CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1954

New Station Needs Firemen

On Tuesday evening, August 24th, there will be a meeting at the Community Center in Clarkston, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of getting volunteer firemen to help with the work at the new station at the corner of Sashabaw and Orion Roads.

It would make the task much lighter for the men in town if the men in the Sashabaw-Orion district would volunteer. All men interested are asked to attend the meeting.

Local O. E. S. Plans Activities

The Joseph C. Bird Chapter, No. 294, O. E. S., of Clarkston, will hold the regular meeting at the Masonic Temple, on Tuesday evening, September 7th, at 8 o'clock.

Advanced Officers' Night will be held on Monday, September 20th. The initiatory degree will be exemplified at this meeting.

Oldtimers Party Next Thursday

The Clarkston Oldtimers will meet at the home of Mrs. David Stewart on N. Main St., next Thursday, August 26th. There will be a picnic lunch at noon and a program is being planned for the afternoon.

Oldtimers wishing transportation please call MAple 5-4077.

At Ninety-Six

Dedicated to Lemuel VanSyckle
It's quite a thing a man should live

And of his talents freely give,
O'er such a lengthy span of time
While work and pleasure years entwine.

I've never thought of him as old,
As headlines in the paper told,
For all these years he's been so spry
That time just seemed to pass him by.

When other men felt they were through
And planned to live a year or two,
He planned and built a house of stone
With artist's skill and all alone.

He never hoped for idle days
Or tried to change another's ways,
But loved his fellowman sincerely
And held his right to work most dearly.

We honor him not just because
He found a way to stretch the laws,
That govern normal years that span
The lives and destinies of man.

But rather how he faced the years
That brought him pleasure and some tears,
How though he's old he's young at heart,
How faith to us his days impart.

Newlyweds Go To Niagara Falls

The First Baptist Church in Clarkston was the scene of a pretty wedding last Saturday evening at seven o'clock when Barbara Joyce Waggener and Carl Gusie spoke their nuptial vows to the Reverend George Halk in a double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Waggener of 6470 Waldon Road, Clarkston, are the bride's parents and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Howard Duckworth of New Orleans, La., and Adolph Gusie of Saginaw.

The rites were read before an altar bedecked with palms, baskets of white gladioli and cathedral candles.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Ardie Grubaugh sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Herbert Lissner played the accompaniment and also presided at the organ for the traditional music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in white antique, embroidered silk, waltz length, fashioned with a basque waist, a round neckline of illusion, long sleeves and a full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a small, head-hugging cap trimmed with pearls and sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Cheryl Waggener was her sister's junior bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length gown of mint green net over taffeta and a green halo trimmed with rhinestones held her very short green veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Mrs. Clark Rouse, as matron of honor, wore pink net over taffeta and her pink halo held a short pink veil. Her colonial bouquet was of white carnations and pink roses.

Robert Parrish of Drayton Plains assisted Mr. Gusie as best man and seating the guests were the bride's brother, Russell Waggener of Dearborn, and Clark Rouse of Clarkston.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Waggener chose a blue, nylon lace dress, a small blue velvet hat and white accessories. Mrs. Duckworth wore navy blue, a small white hat and white accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception for two hundred guests was held at the Clarkston Community Center. The three-tiered, square wedding cake graced the center of a table covered with white organdy. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and was flanked by crystal epergnes holding white

Governor Proclaims Polio Fund Emergency

Because polio-fighting funds have been drained to exhaustion, seriously jeopardizing aid to afflicted patients, Gov. G. Mennen Williams has set aside August 16 through 31 for an emergency March of Dimes campaign. The Governor is pictured showing his official proclamation to 8-

Local 4-H Club Wins At Fair

The Clarkston 4-H Club was well represented at the 4-H Fair in Pontiac last week and the leader, Mrs. Ralph Walton, as well as the members are proud of the recognition they won.

The following were prize winners: Bill Brian, grand champion ram and ewe; Lee Perry, 1st blue on sheep and 3rd sheep showmanship; Al Walton, 1st blue, grand champion ewe lamb, 2nd sheep showmanship and 2nd on aged ewe; Don Moran, blue, 2nd place on Holstein heifer, 2nd on goat; Lela Will, 2nd on rabbits; Betty Gardner, 1st on Angus calf, 2nd on Angus calf and 2nd on vegetable basket; Lynn Walton, 2nd on Angus heifer, 1st place on fruit basket; Marg Faulkenberg, "A" stock horse, "B" model class, "B" western pleasure and "H" horsemanship; Del Rush, 2nd walking class; Lee Perry, "A" model class western horse; Jim Hennig, "A" western pleasure, 1st parade class, 2nd model class, western; Jerry Hennig, "A" western pleasure, 2nd model class.

