Golden Wedding

Dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. August Jacober Many's the turn in life's long road, With sections rough and winding; And many's the time the speed was slowed By storms, the vision blinding. Many's the time the road was clear, Without a sign of worry. It seemed that there was naught to fear, And time was in no hurry. I'm sure you've seen the dark and bright, And braved the stormy weather. Devoted paths you've kept in sight, And trod their miles together. You worked long hours for days on end Without a thought of resting; Yet, took some time to help a friend And share your Master's blessing. We honor you, who've been so true To God and to each other. We hope years bring the best to you As one o'ertakes another. We're pleased to find that passing time Has lightly left its traces, Has blended softness in each line That it drew on your faces.

Plea Made For Baseball Outfits

Although Clarkston has no recreation department, a number of boys, with John Ronk as manager, have organized a baseball team and they have entered the Pontiac League. Lee Kelley of Kelley's Hardware has furnished balls and bats and has paid the League fee.

The boys have made a fine start for young fellows who are on their way up as far as baseball is concerned. They are interested in the game and among them are some promising players. Several of these boys have been offered positions on other teams in Pontiac and vicinity, but it is their desire to stay together as a Clarkston team.

However, the boys need support, not only morally, but financially, in that they need uniforms. At present they are using old, really worn-out suits that were discarded by the local school several years ago. The suits are really a disgrace to such a fine town as Clarkston.

Maybe something could be done to furnish these active, young people with baseball outfits—caps, socks, pants and shirts. Kelley and Ronk are doing their parts, perhaps a few other interested citizens would like to cooperate.

Cardinals Seek Young Players

Memorial Stadium in Port Huron, Mich., will be the scene of much baseball activity on Friday and Saturday, July 2 and 3, for young players between 17 and 23.

St. Louis Cardinal major league scouts will make an appearance those two days to conduct trial sessions for all players in that age bracket. Workouts get underway each morning promptly at 10 o'clock.

"This is a golden opportunity for any young player who has ever thought of making professional baseball a career," Joe Mathes, chief Cardinal scout and minor league director, said. "Many of the big league stars of tomorrow are being discovered in the tryout camps of today," Mathes said. "Harvey Haddix, Al Schoendienst, Del Rice and Wilmer 'Vinegar Bend' Mizell are just a few examples on the present Cardinal club of big league stars who got their first chance in a tryout camp exactly like the one to be held in Port Huron on July 2 and 3.

"Rather than the young player having to try for recognition by a scout, we're out looking for him and offering him an opportunity to win a professional baseball contract for himself. Our minor league system today has been designed specifically for the young player and he is given every possible opportunity and advantage to advance up the baseball ladder right into the big league with the Cardinals," Mathes said.

"Everyone in the organization works with and for the young player to help and assist him to make good. Our scouts Bill Maughn and Jack Sturdy, veteran baseball men, will be at Port Huron to see that all players are given a fair and impartial evaluation," Mathes, veteran of 44 years in professional baseball, remarked.

"Those who attend," he said, "need bring only shoes, a glove and a uniform, if they have one. We'll furnish plenty of good bats, balls and two sets of catching equipment."

COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO CONVENE AUGUST 11

The Oakland County Democratic Convention will be held at the County Office Building, 1 Lafayette Street, Pontiac, Mich., on August 11, 1954, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

At this convention the delegates will be elected to attend the state convention in Grand Rapids on August 14, 1954.

School Bldg Fund Has Good Start

Memorial Reservations of $36,500 have been reported to date, announced Roy Alger, Memorial Gift Chairman. It is expected that by the first official report meeting on Thursday, July 1, the total will be substantially increased as Our Lady of the Lakes School Building Fund Campaign moves into high gear.

Along with Roy Alger, Memorial Gift Associate Chairmen Thomas Foley and Bert Lytell have expressed unanimous praise of the accomplishments to date and of the courteous reception accorded them by the parishioners they have visited thus far. In this respect Lawrence McCulloch, General Chairman, noted that in addition to raising funds for the proposed $200,000 school, the campaign was having a "great unifying influence to the parish". "We will not only be successful in this drive, but will really get to know one another," commented Mr. McCulloch.

