Home Extension Plans Meals

On Tuesday the Clarkston Home Extension group met at the Community Center. Mrs. Keith Lowrie and Mrs. Milton Harrington were in charge of the lesson on "Modern Meal Planning". They stressed the fact that a well-balanced meal could be just as attractive and nutritious as a meal of too many sweets and delicacies.

There was a splendid attendance at the meeting and four new members were welcomed. They were Mrs. J. A. Wethington, Mrs. Harvey Dietzel, Mrs. Donald VanFosser and Mrs. Ira Snauder.

The next meeting will be at the Community Center on Tuesday, April 13th, when the lesson will be on "Short Cuts in Cleaning".

My State Of Mind

My state of mind will bring to me All things in life I want to be. Through what I think, I can possess Great sorrow or true happiness.

A state of mind, I can conjure, To make me feel that I am poor. And many people I have known Accept this lot to be their own.

A constant thought that health is gone Will set my body going wrong; And I can be real deathly ill If I let thought o'er run my will.

If lonesome thoughts are once allowed, I can be lonely in a crowd. Yet, if no human being's there, There's life about me everywhere.

I might think that luck has passed me by, And fail at everything I try; For failing thoughts, I sent ahead To light the path where I was led.

Or, I can build for me a place, Where there is love and wealth and grace; Where I thank God each morn and night, That everything is planned just right.

My life is fashioned with my thought, With it my destiny is wrought. If life will bless me or will damn, My state of mind is what I am.

Mr. Allan Hinz reaches from her bed at Erlanger Hospital to caress her son, Lannie, 10, after a six-week separation. They and Mr. Hinz, standing, were critically injured early last January in an automobile accident. (Photo - courtesy of Chattanooga News-Free Press)

Throughout the nation newspapers are publishing articles suitable for the Lenten season. These stories tell what Faith has done for this one or that one the world over. The following was taken from the Chattanooga News-Free Press in Chattanooga, Tenn., and is quite suitable for this season. It concerns a family from this area whose faith and courage was great enough not only to give them the will to live but to grant them the right to live.

MRS. ALLAN HINZ' ROOM CROWDED BY ERLANGER VISITORS

Officials at Erlanger Hospital might have wondered what's been going on in Room 471 that's been attracting so many visitors.

What it was was Mrs. Hinz. Mrs. Allan Hinz, who lives in Clarkston, Mich., for six weeks has been hanging in that room from a contraption above her bed resembling a fringe area TV antenna.

Her husband is just recovering from severe chest and lung injuries and a month's hospitalization in Cleveland, and her son has been in a bed at Erlanger just down the hall from her since she was admitted.

About everything bad that could happen did happen to Mrs. Hinz last Jan. 5, but still she's about the most cheerful person you'd want to meet.

CHEER STATION

In fact, she operates a "filling station" for cheer from Room 471.

Ministers making the rounds leave Mrs. Hinz' room wondering who really helped whom. Doctors, too, go up to see Mrs. Hinz just to hear her talk and absorb some of her cheerfulness. Hospital attaches find excuses to go by and look in.

The Hinzs hadn't even intended stopping in Chattanooga enroute home in early January from a two-weeks vacation in Florida. In fact, they had by-passed this city and were well on their way north on Highway 411 in their new car when they collided with a truck.

The impact was terrific. Mrs. Hinz, who was in the back seat with their 8 year-old daughter, Mary Lynn, was hurled over the front seat; through the windshield and against the back of the truck.

Mr. Hinz Crushed

Mr. Hinz was literally crushed between the seat and steering wheel. Their son, Lannie, was thrown against the front of the car and was knocked unconscious, a gaping wound in his head.

Mr. Hinz literally crawled to a farmhouse just down the highway and got help. Mrs. Hinz, who was unconscious for ten days, said they were "lucky" the accident occurred near the only house along that stretch of highway. "Otherwise we would have bled to death."

Mr. Hinz was sent to Speck Hospital in Cleveland. He sustained five broken ribs, a broken collar-bone and a punctured right lung.

Mrs. Hinz and Lannie were brought to Erlanger. She had compound fractures of both legs, above the knee, a brain concussion, severe cut on forehead and an injured right hand. Lannie received a severe head injury and was unconscious for days. He also suffered a fractured arm and leg.

