Library Silver Tea This Afternoon

The members of the Elementary Library Board, volunteer librarians and each member of the school appreciation of good books and enjoyment of good books go hand in hand. Each one is fully aware that a child's taste for good books will not grow unless it is stimulated and guided.

There are 1500 volumes of the very best in reading materials for Clarkston Community children but with the increase in the size of the community and the increase in the number of schools it is necessary to increase the volumes of books. To aid in this work the Library Silver Tea is being held this afternoon at 3:30 in the High School Auditorium. Mrs. C. J. Murton, Chairman of the Elementary School Board, is general chairman of the program and Mrs. Jack Jyleen assisted by Mrs. Harold Bauer and Mrs. Keith Lowrie, has planned the Tea. It is hoped that everyone in the community will drop in for the opportunity of seeing the latest children's books hearing Florence Selden review a new book and adding to the gift fund for new books for the Clark-Community Elementary Schools Library.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mr. Edmund Horton of M-87, Holly, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Robert Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Clark of 9765 Dixie Highway, Clarkston. The wedding date has been set for January 24th.

Brownie News

Brownie Troops 194 and 200 met at the Clarkston Grade School on Wednesday for their meeting. As a project they planted tulip bulbs at the school entrance. Games were played and a snack was served by Mrs. Denton, the mother hostess and her daughter, Beverly.

Two weeks ago the Brownies completed their favors for the polio patients at the hospital. These were Halloween favors containing candy. These were delivered on October 31st. There were 78 polio patients.

Why?

Far over the seas my thoughts want to stray To lands where life's hope is taken away. T think of those badly torn, And people whose future is dark and forlorn. I sense through the distance they're sending a plea For help from their plight directly

I list to their pleadings and hark to each cry, And I ponder their case and just wonder, why.

Proud peoples were these in centuries past

With civilizations builded to last Down thru the ages some plan went amiss To bring in their lives a condition like this. Could man in his weakness be swayed by his greed And throw his whole world in a panic and need? Could man for a fortune be willing to die? As I study these questions, I just wonder, why. Just when will man find that his

That brings on disasters to make his life worse?

greed is the curse

When will man discover that love is the cure

For trials and troubles and days insecure?

How long must man suffer before he shall find

That love is the answer to his peace of mind?

The answer's so simple for those who will try.

What keeps them retarded, I just wonder why.

Clarkston Squeezes Past Orion 7-0

Last Friday the Clarkston Wolves fought their way through one of their toughest games of faculty have demonstrated that the current campaign. They pushed past a rugged Lake Orion eleven 7-0.

Although it was a low scoring game, there were frequent scoring opportunities. Clarkston threatened in the first minute of play only to have fumbles stop them. They threatened on three other occasions only to have penalties halt them. One threat was an 85 yard run by Tom Bullen.

Lake Orion had one drive stopped when Pete Thompson intercepted a pass on Clarkston's 2 yard line. A penalty halted Orion on another occasion, and later the Wolves' forward wall played brilliantly to squelch two other Orion scoring opportunities.

The games only score came in the third quarter when Tom Bullen cracked off tackle from the six yard line to climax an 80 yard drive. Don Coltson converted the extra point.

Tackling was exceptionally hard for high school teams. A total of six players were injured, but none of the injuries appeared to be serious.

The Wolves will miss the ser vices of quartenback Glenn Albbott this week when the team meets Clarenceville.

Glenn is an up and coming sophomore who has led the team at quarterback on offense and at line backer on defense.

Tom Bullen's hard running stood out for Clarkston, Tom made several long punt returns and was leading ground gainer from scrimmage also,

Clarkston ends its season this week with Clarenceville. The game is at Redford Union. Kickoff is at 8:00 p. m.

The boys could use you in their cheering section.

Club Hears About Table Centerpieces

When the Clarkston Farm and Garden Club met last week the speaker was Mrs. Hazel Peckinpaugh Dunlop of the J. L. Hudson Company in Detroit. Mrs. Dunlop did not devote her talk and demonstration entirely to arrangements for the holiday table but she gave some very fine suggestions as to how to dress up the front door for the Christmas season and also some splendid ideas for over-the-fireplace trim.