Organizational plans for the general solicitation phase of the campaign have resulted in an overwhelming number of volunteers who attended the first general training meeting last Tuesday. Faced with such a spirit of cooperation and enthusiasm on the part of all concerned, Father Delaney, Pastor, could speak only in terms of great optimism. At this time Rev. Delaney announced the names of the various chairmen and executive committee: Lawrence McCulloch, General Chairman; Milton Harrington, Associate General Chairman; Roy Alger, Memorial Gift Chairman; Bert Lytell, Associates; Thomas Foley, Associates; John Foster, Business and Friends (Community) Chairman; George Brinker, Business and Friends (Community) Chairman; John Manser, Continuation Chairman; Frank Zimmerman, Team Captains Co-Chairman; Louis Bachnak, Team Captains Co-Chairman; Howard Altman, Rodrick Anderson, Howard Brinker, Walter Brinkman, Carleton Brown, Thomas Carry, Frank Comps, John Crigger, Cornelius Crowley, Joseph Fisher, Ralph Florio, Chanel Fournier, Fred Harrington, Ted Hennig, Francis Jozwik, Robert Novotny, J. Daryl O'Dea, Charles Springer, Douglas Squires, Dr. James St. Louis, Edward Tallenger, John Tersigni, John Turek.

Those who helped at the Inn on the day of the party were Mrs. George McCann, Mrs. Gundry, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Sharpe, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Warrick, Mrs. J. P. Hubbard and Mrs. William Dunston.

Robert Roy, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Roy of Waldon Road, enlisted in the Air Force and is now stationed at the Sampson Air Base at Geneva, N. Y.

State Police Ready For Holiday Rush

With the heaviest Fourth of July traffic in history expected this weekend, State Police operations have been geared to concentrate patrol coverage in the areas of congestion and high accident rates and pass days of all officers have been cancelled to provide maximum enforcement strength.

"But even with the best efforts of every enforcement agency, we can still expect a heavy accident toll unless drivers cooperate by doing the very best job they know how at the wheel," said Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "Traffic will be heavy and driving much more hazardous."

Childs pointed out that 30 persons lost their lives in highway accidents over the three-day Fourth of July weekend last year as compared to 20 during the four-day Memorial holiday weekend this year. The average for each summer weekend last year was 22.5 deaths.

"Our Memorial holiday record indicated improvement and showed that when they wanted to, drivers can do better," Childs stated. "It is our hope they make an ever greater effort this weekend to stay alive."

Childs urged drivers to plan their trips so that they do not have to rush, use extreme care in passing and "watch out for the other driver, because he can cause an accident, too."

"The only way to avoid an accident," he said, "is by driving as if your life depended upon it, because it does."

All State Police enlisted personnel, including detectives and others on special assignment, will be on duty, which will mean a 20 percent increase in patrol strength over the weekend.

Oldtimers Have June Picnic

On Thursday afternoon of last week the Clarkston Oldtimers met at the Caribou Inn for a picnic and an afternoon of visiting. There were about 35 present. A lunch was served at noon on the large porch across the back of the Inn. There were attractive floral centerpieces on the luncheon tables arranged by Mrs. Merle Bennett with flowers from the William Gassick and the W. S. Barrows gardens.

A large sign on the porch which read "Welcome Oldtimers" was made by Harvey Nelson. Sandwiches were furnished by Miss Ruth Sharpe, Mrs. Otto Strohman, Mrs. Fred Warrick and Mrs. Merle Bennett. Mrs. Glenn Johnson and Mrs. William Hagle made potato salad. Cakes were furnished by Mrs. W. S. Barrows, Mrs. Roy Gundry, Mrs. Arnold Mann and Mrs. Ralph Kreger. Two of the cakes were birthday cakes, each with one candle, in honor of Mrs. Ada Mills and Mrs. Anna Doeblner. Mrs. Ben Powell made orange and lime parfait and Mrs. Amanda Alsbach of Caribou Inn furnished the tea and coffee.

