USE OF PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

Petroleum products can be servants or destroyers — it all depends on how they are used, according to David Steinicke, Michigan State College extension safety specialist.

He said that gases and vapors from these products may be ignited by a flame, a spark or excessive heat. Explosions have occurred from gases and vapors ignited several hundred feet away from where the flammable liquids are stored or handled.

Here are some suggestions for farmers. Never refuel a tractor while the motor is running or extremely hot. Check fuel lines frequently to avoid leaky connections. Flammable liquids should never be drawn or handled in the presence of an open flame or other sources of ignition.

An underground tank with a pump is the safest method of storing gasoline. Next best method of storing gasoline supplies is in a well-constructed steel tank, located at least 40 feet from farm buildings. If a separate enclosure is used, it should permit vapors to escape in case of a leak or spill.

All gasoline containers should be labeled, painted red, and of an approved safety type. Kerosene should be kept in containers of a different color, shape, and size, and be properly labeled to eliminate chances of error. Gasoline, mistaken for kerosene, has been the cause of many farm deaths and burns.

an opportunity to talk with older students who began their campus living at a previous rendezvous and are serving as counselors for the three days. President Harlan Hatcher, Dean of Students Eric Walter and Dean of Women Deborah Bacon will also attend.

Pullets with deformities or weaknesses should be culled for market, he explains, while those with promising plumage, pigmentation and physical appearance are being selected for the new laying flock.

U-M STUDENTS TO DISCUSS ROLE OF RELIGION

Some 120 high school graduates entering the University of Michigan this month will attend a Freshman Rendezvous September 12-14 to discuss campus problems they will encounter and the place of religion in solving them.

Sponsored by the University's Student Religious Association, the event will be held at the U-M Fresh Air Camp on Patterson Lake near Pinckney.

Questions relating to special fields of study, such as engineering, medicine and political science, will be considered by the students in small groups with outstanding faculty members from those fields as group leaders.

RECREATION BOARD TO START FOOTBALL CLINIC

A football clinic sponsored by the Waterford Township Recreation Board will start on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 20, from 1 to 3 at the Waterford Township High School football field.

This program is for boys in the 6th and 7th grades. All football skills will be taught. There will be no strenuous body contact work which might result in an injury.

Proper instruction in the basic skill in football at this age lessens the chance of injuries in sandlot games or later in varsity football.

We believe football is one of the greatest games of all because it challenges the players' skill, courage, pride and physical ability — it develops the will to play and work with others.

This program is offered to potential players who never had a chance to make a team because they entered High School without the proper background of skill and experience.

The Board believes the players who learn the basic fundamentals of football during his developing years will have a good chance of making a team and enjoying the thrills of the game. Football played skillfully and under proper supervision is fun and makes a valuable contribution to a young man's development.

Players will not need any special equipment or pads. Just wear old pants and a sweat shirt and either tennis or football shoes.

This program will be coached by Byron Merritt and William Terry assisted by the members of the varsity football team.

NEWS AND COMMENT CONGRESSMAN GEO. DONDERO SEAWAYS AT HOME AND ABROAD

A legislative bill to authorize American participation with Canada in construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway was pigeonholed in the late 82nd Congress by Senator Tom Connally of Texas, who was chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Connally since has retired from the Senate.
The share of the United States in defraying the cost of St. Lawrence Seaway construction would have been little more than $600,000,000 and possibly much less. But Senator Connally, long an enemy of the seaway project, said he thought such a vast expenditure would be unwise, in view of war mobilization costs.
Subsequent to Connally's action in pigeonholing the Seaway Bill,

Canadian authorities announced that Canada would build the seaway without American assistance. Thus Canada undertook to spend in the neighborhood of $1.2 billion on the project. It was said that "Canadian seaway bonds would be sold largely in the United States."
All of this, of course, is unfortunate from the standpoint of American economic welfare. Unfortunately because American vessels outnumber Canadian vessels on the Great Lakes and on the high seas, and because American shipping interests manifestly would make far greater use of the seaway than would those of Canada. American steel plants soon will depend on iron ore from Labrador.

