Clarkston Local

Carolyn Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bishop, left on Monday morning, August 4, for Stamford, Conn. She traveled with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John F. ## Futility

In business, a man will spend days at a time to find in his records the loss of a dime. It seems all important for him to go through a heart breaking search for a penny or two. Percentage is figured with caution and care. To meet competition, at hand everywhere. Sometimes one might wonder just what the world gains by slaying for figures with nerve racking pains. A lawyer will call for a trial that is new. For erroneous use of a sentence or two. If a hundred years back, some error was made. In spelling a word in the course of a trade. He makes a big fuss and a fortune is spent. In searching a witness who knew what was meant. In looking for trouble it seems he lost sight. Of his duty in helping a man in his plight. The preachers still differ in books they have read. Each finding a meaning in what has been said. For a slight change in thought a movement has grown. To take on a charter and name of its own. So man puts importance on trivial things. Enslaving himself to red tape and to strings. Resigned that he's shackled for life to this fate. Instead of God's gift to a broader estate.

He will confer with President Edward Rummings and Secretary Leslie Greene and other local officers of Rotary administration and service activities.

Ontario, and is a member of the Rotary Club of Wallaceburg. He is one of the 207 District Governors who are supervising the activities of some 7,600 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 360,000 business and professional executives in 83 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Clarkston because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of businesses and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the past fiscal year, for example, 215 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 32 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Islands of the Pacific.

Vows Exchanged Saturday Evening

Noreen Frances Moore of Ortonville spoke her marriage vows with Warren Dale Sutphen of Phoenix, Arizona, in a very pretty ceremony on Saturday, August 9th at the First Methodist Church in Clarkston.

The double-ring, candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend Robert M. Atkins at eight o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Moore of Ortonville are the bride's parents, and the George Sutphens of Phoenix, Arizona are the parents of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was wearing a waltz-length gown of white hand embroidered, imported Swiss organdy, over white taffeta, featuring tiny short sleeves, a scalloped bodice and a very full skirt. Her bonnet-type cap of organdy had a finger-tip veil and she carried pale pink Phalaenopsis and lily on a small, white Bible.

Marjorie E. Moore was her sister's maid-of-honor. She was wearing a waltz-length, white embroidered organdy gown over pale blue taffeta. Other features of the dress were an accordion pleated, strapless bodice, with a white organdy stole and a full skirt. Her headpiece was of blue forget-me-nots and she carried a bouquet of loops and lace, centered with pale pink carnations.

Mrs. Gerald Martin of Detroit was bridesmaid and she wore a gown identical in color and style to that of the maid-of-honor. Her headpiece was also identical to the honor maid's, and she carried a bouquet of loops and lace centered with pale blue carnations.

Laura Ellen Moore, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, and she was wearing a white organdy, waltz-length dress over pale pink taffeta. Other features of the dress were a ruffled bodice trimmed with pink ribbon, a narrow, pink ribbon sash, and a full skirt. Her headpiece was a tiara of pink carnation petals and she carried a pink and white basket of rose petals.

E. Dean Anderson of Pontiac, served Dale as best man. The bride's brother, James S. Moore of Clarkston, Steve J. Sulcher of Flint and Richard K. Allen of Waterford seated the guests. They were all wearing summer formal attire.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore chose a ballerina length dress of mauve-colored, pure silk with navy accessories. On her purse she carried a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Sutphen wore a ballerina length dress of light blue shantung and pink accessories. She also wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. James S. Moore of Clarkston and Miss Carol Hutchison of Flint. Miss Helen Harris of Pontiac assisted in the cutting of the 4-tiered wedding cake and Miss Sally Ann Moore, niece of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. William Mansfield of Clarkston was soloist and her selections were: "Because", and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother", and while the couple knelt at the altar she sang "The Lord's Prayer". The organist was Mrs. Jack Wignall, also of Clarkston.

Following the reception the new Mrs. Sutphen changed into a white linen dress with a navy and white jacket and navy and white accessories. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple then left for a motor trip through the west to Phoenix, Arizona, where they will reside. Out of town guests were from Phoenix, Arizona, Cleveland, Ohio, Grand Rapids, Flint, Pontiac and Detroit, Michigan.

