Life-size Wood Carving of Last Supper

Courtesy Christian Science Monitor

BOSTON, MASS.—All the specialized skills of some of the finest craftsmen of New England have been combined to create this life-size copy in wood of the famous painting "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci.
More than a year was used in preparing the great carving—18 1/2 feet long and 8 1/2 feet wide. The figures, of limewood, are delicately tinted to give a feeling of lifelike reality.

CLARKSTON EDGES OXFORD

By David Barber

The Wolves made Oxford its second victim Friday night as Ric Huttenlocher put in his only basket of the game to break a 38-38 tie. Chuck Robertson put in the clincher with less than a minute left as the Wolves squeezed out a thrilling 44-42 victory.

Tom Bullen took game honors with 14 points while Bill Dunstan and Chuck Robertson helped with 11 and 9 respectively.

In the first minutes of the first quarter the Wolves took the lead 3-1 but Oxford tied it at 4 apiece then the Wolves came from behind to tie it again at 6 each. Clarkston trailed 16-11 at the quarter.

In the second quarter the Wolves passed up Oxford as they took the lead 25-20 at halftime.

In the third quarter the Wolves built a lead until they were tied at 38 points. Then Bill Dunstan fouled out with two minutes left. Ric Huttenlocher broke the tie with his only goal of the game as the Wolves went on to take a hard fought victory.

CLARKSTON WINS FIRST TOURNAMENT TITLE

By David Barber

The Clarkston Wolves won their first Tournament Title in the history of the school by defeating Imlay City Saturday night 59-48.

Ron Schebor led the winners with 19 points while Tom Bullen chipped in with 17. Richard Campbell led the Spartans with 15.

Hitting from all corners of the floor the Wolves took a 16-10 first quarter lead and stretched it to 35-21 by halftime. In the last half the Imlay

Spartans fought back as they cut the Wolves lead to just 9 points 37-34. Ron Schebor then made five quick points as the Wolves went on to take their first Tournament Title in the history of the School.

The Wolves head for the Regionals which will be played at Saginaw Arthur Hill March 11-14. Their first game will be played against Saginaw Saint Marys.

SQUARE DANCE AT C. H. S.

On Friday, March 27, the sophomore class will sponsor a square dance in the gym at the school. Music and calls will be provided by Millers orchestra. There'll be waltzes, polkas and loads of fun for everyone. The sophomores hope that everyone will reserve this night for some good, old-time dancing.

SPRING FORENSICS UNDERWAY

If you see a Clarkston student walking along the street mumbling to himself don't get alarmed. He's probably just practicing his declamation, or humorous reading, or dramatic reading for the school speech contests which will be held soon. About 25 students have chosen readings and are busy practicing saying them.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST IS CHOSEN

The cast for the Annual Junior Play was chosen last week by director Miss Patricia Sites. The cast of the play "Love is too much Trouble" includes 9 women and 5 men.

Since the play will be presented on two nights, April 16 and 17, two of the roles have been double cast. The actors include: Solvej Petersen, Elnor Allison, Mary Dean, Cheri Littleton, Don Coltsen, Shirley Devine, Jean Hoeman, Edna Overby, Mike Thayer, Pete Thompson, Maxine Wheatley, Jon McIntyre, Roger Allen, Eileen Jones and Al Warman. Rehearsals are being held each school night. Meantime the rest of the class is busy working on posters, selling tickets, planning the set and the costumes and handling all of the other details connected with preparing a play. The class is going all-out to make the show a really great success and they hope to have Clarkston's gym filled to capacity on both April 16 and 17.

SPEECH CLASS TO PRESENT PAUL SPLITS THE ATOM

The speech class of Clarkston High School will present a one-act comedy as part of the Science; Night program at the High School on March 18. The play will be followed by The House of Magic presented by the General Electric Company.

The play cast includes Solvej Petersen, Roger Allen, Chuck Robertson, Bob Booth, Nancy Thayer and Doris Kasat. Director of the play will be Miss Patricia Sites.

The speech class is also preparing two other one-act plays which will be presented at an assembly later this spring.

CLARKSTON DROPS SECOND PLACE TIE

By David Barber

With a little more than a minute of play in the final quarter Clarkston lost Friday night to the Northville Mustangs for the second time this year 37-35. Tom Bullen took scoring honors with 13 points while Somers had 11 for the winners.

This was also the last Home game for Seniors Tom Bullen, Dan Curry, Chuck Robertson and Ric Huttenlocher.