Mrs. Alsbach presented Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Doeblner with birthday cards and pretty handkerchiefs.

The group was sorry that some of the members could not be present on account of illness. These included Frank Howland, Henry Scrae, Homer Lowrie, John Marvin and Fred Kyle.

The amount in the bank account for the Oldtimers Friendly Visiting Committee was announced. Mrs. Ira Jones and Mrs. Agnes Douglas are in charge of this fund.

Those who helped at the Inn on the day of the party were Mrs. George McCann, Mrs. Gundry, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Sharpe, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Warrick, Mrs. J. P. Hubbard and Mrs. William Dunston.

By The Way . . .

Friday, the voters of the township will trip to the polls to decide whether taxes shall be raised 1 mill ($1.00 per $1,000.) for the next five years to provide better fire protection. One can understand the anguish of knowing their house is burning and yet the fire department is busy in another part of the township and cannot answer their call for help. Independence Township is growing in population and in the number of homes to protect. No doubt more fire equipment is needed. . . . Financial note of the week: For perhaps the clearest understanding of how a large modern corporation figures the future market for their product, one should read the article in the American Magazine by the Chairman of the Board of General Electric. Starting with the fact that a child is born every 8 seconds, the writer even figures the years that these babies will be needing certain products made by the company and then projects the years the greatest need for household goods such as stoves, refrigerators and TV's will be needed. Very few of these large companies gained the size they are by wrong thinking. . . . On the 11th day of May the State Board of Health Mobile X-Ray Unit visited Clarkston. A number had the x-ray pictures taken to see if they were in good health. About two weeks ago all the furor arose about the lung cancers that could come from smoking. Some have cut out the habit entirely, some cut down on their smokes, and most all who had had the X-Ray pictures and were smokers wondered what had happened to the findings. These reports are now arriving from the Lansing office, perhaps you have already received yours, but if you have not it should be along in a day or so if they are processing the lot taken here in a group. . . . And now for a "long" weekend to celebrate the 4th of July. Clarkston will have its celebration on Monday, under the sponsorship and leadership of the Firefighters and the township merchants, as usual. This is a day to have a good time. Traffic will be heavy and unless everyone exercises good judgment there will be a number of accidents, following the law of averages, but you can try to keep the average less than usual. As for the past few years, the 4th of July safety adv, reminding one to drive carefully is sponsored by Foley & Beardslee, as a public service. . . . To the smokers who are wondering about their health, we offer the advice of a friend of ours: "You'll live your time out".

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morse (Jeanette Vliet) of Concord, California, are announcing the birth of a 7 lb 5 oz daughter, Beverly Ann, on June 22nd. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Vliet of Clarkston and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morse of Drayton Plains.

"Having two children of my own in school, I am naturally very interested in our school system.

It is my belief that schools have been operated on sound business principles by maintaining good controls on operating costs. We have extended our means to hire teachers of the highest quality available to insure a good educational program.

Our growing school district presents a real challenge to provide classrooms, and to operate our school with monies available. I would like to remain on the Board of Education and serve in any way I can to aid in improving our present system and to provide the best educational facilities possible for the children of our school district."

Ronald Weber
Treasurer
Board of Education

(for the 2-year term)

"As an appointee to the present school board, my objective has been to keep, protect, and improve, where feasible, our Community School system so that I may be proud to have my own children attend.

If elected my objective will remain the same in the future."

Kenneth Thayer
Incumbent Trustee

"My desire to be on the Clarkston Board of Education is motivated by two basic reasons. First, there is the realization that education is the foundation of our American way of life, and that to secure our way of life, our educational systems must be sound. Secondly, and more selfishly, I would like to see my six children educated in a modern up-to-date school system.

In conclusion, I might say that I am not interested in the best possible school regardless of the cost, but rather the best school at a price the community can afford to pay."

Three Wartime Leaders Serve Together In Top Posts of United Defense Fund

President Dwight D. Eisenhower, honorary chairman of United Defense Fund, presents citation to Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, leader of World War II air raid on Tokyo, for his leadership as last year's national campaign chairman of UDF. General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, at right, is present campaign chairman of the Fund.