The bride was entertained at many lovely parties before becoming Mrs. Sutphen.

The bride is a graduate of the Clarkston High School and the bridegroom, a former Clarkston resident, is a graduate of the North Phoenix High School.

Delightful Program Presented Sunday

The organ recital presented by G. Thomas Hartle at the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening was well attended and well received.

The program consisting of both sacred and secular numbers, composed by many of the old masters of music, was varied and colorful. With such splendid musical background and Mr. Hartle's own artistry the entire rendition reached a peak of perfection.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo J. Willoughby of Clarkston, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Wager at the piano, sang two beautiful, sacred numbers in duet, and the congregation added to the program with two good, old hymns.

Those who had to miss this delightful program missed one of the outstanding musical events of the season.

Priscilla Circle Has Picnic

On Thursday, August 7th, the Priscilla Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, held a picnic and their regular meeting on the spacious grounds at the rear of the Home of Mrs. Frank Stauffer on N. Main Street.

The picnic luncheon was pot-luck, which meant that the menu was varied and there was plenty of it.

Mrs. Ray C. Ainsley was in charge of the devotions. At the business meeting the Rotary dinners for the year were discussed. Mrs. Lee M. Clark, who is in charge of the study period for the year explained that the study books had just been received and the regular lessons would be started at the next meeting. Mrs. James Sutton who recently returned from a trip to Japan gave a descriptive outline of her trip from the time she left the U. S. until she returned. Her story was very interesting and the group really wished they could have listened to Mrs. Sutton for a much longer time.

Lieut. Detective Walter Krause of the Pontiac Police Department in charge of the narcotic division, was a guest at the Rotary Club meeting on Monday evening. He explained how useful, everyday drugs can be used by the underworld as dope. As usual Mr. Krause was very interesting. He was introduced by Ronald A. Walter.

Past District Governor Lloyd C. Megea announced the death of Dick Norton, who has been a welcome speaker at Rotary for about 12 times. Death was caused by a heart attack.

Some 2,000 boys and girls are expected to be on the campus for the 4-day event. They will exhibit more than 5,000 entries in 500 divisions and classes, according to Verne Freeman, acting state 4-H Club leader.

For the tenth year the State Show will be held on the MSC campus. Prior to that, the 4-H Club members held their state-wide competition at the State Fair in Detroit. During the war when state fairs were abandoned the 4-Hers moved their activities to MSC—and they liked it so well they've kept coming back, Freeman said.

Special evening entertainment will spark the usual judging and demonstrations program. Talent from the 4-H Club members themselves will be on parade, the annual style revue will be held and there will be the usual opening assembly on the first night of the show.

Premiums and awards, furnished primarily by the Michigan Department of Agriculture, will amount to $28,000 this year. Special awards will be given by firms and organizations and several out-of-state trips will be awarded. Highest honor will go to two boys and two girls who win the coveted trip to the National 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C., next year.

Freeman urged the people of Michigan to attend the State Show. "It is open to the public free of charge and we would like to have them see the work 4-H Club members have been doing the past year," he said.

better vehicles than the old ones were, and they are safer when driven with skill and discretion. In the hands of reckless drivers they are more dangerous than ever.

There is no such thing as a fool-proof automobile, and the same may be said of Commissioner Dunlap's new vehicle.

All the functional streamlining in the world won't do any good if the administration keeps on protecting corruption. And in this connection it is noteworthy that President Truman has just refused the Senate Finance Committee investigators access to Alcohol Tax Unit records needed for the inquiry into this latest Internal Revenue Bureau Scandal.

Incidentally, the White House never has seen fit to send to Congress any proposal for recognizing the entire Treasury Department, of which the Revenue Bureau is a part, in accordance with the plan recommended by the Hoover Commission. Such a reorganization probably would have nipped Revenue Bureau corruption in the bud.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES IN HOME ARTS AT STATE FAIR HAS BEEN EXTENDED

The closing date for entries in the Home Arts Department for the 1952 Michigan State Fair has been extended to Friday, August 22. The State Fair opens August 29 and continues through September 7.