The net result of full ownership of the St. Lawrence Seaway by Canada would be that American shippers would pay almost all of the cost of the project through tolls paid to the Canadian government. But Canada would continue to own the seaway. Only a few American bond investors would benefit over a few years, until the bonds could be liquidated out of tolls paid by American shippers. Americans should be mortified by this situation with respect to a seaway project of greatest benefit to themselves, in view of something the Economic Cooperation Administration, now called the Mutual Security Agency, is doing in France.
American tax dollars, eventually amounting almost to $2 billion, are being poured into a French seaway and power project which the French government refused to finance. The waterway, 354 miles long (much longer than the St. Lawrence Seaway) from the Mediterranean to Lake Geneva, calls for twenty-two dams and forty-six power stations.
Three of these dams, already completed or far advanced in construction, have cost American taxpayers $85,000,000—or about $85,000,000 more than our share of the St. Lawrence Seaway cost. Not only this, but the French project cannot possibly be completed for many years to come; probably not until long after the present possibility of war with Russia has been resolved. In the event of war in the next few years, the French project would be worthless.
Thus it appears that Senator Connally and other opponents have felt that the American people could not afford a seaway that would be a vital necessity in the event of a new World War, but could afford to spend billions for a project of doubtful value in Western Europe.
This kind of thing makes little sense. Because of the retirement of some of the opponents to the seaway, I feel that the long battle conducted by myself and others from the Middle West in behalf of the St. Lawrence Seaway project, may have better success in the forthcoming 83rd Congress. Success probably will have to come next year, unless we want the Canadians to build and own the seaway and make us pay for it.

GM to Sponsor Football Telecasts

General Motors will sponsor the television football "Game of the Week" this year on the nationwide-63 television station network of NBC. In co-operation with the National Collegiate Athletic Association, GM will televise 11 selected games on successive Saturdays during the football season, concluding with the traditional Army-Navy game in Philadelphia November 29. The first game to be televised will be the Kansas-Texas Christian game at Lawrence, Kan., September 20. William F. Hulstader, GM vice-president in charge of distribution staff, is shown signing the contract for the games as Asa S. Bushnell, NCAA official (center), and Paul Garrett, vice-president of public relations staff for GM, look on.

Cuts are the most common injury and so Miss Meyer suggests take precautions by avoiding improper use and storage of knives, broken china and glass and sharp-edged cans and metal parts on tools and equipment.
Never throw sharp knives in a drawer with other tools, she warns, and don't put them in a dishpan with other dishes. A knife rack should be within easy reach and so constructed that the hand does not come in contact with sharp points or edges.
Burns are the second most common injuries. Usually they result from carelessness and thoughtlessness. So, suggests Miss Meyer, turn on hot water faucets cautiously, turn pan handles away from the edge of the range so they can't be knocked or pulled off, and use pans that have flat bottoms with securely fastened, well-balanced handles. Other means of avoiding burns are to prepare a place to set a pan of hot food before removing it from the stove; have plenty of pot-holders within easy reach of the range; keep matches in tin or glass containers and out of children's reach; provide children a safe place to play in or near the kitchen, but out of the working area.
Falls rank high as cause of injuries and care should be taken to prevent them, she said. Keep floors and floor coverings in good repair and free from spilled foods.

Plate products, microscopic count, or a reduction time of not less than four hours as measured by the methylene blue test.

Lift truck boosts profits for fruit growers

Fruit growers who handle 10,000 crates a year can realize generous savings on labor and equipment costs by using a fork lift truck. A recent study by agricultural engineers of Michigan State College and the U. S. Department of Agriculture revealed this saving: In 1950, without a lift truck, a 25,000-bushel apple crop was moved from orchard to storage by 2 tractors, 4 orchard trailers and 7 men. In 1951 a similar crop was handled by a lift truck with 2 tractors and only 2 trailers and 3 men. Savings on loading and unloading operations alone amounted to $1,000 during the harvest season. Your County Agricultural Agent can give you further advice on mechanizing your orchard operation.

