See Picture With Local Setting

A special free showing of two movies, "Holiday for Bill" and "Waves of Green" will be presented by Dearborn Motors Corporation in the Clarkston High School auditorium Tuesday, January 8 at 8 p. m.

The two films will be of special interest to the residents of this community since both contain scenes photographed in Michigan. They will be introduced by Merritt D. Hill, Vice-President of Dearborn Motors.

"Holiday for Bill" was photographed on the former Paul Terry farm near here. Co-starring Hazel Dawn, Jr., and Paul Langton, the picture tells the story of a city slicker who comes to a farm looking for television talent. He gets more than he bargained for and picks up a few pointers on life on a modern farm after he meets a farmer's beautiful daughter.

The role scene plays in improving agriculture is told in "Waves of Green". Authentic on-the-scene shots were taken in such widely scattered locations as North Carolina's tobacco country, the wide wheat fields of Texas and the colorful fruit orchards of Oregon's Hood River valley. The film took two years to complete.

There is no admission charge. The entire family is welcome. Dearborn Motors owns and operates Deer Lake Hills Farm north of Clarkston.

Newlyweds To Reside in Clarkston

A very pretty, double ring ceremony was solemnized at eight o'clock New Year's Eve in the First Methodist Church, in Clarkston, when Ruth Evangeline Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Farmer E. Davies, of Clarkston, and James Randolph Mortenson, son of Mrs. Louis Mortenson, of Pontiac, and the late Mr. Mortenson spoke their marriage vows. The candlelight service was performed by the Reverend Robert M. Atkins before an altar banked with palms and white flower arrangements. The pews were adorned with white satin bows and greens.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of heavy, ivory satin, styled with a train, a fitted basque buttoned closely from throat to waistline, a Victorian flare collar, and long fitted sleeves with points over the wrists. Her French silk illusion veil was shirred and fastened to a tiara of wax orange blossoms and buds, some of which were worn by her maternal grandmother. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and ivy, and an heirloom "good luck" handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Charles Carr of Clarkston.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Henry Storer (Doris Boyens) of Kalamazoo, a lifelong friend of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie MacKenzie, of Detroit and Mrs. William Brim, of Pontiac. All wore floor length gowns of red taffeta, fashioned with round neckline and cap sleeves. At their wrists were double frills of red net and their small hats, with ostrich tips, matched their dresses. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and ivy.

Mr. Mortenson was assisted by his brother, Louis, as best man and William Brim, Wayne Swannell, Frederick Mast and Lester Swanson seated the guests.

Mrs. Orlo Willoughby sang "For You Alone", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". Lyndon S. Salathiel of Pontiac played the traditional music and accompanied Mrs. Willoughby.

For the occasion the mother of the bride wore a floor length dress of sapphire blue crepe, with small matching hat trimmed with rose petals. She wore an orchid on her shoulder. Mrs. Mortenson, mother of the groom, wore a floor length dress of gold crepe and a small hat of flowers. She also wore an orchid.

Following the ceremony a reception for 225 guests was held in the church parlors. Fruit punch was served from a small table covered and flounced with green organdy. The bride's table was covered and flounced with white organdy, festooned with garlands of winter greens caught up with white bells. The bride's four-tiered square cake was flanked by white mum nosegays and lighted white tapers in crystal holders.

After the bride and groom cut the cake the guests were served by Miss Phyllis Beardsley. Mrs. Edward Showers and Mrs. Lowell Duzan assisted at the silver service. Miss Patricia Young served the punch. Mrs. Robert Clark took charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were from Detroit, Northville, Pontiac, Brighton, Fenton, Midland, Flint and from Ohio and Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson left on a short trip to Chicago. For traveling the bride wore a costume of navy crepe featuring a bertha of beige encrusted with iridescent sequins, and matching hat.

They will reside in Clarkston.

March Of Dimes Opens For Month

The 1952 March of Dimes opened in Oakland County January 2nd with the avowed objective of putting the fight against polio on a "pay-as-you-go basis" after four successive years in which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has gone into debt fighting the only epidemic disease still on the increase in America.

"During the last four years," said Mrs. Farmer E. Davies, chairman of the Drive in Clarkston, "the nation has experienced its worst polio-years in history. More cases, 132,000, were reported in that period than had been in the previous ten. Here in Oakland County there were 218 cases in 1951, compared to 136 in 1950. Our Chapter has given aid this past year to 98 victims of this crippling disease. Many of these children men and women were victims of past years still needing help in their fight against the disease."