The closing date as announced in the premium book was August 15. Mrs. Polly Luers, director of the Home Arts Department, has asked for the extension to improve cataloging and to accommodate the flood of entries always received as Fair time approaches. In previous years many entries have been refused because of the early closing date.

Early entries indicate there will be an abundance of outstanding food, clothing, needlework and other handicraft, canned goods and all home products of Michigan women at this year's State Fair.

A golden, wedding cake, iced in white with gold leaves as a decorative motif, already is an entry of Mrs. Thelma Watson of Royal Oak. It was the first entry in that division.

The first entry in the hooked rug division was an unusual Oriental pattern by Mrs. Victor Heyens of Clarkston. A native of Holland she has been in this country about a year and a half. It will be her first showing at the Michigan State Fair.

The ladies may be interested, too, in men's ideas of flower arrangements. No longer is this Home Arts activity a monopoly of women since the State Fair has received entries from several of the male element.

"Teen-agers" will stage a Junior Home Economic Dress Revue at the Music Shell on Saturday, August 30 at 8:00 P. M. The clothes have been made by the nimble fingers of the younger group, whether strapless gowns for evening or plaid skirts for fall wear. The costume will be modeled by the designer in each case.

Of course, the State Fair competition is for amateurs only. An entry fee of one dollar entitles the exhibitor to show a single entry in each of 20 classes in the Home Arts Department.

Any article which has won a prize in a previous State Fair is not eligible. Articles, other than quilts, tablecloths, afghans and bedspreads, must have been completed since January 1, 1952.

Those more intricate items must have been completed since January 1, 1951.

Needlecraft and other handicraft exhibits must be delivered to the State Fair no later than August 22. The deadline for canned products, baked goods and candy is August 27. County Fair Exhibitors who have won Special Ribbons may mail or bring entries to the State Fair between Monday, August 18, and Wednesday, August 27, except in the case of baked goods which should be delivered on Wednesday, August 27, only. Entries will be accepted on Saturday, August 23, or Sunday, August 24.

SUGGEST SEVERAL WAYS TO HALT DROP IN MILK PRODUCTION

Many dairymen find it practical to sow some Balbo rye in August for late fall and early spring pasture.

Planting about an acre for each three cows in the herd usually will furnish about two weeks of grazing in the fall, plus feed in the spring before regular pastures are ready, according to L. A. Johnson, Michigan State College extension dairyman.

Johnson pointed to the fact that milk production per cow declined in July as shown by reports of Dairy Herd Improvement Associations in Michigan. This follows the usual trend after reaching a high point in May and June. The low point usually is reached in November.

'Coon Numbers High

This "nosey" infant, like the human variety, wants to find out what goes on in the world too. One of the best ways this two-week-old clown finds is to use his sensitive nose. A full grown raccoon can do a top job of defending himself when cornered. Conservation department says the 'coon population is high.

A shortage of feed due to less pasture growth is the main reason for the drop in production in the fall months. Johnson suggests several ways dairymen can help to maintain production at a higher and more profitable level.

In addition to the Balbo rye suggestion for late fall and early spring pasture, production can be held up by feeding more grass silage or hay, providing more acres of pasture or by feeding extra grain.

It takes about two pounds of grain to replace three pounds of hay in feeding value, or three pounds of grass silage to replace one pound of hay, Johnson adds.

LABOR SAVING IN POULTRY BUSINESS WILL BOOST PROFIT

Put the nests near the door of your henhouse and let the hens do the walking.

That's the suggestion of William Aho, Michigan State College extension poultry specialist. He says that this arrangement will save steps and you'll find few, if any, more floor eggs.

Piping water into the henhouse and using automatic fountains will cut watering time in half. Time saving in large flocks may even be greater.

Another labor-saving step is to keep hens in large units. There is less work in caring for 300 hens in one pen than 100 hens in three different pens. First step may be to take out unnecessary partitions. Aho also recommends one or more lines of feeders parallel to vice need not necessarily have been in Korea.