Why we pamper telephone poles
Did you know timber for telephone poles is growing scarce? And that the cost of a single pole has more than doubled since 1940? To insure a proper supply, and to help keep costs down, Michigan Bell is using new timber species such as Western Larch. And to prolong the life of telephone poles on the job, telephone engineers constantly take advantage of new and better timber preservatives. Michigan Bell's pampered poles are further evidence of a continuing effort to hold costs down while keeping the quality of telephone service high.

More people are injured in the home than any other place. And more injuries to women seem to occur in the kitchen than any other room. With those startling facts in mind, Olevia Meyer of the Michigan State College home management department, offers some concrete suggestions about making your home a safer place to live.
A self-closing door is required between milk house and stable in place of the vestibule which was or still may be required by some local markets. Minimum size standards of the milk house have not been specified by law, but ten by 12 feet should be the minimum for convenience of the operator.
Quality standards are that milk must test not less than three percent butterfat. The bacteria count must be not more than 100,000 per cubic centimeter, as determined by

SUGGESTIONS TO HOMEMAKERS ON SAFETY
The amendments to the milk law recently passed by the legislature are of particular interest to dairymen, who sell milk and cream for direct consumption or bottling purposes. The amendments which become effective September 17, 1952, have to do with milk house and equipment for handling the product, and minimum quality standards. The law now states that milk houses are required to contain facilities for cleaning and storing equipment; a two-compartment wash tank, metal rack for storing utensils and a water heater. Milk houses must contain facilities for cooling, handling and storing milk.

"THIS OUR FATHERS BOUGHT FOR US..."

★ Kipling was speaking of precious human freedom when he wrote, "This our fathers bought for us long and long ago." But courage and valor are not solely the virtues of brave fighting men in combat. It took no less courage for men like Pasteur, Lister, Koch, and hosts of others to struggle for scientific truth against cries of heresy from the ignorant and the superstitious. Inspired by the example of these great men, your physician battles the same foes today. At his side is the pharmacist, always eager to carry the fight to the enemy.

ELECTRIC POWER to keep America free!

Electric power is the world's most productive worker... economical, efficient, and so much in demand that American homes, farms and factories are using over twice as much today as they did in 1940—nearly half of the entire world's output.

Electricity is indeed a basic resource for America industry and the power behind America's Production for Freedom.

ATOMIC ENERGY...
Detroit Edison and Dow Chemical engineers, working as a team, are now searching for ways to harness atomic energy for the production of electricity. They are trying for even better ways to serve our electric power area and the nation.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Narrow Town—Broad Outlook

The wife's cousin Ben, and Belle his bride ate back from honeymooning in the Rockies. Took them to dinner last night at the Garden Tavern. Ben told about the trip:
"Went through a town in Idaho that was only 100 feet wide. No kidding! Built into a long, narrow canyon. And it shares those 100 feet with a railroad track that runs right through the hotel!"
"To get gas there we had to park right on the tracks. Suddenly Belle screams—"there's a train coming!" But the gas fellow just laughs and says we were there first. Blamed if the engineer didn't stop the train and wait, too!"

From where I sit, it's a good illustration of how people can learn to "think of the other fellow" so that the community benefits. Railroaders and townspeople, Democrats and Republicans, malted milk fanciers and those who prefer a temperate glass of beer—we all have to share the same space. Let's maintain our neighbor's "right of way."

