Weekly Report From United Fund

A letter from the office of Oakland Twenty Townships United Fund says:

Reports are coming in steadily, but time is fast running out. Groveland is still the only township over the top, with 102%. Addition will be over the top when mail campaign returns are in, only $260 needed.

Oxford Township has done an outstanding job, and is now at 91% with some reports not yet in. Avon, Holly and West Bloomfield are only a step from goal, while Novi and Lyon are at, or past, the three-quarter mark.

The complete list follows: Groveland, 102%; Oxford, 91%; Avon, 90%; West Bloomfield, 90%; Holly, 86%; Novi, 77%; Addison, 75%; Lyon, 70%; Huron Valley, 67%; Brandon, 50%; Oakland, 50%; Orion, 48%; Independence, 46%; Farmington, 35%; Rose, 20%; Commerce, 13%; Springfield, no report.

V. F. W. Building Nears Completion

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4102, of Drayton Plains, are now nearing completion of their new home on Walton Blvd. They have completed putting the plaster board on the ceiling and expect to get the walls and ceiling plastered within the next week or two.

Plans are now underway for a gala New Year's Eve party for the members of the Post and their friends. A dance orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. Tickets are available from the members of the Post.

A square dance is being held this Saturday night, December 5th, at the new hall. Kirby Millier and his orchestra will furnish the music and the public is invited to attend.

Clarkston Local

Mrs. John Stageman and Mrs. Ronald Weber with Donald Stageman and Tommy Weber spent Friday with Mrs. C. J. Maunton in Detroit. The Mauntons miss their Clarkston friends greatly and are delighted to see any of them and hear Clarkston news.

Thank God They're Resting There

Beside a giant factory stood A mighty field of steel. It did not speak of any good, Or have a love appeal.

These monsters rested row on row In silence cold and grim, Just waiting for a word to go Where truth is dark and dim.

Great hulks they are, with guns on deck That swing the compass 'round. No terrain rough, their way can check As they crawl o'er the ground.

In these great tanks, a man must ride Against an unknown foe. It's dreadful onslaught, he must guide On one he does not know.

How sad the God of man must be To see man's labor lost In building guns to make men free, Unmindful of the cost.

How long before the world will know, That peace is never won By tanks that lumber on so slow, Or fire from a gun.

Thank God those tanks are resting there; May cannons never roar; May thoughts of peace be everywhere, But hatred, never more.

Parents Killed In Auto Crash

The snow storm that hit the southwestern part of Michigan last week meant tragedy to many homes. One of the homes where sadness struck was that of the Frank J. Jewell's of Walters Lake, Clarkston. Mr. Jewell's mother and father were killed instantly on the Wednesday night before Thanksgiving when their car and a heavily loaded tractor-trailer collided on Portage Road, Kalamazoo.

According to a Kalamazoo newspaper the first severe snow storm of the fall caused many highway accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell were former Detroit residents. They moved to a farm near Vicksburg about two years ago and last August moved into their newly constructed residence at 2203 Burt Drive, West Lake. Mr. Jewell was the director of planning for the Viking Products Co., at Vicksburg. He was a member of the F. & A. M.

Survivors are two sons, Frank John Jewell of Clarkston and Donald Robert Jewell, Detroit; one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Ferguson of Owosso and two grandchildren.

The funeral service was held in Kalamazoo on Saturday with the Reverend E. L. Sutcliffe, pastor of the Methodist Church officiating. Interment was in the family plot in Evergreen Cemetery in Detroit.

Farm Group Meets Dec. 17th

On Friday evening of last week the Clarkston Farm Bureau Discussion Group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sharpe. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Andrews were co-hosts.

After a short business meeting George Perry led a discussion on "Advertising Farm Products". Many interesting facts were brought out.

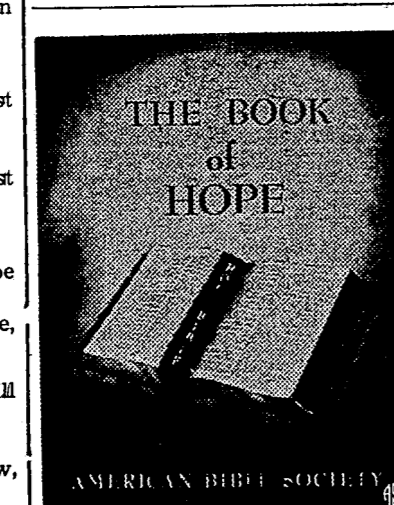

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller on Thursday evening, December 17th.

