Robert V. Taylor Dies Suddenly

On Wednesday morning of last week Clarkston was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Robert V. Taylor, one of the town's business men. He passed away at his home at 6528 Waldon Road following a heart attack. He was born in Detroit January 13, 1922, the son of Arnold and Blanche Vincent Taylor.

Mr. Taylor came to Clarkston a little over 5 years ago and purchased the 5 Cents to a Dollar Store.

He is survived by his wife, Zella; three sons, Arnold, Paul and Mark, and his mother, Mrs. Blanche Taylor of Detroit.

The funeral service was held at The Clarkston Baptist Church, with the Sharpe Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. The Reverend George Halk officiated. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery.

Little over two years ago, the Women's Association, determined to have more Sunday school space, began a series of these, although successful, were most difficult to serve. Planks were placed on the backs of the pews, vertically, to form a long table from which the dinners were served cafeteria style and the diners then filled the tables on the rostrum. The food was carried in from individual homes and kept hot either in a large electric roaster, or heavy aluminum and steel pots and pans. After a year of this great inconvenience it became possible for the ladies to obtain the Sashabaw school kitchen and dining room. Since that time the very popular smorgasbord dinners have been served and the crowds attending each event have been most generous with their free will offerings, thus making it possible for the work on the church to begin.

Generous donations from others, not members of the church, but with an interest either in the church proper, or the Sashabaw cemetery adjacent, have come in to facilitate the work. One of these came from far outstate from a family who were residents on the Plains in the early 1900's and whose memoirs accompanied their check in a very splendid letter.

With the beginning of the work on the church, the women's organization is doubling its efforts to swell the building fund. They will give another smorgasbord dinner on Saturday, November 8, carrying out a Thanksgiving menu. They will begin serving at 5:30 at the Sashabaw school. Roast turkey will be plentiful, supplemented by the traditional bill-of-fare for this season of the year.

Aside from the building fund, the choir is sponsoring a fund for the purchase of an organ and are about to begin a canvass of the entire community. They are also working on a plan whereby a memorial plaque of bronze may be placed on the organ. If you are interested in having a name on the plaque contact the choir members or leader.

Work Starts On Sashabaw Church

It wasn't the Halloweeners who moved the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church off its foundation, should passersby on Maybee Road wonder. At long last the dreams of the Sashabaw folks are being realized and the basement is being dug. Once completed the church will be moved back to its original position and work on the addition will begin and thereafter the entire renovation of the church interior will be instituted.

This little white church which has served the community for more than a century is being revitalized that it might serve for another hundred years and more the fast growing Sashabaw vicinity.

Little over two years ago, the Women's Association, determined to have more Sunday school space, began a series of these, although successful, were most difficult to serve. Planks were placed on the backs of the pews, vertically, to form a long table from which the dinners were served cafeteria style and the diners then filled the tables on the rostrum. Girl Scout News tances, the parents would be wise to contribute the money which they otherwise would have spent on them anyway, and for the time that they had planned to do so. There should be an understanding that the financial help is temporary, and that the young folks will be completely on their own as soon as they have completed their educations and secured a job.

It has been proved that a married student is a better student; no emotional frustrations to depress him, or upheavals to distract him. A working student is also a better student; the pressure of work and study both makes for more efficiency, better organization, fuller utilization of time; it gives also a sense of achievement, a glow of personal satisfaction.

Needless to say, there are limits of intelligence, of endurance, of energy which have to be taken in consideration. But if the young folks are sure of their choice of a mate, are healthy and ambitious, willing and able to provide for their share of the finances, I would, as a parent, give them my blessing and the support I had planned for them anyway.

Four Clarkston Teachers Honored

The Misses Maxine Bachand, Marguerite Bennett, Ruth Sharpe and Mrs. Ralph Thayer were initiated into the National Honor Society of Delta Kappa Gamma on Saturday, November 1, at the Waldron Hotel in Pontiac.

Two new chapters were installed following a 1 o'clock luncheon. The Clarkston teachers will be charter members of the Alpha Gamma Chapter. Miss Ola Hiller of Flint, State President of the Society led in the installations.

