Festival Time In Portugal

Festivals are fun for everyone in Portugal as these young dancers of Nazare prove in their spirited version of an ancient folk dance. Their whirling skirts are made of hand-woven, bright-colored plaids which all the residents of this charming fishing village have worn for centuries. Festivals in Portugal begin early in the spring and continue through the summer until late in October. The Portuguese fiesta has all the gaiety and warmth of the county fair and stock show, plus gay parades, bonfires, and gala fireworks to round out the holiday spirit.

STIFFER DRIVER EXAMS RECEIVE POLICE SUPPORT

Proposed revision of driver license examinations for the purpose of making them stiffer is receiving the support of Michigan police officials in general.

At a recent meeting at State Police headquarters in East Lansing, the executive committee of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police endorsed the program and went a step further by offering its assistance to the State Police commissioner to correct any abuses or neglect by police department examiners in conducting examinations.

Previously representatives of the Eastern, Southeastern and Saginaw Valley law enforcement associations endorsed the plan. Three other associations, those of Southwestern and Western Michigan and the Upper Peninsula, are also expected to give their support.

The program was originally presented and approved at a special conference earlier in February and a committee was given the task of working with State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs and Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary to put the revision in final form so that it can be placed in effect as soon as possible. Both the commissioner and the secretary of state share responsibility in administering the state driver license law. The meeting was called by them to get the recommendations of representatives of 25 associations and state departments having an interest in the problem.

The revision provides for more comprehensive written examinations for beginners, no temporary permits for beginners until department of state records have been checked to determine if they have a previous record of mental unfitness, more thorough reporting of mental cases to the department, more rigid eye tests for all applicants, and a two-day school for all license examiners, with disqualifications of those who do not attend.

In its offer of assistance in correcting examination abuses, the executive committee of the police chiefs felt the association could be of aid in bringing about full compliance with prescribed procedures and eliminate short cuts that have occurred wherein applicants were not given complete tests although the examiners

ADVICE FROM SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE

Rex Atwood, manager of the Pontiac Social Security office, states that many self-employed people, who pay their own social security tax, are not receiving proper credit on their individual social security accounts. Atwood points out the reason for this is incomplete reporting by the taxpayer.

Every owner or partner in a business subject to the social security tax must complete Schedules C and C-a of his income tax return by March 15th of each year. These reports, in addition to other information, must show the correct name, social security account number, and nature of business of the individual. Most of the incomplete returns filed either did not show the person's social security account number, or did not show the nature of business. In some cases the nature of business shown was questionable as to whether it was covered by the law because it did not give enough information.

Atwood states that there are two very important reasons why all reports should be correct:

1. The amount of all benefit payments made under the social security program are based upon the record of earnings posted to a person's social security account.
2. Every incomplete tax report results in added cost to the government and to the taxpayer because of time consumed in correspondence and investigations to obtain the correct information after the incomplete return is filed.

To avoid possible loss of future benefits due either to the self-employed person, or to his survivors at his death, Atwood issues these reminders:

1. The tax return should be based on accurate business records.
2. The name and social security account number should be entered on Schedules C and C-a exactly as shown on the Social Security Card.
3. The nature of business should be shown clearly so that there will be no question as to whether or not it is a type covered by the law.

ing dishes so that they cannot overflow. Escalloped potatoes are especially likely to boil over, so use a generous baking dish. Put a cookie sheet under the pie you are baking.

Aluminum foil lining in the bottom of the oven does make for easy cleaning, but the foil is an unnecessary expense and it does interfere a little with the heat in the oven. A dish of ammonia in an oven overnight will loosen dirt and make cleaning a simple process next day. But, here's a tip, don't leave plants in the kitchen the night you give your oven the ammonia treatment — plants wilt around ammonia fumes.

Real work and time saving features are coming in late model kitchen ranges, Miss Zwemer reports. Look for gas stoves with a glass window on the table top that enables you to see the product baking in your oven without even stooping or opening the oven door. A new electric range feature is an electric unit which is immersed in a kettle of fat for deep fat-frying.

who just don't drink milk because they don't like it or think it's for children only.

For the "waist-conscious" market, he suggests tasty non-fat milk drinks. Then those who think milk is "too fattening" would have no excuse.

Fruit-flavored non-fat milk drinks that will compete with soft drinks can be used to go after both these groups' business.