BLACK EYE FOR MARY LYNN
A couple of days ago attendants with whom Mrs. Hinz has so completely ingratiated herself with her charm and permeating personality, rolled Lannie on a mobile stretcher up to his mother's room. They saw each other for the first time in six weeks.

Mr. Hinz was there, too, but their daughter, having escaped with only a "black eye" was gone home with relatives who had come after her from Michigan weeks before.

Visitors to Mrs. Hinz' room are impressed with her undampened ardor for life, her persistent optimism and her willingness, even eagerness, to share her cheerfulness with others.

"You feel so good when you talk to her" a nurse said.

Mrs. Hinz said she's supposed to make other folks feel good in a spiritual way, even if she's bundled up to her arms in a plaster cast and swinging from a half dozen ropes and pulleys.

'PRAY WITH THEM'

The Hinzs are professional "faith healers", they said.

Mr. Hinz is really the "faith healer" but Mrs. Hinz is his assistant. Hinz said they have "a little house" at Clarkston where they receive "4,000 to 5,000 patients" a year.

"We just pray with them", Hinz said. "We believe that God can and does heal the sick."

He hastened to point out, glancing at his hospitalized wife and son, that he doesn't attempt to replace doctors or belittle their place in the scheme of things.

"Doctors can put bones together", Hinz philosophized, "but God makes them heal."

He is convinced that the practice of his own profession on himself and his wife and son have helped effect "a miraculous" recovery.

'PIECE OF FREIGHT'

It is the best if not the first opportunity, he said, to practice his profession on his own family.

The Hinzs expect to go home around March 10. Mr. Hinz is able to be around now. He stays in town and visits his wife and son each day. Mrs. Hinz says she plans to be flown home in a cast that will almost encase her. He says she will go home horizontally, like a piece of freight.

But her friends at Erlanger feel that when she goes she'll leave a lasting good impression here that'll overbalance for a little community in Northern Michigan a whole lot of the well-known Southern hospitality.

The Hinz family is back at their home on Hillcrest Drive. Mrs. Hinz is in a cast from her waist to her toes (both legs) and son, Lannie, has a cast from his waist to toes (one leg). They are, of course, confined to their beds, and will be for several weeks yet.

Mrs. Smith was presented with an orchid and several gifts. She was quite happy to visit her nieces and nephews and she inquired about many of the folks in and around Clarkston.

The program was presented by representatives of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, R. A. Sutton who is assistant manager in Pontiac, and Walter Barnett, a service engineer. Mr. Barnett used a magnetic board to show how the Company was striving to speed up its communication system. His talk was very interesting and certainly showed the amazing brain work that is years ahead of what is considered a modern world.

At the business meeting the following were appointed to the nominating committee: Mrs. Mildred Kingsbury, chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Humphries and Mrs. Ruth Fuller.

Clothing Crusade For Needy Children

Clarkston Community Schools will take part in the state-wide save-the-children "Bundle Week" drive to collect used clothing for needy children, it was announced today by Superintendent L. F. Greene. The drive, which is part of the Twelfth Annual Children's Clothing Crusade, will take place here on March 22nd and will last 5 days.

Three million pounds of wearable clothing have been set as a goal. Last year in the Eleventh National Children's Clothing Crusade, over four million pupils collected a total of 2,500,000 lbs of clothing, approximately five million garments.

"We cannot stress too much the desperate need for clothing that exists among children in this country and overseas", Superintendent Greene said. "I am sure the citizens of Clarkston will want to lend a helping hand. Bundle Day provides a practical and effective means of clothing collection, and at the same time, teaches youth in our schools to share what they have with those less fortunate. Participation in the National Children's Clothing Crusade will help foster a sense of brotherhood and lay a firm foundation - for international good will."

Clothing collected by the Federation is used to aid needy children and families in Korea, in war-depleted countries of Europe and the Middle East, and in isolated rural areas of the United States.

More than nine million Korean men, women and children are homeless refugees in their own country. In response to their plight, the Save the Children Federation continues to send warm clothing and shoes to these victims of Communist aggression.

In many countries of Europe the scars of war have not yet healed. Save the Children Federation representatives in Europe report that clothing needs are particularly acute in many areas of Italy, and in Greece, where villagers who fled from Communist aggression have returned to their native homes only to find them in ruins.

In the United States clothing is distributed in low-income rural areas of eight Southern and mid-western States and on the Navajo and Papago Indian Reservations. If it were not for the Bundle Week collections, thousands of these rural children would not be able to attend school because of the lack of adequate clothing.