The 4-H'ers are very grateful to all of the fathers who helped with the parking—it was a big job and required a lot of patience. Also the club wishes to let the mothers know that they appreciated their interest and their work in preparing and serving the noon meal on Saturday.

The Fair was a great success and the attendance was the largest in the history of the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davison returned home on Saturday evening from a three-weeks western trip which covered 7300 miles. Besides visiting many places of interest, including several national parks, they visited friends in Los Angeles and on the return trip they made an overnight stay in Kenosha, Wisconsin, with Mr. Davison's brother and family.

They claim the weather was grand, a little warm at times, but clear most of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hinz and son, Lanny, and daughter, Mary Lynn, of Hillcrest Drive, went to New Hamburg, Ontario, last Friday and spent the weekend with relatives. They attended the Hinz family reunion. Mrs. Hinz is getting along wonderfully well in her wheel chair. She was seriously injured in a car accident when returning from Florida last January. She has been out of a body and leg cast only a few weeks.

When the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls the bride was wearing a beige silk dress with red accessories and at her shoulder was a corsage of red roses. Upon their return they will reside in Drayton Plains.

Barbara graduated from the Clarkston High School in the class of '51 and attended Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant. Carl served in the U. S. Navy for two years.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Flint, Clio, Dearborn, Fraser, Detroit, Roseville, Festus, Mo., and New Orleans, La.

Sashabaw News

The congregation of the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church was spellbound by the eloquence of Dr. L. LaMont Okey as he spoke on "Words and Their Power" last Sunday. Taking illustrations from Scripture, and excerpts from the works of Shakespeare, Carlisle and Steinbeck, Dr. Okey gave a number of dramatic readings which were not only beautiful but dynamic and soul-shaking as well.

Dr. Okey, an outstanding personality, is professor of speech at the University of Michigan, an official of the Congregational Church and regular broadcaster for the Ann Arbor Council of Churches.

The Sashabaw congregation feels it is a privilege to present such a distinguished and versatile speaker and invites the public to hear his message on Sunday, August 22nd, when his topic will be: "The Heart of Abe Lincoln".

So many requests for special recipes served at the Sashabaw smorgasbords were received that the Women's Organization has compiled a cook-book complete with salads, pastries, coffeecakes, and tea-risings, relishes, meats, fish, and poultry, et cetera.

The book is titled "The Best in Cooking in Clarkston" and is selling so fast that a second edition is almost certain.

The recipes found in this book are prize copy from the entire community and environs and would sate the appetite of the most weary cook as an aid in supplementing the daily menus.

For a very small price, the cook-books may be obtained from Mrs. Ward Poole, Orlando 3-8618 or from Mrs. Kenneth Clements, Orlando 3-004.

The Women's Organization of Sashabaw Presbyterian Church again wishes to extend regrets to those who were turned away from the smorgasbord last Saturday evening, and will make every endeavor to accommodate all comers at future suppers.

The unusually large crowd was far beyond expectations, but the ladies promise to be prepared for any number henceforth.

School Principal At Workshop

Among the 42 teachers of economics and allied subjects attending the Sixth Annual Michigan State College Workshop on Economic Education, Aug. 2-20, is Robert Klingman, Clarkston High School Principal.

Teachers attending are selected by their superintendents on the basis of interests and leadership qualities. A large number of participating teachers are granted scholarships provided by the businessmen of Michigan.

Workshop topics include re-tailing, public utilities, transportation, U. S. tariff policy, agriculture, manufacturing, wages and working conditions, competition, small business, labor-management relations, and others.

M. S. C. staff members in charge of the Sixth Annual Workshop are Richard Lindholm, department of economics; Leonard Luker, department of teacher education, and Melvin Segal, department of social science and economics.

Crowd Attends Horse Show

The Michigan Rangers Saddle Club of Davisburg held its 8th Annual Western Horse Show on Sunday, August 15 on the grounds next to the Seaver School on Davisburg Road.

The show scheduled for 10:30 A. M. was delayed an hour because the truck containing the concession supplies was in an accident on the way to the grounds.

Good weather made a perfect day for the show and brought contestants and spectators from all of southeastern Michigan and from as far north as Owosso.