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society was organized in Texas in 1929 with the purpose of unifying teachers, in enriching their lives, in proposing high standards for teachers and working for better citizens in the youth of our land.

Miss Ruth Sharpe was elected corresponding secretary of the chapter.

Random Thoughts

SUPPORT — When a boy and a girl are both still preparing themselves for a career through long years of study, then love each other in such a way that marriage seems to be the only solution to realize their human fulfillment, a problem arises. To put off marriage until they are completely self-supporting seems like throwing away years of happiness, and it will cause frustration and emotional stresses bound to make themselves felt in their attitudes, in their future outlook, and in the success of their studies. But to chance marriage with so little income as the basis for their livelihood that their health might be impaired, and new daily problems will sap their energy and undermine their enthusiasm; is no solution either.

Since the young people's parents have been providing the funds required for their study, and their "keep" at home, the couple's problem becomes also the parents' problem. What should they do to help the children? They do want to help, but hesitate to have it take the form of financial aid for fear that they will make it too easy for the young folks; that — in short — their help would be morally wrong.

If we define morals as the customs approved by society, aimed at producing good men, and women, it is necessary for us to re-examine those morals — from time to time since conditions and society do change. We are apt to lag behind in our memory of what is the right thing to do, or we have come to associate certain behavior with certain conditions. For instance: we used to think that a man should be able to support his wife (preferably even "in the way she is accustomed") before he proposes marriage. That was based on a society where the woman was not trained, nor expected to make her own living; that was also set in a period when a man could count on making a living after a few years of study or apprenticeship; the professions requiring many years of study were commonly reserved for those young men whose families had wealth.

We are not living under those conditions now, and would not wish them back, if we could. We should therefore examine realistically what actually is the case now. The girl is trained and expects to earn her own livelihood; the young people have often to devote many years of study to the highly specialized field which they have chosen; professions and trades are open to people of all classes and means. But it takes longer before they are financially self-supporting.

I don't know why parents should feel that all responsibility towards their children ends when they marry. Why couldn't the older folks keep on paying for the children's education and additional expenses as they had planned originally. If the parents of both boy and girl would contribute that much, the young couple could find work and earnings besides their studies to provide for the expenses of their separate house-keeping. For this I would stress: no outright and complete support; no all-over dependency of the young folks on the finances of the parents. The children do establish an independence of their own by removing themselves from their families and starting a unit of their own, and this carries with it responsibilities to them.

But if they are eager and able to provide their share of the fi-

More Needed For United Fund

Have you given to the United Fund? Independence Township is falling below its quota and a special appeal is being made to those who have not contributed. Please leave a donation at the Clarkston State Bank. Mrs. Robert Waters and the other workers who gave of their time generously would appreciate your help. Let's make a good record in this Township. A little from every person would make the quota.

Stop in at the Clarkston State Bank this weekend and give. This is a donation that is really worth while. Remember that when you give to the United Fund you are giving to many funds. There is just one campaign for all.

Newlyweds Tour Northern Michigan

Last Saturday evening at eight o'clock the Clarkston Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Gail Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Robertson of 23 S. Holcomb Street, Clarkston and Stanley J. Nivelt, Jr., of Pontiac, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Nivelt of Detroit spoke their nuptial vows before one hundred and fifty guests.

The Reverend Robert M. Atkins officiated at the candlelight ceremony before an altar banked with palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted with cathedral candelabra. The altar vases were filled with white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her gown of lustrous white satin, enriched with Chantilly lace. The molded lace bodice was designed with long, tapered sleeves and a high neckline finished at the throat in the curved motif of the rose-patterned material. The Chantilly extended to a fluted scallop below the waist, and the extremely full satin skirt swept gracefully to a train. Her fingertip veil of sheer illusion was held in place by a pearl starred bonnet of lace and she carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis and white roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mary E. Curry of Clarkston, as maid of honor, was gowned in cinnamon brown tulle over taffeta fashioned with velvet bodice and tulle stole. She carried yellow Fugi chrysanthemums and ivy.

The bridesmaids were Patricia Panter of Williams Lake and Elaine Porritt of Clarkston. Their gowns were identical to the honor maid's except they were a dark green color. They carried bronze Fugi chrysanthemums and ivy.