In Oakland County as everywhere in the nation, 50% of the funds raised are retained by the Chapter, for the benefit of those in our communities who are stricken with polio, and who cannot bear the full financial burden of polio without undue hardship. Aid is given to polio victims regardless of race, creed, or color.

The other 50% is forwarded to the National Headquarters where it is used for research and to provide Epidemic Aid to those chapters whose treasuries are depleted, giving aid to the local polio victims. Oakland County received $24,600 in 1951 from this National Epidemic Aid Fund. In the last four years $120,500 has been sent to the Chapter.

1951 marks the fourth year in which the March of Dimes has gone into debt to help pay for the care of polio patients needing help. The estimated national deficit is $5,000,000. Our county has thousands of dollars of unpaid bills for 1951 which will be paid after the Drive. Two steps are being taken to bring the receipts from the 1952 March of Dimes to a level which will erase all deficits. The Drive period has been doubled, and a larger number of people are being asked to contribute than ever before. Everyone's help is needed this year.

"There's a job for everyone in this fight against infantile paralysis," stated chairman Mrs. Davies. "To help, please send your contribution to the March of Dimes in care of me, or the local chapter office, 36 S. Telegraph Rd., Pontiac, Mich. "If you wish to volunteer your services please contact us."

The March of Dimes canisters have been distributed locally. 65,000 March of Dimes cards are being mailed to residents of the county.

The Grist Mill

By Ed Alohin
County Agricultural Agent

In last week's column we mentioned that we were going to discuss in two or three articles the problems of the farm manager planning during the winter months. So we hope you will be looking for these items for the next two or three weeks.

To start off — one of the most important problems that is facing farmers in 1952 is keeping their machinery in good condition. Many folks who would be in the "know" say that new machinery may be in somewhat short supply before the end of 1952, which certainly points up the need for a good systematic method of caring for your machinery.

The first step is to go over your machinery and look for worn parts that probably will need replacement before planting and harvesting time is finished this year. The next step is to place orders for these parts. A good method of doing this and keep your record straight is to get some bag tags from your local elevator so that you can tag the part on the machine with the number on it. This makes it easy for quick identification of the parts as they come.

This will also help your machinery dealer to reorder spare parts while they are still available so that accidental breakage or expected replacement orders during planting and harvest time can be most readily filled.

Another phase of farm management which can be done at the present time is preparation of your crop rotation for next year and the ordering of fertilizer and seeds that will be necessary to get the crop in. Another excellent job to do at the present time is to plan your pasture program as part of the cropping system on the farm.

Next week we will hit soil management and crop rotations and the following week we will go into planning the livestock feeding program.

roadway in the subdivision were practically buried in snow last week when the road grader made its way through to clear the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gritzinger and family spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gritzinger in Pontiac.

Bob Furman spent his Christmas holidays in Davisburg with his grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams and family are living in the former John Snyder home.

Thomas Baur has been released from Pontiac General Hospital where he has been under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson spent several days in Hilo, W. Va., visiting her father, Mr. Carte.

Joyce Watson, Frances, Patricia and Marjorie Richmond, Sharon Beckman and Velma Shafer went carolling on Christmas Eve. Everyone enjoyed the singing.

A card from the Glenn Hornes last week says the temperature in Florida on the day the card was written was 80 degrees. Anyone wishing to drop a card to the Hornes, their address is 1717 12th St., South Ave., Lake Worth, Fla.

Random Thoughts

REGRET — Sometimes it is through negligence, sometimes through uncontrolled emotions that we have hurt somebody else. When we take time and make the effort to analyze our actions, we may discover with a shock what harm we have done. We are lucky if we are then able to set matters right again, by apologizing, or asking forgiveness, or by showing in our future actions towards that person our "better" nature. It goes hard with us if the harm cannot be undone. The regret we feel cannot be eased or relieved by our action-toward the injured person. It turns against ourselves; it becomes self-accusation.

Regret is the first step after realization of our error, or mistake, or sin; it is a step, not a state. The step must lead to rehabilitation; to correction; to improvement; to enrichment of ourselves even. To stay with regret, and self-reproach, means losing faith in oneself and our personality will crumble as it is undermined by the remorse which gnaws at us.

We cannot afford to indulge in regret. A strange way of putting it? Nevertheless it is an indulgence which makes us wallow in remorse — and not go beyond that; it is the easy way out to reproach ourselves — and feel sorry for ourselves at the same time. We have to have more courage than that; we have to face the fact that we have done something that can't be remedied, and that no amount of regret can magically cleanse us of our guilty feeling. We have to work at that ourselves; our actions, our attitude, our future life will show whether the regret has merely pushed us down; or whether it has been of value in pushing us forward and upward.