P. C. A. Celebrates 20 Years Of Service

The directors of the Pontiac Production Credit Association have set Monday, December 7th as the date for the Association's Annual Meeting.

According to Fred J. Beckman, Secretary-Treasurer, this year's annual meeting will be of special interest because observation of the 20th anniversary of the production credit system will be the highlight of the meeting.

The meeting will be held at the Waterford Community Activities Building in Waterford, and will begin at 11:00 A. M., with a trip to Hawaii through the medium of 3D slide pictures. A noon dinner, at which the charter members and those who have served the association for 20 years will be recognized, will follow. The afternoon program will consist of financial and progress reports and the election of a director to succeed Albert Luchtman whose term expires.

Other members of the Board of Directors are Ernest Lawson, Howell; Harry J. Green, Washington; Russell W. Porritt, Pontiac; and Ralph Davenport, Lapeer.

Dr. Ethel Calhoun Speaks To B. & P. W.

On Tuesday evening of last week the Waterford Township Business and Professional Women's Club and guests gathered at the Community Activities Building to hear about the Sister Kenny method of treating polio told by Dr. Ethel Calhoun of the Kenny Polio Center at Farmington.

The talk was very enlightening and interesting to this group of women as this is their project for the 1953-54 club year. Dr. Calhoun told about the research that is being done and expressed the idea that in a very few years it is hoped that this dreaded disease will be wiped out.

Following Dr. Calhoun's talk she showed a film of the work that is done at the Kenny Institute in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The pictures showed the progress that is made by patients after a series of treatments and how necessary it is to start the treatments as soon as possible.

A question period followed the film and Dr. Calhoun graciously responded. Sergeant Cole of the Pontiac Police Department was kind enough to bring the Department's projector to the meeting and run the film.

The serving of dainty refreshments was a fitting climax to a profitable evening and this was done from a table attractive with a dark brown taffeta cover and centered with a colorful arrangement of chrysanthemums and snapdragons and three tall green candles in a wrought iron holder. At the base of the arrangement was a raffia cornucopia holding fruit. Mrs. Royal Pazik and Mrs. W. H. Stamp presided at the silver services.

The Health and Safety and the News Service Committees were hosts for the evening. Mrs. R. M. Swaney, chairman of the Health and Safety Committee, welcomed the guests and introduced the speaker of the evening.

Localite Helps With Bazaar

Miss Virginia Sink of Clarkston is an active participant in plans for the 6th Annual Soroptimist Bazaar to be held in the Knights of Columbus Auditorium, 4740 Woodward, at Forest in Detroit, on Saturday, December 5, from 10:00 A. M. to 10:00 P. M.

Miss Sink, a member of the club's board of directors, is responsible for the success of the Snack Bar at the Bazaar.

Proceeds from the Bazaar will be used for the club's service projects fund, which has been allocated to projects of benefit to older women, nurses, scholarships, presentation of radios with ear phones to veterans at United States Public Health Hospital, Yellowknife for young career women and the Detroit Cancer Hospital.

Senior Play Dec. 11-12

The tickets for the Clarkston Senior Play are on sale now. Get yours from any of the class members. "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" will be presented in the High School Auditorium on two evenings, Dec. 11 and 12.

This hill-billy comedy by Le-Roma Rose is a laugh from start to finish and promises to provide an evening of good, clean entertainment. The Seniors are working hard to make this play a real success because the proceeds will be put into their Washington trip fund.

The seniors were thoughtful enough to present their play on two nights to give everyone in the district a chance to attend. So get your tickets now—there are a few reserved seats.

Extension Club Plans Party

The Clarkston Home Extension Club will meet for a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. L. D. Riley, 62 S. Holcomb Street, on Tuesday, December 8th, at 12:30 noon. A planned luncheon will be served. Each person is asked to furnish her own table service.

Each one attending please bring a fifty cent gift and a ten cent gift. Plan to attend.

Basket Waiting For Small Gifts

Let's make it a brighter Christmas for our Connie (Spoonster) Grubshaw, who is a polio patient in Ann Arbor.