Whisky Dick, Bud Everett, also of Fenton, second with Mr. Mac King; Bill Kirsch of Davison third with Flashy Fritz; Ronald Turnbull of Ortonville fourth with Honey. The next class, Ponies in Harness up to and including 46" was put off for some time because expected participants hadn't arrived yet. It was held later and the lone entry, Clackie, shown by Sharon Burpee, received the trophy. Pleasure Horse, Western, was the largest class with 43 entries; the judge, Thor Nielsen, had a difficult task selecting the winners. Glenn Walton on Pedro rode off with the coveted first prize, trophy donated by O'Dell's Drug Store of Clarkston; Jack the Barber on Buckshot received second, Ronny Syton of Ortonville on Luckie won third, Larry Bowers of Fowlerville on Toney won fourth. In Pleasure Horse, English, Mary Hague of Fenton really was a pretty picture on her Country Gentleman and captured the trophy donated by Dr. and Mrs. John Knapman of Flint. Lennie Bernhard of Grand Blanc received second riding Captain Ginger. Betty Brackney of Flint on Stormy Weather won third, Dotty Ann Ellis of Birmingham on Silver took fourth. Three prizes were awarded in the Three-Gaited, open class; Evelyn Dixel of Flint with her Aces Trinet, won the trophy donated by an anonymous "Friend of the Dixie Saddle Club"; Mary Hague second with Country Gentleman, Lennie Bernhard took third with Captain Ginger. When you see an event such as Musical Stalls for children 1-10 years, you wonder at the dexterity with which they handle their horses and the speed with which they manage to capture a "stall" when the music stops suddenly. First prize, trophy donated by Miller's Variety Store of Pontiac was triumphantly carried off by Sharon Burpee (a familiar name now) on Tex; second prize went to Lona Nelson on Tony; third went to Bobby Ehgois of Milford on Charleston and fourth went to Kay Minton on Betts. In the next class, Musical Stalls, 11-15 yrs., one really could sense some fast riding; George Lang of Clarkston riding Star copped the trophy donated by Waterford Hardware; Ann Wright on King received second prize, Kent See on Irish won third, Allen Vance on Champ took fourth. All the winners are members of the Dixie Saddle Club.

Speed and Action is a timed event and 37 riders and horses competed. First prize, trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Palmer was won by Gary Stallard of Clarkston on Honey; third went to Forrest Gault of Milford on Trigadore; fourth to Tom Teichman of Durand on Dusty. There was only one entry in the class Five-Gaited, Amateur, Little Mary Sunshine, owned by George Perry. In the Tennessee Walking Horse class Keith White of Ortonville with his beautiful Midnite Fairy, captured first prize, trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ellis; second prize went to his son Nelson White's horse The Peacock; third prize to Buddy, ridden by Harold Feldman owned by Carole McManigal. The two Colt classes, English and Western, were held simultaneously and elicited cries of "how cute" and "darling". Mrs. John Knapman of Flint showing her Ace Bugle Song won first prize, trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. George Perry; Lyle Garnett of Rochester second with Autumn Serenade; Bob Stuart of Flushing third with Genius Sho-Art; Bill Albro, also of Flushing, fourth with Belvidere Boy. In the Western class the colts were placed as follows: first, trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carson won by Brandy Sharbauer, shown by Art Sampson of Flint; second, Amata's Valentine, shown by Skippy Book of Milford; third, Ginger, shown by Sharon Burpee of Gaines; fourth, Topper, shown by Dolan Palmer. The next event, Musical Barrels, is for grown-ups and the equivalent of the children's Musical Stalls; it is a hard and rough riding number, lot of fun to take it, and lots of fun to do if you can take it; 27 entries — but the more the merrier! And the girls won out with "first, second and third place. Boots Steinmetz of Durand on Belle Star received the trophy donated by Berg Cleaners of Clarkston; Rachel Van Leuven (secretary of the Michigan Rangers) of Davidsburg second, on Dolly; third was Joyce Spooner of Clarkston on Peanut; fourth was Forrest Gault of Milford on Trigadore.

Some very beautiful horses were shown in the Palomino class; King's Pretty Penny took highest honors; owner: Bethany Bessars of Fenton; Glenn Ellis rode Regent owned by John Dykstra and received second prize, Nugget owned by I. Overstay of Dearborn under Sharon Horne took third; Rainbow's End under James Ellis of Birmingham got fourth prize. In the Spotted and Painted Horses the fast Pedro ridden by Glen Walters was awarded the trophy donated by Howe's Lanes of Clarkston; American Victory under Loretta Bessars was second, Mary under Pat Creighton was third, Luckie under Ronald Sutton was fourth.