Superintendent L. F. Greene said that wearable clothing of all types, in babies', children's and adult sizes; blankets, sheets and other bedding; and low-heeled shoes are especially needed.

"I hope we will give a bit of ourselves with these gifts, by cleaning and mending the garments so they will express our good wishes for the children who receive them", he added.

A large number of shipping bags have been ordered from the Federation, and leaflets will be given to all children in the school system to take home during the week, stating the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents.

Students will receive pledge pins

Pledge pins have been presented to 272 University of Michigan students by the 43 fraternities on the campus.

Now that the rushing season is over (February 14 - March 1), the new members will prove themselves worthy of initiation next fall by sustaining their scholastic averages and by lending a hand in several pledge projects of service to the community and to the fraternity.

An active spring calendar has been planned, including Pledge Convocation, Help Week and Greek Week with open houses, workshops, Interfraternity Sing and Ball.

Among those who received the pins was Thomas K. Bullen, 50 Robertson Ct., Clarkston, Sigma Phi.

INVENTORY OF FOODS GOOD IDEA

Have you taken inventory of your food buying practices recently?

If you review your buying practices, you may find ways to improve your food buying habits, suggests Mary L. Morr of the Michigan State College foods and nutrition department.

Here are three points you might consider: First, are you buying all of the nutrients that your family should have? Remember that the Basic 7 food groups make an easy check sheet to determine if all of the family's food nutrient needs are met.

A second point to consider is how much of your food dollar are you willing to spend for services—in the form of pre-packaged, processed and ready-to-eat foods? It might be interesting to use paper and pencil to determine how much of your food dollar you may be spending for this type of service. You'll want to compare the value of these services in relation to your other homemaking duties.

And third, have you learned to look critically at the quality and quantity of foods purchased in ready-to-eat form?

On such an overall appraisal of value of time, quality and quantity of food purchased, you may realize where you can make some valuable savings by revising your practices.

TIME SAVING METHODS

How can you simplify the everyday task of keeping your house neat and clean? Have you ever watched yourself clean a room? Considered the kind of tools and equipment you use? Thought about your pictures while you work? These and other house-keeping problems will be studied at a meeting for Home Demonstration group leaders in Oakland County. The lesson "Cleaning With the Greatest Ease" will be given in each District. The lesson in the Pontiac District will be given on March 23 at the Dublin Community Center on Union Lake Rd.

All classes will begin at 10 a. m. and close at 3:30 p. m. Miss Lucille Ketchum, Extension Specialist in Home Management will conduct the first training school and Mrs. Josephine H. Lawyer, Oakland County home demonstration agent, will conduct the six other schools.

Housekeeping is a twenty-four-hour-a-day job for seven days a week. But homemakers can save time and energy. Better work methods, the right tool for the job, and good posture all cut down on fatigue.

The group leaders of Oakland County will learn to apply methods of simplifying cleaning jobs at the school. They will in turn teach these methods to those attending their local extension group meeting.

CHOOSE A SEWING MACHINE CAREFULLY

Homemakers are confronted with a difficult decision when it comes to choosing a sewing machine these days, says Mrs. Josephine H. Lawyer, home demonstration agent.

There are many types of machines selling at different prices and suited to different purposes.

In response to the demand from families the country over, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has just issued "Buying Your Home Sewing Machine" (HG-38), an illustrated publication prepared by a committee of state and federal extension specialists.

Single copies of the new publication are available free from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

The bulletin includes information on the kinds of sewing for which the different types of machines are best suited.

It also compares advantages of cabinet and portable machines.

Many other points to help buyers choose the machine that will be a good lifetime investment are included in the new publication, says Mrs. Lawyer.

All matters handled through the Probate Court require a certain amount of legal publication in one of the county papers. Foreclosing a mortgage entails publication of the foreclosure notice in a county paper.

Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper each week.

U-M SPONSORS STATEWIDE HIGH SCHOOL DEBATES

A statewide high school debate program sponsored by the University of Michigan has about 6,000 students eagerly discussing the merits of electing the President of the United States by direct ballot instead of through the Electoral College.

Winners of elimination contests now in progress will take part at the University April 24, when the State Championship Debate is held.

Official direction for the debate program and other high school speech activities comes from the Michigan High School Forensic Association, a division of the U-M Bureau of School Services.