Let us resolve to use our regret as a stimulus; the past cannot be undone, but it can influence our future. Let's put it behind us (not forgotten) and let's start again with new hope, new promise, new vigor, and new faith.

—Louise Hemings.

Last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Byron Beardslee and their daughter, Ruth Beckman, left by train, for Los Angeles, Calif., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Miller and family. They expect to be gone about 3 months.

By The Way . . .

One consolation, we're starting 1952 minus a few snow drifts. The main highways and side roads are clear and with the exception of a few places where there are icy spots some of the driving hazards have been removed. . . . In taking inventory of 1951 we find much to be thankful for as individuals and as a community. Clarkston should be happy to have so many helpful citizens. In the last week and a half when highways and byways were blocked with snow and driving a car was anything but a pleasure to the civic-minded firefighters and a few others gladly worked to clear the street in the business section of the village. Then too, Clarkston should be thankful for a conscientious village president. During the year Robert C. Waters has given much thought as to what should be done in the village and what would be best for all concerned. Last Sunday he and one of the councilmen, Charles Rockwell, donned their heavy garb and spent most of the day helping to clear snow from the curbs in part of the downtown area. This is only one of the little extras that "Bob" took care of in 1951. . . . It is nice to know that Mrs. Guy A. Walter is home from the hospital after undergoing an operation. She is feeling better each day. Also Manley Walter is getting around again after submitting to surgery about ten days ago. He is on the gasp and by taking things a little easy he hopes to be fully recovered very soon. Everyone is sorry that Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwell is a patient in Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit and best wishes are extended from the whole community. . . . We would not shoot Santa Claus nor would we begrudge anyone the right to celebrate the new year — but working the day before the two holidays and then trying to get a paper out the day after is a big undertaking, without spoiling the occasions. Next week we hope to be back to normal in publishing.

As eventide was drawing nigh, A flake of snow fell from the sky. A perfect thing so feather light Just waiting thru the coming night. 'Twas like a star with ruffled points

And fancy trimmings at the joints. A masterpiece of nature's art As pure as is the Master's heart. It fell upon the garden fence And sparkled there in innocence.

Then others came and perfect, all, And millions more began to fall, The ground grew white and serene robes Adorned the great and small abodes.

Breathtaking beauty filled the air And loveliness was everywhere. The Christmas spirit was enhanced As tiny snow flakes leaped and danced.

The blanket thickened on the ground And limbs of trees were weighted down.

The snow-kept coming night and day To clog each street and right of way. The business world was paralyzed By star-like flakes of tiny size. No one can estimate the cost Or tell how many lives were lost In struggling to cast aside These flakes that fell at eventide.

'Tis well that man should come to know, The force contained in flakes of snow.

THE DOCTOR CAN WAIT

How often have you heard it said, "I've paid all my bills except the doctor's. He can wait?" When we have recovered, the fearful urgency of that night call is easily forgotten. In answer to our frantic call, what if the doctor had said, "Oh, it's nothing serious. Wait until morning and come down to the office." The chances are we would agree to pay double if he would come at once. Health is not an item for trade and barter. In fact, the only wealth is health. Consider your doctor bill as your best investment in the continued enjoyment of life. As pharmacists, we stand ready to fill your prescriptions promptly and accurately.

When a city slicker comes to a farm looking for television talent, he gets more than he bargained for. A beautiful farmer's daughter gives him a few pointers on life on a modern farm. It's a delightful musical comedy the whole family will enjoy.

"Waves of Green" tells the story of agricultural progress in all sections of the United States and how farmers and scientists, working together, solve many farm problems.

The Entire Family Is Welcome.

MSC Getting Ready For Farmers' Week

Workmen are busy enclosing part of the concourse beneath the concrete stadium seats on the east side of Macklin Field Stadium at Michigan State College, getting area ready for educational exhibits to be housed there during Farmers' Week.

Elsewhere on the state college campus practically everyone on the staff is concerned with putting plans for Farmers' Week into action. E. L. Anthony, dean of the school of agriculture, reports that committees have been appointed and many are at work getting ready for the expected crowd of 30,000 to 40,000 visitors who will invade the campus January 28 to February 2, 1952.

A new feature of the Farmers' Week program this year will be a Fun Festival Night called "Accent on Youth". The success of the 4-H Club home talent search program during the past year resulted in discovery of many talented rural youth. The plan is to bring some of these rural youth organization members to East Lansing for a program in the college auditorium, at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, January 31.