Over 700 people watched the Grand Parade of 150 horses at 2:00 P. M. 7 Clubs were represented, 6 carrying flags, the Michigan Rangers Blue and Gold; Shawassee Green and Gold; Huron Valley, Red and Gold; Lake Orion, Gold and Blue, the Navajo Club of Detroit and the Clio Bit and Spur Club and other clubs from the area.

The American flags were brought forward in the traditional manner for the National Anthem and the parade was led by the home club.

The large number of entries in the events, show that riders are turning to contesting rather than show classes. The largest event was the Spud Race with 51 entries.

Farm Women Plan September Meeting

The Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's Committee is sponsoring a three-course luncheon, many door prizes, and a flower arrangement demonstration, September 29th, at the Clarkston Community Center. The price is very reasonable. Every Farm Bureau member is urged to bring a friend, a city friend if possible. Help make this affair a success for the benefit of polo.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Altman and family are vacationing in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Friday and family enjoyed a two-weeks vacation at their cabin on the Tippacawassee River near Gladwin.

The annual Jones reunion was held Sunday, August 15th at Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rockwell's cottage on Big Fish Lake. A bountiful, pot-luck dinner was served on the lake shore at 1:30. Motor boats riding, swimming and pitching quoits furnished recreation for the afternoon. Barbara Rockwell entertained the group with water skiing stunts. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dennis of Miami, Fla., were guests. There were 92 present. It was voted to have the reunion at the Rockwell cottage another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kerton and daughter, Carolyn, and Ann Letson of Holly returned home on Monday last week from a ten-days stay at St. Mary's River in the Upper Peninsula. Upon returning from the north the Kertons went to Hudson, Mich., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ridgley and daughter, Carolyn. Folks here will be glad to know that Carolyn Ridgley who is a nurse-in-training at the Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, is getting along nicely following a recent operation.

Midn. 1/2 James W. Huttenlocher, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Huttenlocher of 6251 Middle Lake Road, a student at the University of Michigan, is aboard the heavy cruiser USS Pittsburgh, taking part in the summer's second midshipman training cruise to Europe. The training squadron, under the command of Rear Admiral George F. Cooper, USN, left Norfolk, Va., on July 12th and is scheduled to return September 3rd. During the cruise, the midshipmen are assigned duties with members of the ship's crews. They put into practice their classroom instruction at Naval Reserve Officer Training Units at 28 colleges and universities throughout the U. S.

Are You Ready For Big Parade?

Everyone is planning for the biggest and best parade ever held in Clarkston, to take place on Labor Day morning.

Get your costume ready now or plan a float.

Make this the most interesting parade ever to be held in a small town and to do this adults and children should participate. You will find that the parade will be more fun for you if you are a part of it.

The event is sponsored by the Clarkston Rotary Club.

Reminder

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the ice cream social at the Community Center in Clarkston on Saturday evening, August 21st, starting at 5:30. This affair is being sponsored by Job's Daughters of Bethel 25 of Clarkston. There will be no set charge but a free-will offering will be taken.

Young People Meet Newcomer

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warrick entertained a group of about twenty young people at their home on Allen Road, to introduce Candy Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Becker, newcomers to Clarkston.

The evening started with a hayride when the young folks had plenty of fun. They returned to the Warrick home for a wienie roast and a general good time.

Candy will be a sophomore at Michigan State College in the fall.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. William Johnston and son, Richard, and Mrs. Keith Leak and son, Lanny, are enjoying a short vacation at Ipperwash Provincial Park on the shore of Lake Huron in Ontario.

Roger Johnson and Bob Summers returned on Monday night from a trip to Mackinac City, Mackinac Island and Sault Ste. Marie. They had a grand week and enjoyed fine weather. Bob goes to Ypsilanti on August 30, a little early for college, but he has been invited to varsity football practice at Ypsilanti Normal College.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. (Bob) Boyns left New York on Wednesday of last for England. They sailed on the Queen Mary and will return in six weeks on the Queen Elizabeth. This is their first visit with the home folks in England since they left there 30 years ago. Mr. Boyns has three cousins living there and Mrs. Boyns has two sisters. Her one sister was in Africa when she left for America, consequently the two haven't seen each other for 38 years. This will be quite a reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Boyns expected to arrive in Southampton on Monday of this week.

Which low-priced car is lowest priced?

The actual cost of a car to you is the difference between what you pay for it and what it brings you when you sell it.