A basket is in O'Dell's Drug Store to be loaded with small gifts from friends and neighbors—anyone who wishes to remember Connie.

Put your name in the package. The gift need not be anything large or expensive—just something to cheer up a person who will spend Christmas in bed.

Rotary Anns Hear Book Review

The Clarkston Rotary Anns met at the home of Mrs. William Sharpe on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Robert Atkins assisted Mrs. Sharpe and Mrs. L. F. Greene was program chairman for the evening.

Mrs. A. W. Hawke, president, conducted the business meeting when the group planned the Christmas party on Monday evening, December 14th at Caribou Inn.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Hazel Trumble of Rochester who reviewed the book "The Life of Anna Zenger" by Kent Cooper. Mrs. Trumble made the story very interesting and emphasized the capabilities of a woman in the business world.

Dainty refreshments were served from a table covered with a hand made lace cloth and centered with a unique Thanksgiving arrangement. The centerpiece was a three-tiered lazy Susan. On the top were 2 turkeys and on the other tiers were fruit and chrysanthemums. This was flanked with yellow candles in silver holders. Mrs. A. W. Hawke presided at the silver service.

CONTRACT OK'D FOR NEW MSC LIBRARY; STUDENT APARTMENTS GET STUDY

A contract for construction of Michigan State College's new library and a study of the possibilities of building 100 new apartments for married students were authorized in recent action by the State Board of Agriculture, governing body of M. S. C.

Successful bidder for the library construction was the Christian Company of Lansing with a bid of $3,705,395. Construction is to begin in the immediate future with 450 working days required for completion.

The board adopted changes necessary to bring the over-all cost within the $4,000,000 appropriation set by the Michigan Legislature. The original request was for $5,437,343.

In addition to many specific changes in plans the total cubic footage of the building was reduced 223,000 cubic feet.

In ordering a study of financing 100 new apartments for married students, the board acted in line with college hopes of replacing the temporary housing of "Trailer Village" with permanent buildings.

Three new buildings—a total of 36 apartments—are currently going up. Any new ones, like the present structures, would be built on a self-liquidating basis at no cost to the public.

In the current "pilot study", three apartment buildings are being constructed at an approximate cost of $100,000 each, or $8,000 per apartment. The first building has been occupied with the second to be completed by Jan. 1, and the third by Feb. 1, 1954.

Rent for the apartments in the pilot study is $69 a month, furnished, and $81.50 per month, unfurnished. Each unit contains a living room, kitchen and bedroom. Kitchens are equipped with stove and refrigerator.

They made their home in East Jordan for many years, and for a time lived in Richmond, Mich. Following Mr. Muma's death Mrs. Muma came to Clarkston. SAFETY EFFORT AIDED AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING

Opening of the December statewide traffic safety emphasis program aimed at reducing accidents due to drunk driving is announced by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. The campaign is sponsored by the State Safety Commission, Michigan Liquor Control Commission and the State associations of chiefs of police, sheriffs, judges and justices.

"Drunk driving is one of our worst traffic accident problems because of the deaths that result and the fact that such accidents are avoidable," Childs said. "According to National Safety Council statistics among drivers involved in fatal accidents whose condition was reported, 18 out of 100 had been drinking."

"Driving on high speed highways requires every driver to be on the alert every second. If drink stimulates the individual to take unusual risks or if it impairs his judgment or physical ability he doesn't stand a chance in modern traffic and, still worse, neither do other motorists or pedestrians in his path."

The commissioner cautioned motorists who are looking forward to the holiday season with its many festive events.

"The smart ones," he said, "makes other transportation arrangements if they are going to drink."

The commissioner expressed appreciation for the cooperation being given the campaign by the liquor control commission and the Michigan Table Top Licensees Congress.

In addition, chiefs of police and sheriffs have called meetings of all bar and tavern owners to enlist their participation and the liquor commission also asked them to attend.

"With all interested groups working together we hope to make the holiday period the safest we have ever had," he stated.

In 1950 he was named "Outstanding Citizen of the Year" by the V. F. W. Auxiliaries. He is now a member of the U. S. national commission on UNESCO.

Foreign Student Guest At Rotary

It may be of interest to many to know that the Rotary Clubs, as an international project, raises a fund to send students to foreign countries and in exchange bring many students from foreign countries to the United States to learn of our customs. The idea back of the plan is to help foster better understanding between countries and avoid wars.