U-M TO MARK 137TH YEAR ON MARCH 18

The University of Michigan, older than the state itself, is planning to celebrate its 137th anniversary this month.

While an act by the "territorial legislature" established the University on August 26, 1817, alumni throughout the world traditionally mark the historical date about March 18.

Perhaps some of them will wonder what the educational institution, now fourth largest in the country, was like "back in those days".

The information concerns a 1880 inventory of the University, when the only land which "The Mother of State Universities" owned was the original 40 acres that it had been given when it moved to Ann Arbor from Detroit in 1837.

Now there are some 970 acres in the Ann Arbor area and about 17,500 more in out-state Michigan and elsewhere, including the 346 acres of the new North Campus.

Back in 1880 the buildings were lighted with gas and heated by stoves, with cordwood always on hand and coal scuttles furnished for every classroom.

The University Hospital at that time consisted of a faculty house and a one-story frame extension. Then it was believed by some that hospitals should be built cheaply so that they could be burned and replaced by another inexpensive structure when they became "germ laden".

But even then the University was keeping up with the times.

Medical Milestones

Old-fashioned liniment, Grand-ma's standby remedy, is sometimes better than the wonder hormones to relieve pain of arthritis and rheumatism, a new medical study has reported.

It is credited with relieving pain and permitting more movement in 82 per cent of 149 arthritis and rheumatism patients tested at the New England Medical Center and Holy Cross Hospital in Cambridge, Mass.

The liniment is a famous ointment (Sloan's) first developed 75 years ago for horses.

Most of the 148 were patients who had not been measurably benefited by the Antiarthritis hormones, Cortisone and ACTH or other treatments, they said.

Some had been bedridden for years. After a few weeks of liniment treatment many were able to leave their beds and most were able to move affected joints with greater freedom.

Applied locally to affected joints and muscles, the liniment is credited with raising temperature in body tissues and increasing blood flow.

Physical therapy experts then can give more effective exercises and training to restore usefulness or present deformities of arthritic joints.

The announcement was made in connection with a current national campaign by clinics and hospitals for more men and women to take training in physical therapy to aid millions of arthritis victims.

The liniment treatment was compared with other lotions and ointments to see which brought the greater improvement as measured by objective tests.

The liniment also relieves pain and muscle spasm in patients with lumbago, bursitis, gout and other ailments, the physicians said.

For the Michigan Historical Collections' inventory lists a phonograph "bought in 1878-79", just a year after Thomas A. Edison made his first experimental phonograph.

LEAPFROGGING INTO MONEY? TAKE IT EASY

Raising bullfrogs for the restaurant trade is not a quick and easy way to leapfrog into the big money, cautions Charles Shick, game management extension specialist at Michigan State College.

He has had inquiries about the frogleg business, he reports, and most of them originated with people reading glowing accounts about the business and its easy money.

Over-optimistic reports of success in raising frogs in southern states may mislead people. Shick points out that the longer growing season in the South makes bullfrogs mature two or three years sooner than they do in climates like Michigan.

It starts with a tadpole, cautions Shick, and it takes about three years to turn a newly hatched tadpole into just a small bullfrog. Then, it may take two or more additional years to grow the frogs big enough for attractive "saddles" of froglegs on restaurant menus.

Now, if you are not discouraged by the M. S. C.'s game management man's report—and still want to raise bullfrogs, he has one more reminder: A permit must be obtained from the Michigan Department of Conservation in Lansing before a person can enter the commercial frog "ranching" business.

TEEN-AGERS URGE STIFF ROAD LAWS

Stronger laws for getting and keeping drivers' licenses and more emphasis on driver education were among top recommendations passed by the first Michigan teen-age driver safety conference, held at Michigan State College's Kellogg Center.

Approximately 300 Michigan teen-agers passed seven pages of resolutions, including these two, at their first two-day session on the M. S. C. campus.

The young drivers recommended that present laws governing the use of restricted driver licenses between the ages of 14 and 16 be more strictly interpreted and that such permits be issued only after sufficient showing of real necessity.

Along the same line, the teen-agers recommended that licensing of new drivers and examination for renewal of licenses be much more rigid and complete than is presently the case.

The young drivers said that every high school in the state should be required to provide a driver training course and each applicant for an original Michigan driver's license should successfully complete an accredited driver training course.

In a close vote, the conference turned down suggestions that minimum age for unrestricted licenses be raised from 14 to 15 years.