The real cost of a car to you is the difference between what you buy it for and what you sell it for.
A Ford costs you less to own because it's priced low to start with and it returns more of its original cost when sold than does any other competitive car. Statistics prove it.
It returns more because it's worth more.
Yes, Ford delivers more car, too. It's the only car in its field with a 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or a new 115-h.p. I-block Six . . . new Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . such modern interiors and exteriors. And Ford is also first for choice—with 28 models in 3 great lines.

Take a Test Drive and you'll want to drive it home!

LISTEN AND YOU SHALL HEAR

by Dr. Max Nelson
Assistant Professor of Speech
Michigan State College

It is unfortunate, in the current year of 1954 with its many wonders and marvels of science, that so many problems in the field of hearing are caused by carelessness and ignorance. Especially is this true in the case of children.

Most children are born with normal hearing and yet by many of them are subjected to hearing losses of various degrees. A critical age level in which hearing problems develop is from 2½ to 10 years.

Why is it that hearing problems seem to be easier to ignore than injuries to the limbs or vision? If an arm or leg is injured something should be done immediately and usually is. If a child holds a book close to his face or squints when looking at something, it is usually indicative of vision difficulty.

Could it be that a hearing problem does not tend itself to such obvious scrutiny? That too many factors enter the picture? Perhaps he did not hear because he was not paying attention. Or maybe the other person was not speaking clearly. Or there might have been noises in the background that interfered.

What are some of the signs that would indicate impaired hearing? One might be if a child frequently asks for a repetition of things said to him. Another could be failure to respond when spoken to. He might give irrelevant answers to questions addressed to him. He might tend to turn one ear towards the speaker, to "hear" better when he is looking at the speaker. He might have certain voice or speech peculiarities. Continued failures in school might be another indication of hearing loss.

Two very important signs of possible hearing complications are ear-aches and running ears. A physician should be consulted immediately. If one tries to treat this condition at home, he might cause permanent damage.

What are some of the things that might cause deafness? One area is that of childhood diseases such as chicken-pox, scarlet fever, measles and mumps. Another is the common cold which can cause the middle ear region to become infected. Diseased tonsils and adenoids as well as foreign objects can cause serious consequences to the hearing process.

A child who has a hearing loss lives in a strange world. Many things spoken to him are not heard at all, others are heard only in part. If he does not hear adequately it is doubtful that he will be able to learn to speak normally. He is unable to understand others. It is difficult, if not impossible, for others to understand him. His whole educational and social processes are interfered with and prevented from developing in the way they should. It is not surprising, in view of this over-all picture that some children are mistakenly believed to be mentally retarded and consequently treated in that way.

Do not take a chance with a possible hearing problem. Consult your physician as soon as possible. Early medical help may overcome a serious handicap and help restore hearing.

HAY FEVER SUFFERERS—RAGWEED IS IN BLOOM

Ragweed is in bloom on schedule. There will be a larger crop this year, the Michigan Department of Health says.

A greater amount of ragweed is anticipated according to the Health Department, because vegetation is generally abundant due to increased rainfall.

From July 15 to August 15, the chief pollens are grasses and plantain, according to the State Health Department. But after August 15, ragweed is the most prevalent pollen, constituting around 95 percent of the total count. Goldenrod, the Department adds, is still blamed for hay fever, but that's because the big yellow flowers attract attention. Actually goldenrod pollen is large and sticky and doesn't float through the air. Insects carry it from one flower to another.

In contrast, the State Health Department continues, the tiny flower of the ragweed attracts neither by color, size nor odor. Its pollen distribution depends upon the wind, and therefore much more pollen is produced than is actually needed in pollination.

Two kinds of ragweed are found in Michigan, the State Health Department adds: the common or lesser ragweed that is found abundantly in farm lands, idle fields, backyards, vacant city lots, and along highways and the giant ragweed that thrives in damp or even wet soil along lakes, streams and marshes.

All this, of course, is bad news for the snuffle and sneeze set. But, the Department continues, Michigan has long been a haven for hay fever sufferers. Relief from the effect of ragweed pollen can usually be found in the Upper Peninsula and the northern half of the lower peninsula.

However, the State Health Department concludes, for those who can't get away, there is only temporary relief through medication until the first killing frost of fall.

APPLE SUPPLY IN MICHIGAN TO BE SHORT

If the only apples that will satisfy your taste are the Delicious variety, you'll probably find fewer apples and higher prices in Michigan.

