the ground is frozen to avoid possible damage from mice.