More responsibility when a violation occurs also was sought by the group. Also, teen-agers said they want "drag strips" for legitimate hot-rods operated in cooperation with local authorities, and inter-scholastic contests in good driving.

Sponsor of the session were the Michigan State Safety Commission and the Youth Advisory Council of the Michigan Youth Commission. The entire conference was handled by teen-agers with older safety workers serving as resource persons and observers.

FINAL FIGURES ON MARCH OF DIMES

Final figures on the March of Dimes campaign were announced today by Mrs. Ruth Parshall, executive secretary of the Oakland County Chapter. Mrs. Parshall reports that contributions reached a grand total of $130,000 setting a new record for the county. One-third of this amount will be spent for polio prevention, furthering the use of gamma globulin and financing field trial tests of the new polio vaccine. Another third will be reserved for epidemic aid and the remaining third kept for local chapter expenses and direct help for Oakland County polio victims. Mrs. Parshall points out that already $26,576 of the March of Dimes funds had been paid out locally in direct patient care. County campaign directors and local campaign chairmen today extended their thanks to all who assisted in the campaign and especially to the general public who so generously contributed funds to advance the fight on polio.

The March of Dimes is the sole support of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which finances both scientific research on polio and also treatment of polio patients. Contributions from the various communities are as follows: Auburn Heights, $1,288.95; Berkeley, 6,164.15; Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills, 24,583.46; Brandon Twp, 81.00; Clarkston, 348.50; Clawson, 2,365.74; Clarenceville, 2,437.18; Commerce-Walled Lake, 12,145.96; Farmington, 3,901.62; Hazel Park, 3,946.39; Huntington Woods, 3,523.44; Holly, 1,101.80; Lake Orion, 1,351.10; Milford-Highland, 2,055.53; Novi Twp, 1,343.34; Oak Park, 5,751.33; Oxford, 984.67; Pontiac, 17,220.56; Rochester, 2,670.09; Royal Oak, 18,063.76; Royal Oak Twp, 1,575.00; South Lyon-New Hudson, 45.00; Southfield Twp, 6,257.04; Troy, 2,193.98; Waterford Twp-Drayton Plains, 5,500.00; W. From where I sit, there's always more than one way to approach a thing and still come out fair and square to all. My wife likes a cup of tea with dinner; I prefer a temperate glass of beer. We get along fine. Gets me pretty mad though, when somebody starts "throwing his weight around" and demands that I see things exactly his way.

There's the same dashing air about the inside, too. Two-tone color scheme. Harmonizing, supple-as-leather upholstery. Smart instrument panel, with dials clustered for instant reading. But mister—take another look! A burly, brawny brute of an engine—a real truck engine—makes you think of a Miss America who can bend horseshoes. 125 horsepower says that this beauty can heft a top load with ease and dash. That's more power than some makers pack into their two-ton models. That's more usable power than in any other 6-cylinder engine in its class! And its wide, deep box holds at least 8 cubic feet more than the roomy '53 model. That tail gate is grain-tight—and sand-tight. Finally, it offers Truck Hydra-Matic Drive* that saves you, saves your cash, saves your time. (Note to the luxury-minded: there's a DE LUXE model at extra cost, with chrome grille and trim, two-tone paint, curved rear corner windows—the works!) Come in and drive this great GMC. It will do all its own selling! *Truck Hydra-Matic Drive standard on some models, optional at extra cost on others.

The healing power of that faith which is rooted in a spiritual understanding of God will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance" includes the following passage from the Bible:
"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen . . . Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear" (Hebrews 11:1,3).

Among the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following:
"When we come to have more faith in the truth of being than we have in error, more faith in Spirit than in matter, more faith in living than in dying, more faith in God than in man, then no material suppositions can prevent us from healing the sick and destroying error" (388:14).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Thy name, O Lord, endureth forever; and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations" (135:13).

GRAND AWARD WINNER, NINTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

March rains help crops but hamper motorists who have to contend with poor visibility and slippery streets. By being extra alert on rainy days, children can lessen the danger of accidents. To help remind youngsters to be careful, Automobile Club of Michigan has distributed 10,500 full-size copies of this poster to schools throughout the state. This Grand Award winning poster was prepared by Detroit art student Herbert Olds who took top honors in last year's AAA National Safety Poster Contest. Michigan students are now working on entries for the 10th Annual Contest.