NEW YORK — Three famous comrades-in-arms of World War II, one of whom is now President of the United States, are serving together in peace time as leaders of the United Defense Fund—an organization financing the activities of USO and four other defense-related agencies.

The three generals, Dwight Eisenhower, Omar Bradley and "Jimmy" Doolittle, were among the principal speakers at UDF's recent leadership mobilization meeting in Washington, D.C., attended by more than 500 volunteer leaders of UDF, Community Chests and United Funds throughout the country.

At the opening session, held in the Rose Garden at the White House, President Eisenhower, UDF's honorary chairman, declared that "the big thing that the United Defense Fund does is to keep the soldier abroad understanding that he is part of America, no matter where he comes from, what may be his city, what may be his race, or his religion—he still thinks, through this kind of effort, primarily of America, and of himself as an American."

Commenting on the services of UDF agencies, General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, UDF national campaign chairman, said that through these services "we, here at home, keep in touch with our young people in uniform, we make them aware that we appreciate and have respect for the job they're doing, and we let them know that, meanwhile, we are doing everything we can to strengthen democracy here."

Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, chairman of the board of UDF, asserted that "every American serviceman in addition to being fed and clothed and equipped, needs a spiritual and emotional gyroscope, a stabilizer to help him keep his balance in a world of confusion. The United Defense Fund program is designed to meet that basic need."

At the meeting, governmental, industrial, business, labor and religious leaders reported the need for UDF services and urged support of the Fund.

The United Defense Fund is supported chiefly through Community Chest and United Fund campaigns held throughout the country. Last year, UDF received approximately $11 million through these drives. Because of unmet needs, however, UDF this year must raise an additional $4½ million.

Agencies included in UDF are USO, United Community Defense Services, American Social Hygiene Association, United Seaman's Service, and National Recreation Association.

New executive committee of Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross re-named Harold B. Euler of Pontiac as chapter chairman at its election of officers on Wednesday of last week.

The Committee ratified a budget of $78,922.00 to run the chapter during the year starting July 1. The retiring executive committee approved the budget earlier this month. The Red Cross hopes to have 12 to 20 short-wave equipped cars, each carrying a disaster team, on the road every evening, Friday through Monday. Michigan State Police and Oakland County Sheriff's Department will call first aid cars when needed, to help people hurt in auto crashes, near drownings and other accidents over the long Fourth of July weekend.

The new Red Cross volunteer service will cost almost nothing, Red Cross officers said today. The Red Cross will furnish gas, oil and first-aid equipment for the radio-equipped cars, owned and driven by Oakland County members of the Inter-County Amateur Radio Club.

"We're proud to be able to help the police in this weekend's safety work", Ralph A. Forman of Pontiac, Red Cross first aid chairman, said. James Abbott of Birmingham, Radio Club emergency coordinator, South Oakland County, said his group was "happy to serve".

Forman said the cars will carry two by three-foot banners, "Red Cross Emergency First Aid, Amateur Radio Equipped", on their rear decks. The volunteer cars will meet at chapter headquarters, 118 Franklin Blvd., Pontiac, to get their assignments from the state police and sheriff.

Forman thinks some cars may cruise high-accident zones; other first aid teams stand by at parks and beaches and other crowded spots; and a third group at dangerous intersections. "We're not sure of all the details yet", he said. "If this program works out this weekend", Forman said, "We hope to have volunteers working on every heavy-traffic Sunday and all holiday weekends." "We hope", he said, "these teams will not only help save lives of the injured but will remind drivers of the danger of road accidents".

Any first-aid instructor who can volunteer time is asked to contact Red Cross headquarters, Federal 4-3575. Radio amateurs with short-wave equipped cars are asked to call Abbott at Mid-west 4-7739 or Red Cross offices to volunteer. Cars will work from 4:00 P. M. until 10:00 P. M.

IF FIRE HITS, ARE YOU SET?