Shaffer reports that a survey in a central Michigan city showed that women are the biggest group of abstainers from milk. More than one quarter of them said they don't drink milk while one tenth of the men fell in that class. Six per cent of the husband-wife combinations do not drink milk and two per cent of the homes had children who don't drink milk.

Some don't like the taste of milk, others object that it's too fattening, too expensive or doesn't agree with them and others prefer tea and coffee. A few have the idea milk is a child's drink.

MILK NEEDS TASTE, WAIST POPULARIZING

Two markets that dairies can go after to use some of the surplus milk have been suggested by James D. Shaffer, Michigan State College farm economist.

He suggests better-tasting milk drinks for those folks — mostly adults, and especially women —

THE HISTORY OF MUSIC
 Music is dated to many generations ago. As people became more settled in their habits they made up songs while they worked and played. Some of the oldest fables tell us of the power of music. The first music was undoubtedly by singing. The first songs of which we have record are those of savage people. Of the three elements of music rhythm, melody and harmony, the first to develop was rhythm.
 It was 1640 when the first musical publication was made in America.
 Church music reached its height in the 15th and 16th century in Italy.
 Up to the last few decades the United States had been too busy felling trees and pushing its frontier westward to give much attention to music. The musical interests of the Pilgrims naturally centered about the church. They had brought with them the psalm book used in the reformed church of England, but they sang only a few tunes and those they used over and over. When in 1640 came the Bay Psalm Book, the first musical publication in America. A collection of the best psalm tunes published in 1794 was engraved by Paul Revere.

 Little can be said of the secular music of the early 19th century, except that it was overly sentimental and doleful.
 Stephen Foster is America's best known composer. "Old Folks At Home" and "Old Black Joe" and other songs of his are widely popular and are like folk tunes in simplicity and native quality. Edward MacDowell wrote many charming songs, piano pieces, and compositions for choruses and for orchestra. George W. Chadwick a well equipped composer, whose symphonies, string quartets, overtures, songs and work in other forms are genuine contributions. John Powell has composed interesting music for piano and orchestra full of the spirit of the South. Now there follows a group of younger men reaching out for new ideas and new ways of expression. Chief among these were Charles T. Griffis, Howard Hanson, Leo Sowerby, Aron Copeland and Roger Sessions.
 The word jazz is often used to mean all popular music, actually jazz is a distinct type of music quite different from swing and boogie woogie. Jazz is a series of improvisations on a melody. Swing is played in 4/4 dance rhythm and the melody is stressed. Boogie woogie is usually played on the piano. All three types have roots in the folk music of the American Negro, as he expressed festive dancing moods in ragtime and feeling of sadness and discontent in blues.
 The American Indian has also made a great contribution to American music. Often the singers began on a high note and ended almost in a growl. In recent years Indian melodies have gained wide popularity.
 No one knows how musical instruments began. It is certain however the three main classes of instruments in use today have existed since the very beginning of history. These are the string, wind and percussion instruments.

Constitution Safe in New Home

This typical family group is among thousands of people who daily visit the new home of the Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and Bill of Rights in Washington's National Archives Building. Few are aware that the officer on duty is only a symbol of the extraordinary steps taken to guard the nation's most treasured documents. Nightly, the precious papers are lowered by a unique elevator into the world's largest safe, hidden 20 feet below the recently dedicated shrine. The 50 ton safe was built by the Mosler Safe Company, which also built the vaults which protect the nation's gold at Ft. Knox. The giant safe is bomb, fire burglar, and water-resistant.

Waterford Community Activities
 Building on March 11, will feature an exhibit on the life of the nation's first president. The exhibit will take place from 1:00 until 3:30 P. Paul Rood, soils Extension specialist at Michigan State College, will discuss "Fertilizers, What They Are and How Much to Use on Different Crops." Lead-off on the program will be Earl Fenbin, area Soil Conservationist, to discuss "Rotations and Land Use."
 The highlight of the day will be a farmer panel on "Harvesting, Storing and Feeding Hay Crops," which will include: Robert Koons, Soil Conservation Planner as moderator; John Lessiter of Lake Orion; Ray Wheeler of Milford; Cyril Oliver of Pontiac; Keith Middleton of Lake Orion and Earl Voorheis of Davisburg.