March 18 through April 18 is designated Easter Seal Month, and a special day, April 10, is nationally designated as Crippled Children's Day, the day of the Easter Seal Tele-Parade.

The president emphasized that 91.7% of all funds received from Easter Seal contributions will remain right in Michigan to help its thousands of crippled citizens through expert examinations, treatment, special education, vocational guidance and training, and many other services, including the furnishing of orthopedic aids and appliances and occupational therapy and crafts for the severely handicapped who are homebound.

The Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., is the oldest non-profit organization in Michigan. It serves all physically handicapped persons, regardless of color, race or creed and regardless of the causes of crippling.

UNUSUAL PLASTICS TO BE SHOWN
On Tuesday evening, March 23, the public is invited to attend a "plastics party" at the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church, at 7:30. These plastics do not include dishes or the like, but will be a display of table covers, curtains, drapes, aprons, etc.

You will enjoy a fine evening with your neighbors and friends. Refreshments will be served.

P. T. A. Council Meets March 16
Oakland County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will hold its March 16th meeting at Williams Lake School, Airport Road, Williams Lake.

Three pre-meeting conferences are scheduled for 7:15 P. M. 1. Health and Pre-School Round-Up, led by Miss Evelyn Kidneigh, Director of Nurses of Oakland County Health Department. 2. Juvenile Protection, Mrs. A. Weiborg, Chairman of Juvenile Protection for Oakland County Council.

This conference will be on the Evaluation of Comic Books and the Supervision of Children's Reading. 3. Hospitality, Mrs. Robert Kempf, Chairman of Hospitality for Oakland County Council.

The regular meeting will begin at 8:00 P. M. Election of officers will take place. "The Good Life for Children" is to be the theme used by the guest speaker, Dr. William Wattenburg of the Department of Psychology Education at Wayne University.

During the evening Miss Evelyn Kidneigh will explain the facts concerning the Oakland County chest x-ray survey to be conducted throughout Oakland County between March 2 and July 2.

Oakland County Council meetings are always open to all who are interested in the schools, our children, and all P. T. A. activities, whether they be parents, teachers, committee chairmen or officers of the local P. T. A.'s.

D. A. R. Chapter Has Annual Meeting
The annual meeting of General Richardson Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution was held in the Pontiac High School on March 5, at one o'clock.

Preceding the business meeting a broadcast on Conservation was given by the Audio Visual Department under the direction of Miss Vera Adams, director of Radio Education, with fifteen high school students participating.

Accompanying script for the study of Conservation is mailed to 350 teachers, in this area, with average attendance of 25 pupils.

This program will be broadcast over WCAR March 12, at 10:00 A. M.

Miss Adams was chosen by the Chapter to attend the Conservation School at Higgins Lake, for one week, and the broadcast was based on her activities while there.

After the broadcast Miss Adams told how the teacher sent to the school counted sharp tailed grouse and deer in territory one mile long and one-half mile wide. She also visited land, not farmed according to conservation methods, now almost worthless, but reclamation had begun by planting trees.

Lectures at the school were given by talented members of the State Department of Conservation from Lansing.

Mrs. Frank B. Gerls, regent, presided over the business meeting at which time the annual reports were given.

Mrs. Going introduced a new member, Mrs. George Eldred, making a total of 103 members.

The Advisory Board submitted the following names to fill vacancies in chapter offices: Mrs. Allan Monroe was elected 1st vice-president; Mrs. Everett Peterson, 2nd vice-president and Mrs. William F. Todd, corresponding secretary.

Clarkston Locals
The second election to vote for the additions to the three schools and the high school resulted the same as in the first election with voters approving the tax limitation amendment.

Mrs. Marguerite Miller of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Alfred String of Pontiac left on Tuesday for a vacation in Florida. Mrs. Marguerite Miller will remain in Tampa for a month and expects to return to Clarkston with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lanning, who have been in Tampa for the past few weeks.

John J. Rhoades, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rhoades of route 1, Clarkston, is serving with Attack Squadron 105. Rhoades who entered Naval service March 16, 1953, reported aboard from the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tennessee. Before entering the Navy, he attended St. Frederick High School in Pontiac.

After the broadcast Miss Adams told how the teacher sent to the school counted sharp tailed grouse and deer in territory one mile long and one-half mile wide. She also visited land, not farmed according to conservation methods, now almost worthless, but reclamation had begun by planting trees.