What would you do if fire struck your farm home, barns or other buildings right now? Are you prepared?

Many people do not know how to meet a fire threat efficiently, cautions David G. Steinicke, M. S. C., extension safety specialist. They do not know how to call the firemen quickly, how to give them the best directions for reaching the farm quickly, nor what to do while waiting. He suggests a few things worth having on hand—a tall ladder, fire extinguishers that have been recharged recently, an adequate supply of water, garden hoses, pails of water, wet burlap bags.

One among every ten active registered nurses is enrolled with Red Cross for community service in case of local emergency need, such as epidemics or disasters.

STATISTICS REVEALED ON VACCINE TRIALS

Statistics revealed today that one of the greatest medical experiments in history, the Salk polio vaccine trials, has been accomplished in Oakland County with almost entirely volunteer gratis hands.

Evaluation of the effectiveness of the new polio vaccine already has begun while filing still continues on the records of the 17,116 children who volunteered to be "Polio Pioneers" by undergoing the three injections. Each record is being carefully studied as the rate of new polio cases swings upwards. Any child in the study group who contracts the disease will be given specialized attention.

Mrs. Howard Rieman of Birmingham, chairman of all volunteers for the countywide project has completed a count of her 4,000 workers in the vaccine trials and finds that they have contributed over 9,132 hours of work from March 5 to June 18.

This figure includes 104 women who prepared precinic supplies, request forms and instructions, and another 30 who packaged clinical supplies for distribution to the 148 schools participating.

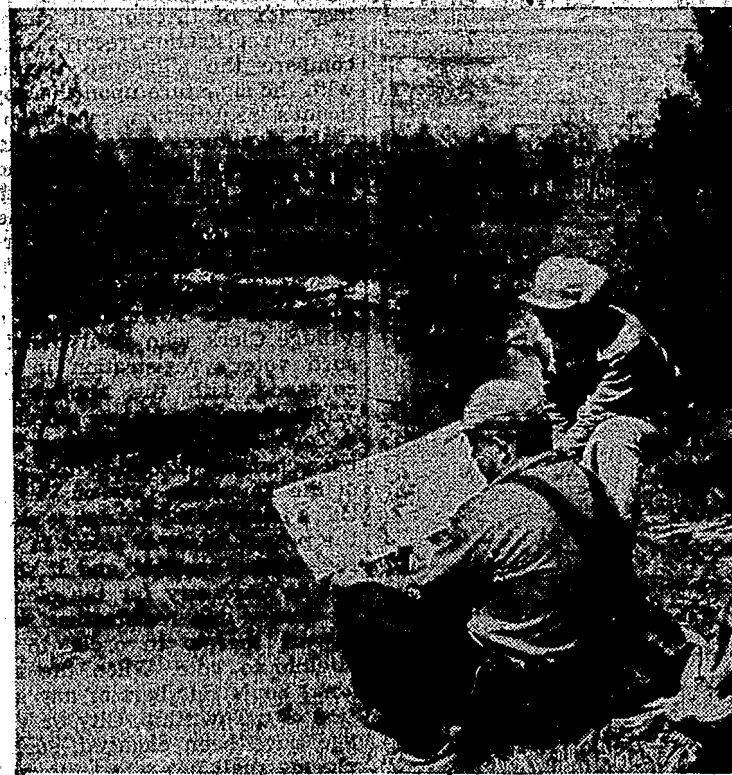

Mrs. Rieman pointed out that the March of Dimes financed the vaccine trials supplies, however all personnel worked on a volunteer basis.

Not included in these tabulations are the hundreds of hours devoted to the project by the Oakland County Health Department which along with the County Medical Association conducted and supervised the inoculations for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Largest volume of volunteers assisted during the 1,332 hours of actual clinics. Three clinics were held at each of the 148

Work Starts on Cedar River

The Cedar River system in Gladwin and Clare counties is the latest watershed chosen for work under the conservation department's stream improvement program. Erosion will be halted, water deflectors installed and uplands planted to bring the stream back to more natural condition. Norman Brown, right, a state farm planner, discusses with a land-owner one of the many problems involved in the two-year project.

schools over a six week period, with extra blood sampling clinics for 575 children in four schools. It was estimated that 3,000 school volunteers including clinic aides, nurses, mothers and school personnel contributed at least 5,932 hours during the vaccine trials.