In the first quarter Clarkston started right off to take a quick lead and held it through the first period. Baskets by Bullen and Schebor gave us an eight point lead by half-time as the Wolves were leading 23-15.

In the third quarter the Wolves were held to just four points as Northville came from behind to tie the game at 27 apiece at the whistle.

In the final period the Mustangs pulled ahead to lead 35-33 with but a minute remaining. Then Bullen tied the score at 35 each. Then with a half a minute left a basket by Somers put them in the lead as they held their two point lead.

Brighton took undisputed possession of first place as they beat Milford 65-51. Clarkston dropped to a tie for third place with Milford, each has a 5 won, 5 loss record.

The Junior Wolves were in trouble through the final half of their game Friday as they lost their fourth game as against 12 wins 35-29. Bob Yahnke and Teshka of the Mustangs tied for scoring honors with 13 each.

CLARKSTON DEFEATS ORTONVILLE IN FIRST OF TOURNAMENTS

By David Barber

Bill Dunston splurged for 16 points to take scoring honors in Thursday night's exciting victory over Ortonville 44-39. Ron Schebor chipped in with 13 while Pete Palshan had 12 for the losers.

In the first quarter the game went on for a good three minutes with the score tied at 1-1. Then the score was tied three more times as both teams were deadlocked at 12 each at the end of the quarter.

The second period Clarkston was held to just 3 points as the Blackhaws took a nine point lead at halftime 24-15.

In the third quarter Clarkston cut their lead to just 6 points as Ortonville's star center Pete Palshan fouled out with just two seconds remaining as the Blackhaws still led 31-25.

Then in the fourth quarter the thrills began as Bullen fouled out. That seemed to inspire the Wolves as Ron Schebor became goal happy and hit for eight points and Bill Dunston got four of the Wolves 17 points in the last quarter. This proved to be the winning combination but without Chuck Robertson's fine guarding of Pete Palshan the score might have read different.

CLARKSTON ELEMENTARY KINDERGARTEN NEWS

On Monday the boys and girls in kindergarten began planning for their talent show to be held the last of the week. The morning show was held March 6, starring Marie Carlson, who sang "I'm a Little Teapot"; James Eliason who played Yankee Doodle and London Bridge on the piano; Paul Hinkley sang "Dinah"; John Jones sang "Frere Jacques"; Penny Muma sang "Doggie in the Window"; Stephan Parrott sang the "Puffin-billy Song"; Carol Storm sang "My Kitty"; and Louis Walter concluded the show with "Home on the Range". Winner for the morning talent show was Jimmy Eliason who was presented with the first prize blue ribbon from the sixth grade.

The afternoon show was on March 6th. Contestants were: Suzen Hampshire, who sang "My Teddy Bear"; Jimmy Mansfield, who gave the Clarkston Cheer; Paul Pittenturf who sang "Doggie in the Window"; Kent Powell, recited poetry; Janice Powers sang "Jesus Loves Me" and Kerry Sanford did a tap dance. Winner for the afternoon group was Paul Pittenturf who also received a blue ribbon. Our two winners will compete in the final to be held next week.

The 1st grade has been painting pictures about various favorite fairy tales.

The first grade talent show was held on Wednesday. These are the first graders who participated: Carol Kieft sang "Here Comes Peter Cotton-tail"; Kathy Lowrie sang "Sunshine Bright"; Carolyn Tersigni sang "The Muffin Man"; Martha Madison sang "Great Gray Elephant"; Nancy Barnes presented her puppet show, Clarabelle; Janet Powell sang "How much is that Doggie in the Window?" and Rick Thomson was seen in his magic tricks. Janet Powell was the winner of the talent show for the first grade.

FIFTH GRADE NEWS

In health we have been studying about the eye and what each part does.

All of us enjoy working our electric board which Paul Bennett, John Kieft and Harold Lumu made.

We are having arithmetic races to see if we can work faster. On Friday table 5 won.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

We are having talent shows at school. Each room took part. Here are the winners: 6th grade, Larry Powell, accordion; 5th, Danny Alt-house, singing; 4th, John Willoughby, piano; 3rd, Jerry Powell, singing; 2nd, Sue Lynn Allen, tap dancing; 1st, Janet Powell, singing; P.M. kindergarten, Jim Eliason, piano; A.M. kindergarten, Paul Pittenturf, singing. The finals will be March 13.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

During the past few weeks the science classes have been studying a unit on using and controlling fires. In connection with this Mr. Frank Green and Mr. Glenn Kerton gave the group an excellent demonstration of extinguishing various types of fires. Mr. Green also took each homeroom to the fire station to show them the equipment. The seventh graders really appreciate the kindness of these men.