That's the word from George Motts, Michigan State College marketing specialist. Though the total state apple crop will be 14 percent below average, Delicious will be much below that.

Imports from supplies in other states may take up the slack here, though.

The Michigan apple crop is forecast at about 5.7 million bushels, 30 per cent below 1953. There will be a moderate supply of Jonathans and MacIntosh. Now, if your favorite is Northern Spy, they will be a good buy this year.

Motts emphasizes that the price is tied to the overall U. S. crop and the consumer purchasing power, rather than the Michigan production only. And the U. S. crop will be plentiful.

It is early, as yet, to make final predictions on the total crop, especially on prices. More complete and accurate forecasts can be made around September 1, Motts added.

Noted Nutritionist Says Iced Tea Is Low Calorie Thirst Quencher

While discussing summer beverages, at a recent press conference, Dr. Norman Jolliffe, Director of the Bureau of Nutrition of the New York City Department of Health warned weight-watchers to be discreet in quenching their summer thirst. "Water, carbonated water with a little lemon, and iced tea are excellent non-filling, non-fattening cooling beverages. Iced tea," Dr. Jolliffe explained, "when sweetened with a non-caloric sweetener and a dash of lemon, not only refreshes and quenches the thirst, but also appeases the appetite, giving a lift without adding calories that count."

"Since everyone eats less but drinks more in the summer, it is important to know which beverages are one can, nutritionally, afford to drink," Dr. Jolliffe said. To aid those who are watching their weight, he has compiled a table showing the average calorie content of a number of popular hot weather drinks. The table follows:

Beverage	Approx. No. Calories in six fluid ounces
Iced Tea (unsweetened)	4.0
Iced Coffee (unsweetened—without cream)	11.0
Sugar-free carbonated beverages	18.0
Cola Beverages	59.0
Lemonade, frozen	82.0
Carbonated, fruit-flavored beverages	111.0
Grape Juice	111.0
Iced Tea with sugar and lemon	30.0
Iced Coffee with sugar and cream	94.0

"Over indulgence in high calorie beverages can affect health because most of them contain nutritionally inferior calories. Nutritionally inferior calories carry only energy and lack vitamins, minerals and amino acids.

"Anyone drinking an unusual amount of summer beverages with a high sugar content will have the edge taken off his appetite and is likely to cut down on essential foods important to good health, or, if he doesn't cut down on essential foods will put on weight.

"It is essential to drink more liquids during the summer to make up for the water lost from the body through perspiration. On a hot day the body can lose from two and a half to four quarts of water through perspiration. Under extreme conditions this water loss may reach as high as ten quarts. Therefore it is important to know what it is best to drink."

Dr. Jolliffe is one of the world's foremost authorities on health and nutrition. He was a member of the National Research Council, United States Public Health, and a director of the National Vitamin Foundation. Dr. Jolliffe is also author of a popular diet book "Reduce and Stay Reduced," published by Simon and Schuster and Family Circle's "Reducing Diet" Guide.

The parents had tried everything over a period of weeks—ignoring, scolding, demanding and threatening—all with no results. They even tried letting their son eat whenever he liked. But that caused complications in dishwashing and plans for the evening.

Their lively young son, involved in exciting past times before mealtime, just did not attach the same importance to promptness as did his parents. That is understandable, says Mrs. Backus.

Sometimes children need to have the inconvenience they are causing the family pointed out to them in such a way that they really understand the situation. This father suddenly had an inspiration! He asked his small son to "play a game" and show what he would do about the problem if he were the daddy. The boy responded enthusiastically to the game. And after once playing the "daddy" role about dinner, he cooperated with promptness thereafter.

Not all parents would find that "the game" helps to solve similar problems. But these parents found it to be an effective tool in many situations. By this means they helped their child gain an understanding of how the other person feels—helped him see that as a member of a family group certain things are required of him.

CRUSHED BRITTLE PARTY CAKE ...
always successful in my
ELECTRIC RANGE

Besides her women's club and church activities, Mrs. Edward Swackhamer enjoys a round of golf. Naturally, like all good cooks, she also likes to entertain friends. It's easy to make cooking—oven for parties—a pleasure instead of a chore. Her guests particularly enjoy her wonderful crushed brittle party cake—made in her electric range, of course.

CRUSHED BRITTLE PARTY CAKE

1 large sponge cake, sliced
2 cups whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar
Slice sponge cakes across into 4 layers.
Spread bottom layer of cake with whipped cream, sprinkle with ¼ of the crushed brittle. Repeat with next two layers. Place top layer on cake and frost entire cake with whipped cream. Sprinkle with remaining brittle and sliced almonds. Let set for two hours. Keep in cool place.