All of the attendants wore head pieces of ivy and chrysanthemums to match their bouquets.

Henry Nivelt of Detroit assisted his brother as best man and seating the guests were Joe Orczykowski of New Baltimore, Mich., and Harold James of Berkley, Michigan.

Mrs. Jack Wignall played the traditional music and also accompanied Mrs. William Mansfield who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The base of the four tiered cake centering the table was encircled with white chrysanthemums and ficus and was flanked by lighted white candles in silver holders. Mrs. Robert McConkey of Durand, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and Delores McMullen and Geraldine Lang presided at the silver service. Barbara Waggener and Mrs. John Curry served the punch and Rosie Sarvis was in charge of the guest register.

Mrs. Robertson, mother of the bride, wore aqua, iridescent taffeta with a melon colored hat and other accessories of black and a corsage of rapture roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Nivelt was in black and

Following the reception, open house was held at the Robertson home on Holcomb Street.

When the young couple left to travel in northern Michigan the new Mrs. Nivelt was wearing a brown and green jersey dress with brown accessories and a beige and brown topper. At her shoulder was a corsage of white roses taken from her bridal bouquet. On their return they will reside at 9278 Waltham, Pontiac.

The bride is a graduate of the Clarkston High School. She and Mr. Nivelt both attended the Business Institute in Pontiac. He is a graduate of the Cass Technical High School in Detroit.

School Children Enjoy Libraries

On Wednesday, November 5th, the Elementary Libraries in Clarkston and Andersonville Schools opened to the children under the direction of volunteer mothers, Mrs. Jack Jyleen, Mrs. Ralph Kreger, Mrs. W. LaDuke and Mrs. Allan Hinz. Over 150 children in each of these schools were given the privilege of wandering along the rows of bookshelves partly filled with the best in children's books. Books are fun to these children, for long past are the days when a child's book meant a thinly disguised geography lesson or a pious moral tale designed solely to instruct. The demands of children have resulted in books that have life, honesty and imaginative quality.

With the increase in size of the community so comes the increase in the demands of the children for more reading material. To meet these new demands and to add to the libraries the Elementary Library Board with the P. T. A. is entertaining everyone in the community at a Silver Tea on November 13th at 3:30 at the High School. It is hoped that each one will plan to drop in that afternoon for a cup of tea, a look at the newest in children's books; the privilege of hearing Florence Selden's review of a very recent publication and an opportunity to give money toward additional books for the three libraries.

KINDERGARTEN

This past week we were busy making things for our Halloween party on Friday. We made pumpkins, witches, black cats and orange and black chains to decorate the room with. On Thursday we cut out a face for our pumpkin and put him in the window where everyone could see him. Johnny Jones brought us a pumpkin, so we had lots of Halloween decorations to make our room pretty.

Friday we had lots of fun at our party. We played "Drop the pins in the bottle" and Elizabeth Hungertord won the prize for getting in the most pins. Janice Powers was our winner for the ball game. For refreshments we had ice cream and doughnuts and Mrs. Carlson sent us some very attractive cookies in the shape of clovers and pumpkins.

In the afternoon we had a parade through all grades to show them our costumes. We had witches, ghosts, devils and many other humorous characters in our parade. Helping with our party were Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. Schwarze, Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Hungerford.

SECOND GRADE — Burley

We had our popcorn sale Wednesday. We cleared about eleven dollars.

Our manners have not been very good, especially at lunch time, so we have been talking about how we can eat mannerly and still enjoy our lunch. We don't want to be like the Coop family which we heard about in a story. We made wigwags from brown wrapping paper and three sticks this week.

Our Halloween party was last Friday afternoon. Everyone was dressed up and in the parade. We played games and had refreshments.

FIFTH GRADE — Miss Sharpe.

Friday afternoon we had our Halloween Party. We enjoyed the parade with all the various costumes. We want to thank our room mothers, Mrs. Merle Bennett, Mrs. John Kieft, Mrs. Andrew Sanford and Mrs. David Stewart for the refreshments and the entertainment.

We were happy to have so many parents visit our room last Monday night. We hope you will visit us during some time in the near future.

In geography we are studying the western states. We have made free hand drawings of the states.