In English classes the students have been studying possessives and also new parts of sentences and then they also have written

PLY NEEDLE,
SAVE MONEY
FOR FAMILY.

What sew at home? Why bother making your own clothes in this day of mass-produced clothes? To those pointed questions Marion Hillhouse of the Michigan State College textiles, clothing and related art department has some logical answers.
The first justification for sewing at home, points out Miss Hillhouse, is an economic one.

Custom Upholstering
FURNITURE REPAIRING
25 YEARS EXPERIENCE
C. W. Frothing OR 3-7002

How is it possible for the mother of an average family to avoid making some clothing or at the very least doing the alterations on the clothing she buys? How can she afford to throw out clothing that is still good because she lacks the skill and designing ability to see how to bring the old clothing up to date? Of course, the answer is that she cannot avoid doing this kind of necessary sewing without making serious inroads in the family clothing budget.
For girls, learning to sew should help develop critical judgment of ready-to-wear and it helps them to select with greater wisdom. Practice in sewing and designing help develop taste and ability to select clothes with individuality and style rather than clothes that are just the latest fashion.

Perhaps the most important reason of all for sewing at home, Miss Hillhouse believes, is that everyone has latent creative ability and imagination that should be brought out. What more natural way than to practice both designing and making clothing?
It can be a fruitful and satisfying outlet for the creative urge.
Furthermore, sewing can be of inestimable value both as a necessary vocation and as a possible hobby for leisure hours.

WHEN TIME IS MONEY
... A GOOD FARM WORKSHOP
PAYS FOR ITSELF
OVER and OVER
Equipment breakdowns during the busy season can really cost money. That's why so many folks now have complete workshops right on the farm.
With electricity powering welders, saws, drills, grinders and similar tools, you can get back in the field quickly—and at very low cost. Off-season, you can repair equipment that's not in use and also build many labor-saving devices yourself.

J. R. Keys and son Leon working in the well-equipped shop on their Sanilac Co. farm. Mr. Keys says: "I couldn't farm without my shop. The welder alone has paid for itself over and again."

That matter is found to be unstable in human experience is shown in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, March 22, under the subject of "Matter".
The Golden Text is from I John (5:21): "Little children, keep yourselves from idols."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Isa. 43:12): "I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God."

A TRUE MYSTERY BY ALFRED HITCHCOCK

The director of famous movie thrillers unfolds the excitement-filled story of a strange love affair that ended in a baffling murder - one never solved. Be sure to read "The Chloroform Clue" by Alfred Hitchcock, in The American Weekly with this Sunday's issue of The Detroit Times.

BETTER EATING by Jean Allen

HEAT-AND-EAT FISH
Boon to a busy homemaker is a new heat-and-eat fish. Lightly breaded and fried to a crusty lemon-gold minutes after it leaves the big fishing boats at the docks, the fish is then quickly frozen for freshness. Take your choice of haddock, cod, ocean perch, or scallops.

To Serve
The fish needs to be thawed only enough to separate the pieces. Then place the fillets on a baking sheet in a hot oven (400°F.) for fifteen minutes.

Gloucester Sauce
Beat 4 tablespoons cream into 3 cup mayonnaise, add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons chili sauce and a dash of paprika.

Yield: One cup of sauce. Here is a tartare sauce that is especially good with the scallops.

Tartare Sauce
To 3 cup mayonnaise add 3 tablespoons chopped pickle, 2 tablespoons chopped olives, 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon chopped onion and 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish.

Yield: About one cup sauce. Light and fluffy horseradish sauce made with whipped cream complements the mild fresh flavor of the French fried haddock.

Horseradish Sauce
Mix together 4 tablespoons prepared horseradish, 1/4 tablespoons vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, a few grains pepper and fold all into 1 cup whipped cream.

Yield: About one cup sauce. To Store
Take a note from the grocer's book and store the fully cooked frozen fish in a freezing unit. This may be the ice cube compartment or frozen food section of the refrigerator, or the home freezer. Like other frozen foods, it should not be refrozen after it has been thawed.

SCIENCE AIDS FARM SEED PROCESSING

Batteries of gravity type cleaning machines, like those above, are helping to supply Midwestern farmers with better, cleaner field seeds than ever before.

Ingenious modern processes, developed through research, are eliminating age-old weed problems. Here, seed is shown passing through velvet-covered rollers where rough and imperfect seeds and weed seeds stick to the cloth surface and are eliminated.