On Monday evening the Clarkston Rotary Club had as a speaker, a student, Bahjat B. Khleif, from Nazareth. He explained the different religions of the land known today as Israel and of the community adjacent, known to everyone who has read Bible history. It has been said that to make a talk interesting speak about that which the audience knows something about. Comparing the land and religions of today with those of centuries ago made the talk worth while.

Bahjat was a student and was presented by Everett J. Soop, head of the Extension Service at the University of Michigan. Both gentlemen were introduced by Lloyd (Slip) Megee.

By The Way ...

This week The News welcomes back the poems of Robert C. Beattie. Bob has had a vacation and we expect he will resume his writing.

This should be good news to the many who enjoy his work and have looked for the weekly poem for years in The News. ... Saturday, December 12th, is Good-fellow Day in Clarkston when the Rotary Club will sell their Goodfellow Edition of the paper. The many supporters of this worthy idea will want their copy and this is a notice to them. To those who wish to have special ads in The News space reservation must be in the office by Saturday and the copy for the ads must be in Monday. ... Every now and then someone asks The News office what can be done about reckless drivers, sometimes without driver's licenses and sometimes under the influence of liquor, and almost always, in these cases, without insurance, who damage the property of others, and sometimes inflict injuries. In almost every case it seems to do no good to use the Michigan Motor Responsibility Act as the Act only takes away the right to drive and the persons involved were driving without a license anyway. Law is one thing and The News will not attempt to interpret this Act, leaving that to the many good lawyers in this state. The practical part is something else and from a talk with officers we have learned this: first secure judgment. When this is not paid have the Secretary of State take up the driver's license—and then report to the officers every time you see a driver driving when you know his license has been revoked. This is a nuisance but it does get results. ... The long line of cars bringing hunters home from the north on Tuesday almost looked as though a great many who went hunting the first day had stayed 'til the last day before giving up. It may have been because of the unseasonably warm weather. The bears did not hibernate on account of the weather and many bears were killed this year. ... Just another definition of a capitalist: One who continues to spend less than his income.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Witherspoon and daughter Mary, returned home Sunday evening from Buffalo, N. Y., where they spent the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives.

Don Dayden was among the college young people who were home over Thanksgiving. He came from Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., and spent the rest of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dryden.

The William Ryan family had Thanksgiving dinner with their son and daughter-in-law in Pontiac. Other dinner guests included the Gale Grasmillers and Mr. and Mrs. Ant Wilson.

Thanksgiving Day guests at the Ellis Studebaker home were Mr. and Mrs. Lott Everly who came from Au Gres for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Smith of Mishawaka, Ind., were Thanksgiving visitors at the home of their son and family, the Roland Smiths of Waterfront Drive. They remained here over the holiday weekend.

Bill Jacober went up to Comins Monday for a couple of days hunting with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Belton visited his folks at Dowagiac over the weekend.

The O. D. O. Club Christmas party will be held on Wednesday, December 9th, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Armstead. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon and there will be an exchange of gifts to be brought by each member present.

Word was received here a week ago Sunday of the death of Elmer C. (Sam) Saari of Mountain Iron, Minn. He was the father of Mrs. William Jacober and a former resident of Waterford. For some time he was maintenance man at the Community Activities building and was well known in the vicinity. His death occurred in the Municipal Hospital in Virginia, Minnesota, following a lengthy illness. In addition to Mrs. Jacober he is survived by his wife, Gladys; a son, Charles; two daughters, Mrs. Wayne Santella of Waterford Township and Mrs. Phyllis Kooen of Minnesota and nine grandchildren.

The Charles Harris family came from Roscommon the Tuesday before Thanksgiving to spend the holiday weekend with his mother, Mrs. Henri Buck, and his sister, Illene Parcels, Judy Wallace, David Sherman, Lorann Jehle, Geraldine Shephard, Clifford Shephard, Paula Kilgore, Michael Meschen, Bettina Maxwell, Tommy Anthony, Kathy Gresham, Linda Walter.

Red Cross home service committee, called a special meeting of his group on Tuesday, Dec. 2.

The committee, now being re-organized to include people from a wider cross-section of Oakland County's towns, villages and vocations, met at Christ Church, Cranbrook. The group later joined other volunteers at a chapter dinner featuring Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel of Washington, D. C., deputy director of volunteers for the national American Red Cross, as guest speaker on "Volunteers and Volunteering".

