CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1953

The local Boy Scouts, seventeen of them, along with the Scoutmaster, Richard Snover, and the Assistant Scoutmaster, Ted Hennig, had a grand time last Friday when they were guests of the Hutchinson Trailer Sales at the State Fair.

To start the glorious day the group rode up Woodward Ave., on top of a new "Pontiac Chief" cach in the State Fair Parade. Along with them was "Chief Pontiac" himself who greeted the onlookers as the coach passed along.

After the parade the Scouts and Masters were guests of the Hutchinson Trailer Sales at dinner at Hedge's Wigwam where they enjoyed a real feast. From there they were escorted to the Fair grounds where they were entertained at the Cavalcade of Stars.

Last Friday is a day the local Boy Scouts will remember for a long time, especially their genial The Hutchinson Trailer

Departed

The notice in the paper said My uncle's life at last had ebbed, It set the month and year and day That they believed he passed

Now he'd been ill for many years And watched his loved ones shed their tear.

Of sympathy and boundless love And heard their prayers to God above.

He finally had no will to stay Or have them sorrow every day, So months ago his soul took flight Into the sphere of truth and light.

This fact his family did not know They couldn't bear to let him go, Their thoughts were such a part of him They held a spark of life within.

For months his body lingered here While love and sorrow gathered near.

We watched the body pale and drawn

Knew not the spirit soul was gone.

We do not grieve for what remains But celebrate his new found gains, We wish him years of joy and

And may his love for us increase. -ROBERT C. BEATTIE

IF IT'S A SIX YOU WANT, Ford's Mileage Maker Six with Overdrive beat all other cars in the recent Mobilgas Economy Run!

Does any other car offer you a choice of V-8 or Six engine -or a choice of three great drives? How about foamrubber in all seats, extra trunk space, smooth ride-does any other car measure up to Ford feature for feature? You know the answer—that some cars do offer most of these features. But the only ones that do are costlier cars! Not a single one of them is in Ford's price field! And Ford offers you these "fine car" features—at half the fine car cost! No wonder the swing's to Ford!

YOU DON'T NEED A HEAVY LIMOUSINE FOR A SMOOTH RIDE. Ford's new_rubber compression bumpers and more responsive spring and shock absorber action reduce front end road shock alone up to 80%. Takes you over bumps and ruts smooth as silk. Try a Test Drive!

FORDOMATIC DOES MORE THINGS FOR YOU AUTOMATICALLY -over a wider range-than any drive in the low-price field. Fordomatic does all the shifting for you-better than you can do it yourself!

NO WORRY ABOUT "BLIND SPOTS" IN FORD! With a huge, onepiece windshield . . . car-wide rear window, the '53 Ford has more "look out" area than any car in its field! It's truly Full-Circle Visibility. Fords are built with your safety—and your family's safety—in mind.

FORD'S MASTER-GUIDE POWER STEERING is the lowest-priced power steering in Ford's field! Ford Master-Guide gives help only when you need it . . . retains the natural "feel" of the wheel on straightaways.

BIRD HOUSE

BUILDING TIPS Do you want to inveigle birds into raising their families on your property? Then, here are some simple do's and don'ts to remember when you set about making houses for feathered residents... Do start now to make plans for building and installing bird houses, since boxes which have weathered all winter will blend into their surroundings better in the

Don't make a box for just plain birds, says Harry W. Hann, assistant professor of zoology at the University of Michigan. Build it for a specific kind of bird such as a wren, bluebird, or tree swallow. Robins require a box with one side open.

Don't make the hole too large. If you want to attract the wrens, make the hole of minimum size (one inch in diameter), so that English sparrows will not be able to take over.

Place the hole near the middle of the box. This will allow the bird to be out of sight while sitting on the nest.

Don't make boxes with more than one compartment, except for apartment-loving martins, Professor Hann suggests.

Don't use tin cans or metal. Tin heats up quickly in the sun and will bake the fledglings.

Don't put too many houses in an area: not more than three or four to the acre. However, if there is an abundance of planted material for food, you may use more boxes.

DRIVE IT! PRICE IT! Then Compare The Deal!

Even a picture tells you a great deal about Pontiac's beauty, its long lines and substantial feel. But the best way to appreciate what makes Pontiac such a great value is to drive it.

If you're in the market for any new car, you ought to come in and try Pontiac performance.

From the first nudge you give the accelerator to the last, smooth, sure-footed stop, you'll know you have a real performer in hand. Pontiac always responds with an eager rush of highcompression power-more than any hill or highway will ever require. For all normal driving, the engine can loaf-one good reason why Pontiac leads such a dependably long life.

There's a great deal more to the Pontiac story: ease of handling, beautiful Dual-Streak styling, roominess, comfort and luxury. And there is Pontiac's PRICE-actually just a few dollars above the very lowest-priced field!

So come in now and drive Pontiac, price Pontiac, compare Pontiac! We're confident that you'll quickly agree that Pontiac is your best deal!

OUTPUT BOOST PLANNED BY GOOD FARMERS

Good Michigan farmers are not just standing still and taking the cost-price squeeze on the chin. They especially the smaller operators-are making plans to increase output by making their farming operations more efficient.

That's the report of Michigan State College agricultural economists who have attended many of the farm management tours held throughout the state this summer. Warren H. Vincent of the agricultural economics department cites the case of Walter Miller of Allegan County who works 80 acres and keeps 11 cows. He has just built a loose-housing type of barn which allows him to care for 20 to 25 cows with a minimum of labor. His plans are to intensify his pasture and hay program and keep as many cows as his roughage supply will permit.

Another case is Jarvis VanRhee, near Allegan. He is paying closer new equipment.

attention to soil conditions on his 80 acres and using lots of fertilizer in order to boost crop yields. Although his crop yields are 30 per cent higher than the average for his area, he thinks there is room for improvement. He has increased the butterfat average of his cows from 322 pounds two years ago to an estimated 470 this year. Van-Rhee plans to increase the butterfat production per cow still more to between 500 and 550 pounds.

Appreciation

My deep appreciation is extended to all who wished me well in pening the dining-room at Caribou Inn. Your support, your pat-ronage and good thoughts were so very gratifying. The opening of the dining-room was a real success.