The Three-Gaited, amateur class meant a first prize, trophy by Clarkston Dairy Bar for Ace's Trinet ridden by Evelyn Dixel of Flint; second prize for Country Gentleman by Mary Hague of Fenton, third for Stormy Weather by Betty Brackney of Flint, fourth for Captain Ginger by Lennie Bernhard of Grand Blanc. Both the Stallion classes, Western and English were judged at the same time; in the first Amata, the Arabian stallion owned by Dr. Book of Milford won the trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blackett. Mr. Mac King, owned by Bud Everett of Fenton took second, Toney, owned by Larry Bowers of Fowlerville took third, and Flicker owned by Wm. R. Techien of Saginaw, shown by Robert deShon, fourth. In the English class Autumn Serenade, owned and shown by Lyle M. Garnett of Rochester won the trophy donated by Easy's Super Market; Genius Sho-Art owned and shown by Bob Stuart of Flushing got second prize; Belvidere's Boy owned by Gladys Stuart, shown by Bill Albro, third and Marked Master, owned and shown by Harold Feldman of Oxford, fourth.

The next event, Bending race for 16 yrs. and over, brought out the laughs again. The race was close. Joyce Spooner streaked across the ring with Peanut's who gracefully "bent" his way between the barrels; her time was 15.5 seconds. Laurie Cornwell on Rocket made it in 16.5 seconds; Tom Fishman on Dusty in 17.2 seconds. The trophy had been donated by Beattie Motor Sales of Waterford.

In the 6-gaited open class Glenn Ellis received the trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. Keith White of Ortonville for Brent Denmark, owned by John Knapman of Flint; George Perry got second for Little Mary Sunshine. The mare kept neighing for her colt which had been shown earlier in the day, and Mr. Perry had his hands full keeping the mare at her gait when Missy Star, the colt, answered her mother.

The Relay Race for Clubs was one of the most exciting events; the trophy had been won 2 years in succession by the Shiawassee Boots and Saddle Club. Now there were 5 clubs competing. Each club team consisted of 3 members; after completing a full turn of the ring a stick had to be passed (within a space marked by barrels) from the first member to the second, then again from the second to the third. The time clocked for each team tells the story: Shiawassee Boots and Saddle Club of Durand, 1st in 50 seconds; Dixie Saddle Club consisting of young boys, 2nd in 52 seconds; Utica Saddle Club, 3rd in 55 seconds; Michigan Rangers, consisting of all girls, 4th in 57 seconds; Huron Valley Saddle Club of Milford, 5th in 60 seconds.

One of the highlights of the show was a beautiful Palomino mare, Shiny Gold, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John deVissier of Bloomfield Hills and trained by Charles Grant. Mrs. Grant announced over the microphone explaining the Dressage work this mare performed, such as side stepping, slow trot, cakewalk, bowing, etc. Shiny Gold was bred and raised by Mr. and Mrs. Don Porritt of Pontiac and sired by Palomino Rainbow's End.

The show was drawing to a close with the Balloon Race, but the enthusiasm was not waning. 19 horsemen and women chased each other all over trying to burst each other's balloons. Fastened to the arms; as the balloons popped and the number of riders grew smaller, the excitement mounted and the circle in which they milled around was made smaller, until finally the 4 victors were announced: 1st prize went to Dave Miller of Springfield on Tony; 2nd to Gary Nelson of Clarkston on Fox; 3rd to George Lang of Clarkston on Star; 4th to Connie Grubbaugh of Clarkston on Rex.

Another show was over and everybody had had a fine time;

Custom Printing at its Best

We do the entire job from linotype to bindery in our own shop.

The Clarkston News

The judges had been careful to give every horse and rider his due. Ed Fallon of Clarkston was judge for the English classes; Thor Nielsen of Fenton for the Western classes; ringmasters were George A. Perry for English, Arnold (Stony) Nelson for Western. They were ably assisted by other members of the club, notably, Ardie Grubbaugh. The announcer was Earl Gail.

The show committee, of which Harry D. Waggner was chairman, expressed their thanks to everybody, especially the merchants and The Clarkston News who had aided the club so generously.

The new buildings which had been designed, erected and painted for the most part by members of the club, did much to give the grounds a cheery and prosperous look. All volunteers who ran the refreshment stand so efficiently, stood at the gate for the admission receipts, handled the registration and other paper work connected with the show, supervised the parking of cars, mowed the grass on the grounds or spread sawdust where needed, or just plain ran errands when and wherever a call came, may feel repaid for their time and troubles by the great success of the day.
