Interest Shown In School Library

Last Thursday afternoon about seventy-five people who are interested in the Elementary School Library were entertained at a silver tea by the Library Board and the P. T. A., in observance of National Book Week.

It was very gratifying to the library workers to see so many Town folk book conscious. For this reason they had many books on display. Mrs. W. S. Barrows had a very interesting collection of old books on display and with them she displayed an old ink well and quill pen that had been used in the old school on N. Main

Mrs. C. J. Murton, chairman of the Library Board welcomed the guests and presented other Board members and library workers Mrs. Mary Shanks was introduced as the originator of the library Mrs. Shanks told a little of the history of the library and thanked everyone for their splendid cooperation throughout the seven years of the libray's existence. Mrs. Floyd Hammond was presented as director of the library and its volunteer staff, Mrs. Hammond expressed her appreciation to all those who had been so willing to help with the library work. There is always something to do, with new books coming in having to be catalogued and prepared for the shelves, old books having to be repaired and the distribution of books to the children having to be taken care of.

Several piano selections were presented by Mrs. Adele Gardner Thomas and these were greatly appreciated.

A few of the books were brought to life in a little arama presented by children from Wrs. Donay's fifth and sixth grade room. Ann Lowrie as mother attempted to get her little boy, Freddy Turek, interested in books rather than bicycles. She tried to convey to him the idea that he would meet many grand people in his books and he would visit many far-away places. It took a thunderstorm and eral booths with good gift suggesa few of the characters from the tions. The happy, little characters from the storybooks took their parts well. Sally Bauer was Alice in Wonderland; Bobby Schwarze was Robin Hood; Jim Weber was Jim Hawkins; Barbara Rockwell was Peter Pan; Kent See was Robinson Crusoe and Larry Stellmach was Tom Sawyer.

Following the program refreshments were served from an at- mothers will have an apron sale, tractive table with an arrange ment of fruit outlining the silver service. At each end of the table were lighted candles in wrought iron candelabra. Mrs. Mary Shanks poured.

The guests had the privilege of contributing to the Library Fund. Those who gave one and a half dollars are entitled to recognition on the book plate of a new library book. The amount realized was approximately seventy dollars.

More than a thousand books are now on the library shelves and fruit trees. It's quite important, this past week several new books arrived and will be ready for distribution very soon. More than twenty-five mothers are active in the workings of the library and the majority of the children in the elementary school have acquired a habit of using the library. The books are carefully selected and in each there can be found a "New .Horizon".

Psalms 107:1 — O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever.

This day of thanksgiving started away back in 1621 when the New England colonists, acting on a proclamation by Governor Bradford, gave thanks to Providence for the good harvest. From the time of Lincoln's proclamation in 1863, Thanksgiving has been set aside each year by presidential proclamation and by proclamation of the state governors as a day for giving thanks to God for the blessings of the year just passing. It is popularly celebrated with feasting.

Not alone for mighty empire, Stretching far o'er land and sea; Not alone for bounteous harvests, Lift we up our hearts to Thee. Standing in the living present, Memory and hope between, Lord, we would with deep thanksgiving Praise Thee most for things unseen.

Not for battleship and fortress. Not for conquests of the sword; But for conquests of the spirit Give we thanks to Thee, O Lord; For the priceless gift of freedom, For the home, the church, the school; For the open door to manhood In a land the people fule.

ADVICE ABOUT KEEPING WELL

*The man who thinks to conserve his health by uselessness and ease does not differ from him who guards his eyes by not seeing, and his voice by not speaking. . . . Least of all is it to be assumed that laziness is healthful, if it destroys what health aims at; and it is not true that inactive people are more healthy."

This excerpt from Plutarch's essay Advice About Keeping Well, written over 2,000 years ago, might have beer written yesterday. Had medicine and pharmacy been ? well developed then as they are today, we are certain in would have stressed the value of a periodic physical ϵ amination by a qualified physician. By the same reasoning, it is wise to take your prescription to a registered pharmacist for expert compounding. We are prescription

Hand-operated mechanical fruit dumper developed for growers and packers

Profits of fruit growers and packers have always suffered from "bruising." Ordinarily, fruit is injured while being dumped from field crates onto receiving belts. The Agricultural Experiment Station at Michigan State College, along with the United States Department of Agriculture, has developed a mechanical device which helps workers dump fruit carefully and easily, reducing both damage and labor. Rigid tests show that this mechanical dumper helps control the flow of fruit, has a capacity of several hundred bushels per hour, and is thoroughly dependable. Growers and packers of apples, peaches, pears and onions may call, write or visit their County Agricultural Agent for further