It provides veterans with five benefits; education and training and GI loans, both administered by the Veterans Administration; and unemployment compensation, mustering-out pay and job-finding assistance, handled by other agencies.

Under the new GI Bill, the VA will make monthly payments directly to veteran-trainees, and not to the school. Out of the allowance, veterans will have to meet all their own expenses, including tuition.

The VA allowance for flight trainees will also go to the veterans, but they must turn the money over to the flight school, along with some funds of their own, to cover the cost of the training.

The law specifies that the flight training pay will be based on 75 percent of the school's established charge for non-veterans taking the same course.

In the case of a veteran taking flight training along with some other course under the new GI Bill, he will receive both the flight allowance plus whatever other allowance he may be entitled to, depending on the course.

Normally, under the law, a post-Korean veteran will get one and one-half days of GI training for each day of service after Korea, up to a maximum, for most veterans, of 3 months. But flight trainees will use up their entitlement at the rate of one day for each $1.25 paid to them by the VA.

Provisions of the new Korean GI Bill should not be confused with the GI Bill for World War II veterans, VA said. Under the World War II law, the VA would pay all training costs directly to the school, and in addition would pay a veteran an allowance for subsistence if he were entitled to it. Under the Korean GI Bill, a single payment is made to the veteran.

Also, the World War II act contained a provision requiring a veteran to show that his flight training would not be used for avocational or recreational purposes. The Korean act includes no such requirement for flight training.

Although the Korean GI Bill is now in effect, the law states that no payments may be made for any period prior to August 20.

PRICKLY HEAT RASH WILL CURE ITSELF, COOLING BATHS HELP

Mothers agree that prickly heat is a nuisance during hot weather, but there's not very much they can do about it except give junior a cooling bath, clip his fingernails and let him sweat it out, advises a University of Michigan dermatologist.

These itchy, little red spots are actually under the skin, Dr. E. Richard Harrell Jr., clinical instructor in dermatology states. They are produced when sweat ducts swell shut from heat and block off the perspiration from reaching the surface.

He points out that sweat is usually an acid and very irritating when the duct closes. This forces the perspiration to swell out under the skin and show through as a tiny, red blotch.

Scratching at these spots to relieve the itching is a possible danger because of infection, he asserts. Prickly heat takes care of itself and heals normally without aid. However, frequent baths are soothing to the itchy skin when the rash is present.

The obstructed sweat ducts eventually open by themselves, Dr. Harrell explains. Once the initial attack is over there is less likelihood it will return in a severe stage.

GET CHILDREN READY FOR OPENING OF SCHOOL

It's time to check up on the health needs of your youngsters who will enter school for the first time this fall...

The Department makes the products for the prevention of whooping cough, diphtheria, small pox and tetanus in its laboratories...

Your family physician will give the immunizations in many communities, preschool immunization and booster clinics are set up through the cooperation of the local medical society and the local health department.

The health department recommends, too, that parents show the child the safest route to school and take him over it, pointing out hazards...

Those who had their shots as infants require only a single booster to raise their level of protection to where there is no danger of their contracting the illnesses...

The versatility of cotton, she contends, makes it a good year-round fabric. And you can begin looking for "winterized" cottons now as fall clothes appear on store racks.

Many cotton dresses will be seen that are suitable for fall when light summer cottons are not appropriate, Miss Eastman forecast.

In back-to-school clothes, tweedy cotton plaids for dresses will be serviceable investments, Miss Eastman suggested, and taffetized cottons—so good for summer—will still be with us in dressier styles.

A word of caution, though—look for a label to indicate washability of these new winter cottons. A label should tell whether the new, special finishes require dry cleaning or not.

When company comes over during warm August days set out all of the "fixings" and let them make their own sandwiches. They will enjoy the informality and how it will save you!

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Walters farm about 90 acres in St. Clair County. They are general farmers with a milking herd of 12 cows. They also keep 200 to 500 laying hens, and raise 500 broilers a year.

The Walters keep their farm freezer packed with meats, fruits and vegetables, either home-grown or purchased. Mrs. Walters says she doesn't know how they would get along without it.