The committee makes policy for the chapter's home service department. This "service at home to the man in the armed forces", counsels families of servicemen, sends information which helps get emergency furloughs, and sometimes gives financial help to servicemen's families.

A total of 141 gift boxes for servicemen who will spend Christmas at sea were on their way to St. Louis from Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross.

The boxes packed by Mrs. Edmund Leavenworth of Birmingham, chapter production chairman, and her volunteers will be forwarded from the Red Cross' St.

Louis headquarters to seaports. Local clubs and organizations donated candy, decks of cards, pocket-size books, automatic pens and pencils, pocket-size games and similar items to fill the boxes.

CLARKSTON ELEMENTARY

KINDERGARTEN—Mrs. Zenke

Last week we talked about the first Thanksgiving and learned why we celebrate Thanksgiving each year by having turkey.

We also learned that the Pilgrims didn't have a store to go to where they could buy butter, but they made it themselves. We decided we would like to make butter. We put whipping cream in a jar and covered it tight. Then we took turns shaking the jar. First it turned into whipped cream. Then it turned into tiny pieces of butter, and finally a large yellow lump appeared. We were all surprised. Some of the children wanted to drink the buttermilk which was left. We put the butter on crackers and had a party at milk time. Our next big project is getting ready for Christmas.

SIXTH GRADE—Mrs. Forsyth

One girl, Kathy Crowley, moved away; however, we have two new students, John and Nellie Briggs who make our total number of students 46.

We made a poster this month to put in the showcase showing what we like that's free.

We have been working on long division problems with three numbers in the divisor.

Cindy's geranium plant has several blossoms.

We hope everyone had a happy Thanksgiving.

DON'T THROW AWAY THAT DEER SKIN, URGES U-M PROFESSOR

There's more to a deer than greets the appetite!

Once the treacher has been stocked with venison, hunter's thoughts often turn to problems of tanning the soft and beautiful deerskin for later use in such desired and familiar articles as buckskin jackets, gloves and belts.

Warren W. Chase, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Wildlife Management, explains that the best part of the animal's hide is the back, and therefore "hunters wishing to use the skin later on would do well to aim their shots for the shoulder or lower body cavity."

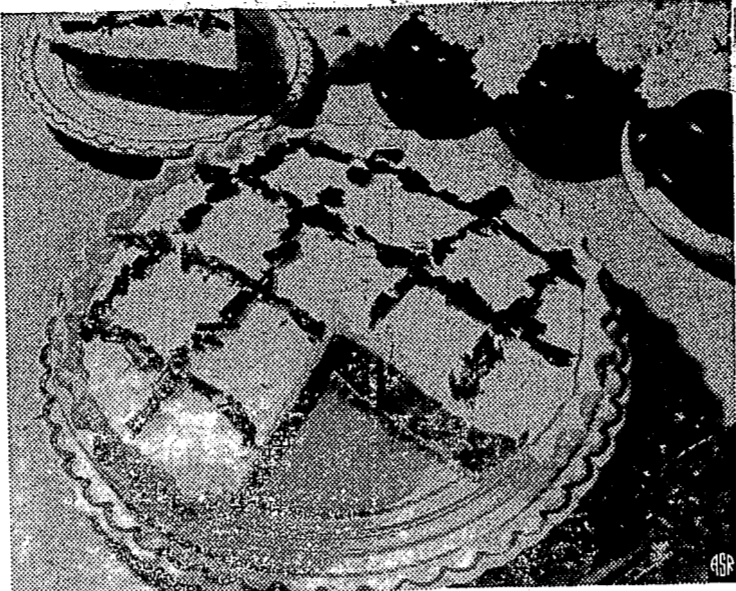

"The skinning of the animal should be done with a relatively dull knife," he continues, to avoid cutting holes in the material. After the skin has been carefully freed of fat and excess meat, Professor Chase recommends that it be dried for a day or two in an insect-free place. After that it should be rubbed with salt until well saturated.

Because it is a tricky undertaking to tan a hide at home, he recommends sending it to a commercial tanner, who will return it several months later in a leather form of either light tan or dark brown color, depending on the customer's instructions.