Mrs. Rieman and three others of her headquarters staff alone gave 1,696 hours of their time. Outstanding is the effort of Mrs. Russel Hetzer of Pontiac who headed the office, donating 48 hours of work each week over a three month period for a total of 376 hours. Working with her directing distribution of supplies was Mrs. John M. Ericson of Birmingham who contributed 480 hours. Both are still on the job.

The transportation committee which shuttled all clinic supplies and serum to and from headquarters at 1025 N. Telegraph Rd., Pontiac, to the school clinics recorded 5,000 miles of driving. This included rushing blood samplings to health department laboratories in Lansing and Ann Arbor to undergo extensive tests.

Five women counted 409 hours in the cause of public education, speaking before parent-teacher groups, civic meetings and contacting twenty county publications.

Mrs. Rieman issued sincere thanks to all who helped on the vast project and especially to the 100 or more doctors who contributed their professional services.

DAIRY FARMERS HURT

The recent Dairy Strike in the Detroit Milk Shed cost Oakland County dairymen about thirteen thousand dollars a day. The most ironic thing about it is that the farmers had no influence in the matter one way or the other. With a loss of nearly four cents a quart since the fall of 1951, farmers were already having trouble enough making ends meet in the dairy business. With the loss of all income, even for a short period of time, and with their costs continuing, it will be impossible for some dairymen to show any profit, or even a labor income for 1954. One of the farmers commented that he thought "June was Dairy Month".

CORN JUMPING

The recent rains and hot weather have advanced the corn crop in the County quite a bit for this time of year. The old saying, "Corn should be knee high by the Fourth of July", will sure be fulfilled this year. Most farmers report that their corn was 18 to 24 inches last week. Many farmers reported that they had a good crop of weeds and grass also as a result of the rains and late haying.

WEED KILLERS IN CORN

Some have asked about the use of weed killers at this state of development of the corn. The answer is probably "No". First of all the corn is really too big to be sure that the spray will be kept off the leaves. Second, the weeds are pretty well along to be effectively killed by amounts of weed killer safe for the corn crop. Third, the availability of a sprayer to do the job is very limited. Most farmers don't want the job that it takes to clean the sprayer to be safe for spraying for insect control. Fourth, and probably most important, weed killers that could be applied to the corn would not kill the grass which is probably the most troublesome of the weeds in corn.

POULTRY, ICE CREAM, MILK BUYS IN JULY

Broilers and fryers share the top spot with ice cream on the U.S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for July—with dairy production continuing at a record-breaking level. Wholesale broiler and fryer prices should continue without upsurges, notes Henry Larzelere, Michigan State College poultry marketing specialist. Total supplies for July are about 5 per cent above last July. The first sizable marketing of new crop turkeys will be on hand, with light birds available throughout the month. Beef will continue to be plentiful. There is an abundance of the higher grade meat from grain-fed cattle. Grass-fed cattle will be coming to market in seasonally larger numbers to provide more of the intermediate and lower grades of beef. Produce markets will be abundantly supplied with a wide

Coffee In The Cake and Coffee In The Cup

ANGEL FOOD, the lightest and most delicate of cakes, has acquired a new complexion in a good cause—that of using up coffee to the very last precious drop. In this Coffee Angel Food, both cake and frosting utilize that odd cup or so of coffee left over from breakfast. The cake takes on a subtle flavor and a cafe-au-lait color and the frosting offers that toothsome blend of coffee and chocolate known as mocha.