Mrs. Dunlop used mostly greens seed pods, Mexican peppers, pin oak leaves and some driftwood for table arrangements. With some of these she used baskets and others vases or flat containers.

Mrs. Dunlop's informal manner and friendly attitude made her presentation extremely interest-

Mrs, Dunlop has done a good deal of traveling and has given many demonstrations. She has experimented with most every type of flower, weed, seed pod cone and greens in making decorative arrangements. She has written a book entitled "Let's Arrange Flowers".

The Club made this meeting "guest day" and there were about 150 present. Before the meeting a dessert was served from a table attractively arranged with a dark green cloth, a beautiful centerpiece of mums and silver candelabra holding orange colored candles.

Frank Leonard Succumbed Sunday

Frank Leonard, 76, passed away at his home at 68 N. Holcomb St., on Sunday after a long illness He was born in Atlas, Michigan, November 11, 1876, the son of Elbert and Nellie Leonard.

Mr. Leonard had lived in Clarkston for 45 years. For several years he was in the bakery business and then with rapidly changing times he gave up baking and turned his interests to the automobile business. He and Ben F. Miller sold and serviced the Ford car for a few years and then for several years operated the Buick Sales and Service. They built the stone building now occupied by the Kroger Company.

Mr. Leonard was a kindly soul who enjoyed people.

He is survived by his wife, Nora; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Borst of Pontiac; 2 grandchildren and 2 brothers, Arthur of Holly and Edward of Flint.

A Rosary'service was held at the Sharpe Funeral Home on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and the funeral service was held at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning at Our Lady of The Lakes Church with the Reverend Frederick J Delaney officiating. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery.

Now and then a speaker appears on the program at the Clarkston Rotary Culb who has a hobby and lives it. Such a man is the Rev. Herbert Ryan, Pastor of the Baldwin E. U. B. Church of Pontiac. He has the hobby of collecting. antique cars. He can talk the subject with the greatest of ease, and he can make the subject interesting. He presented for inspection: old head lights, porcelain icense plates, and even a pair of ladies' high buttoned shoes which his wife wears when touring in his 1912 Buick. The program was alive and different. His interest in the hobby made you interested. His hobby was unusual and you could feel that he had undertaken a hobby that was far afield from his vocation.

ANDERSONVILLE NEWS

Many ghosts, goblins and witches were seen as the costumed children at the Andersonville School celebrated Halloween last week. Each grade held its own party which began with a parade through the other classrooms in full Halloween style.

Many parents were present to act as room mothers and to aid the eachers in giving their Halloween parties. Among them were: Mrs. Charles Kunkle, Mrs. Joseph Steele, kindergarten; Mrs. Beauchamp, and Mrs. Szeremet, first grade; Mrs. Verbeck, second grade; Mrs. Long and Mrs. Peloquin, 3rd grade: Mrs. Willitts and Mrs. Mc-Crum, fifth grade. Their help and interest was greatly appreciated and more mothers are welcome to participate in the "room mothers" program.

TO REGISTER DEER HUNTERS

Preparations have been completed by the Michigan State Police and State Conservation Department to register deer hunters who desire emergency message service during the hunting season. As in the past, the service provides for delivering messages to hunters at their camps in the event of emergencies at home. Lakewise, messages are delivered to their homes if they are involved in accidents or become lost.

Hunters who desire to use this service should register with the State Police post or Conservation headquarters nearest their camps. They should inform their families of the station at which they will

Only messages of an emergency nature will be handled and the service is not offered where regular communications facilities are available.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs expressed the hope it would not be necessary to deiver messages to homes because of hunting accidents.