BRITTLE

1½ cups granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon instant coffee
Melt sugar, instant coffee, corn syrup and hot water together in saucepan. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Boil to 300°-305° F. without stirring. Remove from heat. Stir in soda. Pour into ungreased 9 x 9 inch pan. Cool until hard. Crush.

2 teaspoons vanilla or almond extract
¾ cup sliced almonds
Crushed brittle
Whipped cream, add sugar and extract.
Sprinkle with ¼ of the
Whipped cream, add sugar and extract.
Sprinkle with remaining brittle and sliced almonds. Let set for two hours. Keep in cool place.

1 cup light corn syrup
¼ cup hot water
1 tablespoon soda

COUNTY RALLIES IN SUPPORT OF EMERGENCY DRIVE

As polio cases increase throughout the nation and March of Dimes funds are exhausted, the citizens of Oakland County are rallying in support of the Emergency March of Dimes, Carl W. Donelson, Chairman of the Oakland County Chapter of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, announced today.

Volunteer workers, including many Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts have taken time out from their vacation period to work at the Chapter Office, 75 W. Huron St. Pontiac, to prepare for mailing 75,000 Emergency March of Dimes appeals sent out to county residents.

We are facing a grim financial crisis in the fight against polio, Donelson said.

The crisis arises from a combination of the greatest patient aid load in the history of the National Foundation and our tremendously costly new program of polio prevention.

Our Chapter, so far, this year, has aided 197 polio victims from 1953 and previous years who have required care in the treatment of polio. Some patients, severely crippled, have had hospital bills amounting to over $3,000 paid by the March of Dimes funds. Many patients have required new braces and wheel chairs, physical therapy treatments, and medical care, to assist them in overcoming the crippling effects of polio.

Now as we swing into the 1954 polio season new cases are constantly being aided by our Chapter. We do not know how many new polio cases there will be this year, but we do know none who need assistance shall go without the aid of March of Dimes funds.

Canisters have been placed throughout the county, bearing the picture of a little girl in an iron lung, symbolizing the thousands of polio patients whose lives depend on National Foundation equipment and March of Dimes help.

We know that when the people of Oakland County are aware of the desperate need of polio patients not only in Oakland County but all over the United States they will be glad to help in this emergency, Donelson concluded.

Contributions may be sent directly to the Oakland County Chapter Office of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 75 W. Huron, Pontiac, Mich.

Sandwiches for freezing should be spread generously with butter. If mayonnaise is preferred, it may be added when the sandwiches are ready to be eaten, say food specialists at MSC.

The light texture of angel food and sponge cake depends on the proportion of egg white to other ingredients. Measuring or weighing egg white gives more accurate results since eggs vary in size. A successful measure for angel food is one cup of egg white for each cup of flour.

Oxford, Michigan Sunday School 11:00 A. M. Sunday Service 11:00 A. M. Reading Room, rear of Church, open Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

The importance of relying wholeheartedly on God, divine Mind, for guidance will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Proverbs 3:5,6): "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

The practical availability of spiritual guidance will also be stressed in the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (254:10-12): "When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path."

The Golden Text is from Daniel (2:20,21): "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his... he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding."

TIPS ON FREEZING CORN

Corn on the cob from your home freezer is a treat you will appreciate even more next winter.

But now is the time to prepare that freezer corn... and here are tips from Mrs. Frieda Bennett, home demonstration agent, about freezing it:

Harvest the corn early in the morning. Select ears with well-filled, rounded kernels and sweet flavor. Avoid hard and immature kernels and handle quickly to preserve quality and flavor.

It is best to process corn within two or three hours of harvesting. If it is necessary to hold it overnight, keep corn in the refrigerator or in cracked ice. The M. S. C. specialists advise harvesting and preparing small quantities of corn at a time in order to handle it promptly so that it is frozen at the peak of condition.

To prepare... husk, silk and trim the ears. Blanch on the cob for cut or cream style.

For cut corn, blanch 4 minutes, cool quickly and cut from cob.

For cream style, blanch 4 minutes... cool quickly and scrape off cob.

Remember YOUR HOME NEWSPAPER

All matters handled through the Probate Court require a certain amount of legal publication in one of the county papers. Foreclosing a mortgage entails publication of the foreclosure notice in a county paper.

Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper each week.