FRUIT AND GARDEN NOTES - by Willard E. Bosserman - Assistant County Agr'l Agent - POTATO LATE BLIGHT

Potato late blight was found July 23, for the first time during the current season, in the southern part of Emmet County. Two fields on the same farm were affected. The seed for these fields was from last year's uninfected crop and from the localized initially infected plants, the disease was carried over in the seed tubers.

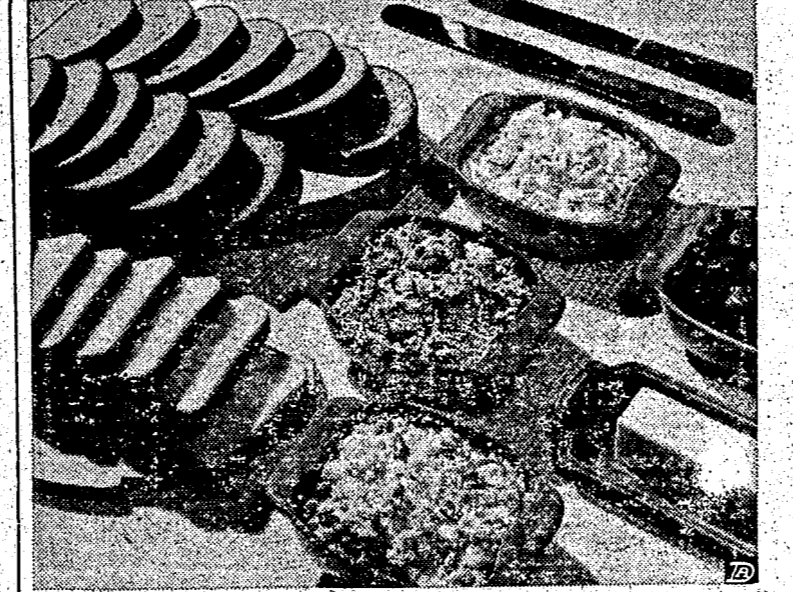

Past experience shows that when precipitation in July reaches 4 inches or more with warm days and slightly cooler nights, conditions are present for the development of late blight in the fields.

When should you buy? Kramer says, "If you plan to buy feeder cattle this fall and have pasture now, buy your cattle now. They might be a little lower in price later on, but your cattle will have become acclimated and the gains they put on between now and October will cheaper them in line with October market price."

The traffic record for the first six months of the year also included 21,657 injuries and 77,255 accidents. Injuries decreased 498, or two per cent, under 22,155, and accidents decreased 8,128, or ten per cent under 85,383.

The gain in fatalities was attributed largely to an increase in multiple death accidents.

State Police accident statistics for the past five years show that, on an average, 41 per cent of each annual fatality toll occurs during the first six months. On that basis it has been estimated 1952 deaths will total about 1,750. The highest traffic death toll ever recorded in Michigan was 2,175 in 1937.

Estimated travel for the first five months of this year was 9.4 billion miles, an increase of one per cent over the 9.3 billion miles last year. However, the death rate of 5.99 per 100 million miles of travel was two per cent below the 6.13 for the same period in 1951.

TRAFFIC DEATHS GAIN IN FIRST HALF OF YEAR

Michigan traffic accounted for 166 deaths during June, bringing the toll for the first six months of the year to 728. This was an increase of 18, or three per cent, over the 710 in the same period last year and, on the basis of previous trends, indicates the 1952 fatality record may exceed the 1951 total of 1,640 by at least 100.

According to the State Police monthly statistical report, it was the highest June death toll since 1941, when 178 were killed. Compared with the same month of the previous year, it was an increase of 29, or 21 per cent, over 137. On the other hand, injuries dropped 408 or nine per cent, 4,057 under 4,460. Accidents decreased 2,090, or 15 per cent, 12,313 under 14,403.

Red Cross News

Stifling heat, summer vacations and a national steel strike weakened the pulse of Oakland County's "lifeline to Korea" during July.

But they didn't stop it. Oakland County men and women turned out to give 439 pints of blood at American Red Cross "Blood-mobile" visits here last month.