"Hunting accidents can be preented by using care and caution n handling firearms", Childs said. "Last year during the deer hunting season there were 62 Michigan gun fire casualties of whch 13 were fatalities. The previous year there were 63, including 18 fatalities. "Don't shoot unless you are absolutely sure no one is in line of fire. Be especially careful when loading or unloading firearms. Keep firing mechanisms in safety position until actually firing at game. No matter what position the firing mechanism is in and whether the firearm is loaded or not, never point it at any one.

TWO MICHIGAN YOUTHS WITH SONJA HENIE'S REVUE

Two Michigan youths from Muskegon are among the new stars in Sonja Henie Ice Revue appearing for 17 performances at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum in Detroit, Nov. 14 through 30. They are Gil and Tuffy McKellen. They is bringing her cast of 200 and the combine football and bowling in their acrobatics and comedy rou-

They made their start as acro bats in their grandfather's hayloft. Then each of them won a season membership in the Muskegon YMCA, Tuffy, for being the smallest hobo in a Halloween costume party and Gil for his ability as a harmonica player.

Meanwhile they were "rink ats" and hockey players at Muskegon. So when they started their acrobatic work at the Y on the trampoline, they practiced lifts and other acrobatics on skates in odd moments at the rink. An ice show played Muskegon. The Mc-Kellen brothers had a tryout. On 24 hours notice they were embarked on their acrobatic ice ca-

It was interrupted by World War II and Tuffy, all 4 feet 11 inches of him, wound up with the ilitary Police after service, in both the European and Pacific fronts. Gil was in the Air Corps. On one occasion their paths crossed during service in the Pacific. They met on Leyte. They entertained a regiment on the beach as they went through their acrobatic routines again without a mistake. Mustered out of service, they went back to ice work and when Sonja drafted her own revue, she commandeered the McKellens.

The McKellens help give Sonja's revue more comedy and variety than ever. Other comedy reief is provided by Bob Miller and Bill Griffin, a hobo-policeman duo. Willie West and McGinty produce their internationally famous act, "The House Builders".

That the real+man is really a piritual being, subject only to him a living embodiment of that the laws of God, is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, November 16. The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:53): "This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Rom: 8:14): "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God,' Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The real man is spirithe and immortal, but the mortal and imperfect so-called 'children of

oure reality." (p. 409) DRAYTON PLAINS UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

NEWS AND COMMENT CONGRESSAN GEO. DONDERO THE ELECTION:

Long ago a wise political leader admonished one of his county chairmen to "claim everything with exultation" in respect to a forthcoming election. This time it seems that the Republican Party is in a position to "claim everything" after the election instead of in advance.

But this is no time for "exultation" on the part of anybody. It is a time rather for sober appraisal of the tremendous difficulties which confront the nation. It is a time for the most earnest consideration as to what shall be done by everyone, regardless of political atfiliation, to overcome those difficulties. It is a time for the rededication of all our national energies to the grim task ahead. It seems to me that the vote by which General Dwight D. Eisennower was elected last week indicated less a concern for partisanship and political labels than it did a concern for the ultimate welfare of the Republic. Essentially it was a vote for the America that we all know and love so well.

Manifestly it was a vote against corruption and extravagance in government; against coddling communists at home and appeasing communism abroad; and it was a vote for re-examination of American foreign policy which in

Dollar shortages in optimistic annual outlook of Michigan State College agricultural

Demand for farm products with exception of exports -- will continue strong during 1953 with consumer dollars in good supply, report the economists. This may be followed by a slight business and farm recession, probably in 1954, Farm prices in 1953 will depend on the crop volume, A nation wide bumper crop will drop farm prices where government supports are not effective. A short crop would add at inflation.

Costs of farm operations will confinue to rise and should be watched closely, caution the economists. Increased wages of industrial workers and costs of services will add to the rising farm costs.

Marketing charges will continue to take a larger share of the consumer's food dollar, leaving less for the farmer. The farm share, which has been about 50 cents, dropped to 48 cents the past year.

Farm prices generally will remain around the 100 percent of parity level, acording to the MSC outlook. Net farm incomes will be about the same as in 1952. It will