From the finished skin, a wide variety of articles can be made, among them such items as the well known buckskin jacket and moccasins and even a dog leash for Fido. "A number of these articles are listed in tanning company catalogues," Professor Chase says, "and the firm will mae them as ordered."

The ambitious person can try his hand at making some of the items at home, he points out. Take

Brown Derby Restaurant Shares Famous Black Bottom Pie Recipe

Black Bottom Pie as made by the Brown Derby restaurants in Hollywood and Beverly Hills is a favorite dessert with the movie stars. This rich chocolate chiffon pie can now be made at home for the film capital restaurant is revealing the know how.

Brown Derby Black Bottom Pie calls for a high and delicate chocolate filling topped with whipped cream. The airy texture is achieved by using unflavored gelatin in a rich chocolate and custard base. The filling though elaborate of looks can be prepared simply and quickly in one utensil, the double boiler.

Brown Derby Black Bottom Pie

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1 cup icy cold evaporated milk, whipped
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
1/2 cup milk
4 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 cup heavy cream, whipped and sweetened
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 9-inch baked pie-shell
1 cup heavy cream, whipped and sweetened

Mix gelatine, sugar and salt in top of double boiler. Combine egg yolk and milk and add to gelatine mixture. Add 3 squares of the chocolate. Cook over boiling water until chocolate is melted, stirring often. Remove from heat and beat with rotary beater until smooth. Chill until thickened. Fold in whipped evaporated milk and vanilla. Turn into pie shell and fill until firm. Spread with whipped cream. Shave remaining 1 square chocolate into curls with vegetable slicer; place "lattice" fashion on top of pie.

for instance the buckskin leash made with a swivel hook from the hardware store and strips of buckskin for braiding. Cut a strip about one-half inch wide, round and round on the piece of buckskin 18 inches or larger in diameter. For a six-foot leash, two such strips 18 feet long will be needed, which, when pulled through the hook, make four braiding strands. Take strand 4 back of 2 and 3 and then put 3 over, leaving 1 by itself. Take 1 back of 3 and 4 and over 4, leaving 2 by itself. Continue from side to side, until leash is completed.

Other articles which can be made from deerskin include the familiar gloves, mittens, gun cases, wallets and purses. Letter openers may be made from the horns, and gun racks from the antlers and hooves.

WINTER'S ARRIVAL DUE AT 10:32 P. M. ON DECEMBER 21ST

The Northern Cross, arrival of winter and lengthening of daylight hours are just a few of December's astronomical events, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

An impressive symbol of the Christmas season, the Northern Cross (Cygnus) will move across the December sky from the zenith to the northwest, gradually assuming more and more of a vertical position, Professor Losh says. By Christmas Eve the long bar of the cross will be outlined upright against the sky.

Winter will arrive officially at 10:32 p. m. on December 21, the professor explains. At this time the sun reaches the winter solstice, the most southerly point of its apparent yearly journey around the earth.

On December 21, she continues, "the sun rises and sets about 30 degrees south of the east and west points respectively, reaching its lowest altitude of the whole year at noon." From then on days become longer and nights shorter.

Professor Losh points out that any one of December's bright planets, or a configuration of them, easily could have been the Christmas sign. She states that Jupiter dominates the night sky, rising soon after sunset and reaching its meridian around midnight, continuing to attract through the rest of the night.

"As Jupiter is setting in the northwest in the morning sky", the professor explains, "Venus is rising in the southeast about one hour before the sun."

Saturn, located below the bright star Spica, rises around 4:00 a. m. this month.

Also featured in the December skies will be the constellation Auriga, a large five-sided figure, ruled by the bright yellow star Capella and rising soon after sunset. Professor Losh says that The Pleiades, followed by the rest of the constellation Taurus, rises at about the same time as Capella. Taurus is symbolized by the letter "V", with the orange star Aldebara at its lower point.

According to the professor, "Orion, followed by Canis Major, his faithful dog, is next over the horizon." She says that "this group contains Sirius, the brightest star in the entire heavens." On old star maps, the dog usually is depicted as standing on its hind feet and watching the Hare, which crouches close to Orion's feet.

The "Star of the East", pointed to by "the three Wise Men", Sirius was a favorite of the Egyptians, who built temples in its honor. Its appearance announced the time of the Nile's inundation. Professor Losh states that the star is 8.6 light years away and 27 times more luminous than our sun.