Coffee Angel Food can be made very successfully from a packaged mix, and that's a blessing indeed. It's a difficult and time-consuming cake to make from a full recipe. The major effort here goes into the frosting, a matter of the utmost importance in a bland cake. We're willing to bet that Mocha Butter Cream Frosting turns out to be the best you have tasted in a long time. Needless to say, the coffee that goes with the cake should be the best you know how to make. A flavorful brew requires two level measuring tablespoons of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of fresh cold water; the use of

Coffee Angel Food

Prepare and bake angel food cake mix as directed on package, using strong coffee instead of the water called for in package directions. When cool, frost with:

Mocha Butter Cream Frosting
 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 1/2 cup light corn syrup
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup cocoa
 1/2 cup strong cold coffee (about) (3 1/2 cups) (1 pound) sifted confectioners' sugar

Cream butter or margarine. Add corn syrup, salt and vanilla; blend. Stir in cocoa. Add coffee and confectioners' sugar alternately, beating until smooth and creamy after each addition. Add enough coffee to make a good spreading consistency.

variety of vegetables from nearby market gardens, in addition to the heavy vegetable shipments from commercial growing areas. Watermelon is the only fruit "plentiful" for July. The list for July includes fresh fish, peanuts and peanut butter, and vegetable fats and oils.

The spiritual basis of man's true independence will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God".

Man's God-given freedom will be brought out in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following passage (227:14-16, 24-26):
"Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. . . Citizens of the world, accept the 'glorious liberty of the children of God,' and be free! This is your divine right."
Among the passages to be read from the King James Version of the Bible is the following (Isaiah 33:22): "For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us."

QUESTION WHY CHILD FAILING TO MIND YOU

Your 3-year-old child simply will not mind! If this is your problem, concentrate on WHY the child does not mind—instead of merely on the FACT.

Approach the problem much as you would the problem of the cake that failed to rise, suggests Mrs. Lennah Backus, extension family life specialist at Michigan State College.

What is the cause? That is really what you need to know. Begin by asking yourself these questions:

Is the child well and does he get enough sleep? Well-fed children have more energy to cooperate and rested children are more willing to take suggestions.

What tone of voice do you use when you ask your child to do something? Is it a request or is it a command? The rather gentle but positive manner usually gets better response than the command.

When asking your child to do something, do you allow time for the request to "get through" to him? Children are sometimes so engrossed that they need a moment to turn from one activity to another.

Just what do you expect of your child? Are the things you ask within his ability—or does he give up in despair and refuse?

Is your 3-year-old refusing to mind in order to gain attention? If you suspect this is the case, why not plan to give him more of your time and the feeling that he can gain your attention in more desirable ways.

Such questions will help you plan wisely to solve the "simply will not mind" problem, says the family life specialist.

INDEPENDENCE FOR TEEN-AGERS

Parents! Beware of getting too chummy with your children! Read "Independence for Teen-Agers", in next Sunday's American Weekly and learn why it's wrong to be a "pal" to your children! Don't miss this expert advice from Isabelle Taves, noted authority on youth and its problems, in The American Weekly, with SUNDAY'S CHICAGO AMERICAN.

WHEAT QUOTA PINCHES, CORN NO SUBSTITUTE

Marketing quotas are on their way for wheat again next year and farmers are caught in a two-way pinchers this time, advises Burnell Held, M. S. C. agricultural economist. This year it was relatively easy to divert acres from wheat—under allotment and quota—to other crops. But next year there will be acreage allotments on corn—and possibly on oats, barley and soybeans.

There is a good chance that a "cross compliance" rule also will apply. This means that unless you follow acreage allotments in all covered crops you will get no supports, even for wheat within quotas.

Marketing quotas are put on only in the event that supplies build up to a point 20 per cent above normal. They are there now for wheat. Normal supply is enough wheat to take care of domestic consumption, exports and a 15 per cent carryover.

Farmers vote on any quotas proclaimed by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson. A vote for 90 per cent of parity on wheat, or $2.20 per bushel, would mean marketing with penalties for overplanting. Free marketing provides no quotas or penalties, but a farmer must stay within acreage allotments to qualify for a government loan or sell at 50 per cent of parity price support—$1.22 per bushel. Held warns farmers not to let the higher support price hide the fact that drastic acreage cuts almost always follow high supports because of surpluses.