We have also learned how to make line, bar, and circle graphs showing how much gold, silver, lead, etc. is mined in these states.

In health we are studying about teeth. We are learning the parts of the tooth and the functions of each.

SIXTH GRADE

We had Open House last Monday. About three hundred people visited our school. The guides showed the people around to different places in the school. All of the people liked the school.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The seventh graders faced defeat when the eighth graders beat them in a game of touch football. Nevertheless, lots of spirit was shown in spite of the cold day.

The geography students, with the assistance of Miss Swindell and Mr. Miller have made large maps of Germany on the bulletin boards. The agricultural and industrial products are illustrated.

The students celebrated Halloween by writing stories. In English classes the students are finishing their unit in manners and are making posters. In the math classes the seventh graders are making progress charts and are doing thought problems.

NORTHVILLE — 6 CLARKSTON — 6

With second place in the Wayne Oakland league at stake Clarkston and Northville fought to a thrilling 6-6 tie. Both teams had opportunities for scoring in the first half, but stellar defensive work sent the teams off at half time dead-locked 0-0. The third quarter saw passes intercepted, fumbles made, and field goals felled.

Midway through the fourth quarter a Northville player recovered a Clarkston fumble and ran for the touchdown. Try for the extra point was wide.

Clarkston came back quickly. Bullen returned the kickoff to Clarkston's forty. DeVar, Bullen and Abbott, with the aid of some fine blocking, moved the ball to the 2 yard line. Glenn Abbott dove over for the score. Colton's kick was blocked.

Standouts for Clarkston on defense were Claude Trim and Chuck Robertson.

A win over Clarenceville would give Clarkston a tie for second place in the league standings.

This week Clarkston journeys to Lake Orion for what should be a thriller. Let's get out and get behind our team.

MUSIC

Halloween and Fall themes carried out to songs, music listening, rhythmic expression and dramatization in all grades.

5th and 6th grades are making instruments—drums, shakers and various stringed instruments.

6th grade has special study—syncopation.

ART
Halloween room decorations—paper sculpture masks and torn-paper pictures.

(from last week)

NOON HOUR VOLLEYBALL

Clarkston High School has initiated an all-activities noon hour program for grades 7 through 12. The students, 150 participating, play together after they eat their lunch.

At present, they have just finished the first of a three-round volleyball elimination tournament. Winner of the first round in the boys division was team B7, featuring Bill Longton, Dave Barber, Lyle Lane, Earl Cohoon and led by Captain Ron Schebor.

Winner in the girls division was team G4 featuring Ann Letson, Ann Spohn, Carol Orr, Barbara Jones, Darlene Abare, Ellen Bilyeu and Lois McEntee.

Teams B7 and G4 will meet the winners of rounds 2 and 3 to determine who is division champion. The champs will get individual medals.

Volleyball is played Monday through Thursday, with Friday devoted to table tennis, wrestling, checkers and mixed dancing.

After volleyball, a basketball league will be the feature event.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Many of the seventh graders have made new resolutions to study now that report cards are out!

In science classes the students are studying materials and are learning about matter, solids, liquids and gases.

The English classes are discussing manners and are practicing introductions, etc. Each student is planning a project or a poster on this unit.

Line graphs are on the agenda in arithmetic classes.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES.

The treasurer's report was read and approved.

The committee for the Halloween party was divided into three different divisions: Bonfire committee, Dance committee and the Grade School children's committee.

The chairman and students working on the committees are as follows: bonfire - Terry Brown, chairman, Lorraine Scarborough, Gary Nelson, Russell Soffredine, Richard Johnston and Jamie Alexander; dance committee - John Bennett, chairman, Judy Walker, Marjorie Lunn, Sharon Glennie, Ginny Demski, Ira Pence, Kay Robinson and Tom Bullen; grade school committee - Pat Tisch, chairman, Sue O'Dell, Charlene Barber, Rea Waterworth, Peggy Garrett, Mary Dean, Harold Cameron and Sue Shanks.

Kay Robinson was appointed by President Terry Brown to ask Mr. Robinson, who is a Rotarian, how much food was bought for the Halloween party last year.

There was a discussion about advertising.