"This is below our year-round monthly quota", Mrs. John D. Monroe of Pontiac, blood program chairman for Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, said today. "But considering the heat, vacations, summer flu and layoffs, it was a good turnout."

Mrs. Monroe said volunteers are now busy scheduling blood "clinics" for September. Oakland County will need a dozen successful bloodmobile visits each month to keep up the monthly quota of 946 pints.

South Oakland men and women donated 124 pints in a one-day visit at St. John's Episcopal Church, Royal Oak—a good collection, she said. Pontiac held up its end, giving 176 pints at a one-day stop at the Elks' Temple.

The local chapter released 248 pints of the life-saving fluid to local people in civilian hospitals last month, Mrs. Monroe said. But the entire Detroit region felt the effects of weather and waning paychecks.

A total of 5,592 pints of blood were donated in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties during the month. Red Cross officials say collections ordinarily run 7,000 to 8,000 pints.

The Detroit Regional Blood Center released 1,131 pints of blood to the Armed Forces during July. Over three thousand pints went to patients in civilian hospitals in the three counties.

A young Oakland County soldier arrived home from Korea this week in time to spend the last days of his mother's life at her bedside—thanks to American Red Cross.

The soldier—whose name was withheld by Oakland County Red Cross officials for the family's sake—had just arrived in Korea when an operation revealed his mother had only days to live.

A family doctor, discovering the mother's unexpectedly serious condition, immediately called Arthur Robertson of Pontiac, emergency worker for American Red Cross. A wire winged its way to Washington, D. C., where Red Cross officials met with military men. Within 48 hours after Robertson's telephone rang, the youth was granted a 30-day leave.

Arriving in San Francisco by plane, the serviceman ran against another snag—the price of a flight across the country. Red Cross again came through, lending him the price of the plane trip to Michigan—and to his home, to be with his mother during the last hours of her life.

Here's a hint for berry pickers who may have gotten stains on rayon clothes. If it is washable rayon, rinse the stain thoroughly with warm water and if the stain persists use a mild bleaching solution (on white fabric only) and then rinse in a weak solution of vinegar and water. For non-washable rayons, sponge with lukewarm water immediately, recommend Michigan State College home economists.

Here's a quick and delicious Coffee Iceing for summertime cakes: Blend 3 1/2 cups sifted confectioners sugar, 1/2 cup soft vitaminized margarine, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 egg yolk and 5 to 6 tablespoons strong coffee. Beat until fluffy and easy to spread. Makes enough frosting for one 10-inch cake.

A little sugar added to the water in which you boil corn will add flavor. Do not add salt until corn is done for salt will toughen it.

Nothing is more enticing to a willed August appetite than a cool, colorful fruit salad. On individual plates arrange crisp lettuce, then melon balls, pineapple, peaches and other fruit. Top with Green Mayonnaise, made by thinning real mayonnaise with lemon juice to taste, then tinting it a delicate green with vegetable food color.

A small soft brush is invaluable as a laundry aid. Use it to clean soiled glove fingertips, blouse necklines, cuff folds, slip straps and hemlines.

Many farmers in the county have become interested in establishing a trench silo to supplement their regular up-right silo. Folks around Oxford will have an opportunity to see one at the Dick Lister farm on Seymour Lake Road. Dick put his in this spring. I have heard of one or two others but I have not seen them yet. I would be glad to hear from anyone who has one in the county in use.

A new dairy bulletin "Reducing Dairy Costs on Michigan Farms" has just been published by Michigan State College. As you can see from the title it concerns the economics of dairy management. One of the most promising cost reduction possibilities mentioned is improved hay and forage production and harvesting. It has many other points of interest that can help farmers in doing a better management job. Copies of this bulletin can be obtained from our office in Pontiac.

Sand box toys can include a few discarded kitchen utensils such as colanders, strainers, pans and scoops. Even tin cans will delight the toddlers if the cans are painted to resist rust and have no sharp edges.

It is wasteful to start cooking vegetables in cold water—have the water at a rolling boil before you put in vegetables, say Michigan State College home economists. And don't add baking soda to the cooking water, for soda destroys precious vitamins.