GRASS FIRE
 Each year about this time, I make it a point to write an article warning against grass fires and, each year, after I write this article, I still see many people destroying nature's good organic matter by careless burning of grass. An example of the damage that is done to the grass by burning is exemplified by an incident which I observed two years ago. A piece of grass had been burned and, as usually is the case, a definite line made where the burning stops. The latter part of June of that year, I noticed that where the grass had not been burned, it was 2 or 3 inches taller than where it had been burned.

 Here are a few disadvantages of burning grass: destroys organic matter; injures the grass roots thereby giving more freedom for weeds to grow, and is dangerous where it burns near trees as it injures the bark so that it is killed.
 Some false advantages are: that it destroys weed seeds, which it does not because the weed seeds are already shattered and fallen to the ground and are protected; destroys unsightly dead grass—the unsightly dead grass acts as a mulch, conserving moisture for the present year's growth of grass, so DO NOT BURN GRASS!

Man's true relationship to God is explained in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, March 8.
The Golden Text is from Psalms (84:4, 12): "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee . . . O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee!"
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Gen. 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them."
Correlative passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "Continuing our definition of man, let us remember the harmonious and immortal man has existed forever, and is always beyond and above the mortal illusion of any life, substance, and intelligence as existent in matter." (P. 302)

SEAFOOD VARIETY SHOW
Seafood, with freshness frozen in, now travels any place in the country from the coasts of Florida, New England, and the Gulf of Mexico.
The mild flavor of seafood allows plenty of variety merely by changing the sauces and toppings.
VARY YOUR FLAVOR WITH SAUCES AND TOPPING

Spiced Mayonnaise Topping
Combine 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons chopped pickle and one stiffly beaten egg white. Spread over broiled or baked fish and place under the broiler just long enough to brown lightly.
A mild curried sauce complements golden pan-fried fish.

Curry Sauce
1/2 cup chili sauce
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1 cup mayonnaise
Combine all ingredients. Let stand twenty to thirty minutes before serving.
The one pound packages of fish may be kept frozen in the ice cube compartment of the refrigerator for several days. The fish will thaw enough to separate the fillets in a very short time after they are unwrapped.

To Broil
Pre-heat broiler for five minutes. Season fillets with salt and pepper. Brush with butter, margarine or salad oil. Place on greased broiler rack two to three inches from heat. Baste with melted fat, turn and broil seven to ten to twenty minutes broiling time.
Fish is done when it flakes easily with a fork.

To Dip
Dip fillets in sautéed milk (1/2 teaspoon salt to 1/2 cup milk), then in fine crumbs.
Place in greased baking pan.
Brush with melted butter or margarine. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) twenty-five to thirty minutes. Do not cover, do not turn.

To Pan-Fry
Dip fillets in 1/4 cup flour seasoned with 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Fry in one-half inch of hot fat. Turn to brown on both sides. Total cooking time about eight to ten minutes.

HOW TO MAKE Easter Egg Cake

A rich golden, yellow cake—covered with deep, luscious chocolate frosting, so joyfully decorated for the festive Easter dinner!

Step 1. Use one 17 oz. package yellow cake mix. Bake in two 8-inch layers. Follow directions on package (as easy as 1-2-3). Cut each layer in two, about 1/4 inch off center. Makes 2 large, 2 small pieces.

Step 2. Using 3-4 squares unsweetened chocolate, prepare easy chocolate frosting according to package directions. Spread chocolate frosting on cake pieces. Put together with smaller pieces on outside. Stand cake, cut side down, on plate. Using sharp knife, trim at outer edge to give cake egg shape.

Step 3. Cover with remaining frosting, filling in to make egg shape. Tint shredded coconut with liquid food coloring to a spring-green color. Arrange around base of cake. Nest vari-colored jelly bean Easter eggs in coconut grass. Place 2 chicks on top of cake, facing each other as if talking.

"Easter Egg Cake with its chocolate frosted egg shape, chatting chicks and gay decorations will bring shouts of glee at first sight and yelps of joy with the first bite! A glorious end to your festive Easter dinner!"

I would like to say "Thanks" to all who remembered me while I was in the hospital and since I have been convalescing at home.

Mrs. Sam (Irma) Carson

Card Of Thanks

My sincere thanks are extended to all who remembered me while I was in the hospital and since I have been convalescing at home. The many cards, flowers and other messages of cheer seemed to brighten what might have been long, dreary hours.