There were tentative plans made about getting the school dance band to play for the Halloween party. The band might agree to playing if the Student Council bought $10.00 worth of sheet music for their services.

It was suggested that Mr. and Mrs. Robinson come to the Halloween party for an hour or so to show the students various dances.

There was to have been a poll taken by each teacher, first hour, Tuesday morning, Oct. 21st, to find out how many students were coming to the Halloween party.

It was suggested to have a Barker in the halls sometime previous to the party to find out how many students were coming.

A report was given by President Terry Brown about topics that were taken up in the League Student Council meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 15th.

There was a brief discussion about assembly programs that were supposed to have been chosen by the Assembly Committee.

Surveys show that television families are away from home less frequently and attend fewer movies than those with no television sets. So, think of your television set as a unifying force in your family life and work toward that, suggest Michigan State College child development specialists.

Pheasant meat is similar to chicken except it is dryer; therefore, most chicken recipes are suitable for preparing pheasant.

Cooking pheasant in a covered roaster aids in retaining moisture.

Make a treat for your family breakfast—drizzle honey on cut grapefruit and let stand 15 or 20 minutes before serving. Broil the grapefruit halves under a gas or electric broiler until lightly browned for a dinner dessert, suggest Michigan State College home economists.

SERVICES START IN NEW EPISCOPAL CHAPEL

On Sunday, November 2, at 10:00 A. M., the Reverend William Conrad Hamm held his first service for St. Mary's Episcopal Chapel on Joslyn Road at Greenfield, near Lake Orion. The church has called him as its first vicar to start the new Episcopal work in that area. The church is located across from the Scripps Estate and formerly was used as the Scripps schoolhouse. The Chapel is being sponsored by the mother parish of All Saints, Pontiac, where the Reverend Ivor Curtis is the rector. The church is situated so as to serve the Lake Orion, Oxford, Clarkston and Lake Angelus communities.

For the last ten years the Reverend Mr. Hamm has been rector of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit, on Woodward Ave., at Holbrook. While there, the mortgage of $30,000.00 was paid off and the church was consecrated by the late Bishop Creighton. Mr. Hamm was the founder of St. Joseph's

REVEREND WILLIAM C. HAMM

Studio for creating religious art objects used in the diocese.

Other churches served include: Christ Church, Cranbrook, where he was also Chaplain of Kingswood School for three years; St. John's, Waterbury, Conn.; The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, Conn., and Trinity Church, Ware, Mass.

He holds degrees from Shurtleff College, Alton, Ill., and prepared for the ministry at Yale University, where he was graduated from the Divinity School and Graduate School.

His ordination was held in Hartford, Conn., April 25, 1934, by Bishop Frederick G. Budlong.

Mrs. Hamm is the former Martha Ware Chapman of Champaign, Illinois. Their four children are William, Cynthia, Brewster and Sara Louise. They will be residing at 903 Lake Angelus Road near the Observatory.

Sonja Henie and her leading man, Marshall Beard

SONJA HENIE PRESENTS HER 1953 ICE REVUE

Sonja Henie becomes "Queen of the Big Top" a tight rope walker and a trapeze performer in "Circus on Parade", the outstanding number of her 1953 Ice Revue which starts a 17-night run at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum in Detroit, Nov. 14 through Nov. 30. There will be Sunday matinees but no performances on Mondays.

The circus number is complete with trained bears and whirling dervishes, clowns and fire jugglers climaxed by a death-defying dive by Leon de Rousseau from his high perch 65 feet above the rink. Then Sonja comes out, swinging on a swing, emulating the trapeze artists. The drums roll and Sonja, balancing herself with a little pink parasol that matches her dainty, pink costume, goes into her thrilling high-wire act.

The circus number easily is the smash hit of Sonja's 1953 Revue. It is one of five numbers in which Sonja gives so generously of her breath-taking grace and artistry.

Sonja's first appearance is in "Gold Elegance", a pair number with her youthful new skating partner, Marshall Bear. Then comes her spectacular innovation, the Cuban "Voodoo Ritual" with Martha and Alexander, the number she conceived on her trip to Havana with her troupe last spring.

Greig's Ballet Concerto gives Sonja another opportunity to demonstrate the grace and skill that have made her skating's unchallenged queen, with 10 consecutive world's figure skating championships, and three Olympic titles to her credit.

Her unforgettable hula number "Song of the Islands," is a "must" as far as her fans are concerned and she goes through her authentic Hawaiian routine, accompanied by a Hawaiian quintet that she brought from Honolulu, Eddie Bush, George Ku, Dan Stewart, Sam Kaupuni and Sam Koki. Then comes the circus number with "the greatest assemblage of big top performers ever brought together."

Sonja produces, stages and directs her own show. In all, there are 19 numbers in $350,000 worth of costumes and stage sets, and more variety than ever. The toyland number boasts a parade of nursery rhyme characters that will thrill all youngsters, from three to seventy years of age.

Egypt is represented among the galaxy of stars Sonja drafted for this year's revue in the persons of the Amin Brothers, famed acrobatic pair. Football and bowling are included in the comedy routine of the McKellan brothers, Tuffy and Gil. Buddy LaLonde is a daring speed skater. Sonja has a new youthful find in Don Watson, dubbed "The Flying Saucer". Willie West and McGinty, whose act "The House Builders" is internationally famous, add to the comedy along with Bob Miller and Bill Griffin, a hobo-policeman duo. Narena and Norris are a talented adagio ice combination. It all adds up to Sonja's finest revue since she pioneered it in the entertainment world.

Orchestra Director Jack Pfeiffer conducts the musicians in no less than 74 musical selections as he produces the brilliant musical background for Sonja's stellar revue.

Sellout crowds have been the rule in Washington, D. C., where she is now appearing, just as at Raleigh, N. C., where her six-performance run was sold out completely before she even arrived in town. Mail orders for tickets are now being taken by the Sonja Henie Ice Revue, P. O. Box 3646, Detroit, 3, Mich. Self-addressed envelopes for the return of tickets should accompany mail orders.

Amble over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢." "Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so's the left ham is more tender?"

"No," he says. "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!"

From where I sit, stories like "right" hams being tougher than "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper. I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

OAKLAND COUNTRY EXTENSION SERVICE NEWS
 by Mrs. Josephine Lawyer
 Home Demonstration Agent

KNOW YOUR APPLES

"Another Way for an Apple a Day" is the catchy title of a free booklet available at your county extension office reports Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, county home demonstration agent. In this book, she mentions, is the valuable information about what variety of apples to buy for particular purposes. Also included are recipes prepared by Roberta Hershey of the Michigan State College foods and nutrition department.

Listed as excellent for eating are McIntosh Red, Grimes Golden, Cortland, Jonathan, Red Delicious, Snow and Steels' Red. The best baking apples, Mrs. Lawyer advises, are Jonathans, Stayman Winesaps, and Wolf Rivers. When it comes to pie apples, the booklet recommends as "excellent" the Jonathan, Northern Spy, Rhode Island Greening and Stayman Winesap.

Salad apples are best if they are Red Delicious or Steels' Red; and the best apple sauce fruit varieties are Yellow Transparent, McIntosh Red, Cortland, Golden Grimes, Northern Spy, Rhode Island Greening and Stayman Winesap.

For all-around apples, the book lists McIntosh Red, Cortland, Jonathan, Northern Spy, Stayman Winesap, Turkey Winesap, Steels' Red and Wagener as either "good" or "excellent" for all purposes.

Some of the recipes included in the free MSC bulletin available at Mrs. Lawyer's office, are for apple candy, apple sauce cookies, glazed apple dumplings, Dutch apple pie, apple salads and apple fritters.

Mrs. Josephine Lawyer points out that apples supply vitamin A and varying amounts of vitamin C. They also furnish minerals, organic acids, bulk and pectin — all valuable in promoting good health.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Billy Furman who passed away one year ago November 7. Sadly missed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Furman and his brothers, Bob and Buddy.

Card Of Thanks

Sincere thanks are extended to friends, neighbors and all who were so thoughtful during our recent bereavement. Special thanks go to the Rotary Club, the Clarkston business men, the kindergarten children at the Clarkston School and to all of our friends at the Baptist Church for their sympathy and help and to the Reverend George Halk for his comforting words.
